INTRODUCTORY NOTICE

THIS translation of the Old Testament has been derived from a study of the common Hebrew text, and represents at the same time a collation of the late J. N. Darby's German and French Versions, he having himself revised the first few books within a short time of his decease.

The completion by Mr. Darby of the French translation, which gives his matured views of the meaning of the Hebrew, was felt by many to be a legacy to the Church of Christ through the labours of His servant that could not be allowed to remain only in the language in which it was written. Those who use this English translation may accordingly expect to find incorporated with it whatever is of special value in the above-mentioned Versions, particularly the French, where the common English Bible is defective.

Much of Mr. Darby's Preface to his German version applies equally to the present Work, as where it is said : ' In the issue of this translation, the purpose is not to offer to the man of letters a learned work, but rather to provide the simple and unlearned reader with as exact a translation as possible. To this end however all available helps have been used, different versions and commentaries having been laid under contribution. All who have laboured in this field know that in many passages even the most learned men are embarrassed; since a language so ancient, quite different in construction and in form of thought from any modern one, must of course present difficulties in translation. But in these cases, as indeed altogether, we can conscientiously say we have worked carefully and prayerfully. In such passages, especially where able Hebraists have erred, and respecting which differences of opinion always continue to assert themselves, we do not pretend to have rendered the original text without fault ; but we hope we can present the whole to the simple reader in a form both exact and intelligible. That is our object. Our work is not a revision of the Bible in common use '—although the reader of the English translation will constantly meet with familiar words and phrases—' because, as we think, the object sought would not so be attained.' The reader may also be referred to Mr. Darby's remarks upon this subject in the Preface to the second or third edition of his English New Testament.

The style of our own excellent so-called Authorised Version, happily familiar, is here preserved, as far as seems consistent with the exactness sought to be attained ; the purpose being ever kept in view of putting the English reader in possession of labours of Mr. Darby which were undertaken in the interest of Christians abroad. The older forms of words are kept for the higher style, suited to the immediate utterances of God and strictly poetical parts.

Our English idiom has been studied, but the difficulty of presenting all in suitable English dress has often been felt, though our resource has been the vocabulary of the Authorised Version, which, from its remarkable richness, almost exhausts the phraseology of the language applicable to sacred subjects. When the common Bible afforded no help in this respect, aid has occasionally been sought from other English Bibles of repute, both ancient and modern. But a certain roughness, derived from close adherence to either the German or the French, will doubtless sometimes be apparent.

Poetical parts are distinguished from the rest by a metrical arrangement to which those are accustomed who use Paragraph Bibles. In some of the books however which have almost wholly this character, especially the Prophets, where the poetical form is often complicated, it has been thought wise to abandon the metrical arrangement, in order to render the paragraphs more easily discoverable and in this way facilitate the study of the text. So too in Proverbs, for the introductory chapters ; whilst the rest of the book, like Job and the Psalms, is arranged in verses, as in ordinary Bibles. In these cases, the paragraphs are indicated by a star ✲ at the beginning.

Another star * marks the grouping of the chapters which form a whole, more or less complete in itself. Attention is called to these especially in the Book of Psalms.

In the Song of Solomon, the paragraphs are arranged, as far as possible, to indicate the successive speakers. In this Book, the stars *, rather than the chapters, mark the main divisions of the subject.

The parallel parts in Kings and Chronicles have been compared, so that the characteristic differences might be readily noticed.

The notes are taken partly from the German, often from the French, while several are added from unpublished comments of Mr. Darby, which he supplied for the purpose, and others are occasionally introduced with the view of securing either greater uniformity or greater clearness.

The names of God have been preserved as far as possible according to the original, either in the text or by help of the notes. To the end of Esther, El is notified at each occurrence; Eloah is marked by an asterisk * prefixed to the word 'God;' see Gen. i. 1; xiv. 18; Deut. xxxii. 15. Other names are noted on their first occurrence, and occasionally so afterwards. From Job to the end, the names of God are distinguished as indicated in the notes at Job iii. 4; Psalms v. 4; xviii. 31:—

The Hebrew Elohim is 'God.' Eloah is '†God.'
El is '*God.'

In the Authorised Version of the English Bible 'GOD' is used as well as 'LORD' for Jehovah, and the form 'LORD' represents both Jehovah and Jah. This inconvenience is obviated by the use of the Hebrew words anglicised, that is 'Jehovah,' and 'Jah,' where they respectively occur, and by rendering Adonai regularly 'Lord.' In the later Psalms the form Hallelujah, 'Praise ye Jah,' has been maintained wherever the sense allowed it. It is a sort of heading to many Psalms. An exception may be noted in Psalm cxlvii. 1. For 'Jehovah Elohim,' see the note at Genesis i. 1. It will be noticed how characteristic is Adonai Jehovah, 'the Lord Jehovah,' of the Books of Ezekiel and Amos. [The English reader may compare the forms, 'the Lord GOD' and 'the LORD thy God,' in Isaiah vii. 7, 11.]

In the Prophets, brackets have been preserved at 'am' in the expression 'I [am] Jehovah,' &c., so often occurring, especially in Ezekiel, as they will help the reader the more readily to distinguish the character and use of the various names of God, as compared with 'I AM,' Exod. iii. 14. In 'I,' Heb. ani (the pronoun without the verb), may be expressed the conscious will of existence which in a divine Being is associated with the existence in itself. Compare also 'I [am] HE,' Isa. xli. 4, &c.

The ordinary orthography of proper names has been adhered to, subject to numerous and necessary corrections; and so Abel is preferred to Hebel, Enoch to Chanoch, Ezekiel to Jehizekel. It has, at the same time, been thought best that the Hebrew should speak for itself in one way or another; that is to say, that modifications in the spelling of a name should be represented in the corresponding English, either in text or notes. Very often the Authorised Version obscures a name through following a modification arising merely, according to the Hebrew idiom, from the change of a vowel when a word is 'in pause,' that is, at the end of a hemistich or verse; as for instance, when e becomes a. In such cases the normal e has been reproduced; and thus in Gen. xxxviii. 30, Zerah instead of Zarah (A.V.), with which compare xxxvi. 13. The second member of a double name when also found separately is spelled with a capital; for example, Tubal-Cain, El-Paran; but on the other hand, Pi-hahiroth. (Gen. iv. 22; xiv. 6; Ex. xiv. 2.)

Considerable difficulty has been experienced as to brackets, in which even the Authorised Version with its corresponding italics is often inconsistent. Such words as 'it' have not been bracketed when merely abstract, or when felt to be logically necessary; and so when a pronoun replaces a noun governed in Hebrew by two verbs: this cannot be considered a word added to the text. An exception has been made in the case of there being a legitimate doubt as to the propriety of the word supplied, in order to allow the reader the opportunity of replacing it by one he might consider more appropriate.

Italics indicate emphasis.

Following this notice is a translation of the 'Introduction' to the French Bible, which was written in 1881.

The complete Volume of the Old Testament is again committed to the Lord with a grateful sense of His goodness in permitting this service to His people, notwithstanding the insufficiency of the labourers, who would naturally shrink from such a task, laid upon them to meet the need of those who value a literal translation : deeply do they feel that it can be accomplished only through His mercy. With unfeigned joy and thankfulness do they acknowledge His gracious hand in the hearty co-operation already received, and they look to Him to follow with His blessing the use of the book into whosesoever hands it may come, that the diligent reader may be enabled better to apprehend the mind of the Spirit in these Scriptures of the Old Dispensation ' which are able to make wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.'

INTRODUCTION

To write an introduction to the Bible seems to me a deeply serious and difficult matter. To take up a Book which is the harmonious whole of all God's thoughts, of all His ways with regard to man, and of His determinate purpose as to the Christ, and as to man in Him; wherein also is set forth the revelation of what God is, of man's responsibility, and of what God Himself has done for man, as well as of the new relationships with God into which man enters through Christ;—a Book which reveals what God is in His nature morally, and the dispensations in which He glorifies Himself in the sight of the heavens and their inhabitants; which lays bare the secrets and the state of the human heart, and at the same time unveils before it things invisible; which begins where the past touches eternity, and leads us on through a development and a solution of all moral questions to the final point where the future merges in eternity, according to God;—which fathoms moral questions in the perfect light of God revealed, and makes known to us the groundwork of new relationships with Him, according to what He is, and what He is in infinite love . . . to undertake, I say, to open up the path (in as far as it may be given to man to be the instrument for it, for God alone can do it effectually) so that the mind of man may understand the ways of God as He has revealed them, is a task that may well make one recoil before its difficulty and seriousness, when we reflect that we have to do with God's thoughts as revealed by Himself. How marvellous indeed is this divine parenthesis in the midst of eternity, in which the febrile activity of the fallen creature displays itself in thoughts which all perish, urged on by him who wields his power as a liar and a murderer; but in which also the nature and the thoughts of God, His moral being and His determinate purpose, until then eternally hidden in Himself, are, while testing man and manifesting what he is, revealed and fulfilled through the Son, that they may in their final result appear in an eternity of glory to come, in which God, surrounded by blissful creatures who know Him and understand Him, will manifest Himself as Light and Love in the full results of His own eternal and imperishable thoughts; but where also all that has been wrought by His grace and wisdom throughout the things that are seen here below, will be displayed in its glorious and eternal fruits; where God—Father, Son, and Holy Ghost—known of Himself before time was, will be known by innumerable blessed beings—known by them in their own happiness when time shall be no more. And this world is the wonderful sphere where everything is made to work to that end; and the heart of man the scene wherein all takes place and is morally wrought out, if so be that God, in whom and by whom and for whom are all these things, dwell in him by His Spirit to give him intelligence; and if Christ, who is the Object of all that is done, be his sole Object. The Bible, then, is the revelation which God has given to us of all this wondrous system, and of all the facts which relate to it. Is it surprising that one shrinks from the task of opening up such things? But we have to do with a God of goodness, who delights to help us in everything that may conduce to an intelligent apprehension of the revelation which He has been pleased to give us of His thoughts.

There are certain great principles that mark this revelation, which we would notice before going into the details.

The first great idea that stamps its character on the revelation of God, is that of the two Adams—the first man and the Second; the responsible man, and the Man of God's counsels, in whom God, whilst confirming the principle of responsibility, reveals Himself, as well as His sovereign counsels and the grace which reigns through righteousness. These two principles predominate throughout the contents of the Bible. But although, in the ways of God, His goodness shewed itself continually until His Son came, yet grace, in the full force of the term, was only prophetically revealed, and withal veiled so as not to interfere with the then subsisting relations of man with God, and often in forms which can only be understood when the New Testament has furnished us with the key to them.

This brings me to two other principles which are found revealed and developed in the scriptures. The one is God's government in the scene of this world, a government sure and certain, though long hidden, unless indeed on a small scale in Israel, and even then obscured in the eyes of men, because iniquity prevailed (Psalm lxxiii), and because God had ways of deeper moment as well as greater blessings in store for His own in the midst of this government,—ways, in which, for the spiritual good of His people, He made use of the evils He permitted to arise. The history contained in the Bible unfolds to the spiritual man the course of these ways; the Psalms give reflections upon them by the Spirit of Christ in His own, rising betimes in their expressions up to the experience of Christ Himself, and thus becoming directly prophetic. But I am anticipating a little. The other divine principle is sovereign grace, which takes up poor sinners, blots out their sins, and places them in the same glory as the Son (become man for this), 'conformed to the image of His Son,' effecting this according to the righteousness of God, by means of Christ's sacrifice, by which He has fully glorified God in respect of sin. Some features of this sovereign grace are found in God's government, and are displayed when the result of His government is brought out; but it is fully disclosed in the heavenly glory.

Intimately connected with this government of God is the Law; it establishes the rule of good and evil according to God, and founds it upon His authority. The Lord furnishes us with the expression of it, in drawing from various parts of the Pentateuch principles, which, were they established and operative in the heart, would lead to obedience, and to the accomplishment of God's will, and would be productive of human righteousness. The Ten Commandments do not create duty, the existence of which is founded on the relationships in which God has set man.

There is this difference between the principles of the law as laid down by Jesus, and the Ten Commandments, that the principles drawn by Him from the books of Moses comprehend absolute good in all its extent without question of sin, whilst the Ten Commandments suppose sin to be there, and, with one exception, are prohibitory of all unfaithfulness to the relationships of which they treat. It is important to notice that the last of these commandments forbids the first motion of the heart towards the sins previously condemned: 'the sting is in the tail.' Moreover, the various relationships were the basis of duty, the commandments forbidding men to fail in them. But the principle of law, of any law, is this: that the approbation of Him to whom I am responsible, my reception in favour by Him who has the right to judge of my faithfulness to my responsibility, or of my shortcomings—in a word, my happiness—depends upon what I am in this respect, upon what I am towards Him. For the relationships are established by the Creator's will and authority, and when I fail in them, I sin against Him who established them. Although the sin may be directly against the person I am in relation with, yet as the obligation was imposed by the will of God and is the expression of His will, I in fact despise His authority and disobey Him. The principle of law is that the acceptance of the person depends upon his conduct; grace does what it pleases in goodness, in conformity to the nature and the character of Him who acts in grace.

There was another important element in the ways of God, contrasting with the law, and that is the promises. These began with the Fall itself, but, as a principle in the ways of God, with Abraham, when the world was already fallen, not only into sin, but into idolatry, Satan and demons having taken possession of the place of God in man's mind. Now Abram's election, his call, and the gift of the promises made to him, were all connected with grace. Thus Abram followed God * towards the country that God pointed out to him, but in it he possessed not whereon to set his foot. This introduces another vital principle, that of living by faith, receiving God's word as such, and counting upon His faithful goodness. The promise evidently depended upon grace; it was not the thing given, though this was assured by the word of God; and faith counted upon the promise, and more or less clearly introduced the thought of blessing outside the world; otherwise, he who had faith obtained nothing by his faith. The consciousness of God's favour was doubtless so far something, but it depended upon faith in His fidelity as to what He had promised. But in connection with promises there is an important point to notice: there are unconditional, and there are conditional promises. The promises made to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, were unconditional; whereas those made at Sinai were conditional. God's word never confounds them. Moses calls to remembrance the promises made to Abraham, Isaac, and Israel (Ex. xxxii. 13); Solomon, what came in under Moses (1 Kings viii. 51–53); Nehemiah i, refers to Moses; Nehemiah ix, first to Abraham as the source of all, then to Moses, when it becomes a question of God's ways. It is of this difference that the apostle speaks in Galatians iii. 16–20. Under the law, when there was a Mediator, the enjoyment of the effect of the promise depended upon the faithfulness of Israel, as much as upon the fidelity of God; but then all was lost from the outset. The fulfilment of the simple promise of God depended upon His fidelity; in this case, all was sure. We learn further, by the passage alluded to in the Epistle to the Galatians, that it is to Christ, the Second Man, that the promises made to Abraham were confirmed, and they will be fulfilled surely—all of them Yea, and all Amen—when His day, which the prophets had ever in view, shall come. But here the difference, already pointed out, between the government of this world and sovereign grace, again finds its application. The grace that sets us in heaven is not prophesied of at all; prophecy belongs to what is earthly, and so far as relates to the Lord Jesus, contains the revelation of what He was to be upon the earth at His first coming; and then continues with what He will be upon the earth when He comes again, without alluding to that which should take place in the interval between those two events. Still, the facts as to the Person of the Lord are announced in those Psalms which reveal to us more of His personal history; His resurrection (Ps. xvi), His ascension (Ps. lxviii), His session at the right hand of God (Ps. cx); and as to the Holy Spirit, they teach us that Christ would receive it as man—that the gifts are not only gifts of God, but that Christ would receive them בָּאָדָם 'in Man,' that is, as Man in connection with mankind. On the other hand, except the desires of David in Psalm lxxii and cxlv, where the subject treated of is what concerns the Lord's Person, the Psalms do not take up the state of things that shall follow His return: whilst in the prophets, this future state is amply described in the fulfilment of the promises made to the Jews, and its consequences for the Gentiles. There is another point that may be noticed: when the prophets on God's part give encouragements to faith for the time then present, and to meet trying circumstances, the Spirit of God uses this to penetrate into the future, when God will interpose in favour of His people.* But I am going, perhaps, too much into detail.

Finally, when sin had already come in, when the law had been broken, and when too the prophets sent by God had in vain recalled the children of Israel to their duty and claimed fruit for God from His vine,—the promised Messiah came with proofs of His mission so evident that human intelligence could, and in fact did, recognise them. (John ii. 23; iii. 2.) God spoke in the Person of the Son (Heb. i), the great promised Prophet. But at the same time the Father was revealed in the Son, and man would not have God. The Son of God was delivering man from all the outward evils sin had brought into the world, and from Satan's power in this respect; but this manifestation of God in goodness did but bring out the hatred of man's heart against Him; the Jews also lost all right to the promises, and man rejected God manifested in goodness here below. The history of responsible man was closed; for we are not here speaking of grace, except so far as God's presence in grace tested man's responsibility: not only had sin come in, and the law been broken, but men could not endure God's presence when He was in their midst in goodness, not imputing to them their sins. All relation of man with God was impossible on the ground of what man is in himself, notwithstanding the miracles accomplished by Jesus, which were all goodness,† and not merely power; it was as He Himself said (John xv. 22–25): 'They have no cloke for their sin .... they have both seen and hated both me and my Father' (the expression always used by John when he speaks of God acting in grace). Yea, and this is a solemn statement, man's history morally is ended. But, blessed be God, it is in order to open the door of infinite grace to Him who reveals Himself as the God of grace in the Son. (John xii. 31–33.) The cross of Christ said, Man will not have God, not even when come in grace (2 Cor. v. 17–19); but it said also, God is infinite in grace, not sparing His own Son, in order to reconcile man to Himself.*

* This is connected with what is said in 2 Peter i. 20, 21. The circumstances of the moment do not explain the full bearing of the prophetical scriptures; what is said forms part of the great system of God's ways.

I turn back now to trace the ways of God briefly, and historically, in connection with man's responsibility. It is striking to observe in man's history, that whatever good thing God set up, the first thing that man ever did was to ruin it. Man's first act was an act of disobedience; he fell into sin, and broke all relation between himself and God; he was afraid of Him who had filled his cup with blessings. Noah, escaped from the deluge that had swallowed up a whole world except his own family, becomes drunken, and authority is dishonoured and lost in him. Whilst the law was being given, before Moses came down from the mount, Israel made for themselves the golden calf. Nadab and Abihu offer strange fire on the first day of their service, and Aaron is forbidden to enter into the most holy place in his robes of glory and beauty, and indeed in any robe at all, except on the great day of atonement. (Lev. xvi.) In the same way Solomon, David's son, falls into idolatry, and the kingdom becomes divided. The first head of the Gentiles, if we go on to speak of him on whom God conferred the ruling power, made a great image, and persecuted those who were faithful to Jehovah. Nor has the external or professing church escaped the common law of disobedience and ruin any more than the rest.

If we now consider God's ways as to man in the interval of time between Adam and the Christ, we find first of all, man in a state of innocence placed in the enjoyment of earthly blessings, without trouble of any kind; evil having no existence. Responsibility was set forth in the prohibition to eat of a certain tree. This prohibition or law did not suppose evil: Adam might have eaten of the tree, as of any other tree, if it had not been forbidden; it was purely a matter of obedience. Man yielded to the temptation; he lost God, hiding himself from His face, before he was driven out; then he was judicially driven out of the garden where he could enjoy God's presence, who in fact came to seek him there in the cool of the day: and he acquired a conscience; he learned, and that in spite of himself, not by an imposed law but inwardly, to make the distinction between good and evil. No doubt, conscience may be dreadfully hardened or misguided, but still it is there, in man; when a man does what is wrong, his conscience condemns him. God's law is the rule of the conscience, but is not itself the conscience which makes use of this rule. But from that time forth, man was fallen; he had disobeyed, and renounced his allegiance to God, dreading Him, hiding from Him if that had been possible; and then was driven out of the garden, deprived of all those blessings through which he had enjoyed God's goodness and was able to own Him and even to enjoy His presence, for God came to walk in the garden. Self-will and lust had entered into his nature, guilt and the dread of God into his position; and then, too, he was judicially driven out from a place which was no longer suited to his condition, and, morally, out of God's own presence. What a horrible thing, if he had been able to eat of the tree of life, and fill the world with immortal sinners, having no more fear of death than of God! God allowed it not.

But there are some very interesting circumstances to note in connection with the judgment under which man had fallen. We have seen that Adam fled from the presence of God. The judgment pronounced upon him, upon Adam and Eve (Gen. iii. 14–19) is an earthly judgment, not a judgment of the soul. Adam, and Eve also, are placed in a state of misery, and under the yoke of suffering and death. Before being driven out, Adam, by faith, as it seems, recognises life in the place wherein death had entered (Gen. iii. 20); but there is more; there is the promise made to the woman, of the seed which should bruise the serpent's head: the Christ, seed of the woman by whom evil entered into the world, was to destroy all the power of the

* The rejection of the Christ, come as the promised Messiah, and being at the same time God manifested in flesh—the end of God's ways with His people, and the manifestation of man's hatred of God coincided; and Israel's forfeiture of all right to the promises, and man's condemnation in his natural state, on the ground of responsibility, took place simultaneously.

Enemy. Then as sin had destroyed innocence, and given, through the shame of nakedness, a conscious sense of its loss, God Himself, by causing death to intervene, clothed Adam and his wife, and covered their nakedness. (Gen. iii. 21.) Before this, there was unconsciousness of evil; now evil is known, but is covered by God's own act. Man had sought to hide his sin from himself; but when he hears God's voice, his fig-leaves are nothing worth; they are of no avail to an awakened conscience in the presence of God: 'I hid myself,' he said, 'for I was naked.' So also before driving him out, God did not restore his innocence, which indeed was impossible; He did better: He clothed Adam and his wife, so that He might see His own work, that is, what was suited to Him in the state in which they were, accomplished by Him in His grace, besides the crushing of him who had led them into evil. Still man was driven out of the garden, where he had enjoyed all God's blessings without faith, to till the ground, to die, and until death to be separated from the God who before had walked in the cool of the day in the garden where he had dwelt. Man, thenceforth, knew God only by faith, if faith was in his heart—a new, all-important principle: he had lost God, had acquired a conscience, and, if he could, must live in painful toil to gain a temporal subsistence; he must find God, if he could; but he was from thenceforth outside the precincts which God frequented, and where His abundant blessings were dispensed without suffering or labour. Man had fled from God's presence, and God had driven him out. Adam was no longer in the relation in which God had formed him to be with Himself, either as to the state of his soul, or judicially: he was in sin. I repeat, man had fled from the presence of God, and God had driven him from the position in which He had placed him when He created him; he was estranged from God, with a bad conscience, knowing God just enough to be afraid of Him, having learned however that the seed of the woman should bruise the serpent's head, and being clothed by the grace and the work of God in a garment that bore witness to death, but which, as coming from God, covered, and that perfectly, the nakedness the consciousness of which was the expression of man's fall and of his state of sin. Man was now outside—could he enter, anywhere into God's presence to adore Him, to be morally with Him whom he had forsaken?

Abel offered a sacrifice, which cost him nothing, so to speak; but he offered it by faith, owning that he was a sinner, outside the garden, at a distance from God, and that death had come in; but recognising in God the grace that had covered his parents' nakedness, and drawing nigh to Him by a propitiatory sacrifice, which alone could take away sin, and through which alone a sinner could draw nigh to God in virtue of the death of another. God's character in love and righteousness, and on the other hand, the state of Abel, were recognised in his offering: he offered it by faith, and God accepted it, as He accepted Abel himself with it, bearing witness to his gifts. (Heb. xi. 4.) Abel was accepted of God according to the value of his gifts, that is, of Christ. God Himself covered Adam's nakedness; Abel comes, acknowledging his position, and the expiatory sacrifice by which alone he could enter into God's presence. Cain, on the contrary, presents himself with the fruit of his hard labour. Man, since he was out of God's presence, must draw near to Him to worship Him: all who are not openly apostates, not only from Christ but from God, acknowledge this. Cain acknowledges it, but how? He thinks he can come just as he is. And why not? As to sin, he thinks not of it. The fact that God had driven man out of paradise made no change in his thoughts; he presents himself as though nothing had happened; and, morally blind and insensible, he offers the fruit of his own work, it is true, but which was in itself the sign of the curse that was then lying upon the earth. He neither recognised what he was himself, nor what God was; neither sin, nor the curse that was lying on his work, as the fruit of sin. Once outside paradise, man had to approach God; and God Himself tells us for all ages, in this treasury of great principles laid up in Genesis, how this can be done. All these histories contain the groundwork of our relations with God, while shewing at the same time the state of man.

Sin becomes complete: we have already had sin against God; sin against a brother follows. Cain was irritated because God had refused him, and murder comes in: Cain kills his brother. God puts the question to him, not now saying as before to Adam: 'Where art thou?' for Adam ought to have been in the presence of his God full of joy, and 'Where art thou?' involved his actual position; but God says: 'What hast thou done?' First of all, however, God addresses Cain on the subject of his relations with Himself. 'If thou doest well,' He said, 'shalt thou not be accepted?' and: 'unto thee shall be his desire,* and thou shalt rule over him'—'if thou doest not well, sin, or a sacrifice for sin (the Hebrew word has both meanings) is ready to hand' (literally, 'is lying at the door')—that is, there is a remedy. It is parenthetical, but these are the general principles of our relations with God. If a man does what is good, he is accepted of God, and if he does what is evil, there is a sacrifice for sin which the grace of God has set at the door. Notice here that Abel's sacrifice was not a sacrifice for sin: neither Cain nor Abel came before God with the conscience oppressed by a known transgression. It is the state of each of them that is in view, the state of man before God: the one, the man who owns himself driven out from God's presence, and who draws nigh to God according to grace; the other, the natural man, insensible to sin. In God's answer to Cain, the subject is positive transgression, and this confirms the idea that in the passage (ver. 7) a sacrifice for sin is meant, and not sin itself. But Cain, as I said, becomes guilty of sin against his brother; he fills up the measure of sin in its second character, which for Adam was impossible. God pronounces sentence upon Cain, who, cursed in his labour, fugitive and vagabond, abandons himself to despair; then, leaving altogether the presence of God, who spoke with him, he proceeds to establish himself in the land where God had made him a vagabond ('Nod') and the world begins. Cain builds a city, and calls it after his son; his children grow rich, they invent working in metals, and the refinements of the arts are introduced; they make themselves as happy as they can without God. I have no doubt, that besides the general truth, we have in Cain a type of the Jews as having slain the Lord: they carry their mark on their forehead. Lamech follows the bent of his own will, and takes two wives, but he is, I think, a type of Israel in the last days; Seth is the man after God's counsels—Christ. The two families are established upon the earth; but already the hatred of the one against the other shews itself in Cain and Abel. (Compare 1 John iii. 11, 12.) In the meantime we have God's testimony: Enoch, who announces the coming of the Christ in judgment, and Noah, who passes through the judgment of the earth, and, as it were, comes to life again for a new world.

I have enlarged somewhat on this part of the history, because it gives us the state of fallen man, and the principles according to which he is in relation with God, without religious institutions, though not without testimony on God's part. Eternal life is also shewn figuratively in Enoch, as in Abel the sacrifice by which fallen man can approach God, and in Adam and Eve (in the state of judgment in which man is), sovereign grace, which clothed them before driving them out; then, in Noah, the end of the age is announced, and the judgment is gone through. We find all this in its main principles in grace, recalled in Hebrews xi. 1–7. But fallen man grew worse and worse; Noah alone remained, whom God saved when He destroyed the world.

We should note carefully as to the facts thus far recorded, that although far deeper principles, eternal in their nature and their effect, are contained in them, the history of this epoch of judgment upon Adam and of the judgment of the world, is a history of this world, and that the judgments are governmental, and belong to the course of things here below.

A new world begins with Noah. It begins with sacrifice; and here 'burnt-offerings' are expressly named; they were acceptable to God. God would no more curse the earth, nor again smite every living soul, but the seasons should follow in their course, according to God's established order, as long as the earth lasted. But man is no longer, as he was before in paradise, the authority that in sovereign right gave names to the animals in peace: the fear of man was to keep them in awe; man might eat them, but blood, the sign of life, he was not to touch. Then magisterial authority was established to restrain the violence that had broken loose. He that should take man's life must lose his own: God would require blood at the hands of him who shed it; and man was invested with the authority necessary to enforce this law. And God gave the bow in the cloud as a sign of His covenant with the whole creation, in witness that there should no more be a deluge.

