PUBLISHER'S NOTE

THIS List of Assemblies has been compiled to provide a useful guide for Christians who through removal or other circumstances are endeavouring to find a company of believers who are cleaving to God and the Word of His grace. It does not bear the endorsement of any ecclesiastical authority and should not be regarded as official nor as a complete list of companies who claim the promise of Matthew 18. 20.

Its compilation has been undertaken in collaboration with the correspondents of the many assemblies named, and with the help of responsible brethren in the various areas. Endeavour has thus been made to omit any company in which false doctrine or fundamental error is tolerated. While, however, we are exhorted to rebuke unsound teaching, we are likewise exhorted to support the weak (1 Thess. 5. 14), and for that reason assemblies appear on the list which may not be in the healthy condition that most would desire.

In a number of cases assemblies are recorded twice—particularly those adjacent to the large towns—but when indexed under the town an asterisk denotes that they are also indexed under their own postal address. Assemblies included in the 'Greater London Area' are, in addition, placed among assemblies in England.

Notices of corrections, additions, or deletions, should be sent to the publishers for insertion in future issues of the list and for intimation in The Witness. This information will be found useful in keeping the list up-to-date, as far as possible, for the constant changes in the addresses of the assemblies make any list once issued soon out-of-date. The address of an assembly at home or abroad not included through want of information or lack of space may usually be obtained on application to the publishers. In several cases no name of a hall or building is given, and letters addressed to these assemblies should have a designation such as, 'Assembly of Brethren.' If there is no designation the postal authorities may not be able to locate the addressee.

Those who possess a copy of the list are earnestly asked to prevent it from falling into the hands of religious impostors; or being used for financial appeals, commercial transactions, propaganda, or other undesirable purposes.

Suggestions for the improvement of future issues will be greatly appreciated, and to the many who have cordially co-operated in the heavy task of compilation sincere thanks are gratefully tendered.
