

NEW YORK, April 9th, 1892.

To our Brethren gathered with us to the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Beloved Brethren,—

In conformity with the tenor of our letter of Oct. 15th, 1891, you are invited to a meeting to be held, the Lord willing, at Plainfield, N. J., commencing on the morning of the 6th July. The primary object of which meeting will be, as stated in that letter, to consider "our present position and attitude toward our brethren termed 'open,'" although we trust it will not be confined to this, but be also for mutual edification and comfort from the Word of God.

Accommodation will be provided for all; but in view of the numbers that may possibly attend, we are compelled to ask our brethren not to bring their children.

Will those who purpose to be present notify our brother Paul J. Loizeaux of their intention. The meetings will be held on his grounds, as before. Address him, Brook Avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Meanwhile, beloved brethren, we earnestly desire that you, with ourselves, look much to the God of all grace to go before us as to this meeting—to prepare our hearts for it—to bring us there in a spirit of reverence and godly fear, as having to do with Him who is a consuming fire ; and yet with a strong hope, fruit of a living faith, that He will bring wide-spread blessing to His dear children who deeply long for a path where they may walk both in communion with Himself, and at the same time with all who call upon Him out of a pure heart.

Signed, in behalf of the various gatherings mentioned,

JOHN F. GILMORE, East Brooklyn, N. Y.

JAS. C. MANAHAN, Fersey City, N. J.

F. C. JENNINGS, Plainfield, N. J.

JULIUS OVERBURY, Newark, N. J.

WM. C. WHITE, Rahway, N. J.

W. S. ROLSTON, Elizabeth, N. J.

H. E. LAMPE, Rutherford, N. J.

PAUL S. COHN, Passaic, N. J.

P. S.—If convenient for any to bring a blanket, a sheet, and, if possible, a pillow, it would be a great help to those having the care of the meeting, and add to the comfort of those coming.