It is under this order of government that we live now on the earth. But Noah, in the enjoyment of the blessing granted to him, failed to maintain his position, became drunken, and was dishonoured. The world is divided into three parts: one in relationship with God; another, a cursed race, named in view of Israel's history; thirdly, the mass of the Gentiles. Man seeks to become great upon the earth, and to centralise the power of the race, yet one; but God confounds their purposes with their language: then imperial power is set up on the earth in Nimrod. Babel and the land of Shinar begin to be conspicuous: this is our world.

Another important element now stands out in the history: the introduction of idolatry. Not only does Satan, as tempter, make man wicked, but he makes himself into a god for man, in order to help him to satisfy his passions. Having lost God, with whom, nevertheless, he had been in relation, and had made a fresh beginning in Noah, man made a god of everything in which the power of nature shewed itself, making of it a plaything for his imagination, and using it to satisfy his lusts. It was all he had. Even that part of the race that was in relationship with Jehovah (Gen. ix. 26) is specially noticed as having fallen to that depth. (Joshua xxiv. 2.) Terrible fall! Although man could not free himself from the consciousness that there was a God, a Being who was above him, and though he feared Him, he created for himself a multitude of inferior gods, in whose presence he would seek to drive away this dread, and obtain an answer to his desires, hiding that which always, in reality, continued to be an 'unknown God.' Everything took the form of 'God' in man's eyes; the stars, his ancestors, the sons of Noah, and members of the human race still more ancient and less known, the power of nature, all that was not man but acted and operated without him—the reproduction of nature after its death, the generation of living creatures. The true God he had not; yet needed a God, and in a state of dependence and wretchedness, he made gods for himself according to his passions and imagination, and Satan took advantage of it. Poor mankind without God! Then God interposed sovereignly, reducing also, as we may note in passing, the length of man's life by half after the flood, and by as much again in Peleg's time, when the earth was methodically divided.

But, as I have just said, the universal influence of idolatry led to an intervention on God's part which stamped its character on His most important ways: He called Abraham, and caused him to come out from the surrounding corruption, in order to have him as the stock of a people that should belong to Him. In him, the father of the faithful, are shewn forth three or even four great principles; God's sovereign will, otherwise called election, then God's call, the promises, and continual worship by a man who was a stranger on the earth. This last circumstance, the possession of the promises with the non-possession of the things promised, drew out the affections and hope to that which was outside this world, though still indeed in a vague way; but other revelations were added. These principles have characterised the people of God from that day forth.

This then is the sum of these new ways of God: the world having given itself up to idolatry, God called out a man to belong to Him, outside the world, making him the depositary of His promises. There had been faithful men before, but not the stock of a race (as Adam was of the fallen race); but Abraham is the head of a race, for even we ourselves, as being Christ's, are the seed of Abraham.

Nothing can be more instructive than the life of Abraham; but here we can only notice that which characterises the ways of God. Abraham declared that he was a pilgrim and a stranger; he erected an altar to God when he came into the land which God had given him, but in which he possessed no place whereon to set his foot; he had nothing but his tent and his altar. He pitched his tent, and built his altar, wherever he dwelt. He failed, and without consulting God, went down into Egypt. God preserved him, but Abraham had no altar from the time of his leaving the land of Canaan, until his return to it. A numerous posterity (Israel) to whom the land was to be given in possession, was promised to him; besides that, all the nations of the earth were to be blessed in him. After the son, in whom were the promises, had been offered to God, and he had received him again as risen, the promise of blessing to the Gentiles was confirmed to the seed—that is, to Christ. (Compare Gal. iii. 16.) The promises are without condition, that is, they belong to God's determinate purpose. Israel will be blessed through them in the last days; Christians, not to speak of other revelations and things fulfilled that are of infinite importance, enjoy them already. Sarah desired 'the seed,' according to the flesh, before the time. But all had to be on the ground of promise: it is grace, faith and hope; for at that time nothing was fulfilled (and this still remains true as to the glory, except in regard to the Person of the Christ), only God was the God of Abraham, as also of Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise. In Isaac, we have the type of the relations of Christ to the church; in Jacob, we descend into the sphere of the earthly people.

Afterwards, when Jacob had come into Egypt, the Israelites were subjected to the yoke of slavery, to the hard bondage of the Egyptians, as we are to sin in the flesh. This introduces another deeply important principle, that of redemption, and in connection with it yet another, the existence of a people of God upon earth, in the midst of whom God dwelt. (Ex. iii. 7, 8; vi. 1–8; xxix. 45, 46.) It is sovereign grace that considers the affliction of the people, and hears their cry; but the Israelites were in sin as well as the Egyptians: how could God deliver them? He found a ransom; the blood of the Paschal lamb, figure of Christ, was sprinkled in faith on the lintel and two sideposts of the door, and God, who was smiting in judgment, 'passed over' the people sheltered by the blood. Israel ate the lamb that had been sacrificed, and had secured them from judgment; they ate it with bitter herbs and unleavened bread—with the bitterness of humiliation and truth in the heart, their loins girded, their staff in their hands, their sandals on their feet; they left Egypt in haste. Then follows the deliverance of the people when they were come to the sea: 'Stand still, and see the salvation of Jehovah.' Egypt's power falls under executed judgment; Israel is out of Egypt, delivered and brought to God: redemption is complete, and the people shall no more see the Egyptians for ever. (Ex. xiv, xv.)

There was also a life that God cherished: Israel had to drink of the bitter waters of death (Marah), which Christ underwent in its reality for us. They were fed with the manna (Christ), were made to drink of the water from the rock (the Spirit of God), and were sustained from on high in conflict. But all is grace; God acts in grace, and is glorified where man fails; man too is with God, for redemption brings us to God (Ex. xix. 4); only the journey under grace, in order to attain this, is added in its great principles. The Sabbath is established: the redeemed people had their part in God's rest; this is connected with the manna, Christ, as is conflict with the water from the rock.

Some verses of chapter xv of this Book of Exodus here claim our attention. We find on the one hand: 'Thou by thy mercy hast led forth the people that thou hast redeemed; thou hast guided them by thy strength into the abode of thy holiness' (ver. 13); but on the other hand, we read in verse 17: 'Thou wilt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance, the place that thou, Jehovah, hast made thy dwelling. . . . .' That is, they are brought to God Himself; their redemption is absolute and complete; but they were also to be introduced into the promised inheritance. The reader will notice that it is no question of the wilderness, either in Exodus iii or Exodus vi, or here, Exodus xv. 1–21: the work of redemption being perfect, the wilderness is not necessary: the thief was fit to be with Christ in paradise, and so are we. (Col. i. 12.) The wilderness forms no part of God's counsels, which, so far as we are concerned, refer to redemption, and the inheritance; but it does form part of God's ways. See Deut. viii. 2, 3, &c.; God proves us, that we may know ourselves, and know Him. Those who make a profession are put to the test on the ground of an accomplished redemption: if they have not life, they fall on the way, whilst true believers persevere to the end. Then again, the state of the people is tested, and they are chastened. (Deut. viii. 5, 15, 16.) In this position we are, in principle, under the law; it is what we are before God in respect of His government; but it is under the rod of the priesthood that we are led. (The death of Aaron ends this part of the type; and the 'red heifer' is a special provision for the defilements which are contracted in the wilderness.) It is otherwise when justification is the subject: then, at the end of the wilderness journey—our life of probation here below—it is said: 'According to this time (that is, at the end of the wilderness) it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath GOD wrought?' All through the wilderness, the question was, What had Israel done?

As the Red Sea, in type, was the death of Christ for us, so the Jordan represents our death with Him; then comes our warfare, as God's host, with spiritual wickedness in heavenly places. But before this, there is Gilgal, the application of our death with Christ to our state of soul, in practical detail. The camp was always at Gilgal: the remembrance, by faith, of our identification with Christ in death (in the Jordan), is at Gilgal; then, the manna, the provision of a Christ come down here below, for the wilderness, is replaced by the old corn of the land, a heavenly Christ; and the Captain of Jehovah's host comes forward.

Success in warfare and blessing in the wilderness depended upon the state of those who were in close connection with God Himself: He blessed them, but He ruled in the midst of His people. These two things, the wilderness and warfare—the warfare waged by Israel as Jehovah's host—are found not indeed at the same moment, but during the same course of human life. But salvation, that is, redemption, is at the Red Sea; deliverance, as a thing experienced, is at the Jordan. The rod smote the sea; and the sea was no more, unless indeed as a safeguard for the people: the ark remained in the Jordan until all had passed over. It is well to notice that conditions and 'if's' do not refer to salvation, but to the wilderness journey; then, for those who have faith and life, there is, together with the 'if', the promise of being kept until the end, so that there is no uncertainty for faith; but here it is a matter of relations with a living God known experimentally, and not an accomplished work.

As to Israel historically, they had accepted the promises at Sinai, on condition of their own obedience. That is the first covenant, established by means of a Mediator, which supposes two parties; the enjoyment of the effect of the promise, depending as it did upon the faithfulness of man quite as much as upon the fidelity of God, was not more sure than the weaker of the two parties; and in fact the golden calf had been made even before Moses came down from the mountain. The new covenant will be established with Israel and Judah as the old one was. It will be when the Lord shall return and forgive their sins, not remembering them any more, and accomplishing His work in writing His law in their hearts, and not upon tables of stone. But the fact is of all importance that the people, at Sinai, consented to receive blessing on the condition of precedent obedience: this changed and aggravated the character of the sin, inasmuch as not only were the things themselves evil, but they amounted to a breach of the law, which formally connected God's authority with the obligation of the relationships which it forbade to violate. The relationships and obligation existed already, but the law made the breach of the latter a positive transgression against God's express will: under it, not only was human righteousness at stake, but also God's authority. The last commandment, 'Thou shalt not covet,' &c., as we have said, did not deal with actual sin, even in the flesh, but with its first motions, and, for a soul born of God, led to the discovery of the root of sin in the flesh. But if all were fulfilled, it was never anything more than human righteousness.

Another great truth already noticed now found its realisation: God dwells on earth in the midst of His people. God had set up His throne in the midst of Israel: two things were in connection with it—first, the direct government of God, known by faith as the God of all the earth, and next, it was there that God was approached. God did not reveal Himself, He was hidden behind the veil; but there the sacrifices were presented: all the relations of religion (or at least of worship) of the people with God were carried into effect and centred there. There God's dwelling was purified yearly; there Israel's sins were blotted out by sacrifices that were figures of the sacrifice of Christ. At the same time the tabernacle was the expression of heavenly things; only the veil which closed the entrance into the most holy place was not yet rent, and man could not enter the most holy place, save only the high priest once a year. Such was the state of the people. They had accepted the law, as the condition, from that time forth, of the fulfilment of the promises; God's presence was in the midst of the people, but inaccessible, behind the veil, and God's government was carried on in the midst of the people, and for their good. But the tabernacle and all its ordinances were only a shadow, and not the 'very image' of the things: and this is the reason why we have more of contrast than of comparison in the Epistle to the Hebrews.

Let us notice, in passing, God's grace and condescension in His ways with His people. Was Israel in bondage? God came as Redeemer.

Must the people wander as pilgrims in the wilderness? God also dwelt in a tent in their midst. Must they wage war in Canaan? God appeared with a drawn sword, as Captain of Jehovah's host. Were they established in peace in Canaan? God had a dwelling built for Him like to the palaces of the kings.

The journey through the wilderness accomplished, a few words require to be said on Deuteronomy, which is a book by itself. This will give me the opportunity of noticing the character of the entire Pentateuch; but my remarks shall be short.

GENESIS lays the foundations and all the great principles of the relations of man with God: there we find creation, Satan, the fall, sacrifice, the separation of the saints from the world, the judgment of the world, government to put a check upon evil, the call of God when idolatry set in, the promises, the seed of God; those that were His, pilgrims and strangers, but with a regular worship—otherwise no religious institutions; then the resurrection, in Isaac; the Jews, the earthly people, in Jacob. In EXODUS we have redemption, the law, the tabernacle, a people of God, the presence of God on His throne on earth, the old covenant, the priesthood. In LEVITICUS, the detail of the sacrifices, ceremonial purity, and particularly that which concerns leprosy, the great day of atonement, the feasts, the Sabbatical year, and the jubilee, when every one returned into his inheritance; and prophetical denunciations in case of disobedience. In NUMBERS, the numbering of the people, the separation of the Levites, the law of jealousy, Nazariteship, the history of the journey through the wilderness under the leading of the cloud and under the priesthood, and, together with the history of the conduct of the children of Israel during this journey—the red heifer; the people, except two men and the little children, perish in the wilderness: the judgment of God is pronounced, according to His sovereign grace, by Balaam. We find also in this book the details of the sacrifices for feast days and especially for the feast of tabernacles, vows, the taking possession of the land on the eastern side of Jordan, the brazen serpent, the Levites' inheritance, and the cities of refuge. Though there be history in all these books, the history itself, not only the rites and ceremonies, is typical of spiritual things: 'All these things happened to them as types,' says Paul, 'and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages are come.' (1 Cor. x. 1–13.) We have no proof that, with the exception of Leviticus viii, ix, one single sacrifice was offered in the wilderness, unless to Moloch and Remphan. The Book of DEUTERONOMY occupies a place by itself: it supposes that the people are in the land; it reminds them of their disobedience, and insists upon obedience: its object is to keep the people in close connection with Jehovah. A place was to be appointed in the land, where the ark and worship should be set up, where all the feasts were to be celebrated, and all offerings and tithes brought, except that which was given in the third year, to the Levite, in the place where he dwelt;* the priests are scarcely mentioned; it is the people in direct relationship with Jehovah: blessing would rest upon obedience, and judgment upon disobedience. The book concludes with a prophetical song, announcing the apostasy of the people and the judgment of God, a judgment which would fall upon the nations that should oppress Israel. In Exodus and Leviticus, the point is approach to God; here, in Deuteronomy, the enjoyment of Jehovah's blessings (and that, too, in a spirit of grace toward those who should be in need), both as directly under the hand of Jehovah, and in faithfully keeping the law given by Him. Several ordinances, relating to feasts and to the cities of refuge, are repeated; but the distinguishing character of the Book is a people without king or prophet (although the priests are named, they hardly ever appear) put in possession of the land to serve Jehovah, who had given it to them. God, however, raised up, when necessary, at the time to which this book refers, extraordinary men to re-establish the affairs of the people, when they were fallen into decline through their sins; but it was, essentially, Jehovah and the people.

The taking possession of the land of Canaan is related in the Book of JOSHUA. The people's responsibility is clearly brought out, but, on the whole, God was with them, and no enemy could stand in war against them. God was with Joshua as long as he lived, and this continued during the life of those who had been eye-witnesses of the marvellous works of Jehovah.

* This may be seen, historically, in the Apocryphal Books. (See Tobit i. 6–8.)

But immediately afterwards (in JUDGES), the people fell into idolatry. Having failed to exterminate the nations upon whom God was executing judgment by their means, the children of Israel learned their wicked and idolatrous ways, fell under the judgment of God, and were given over into the hand of divers tyrants and persecutors. God raised up a judge from time to time, and there was relief and blessing during his life; but after his death, the people fell again into the same disobedience, and were afresh given over to their enemies.

At length in time, the ark was taken, and the relations of Israel with God on the ground of their own responsibility were at an end. God, however, continues His ways, and the taking of the ark becomes the occasion of making them evident: Christ is the centre of them; He is Prophet, Priest, and King. The high priest was the point of contact between the people, as responsible, and God; the ark, the place where this contact was maintained: but the ark was taken. There could henceforth be no more day of atonement, no more throne of God in the midst of the people, no more sprinkling of blood according to the order of the house of God! Where was He who sat between the cherubim? He failed not to smite the false god with His mighty power, only He did it not in Israel, but in the Philistines' land. All was over for Israel on the ground of their responsibility; but God's sovereignty and His supreme goodness could not be set aside, nor limited. God intervenes by a prophet, and raises up Samuel, as He had in bygone days brought the people up from Egypt, before the ark was with them. The prophet sent by God in His sovereignty, is the link between the people and God. God Himself was the King in Israel; but the people wished to be like the Gentiles, and to walk by sight, and not by faith, and they set up a human king, Saul. He was in general successful; but being abandoned of God through his disobedience (which was that of Israel), he fell by the hand of the enemies for whose destruction he had been raised up. But God, in view of Christ, would have a king, and David was this king. The priest, the prophet, and the king reveal God's thought as to the Anointed. But the son of David, blessed as he was, failed, as man has ever done, and the kingdom was divided.

Some remarks should be made as to royalty itself. Royalty is properly effective power in action, and, in the kingdom of God, it is God's power, the king who reigns for God in Israel, the intervention of God in power. We have had the walk of responsible man under the priesthood, and side by side with that, the prophet who acted on God's behalf, by the word; this in itself was grace: but now power is joined to grace to accomplish God's designs. God knew well how to deliver and avenge Himself of false gods, without man; but He was minded to reign in Man: this is the third character of Christ. As Prince of peace, it is indeed Solomon who is the type of the Lord; but the exercise of His power is shewn characteristically in David as a sufferer and deliverer: this will be the means of the re-establishment of Israel, in the last days. In Psalm lxxii we have the king, and the king's son. It is David who brings back the ark from Kirjath-Jearim, but he does not place it again in the tabernacle where the outward form of worship existed, but upon Mount Zion, which God had chosen to be the seat of royalty. See Ps. cxxxii; 2 Sam. vii; 1 Chron. xvi. 34. Then, for the first time (for here it was grace, and grace exercised in power), David institutes the singing of the hymn: 'For His mercy endureth for ever.' This hymn was again sung under Nehemiah, a striking occasion for it, and we hear it already, as prepared for the last days, in Psalms cvi, cvii, cxviii, cxxxvi. Although royalty was historically placed on the footing of responsibility, the great and unfailing principle of grace acting in power was now established—the sure goodness of God toward Israel, in the Person of the Christ: 'For his mercy endureth for ever.' An unfailing posterity and house were promised to David. (2 Sam. vii. 12–16; 1 Chron. xvii. 11–14.) The Christ, the true Son of David, had a place clearly defined and determined by God, although for the time being, the house of David was set under responsibility, and failed forthwith. (2 Sam. xxiii. 5; compare Heb. xii. 18–22.) The temple built upon Mount Moriah, although surely the habitation of God, had not this promise of enduring for ever.

JOSHUA, beginning with death at Gilgal, gives us the spiritual power of Christ, the Chief and Leader of His people. The Book of JUDGES shews to us the people's fall, but the intervention of God in grace; then comes SAMUEL, the last of the Judges, and then Royalty.

Israel, that is the ten tribes, soon abandoned Jehovah, though priding themselves in His name; Judah's decline was less rapid. This is the history related to us in the KINGS and CHRONICLES, the last being written, or at any rate finished, after the return from Babylon. The Book of Kings is (after the division of the kingdom) especially the history of Israel, and that of the intervention of Jehovah by means of Elijah and Elisha; but the history of Judah is continued, up to the captivity. The Book of Chronicles is the history of the family of David.* Israel severed themselves from the temple, and in fact from Jehovah, by setting up the worship of the golden calves. Responsibility is attached to the kingly functions, but Israel never departed from their false position. But whether for Israel or for Judah, this period is characterised by prophets sent of God. God thought of the faithful in Israel, when the prophet could find none, a touching testimony of His grace! Great as was the prophet, who did not even pass through death, Elijah found but himself alone where God knew seven thousand. But the prophets in Israel, and those that bore testimony in Judah, had very distinct characters. A large portion of the Book of Kings relates to us the history of Elijah and Elisha: their testimony referred to Jehovah's rights in the midst of an apostate people, and served to maintain, in the heart of the faithful hidden in the midst of this people, faith in Him whom the people had abandoned. There was no testimony as to the coming Messiah,† nor as to God's ways in general; but there were miracles that we do not find (except a sign given to Hezekiah) in the prophets of Judah, because in Judah the profession of the worship of Jehovah still existed. Elijah and Elisha kept up in their persons the testimony of Jehovah in the midst of an apostate people, and, as did Moses in setting it up, performed miracles to maintain this testimony personally. The prophets in Judah insisted upon faithfulness in the midst of a people that professed to serve the true God and to possess His temple, and encouraged personal faith, not by miracles which declared that Jehovah was mighty, but by promise, which belonged to the people according to the love of God and His unfailing faithfulness.

Israel was lost amongst the nations, led captive by the Assyrians, but not for ever (the Messiah, when He comes, will find the ten tribes again), whilst the public ways of God were pursued in the history of Judah. The ministry of the prophets continued until, as Jeremiah says, there was no more remedy, that is, up to the Babylonian captivity, and even after it. But the Babylonian captivity was of immense import, as regards the earth: the throne of God ceased to be upon earth, there was no longer any throne of God upon it: the times of the Gentiles, of the power of the Beasts in Daniel, had begun, and will continue until the last Beast be destroyed by the power of the Lord Jesus, at His coming. Only the Christ had to be presented to them as King: this is the history of the gospel as far as concerned the Jews, thenceforth vagabonds upon the earth, although not lost, as was Israel, amongst the Gentiles, but having God's mark upon them to preserve them for the days of blessing that await them when they shall repent—a remnant at the least—and shall look upon Him whom they pierced. The expressions: 'God of the heavens,' and 'God of the whole earth,' are never confounded in prophecy. The history of Israel under the old covenant, under which blessing depended upon man's obedience, was at an end; but promise still remained,—the promise, that is, of the Messiah

* There is a great difference between the David of Chronicles and that of Samuel. The king in 1 Chronicles is the David of grace and blessing according to the counsels of God. The king in Samuel is the historical David exercised in responsibility. In Chronicles we do not find the matter of Uriah nor that of Absalom. It is a question of God's mind: no evil is reported, save that which is necessary to make us understand the history. Even Joab with all his crimes, who is not cited in 2 Samuel v, xxiii, is here mentioned because he took the stronghold of Zion. This shews what value Zion has in the eyes of God and in what way the Chronicles regard the history. In the Book of Kings it is the history of Israel and the conduct of the kings under responsibility.

† I have no doubt that we have, for the spiritual eye, a hidden testimony in their persons. Elijah places again, so to speak, the violated law in Jehovah's hands, in Horeb; then he follows each step of Israel: Gilgal, where they were set apart for God; Bethel, the place of the earthly promise made to Jacob; Jericho, the place of the curse; then the Jordan, or death; and Elijah goes up to heaven. From thence Elisha passes through death again and enters upon his career of service. But Elijah's miracles are miracles of judgment; Elisha's, except the second, are miracles of goodness and grace.

and of the new covenant. Then God in His goodness, put into the heart of Cyrus, who had not given himself up to the gross idolatry of Babylon, and hated idols, to cause at least a remnant of Israel to return to the land of promise, and further, to help to re-establish the temple of the true God, and His worship. Thither the promised Messiah came in His time, but for purposes yet far more glorious, putting man, nevertheless, to a last test. Come in humiliation in order to be near to man, shewing at the same time by His words and His works who He was, that He was over all, but come in goodness and grace towards man, accessible to all, abolishing all the effects of sin, He encountered sin itself manifested in its true character in man, in the rejection of God thus present.

Man, then, was tried in his innocence by the Enemy, and fell; he was tried without law, and sin reigned; under the law, and he transgressed it; afterwards, when man had become a sinner and transgressor, God came in goodness, not imputing his sins to him, and man would not have God. The history of responsible man was ended from that time forth; Israel also had lost all claim to the fulfilment of the promises, otherwise unconditional, —having rejected Him in whom this fulfilment was to be found.

It only remains for me to give some idea of the prophecies, in order to facilitate the understanding of these revelations of God; and then to pass rapidly the Hagiographa in review.

Of all the prophets, ISAIAH takes in the most extended horizon. As long as Israel is owned of God, the Assyrian is the enemy. It will be thus in the last days, and whilst that which the prophets say of him encouraged the faith of their contemporaries, what they announced will not have its complete fulfilment until those days. A brief analysis of Isaiah will furnish us with the entire compass of prophecy, the other prophets giving us details that require but few words. The first four chapters form a preface which shews the moral ruin of Judah and Jerusalem and the judgments which should fall upon her, and her restoration, bringing in peace and turning to naught man and his glory, and revealing Christ the glory of the remnant. The judgment in chapter v is founded upon the people's giving up what God had made them at the beginning; in chapter vi, it is based upon their incapacity to stand in the presence of God, who was about to come;—these are the grounds of the judgment of man, of Israel, and of the church: but there was to be a remnant in the midst of the blindness of the people. Then we find Immanuel, the Son of the Virgin, the sure foundation of the confidence of faith; and the Assyrian, the rod of God, but also (until the end of chapter ix. 7) the effect of the presence of Immanuel, a stone of stumbling for the people, from whom God hides His face, but yet a Sanctuary, and finally the Restorer of the people in glory. Chapters vii, viii, ix. 1–7 are a parenthesis to introduce Christ. Chapter ix. 8 resumes the thread of the people's history with its different phases, verses 8–12; 13–17; 18–21; x. 1–4; then comes the Assyrian, through whom the chastisements are brought to an end. Chapters xi and xii depict the full blessing at the end: the Holy One of Israel is again in the midst of the people. This completes the review of the great elements of the prophecy. Chapters xiii–xxvii announce the judgment of the Gentiles, of Babel where Israel was captive, the characteristic city of the times of the Gentiles and Israel's captivity. The judgment of the Assyrian comes after that of Babylon, shewing that the last days are in question, for in history, Babel's greatness and empire were founded upon the fall of the Assyrian. After Babylon come the other countries; only, in chapter xviii, we have Israel brought back to their land, but despoiled by the Gentiles just at the moment when they seemed about to flourish. Jerusalem and its head undergo judgment; then the whole world is convulsed, and the Lord comes, whom the faithful were awaiting. The powers of evil, on high, are judged, and the kings of the earth, upon the earth. (Chap. xxiv. 21.) The veil which hindered the Gentiles from seeing shall be taken away, the reproach of the people shall be abolished, and the first resurrection will take place; the power of the Serpent among the peoples will be destroyed; Jehovah will care for Israel as a vineyard in which He finds His pleasure. (Chaps. xxv–xxvii.) In chapters xxviii–xxxiii a series of special prophecies portray the last assault of the Gentiles against Israel, in which the Edomite and Assyrian are conspicuous, but each of these prophecies ends with the full blessing of Israel, and the presence of the King (Christ). Then come four chapters containing the history of Sennacherib, which furnished the occasion for the prophecy, but in which Hezekiah healed—figure of Christ risen—and the deliverance from the attack of the Assyrian, prefigure the events of the last days. From chapter xl to the end, we find the controversy of Jehovah with Israel, because the latter had forsaken Him for idols, and, with this, the judgment of Babel, the great vessel of this idolatry upon earth, which Cyrus (called by name) captured—in a word the judgment of idolatry; and then the rejection of the Christ. The first part reaches up to the end of chapter xlviii; then Christ is the subject from chapter xlix until the end of chapter lvii: God will have righteousness. Then, after some reproaches addressed to Israel, we have their glory in the last days.

I have enlarged a little upon Isaiah, because the whole range of prophecy, at the time when Israel was owned, is contained in it, as well as the thoughts of God. Daniel, on the other hand, gives us the history of the 'Beasts,' when the Jews are in captivity, and, consequently, outside God's direct government in Israel. The other prophets take up details: Jeremiah, the ruin of Judah, the state of things within; Ezekiel, Israel already rejected.

JEREMIAH insists upon the iniquity that had brought on the ruin, but in chapter xxxi he announces grace and a new covenant with Judah and Israel, and in this chapter, also, and the two following, full blessing upon Judah and Israel; after which is the judgment upon the nations.

EZEKIEL introduces Jehovah Himself, executing judgment upon Jerusalem, when, at the same time, He quits His throne which is there no longer; thus Judah and Israel are in the same position before God, and Ezekiel speaks of them both. In chapters xxxiv–xxxvii, Israel is restored by God, and purified, Judah and Israel are joined together to be separated no more; Christ (David) is there, and the tabernacle of God is with them. In chapters xxxviii, xxxix, the northern power, Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, rises up to lay waste the land, making known by the judgment that Jehovah then executes upon him, the name of Jehovah, and that Israel had been in captivity on account of their iniquities. Then Ezekiel gives the plan of the new temple.

To DANIEL, captive at Babylon, but keeping himself pure from all defilement, are confided all the events of the history of the four Gentile monarchies. The first six chapters of this prophet relate the histories of these empires as belonging to the world: Daniel is but an interpreter. The last six chapters shew us the same empires in their relations with captive Israel. As always, Israel's deliverance and the judgment of their oppressors come at the end. Daniel shall have his part in this joy.

HOSEA predicts the transporting of the ten tribes, and then he announces that by the captivity of Judah there would no longer be a recognised people of God upon earth, but that at the end they should set up for themselves one only Head (Christ): and the day of blessing should be great. Israel should remain a long time without the true God and without false gods, without sacrifice and without idols, but would own Jehovah and David (Christ) in the last days: their repentance is depicted in the last chapter.

JOEL foretells, on the occasion of a famine, the destruction of the northern army, and then the gift of the Spirit to all flesh before the terrible day shall come.

AMOS, after having threatened judgment that should be executed upon different nations of Canaan, declares that the patience of God will no longer bear with the iniquity of Israel, but he sets forth also, as do all the prophets, the return and blessing of Israel, adding that they shall never more be rooted out of their land.

OBADIAH is a prophecy against Edom, whose jealousy of Jerusalem and implacable hatred are often spoken of; then he announces the day of Jehovah for the judgment of the nations, and the deliverance of Zion, as always.

JONAH has a special character; if Jehovah had chosen Israel to be a people apart to preserve the knowledge of His name upon the earth, He is none the less the God of the Gentiles, and a God of goodness and mercy. When privileges put into the shade the knowledge of what God is in Himself, the possession of these privileges becomes a stern party spirit: this was clearly shewn in the Jews. It is remarkable that in Jonah the testimony of divine mercy is addressed to the great enemy of God's people. We see also in this prophet the ways of God when repentance is manifested; furthermore, in some respects Jonah is a well-known type of the Saviour. The subject of chapter iv is in contrast with the special blessing upon the Jews at the end; God is likewise the God of the nations.

MICAH resembles Isaiah in many points, but the development of God's plans is much less complete in his book, while he appeals more to the conscience of the people; but the promises made to Abraham and to Jacob will be fulfilled.

In NAHUM, God's indignation is aroused against the pride of human power and dominion, and Nineveh (the Assyrian) is destroyed: the race will never be reinstated, and Judah is finally delivered.

HABAKKUK is the expression of faith in Jehovah, in spite of everything, and of God's ways in the history of the people. The prophet complains of the iniquity that surrounds him in Israel: God shews to him the Chaldeans, whom He is bringing to visit the land in judgment because of this iniquity; then the prophet's affection for the people is awakened, and he complains of the Chaldeans; and God shews him that he must live by faith: He will punish these violent enemies, whose passions He had used as a rod to chasten Israel; but the man of faith must wait. The day of Jehovah shall come, and the earth shall be covered with the knowledge of the glory of Jehovah as the waters cover the sea. The prophet recalls the former deliverance of Israel, and rejoices in Jehovah, although no blessing from Him be apparent.

ZEPHANIAH announces a judgment upon the land, which will allow no iniquity to escape,—the day of Jehovah, a day of wrath, of trouble and of anguish, when the land shall be devoured by Jehovah's wrath. The meek will have to seek Jehovah to be 'sheltered' (chap. ii. 3); first of all Israel, then the Gentiles shall be judged, the Assyrian being their head (for here Israel is owned); then comes that which concerns Jerusalem, as though God had said, She will repent; but she became corrupt, going from bad to worse. The prophet takes this opportunity to call the remnant to wait upon Jehovah, who was about to gather all the nations to judge them in His anger. Then, everything would be changed: all the nations would call upon Jehovah out of a pure heart, and Israel should be brought back to Him in hearty repentance, iniquity would be found in them no longer, and they should be for a people of renown and glory amongst all the nations of the earth; a fitting conclusion to all God's ways spoken of by the prophets.

The prophets that follow prophesied after the return from Babylon, and have another character.

HAGGAI is full of interest, though simple and short. He would have the people to think of Jehovah and not of their worldly interests; he would have them to set to work again to build the House, whose progress the enemies had interrupted, and that they should do it, trusting in Jehovah, and without waiting for the leave of the king of Persia.: the Jews did so, and in fact, when they acted by faith, Providence helped them by the king's authorisation. But for faith, God undertook all for them, and He controls the hearts of kings. It is the order of faith acting according to God's word, here given by the prophets Haggai and Zechariah. At the same time, this furnishes the prophet with the opportunity of announcing that God was going to shake the heavens and the earth, so that all human power, as well as the spiritual powers in the air, should be set aside. Then will be fulfilled that which the children cried by inspiration when Jesus entered Jerusalem: 'Peace in heaven,'—and the power of Christ, the Head of Israel, will be established, identified with that of Jehovah.

ZECHARIAH takes up the re-establishment of Jerusalem at that time, but giving the history of the city until the first coming of the Christ, and even until the second. He speaks, indeed, of the destruction of the nations who laid Jerusalem waste, but of this only incidentally. Jerusalem is justified, then blessed by the administration of grace, according to perfect and divine order; the wicked are segregated, and find their place with Babylon; and Christ is brought in. There is a second prophecy beginning with chapter vii, and which, in chapter xi, introduces the rejection of Christ at His first coming; and Israel is given up into the hands of a wicked shepherd. Then Jerusalem will be the place where the nations shall be judged, and the spirit of repentance shall be poured upon the people because of the death of the Man who is Jehovah's fellow. Jerusalem will be taken, but Jehovah shall come forth to judge her enemies, and everything in her shall be sanctified.

MALACHI shews us the moral decay of the people after their return from Babylon; but there will be a remnant. John the Baptist's mission is predicted, the day of Jehovah is coming, and the advent of Elijah is announced ; the people are brought back to the law. Notice carefully that Christianity does not appear here, but the Christ and His rejection ; the Shepherd (Zech. xiii) is smitten and the sheep are scattered, then follows the judgment. It is easily perceived that, in these three prophecies uttered after the return from Babylon, when one of the 'Beasts' had already fallen, although the nations be necessarily alluded to (for it was their time—they possessed the world), the range of prophecy grows considerably narrower, and we find much more direct detail in relation to the Christ. The great actors amongst the nations are there, and there they find themselves judged ; they are there, awaiting the last judgments, to make way for Babylon and the Beasts, whose history we have in Daniel, all associated with the captivity of the Jews in that city, for this captivity characterised the position. Up to that time there had been the Assyrian, but the throne of God had been in the midst of the people at Jerusalem ; now, though the captivity under the dominion of the Gentiles still subsists and is recognised, the horizon, I repeat, gets narrower, and the scene is more filled with Christ Himself, and details in connection with restored Jerusalem ; then comes the great day of Jehovah.

It remains for me to say a few words on the Hagiographa.

DANIEL is reckoned among the latter by the Jews. We have spoken of his book as a book of prophecy, although it has a distinct character, the throne of God having disappeared from off the earth, and the prophet being at Babylon ; but still it partakes of the character of the other Hagiographa, which are moral discourses, histories of detail, when Israel was rejected—the expression of the Christ's affection for Israel : we find God's relations with man in them, and the providential care He takes of His people, when He had no relations with them as a people, and did not own them as such.

The PSALMS exhibit this state of things more completely than any other book whatever. Two principles lay the foundation of the entire Book (Ps. i, ii) : the first, that there is in the midst of the wicked a God-fearing remnant ; the second, that Jehovah and His Anointed meet with opposition from the people and the Gentiles. Then we have the counsels of God in the Anointed, Son of God, and King in Zion, and then Ruler over all the earth : if He is rejected, His people must suffer, take up their cross (Ps. iii–vii). In Psalm viii He is the Son of man set over all the works of God's hand. With Psalm ix the history in the midst of Israel begins. Some principles may here be useful as a clue to facilitate the reading of the Book. It is well known that the Psalms are divided into five Books, as follows : Psalm i–xli ; xlii–lxxii ; lxxiii–lxxxix ; xc–cvi ; cvii–cl. The form of the Book in general lays down a basis of thought, then provides expressions for the experience of the remnant in the circumstances given as the basis. Thus Psalms ix, x lay the basis ; the Psalms following, until the end of Psalm xviii, are the expression of the sentiments that are in connection with them : only the last three more directly present Christ. Psalm xviii is remarkable in that it connects all the history of Israel, from Egypt until the end, with the sufferings of Christ. Psalms xix, xx, and xxi are the testimonies of God ; the Creation, the Law, and Christ ; Psalm xxi introducing Christ in glory. Psalm xxii presents Him, not in connection with the Jews, but made sin before God. Prior to Psalm xxv, we do not find confession of sins. It is more a question of the Christ personally in this first Book ; the remnant, too, is at Jerusalem, but in presence of the power of the wicked. In the second Book the remnant is outside Jerusalem. In Psalm xlv the Messiah is introduced, and thenceforward the name of Jehovah. When we meet with the name of Jehovah, faith recognises the relationship. (Compare Ps. xiv and liii.) I may here remark that the first verse or verses of a Psalm habitually give the thesis, and the following verses describe the path by which this point is reached. In this second Book the afflictions of Christ are fully described, and then the desires of David for the establishment of his Son in His millennial kingdom. The third Book, whilst mentioning Judah and Zion, takes in the whole of Israel, and thus goes back and reviews the people's history, following it up to the sure covenant made with Abraham and with his seed. The fourth Book, after recalling Moses, and how Jehovah had been the God of Israel in all times, and after speaking of the Messiah and of the Sabbath, introduces the reign of Jehovah, and describes its progress from above until He shall be seated between the cherubim and the nations called to worship before Him. We have there the principles of the reign of Christ, His rejection, His divinity, and the duration of His days as the risen Man, the blessing of the people and of the world by His presence: God remembers His promise to Abraham. Israel has been unfaithful, but God, in grace, remembers them. The fifth Book goes on to the end; it sets forth the principles and ways of Jehovah, the return of the people to their land (the Psalms of Degrees), Christ in the meantime having sat down at God's right hand, Lord, as Son of David. The goodness of Jehovah endureth for ever, the law is written in the heart of Israel which had been astray. Then, after the Psalms of Degrees, and the judgment of Babylon, comes the great 'Hallel' or Hallelujah, a series of hymns of praise. The only Psalms which describe, even prophetically, the kingdom itself are lxxii and cxlv. The Book begins by a rejected Christ; then, introducing His return to set up the kingdom, it speaks of the ways of the people, and their return to their land. Note also that you never find the Father in the Psalms, nor the feelings that belong to adoption. Confidence, obedience, faith in the midst of difficulties, devotedness (as in Psalm lxiii), faith in the promises, fidelity, all these things we find, but never the relation of son with a father. Through not paying attention to this point, the character of the piety of many sincere souls has been lowered by the very reading of this precious Book.

The PREACHER, or 'Ecclesiastes,' inquires whether it be possible to find happiness under the sun. All is vanity in man's efforts; but there is a law, the perfect rule of man's conduct, and every work shall be weighed at the judgment of God. There is no positive relationship with God in this book; we find in it God the Creator, and man in the world such as it is—not Jehovah, still less the Father.

In the PROVERBS it is otherwise; they present to us the wisdom of that authority which restrains man's will, corruption and violence, the satisfying of self which is man's danger; then the counsels of God, in that the Wisdom of God (Christ), the Object of God's good pleasure, finds its delight in the sons of men, and that before the world was. (Chap. viii.) All here is either Jehovah or God who has made Himself known and acts by means of an authority confided to man, to parents, &c. Then God supplies us in this Book with that which teaches a man to avoid the snares laid in this poor world, without being obliged himself to learn all its iniquity.

In EZRA and NEHEMIAH we find the nationality of Israel doubly reinstated, religiously and politically. Ezra comes after Joshua and Zerubbabel. In the latter we see men who act by faith: in the midst of their enemies, they erect an altar to be a defence against them; they count upon God. (Ezra iii. 2.) The prophets Haggai and Zechariah encouraged the Jews on God's behalf, and God answered their faith. Later on comes Ezra, a faithful man, devoted and confiding in God: instructed in the law, he brings order into their walk. Yet it seems to me that under the influence the natural soil of the human heart, this order degenerated into Pharisaism. For the moment, faithfulness on their part demanded that they should keep themselves separate as the people of God, require a known Jewish genealogy, especially so in the case of the priests, and that they should send away the strange wives. Nehemiah restores the walls and the city: he is a faithful and devoted man, but one who likes to talk of his faithfulness; for the word presents these two things as they are.

The Book of ESTHER tells us in what manner God in His providence, whilst hiding Himself, takes care of Israel. It has often been remarked that God is not named in this book: that is just what is fitting, for the subject is God's providence when God does not openly shew Himself.

The SONG OF SONGS is, I believe, the renewal of the relations of the Son of David with the faithful remnant of Israel in the last days, when that remnant shall be for Him Hephzi-bah, 'my delight is in her.' (Isaiah lxii. 4.) We may remark that He always speaks to the Shulamite when He speaks of her; she speaks of Him as the object of her affections, but not to Him. The church's affection is calmer than that which we find here, because the church already enjoys the love of Christ as a known thing, being in a well-established relationship, although the consequences of it be not all accomplished. Individually the believer can enter more fully into it.

There are two little portions of the Hagiographa that in our Bibles are detached from them; they are: The LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH and RUTH. The touching story of this latter, which reveals the most primitive customs, and, at the same time, the most delicate and beautiful incidents of character, bearing unmistakably the stamp of reality, is important as retracing the genealogy of David, and consequently that of Christ, a Gentile woman being admitted into it. The LAMENTATIONS have that character of sorrow which is imparted by the feeling that God has smitten His people, overthrown His altar, and destroyed His house. For the time being, under the old covenant, it is all over with Jerusalem and the people of God. Jeremiah sees as with the eye of God from within, and there is no longer any remedy! Now, it will be remembered that the books of Ezra and Nehemiah relate the return of a Jewish remnant, brought back by the mercy of God, in order that there might be a people to whom grace could present Him who had been promised.

The responsibility of man, as man, as being answerable for his own conduct, had been fully put to the test without law, and under the law; but the goodness of God from the time of the fall, before man had been driven out of the garden of Eden, had given the promise of a Saviour, who was to crush the serpent's head. Except that which was necessary to replenish the new world, the flood made an end of the fallen race plunged in corruption and violence. In this new world all soon fell into idolatry. Then grace called Abraham, and the formal promises of the Seed were given to him. Four hundred and thirty years later, the race, separated for God, was put under the law, a perfect rule of what man ought to be, if we take into account the prohibition of lust. The prophets recalled the law to the people's conscience, but at the same time they sustained the faith of those who remained true in the midst of general unfaithfulness, recalling, confirming, and developing the promise of the Seed, and of the coming of the great and terrible day of Jehovah. See, as an instance, the last words of Malachi's prophecy. (Chap. iv.) The promise of the Seed was repeated by the prophets constantly, and the appeal to conscience, until there was no longer any remedy. Yet God fulfilled the promise in sending the Christ, the seed of David. This was grace—faithfulness to His promise, without doubt, on God's part, and in this sense righteousness in God (this is the force of 2 Peter i. 1), but it was not a question of man's responsibility to keep a rule that had been imposed upon him, but of receiving the Christ. There was more: Christ was the Word made flesh. God Himself was in Christ, reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their sins to them. But He came to His own, and His own received Him not; the world would not have Him, it knew Him not; His own did not receive Him; yet the Father was manifested in the Son, in His words and in His works, and the world knew Him not: 'They have both seen and hated,' said the Saviour, 'both me and my Father.' Thus the Jews lost all right to the promises in rejecting Him in whom they were being fulfilled. But what is much more, not only was man disobedient, he was that already, but whilst thus disobedient he shewed his hatred against God manifested in grace. On the side of man's responsibility, all relationship with God was impossible. The cross was the public manifestation of this rejection, of this enmity against God; but it was at the same time the manifestation of the love of God for man such as he was. But more than this, it was the accomplishment of a perfect work of propitiation—a sacrifice to take away sin, an entirely new basis of relationship between man and God, depending, not upon man's responsibility—on this ground man was lost—but on the infinite grace of God that spared not His own Son, who, by the eternal Spirit, offered Himself without spot to God, so that grace might reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord. The promises will be fulfilled; and the believer possesses eternal life, and will possess it in glory, made like unto the Son of God, re-entered as man into the glory, in order that the heart of God may be satisfied in love, and His holy righteousness manifested and honoured, and that His Son who left the glory for us and humbled Himself in obedience unto death, may be fully glorified, according to the glory that is His due. Thus we have entered upon the ground of the gospel.

The NEW TESTAMENT, as we readily perceive, has a very different character from the Old, in that, if the latter gives us the revelation of the thoughts which God communicated to those who were the instruments of this revelation, and makes us adore the wisdom that is there developed, yet God Himself in the Old Testament remains always hidden behind the veil. In the New Testament God manifests Himself; there we find Himself, gentle, meek, human: in the Gospels, God upon earth,—and then God enlightening by a divine light in the subsequent communications of the Spirit. Formerly God had made promises, as He had executed judgments; He had governed a people upon earth, and had acted towards the nations in view of this people; He had given them His law, and had bestowed on them, through the medium of the prophets, a growing light which announced as nearer and nearer the coming of Him who should tell them all things from God. But the presence of God Himself as Man in the midst of men had the effect of changing everything, where man ought to have received Him in the Person of the Christ, as the crown of blessing and glory—Him, whose presence was to banish all evil, and develop and bring to perfection every element of good, furnishing at the same time an object and a centre for all the affections rendered perfectly happy by the enjoyment of this Object. Or else, in rejecting this Christ, our poor nature must manifest itself as it is, enmity against God, and must prove the necessity for a completely new order of things, in which the happiness of man and the glory of God should be based upon a new creation. We know what happened. He who was the image of the invisible God had to say, after the exercise of a perfect patience: 'Righteous Father, the world hath not known thee;' and alas! yet more than that: 'They have seen and hated both me and my Father.' (John xvii. 25; xv. 24.)

This condition of man, however, has in no wise prevented God from accomplishing His counsels; on the contrary, this wretched state gave Him the opportunity of glorifying Himself in fulfilling them. God would not reject man until man had rejected Him; as in the garden of Eden, man, conscious of sin, unable to bear God's presence, withdrew from Him before God had driven him out of the garden. But now that man, on his side, had entirely rejected God come in goodness into the midst of his misery, God was free—if one may venture to speak thus, and the expression is morally correct—God was free to carry out His eternal purposes. But here God does not execute judgment, as in Eden, when man was already alienated from Him: it is sovereign grace, which, when man is evidently lost and has declared himself the enemy of God, carries on its work for the shewing forth of His glory before the whole universe in the salvation of poor sinners who had rejected Him. But in order that God's perfect wisdom should be manifested even in the details, this work of sovereign grace, in which God revealed Himself, must be seen as having its due connection with all His previous dealings revealed in the Old Testament, and also as leaving its full place to His government of the world.

From all this it results that, apart from the main idea which predominates throughout, there are in the New Testament four subjects which unfold themselves to the eye of faith. The grand subject, the fact above all others, is that the perfect light is manifested: God reveals Himself. But this light is revealed in love, the other essential name of God.

Christ, who is the manifestation of this light and love, and who if He had been received, would have been the fulfilment of all the promises, is then presented to man, and particularly to Israel looked at in their responsibility, with every proof, personal, moral, and of power,—proofs which left this people without excuse.

Secondly, Christ being rejected—a rejection by means of which salvation was accomplished—the new order of things (the new creation, man glorified, the church sharing with Christ in heavenly glory) is put before us.

Thirdly, the connection between the old order of things and the new one, upon earth, with respect to the law, the promises, the prophecies, or the divine institutions on earth, is set forth. This is done, whether in exhibiting the new order as the fulfilment and setting aside of that which had grown old, or in making evident the contrast that exists between the two, or in demonstrating the perfect wisdom of God in all the details of His ways.

Finally, the government of the world on God's part is prophetically unfolded; and the renewal of God's relations with Israel, whether in judgment or in blessing, is briefly but plainly stated, on the occasion of the rupture of these relations by the rejection of the Messiah.

It may be added that everything that is necessary for man, as a pilgrim upon earth, until God shall accomplish in power the purposes of His grace, is abundantly supplied. Come forth, at the call of God, from that which is rejected or condemned (and not yet put into possession of the portion which God has prepared for him) the man who has obeyed this call needs something to direct him, and to reveal to him both the sources of the strength he requires in walking towards the mark of his calling, and the means by which he can appropriate this strength. God in calling him to follow a Master whom the world has rejected, has not failed to supply him with all the light and all the directions requisite to guide and encourage him in his path.

The GOSPELS relate to us the history of the Lord's life, and present Him to our hearts, whether by His actions or by His discourses, in the various characters which make Him in every way precious to the souls of the redeemed, according to the measure of intelligence vouchsafed to them, and according to their need. These characters together form the fulness of His personal glory, so far as we are capable of apprehending it here below in these our earthen vessels, saving always that which concerns the relations of Christ with the church; for, except the fact that Christ would build a church upon earth, it is only by the Holy Ghost, sent down after His ascension, that He made known to the apostles and prophets this priceless mystery.

The Lord, as is evident, had to unite in His Person upon earth, according to the counsels of God and according to the revelations of His word, more than one character for the accomplishment of His glory, and for the maintenance and manifestation of the glory of His Father. But in order that this might take place, He must also be something, whether we consider Him as walking down here on earth, or from the point of view of His real nature. Christ must needs accomplish the service which it behoved Him to render to God, as being Himself the true servant, and that as serving God by the word in the midst of His people, according to Psalm xl, verses 8–10 for instance, Isaiah xlix. 4, 5, and other passages.

A multitude of testimonies had announced that the Son of David should sit, on the part of God, upon His father's throne; and the fulfilment of God's counsels as to Israel is connected, in the Old Testament, with Him who should thus come, and who on earth should stand in the relation of Son of God with Jehovah God. The Christ, the Messiah, or, as is but the translation of this name, the Anointed, was to come and present Himself to Israel, according to the revelation and the counsels of God. And this promised seed was to be Immanuel, God with the people. The expectation of the Jews scarcely went beyond this character of Christ, Messiah and Son of David; and they looked even at that in their own way, merely as the exaltation of their own nation, having no sense of their sins, nor of the consequences of their sins.

This character of Christ, however, was not all that the prophetic word, which declared the counsels of God, had announced about Him whom even the world was expecting. He was to be the Son of man, a title which the Lord Jesus loved to give Himself, a title of great importance to us. The Son of man is, it appears to me, according to the word, the Heir of all that the counsels of God destined for man as his portion in glory, of all that God would bestow on man, according to those counsels. (See Dan. vii. 13, 14, and Ps. viii. 5, 6; lxxx. 17; Prov. viii.) But in order to be Heir of all that God destined for man, Christ must be a Man. The Son of man was truly of the race of man (precious and comforting truth!) born of a woman, really and truly a man, and partaking of flesh and blood, made like unto His brethren, sin excepted. In this character He was to suffer, and be rejected, that He might inherit all things in a wholly new estate—raised and glorified. He needed to die and rise again, the inheritance being defiled, and man being in rebellion against God, the co-heirs of Christ as guilty as the rest.

Jesus, then, was to be the Servant, the great Prophet, though the Son of David, and the Son of man, and therefore truly a Man on the earth, born under the law, born of a woman, of the seed of David, Inheritor of the rights of David's family, Heir to the destinies of man, according to the purpose and the counsels of God. But in order to be this He must glorify God according to the position man was in as fallen in his responsibility, meet that responsibility so as to glorify God there; but, while here, bearing a prophet's testimony—the faithful Witness. But who should unite all these characters in one person? Was it to be only an official glory which the Old Testament had said a man was to inherit? The condition of men, manifested under the law, and without law, proved the impossibility of making them, as they were, partakers of the blessing of God. The rejection of the Christ was the crowning proof of this impossibility. And, in fact, man needed, above all, to be himself reconciled to God, apart from all dispensation and the special government of an earthly people. Man had sinned, and redemption was necessary for the glory of God and the salvation of men. Who could accomplish it? Man needed it himself: an angel had to keep and fill his own place, and could do no more; otherwise he would not have been an angel. And who amongst men could be the heir of all things, and have all the works of God put under his dominion, according to the word? It was the Son of God who should inherit them; it was their Creator who should possess them. He, then, who was to be the Servant, the Son of David, the Son of man, the Redeemer, was the Son of God, God the Creator.

To these different aspects of Christ is due not only the special character of each of the Gospels, but also the difference that exists between the first three Gospels and that of John. The former present Christ to man, in order that man may receive Him, and they shew His rejection by man; whereas John, on the contrary, has this rejection as the starting-point of his Gospel, a Gospel which is the display of the divine nature, and that in presence of which man and the Jew were, and which they rejected: 'He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not . . .'

But let us go back a little. MATTHEW is the fulfilment of promise and of prophecy. We find in his Gospel, Immanuel in the midst of the Jews, rejected by them, who thus stumble at the stone of offence; and then Christ is presented as being really a Sower; fruit-seeking was in vain; then come the church and the kingdom, substituted for Israel blessed according to the promises that they refused in the Person of Jesus; but after the judgment, when they shall receive Him, the Jews are recognised as objects of mercy. We do not find the ascension in Matthew; and we believe that it is for this very reason that Galilee, and not Jerusalem, is the scene of the interview of the Lord with the disciples after His resurrection: Jesus is with the poor of the flock who owned the word of the Lord, there where light had sprung up to the people sitting in darkness. The commission to baptise goes forth hence, and applies to the Gentiles. MARK gives us the Servant-Prophet, the Son of God. LUKE presents the Son of man, the first two chapters affording a lovely picture of the remnant in Israel. JOHN, as we have said above, makes known to us the divine and incarnate Person of the Lord, the foundation of all blessing, and a work of atonement which is the basis even of the sinless condition of the new heavens and the new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness; at the end, the gift of the Comforter; and all this in contrast with Judaism. Instead of tracing the Lord's pedigree up to Abraham and David, the stocks of promise, or to Adam that, as Son of man, He might bring in blessing to man, or of relating His service in ministry as the great Prophet that was to come,—John brings into the world a divine Person, the Word made flesh.

Paul and John reveal our being in a wholly new place in Christ; but John is mainly occupied with revealing to us the Father in the Son, and thus life by the Son in us; whilst Paul presents us to God, and reveals His counsels in grace. If we confine ourselves to the Epistles, Paul alone speaks of the church, except that Peter (1 Pet. ii) gives us the building of living stones, an edifice not yet completed; but Paul alone speaks of the 'body.'

The ACTS give us the account of the founding of the church by the Holy Ghost come down from heaven, and then the labours of the apostles at Jerusalem or in Palestine, and of other free labourers, especially the work of Peter, and afterwards that of Paul, the Scripture history ending with the account of the rejection of the latter apostle's gospel by the Jews of the dispersion.

To expound even summarily the contents of the Epistles would lead us too far: we will confine ourselves to a few words on their chronological order, merely noticing that they develop the efficacy of Christ's work, and the Father's love revealed in Him.

We must place in the first rank those whose date is sure: 1 and 2 THESSALONIANS; 1 and 2 CORINTHIANS; the Epistle to the ROMANS, those to the EPHESIANS, COLOSSIANS, PHILIPPIANS, PHILEMON, the last four written during Paul's captivity. The Epistle to the GALATIANS was written between fourteen and twenty years after the call of the apostle, and after he had laboured for some time in Asia Minor, perhaps when he was staying at Ephesus, although it was not long after the founding of the assemblies of Galatia. 1 TIMOTHY was written on the occasion of the apostle leaving Ephesus, at what time exactly is not clear; 2 TIMOTHY must be placed at the close of the apostle's life, when he was about to suffer martyrdom. The Epistle to TITUS is connected with a journey of Paul to Crete, though we do not know when this journey took place (it has been thought that it was perhaps at the time of the apostle's sojourn at Ephesus); it is morally synchronous with 1 TIMOTHY, for it was not God's purpose to give us chronological dates: divine wisdom was not pleased to give this, but the moral order is quite clear, as we already see in the way in which the second epistle to Timothy is connected with the ruin of that the order of which was established by the first.

The Epistle to the HEBREWS was written at a relatively late period, in view of the judgment that was going to fall upon Jerusalem: it called the Jews who had become Christians to separate themselves from that which God was about to judge.

The Epistle of JAMES belongs to a time when this separation had in nowise taken place; Jewish Christians are there looked upon as still forming a part of that Israel which was not yet finally rejected, only owning Jesus to be the Lord of glory. Like all the Catholic Epistles, that of James was written in the last days of the apostolic history, when Christianity had gained a wide entrance into the midst of the tribes of Israel, and judgment was about to close the history of the Jews.

In 1 PETER, we see that the gospel had spread widely amongst the Jews; this Epistle is addressed to the Jewish Christians of the dispersion. The second Epistle, of course, is later, and belongs to the end of the apostle's career, when he was about to put off his tabernacle and be separated from his brethren; he would not leave them without the warnings that apostolic care would soon no longer furnish: hence, like the Epistle of Jude, it contemplates grievous departure from the path of godliness on the part of those who had received the faith, and a mocking of the testimony that the Lord was coming.

In 1 JOHN, the apostle insists on its being 'the last time:' apostates were already manifested, apostates from the truth of Christianity, denying the Father and the Son, as well as with Jewish unbelief, denying that Jesus was the Christ.

JUDE comes morally before John; in his Epistle, we find false brethren who had furtively crept in amongst the saints, the scene extending itself, however, to the final revolt and judgment. It differs from Peter's second Epistle in viewing the evil, not simply as wickedness, but as departure from first estate.

The APOCALYPSE completes the picture by shewing Christ judging in the midst of the candlesticks, the first church having left its first love, and being threatened that if it did not repent and return to its original estate, its candlestick would be removed, the final judgment being found in Thyatira and in Laodicea; and then it shews the judgment of the world and the Lord's return, the kingdom and the heavenly city, and the eternal state.

This general character of apostasy and of ruin which is stamped on all the later books of the New Testament, from the Epistle to the Hebrews to the Apocalypse, is very striking. Paul's Epistles, except 2 Timothy, which affords individual guidance in the midst of the ruin, whilst announcing beforehand this state of things, express the labour and the care of the wise master-builder. The interest of their dates is in connection with his history in the Acts; but the Epistle to the Hebrews, the Catholic Epistles, and the Apocalypse, all shew the predicted departure already set in (Peter's first Epistle which least of all bears this character, tells us that the time was come for judgment to begin at the House of God), and consequently the judgment of the professing church, and then, afterwards, prophetically that of the world in revolt against God. This closing character of the Catholic Epistles is very striking and instructive.

About the Bible

Its Composition

The Bible is a collection of 66 separate books and letters, written over a period of some 1,500 years culminating approximately 100 years after Christ's death and resurrection. It is divided into the Old Testament (the first 39 books) and the New Testament (the last 27 books).

The Bible has stood the test of time, the greatest test of all literature. It was completed nearly 2,000 years ago, yet is now read more than any other book and by people of widely varying cultures.

Its Writers

There were many different writers, who lived and wrote in different countries. They came from different walks of life and different social positions. One wrote history, another biography; another wrote on theology, another poetry, another prophecy. Some wrote on philosophy, and some stories of adventure, travel and romance.

Most of them had no contact with each other and no means of knowing that when their writings were all put together as one book it would be complete, all parts agreeing in doctrine, teaching and prophecy.

Its Author

Christians believe the Bible to be the Word of God because the Lord Jesus Christ believed it to be so.

He constantly referred to the Old Testament in His teaching. In every case His words show that He believed in its historic accuracy and Divine Authority. Here are three (of many) passages which shows His attitude to the Old Testament, called by the Jews "The Law and The Prophets".

1. Matthew 5 : 17-19. Here Jesus underlines the Authority of The Law.
2. Luke 24 : 27. Here He underlines the Message of The Prophets.
3. John 5 : 39, 40. Here He speaks of them as pointing to Himself as the source of eternal life.

He also gave the seal of His Authority to the New Testament in advance of it being written:

1. Matthew 28 : 19, 20. Here He commissioned His diciples to teach all nations "Everything I have commanded you." This would have been impossible without a written record.
2. John 14 : 26. Here He promised that the Holy Spirit would bring back to their memories "Everything I have said to you."
3. John 16 : 12-14. Here He promised that the Holy Spirit would teach them things they were not ready to understand at that time, but which were a vital parts of His message.

Therefore to believe that Jesus is the Son of God is to believe in the Divine Authority of the Bible.

Further, the apostle Paul wrote "All Scripture is God-breathed." (2 Timothy 3 : 16), and it is clear from 2 Peter 3 : 16 that the apostle Peter regarded Paul's writings as part of Holy Scripture.

Its Contents

The Bible is the story of God's revelation of Himself to man. It is not primarily a book of history, but its stories of God's dealings with individuals and with nations are as pertinent to the modern world as they have been to every age since they were written.

It is not primarily a book of sience, but it is not at variance with any proven scientific fact. Some of its statements show a knowledge of the world of science which the writer could not have had apart from Divine revelation.

It is not primarily a book of philiosophy. Nowhere does it argue for the existence of God. Yet the God it reveals has been known in a personal way by many of the greatest minds who have ever lived as well as by many millions of ordinary people. It speaks to every man from the simplest to the most sophisticated at his own level of understanding.

Throughout the Old Testament the theme of the Redemption of Mankind is developed and God unfolds His Covenant with men and nations. In the New Testament all that has been foreshadowed in the Old Testament comes to vibrant and startling reality.

God Himself comes to earth in the person of Jesus Christ. He is rejected and crucified, but rises from the dead in triumph. He sends

His diciples out in the power of the Holy Spirit to carry His message of Love and Forgiveness to the four corners of the earth.

The great vision of the book of Revelation, with which the Bible ends, reinforces the warnings of the whole Book regarding the consequences of rejecting God's Light and Love, and in poetic terms describes the future of the Redeemed in heaven.

Its Power and Effect

During the British Coronation ceremony a Bible is presented to the monarch with the words: "We present you with this Book, the most valuable thing this world affords. Here is wisdom. This is the Royal Law. These are the lively oracles of God". These words are true and deeply significant.

This book has the power not only to inform – but to reform and to transform lives. Through its influence countless people have been given a new strength, an unerring purpose and a sure hope in life. To the dying it has brought peace and assurance of eternal life. It has brought blessing to millions in every land and age.

It is supernatural in origin, eternal in duration, divine in authorship, infallible in authority, inexhaustible in meaning, universal in readership, unique in revelation, personal in application and powerful in effect.

It is given to you here in this life, it will be open at the Judgement, it is established for ever. Come to it with awe, read it with reverence, frequently, slowly, prayerfully.

Reading daily

This book is given to you with only one request, that you read it every day.

How to read

Read regularly, at the same time each day. Irregular reding will not last. Early in the morning is usually the best time.

Red prayerfully and ask God to open your mind to understand His word, to show you how it can apply to your daily life. Ask Him to reveal to you Jesus Christ as Saviour and Lord. Do this before you read and afterwards as well.

Before starting to use the Daily Reading chart we recommend that you read the following:

721 Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, puts an end to the kingdom of Israe. by taking Samaria, in the ninth year of Hoshea, and carries away the people to Assyria.

THE CAPTIVITY

606 Nebuchadnezzar reigns, at first conjointly with Nabopolassar—and carries away the Jews to Babylon. The 'times of the Gentiles' commence. Beginning of 70 years' captivity in Babylon.

604 Nebuchadnezzar reigns alone.

588 Nebuchadnezzar completely destroys Jerusalem, city and temple.

538 Cyrus, King of Persia, captures Babylon; Reign of Darius the Mede. Dan. 5. 31.

536 Cyrus reigns there, and in the first year of his reign decrees a party under Zerubbabel to go and rebuild the temple at Jerusalem. (End of Captivity of 70 years.) Ezra 1. 8–10.

529 Cambyses (son of Cyrus) (called Ahasuerus). Ezra 4. 6.
522 Smerdis (called Artaxerxes). Ezra 4. 7.
521 Darius Hystaspes (called Darius). Ezra 4. 24; Hag. 1. 1; Zech. 1. 1.
485 Xerxes (son of Darius Hystaspes) (called Ahasuerus). Esther 1. 1.
474 Artaxerxes I, Longimanus (son of Xerxes) (called Artaxerxes). Ezra 7; Neh 2.
468 Return of Ezra from Babylon.
455 This twentieth year of Artaxerxes I (Longimanus) when the order was given through Nehemiah to rebuild the city of Jerusalem, is the starting-point of the 'seventy weeks' of Dan. 9. Neh. 2. 1.

NOTE ON THE CHRONOLOGICAL DATES

THE dates follow generally accepted chronology, and are based sometimes upon detailed information given by various passages of Scripture, and sometimes upon verses such as Ex. 12. 40, 41; Judges 11. 26; 1 Kings 6. 1; which cover a lengthy period of time. Only two or three of these passages require comment. For the reigns of the kings of Judah and Israel the duration of which is clearly stated, the reader is referred to the table on opposite page.

In order to determine the scope of the expression 'the residence of the children of Israel' (Ex. 12. 40), it must be borne in mind that the promise of God to Abram (Gen. 15. 13, 16) mentions 'four hundred years', and then the assurance that the patriarch's descendants would return in the fourth generation to the land of Canaan. It follows therefore that the time of the sojourn or pilgrimage of the elect family must be reckoned from the days of Abraham, and presumably from his entrance into the land of Canaan. Compare also Acts 7. 17.

The period of '450 years', mentioned in Acts 13. 20, appears to be an approximate figure covering the time which elapsed between the entry into the wilderness and the end of the reign of Saul, verse 21 being a parenthesis intended to fix the attention on the period the apostle had in mind, namely, the reign of David to whom the promise of Saviour-King had been made. We must remember that the Judges often exercised their authority over a part of the people only. Thus Ehud and Shamgar wrought amongst the tribes in the south, whereas Deborah and Barak brought about deliverance in the north. The reference to Ehud rather than Shamgar (Judges 4. 1), would prove that the 'rest' mentioned in Judges 5. 31 must form part of the 'rest' spoken of in ch. 3. 30, especially referring to the tribes in the south. Jephthah's reply to the Ammonites shows that the children of Israel, at this period, had been only three centuries in possession of Heshbon and Aroer—all the country lying between the Arnon and the Jabbok having been won not from the Ammonites but from the Amorites (Num. 21. 24–26). Finally, it was during a part of the 'forty years' of Philistine oppression that Samson judged Israel (Judges 13. 1; 15. 20); this period came to an end with the victory of Samuel (1 Sam. 7. 13).

For the chronology of the lapse of time between the Old Testament and the New, we have to consider the '70 weeks' of Dan. 9. 24. As one of these 'weeks' of years refers to the future, there remain 69 'weeks', that is to say 483 years, reckoning 'from the going forth of the word to restore and to build' not the temple but the city of 'Jerusalem'. Permission to do this was given to Nehemiah by Artaxerxes I in the twentieth year of his reign; the state of desolation in which Nehemiah found the city on his arrival is given in considerable detail. Verse 26 of Dan. 9 shows that the sixty-nine weeks do not end before the manifestation of the Messiah to Israel (John 1. 31), perhaps not even before His death. It would therefore be necessary to deduct 33 years to arrive at the date of His birth, which would have been 450 years after permission was given to rebuild the city, or 530 years after the return of the first captives from Babylon.

These considerations enable us to arrive at the following summary:

	Years
From the creation to the flood, when Noah was 600 years old (Gen. 5. 3–29; 7. 11)	1,656
From the flood to the birth of Terah (Gen. 11. 10–25)	222
When his father died at the age of 205 years, Abraham was 75	130
Which fixes his birth, from the creation of the world	2,008
His entrance into the land of Canaan took place 75 years later (Gen. 12. 4)	75
Up to the exodus from Egypt (Gen. 15. 13, 16; Ex. 12. 40)	430
Up to the building of the temple 480 years later	480
Length of Solomon's reign, less three years already past (1 Kings 6. 1)	37
Kings of Israel and Judah, up to the Babylonish captivity	370
Length of the captivity 70 years, and up to Nehemiah 80 years	150
Sixty-nine 'weeks' less 33 years (Dan. 9. 26)	450
From the creation to the birth of the Messiah	4,000

For the facts related in the New Testament, we have no chronological dates of the same kind as those in the Old Testament. It was of the greatest importance to be able to indicate accurately the time of the coming into the world of the promised Messiah, not however according to human calculation, but according to the principles of prophecy. The same divine wisdom which fixes our attention on what has already been fulfilled requires that our hearts should be alert during the whole period which elapses before the last 'week' of Daniel. The Lord said 'a little while and ye do not behold me; and again a little while and ye shall see me, because I go away to the Father'. It is sufficient to recall as a well-established historical fact, that the destruction of Jerusalem by the Romans took place forty years after the Saviour's death (Luke 19. 41–44; 21. 20–24; 23. 28, 29).

THE FIRST BOOK OF MOSES

GENESIS

1 In the beginning God[a] created the heavens and the earth.
2 And the earth was waste and empty, and darkness was[b] on the face of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the face of the waters.
3 And God said, Let there be light.
4 And there was light. And God saw the light that it was good; and God divided between the light and 5 the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day.[c] 6 And God said, Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it be a division between 7 waters and waters. And God made the expanse, and divided between the waters that are under the expanse and the waters that are above the expanse; and it was so.
8 And God called the expanse Heavens. And there was evening, and there was morning—a second day.
9 And God said, Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together to one place, and let the dry [land] appear. And it was so.
10 And God called the dry [land] Earth, and the gathering together of the waters he called Seas. And 11 God saw that it was good. And God said, Let the earth cause grass to spring up, herb producing seed, fruit-trees yielding fruit after their kind, the seed of which is in them, 12 on the earth. And it was so. And the earth brought forth grass, herb producing seed after its kind, and trees yielding fruit, the seed of which is in them, after their kind. And God saw that it was good.
13 And there was evening, and there was morning—a third day.
14 And God said, Let there be lights[d] in the expanse of the heavens, to divide between the day and the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days 15 and years; and let them be for lights[d] in the expanse of the heavens, to give light on the earth.
16 And it was so. And God made the two great lights, the great light to rule the day, and the small light to rule the night,—and the stars.
17 And God set[e] them in the expanse of the heavens, to give light on the 18 earth, and to rule during the day and during the night, and to divide between the light and the darkness. And God saw that it was 19 good. And there was evening, and there was morning—a fourth day.
20 And God said, Let the waters swarm with swarms of living souls, and let fowl fly above the earth in[f] 21 the expanse of the heavens. And God created the great sea monsters,[g] and every living soul that moves with which the waters swarm, after their kind, and every winged fowl after its kind. And 22 God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply 23 on the earth. And there was evening, and there was morning—a fifth day.
24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth living souls after their kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth, after their 25 kind. And it was so. And God made the beast of the earth after its kind, and the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing of [a] Elohim, the plural of Eloah, 'the Supreme.' It is Deity, God in the absolute. When other divine names, except Jehovah and Jah, are used, they will be given in the notes. Elohim will in the text appear only in the name of Jehovah Elohim; moreover, when Elohim following immediately on Jehovah has a grammatical adjunct, its place will be taken by the English word 'God.' For the meaning of Jehovah, Yahveh or Yehveh, see Ex. iii. 14, 15; Isa. xl. 28; for Jah, cf. Ex. xv. 2. [b] From the Hebrew constantly dispensing with the substantive verb, it will be unnecessary to mark by a bracket its absence in the original text, except where, as in iv. 7, there might be a doubt as to what form it should take. [c] Or 'one day.' [d] Lit. 'light-bearers,' and so ver. 16. [e] Lit. 'gave.' [f] Lit. 'on the face of.' [g] The word applies to rivers as well as to the sea, and is also used for 'crocodiles,' 'serpents.'

the ground after its kind. And God saw that it was good.

26 And God said, Let us make man[h] in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heavens, and over the cattle, and over the whole earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth on the earth.

27 And God created Man[i] in his image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them; and God said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the heavens, and over every animal that moveth[k] on the earth.

29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb producing seed that is on the whole earth, and every tree in which is the fruit of a tree producing seed: it shall be food for you;

30 and to every animal of the earth, and to every fowl of the heavens, and to everything that creepeth on the earth, in which is a living soul, every green herb for food. And it was so.

31 And God saw everything that he had made, and behold it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day.

2 And the heavens and the earth and all their host were finished.

2 And God had finished on the seventh day his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he

3 had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it, because that on it he rested from all his work which God had created in making it.[l]

4 These are the histories[m] of the heavens and the earth, when they were created, in the day that Jehovah Elohim[n] made earth and

5 heavens, and every shrub of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew;[o] for Jehovah Elohim had not caused it to rain on the earth, and there was no man to till the 6 ground. But a mist went up from the earth, and moistened the whole

7 surface of the ground. And Jehovah Elohim formed Man, dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and Man became a living soul.

8 And Jehovah Elohim planted a garden in Eden[p] eastward, and there put Man whom he had 9 formed. And out of the ground Jehovah Elohim made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; and the tree of life, in the midst of the garden, and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

10 And a river went out of Eden, to water the garden; and from thence it was parted, and became four

11 main streams.[q] The name of the one is Pison: that is it which surrounds the whole land of Havilah,

12 where the gold is. And the gold of that land is good; bdellium[r]

13 and the onyx[s] stone are there. And the name of the second river is Gihon: that is it which surrounds

14 the whole land of Cush. And the name of the third river is Hiddekel: that is it which flows forward toward Asshur.[t] And the fourth river, that is Euphrates.

15 And Jehovah Elohim took Man, and put him into the garden of 16 Eden, to till it and to guard it. And Jehovah Elohim commanded Man, saying, Of every tree of the garden 17 thou shalt freely eat;[u] but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it; for in the day that thou eatest of it thou shalt certainly die.

18 And Jehovah Elohim said, It is not good that Man should be alone; I will make him a helpmate, his 19 like.[v] And out of the ground Jehovah Elohim had formed every animal of the field and all fowl of the heavens, and brought [them] to Man, to see what he would call them; and whatever Man called each living soul, that was its name.

20 And Man gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the heavens, and to every beast of the field; but as for Adam, he found no helpmate, his like.

21 And Jehovah Elohim caused a deep sleep to fall upon Man; and he slept. And he took one of his ribs and closed up flesh in its stead.

[h] Or 'men,' 'mankind.' אדם, earthy. [i] האדם Man, as a race. It will be spelled with a capital, to avoid much repetition of the note. [k] Or 'creepeth;' and so elsewhere. Cf. viii. 17, 19. [l] Lit. 'created to make.' [m] Lit. 'generations.' [n] See note on i. 1. [o] Or 'no shrub.... was yet in the earth and no herb.... had yet grown.' [p] Pleasure. [q] Lit. 'heads.' [r] A fragrant resin: as generally understood. [s] Or 'beryl.' [t] Or 'flows before Assyria.' [u] Lit. 'eating thou shalt eat:' an idiom constantly occurring, as again in the next verse, 'dying thou shalt die.' [v] Or 'counterpart.'

22 And Jehovah Elohim built the rib that he had taken from Man into a woman; and brought her to 23 Man. And Man said, This time it is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh: this shall be called Woman,[w] because this was taken out 24 of a man.[x] Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and cleave to his wife; and they 25 shall become one flesh. And they were both naked, Man[y] and his wife, and were not ashamed.

3 And the serpent was more crafty than any animal of the field which Jehovah Elohim had made. And it said to the woman, Is it even so, that God has said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the 2 garden? And the woman said to the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden; 3 but of the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, God has said, Ye shall not eat of it, and ye shall not touch it, lest ye die.
4 And the serpent said to the woman, 5 Ye will not certainly die; but[z] God knows that in the day ye eat of it, your eyes will be opened, and ye will be as God,[a] knowing good 6 and evil. And the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a pleasure for the eyes, and the tree was to be desired to give intelligence; and she took of its fruit, and ate, and gave also to her husband with her, and he 7 ate. And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked. And they sewed fig-leaves together, and made themselves aprons.
8 And they heard the voice of Jehovah Elohim, walking in the garden in the cool of the day. And Man[y] and his wife hid themselves from the presence of Jehovah Elohim, in the midst of the trees of 9 the garden. And Jehovah Elohim called to Man, and said to him, 10 Where art thou? And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I feared, because I am naked; and 11 I hid myself. And he said, Who told thee that thou art naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee not to 12 eat? And Man[y] said, The woman, whom thou hast given [to be] with me, she gave me of the 13 tree, and I ate. And Jehovah Elohim said to the woman, What is this thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent deceived 14 me, and I ate. And Jehovah Elohim said to the serpent, Because thou hast done this, be thou cursed above all cattle, and above every beast of the field. On thy belly shalt thou go, and eat dust all the 15 days of thy life. And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed; he shall crush thy head, 16 and thou shalt crush his heel. To the woman he said, I will greatly increase thy travail and thy pregnancy; with pain thou shalt bear children; and to thy husband shall be thy desire, and he shall 17 rule over thee. And to Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened to the voice of thy wife, and eaten of the tree of which I commanded thee saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed be the ground on thy account; with toil shalt thou eat 18 [of] it all the days of thy life; and thorns and thistles shall it yield thee; and thou shalt eat the herb 19 of the field. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, until thou return to the ground: for out of it wast thou taken. For dust thou art; and unto dust shalt thou return.
20 And Man called his wife's name Eve;[b] because she is the mother of all living.
21 And Jehovah Elohim made Adam and his wife coats of skin, and clothed them.
22 And Jehovah Elohim said, Behold, Man is become as one of us, to know good and evil. And now, lest he stretch out his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and 23 eat, and live for ever. . . . ! Therefore Jehovah Elohim sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was 24 taken. And he drove out Man; and he set the Cherubim, and the flame of the flashing sword, toward the east of the garden of Eden, to guard the way to the tree of life.

4 And Man knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bore Cain,[c] and said, I have acquired a man 2 with Jehovah. And she further bore his brother Abel.[d] And Abel was a shepherd,[e] but Cain was a husbandman.
3 And in process of time[f] it came

[w] Ishshah. [x] Ish. [y] Or 'the man;' but it is האדם: so iii. 20, iv. 1. [z] Or 'for.' [a] Or 'as gods.' [b] Life. [c] Acquisition. [d] Heb. Hebel, a breath (Job vii. 16); or 'vanity' (Ps. cxliv. 4). [e] Lit. 'herdsman of small cattle.' [f] Lit. 'at the end of days.'

to pass that Cain brought of the fruit of the ground an offering[g] 4 to Jehovah. And Abel, he also brought of the firstlings of his flock, and of their fat. And Jehovah looked upon Abel, and on his 5 offering; and upon Cain, and on his offering, he did not look. And Cain was very angry, and his coun-6 tenance fell. And Jehovah said to Cain, Why art thou angry, and 7 why is thy countenance fallen? If thou doest well, will not [thy countenance] lift up [with confidence]?[h] and if thou doest not well, sin[i] lieth at the door; and unto thee [shall be] his desire, and thou shalt rule over him.
8 And Cain spoke to Abel his brother,[k] and it came to pass when they were in the field, that Cain rose up against Abel his brother, 9 and slew him. And Jehovah said to Cain, Where is Abel thy brother? And he said, I know not: am I my 10 brother's keeper? And he said, What hast thou done? the voice of thy brother's blood is crying to 11 me from the ground. And now be thou cursed from the ground, which hath opened its mouth to receive thy brother's blood from 12 thy hand. When thou tillest the ground, it shall not henceforth yield thee its strength; a wanderer and fugitive shalt thou be on the 13 earth. And Cain said to Jehovah, My punishment is too great to be 14 borne.[l] Behold, thou hast driven me this day from the face of the ground, and from thy face shall I be hid; and I shall be a wanderer and fugitive on the earth; and it will come to pass, [that] every one 15 who finds me will slay me. And Jehovah said to him, Therefore, whoever slayeth Cain, it shall be revenged sevenfold. And Jehovah set a mark on Cain, lest any find-16 ing him should smite him. And Cain went out from the presence of Jehovah, and dwelt in the land of Nod,[m] toward the east of Eden.
17 And Cain knew his wife, and she conceived and bore Enoch. And he built a city; and he called the name of the city after the name of 18 his son Enoch. And to Enoch was born Irad; and Irad begot Mehujael; and Mehujael begot Methushael; and Methushael begot Le-19 mech. And Lemech took two wives: the name of the one was Adah, and the name of the second, 20 Zillah. And Adah bore Jabal: he was the father of those who dwell 21 in tents, and [breed] cattle. And his brother's name was Jubal: he was the father of those who handle 22 the harp and pipe. And Zillah, she also bore Tubal-Cain, the forger of every kind of tool of[n] brass[o] and iron. And the sister of 23 Tubal-Cain was Naamah.[p] And Lemech said to his wives:

Adah and Zillah, hear my voice,
Ye wives of Lemech, listen to my speech.
For I have slain a man for my wound, and a youth for my bruise.[q]

24 If Cain shall be avenged sevenfold; Lemech seventy and seven fold.

25 And Adam knew his wife again, and she bore a son, and called his name Seth:[r] .... For God has appointed me another seed instead of Abel, because Cain has slain 26 him. And to Seth, to him also was born a son; and he called his name Enosh.[s] Then people began to call on[t] the name of Jehovah.

5 This is the book of Adam's generations.[v] In the day that God created man, in the likeness of 2 God made he him. Male and female created he them; and blessed them, and called their name Adam, in the day when they were created.
3 And Adam lived a hundred and thirty years, and begot [a son] in his likeness, after his image, and 4 called his name Seth. And the days of Adam after he had begotten Seth were eight hundred years; and he begot sons and daughters.
5 And all the days of Adam that he lived were nine hundred and thirty years; and he died.
6 And Seth lived a hundred and 22 And Enoch walked with God after he had begotten Methushelah three hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.

23 And all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years.
24 And Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.

26 And Methushelah lived after he had begotten Lemech seven hundred and eighty-two years, and begot sons and daughters.
27 And all the days of Methushelah were nine hundred and sixty-nine years; and he died.
28 And Lemech lived a hundred and eighty-two years, and begot a son.
29 And he called his name Noah,[x] saying, This [one] shall comfort us concerning our work and concerning the toil of our hands, because of the ground which Jehovah has cursed.
30 And Lemech lived after he had begotten Noah five hundred and ninety-five years, and begot sons and daughters.
31 And all the days of Lemech were seven hundred and seventy-seven years; and he died.
32 And Noah was five hundred years old, and Noah begot Shem,[y] Ham,[z] and Japheth.[a]

6 And it came to pass when mankind[b] began to multiply on the earth, and daughters were born to 2 them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair, and took themselves 3 wives of all that they chose. And Jehovah said, My spirit shall not always plead with[c] Man; for he indeed[d] is flesh; but his days shall be a hundred and twenty years.
4 In those days were the giants on the earth, and also afterwards, when the sons of God had come in to the daughters of men, and they had borne [children] to them; these were the heroes, who of old were 5 men of renown.[e] And Jehovah saw that the wickedness of Man was great on the earth, and every imagination of the thoughts of his 6 heart only evil continually.[f] And Jehovah repented that he had made Man on the earth, and it 7 grieved him in his heart. And Jehovah said, I will destroy[g] Man, whom I have created, from the earth—from man to cattle, to creeping things, and to fowl of the heavens; for I repent that I have 8 made them. But Noah found favour in the eyes of Jehovah.
9 This is the history[h] of Noah. Noah was a just man, perfect amongst his generations: Noah 10 walked with God. And Noah be-

Not 'remain,' as the LXX and other ancient authorities; nor 'be humbled,' 'rule,' as ירון is variously taken by some moderns. [d] So Delitzsch, with the ancient versions, and Jewish authorities. Most moderns take it as, 'in their wandering, erring,' from שגג or שגה. The important question is the force of בשר. 'Because of flesh leading them astray,' cannot, I think, be the meaning, to say nothing of הוא. The בשר and הוא go together. Whether 'wandering' be right or not, the sense is, after all, the same: 'for he is flesh' is the reason, at any rate. [e] Or 'the name,' i. e., who had a peculiar and known name on the earth. got three sons, Shem, Ham, and 11 Japheth. And the earth was corrupt before God, and the earth was 12 full of violence. And God looked upon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted its way on the earth.
13 And God said to Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me, for the earth is full of violence through them; and behold, I will destroy 14 them with[i] the earth. Make thyself an ark of gopher wood: [with] cells shalt thou make the ark; and pitch it inside and outside with 15 pitch. And thus shalt thou make it: let the length of the ark be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of 16 it thirty cubits. A light shalt thou make to the ark; and to a cubit high shalt thou finish it above.
And the door of the ark shalt thou set in its side: [with] a lower, second, and third [story] shalt thou 17 make it. For I, behold, I bring a flood of waters on the earth, to destroy all flesh under the heavens in which is the breath of life:
everything that is on the earth 18 shall expire. But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt go into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy 19 sons' wives with thee. And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every [sort] shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep [them] alive with thee: they shall be male and 20 female. Of fowl after their kind, and of the cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the ground after its kind, two of each shall go in to thee, to keep [them] 21 alive. And take thou of all food that is eaten, and gather [it] to thee, that it may be for food for 22 thee and for them. And Noah did it; according to all that God had commanded him, so did he.

7 And Jehovah said to Noah, Go into the ark, thou and all thy house; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.
2 Of all clean beasts thou shalt take to thee by sevens, a male and its female; but of the beasts that are not clean two, a male and its 3 female. Also of the fowl of the heavens by sevens, male and female; to keep seed alive on the 4 face of all the earth. For in yet seven days I will cause it to rain on the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living being which I have made will I destroy 5 from the ground. And Noah did according to all that Jehovah had commanded him.
6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was 7 on the earth. And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.
8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowl, and of everything that creeps on the 9 ground, there came two and two unto Noah into the ark, male and female, as God had commanded 10 Noah. And it came to pass after seven days that the waters of the flood were on the earth.
11 In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, on the seventeenth day of the month, on that same day all the fountains of the great deep were broken up, and the windows of 12 heaven were opened. And the pour of rain was on the earth forty 13 days and forty nights. On the same day went Noah, and Shem and Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, 14 into the ark; they, and every beast after its kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creeps on the earth after its kind, and all fowl after its kind—every bird of every 15 wing. And they went to Noah, into the ark, two and two of all flesh, in which was the breath of 16 life. And they that came, came male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him. And Jehovah shut him in.
17 And the flood was forty days on the earth. And the waters increased, and bore up the ark; and it was lifted up above the earth.
18 And the waters prevailed and increased greatly on the earth; and the ark went on the face of the 19 waters. And the waters prevailed exceedingly on the earth; and all the high mountains that are under all the heavens were covered.
20 Fifteen cubits upward the waters prevailed; and the mountains 21 were covered. And all flesh that moved on the earth expired, fowl as well as cattle, and beasts, and all crawling[k] things which crawl[k] on the earth, and all mankind: 22 everything which had in its nostrils the breath of life,[l] of all that 23 was on the dry [land], died. And every living being was destroyed

that was on the ground, both man, and cattle, and creeping things, and fowl of the heavens; and they were destroyed from the earth. And Noah alone remained, and what was with him in the ark.
24 And the waters prevailed on the earth a hundred and fifty days.

8 And God remembered Noah, and all the animals, and all the cattle that were with him in the ark; and God made a wind to pass over the earth, and the waters subsided.
2 And the fountains of the deep and the windows of heaven were closed, and the pour of rain 3 from heaven was stopped. And the waters retired from the earth, continually retiring;[m] and in the course of a hundred and fifty days 4 the waters abated. And the ark rested in the seventh month, on the seventeenth day of the month, 5 on the mountains of Ararat. And the waters abated continually until the tenth month: in the tenth [month], on the first of the month, the tops of the mountains were seen.
6 And it came to pass at the end of forty days that Noah opened the window of the ark which he 7 had made. And he sent out the raven, which went forth going to and fro, until the waters were 8 dried from the earth. And he sent out the dove from him, to see if the waters had become low[n] on 9 the ground. But the dove found no resting-place for the sole of her foot, and returned to him into the ark; for the waters were on the whole earth; and he put forth his hand, and took her, and brought 10 her to him into the ark. And he waited yet other seven days, and again he sent forth the dove out of 11 the ark. And the dove came to him at eventide; and behold, in her beak was an olive-leaf plucked off; and Noah knew that the waters had become low[n] on the earth.
12 And he waited yet other seven days, and sent forth the dove; but she returned no more to him.
13 And it came to pass in the six hundred and first year, in the first [month], on the first of the month, that the waters were dried up from the earth. And Noah removed the covering of the ark, and looked, and behold, the surface of the 14 ground was dried. And in the second month, on the twenty-seventh day of the month, the earth was dry.
15 And God spoke to Noah, saying, 16 Go out of the ark, thou, and thy wife, and thy sons, and thy sons' 17 wives with thee. Bring forth with thee every animal which is with thee, of all flesh, fowl as well as cattle, and all the creeping things which creep on the earth, that they may swarm on the earth, and may be fruitful and multiply on the 18 earth. And Noah went out, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' 19 wives with him. All the animals, all the creeping things, and all the fowl—everything that moves on the earth, after their kinds,[o] went 20 out of the ark. And Noah built an altar to Jehovah; and took of every clean animal, and of all clean fowl, and offered up burnt-offer-21 ings on the altar. And Jehovah smelled the sweet odour,[p] And Jehovah said in his heart, I will no more henceforth curse the ground on account of Man, for the thought of Man's heart is evil from his youth; and I will no more smite every living thing, as I have done.
22 Henceforth, all the days of the earth, seed [time] and harvest, and cold and heat, and summer and winter, and day and night, shall not cease.

9 And God blessed Noah and his sons, and said to them, Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth.
2 And let the fear of you and the dread of you be upon every animal of the earth, and upon all fowl of the heavens: upon all that moveth [on] the ground; and upon all the fishes of the sea: into your 3 hand are they delivered. Every moving thing that liveth shall be food for you: as the green herb I 4 give you everything. Only, the flesh with its life, its blood, ye shall 5 not eat. And indeed your blood, [the blood] of your lives, will I require: at the hand of every animal will I require it, and at the hand of Man, at the hand of each [the blood] of his brother, will I 6 require the life of Man. Whoso sheddeth Man's blood, by Man shall his blood be shed; for in the image of God he hath made Man.
7 And ye, be fruitful and multiply: swarm on the earth, and multiply on it.
8 And God spoke to Noah, and to 9 his sons with him, saying, And I, behold, I establish my covenant with you, and with your seed after 10 you; and with every living soul which is with you, fowl as well as cattle, and all the animals of the earth with you, of all that has gone out of the ark—every animal of the 11 earth. And I establish my covenant with you, neither shall all flesh be cut off any more by the waters of a flood, and henceforth there shall be no flood to destroy 12 the earth. And God said, This is the sign of the covenant that I set between me and you and every living soul that is with you, for 13 everlasting generations: I set[q] my bow in the clouds, and it shall be for a sign of the covenant between 14 me and the earth. And it shall come to pass when I bring clouds over the earth, that the bow shall 15 be seen in the cloud, and I[r] will remember my covenant which is between me and you and every living soul of all flesh; and the waters shall not henceforth become a flood to destroy all flesh.

16 And the bow shall be in the cloud; and I will look upon it, that I may remember the everlasting covenant between God and every living soul of all flesh that is upon the 17 earth. And God said to Noah, This is the sign of the covenant which I have established between me and all flesh that is upon the earth.
18 And the sons of Noah who went out of the ark were Shem, and Ham, and Japheth. And Ham is 19 the father of Canaan. These three are the sons of Noah; and from these was [the population of] the 20 whole earth spread abroad. And Noah began [to be] a husbandman, 21 and planted a vineyard. And he drank of the wine, and was drunken, and he uncovered himself in 22 his tent. And Ham the father of Canaan saw the nakedness of his father, and told his two brethren 23 outside. And Shem and Japheth took the upper garment and both laid [it] upon their shoulders, and went backwards, and covered the nakedness of their father. And their faces were turned away, that they saw not their father's naked-24 ness. And Noah awoke from his wine, and learned what his young-25 est son had done to him. And he said, Cursed be Canaan; let him be a bondman of bondmen to his 26 brethren. And he said,

Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Shem,
And let Canaan be his bondman.

27 Let God enlarge Japheth,[s] and let him dwell in the tents of Shem,
And let Canaan be his bondman.
28 And Noah lived after the flood three hundred and fifty years.
29 And all the days of Noah were nine hundred and fifty years; and he died.

10 And these are the generations of the sons of Noah: Shem, Ham, and Japheth; and to them were sons born after the flood.
2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and Ti-3 ras. And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, and Riphath, and Togar-4 mah. And the sons of Javan: Elishah, and Tarshish, Kittim, and 5 Dodanim. From these came the distribution of[t] the isles of the nations, according to their lands, every one after his tongue, after their families, in their nations.
6 And the sons of Ham: Cush, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Ca-7 naan. And the sons of Cush: Seba, and Havilah, and Sabtah, and Raamah, and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raamah: Sheba and De-8 dan. And Cush begot Nimrod:[u] he began to be mighty on the 9 earth. He was a mighty hunter before Jehovah; therefore it is said, As Nimrod, the mighty hun-10 ter before Jehovah! And the beginning of his kingdom was Babel,[v] and Erech, and Accad, and Calneh, 11 in the land of Shinar. From that land went out Asshur,[w] and built Nineveh, and Rehoboth-Ir, and 12 Calah, and Resen, between Nineveh and Calah: this is the great 13 city.—And Mizraim begot the Ludim, and the Anamim, and the 14 Lehabim, and the Naphtuhim, and the Pathrusim, and the Casluhim, out of whom came the Philistines, 15 and the Caphtorim.—And Canaan begot Sidon, his firstborn, and 16 Heth, and the Jebusite, and the 17 Amorite, and the Girgashite, and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the 18 Sinite, and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite. And afterwards the families of the Canaanites spread themselves 19 abroad. And the border of the Canaanite was from Sidon, as one goes[x] to Gerar, up to Gazah; as one goes to Sodom, and Gomorrah, and Admah, and Zeboim, up to 20 Lesha. These are the sons of Ham, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, in their nations.

21 And to Shem—to him also were [sons] born; he is the father of all the sons of Eber, the brother of 22 Japheth the elder.[y] The sons of Shem: Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.
23 And the sons of Aram: Uz, and Hul, and Gether, and Mash.— 24 And Arphaxad begot Shelah; and 25 Shelah begot Eber. And to Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg,[z] for in his days was the earth divided; and his 26 brother's name was Joktan. And Joktan begot Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and Jerah, 27 and Hadoram, and Uzal, and Dik-28 lah, and Obal, and Abimael, and 29 Sheba, and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were sons of 30 Joktan. And their dwelling was from Mesha, as one goes[a] to Se-31 phar, the eastern mountain. These are the sons of Shem, after their families, after their tongues, in their lands, after their nations.
32 These are the families of the sons of Noah, after their generations, in their nations. And from these came the distribution of the nations on the earth after the flood.

11 And the whole earth had[b] one language,[c] and the same 2 words. And it came to pass as they journeyed from[d] the east, that they found a plain in the land
3 of Shinar, and dwelt there. And they said one to another, Come on, let us make bricks, and burn[them] thoroughly.[e] And they had brick for stone, and they had asphalt 4 for mortar. And they said, Come on, let us build ourselves a city and a tower, the top[f] of which [may reach] to the heavens; and let us make ourselves a name, lest we be scattered over the face of the whole 5 earth. And Jehovah came down to see the city and the tower which 6 the children of men built. And Jehovah said, Behold, the people is one, and have all one language;[c] and this have they begun to do. And now will they be hindered in nothing that they meditate doing.
7 Come, let us go down, and there confound their language,[c] that they may not understand one an-8 other's speech.[c] And Jehovah scattered them thence over the face of the whole earth. And they left 9 off building the city. Therefore was its name called Babel;[g] because Jehovah there confounded the language[c] of the whole earth. And Jehovah scattered them thence over the face of the whole earth.
10 These are the generations of Shem. Shem was a hundred years old, and begot Arphaxad two years 11 after the flood. And Shem lived after he had begotten Arphaxad five hundred years, and begot sons 12 and daughters. And Arphaxad lived thirty-five years, and begot 13 Shelah. And Arphaxad lived after he had begotten Shelah four hundred and three years, and begot 14 sons and daughters. And Shelah lived thirty years, and begot Eber.
15 And Shelah lived after he had begotten Eber four hundred and three years, and begot sons and 16 daughters. And Eber lived thirty-17 four years, and begot Peleg. And Eber lived after he had begotten Peleg four hundred and thirty years, and begot sons and daugh-18 ters. And Peleg lived thirty years, 19 and begot Reu. And Peleg lived after he had begotten Reu two hundred and nine years, and begot 20 sons and daughters. And Reu lived thirty-two years, and begot 21 Serug. And Reu lived after he had begotten Serug two hundred and seven years, and begot sons 22 and daughters. And Serug lived thirty years, and begot Nahor.
23 And Serug lived after he had begotten Nahor two hundred years, and begot sons and daughters.
24 And Nahor lived twenty-nine 25 years, and begot Terah. And Nahor lived after he had begotten Terah a hundred and nineteen years, and begot sons and daugh-26 ters. And Terah lived seventy years, and begot Abram,[h] Nahor, and Haran.
27 And these are the generations of Terah: Terah begot Abram, Nahor, and Haran; and Haran 28 begot Lot.[i] And Haran died before the face of his father Terah in the land of his nativity at Ur 29 of the Chaldeans.[j] And Abram and Nahor took wives: the name of Abram's wife was Sarai;[k] and the name of Nahor's wife, Milcah, a daughter of Haran, the father of Milcah and the father of Iscah.
30 And Sarai was barren: she had 32 And the days of Terah were two hundred and five years; and Terah died in Haran.

12 And Jehovah had said to Abram, Go out of thy land, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, to the land that 2 I will shew thee. And I will make of thee a great nation, and bless thee, and make thy name great;
3 and thou shalt be a blessing. And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee; and in thee shall all families of the 4 earth be blessed. And Abram departed as Jehovah had said to him. And Lot went with him. And Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed out of Haran.
5 And Abram took Sarai his wife, and Lot his brother's son, and all their possessions that they had acquired, and the souls that they had obtained in Haran, and they went out to go into the land of Canaan; and into the land of Ca-6 naan they came. And Abram passed through the land to the place of Shechem, to the oak[l] of Moreh. And the Canaanite was 7 then in the land. And Jehovah appeared to Abram, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land. And there he built an altar to Jehovah who had appeared to him.
8 And he removed thence towards the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, [having] Bethel toward the west,[m] and Ai toward the east; and there he built an altar to Jehovah, and called on the name of Jehovah.
9 And Abram moved onward, go-10 ing on still toward the south.[n] And there was a famine in the land. And Abram went down to Egypt to sojourn there, for the famine 11 was grievous in the land. And it came to pass when he was come near to enter into Egypt, that he said to Sarai his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a woman 12 fair to look upon. And it will come to pass when the Egyptians see thee, that they will say, She is his wife; and they will slay me, 13 and save thee alive. Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister, that it may be well with me on thy account, and my soul may live because of thee.
14 And it came to pass when Abram came into Egypt, that the Egyptians beheld the woman that she 15 was very fair. And the princes of Pharaoh[o] saw her, and praised her to Pharaoh; and the woman was 16 taken into Pharaoh's house. And he treated Abram well on her account; and he had sheep, and oxen, and he-asses, and bondmen, and bondwomen, and she-asses, 17 and camels. And Jehovah plagued Pharaoh and his house with great plagues because of Sarai Abram's 18 wife. And Pharaoh called Abram, and said, What is this thou hast done to me? Why didst thou not tell me that she was thy wife?
19 Why didst thou say, She is my sister, so that I took her as my wife. And now, behold, there is thy wife: take [her], and go away.
20 And Pharaoh commanded [his] men concerning him, and they sent him away, and his wife, and all that he had.

13 And Abram went up out of Egypt, he, and his wife, and all that he had, and Lot with him, 2 towards the south. And Abram was very rich in cattle, in silver, 3 and in gold. And he went on his journeys from the south as far as Bethel; as far as the place where his tent had been at the beginning, 4 between Bethel and Ai; to the place of the altar that he had made there at the first. And there Abram called on the name of Jehovah.
5 And Lot also who went with Abram had flocks, and herds, and 6 tents. And the land could not support them, that they might dwell together, for their property was great; and they could not 7 dwell together. And there was strife between the herdsmen of Abram's cattle and the herdsmen of Lot's cattle. And the Canaanite and the Perizzite were dwelling 8 then in the land. And Abram said to Lot, I pray thee let there be no contention between me and thee, and between my herdsmen and thy herdsmen, for we are brethren.[p] 9 Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thyself, I pray thee, from me: if to the left, then I will take the right; and if to the right, then 10 I will take the left. And Lot lifted up his eyes, and beheld all the plain[q] of the Jordan that it was thoroughly watered, before Jehovah had destroyed Sodom[r] and Gomorrah;[s] as the garden of Jehovah, like the land of Egypt, 11 as one goes to Zoar.[t] And Lot chose for himself all the plain of the Jordan; and Lot went toward the east. And they separated the 12 one from the other: Abram dwelt in the land of Canaan; and Lot dwelt in the cities of the plain, and pitched tents as far as Sodom.

13 And the people of Sodom were wicked, and great sinners before Jehovah.
14 And Jehovah said to Abram, after that Lot had separated himself from him, Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art, northward and southward and eastward and westward; 15 for all the land that thou seest will I give to thee, and to thy seed for 16 ever. And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth, so that if any one can number the dust of the earth, thy seed also will be 17 numbered. Arise, walk through the land according to the length of it and according to the breadth of it; for I will give it to thee.
18 Then Abram moved [his] tents, and came and dwelt by the oaks of Mamre, which are in Hebron. And he built there an altar to Jehovah.

14 And it came to pass in the days of Amraphel the king of Shinar, Arioch the king of Ellasar, Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and Tidal the king of nations,[u]
2 [that] they made war with Bera the king of Sodom, and with Birsha the king of Gomorrah, Shinab the king of Admah, and Shemeber the king of Zeboim, and the king 3 of Bela, which is Zoar. All these were joined in the vale of Siddim, 4 which is the salt sea. Twelve years had they served Chedorlaomer; and in the thirteenth year 5 they rebelled. And in the fourteenth year came Chedorlaomer and the kings that were with him, and smote the Rephaim in Ashteroth-karnaim, and the Zuzim in Ham, and the Emim in Shaveh-
6 Kirjathaim,[v] and the Horites on their mount Seir, to El-Paran,[w] 7 which is by the wilderness. And they returned, and came to Enmishpat, which is Kadesh, and smote all the country of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites that 8 dwelt at Hazazon-Tamar. And the king of Sodom and the king of Gomorrah, and the king of Admah, and the king of Zeboim, and the king of Bela, which is Zoar, went out, and they joined battle with them in the vale of Siddim, 9 with Chedorlaomer the king of Elam, and Tidal the king of nations, and Amraphel the king of Shinar, and Arioch the king of Ellasar—four kings with the five.
10 And the vale of Siddim was full of pits[x] of asphalt. And the kings[y] of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and fell there: and they that remained 11 fled to the mountain. And they took all the property of Sodom and Gomorrah, and all their victuals, 12 and departed. And they took Lot and his property, Abram's brother's son, and departed. For he dwelt in Sodom.
13 And one who had escaped came and told Abram the Hebrew.[z] And he dwelt by the oaks of Mamre the Amorite, the brother of Eshcol, and the brother of Aner. And 14 these were Abram's allies.[a] And Abram heard that his brother was taken captive; and he led out his trained [servants], born in his house, three hundred and eighteen, and pursued [them] as far as Dan.
15 And he divided himself against them by night, he and his servants, and smote them, and pursued them as far as Hobah, which is to 16 the left of Damascus. And he brought back all the property, and brought again his brother Lot and his property, and the women also, 17 and the people. And the king of Sodom went out to meet him after he had returned from smiting Chedorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, into the valley of Shaveh, which is the king's valley.
18 And Melchisedec[b] king of Salem brought out bread and wine. And he was priest of the Most High 19 God.[c] And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the Most High God,[c] possessor of 20 be the Most High God,[d] who has delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him the tenth 21 of all. And the king of Sodom said to Abram, Give me the souls, and 22 take the property for thyself. And Abram said to the king of Sodom, I have lifted up my hand to Jehovah, the Most High God,[d] possessor 23 of heavens and earth, if from a thread even to a sandal-thong, yes, if of all that is thine, I take [any-men have eaten, and the portion of the men that went with me,

15 After these things the word of Jehovah came to Abram in a vision, saying, Fear not, Abram; I am thy shield, thy exceeding 2 great reward. And Abram said, Lord[e] Jehovah, what wilt thou give me? seeing I go[f] childless, and the steward[g] of my house is 3 this Eliezer[h] of Damascus. And Abram said, Lo, to me thou hast given no seed, and behold, a son of my house[i] will be mine heir.
4 And behold, the word of Jehovah [came] to him, saying, This shall not be thine heir, but he that will come forth out of thy body[j] shall 5 be thine heir. And he led him out, and said, Look now toward the heavens, and number the stars, if thou be able to number them.
And he said to him, So shall thy 6 seed be! And he believed Jehovah; and he reckoned it to him [as[k] 7 righteousness. And he said to him, I am Jehovah who brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldeans,[l] to give thee this land to possess it.
8 And he said, Lord Jehovah, how shall I know that I shall possess 9 it? And he said to him, Take me a heifer of three years old, and a she-goat of three years old, and a ram of three years old, and a turtle-dove, and a young pigeon.
10 And he took all these, and divided them in the midst, and laid the half of each opposite its fellow; but the birds he did not divide.
11 And the birds of prey came down on the carcases; and Abram scared 12 them away. And as the sun was just going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, a horror, a great darkness, fell upon 13 him. And he said to Abram, Know assuredly that thy seed will be a sojourner in a land [that is] not theirs, and they shall serve[m] them; and they shall afflict them 14 four hundred years. But also that nation which they shall serve I will judge; and afterwards they shall come out with great property.
15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace; thou shalt be buried in a 16 good old age. And [in the] fourth generation they shall come hither again; for the iniquity of the 17 Amorites is not yet full. And it came to pass when the sun had gone down, and it was dark, that[n] behold, there was a smoking furnace, and a flame of fire which 18 passed between those pieces. On the same day Jehovah made[o] a covenant with Abram, saying, Unto thy seed I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great 19 river, the river Euphrates; the Kenites, and the Kenizzites, and 20 the Kadmonites, and the Hittites, and the Perizzites, and the Re-21 phaim, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Girgashites, and the Jebusites.

16 And Sarai Abram's wife did not bear him [children]. And she had an Egyptian maidservant; 2 and her name was Hagar.[p] And Sarai said to Abram, Behold now, Jehovah has shut me up, that I do not bear. Go in, I pray thee, to my maidservant: it may be that I shall be built up by her.
And Abram hearkened to the 3 voice of Sarai. And Sarai Abram's wife took Hagar, the Egyptian, her maidservant, at the end of ten years that Abram had dwelt in the land of Canaan, and gave her to her husband Abram, as his wife.
4 And he went in to Hagar, and she conceived. And when she saw that she had conceived, her mistress was lightly esteemed in her 5 eyes. And Sarai said to Abram, My wrong be on thee! I have given my maidservant into thy bosom; and now she sees that she has conceived, I am lightly esteemed in her eyes. Jehovah judge be-6 tween me and thee! And Abram said to Sarai, Behold, thy maid-servant is in thy hand: do to her what is good in thine eyes. And Sarai oppressed her; and she fled from her face.

7 And the Angel of Jehovah found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, by the spring on the 8 way to Shur. And he said, Hagar, Sarai's maidservant, whence comest thou? and whither art thou going? And she said, I am fleeing from the face of my mistress Sarai.
9 And the Angel of Jehovah said to her, Return to thy mistress, and submit thyself under her hands.
10 And the Angel of Jehovah said to her, I will multiply thy seed exceedingly, that it shall not be num-11 bered for multitude. And the Angel of Jehovah said to her, Behold, thou art with child, and shalt bear a son, and shalt call his name Ishmael,[q] because Jehovah hath 12 hearkened to thy affliction. And he will be a wild-ass of a man, his hand against every man, and every man's hand against him; and he shall dwell before the face of all 13 his brethren. And she called the name of Jehovah who spoke to her, Thou art the God[r] who reveals himself,[s] for she said, Also here have I seen after he has re-14 vealed himself. Therefore the well was named Beer-lahai-roi:[t] behold, it is between Kadesh and Bered.
15 And Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram called the name of his son whom Hagar bore, Ishmael.
16 And Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore Ishmael to Abram.

17 And Abram was ninety-nine years old, when Jehovah appeared to Abram, and said to him, I [am] the Almighty[v] God:[r] walk before my face, and be perfect.
2 And I will set my covenant between me and thee, and will very 3 greatly multiply thee. And Abram fell on his face; and God talked 4 with him, saying, It is I:[w] behold, my covenant is with thee, and thou shalt be a father of a multi-5 tude of nations. And thy name shall no more be called Abram, but thy name shall be Abraham;[x] for a father of a multitude of 6 nations have I made thee. And I will make thee exceedingly fruitful, and I will make nations of thee, and kings shall come out of 7 thee. And I will establish my covenant between me and thee, and thy seed after thee in their generations, for an everlasting covenant, to be a God to thee, and 8 to thy seed after thee. And I give to thee, and to thy seed after thee, the land of thy sojourning, all the land of Canaan, for an everlasting possession; and I will be a God to 9 them. And God said to Abraham, And [as for] thee, thou shalt keep my covenant, thou and thy seed after thee in their generations.
10 This is my covenant which ye shall keep, between me and you and thy seed after thee—that every male 11 among you be circumcised. And ye shall circumcise the flesh of your foreskin; and [that] shall be a sign of the covenant between me 12 and you. And at eight days old shall every male in your generations be circumcised among you—he who is born in the house, and he who is bought with money, any stranger[y] who is not of thy seed.
13 He who is born in thy house, and he who is bought with thy money, must be circumcised; and my covenant shall be in your flesh for 14 an everlasting covenant. And the uncircumcised male who hath not been circumcised in the flesh of his foreskin, that soul shall be cut off from his peoples: he hath broken my covenant.
15 And God said to Abraham, [As to] Sarai thy wife, thou shalt not call her name Sarai, but Sarah[z] 16 shall be her name. And I will bless her, and I will give thee a son also of her; and I will bless her, and she shall become nations: kings 17 of peoples shall be of her. And Abraham fell on his face and laughed, and said in his heart, Shall [a child] be born to him that is a hundred years old? and shall Sarah, who is ninety years old, 18 bear? And Abraham said to God, Oh that Ishmael might live before 19 thee! And God said, Sarah thy wife shall indeed bear thee a son; and thou shalt call his name Isaac;[a] and I will establish my covenant with him, for an everlasting cove-20 nant for his seed after him. And for Ishmael I have heard thee: behold, I will bless him, and will

21 make him a great nation. But my covenant will I establish with Isaac, whom Sarah shall bear to thee at this appointed time in the next 22 year. And he left off talking with him; and God went up from Abraham.
23 And Abraham took Ishmael his son, and all who were born in his house, and all who were bought with his money—every male among the people of Abraham's house—and circumcised the flesh of their foreskin on that same day, 24 as God had said to him. And Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised in the 25 flesh of his foreskin. And Ishmael his son was thirteen years old when he was circumcised in the flesh of 26 his foreskin. In the selfsame day was Abraham circumcised, and 27 Ishmael his son; and all the men of his house, born in his house, or bought with money of the stranger, were circumcised with him.

18 And Jehovah appeared to him by the oaks of Mamre. And he sat at the tent-door in the 2 heat of the day. And he lifted up his eyes and saw, and behold, three men standing[b] near him. And when he saw [them], he ran to meet them from the tent-door, and bowed himself to the earth, 3 and said, Lord, if now I have found favour in thine eyes, pass not away, I pray thee, from thy 4 servant. Let now a little water be fetched, that ye may wash your feet, and rest yourselves under the 5 tree. And I will fetch a morsel of bread; and refresh yourselves;[c] after that ye shall pass on; for therefore have ye passed on towards your servant. And they said, So do as thou hast said.
6 And Abraham hastened into the tent to Sarah, and said, Knead quickly three seahs of wheaten 7 flour, and make cakes. And Abraham ran to the herd, and took a calf tender and good, and gave [it] to the attendant; and he hasted 8 to dress it. And he took thick and sweet milk, and the calf that he had dressed, and set [it] before them; and he stood before them under the tree, and they ate.
9 And they said to him, Where is Sarah thy wife? And he said, 10 Behold, in the tent. And he said, I will certainly return to thee at [this] time of the year,[d] and behold, Sarah thy wife shall have a son. And Sarah was listening at the tent-door, which was behind him.
11 Now Abraham and Sarah were old [and] advanced in age:[e] it had ceased to be with Sarah after the 12 manner of women. And Sarah laughed within herself, saying, After I am become old, shall I have pleasure, and my lord old?
13 And Jehovah said to Abraham, Why is this, that Sarah laughs, saying, Shall I indeed bear, when 14 I am become old? Is [any] matter too wonderful for Jehovah? At the time appointed I will return to thee, at [this] time of the year, 15 and Sarah shall have a son. And Sarah denied, saying, I did not laugh; for she was afraid. And he said, No; but thou didst laugh.
16 And the men rose up thence, and looked toward Sodom; and Abraham went with them to con-17 duct them. And Jehovah said, Shall I hide from Abraham what 18 I am doing? Since Abraham shall indeed become a great and mighty nation; and all the nations of the 19 earth shall be blessed in him. For I know him that he will[f] command his children and his household after him, and they shall keep the way of Jehovah, to do righteousness and justice, in order that Jehovah may bring upon Abraham what he 20 hath spoken of him. And Jehovah said, Because the cry of Sodom and Gomorrah is great and their 21 sin is very grievous, I will go down now, and see whether they have done altogether according to the cry of it, which is come to me; and if not, I will know [it].
22 And the men turned thence, and went towards Sodom; and Abraham remained yet standing before 23 Jehovah. And Abraham drew near, and said, Wilt thou also cause the righteous to perish with 24 the wicked? There are perhaps fifty righteous within the city: wilt thou also destroy and not forgive the place for the sake of the fifty righteous that are therein?
25 Far be it from thee to do so, to slay the righteous with the wicked, that the righteous should be as the wicked—far be it from thee! Will not the Judge of all the earth do 26 right? And Jehovah said, If I find at Sodom fifty righteous within the city, then I will forgive all

27 the place for their sakes. And Abraham answered and said, Behold now, I have ventured to speak unto the Lord; I, who am 28 dust and ashes. Perhaps there may want five of the fifty righteous: wilt thou destroy all the city on account of the five? And he said, If I shall find forty-five 29 there, I will not destroy [it]. And he continued yet to speak with him, and said, Perhaps there may be forty found there. And he said, I will not do it for the forty's sake.
30 And he said, Oh, let not the Lord be angry that I speak! Perhaps there may be thirty found there. And he said, I will not do it if I 31 find thirty there. And he said, Behold now, I have ventured to speak with the Lord. Perhaps there may be twenty found there. And he said, I will not destroy [it] 32 for the twenty's sake. And he said, Oh, let not the Lord be angry, that I speak yet but this time! Perhaps there may be ten found there. And he said, I will not 33 destroy [it] for the ten's sake. And Jehovah went away when he had ended speaking to Abraham; and Abraham returned to his place.

19 And the two angels came to Sodom at even. And Lot was sitting in the gate of Sodom. And Lot saw them, and rose up to meet them; and he bowed down, 2 the face toward the ground, and he said, Behold now, my lords, turn in, I pray you, into your servant's house, and lodge, and wash your feet; and ye shall rise up early, and go on your way. And they said, No; but we will pass 3 the night in the open place.[g] And he urged them greatly; and they turned in unto him, and entered into his house. And he made them a repast, and baked unleavened cakes; and they ate.
4 Before they lay down, the men of the city, the men of Sodom, surrounded the house, from the youngest to the oldest—all the people 5 from every quarter.[h] And they called to Lot, and said to him, Where are the men that have come in to thee to-night? bring them out to us that we may know them.
6 And Lot went out to them to the entrance, and shut the door after 7 him, and said, I pray you, my 8 brethren, do not wickedly! Behold now, I have two daughters who have not known a man: let me now bring them out to you; and do to them as is good in your sight: only, to these men do nothing; for therefore have they come 9 under the shadow of my roof. And they said, Back there! And they said [again], This one came to sojourn, and he must be[i] a judge? Now we will deal worse with thee than with them. And they pressed hard on the man—on Lot; and 10 drew near to break the door. And the men stretched out their hand, and brought Lot into the house 11 to them, and shut the door. And they smote the men that were at the entrance of the house with blindness, from the smallest to the greatest; and they wearied themselves to find the entrance.
12 And the men said to Lot, Whom hast thou here besides? a son-in-law, and thy sons, and thy daughters, and all whom thou hast in the city—bring [them] out of the 13 place. For we are going to destroy this place, because the cry of them is great before Jehovah, and Jeho-14 vah has sent us to destroy it. And Lot went out, and spoke to his sons-in-law, who had married[j] his daughters, and said, Up, go out of this place, for Jehovah will destroy the city. But he was as if he jested, in the sight of his sons-in-law.
15 And as the dawn arose, the angels urged Lot, saying, Up, take thy wife and thy two daughters who are present,[k] lest thou perish 16 in the iniquity of the city. And as he lingered, the men laid hold on his hand, and on the hand of his wife, and on the hand of his two daughters, Jehovah being merciful to him; and they led him out, and 17 set him without the city. And it came to pass when they had brought them outside, that he said, Escape for thy life: look not behind thee, neither stay thou in all the plain:[l] escape to the mountain, lest thou 18 perish. And Lot said to them, 19 Not [so], I pray thee, Lord; behold now, thy servant has found favour in thine eyes, and thou hast magnified thy goodness,[m] which thou hast shewn to me in preserving my soul alive; but I cannot escape to the mountain, lest calamity lay hold on me, that I die.

20 Behold now, this city is near to flee to, and it is small: I pray thee, let me escape thither—is it not small?—and my soul shall live.
21 And he said to him, Behold, I have accepted thee concerning this thing also, that I will not overthrow the city of which thou hast 22 spoken. Haste, escape thither; for I cannot do anything until thou art come there. Therefore the name of the city is called Zoar.[n] 23 The sun rose upon the earth when 24 Lot came to Zoar. And Jehovah rained on Sodom and Gomorrah brimstone and fire from Jehovah 25 out of heaven, and overthrew those cities, and all the plain, and all the inhabitants of the cities, and what 26 grew upon the ground. And his wife looked back from behind him, and she became a pillar of salt.
27 And Abraham rose early in the morning [and went] to the place where he had stood before Jeho-28 vah; and he looked toward Sodom and Gomorrah, and toward all the land of the plain, and beheld, and lo, a smoke went up from the land 29 as the smoke of a furnace. And it came to pass when God destroyed the cities of the plain, that God remembered Abraham, and sent Lot out of the midst of the overthrow, when he overthrew the cities in which Lot dwelt.
30 And Lot went up from Zoar, and dwelt in the mountain, and his two daughters with him; for he feared to dwell in Zoar. And he dwelt in a cave, he and his two daughters.
31 And the first-born said to the younger, Our father is old, and there is not a man in the land to come in to us after the manner of 32 all the earth: come, let us give our father wine to drink, and let us lie with him, that we may pre-33 serve seed alive of our father. And they gave their father wine to drink that night. And the first-born went in, and lay with her father, and he did not know of her lying down, nor of her rising.
34 And it came to pass on the next day that the first-born said to the younger, Lo, I lay last night with my father: let us give him wine to drink to-night also, and go thou in, lie with him, that we may pre-35 serve seed alive of our father. And they gave their father wine to drink that night also. And the younger arose, and lay with him; and he did not know of her lying 36 down, nor of her rising. And both the daughters of Lot were with 37 child by their father. And the first-born bore a son, and called his name Moab: [o] the same is the father of the Moabites to this day.
38 And the younger, she also bore a son, and called his name Ben-ammi; [p] the same is the father of the children of Ammon to this day.

20 And Abraham departed thence towards the south country, and dwelt between Kadesh and Shur, 2 and sojourned at Gerar. And Abraham said of Sarah his wife, She is my sister. And Abimelech the king of Gerar sent and took 3 Sarah. But God came to Abimelech in a dream by night, and said to him, Behold, thou art [but] a dead man, because of the woman that thou hast taken; for she is 4 a man's wife. But Abimelech had not come near her. And he said, Lord, wilt thou also kill a righteous 5 nation? Did he not say to me, She is my sister? and she, even she said, He is my brother. In the integrity of my heart and in the innocency of my hands have I done 6 this. And God said to him in a dream, I also knew that thou didst this in the integrity of thy heart, and I, too, have withheld thee from sinning against me: therefore have I not suffered thee to 7 touch her. And now, restore the man's wife; for he is a prophet, and will pray for thee, that thou mayest live. And if thou do not restore [her], know that thou shalt certainly die, thou and all that is 8 thine. And Abimelech rose early in the morning, and called all his servants, and spoke all these words in their ears; and the men were 9 greatly afraid. And Abimelech called Abraham and said to him, What hast thou done to us? And in what have I sinned against thee, that thou hast brought on me, and on my kingdom, a great sin? Thou hast done to me deeds that ought 10 not to be done. And Abimelech said to Abraham, What hast thou seen that thou hast done this?
11 And Abraham said, Because I said, Surely the fear of God is not in this place, and they will kill me 12 for my wife's sake. But she is also truly my sister, the daughter of my father, but not the daughter of my mother; and she became 13 my wife. And it came to pass when God caused me to wander from my father's house, that I said to her, Let this be thy kindness which thou shalt shew to me: at every place whither we shall come, say of me, He is my brother.

14 And Abimelech took sheep and oxen, and bondmen and bondwomen, and gave [them] to Abraham, and restored him Sarah his 15 wife. And Abimelech said, Behold, my land is before thee: dwell 16 where it is good in thine eyes. And to Sarah he said, Behold, I have given thy brother a thousand [pieces] of silver; behold, let that be to thee a covering of the eyes, in respect of all that are with thee, and with all; and she was re-17 proved.[q] And Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, and his wife and his handmaids, 18 and they bore [children]. For Jehovah had fast closed up all the wombs of the house of Abimelech because of Sarah Abraham's wife.

21 And Jehovah visited Sarah as he had said, and Jehovah did 2 to Sarah as he had spoken. And Sarah conceived, and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the appointed time of which God had 3 spoken to him. And Abraham called the name of his son who was born to him, whom Sarah bore to 4 him, Isaac. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac, being eight days old, as God had commanded 5 him. And Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac 6 was born to him. And Sarah said, God has made me laugh: all that 7 hear will laugh with[r] me. And she said, Who would have said to Abraham, Sarah will suckle children? For I have borne [him] a son in his old age.
8 And the child grew, and was weaned. And Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac 9 was weaned. And Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, mock-10 ing. And she said to Abraham, Cast out this handmaid and her son; for the son of this handmaid shall not inherit with my son—11 with Isaac. And the thing was very grievous in Abraham's sight 12 because of his son. And God said to Abraham, Let it not be grievous in thy sight because of the lad and because of thy handmaid: [in] all that Sarah hath said to thee hearken to her voice, for in Isaac shall 13 a seed be called to thee. But also the son of the handmaid will I make a nation, because he is thy 14 seed. And Abraham rose up early in the morning, and took bread, and a flask of water, and gave [it] to Hagar, putting [it] on her shoulder—and the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness 15 of Beer-sheba. And the water was exhausted from the flask; and she cast the child under one of the 16 shrubs, and she went and sat down over against [him], a bow-shot off; for she said, Let me not behold the death of the child. And she sat over against [him], and lifted 17 up her voice and wept. And God heard the voice of the lad. And the Angel of God called to Hagar from the heavens, and said to her, What [aileth] thee, Hagar? Fear not; for God hath heard the voice 18 of the lad there, where he is. Arise, take the lad, and hold him in thy hand; for I will make of him a 19 great nation. And God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water; and she went and filled the flask with water, and gave the 20 lad drink. And God was with the lad, and he grew; and he dwelt in the wilderness, and became an 21 archer. And he dwelt in the wilderness of Paran. And his mother took him a wife out of the land of Egypt.
22 And it came to pass at that time that Abimelech, and Phichol the captain of his host, spoke to Abraham, saying, God is with thee in 23 all that thou doest. And now swear to me here by God that thou wilt not[s] deal deceitfully with me, nor with my son, nor with my grandson. According to the kindness that I have done to thee, thou shalt do to me, and to the land in 24 which thou sojournest. And Abra-25 ham said, I will swear. And Abraham reproved Abimelech because of a well of water that Abimelech's servants had violently taken away.
26 And Abimelech said, I do not know

[q] נוכחת: as Onkelos, Kimchi, and some moderns (as Gesenius). Others (as Fürst), 'the matter has been set right;' or (as Delitzsch), 'thou art set right.' What is given in the text agrees best with the sense. יכח does mean 'to set right;' and thus both senses are possible. The best Hebraists, it will be seen, are at variance as to the form of the word. Rosenmüller makes it third person, perfect Nifal, in a chaldaïzing form; but Gesenius, the participle; both, however, as the word of the writer. On the other hand, Ewald and Kalisch regard it as second person, perfect Nifal. Mendelssohn, Zunz also, and Payne Smith translate it as if said by Abimelech. [r] Or 'on account of.' See also xvii. 19.
[s] Lit. 'If thou shalt,' a strong Hebrew expression for 'Thou shalt not.'

who has done this, neither hast thou told me [of it], neither have 27 I heard [of it] but to-day. And Abraham took sheep and oxen, and gave them to Abimelech; and both of them made a covenant.
28 And Abraham set seven ewe-lambs 29 of the flock by themselves. And Abimelech said to Abraham, What [mean] these seven ewe-lambs, these which thou hast set by them-30 selves? And he said, That thou take the seven ewe-lambs of my hand, that they may be a witness to me that I have dug this well.
31 Therefore he called that place Beer-sheba,[t] because there they 32 had sworn, both of them. And they made a covenant at Beer-sheba. And Abimelech rose up, and Phichol the captain of his host, and returned into the land of the 33 Philistines. And [Abraham] planted a tamarisk[u] in Beer-sheba, and called there on the name of Jeho-34 vah, the Eternal God.[v] And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines' land many days.

22 And it came to pass after these things, that God tried[w] Abraham, and said to him, Abraham! and he said, Here am I.
2 And he said, Take now thy son, thine only [son], whom thou lovest, Isaac, and get thee into the land of Moriah, and there offer him up for a burnt-offering on one of the mountains which I will tell thee 3 of. And Abraham rose early in the morning, and saddled his ass, and took two of his young men with him, and Isaac his son; and he clave the wood for the burnt-offering, and rose up and went to the place that God had told him of.
4 On the third day Abraham lifted up his eyes and saw the place from 5 afar. And Abraham said to his young men, Abide ye here with the ass; and I and the lad will go yonder and worship,[x] and come 6 again to you. And Abraham took the wood of the burnt-offering, and laid it on Isaac his son; and he took the fire in his hand, and the knife, and they went both of 7 them together. And Isaac spoke to Abraham his father, and said, My father! And he said, Here am I, my son. And he said, Behold the fire and the wood; but where is the sheep for a burnt-offering?
8 And Abraham said, My son, God will provide himself with the sheep for a burnt-offering. And they 9 went both of them together. And they came to the place of which God had told him. And Abraham built the altar there, and piled the wood; and he bound Isaac his son, and laid him on the altar upon the 10 wood. And Abraham stretched out his hand, and took the knife 11 to slaughter his son. And the Angel of Jehovah called to him from the heavens, and said, Abraham, Abraham! And he said, 12 Here am I. And he said, Stretch not out thy hand against the lad, neither do anything to him; for now I know that thou fearest God, and hast not withheld thy son, 13 thine only [son], from me. And Abraham lifted up his eyes, and looked, and behold, behind was a ram caught in the thicket by its horns; and Abraham went and took the ram, and offered it up for a burnt-offering instead of his son.
14 And Abraham called the name of that place Jehovah-jireh;[y] as it is said at the present day, On the mount of Jehovah will be provided.
15 And the Angel of Jehovah called to Abraham from the heavens a 16 second time, and said, By myself I swear, saith[z] Jehovah, that, because thou hast done this, and hast not withheld thy son, thine only 17 [son], I will richly bless thee, and greatly multiply thy seed, as the stars of heaven, and as the sand that is on the sea-shore; and thy seed shall possess the gate of his 18 enemies; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth bless themselves,[a] because thou hast hearkened to my voice.
19 And Abraham returned to his young men, and they rose up and went together to Beer-sheba. And Abraham dwelt at Beer-sheba.
20 And it came to pass after these things, that it was told Abraham, saying, Behold, Milcah, she also has borne sons to thy brother Na-21 hor: Uz his first-born, and Buz his brother, and Kemuel the father 22 of Aram, and Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Jidlaph, and 23 Bethuel. (And Bethuel begot Rebecca.) These eight Milcah bore 24 to Nahor, Abraham's brother. And his concubine, named Reumah, she also bore Tebah, and Gaham, and Thahash, and Maacah.

23 And the life of Sarah was a hundred and twenty-seven years: [these were] the years of 2 the life of Sarah. And Sarah died in Kirjath-Arba: that is Hebron, in the land of Canaan. And Abraham came to mourn for Sarah, and to weep for her.
3 And Abraham rose up from before his dead, and spoke to the 4 sons of Heth, saying, I am a stranger and a sojourner[b] with you; give me a possession of a sepulchre with you, that I may bury my dead from before me.
5 And the sons of Heth answered 6 Abraham, saying to him, Hear us, my lord: thou art a prince of God among us: in the choicest of our sepulchres bury thy dead: none of us shall withhold from thee his sepulchre for burying thy dead.
7 And Abraham rose up, and bowed down to the people of the land, to 8 the sons of Heth, and spoke to them, saying, If it be your will that I should bury my dead from before me, hear me, and entreat for me 9 Ephron the son of Zohar, that he may give me the cave of Machpelah, which is his, which is at the end of his field; for the full money let him give it to me amongst you for a possession of a sepulchre.
10 And Ephron was dwelling[c] among the sons of Heth. And Ephron the Hittite answered Abraham, in the ears of the sons of Heth, [even] of all that went in at the gate of 11 his city, saying, No, my lord: hear me. The field give I thee; and the cave that is in it, to thee I give it; before the eyes of the sons of my people give I it thee: bury thy 12 dead. And Abraham bowed down 13 before the people of the land; and he spoke to Ephron, in the ears of the people of the land, saying, But if only thou wouldst listen to me, I give the money for[d] the field: take [it] of me, and I will bury my 14 dead there. And Ephron answered 15 Abraham, saying to him, My lord, hearken to me. A field of four hundred shekels of silver, what is that between me and thee? bury 16 therefore thy dead. And Abraham hearkened to Ephron; and Abraham weighed to Ephron the money that he had named in the ears of the sons of Heth—four hundred shekels of silver, current with the merchant.
17 So the field of Ephron, which was at Machpelah, which was before Mamre, the field, and the cave that was in it, and all the trees that were in the field, that were in 18 all its borders round about, were assured to Abraham for a possession before the eyes of the sons of Heth, before all who went in at 19 the gate of his city. And after this, Abraham buried Sarah his wife in the cave of the field at Machpelah, opposite to Mamre: that is Hebron, in the land of 20 Canaan. And the field and the cave that was in it were assured to Abraham for a possession of a sepulchre by the sons of Heth.

24 And Abraham was old, [and] advanced in age; and Jehovah had blessed Abraham in all things.
2 And Abraham said to his servant, the eldest of his house, who ruled over all that he had, Put thy hand, 3 I pray thee, under my thigh, and I will make thee swear by Jehovah, the God of the heavens and the God of the earth, that thou take not a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanites, among 4 whom I am dwelling; but thou shalt go to my land and to my kindred, and take a wife for my 5 son Isaac. And the servant said to him, Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land: must I, then, bring thy son again in any case to the land from which thou hast removed?
6 And Abraham said to him, Beware that thou bring not my son 7 thither again. Jehovah the God of the heavens, who took me out of my father's house, and out of the land of my nativity,[e] and who has spoken to me, and who has sworn to me, saying, Unto thy seed will I give this land—he will send his angel before thee, that thou mayest take a wife for my 8 son thence. And if the woman be not willing to follow thee, then thou shalt be quit of this my oath: only, bring not my son thither 9 again. And the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore unto him concerning that matter.
10 And the servant took ten camels of the camels of his master, and departed; now all the treasure of his master was under his hand; and he arose and went to Aram-naharaim,[f] to the city of Nahor.
11 And he made the camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water, at the time of the evening, when the women came out to draw 12 [water]. And he said, Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, meet me, I pray thee, [with thy blessing] this day, and deal kindly with 13 my master Abraham. Behold, I stand [g] [here] by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city come out to draw water.

14 And let it come to pass, [that] the maiden to whom I shall say, Let down thy pitcher, I pray thee, that I may drink, and who will say, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also, be she whom thou hast appointed for thy servant Isaac; and hereby [h] I shall know that thou hast dealt kindly with my master.
15 And it came to pass before he had ended speaking, that behold, Rebecca [i] came out, who was born to Bethuel, son of Milcah the wife of Nahor, Abraham's brother; and [she had] her pitcher upon her 16 shoulder. And the maiden was very fair in countenance; a virgin, and no man had known her. And she went down to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came up.
17 And the servant ran to meet her, and said, Let me, I pray thee, sip 18 a little water out of thy pitcher. And she said, Drink, my lord! And she hasted and let down her pitcher on her hand, and gave him to 19 drink. And when she had given him enough to drink, she said, I will draw [water] for thy camels also, until they have drunk enough.
20 And she hasted and emptied her pitcher into the trough, and ran again to the well to draw [water]; and she drew for all his camels.
21 And the man was astonished at her, remaining silent to know whether Jehovah had made his journey prosperous or not.
22 And it came to pass when the camels had drunk enough, that the man took a gold ring, [j] of half a shekel weight, and two bracelets for her hands, ten [shekels] weight 23 of gold, and said, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee. Is there room [in] thy father's 24 house for us to lodge? And she said to him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the son of Milcah, whom 25 she bore to Nahor. And she said to him, There is straw, and also much provender with us; also room to lodge.
26 And the man stooped, and bowed 27 down before Jehovah, and said, Blessed be Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, who has not withdrawn his loving-kindness and his faithfulness [k] from my master; I being in the way, Jehovah has led me to the house of my master's brethren.
28 And the maiden ran and told these things to her mother's house.
29 And Rebecca had a brother, named Laban; and Laban ran out to the 30 man, to the well. And it came to pass when he saw the ring and the bracelets on his sister's hand, and when he heard the words of Rebecca his sister, saying, Thus spoke the man to me—that he came to the man, and behold, he was stand-31 ing by the camels, by the well. And he said, Come in, blessed of Jehovah! why standest thou outside? for I have prepared the house, and room for the camels.
32 And the man came into the house; and he ungirded the camels, and gave the camels straw and provender, and water to wash his feet, and the feet of the men who 33 were with him. And there was set [meat] before him to eat; but he said, I will not eat until I have made known [l] my business. And 34 he said, Speak on. And he said, 35 I am Abraham's servant. And Jehovah has blessed my master greatly, and he is become great; and he has given him sheep and cattle, and silver and gold, and bondmen and bondwomen, and 36 camels and asses. And Sarah, my master's wife, bore a son to my master after she had grown old; and unto him has he given all that 37 he has. And my master made me swear, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife for my son of the daughters of the Canaanite, in whose land I 38 am dwelling; but thou shalt by all means [m] go to my father's house and to my family, and take a wife 39 for my son. And I said to my master, Perhaps the woman will 40 not follow me? And he said to me, Jehovah, before whom I have walked, will send his angel with thee, and prosper thy way, that thou mayest take a wife for my son of my family, and out of my 41 father's house. Then shalt thou be quit of my oath, when thou shalt have come to my family. And if they give thee not [one], thou shalt be quit of my oath.

42 And I came this day to the well, and said, Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, if now thou wilt prosper my way on which I go, 43 behold, I stand by the well of water, and let it come to pass that the damsel who cometh forth to draw [water], and to whom I shall say, Give me, I pray thee, a little water out of thy pitcher to drink, 44 and she shall say to me, Both drink thou, and I will also draw for thy camels—that she should be the woman whom Jehovah hath appointed for my master's son.
45 Before I ended speaking in my heart, behold, Rebecca came forth with her pitcher on her shoulder, and went down to the well, and drew [water]; and I said to her, Give me, I pray thee, to drink.
46 And she hasted and let down her pitcher from her [shoulder], and said, Drink, and I will give thy camels drink also. And I drank; and she gave the camels drink also.
47 And I asked her, and said, Whose daughter art thou? And she said, The daughter of Bethuel, Nahor's son, whom Milcah bore to him. And I put the ring on her nose, and the bracelets on her hands.
48 And I stooped, and bowed down before Jehovah; and I blessed Jehovah, God of my master Abraham, who has led me the right way [n] to take my master's brother's 49 daughter for his son. And now, if ye will deal kindly and truly with my master, tell me; and if not, tell me; and I will turn to the right hand or to the left.
50 And Laban and Bethuel answered and said, The thing proceeds from Jehovah: we cannot 51 speak to thee bad or good. Behold, Rebecca is before thee: take [her], and go away; and let her be wife of thy master's son, as 52 Jehovah has said. And it came to pass, when Abraham's servant heard their words, that he bowed down to the earth before Jehovah.
53 And the servant brought forth silver articles, and gold articles, and clothing, and he gave [them] to Rebecca; and he gave to her brother, and to her mother, precious things.
54 And they ate and drank, he and the men that were with him, and lodged. And they rose up in the morning; and he said, Send me 55 away to my master. And her brother and her mother said, Let the maiden abide with us [some] days, or [say] ten; after that she 56 shall go. And he said to them, Do not hinder me, seeing Jehovah has prospered my way: send me away, 57 and I will go to my master. And they said, Let us call the maiden 58 and inquire at her mouth. And they called Rebecca and said to her, Wilt thou go with this man?
59 And she said, I will go. And they sent away Rebecca their sister, and her nurse, and Abraham's ser-60 vant, and his men. And they blessed Rebecca, and said to her, Thou art our sister; mayest thou become thousands of tens of thousands; and may thy seed possess the gate of their enemies!
61 And Rebecca arose, and her maids, and they rode upon the camels, and followed the man. And the servant took Rebecca, and 62 went away. And Isaac had just returned from [o] Beer-lahai-roi; for he was dwelling in the south coun-63 try. And Isaac had gone out to meditate in the fields toward the beginning of evening. And he lifted up his eyes and saw, and 64 behold, camels were coming. And Rebecca lifted up her eyes and saw Isaac, and she sprang off the 65 camel. And she had said to the servant, Who is the man that is walking in the fields to meet us? And the servant said, That is my master! Then she took the veil, 66 and covered herself. And the servant told Isaac all things that he 67 had done. And Isaac led her into his mother Sarah's tent; and he took Rebecca, and she became his wife, and he loved her. And Isaac was comforted after [the death of] his mother.

25 And Abraham took another wife named Keturah. And she 2 bore him Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ish-3 bak, and Shuah. And Jokshan begot Sheba and Dedan; and the sons of Dedan were the Asshurim, and the Letushim, and the Leum-4 mim. And the sons of Midian were Ephah, and Epher, and Enoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these were sons of Keturah.
5 And Abraham gave all that he 6 had to Isaac. And to the sons of the concubines that Abraham had, Abraham gave gifts, and, while he yet lived, sent them away from Isaac his son, eastward to the east country.
7 And these are the days of the years of Abraham's life which he [n] Lit. 'in a way of truth.' [o] Lit. 'came from coming to.'

lived: a hundred and seventy-five 8 years. And Abraham expired and died in a good old age, old and full [of days]; and was gathered to 9 his peoples. And his sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah, in the field of Eph-ron the son of Zohar the Hittite, 10 which was opposite to Mamre—the field that Abraham had purchased of the sons of Heth: there was Abraham buried, and Sarah his 11 wife. And it came to pass after the death of Abraham, that God blessed his son Isaac. And Isaac dwelt at Beer-lahai-roi.
12 And these are the generations of Ishmael, Abraham's son, whom Hagar the Egyptian, Sarah's bond-13 woman, bore to Abraham. And these are the names of the sons of Ishmael by their names according to their generations: Nebaioth, the firstborn of Ishmael; and Ke-14 dar, and Adbeel, and Mibsam, and Mishma, and Dumah, and Massa, 15 Hadad[p] and Tema, Jetur, Na-16 phish and Kedmah. These are the sons of Ishmael, and these are their names, in their hamlets and their encampments—twelve princes of 17 their peoples. And these are the years of the life of Ishmael: a hundred and thirty-seven years; and he expired and died, and was 18 gathered to his peoples. And they dwelt from Havilah to Shur, which is opposite to Egypt, as one goes towards Assyria. He settled[q] before the face of all his brethren.
19 And these are the generations of Isaac, Abraham's son. Abraham 20 begot Isaac. And Isaac was forty years old when he took Rebecca as wife, the daughter of Bethuel the Syrian[r] of Padan-Aram, the 21 sister of Laban the Syrian. And Isaac entreated Jehovah for his wife, because she was barren; and Jehovah was entreated of him, and 22 Rebecca his wife conceived. And the children struggled together within her; and she said, If [it be] so, why am I thus? And she went 23 to inquire of Jehovah. And Jehovah said to her,

Two nations are in thy womb,
And two peoples shall be separated from thy bowels;
And one people shall be stronger than the other people, And the elder shall serve the younger.

24 And when her days to be delivered were fulfilled, behold, there 25 were twins in her womb. And the first came out red—all over like a hairy garment; and they called 26 his name Esau.[s] And after that came his brother out; and his hand took hold of Esau's heel; and his name was called Jacob.[t] And Isaac was sixty years old when 27 they were born. And the boys grew, and Esau became a man skilled in hunting, a man of the field; and Jacob was a homely 28 man, dwelling in tents. And Isaac loved Esau, because venison was to his taste;[u] and Rebecca loved Jacob.
29 And Jacob had cooked a dish; and Esau came from the field, and 30 he was faint. And Esau said to Jacob, Feed me, I pray thee, with the red—the red thing there, for I am faint. Therefore was his 31 name called Edom.[v] And Jacob said, Sell me now[w] thy birthright.
32 And Esau said, Behold, I am going to die, and of what use can the 33 birthright be to me? And Jacob said, Swear unto me now.[w] And he swore unto him, and sold his 34 birthright to Jacob. And Jacob gave Esau bread and the dish of lentils; and he ate and drank, and rose up and went away. Thus Esau despised the birthright.

26 And there was a famine in the land, besides the former famine which had been in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went to Abimelech the king of the Philis-2 tines, to Gerar. And Jehovah appeared to him and said, Go not down to Egypt: dwell in the land 3 that I shall tell thee of. Sojourn in this land; and I will be with thee and bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries; and I will perform the oath which I swore unto 4 Abraham thy father. And I will multiply thy seed as the stars of heaven, and unto thy seed will I give all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the 5 earth bless themselves[x]—because that Abraham hearkened to my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and 6 my laws. And Isaac dwelt at Gerar.
7 And the men of the place asked about his wife. And he said, She is my sister; for he feared to say, my wife, [saying to himself,] Lest the men of the place slay me on account of Rebecca—because she 8 was fair in countenance. And it came to pass when he had been there some time,[y] that Abimelech the king of the Philistines looked out of the window, and saw, and behold, Isaac was dallying with 9 Rebecca his wife. Then Abimelech called Isaac, and said, Behold, she is certainly thy wife; and how saidst thou, She is my sister? And Isaac said to him, Because I said, 10 Lest I die on account of her. And Abimelech said, What is this thou hast done to us? But a little and one of the people might have lain with thy wife, and thou wouldest have brought a trespass on us.

11 And Abimelech charged all the people, saying, He that touches this man or his wife shall certainly be put to death.
12 And Isaac sowed in that land, and received[z] in the same year a hundredfold; and Jehovah blessed 13 him. And the man became great, and he became continually greater, 14 until he was very great. And he had possessions of flocks, and possessions of herds, and a great number of servants; and the Philis-15 tines envied him. And all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines stopped them and filled them with earth.
16 And Abimelech said to Isaac, Go from us; for thou art become much mightier than we.
17 And Isaac departed thence, and pitched his camp in the valley[a] of 18 Gerar, and dwelt there. And Isaac dug again the wells of water that they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, and that the Philistines had stopped after the death of Abraham; and he called their names after the names by which 19 his father had called them. And Isaac's servants dug in the valley, and found there a well of spring-20 ing[b] water. But the shepherds of Gerar strove with Isaac's shepherds, saying, The water is ours. And he called the name of the well Esek,[c] because they had quarrelled 21 with him. And they dug another well, and they strove for that also; and he called the name of it Sit-22 nah.[d] And he removed thence and dug another well; and they did not strive for that. And he called the name of it Rehoboth,[e] and said, For now Jehovah has made room for us, and we shall be fruitful in the land.
23 And he went up thence to Beer-24 sheba. And Jehovah appeared to him the same night, and said, I am the God of Abraham thy father: fear not, for I am with thee, and will bless thee, and multiply thy seed for my servant Abraham's 25 sake. And he built an altar there, and called upon the name of Jehovah. And he pitched his tent there; and there Isaac's servants 26 dug a well. And Abimelech, and Ahuzzath his friend, and Phichol the captain of his host, went to 27 him from Gerar. And Isaac said to them, Why are ye come to me, seeing ye hate me, and have 28 driven me away from you? And they said, We saw certainly that Jehovah is with thee; and we said, Let there be then an oath between us—between us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee, 29 that[f] thou wilt do us no wrong, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done to thee nothing but good, and have let thee go in peace; thou art now blessed of Jehovah.
30 And he made them a feast, and 31 they ate and drank. And they rose early in the morning, and swore one to another; and Isaac sent them away, and they departed 32 from him in peace. And it came to pass the same day, that Isaac's servants came, and told him concerning the well that they had dug, and said to him, We have found 33 water. And he called it Shebah;[g] therefore the name of the city is Beer-sheba to this day.
34 And Esau was forty years old, when he took as wives[h] Judith the daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and Basmath the daughter of Elon the 35 Hittite. And they were a grief of mind[i] to Isaac and to Rebecca.

27 And it came to pass when Isaac had become old, and his eyes were dim so that he could not see, that he called Esau his elder son, and said to him, My son! And 2 he said to him, Here am I. And he said, Behold now, I am become old; I know not the day of my 3 death. And now, I pray thee, take thy weapons, thy quiver and thy bow, and go out to the field and 4 hunt me venison, and prepare me a savoury dish such as I love, and bring it to me that I may eat, in order that my soul may bless thee 5 before I die. And Rebecca heard when Isaac spoke to Esau his son.

And Esau went to the field to hunt venison, to bring it.
6 And Rebecca spoke to Jacob her son, saying, Behold, I heard thy father speak to Esau thy brother, 7 saying, Bring me venison, and prepare me a savoury dish, that I may eat, and bless thee before Jehovah, 8 before my death. And now, my son, hearken to my voice in that 9 which I command thee. Go, I pray thee, to the flock, and fetch me thence two good kids of the goats. And I will make of them a savoury dish for thy father, such 10 as he loves. And thou shalt bring [it] to thy father, that he may eat, in order that he may bless thee 11 before his death. And Jacob said to Rebecca his mother, Behold, Esau my brother is a hairy man, 12 and I am a smooth man. My father perhaps will feel me, and I shall be in his sight as one who mocks [him], and I shall bring a curse on me, and not a blessing.
13 And his mother said to him, On me [be] thy curse, my son! Only hearken to my voice, and go, fetch 14 [them]. And he went, and fetched and brought [them] to his mother.
And his mother prepared a savoury dish such as his father loved.
15 And Rebecca took the clothes of her elder son Esau, the costly ones which were with her in the house, and put them on Jacob her youn-16 ger son; and she put the skins of the kids of the goats on his hands, and on the smooth of his neck; 17 and she gave the savoury dishes and the bread that she had prepared into the hand of her son Jacob.
18 And he came to his father, and said, My father! And he said, Here am I: who art thou, my 19 son? And Jacob said to his father, I am Esau, thy firstborn. I have done according as thou didst say to me. Arise, I pray thee, sit and eat of my venison, in order that 20 thy soul may bless me. And Isaac said to his son, How is it that thou hast found [it] so quickly, my son?
And he said, Because Jehovah thy 21 God[k] put [it] in my way. And Isaac said to Jacob, Come near,
I pray thee, that I may feel thee, my son, whether thou be really 22 my son Esau or not. And Jacob drew near to Isaac his father; and he felt him, and said, The voice is Jacob's voice, but the hands are 23 the hands of Esau. And he did not discern him, because his hands were hairy, as his brother Esau's 24 hands; and he blessed him. And he said, Art thou really my son 25 Esau? And he said, It is I. And he said, Bring [it] near to me, that I may eat of my son's venison, in order that my soul may bless thee.
And he brought [it] near to him, and he ate; and he brought him 26 wine, and he drank. And his father Isaac said to him, Come near, now, and kiss me, my son.
27 And he came near, and kissed him.
And he smelt the smell of his clothes, and blessed him, and said, See, the smell of my son is as the smell of a field which Jehovah hath blessed.
28 And God give thee of the dew of heaven,
And of the fatness of the earth,
And plenty of corn and new wine.
29 Let peoples serve thee,
And races bow down to thee.
Be lord over thy brethren,
And let thy mother's sons bow down to thee.
Cursed be they that curse thee,
And blessed be they that bless thee.
30 And it came to pass when Isaac had ended blessing Jacob, and when Jacob was only just gone out from Isaac his father, that Esau his brother came from his hunting.
31 And he also had prepared savoury dishes, and he brought [them] in to his father, and said to his father, Let my father arise and eat of his son's venison, in order that thy 32 soul may bless me. And Isaac his father said to him, Who art thou?
And he said, I am thy son, thy 33 firstborn, Esau. Then Isaac trembled with exceeding great trembling, and said, Who was he, then, that hunted venison and brought [it] to me? And I have eaten of all before thou camest, and have blessed him; also blessed he shall 34 be. When Esau heard the words of his father, he cried with a great and exceeding bitter cry, and said to his father, Bless me—me also, 35 my father! And he said, Thy brother came with subtilty, and 36 has taken away thy blessing. And he said, Is it not therefore he was named Jacob,[l] for he has supplanted me now twice? He took away my birthright, and behold, now he has taken away my blessing. And he said, Hast thou not 37 reserved a blessing for me? And Isaac answered and said to Esau, Behold, I have made him lord over thee, and all his brethren have I given to him for servants, and with corn and new wine have I supplied him—and what can I do now for 38 thee, my son? And Esau said to his father, Hast thou then but one blessing, my father? bless me—me also, my father! And Esau 39 lifted up his voice and wept. And Isaac his father answered and said to him,

Behold, thy dwelling shall be of[m] the fatness of the earth,
And of the dew of heaven from above; 40 And by thy sword shalt thou live;
And thou shalt serve thy brother;
And it shall come to pass when thou rovest about,
That thou shalt break his yoke from off thy neck.

41 And Esau hated Jacob because of the blessing with which his father had blessed him. And Esau said in his heart, The days of mourning for my father are at hand, and I will slay my brother 42 Jacob. And the words of Esau her elder son were told to Rebecca. And she sent and called Jacob her younger son, and said to him, Behold, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, comforts himself[n] that 43 he will kill thee. And now, my son, hearken to my voice, and arise, flee to Laban my brother, 44 to Haran; and abide with him some days, until thy brother's fury 45 turn away—until thy brother's anger turn away from thee, and he forget what thou hast done to him; then I will send and fetch thee thence. Why should I be bereaved even of you both in one day?

46 And Rebecca said to Isaac, I am weary of my life because of the daughters of Heth. If Jacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these, of the daughters of the land, what good should my life do me?

28 And Isaac called Jacob, and blessed him, and charged him, and said to him, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters of 2 Canaan. Arise, go to Padan-Aram, to the house of Bethuel thy mother's father, and take a wife thence of the daughters of Laban 3 thy mother's brother. And the Almighty God bless thee, and make thee fruitful and multiply thee, that thou mayest become a 4 company[o] of peoples. And may he give thee the blessing of Abraham, to thee and to thy seed with thee, in order that thou mayest possess the land of thy sojourning, 5 which God gave to Abraham! And Isaac sent away Jacob; and he went to Padan-Aram, to Laban the son of Bethuel the Syrian, the brother of Rebecca, Jacob's and Esau's mother.

6 And Esau saw that Isaac had blessed Jacob, and sent him away to Padan-Aram, to take a wife thence, blessing him, and giving him a charge saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of the daughters 7 of Canaan; and [that] Jacob had obeyed his father and his mother, 8 and was gone to Padan-Aram. And Esau saw that the daughters of Canaan were evil in the sight of 9 Isaac his father. And Esau went to Ishmael, and took, besides the wives that he had, Mahalath the daughter of Ishmael Abraham's son, the sister of Nebaioth, to be his wife.

10 And Jacob went out from Beer-sheba, and went towards Haran.
11 And he lighted on a certain place, and lodged there, because the sun had set. And he took [one] of the stones of the place, and made [it] his pillow, and lay down in that 12 place. And he dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to the heavens. And behold, angels of God ascended and descended 13 upon it. And behold, Jehovah stood above it. And he said, I am Jehovah, the God of Abraham, thy father, and the God of Isaac: the land on which thou liest, to thee 14 will I give it, and to thy seed. And thy seed shall be as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spread a broad to the west, and to the east, and to the north, and to the south; and in thee and in thy seed shall all the families of the earth be 15 blessed. And behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all [places] to which thou goest, and will bring thee again into this land; for I will not leave thee until I have done what I have spoken to 16 thee of. And Jacob awoke from his sleep, and said, Surely Jehovah is in this place, and I knew [it] not.

17 And he was afraid, and said, How dreadful is this place! this is none other but the house of God, and 18 this is the gate of heaven. And Jacob rose early in the morning, and took the stone that he had made his pillow, and set it up [for] a pillar, and poured oil on the top 19 of it. And he called the name of that place Beth-el;[p] but the name of that city was Luz at the first.
20 And Jacob vowed a vow, saying, If God will be with me, and keep me on this road that I go, and will give me bread to eat, and a gar-21 ment to put on, and I come again to my father's house in peace—then shall Jehovah be my God.
22 And this stone, which I have set up [for] a pillar, shall be God's house; and of all that thou wilt give me I will without fail give the tenth to thee.

29 And Jacob continued his journey, and went into the land 2 of the children of the east. And he looked, and behold, there was a well in the fields, and behold there, three flocks of sheep were lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks, and a great stone was at the mouth of the well.
3 And when all the flocks were gathered there, they rolled the stone from the mouth of the well, and watered the sheep, and put the stone again on the mouth of 4 the well in its place. And Jacob said to them, My brethren, whence are ye? And they said, Of Haran 5 are we. And he said to them, Do ye know Laban the son of Nahor? And they said, We do know [him].
6 And he said to them, Is he well?[q] And they said, [He is] well;[r] and behold, there comes Rachel his 7 daughter with the sheep. And he said, Behold, it is yet high[s] day; it is not time that the cattle should be gathered together; water the 8 sheep, and go, feed [them]. And they said, We cannot until all the flocks are gathered together, and they roll the stone from the mouth of the well, and we water the sheep.
9 While he was still speaking to them, Rachel came with her father's sheep, for she was a shep-10 herdess. And it came to pass when Jacob saw Rachel the daughter of Laban his mother's brother, and the sheep of Laban his mother's brother, that Jacob went near, and rolled the stone from the mouth of the well, and watered the sheep of 11 Laban his mother's brother. And Jacob kissed Rachel, and lifted up 12 his voice and wept. And Jacob told Rachel that he was a brother of her father, and that he was Rebecca's son; and she ran and 13 told her father. And it came to pass when Laban heard the tidings of Jacob his sister's son, that he ran to meet him, and embraced him, and kissed him, and brought him to his house; and he told 14 Laban all these things. And Laban said to him, Thou art indeed my bone and my flesh. And he abode with him a month's time.[t] 15 And Laban said to Jacob, Because thou art my brother, shouldest thou serve me for nothing? tell 16 me, what shall be thy wages? And Laban had two daughters: the name of the elder was Leah,[u] and the name of the younger, Rachel.[v] 17 And the eyes of Leah were tender; but Rachel was of beautiful form 18 and beautiful countenance. And Jacob loved Rachel, and said, I will serve thee seven years for 19 Rachel thy younger daughter. And Laban said, It is better that I give her to thee than that I should give her to another man: abide with 20 me. And Jacob served seven years for Rachel; and they were in his eyes as single days, because he loved her.
21 And Jacob said to Laban, Give [me] my wife, for my days are ful-22 filled, that I may go in to her. And Laban gathered together all the men of the place, and made a feast.
23 And it came to pass in the evening, that he took Leah his daughter, and brought her to him; and he 24 went in to her. And Laban gave to her Zilpah, his maidservant, to be maidservant to Leah his daugh-25 ter. And it came to pass in the morning, that behold, it was Leah. And he said to Laban, What is this thou hast done to me? Have I not served thee for Rachel? Why then hast thou deceived me?
26 And Laban said, It is not so done in our place, to give the younger 27 before the firstborn. Fulfil the week [with] this one: then we will give thee the other one also, for the service that thou shalt serve 28 me yet seven other years. And Jacob did so, and fulfilled the week [with] this one, and he gave him Rachel his daughter to be his 29 wife. And Laban gave to Rachel his daughter, Bilhah, his maid-servant, to be her maidservant.

30 And he went in also to Rachel; and he loved also Rachel more than Leah. And he served with him yet seven other years.
31 And when Jehovah saw that Leah was hated, he opened her womb; but Rachel was barren.
32 And Leah conceived, and bore a son, and called his name Reuben;[w] for she said, Because Jehovah has looked upon my affliction; for 33 now my husband will love me. And she again conceived, and bore a son, and said, Because Jehovah has heard that I am hated, he has therefore given me this one also; and she called his name Simeon.[x]
34 And she again conceived, and bore a son, and said, Now this time will my husband be united to me, for I have borne him three sons; therefore was his name called Levi.[y] 35 And she again conceived, and bore a son, and said, This time will I praise Jehovah; therefore she called his name Judah.[z] And she ceased to bear.

30 And when Rachel saw that she bore Jacob no children, Rachel envied her sister, and said to Jacob, Give me children, or else 2 I die. And Jacob's anger was kindled against Rachel, and he said, Am I in God's stead, who has withheld from thee the fruit of the 3 womb? And she said, Behold, there is my maid, Bilhah: go in to her, in order that she may bear on my knees, and I may also be 4 built up by her. And she gave him Bilhah her maidservant as wife, and Jacob went in to her.
5 And Bilhah conceived, and bore 6 Jacob a son. And Rachel said, God has done me justice, and has also heard my voice, and given me a son; therefore she called his 7 name Dan.[a] And Bilhah Rachel's maidservant again conceived, and 8 bore Jacob a second son. And Rachel said, Wrestlings of God have I wrestled with my sister, and have prevailed; and she called his name Naphtali.[b] 9 And when Leah saw that she had ceased to bear, she took Zilpah her maidservant and gave her to 10 Jacob as wife. And Zilpah Leah's maidservant bore Jacob a son.
11 And Leah said, Fortunately! and 12 she called his name Gad.[c] And Zilpah Leah's maidservant bore 13 Jacob a second son. And Leah said, Happy am I; for the daughters will call me blessed! and she called his name Asher.[d] 14 And Reuben went out in the days of wheat-harvest, and found mandrakes in the fields; and he brought them to his mother Leah. And Rachel said to Leah, Give me, 15 I pray thee, of thy son's mandrakes. And she said to her, Is it [too] little that thou hast taken my husband, that thou wilt take my son's mandrakes also? And Rachel said, Therefore he shall lie with thee to-night for thy son's 16 mandrakes. And when Jacob came from the fields in the evening, Leah went out to meet him, and said, Thou must come in to me, for indeed I have hired thee with my son's mandrakes. And 17 he lay with her that night. And God hearkened to Leah, and she conceived, and bore Jacob a fifth 18 son. And Leah said, God has given me my hire, because I have given my maidservant to my husband; and she called his name 19 Issachar.[e] And Leah again conceived, and bore Jacob a sixth son; 20 and Leah said, God has endowed me with a good dowry; this time will my husband dwell with me, because I have borne him six sons. And she called his name Zebulun.[f] 21 And afterwards she bore a daughter, and called her name Dinah.[g] 22 And God remembered Rachel, and God listened to her, and opened 23 her womb. And she conceived, and bore a son, and said, God has 24 taken away my reproach. And she called his name Joseph;[h] and said, Jehovah will add to me another son.
25 And it came to pass when Rachel had borne Joseph, that Jacob said to Laban, Send me away, that I may go to my place and to my 26 country. Give [me] my wives for whom I have served thee, and my children; that I may go away, for thou knowest my service which I 27 have served thee. And Laban said to him, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes—I have discovered[i] that Jehovah has 28 blessed me for thy sake. And he said, Appoint to me thy wages, 29 and I will give it. And he said to him, Thou knowest how I have served thee, and what thy cattle 30 has become with me. For it was little that thou hadst before me, and it is increased to a multitude, and Jehovah has blessed thee from the time I came; and now, when shall I also provide for my house?

31 And he said, What shall I give thee? And Jacob said, Thou shalt not give me anything. If thou doest this for me, I will again feed 32 [and] keep thy flock: I will pass through all thy flock to-day, to remove thence all the speckled and spotted sheep, and all the brown lambs, and the spotted and speckled among the goats; and [that] 33 shall be my hire. And my righteousness shall answer for me hereafter,[k] when thou comest about my hire, before thy face:[l] all that is not speckled and spotted among the goats, and brown among the lambs, let that be stolen with me.
34 And Laban said, Well, let it be 35 according to thy word. And he removed that day the he-goats that were ringstraked and spotted, and all the she-goats that were speckled and spotted, every one that had white in it, and all the brown among the lambs, and gave [them] into the hand of his sons.
36 And he put three days' journey between himself and Jacob. And Jacob fed the rest of Laban's flock.
37 And Jacob took fresh rods of white poplar, almond-tree, and maple;[m] and peeled off white stripes in them, uncovering the 38 white which was on the rods. And he set the rods which he had peeled, before the flock, in the troughs at the watering-places where the flock came to drink, and they were ardent when they came to drink.
39 And the flock was ardent before the rods; and the flock brought forth ringstraked, speckled, and 40 spotted. And Jacob separated the lambs, and set the faces of the flock toward the ringstraked, and all the brown in the flock of Laban; and he made himself separate flocks, and did not put them with 41 Laban's flock. And it came to pass whensoever the strong cattle were ardent, that Jacob laid the rods before the eyes of the flock in the gutters, that they might be-42 come ardent among the rods; but when the sheep were feeble, he put [them] not in; so the feeble were Laban's, and the strong 43 Jacob's. And the man increased very, very much, and had much cattle, and bondwomen, and bondmen, and camels, and asses.

31 And he heard the words of Laban's sons, saying, Jacob has taken away all that was our father's, and of what was our father's 2 he has acquired all this glory. And Jacob saw the countenance of Laban, and behold, it was not toward 3 him as previously.[n] And Jehovah said to Jacob, Return into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kindred;[o] and I will be with thee.
4 And Jacob sent and called Rachel and Leah to the fields to his flock, 5 and said to them, I see your father's countenance, that it is not toward me as previously;[n] but the God of my father has been with me.
6 And you know that with all my power I have served your father.
7 And your father has mocked me, and has changed my wages ten times; but God suffered him not 8 to hurt me. If he said thus: The speckled shall be thy hire, then all the flocks bore speckled; and if he said thus: The ringstraked shall be thy hire, then all the 9 flocks bore ringstraked. And God has taken away the cattle of your father, and given [them] to me.
10 And it came to pass at the time of the ardour of the flocks, that I lifted up mine eyes, and saw in a dream, and behold, the rams that leaped upon the flocks were ringstraked, speckled, and spotted.
11 And the Angel of God said to me in a dream, Jacob! And I said, 12 Here am I. And he said, Lift up now thine eyes, and see: all the rams that leap upon the flock are ringstraked, speckled, and spotted; for I have seen all that Laban does 13 to thee. I am the God of Bethel, where thou anointedst the pillar, where thou vowedst a vow to me. Now arise, depart out of this land, and return to the land of thy kin-14 dred. And Rachel and Leah answered and said to him, Is there yet any portion or inheritance for 15 us in our father's house? Are we not reckoned of him strangers? for he has sold us, and has even con-16 stantly devoured our money. For all the wealth that God has taken from our father is ours and our children's; and now whatever God has said to thee do.
17 And Jacob rose up, and set his sons and his wives upon camels, 18 and carried away all his cattle, and all his property that he had acquired—the cattle of his possessions that he had acquired in Padan-Aram, to go to Isaac his father, into the land of Canaan.

19 And Laban had gone to shear his sheep. And Rachel stole the teraphim [p] that [belonged] to her 20 father. And Jacob deceived [q] Laban the Syrian, in that he did not 21 tell him that he fled. And he fled with all that he had; and he rose up and passed over the river, and set his face [toward] mount Gilead.
22 And it was told Laban on the 23 third day that Jacob had fled. And he took his brethren with him, and pursued after him seven days' journey, and overtook him on 24 mount Gilead. And God came to Laban the Syrian in a dream by night, and said to him, Take care thou speak not to Jacob either 25 good or bad. And Laban came up with Jacob; and Jacob had pitched his tent on the mountain; Laban also with his brethren 26 pitched on mount Gilead. And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done, that thou hast deceived me, and hast carried away my 27 daughters as captives of war? Why didst thou flee away covertly, and steal away from me, and didst not tell me, that I might have conducted thee with mirth and with songs, with tambour and with 28 harp; and hast not suffered me to kiss my sons and my daughters?
29 Now thou hast acted foolishly. It would be in the power of my hand [r] to do you hurt; but the God of your father spoke to me last night, saying, Take care that thou speak not to Jacob either good or bad.
30 And now that thou must needs be gone, because thou greatly longedst after thy father's house, why hast 31 thou stolen my gods? And Jacob answered and said to Laban, I was afraid; for I said, Lest thou shouldest take by force thy daugh-32 ters from me. With whomsoever thou findest thy gods, he shall not live. Before our brethren discern what is thine with me, and take [it] to thee. But Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen them.
33 And Laban went into Jacob's tent, and into Leah's tent, and into the two handmaids' tents, and found nothing; and he went out of Leah's tent, and entered into Rachel's 34 tent. Now Rachel had taken the teraphim and put them under the camel's saddle; and she sat upon them. And Laban explored all the 35 tent, but found nothing. And she said to her father, Let it not be an occasion of anger in the eyes of my lord that I cannot rise up before thee, for it is with me after the manner of women. And he searched carefully, but did not 36 find the teraphim. And Jacob was angry, and he disputed with Laban. And Jacob answered and said to Laban, What is my fault, what my sin, that thou hast so 37 hotly pursued after me? Whereas thou hast explored all my baggage, what hast thou found of all thy household stuff? Set [it] here before my brethren and thy brethren, and let them decide between us 38 both. These twenty years have I been with thee: thy ewes and thy she-goats have not cast their young, and the rams of thy flock 39 I have not eaten. What was torn I have not brought to thee; I had to bear the loss of it: of my hand hast thou required it, [whether] stolen by day or stolen by night.
40 Thus it was with me: [s] in the day the heat consumed me, and the frost by night; and my sleep fled 41 from mine eyes. I have been these twenty years in thy house: I have served thee fourteen years for thy two daughters, and six years for thy flock; and thou hast 42 changed my wages ten times. Had not the God of my father, the God of Abraham, and the fear of Isaac, been with me, it is certain thou wouldest have sent me away now empty. God has looked upon my affliction and the labour of my hands, and has judged [t] last night.
43 And Laban answered and said to Jacob, The daughters are my daughters, and the sons are my sons, and the flock is my flock, and all that thou seest is mine; but as for my daughters, what can I do this day to them, or to their sons whom they have brought forth?
44 And now, come, let us make a covenant, I and thou; and let it be a witness between me and thee.
45 And Jacob took a stone, and set 46 it up [for] a pillar. And Jacob said to his brethren, Gather stones. And they took stones, and made a heap, and ate there upon the heap.
47 And Laban called it Jegarsahadutha, [v] and Jacob called it Galeed. [v]

48 And Laban said, This heap is a witness between me and thee this day. Therefore was the name 49 of it called Galeed,—and Mizpah;[w] for he said, Let Jehovah watch between me and thee, when we shall be hidden one from an-50 other: if thou shouldest afflict my daughters, or if thou shouldest take wives besides my daughters, —no man is with us; see, God is witness between me and thee!
51 And Laban said to Jacob, Behold this heap, and behold the pillar which I have set up between me 52 and thee: [let] this heap be witness, and the pillar a witness, that neither I pass this heap [to go] to thee, nor thou pass this heap and this pillar [to come] to 53 me, for harm. The God of Abraham, and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us! And Jacob swore by the fear 54 of his father Isaac. And Jacob offered a sacrifice upon the mountain, and invited his brethren to eat bread:[x] and they ate bread, and lodged on the mountain.
55 And Laban rose early in the morning, and kissed his sons and his daughters, and blessed them; and Laban went and returned to his place.

32 And Jacob went on his way; and the angels of God met him.
2 And when Jacob saw them he said, This is the camp of God. And he called the name of that place Mahanaim.[y]
3 And Jacob sent messengers before his face to Esau his brother, into the land of Seir, the fields of 4 Edom. And he commanded them, saying, Thus shall ye speak to my lord, to Esau: Thy servant Jacob speaks thus—With Laban have I sojourned and tarried until now; 5 and I have oxen, and asses, sheep, and bondmen, and bondwomen;
and I have sent to tell my lord, that I may find favour in thine 6 eyes. And the messengers returned to Jacob, saying, We came to thy brother, to Esau; and he also is coming to meet thee, and 7 four hundred men with him. Then Jacob was greatly afraid, and was distressed; and he divided the people that were with him, and the sheep and the cattle and the 8 camels, into two troops.[z] And he said, If Esau come to the one troop and smite it, then the other troop which is left shall escape.[a] 9 And Jacob said, God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Jehovah, who saidst unto me: Return into thy country and to thy kindred, and I will do thee 10 good,—I am too small for[b] all the loving-kindness and all the faithfulness[c] that thou hast shewn unto thy servant; for with my staff I passed over this Jordan, and now 11 I am become two troops. Deliver me, I pray thee, from the hand of my brother, from the hand of Esau; for I fear him, lest he come and smite me, [and] the mother 12 with the children. And thou saidst, I will certainly deal well with thee, and make thy seed as the sand of the sea, which cannot be numbered for multitude.
13 And he lodged there that night; and took of what came[d] to his hand a gift for Esau his brother—14 two hundred she-goats, and twenty he-goats; two hundred ewes, and 15 twenty rams; thirty milch camels with their colts; forty kine, and ten bulls; twenty she-asses, and 16 ten young asses. And he delivered [them] into the hand of his servants, every drove by itself; and he said to his servants, Go on before me, and put a space between 17 drove and drove. And he commanded the foremost, saying, When Esau my brother meets thee, and asks thee, saying, Whose art thou, and where goest thou, and whose are these before thee?
18 —then thou shalt say, Thy servant Jacob's: it is a gift sent to my lord, to Esau. And behold, 19 he also is behind us. And so commanded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droves, saying, According to this word shall ye speak to Esau when 20 ye find him. And, moreover, ye shall say, Behold, thy servant Jacob is behind us. For he said, I will propitiate him with the gift that goes before me, and afterwards I will see his face: perhaps 21 he will accept me.[e] And the gift went over before him; and he himself lodged that night in the camp.
22 And he rose up that night, and took his two wives, and his two maidservants, and his eleven sons, and passed over the ford of the 23 Jabbok; and he took them and led them over the river,[f] and led over 24 what he had. And Jacob remained alone; and a man wrestled with him until the rising of the dawn.

25 And when he saw that he did not prevail against him, he touched the joint[g] of his thigh; and the joint[g] of Jacob's thigh was dislocated as he wrestled with him.
26 And he said, Let me go, for the dawn ariseth. And he said, I will not let thee go except thou bless 27 me. And he said to him, What is thy name? And he said, Jacob.
28 And he said, Thy name shall not henceforth be called Jacob, but Israel;[h] for thou hast wrestled[i] with God, and with men, and hast 29 prevailed. And Jacob asked and said, Tell [me], I pray thee, thy name. And he said, How is it that thou askest[k] after my name? And 30 he blessed him there. And Jacob called the name of the place Peniel[l] —For I have seen God face to face, and my life has been preserved.
31 And as he passed over Peniel, the sun rose upon him; and he limped 32 upon his hip. Therefore the children of Israel do not eat of the sinew that is over the joint[g] of the thigh, to this day; because he touched the joint of Jacob's thigh —the sinew.

33 And Jacob lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, Esau was coming, and with him four hundred men. And he distributed the children to Leah, and to Rachel,
2 and to the two maidservants: and he put the maidservants and their children foremost, and Leah and her children after, and Rachel and 3 Joseph hindmost. And he passed on before them, and bowed to the earth seven times, until he came 4 near to his brother. And Esau ran to meet him, and embraced him, and fell on his neck, and 5 kissed him; and they wept. And he lifted up his eyes and saw the women and the children, and said, Who are these with thee? And he said, The children that God has 6 graciously given thy servant. And the maidservants drew near, they and their children, and they bowed.
7 And Leah also, with her children, drew near, and they bowed. And lastly Joseph drew near, and 8 Rachel, and they bowed. And he said, What [meanest] thou by all the drove which I met? And he said, To find favour in the eyes of 9 my lord. And Esau said, I have enough, my brother; let what thou 10 hast be thine. And Jacob said, No, I pray thee; if now I have found favour in thine eyes, then receive my gift from my hand; for therefore have I seen thy face, as though I had seen the face of God, and thou hast received me with 11 pleasure. Take, I pray thee, my blessing which has been brought to thee; because God has been gracious to me, and because I have everything. And he urged him, 12 and he took [it]. And he said, Let us take our journey, and go on, 13 and I will go before thee. And he said to him, My lord knows that the children are tender, and the suckling sheep and kine are with me; and if they should overdrive them only one day, all the flock 14 would die. Let my lord, I pray thee, pass on before his servant, and I will drive on at my ease according to the pace of the cattle[m] that is before me, and according to the pace of the children, until 15 I come to my lord, to Seir. And Esau said, Let me now leave with thee [some] of the people that are with me. And he said, What need? Let me find favour in the eyes of 16 my lord. And Esau returned that day on his way to Seir.
17 And Jacob journeyed to Succoth, and built himself a house, and for his cattle he made booths. Therefore the name of the place 18 was called Succoth.[n] And Jacob came safely[o] [to the] city Shechem, which is in the land of Canaan, when he came from Padan-Aram; and he encamped before 19 the city. And he bought the portion[p] of the field where he had spread his tent, of the hand of the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, 20 for a hundred kesitahs.[q] And there he set up an altar, and called it El-Elohe-Israel.[r]

34 And Dinah the daughter of Leah, whom she had borne to Jacob, went out to see the daugh-2 ters of the land. And when Shechem, the son of Hamor the Hivite, the prince of the country, saw her, he took her, and lay with 3 her, and humbled her. And his soul fastened on Dinah the daughter of Jacob, and he loved the maiden, and spoke consolingly to [s] 4 the maiden. And Shechem spoke to his father Hamor, saying, Take 5 me this girl as wife. And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dinah his daughter; but his sons were with his cattle in the fields, and Jacob said nothing until they 6 came. And Hamor the father of Shechem came out to Jacob, to 7 speak to him. And the sons of Jacob came from the fields when they heard [it]; and the men were grieved, and they were very angry, because he had wrought what was disgraceful in Israel, in lying with Jacob's daughter, which thing 8 ought not to be done. And Hamor spoke to them, saying, My son Shechem's soul cleaves to your daughter: I pray you, give her to 9 him as wife. And make marriages with us: give your daughters to us, and take our daughters to you.

10 And dwell with us, and the land shall be before you: dwell and trade in it, and get yourselves 11 possessions in it. And Shechem said to her father and to her brethren, Let me find favour in your eyes; and what ye shall say to me 12 I will give. Impose on me very much as dowry and gift, and I will give according as ye shall say to me; but give me the maiden as 13 wife. And the sons of Jacob answered Shechem and Hamor his father deceitfully, and spoke—because he had defiled Dinah their 14 sister—and said to them, We cannot do this, to give our sister to one that is uncircumcised; for 15 that [were] a reproach to us. But only in this will we consent to you, if ye will be as we, that every male 16 of you be circumcised; then will we give our daughters to you, and take your daugnters to us, and we will dwell with you, and be one 17 people. But if ye do not hearken to us, to be circumcised, then will we take our daughter and go away.
18 And their words were good in the eyes of Hamor and Shechem, 19 Hamor's son. And the youth did not delay to do this, because he had delight in Jacob's daughter.
And he was honourable above all 20 in the house of his father. And Hamor and Shechem his son came to the gate of their city, and spoke to the men of their city, saying, 21 These men are peaceable with us; therefore let them dwell in the land, and trade in it. And the land—behold, it is of wide extent before them. We will take their daughters as wives, and give them our 22 daughters. But only in this will the men consent to us to dwell with us, to be one people—if every male among us be circumcised, 23 just as they are circumcised. Their cattle, and their possessions, and every beast of theirs, shall they not be ours? only let us consent to them, and they will dwell with 24 us. And all that went out at the gate of his city hearkened to Hamor and to Shechem his son; and every male was circumcised—all that went out at the gate of his city.
25 And it came to pass on the third day, when they were sore, that two of the sons of Jacob, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brethren, took each his sword, and came upon the city boldly, and slew all the 26 males. And Hamor and Shechem his son they slew with the edge of the sword; and took Dinah out of Shechem's house; and went 27 out. The sons of Jacob came upon the slain, and plundered the city, because they had defiled their 28 sister. Their sheep, and their oxen, and their asses, and what [was] in the city, and what [was] in the 29 field they took; and all their goods, and all their little ones, and their wives took they captive, and plundered them, and all that was in 30 the houses. And Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, Ye have troubled me, in that ye make me odious among the inhabitants of the land —among the Canaanites and the Perizzites; and I am few men in number, and they will gather themselves against me and smite me, and I shall be destroyed, I and 31 my house. And they said, Should people deal with our sister as with a harlot?

35 And God said to Jacob, Arise, go up to Bethel, and dwell there, and make there an altar unto the God [t] that appeared unto thee when thou fleddest from the 2 face of Esau thy brother. And Jacob said to his household, and to all that were with him, Put away the strange gods that are among you, and cleanse yourselves, and change your garments; 3 and we will arise, and go up to Bethel; and I will make there an altar to the God [t] that answered me in the day of my distress, and was with me in the way that I 4 went. And they gave to Jacob all the strange gods that were in their hand, and the rings that were in their ears, and Jacob hid them under the terebinth that [is] by She-5 chem. And they journeyed; and the terror of God was upon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue after the sons of Jacob.

6 And Jacob came to Luz, which is in the land of Canaan, that is, Bethel, he and all the people that 7 were with him. And he built there an altar, and called the place El-beth-el; [v] because there God had appeared to him when he fled from 8 the face of his brother. And Deborah, Rebecca's nurse, died; and she was buried beneath Bethel, under the oak; and the name of it was called Allon-bachuth. [w] 9 And God appeared to Jacob again after he had come from Padan-Aram, and blessed him.
10 And God said to him, Thy name is Jacob: thy name shall not henceforth be called Jacob, but Israel [x] 11 shall be thy name. And he called his name Israel. And God said to him, I am the Almighty God: [y] be fruitful and multiply; a nation and a company of nations shall be of thee; and kings shall come out 12 of thy loins. And the land that I gave Abraham and Isaac, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed after 13 thee will I give the land. And God went up from him in the place where he had talked with him.
14 And Jacob set up a pillar in the place where he had talked with him, a pillar of stone, and poured on it a drink-offering, and poured 15 oil on it. And Jacob called the name of the place where God had talked with him, Beth-el.
16 And they journeyed from Bethel. And there was yet a certain distance to come to Ephrath, when Rachel travailed in childbirth; and it went hard with her in her child-17 bearing. And it came to pass when it went hard with her in her childbearing, that the midwife said to her, Fear not; for this also 18 is a son for thee. And it came to pass as her soul was departing—for she died—that she called his name Benoni; [z] but his father 19 called him Benjamin. [a] And Rachel died, and was buried on the way to Ephrath, which [is] Beth-20 lehem. And Jacob erected a pillar upon her grave: that is the pillar of Rachel's grave to [this] day.
21 And Israel journeyed, and spread his tent on the other side of Mig-22 dal-Eder. [b] And it came to pass when Israel dwelt in that land, that Reuben went and lay with Bilhah, his father's concubine; and Israel heard of it.

And the sons of Jacob were 23 twelve. The sons of Leah: Reuben—Jacob's firstborn—and Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and 24 Issachar, and Zebulun. The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.
25 And the sons of Bilhah, Rachel's maidservant: Dan and Naphtali.
26 And the sons of Zilpah, Leah's maidservant: Gad and Asher. These are the sons of Jacob that were born to him in Padan-Aram.
27 And Jacob came to Isaac his father to Mamre—to Kirjath-Arba, which is Hebron; where Abraham had sojourned, and 28 Isaac. And the days of Isaac were 29 a hundred and eighty years. And Isaac expired and died, and was gathered to his peoples, old and full of days. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

36 And these are the generations of Esau, that is Edom.
2 Esau took his wives of the daughters of Canaan: Adah the daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, 3 daughter of Zibeon the Hivite, and Basmath Ishmael's daughter, the 4 sister of Nebaioth. And Adah bore to Esau Eliphaz; and Basmath 5 bore Reuel. And Oholibamah bore Jeush and Jaalam and Korah. These are the sons of Esau that were born to him in the land of 6 Canaan. And Esau took his wives, and his sons, and his daughters, and all the souls of his house, and his cattle, and all his beasts, and all his possessions, that he had acquired in the land of Canaan, and went into a country away 7 from his brother Jacob. For their property was too great for them to dwell together, and the land where they were sojourners could not bear them, because of their 8 cattle. Thus Esau dwelt in mount Seir; Esau is Edom.
9 And these are the generations of Esau, the father of Edom, in 10 mount Seir. These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Adah the wife of Esau; Reuel, the son of Basmath the wife of 11 Esau.—And the sons of Eliphaz were Teman, Omar, Zepho, and [z] Son of my affliction. [a] Son of the right hand. [b] Tower of flocks.

12 Gatam, and Kenaz. And Timna was concubine to Eliphaz Esau's son, and she bore Amalek to Eliphaz. These are the sons of Adah 13 Esau's wife.—And these are the sons of Reuel: Nahath and Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These are the sons of Basmath Esau's wife.
14 —And these are the sons of Oholibamah, the daughter of Anah, daughter of Zibeon, Esau's wife: and she bore to Esau Jeush and Jaalam and Korah.
15 These are the chiefs [c] of the sons of Esau. The sons of Eliphaz, the firstborn of Esau: chief Teman, chief Omar, chief Zepho, chief 16 Kenaz, chief Korah, chief Gatam, chief Amalek. These are the chiefs of Eliphaz in the land of Edom;
17 these are the sons of Adah.—And these are the sons of Reuel Esau's son: chief Nahath, chief Zerah, chief Shammah, chief Mizzah: these are the chiefs of Reuel in the land of Edom; these are the sons 18 of Basmath Esau's wife.—And these are the sons of Oholibamah Esau's wife: chief Jeush, chief Jaalam, chief Korah; these are the chiefs of Oholibamah the daughter of Anah, Esau's wife.
19 These are the sons of Esau, and these their chiefs: he is Edom.
20 These are the sons of Seir the Horite, the inhabitant of the land: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, 21 and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan. These are the chiefs of the Horites, the sons of Seir in 22 the land of Edom.—And the sons of Lotan were Hori and Hemam; and Lotan's sister was Timna.— 23 And these are the sons of Shobal: Alvan, and Manahath, and Ebal, 24 Shepho and Onam.—And these are the sons of Zibeon: both Ajah and Anah. This is the Anah that found the warm springs [d] in the wilderness as he fed the asses of Zibeon 25 his father.—And these are the sons of Anah: Dishon, and Oholibamah the daughter of Anah.—And 26 these are the sons of Dishon: Hemdan, and Eshban, and Ithran, 27 and Cheran.—These are the sons of Ezer: Bilhan, and Zaavan, and 28 Akan.—These are the sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.
29 These are the chiefs of the Horites: chief Lotan, chief Shobal, 30 chief Zibeon, chief Anah, chief Dishon, chief Ezer, chief Dishan. These are the chiefs of the Horites, according to their chiefs in the land of Seir.
31 And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before there reigned a king over the chil-32 dren of Israel. And Bela the son of Beor reigned in Edom; and the name of his city was Dinhabah.
33 And Bela died; and Jobab the son of Zerah of Bozrah reigned in 34 his stead. And Jobab died; and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in his stead. And 35 Husham died; and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the fields of Moab, reigned in his stead. And the name of his city 36 was Avith. And Hadad died; and Samlah of Masrekah reigned in his 37 stead. And Samlah died; and Saul of Rehoboth on the river 38 reigned in his stead. And Saul died; and Baal-hanan the son of 39 Achbor reigned in his stead. And Baal-hanan the son of Achbor died; and Hadar [e] reigned in his stead; and the name of his city was Pau; and his wife's name was Mehetabel, the daughter of Matred daughter of Mezahab.
40 And these are the names of the chiefs of Esau, according to their families, after their places, with their names: chief Timna, chief 41 Alvah, chief Jetheth, chief Oholibamah, chief Elah, chief Pinon, 42 chief Kenaz, chief Teman, chief 43 Mibzar, chief Magdiel, chief Iram. These are the chiefs of Edom, according to their dwelling-places in the land of their possession. This is Esau, the father of Edom.

37 And Jacob dwelt in the land where his father sojourned—in the land of Canaan.

2 These are the generations of Jacob. Joseph, being seventeen years old, fed [f] the flock with his brethren; and he was doing service with [g] the sons of Bilhah, and with the sons of Zilpah, his father's wives. And Joseph brought to his 3 father an evil report of them. [h] And Israel loved Joseph more than all his sons, because he was son of his old age; and he made him a vest 4 of many colours. [i] And his brethren saw that their father loved him more than all his brethren, and they hated him, and could not 5 greet him with friendliness. And Joseph dreamed a dream, and told

[it] to his brethren, and they hated 6 him yet the more. And he said to them, Hear, I pray you, this 7 dream, which I have dreamt: Behold, we were binding sheaves in the fields, and lo, my sheaf rose up, and remained standing; and behold, your sheaves came round about and bowed down to my 8 sheaf. And his brethren said to him, Wilt thou indeed be a king over us? wilt thou indeed rule over us? And they hated him yet the more for his dreams and for 9 his words. And he dreamed yet another dream, and told it to his brethren, and said, Behold, I have dreamt another dream, and behold, the sun and the moon and eleven stars bowed down to me.
10 And he told [it] to his father and to his brethren. And his father rebuked him, and said to him, What is this dream which thou hast dreamt? Shall we indeed come, I and thy mother and thy brethren, to bow down ourselves 11 to thee to the earth? And his brethren envied him; but his father kept the saying.
12 And his brethren went to feed their father's flock at Shechem.
13 And Israel said to Joseph, Do not thy brethren feed [the flock] at Shechem? Come, that I may send thee to them. And he said to him, 14 Here am I. And he said to him, Go, I pray thee, see after the welfare[k] of thy brethren, and after the welfare[k] of the flock; and bring me word again. And he sent him out of the vale of Hebron; and 15 he came towards Shechem. And a man found him, and behold, he was wandering in the country; and the man asked him, saying, What 16 seekest thou? And he said, I am seeking my brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they feed [their 17 flocks]. And the man said, They have removed from this; for I heard them say, Let us go to Dothan. And Joseph went after his brethren, and found them at Do-18 than. And when they saw him from afar, and before he came near to them, they conspired against 19 him to put him to death. And they said one to another, Behold, 20 there comes that dreamer![l] And now come and let us kill him, and cast him into one of the pits, and we will say, An evil beast has devoured him; and we will see what 21 becomes of his dreams. And Reuben heard [it], and delivered him out of their hand, and said, Let us 22 not take his life. And Reuben said to them, Shed no blood: cast him into this pit which is in the wilderness; but lay no hand upon him—in order that he might deliver him out of their hand, to 23 bring him to his father again. And it came to pass when Joseph came to his brethren, that they stripped Joseph of his vest, the vest of many colours, which he had on; 24 and they took him and cast him into the pit; now the pit was empty—there was no water in it.
25 And they sat down to eat bread; and they lifted up their eyes and looked, and behold, a caravan of Ishmaelites came from Gilead; and their camels bore tragacanth,[m] and balsam, and ladanum[n]—going to 26 carry [it] down to Egypt. And Judah said to his brethren, What profit is it that we kill our brother 27 and secrete his blood? Come and let us sell him to the Ishmaelites; but let not our hand be upon him;
for he is our brother, our flesh.
And his brethren hearkened [to 28 him]. And Midianitish men, merchants, passed by; and they drew and lifted up Joseph out of the pit, and sold Joseph to the Ishmaelites for twenty silver-pieces; and they brought Joseph to Egypt.
29 And Reuben returned to the pit, and behold, Joseph [was] not in the pit; and he rent his garments, 30 and returned to his brethren, and said, The child is not; and I, where shall I go?
31 And they took Joseph's vest, and slaughtered a buck of the goats, and dipped the vest in the 32 blood; and they sent the vest of many colours and had it carried to their father, and said, This have we found: discern now whether 33 it is thy son's vest or not. And he discerned it, and said, [It is] my son's vest! an evil beast has devoured him: Joseph is without 34 doubt rent in pieces! And Jacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth on his loins, and mourned for his 35 son many days. And all his sons and all his daughters rose up to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted, and said, For I will go down to my son into Sheol[o] mourning. Thus his father wept for him.
36 And the Midianites sold him into Egypt, to Potiphar, a chamberlain [p] of Pharaoh, [q] the captain of the life-guard.

38 And it came to pass at that time, that Judah went down from his brethren, and turned in to a man of Adullam whose name 2 was Hirah. And Judah saw there the daughter of a Canaanitish man whose name was Shua; and he 3 took her, and went in to her. And she conceived and bore a son; and 4 he called his name Er. And she again conceived and bore a son, and she called his name Onan.
5 And again she bore a son, and she called his name Shelah; and he was at Chezib when she bore him.
6 And Judah took a wife for Er his firstborn, and her name was Ta-7 mar. And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Jehovah, 8 and Jehovah slew him. Then Judah said to Onan, Go in to thy brother's wife, and fulfil to her the brother-in-law's duty, and raise 9 up seed to thy brother. But when Onan knew that the seed should not be his own, it came to pass when he went in to his brother's wife, that he spilled [it] on the ground, in order to give no seed 10 to his brother. And the thing which he did was evil in the sight of Jehovah, and he slew him also.
11 And Judah said to Tamar his daughter-in-law, Remain a widow in thy father's house, until Shelah my son is grown; for he said, Lest he die also, as his brethren. And Tamar went and remained in her father's house.
12 And as the days were multiplied, Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died. And Judah was comforted, and he went up to his sheep-shearers, to Timnah, he and his 13 friend Hirah the Adullamite. And it was told Tamar, saying, Behold thy father-in-law is going up to 14 Timnah to shear his sheep. And she put the garments of her widowhood off from her, and covered herself with a veil, and wrapped herself, and sat in the entry of Enaim, which is on the way to Timnah; for she saw that Shelah was grown, and she was not given 15 to him as wife. And Judah saw her, and took her for a harlot; because she had covered her face.
16 And he turned aside to her by the way, and said, Come, I pray thee, let me go in to thee; for he did not know that she was his daughter-in-law. And she said, What wilt thou give me, that thou 17 mayest come in to me? And he said, I will send [thee] a kid of the goats from the flock. And she said, Wilt thou give [me] a pledge, 18 until thou send it? And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy lace, [r] and thy staff which is in thy hand. And he gave [it] her, and went in to her; and she conceived 19 by him. And she arose and went away; and she laid by her veil from her, and put on the garments 20 of her widowhood. And Judah sent the kid of the goats by the hand of his friend the Adullamite, to receive the pledge from the woman's hand; but he found her 21 not. And he asked the men of her place, saying, Where is the prostitute [s] that was at Enaim, by the way-side? And they said, There 22 was no prostitute here. And he returned to Judah, and said, I have not found her; and also the men of the place said, No prostitute 23 has been here. Then Judah said, Let her take [it] for herself, lest we be put to shame. Behold, I sent this kid, and thou hast not found her.
24 And it came to pass about three months after, that it was told Judah, saying, Tamar thy daughter-in-law has committed fornication, and behold, she is also with child by fornication. And Judah said, Bring her forth, that she may 25 be burned. When she was brought forth, she sent to her father-in-law, saying, By the man to whom these [belong] am I with child; and she said, Acknowledge, I pray thee, whose are this signet, and this 26 lace, and this staff. And Judah acknowledged [them], and said, She is more righteous than I, because I have not given her to Shelah my son. And he knew her 27 again no more. And it came to pass at the time of her delivery, that behold, twins were in her womb.
28 And it came to pass when she brought forth, that one stretched out [his] hand, and the midwife took it and bound round his hand a scarlet thread, saying, This came 29 out first. And it came to pass as he drew back his hand, that behold, his brother came out; and she said, How hast thou broken forth! on thee be the breach! And they called his name Pherez.[t] 30 And afterwards came out his brother, round whose hand was the scarlet thread; and they called his name Zerah.[u]

39 And Joseph was brought down to Egypt; and Potiphar, a chamberlain of Pharaoh, the captain of the life-guard, an Egyptian, bought him of the hand of the Ishmaelites who had brought him 2 down thither. And Jehovah was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man;[v] and he was in the house of his master the Egyptian.
3 And his master saw that Jehovah was with him, and that Jehovah made all that he did to prosper in 4 his hand. And Joseph found favour in his eyes, and attended on him; and he set him over his house, and all that he had he gave 5 into his hand. And it came to pass from the time he had set him over his house and all that he had, that Jehovah blessed the Egyptian's house for Joseph's sake; and the blessing of Jehovah was on all that he had in the house and in the 6 field. And he left all that he had in Joseph's hand, and took cognizance of nothing with him, save the bread that he ate. And Joseph was of a beautiful form and of a beautiful countenance.
7 And it came to pass after these things, that his master's wife cast[w] her eyes on Joseph, and said, Lie 8 with me! But he refused, and said to his master's wife, Behold, my master takes cognizance of nothing with me: what is in the house, and all that he has, he has 9 given into my hand. There is none greater in this house than I; neither has he withheld anything from me but thee, because thou art his wife; and how should I do this great wickedness, and sin a-10 gainst God? And it came to pass as she spoke to Joseph day by day and he hearkened not to her, to lie with her [and] to be with her, 11 that on a certain day[x] he went into the house to do his business, and there was none of the men of 12 the house there in the house. Then she caught him by his garment, saying, Lie with me! But he left his garment in her hand, and fled 13 and ran out. And it came to pass, when she saw that he had left his garment in her hand and had fled 14 forth, that she called to the men of her house, and spoke to them, saying, See, he has brought in a Hebrew man to us, to mock us: he came in to me, to lie with me; and I cried with a loud[v] voice;
15 and it came to pass when he heard that I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, 16 and fled and went out. And she laid his garment by her until his 17 lord came home. And she spoke to him according to these words, saying, The Hebrew bondman that thou hast brought to us came in to 18 me to mock me; and it came to pass as I lifted up my voice and cried, that he left his garment with me, and fled forth.
19 And it came to pass when his lord heard the words of his wife which she spoke to him, saying, After this manner did thy bondman to me, that his wrath was 20 kindled. And Joseph's lord took him and put him into the tower-house, [the] place where the king's prisoners were confined; and he 21 was there in the tower-house. And Jehovah was with Joseph, and extended mercy to him, and gave him favour in the eyes of the chief 22 of the tower-house. And the chief of the tower-house committed to Joseph's hand all the prisoners that were in the tower-house; and whatever they had to do there he 23 did. The chief of the tower-house looked not to anything under his hand, because Jehovah was with him; and what he did, Jehovah made it prosper.

40 And it came to pass after these things, [that] the cup-bearer of the king of Egypt and the baker offended their lord the 2 king of Egypt. And Pharaoh was wroth with his two chamberlains —with the chief of the cup-bearers and with the chief of the bakers; 3 and he put them in custody into the house of the captain of the life-guard, into the tower-house, into the place where Joseph was 4 imprisoned. And the captain of the life-guard appointed Joseph to them, that he should attend on them. And they were [several] days in custody.
5 And they dreamed a dream, both of them in one night, each his dream, each according to the interpretation of his dream, the cup-bearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were impris-

6 oned in the tower-house. And Joseph came in to them in the morning, and looked on them, and 7 behold, they were sad.[z] And he asked Pharaoh's chamberlains that were with him in custody in his lord's house, saying, Why are your 8 faces [so] sad[a] to-day? And they said to him, We have dreamt a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said to them, [Do] not interpretations [belong] to God? tell me [your dreams], I pray you.
9 Then the chief of the cup-bearers told his dream to Joseph, and said to him, In my dream, behold, a 10 vine was before me; and in the vine were three branches; and it was as though it budded; its blossoms shot forth, its clusters ripened 11 into grapes. And Pharaoh's cup was in my hand; and I took the grapes, and pressed them into Pharaoh's cup, and gave the cup 12 into Pharaoh's hand. And Joseph said to him, This is the interpretation of it: the three branches are 13 three days. In yet three days will Pharaoh lift up thy head[b] and restore thee to thy place, and thou shalt deliver Pharaoh's cup into his hand, after the former manner when thou wast his cup-bearer.
14 Only bear a remembrance with thee of me when it goes well with thee, and deal kindly, I pray thee, with me, and make mention of me to Pharaoh, and bring me out of this 15 house; for indeed I was stolen out of the land of the Hebrews, and here also have I done nothing that they should put me into the dungeon.
16 And when the chief of the bakers saw that the interpretation was good, he said to Joseph, I also was in my dream, and behold, three baskets of white bread[c] were on 17 my head. And in the uppermost basket there were all manner of victuals for Pharaoh that the baker makes, and the birds ate them out 18 of the basket upon my head. And Joseph answered and said, This is the interpretation of it: the three 19 baskets are three days. In yet three days will Pharaoh lift up thy head from off thee, and hang thee on a tree; and the birds will eat thy flesh from off thee.
20 And it came to pass the third day—Pharaoh's birthday—that he made a feast to all his bondmen.
And he lifted up the head of the chief of the cup-bearers, and the head of the chief of the bakers 21 among his bondmen. And he restored the chief of the cup-bearers to his office of cup-bearer again; 22 and he gave the cup into Pharaoh's hand. And he hanged the chief of the bakers, as Joseph had in-23 terpreted to them. But the chief of the cup-bearers did not remember Joseph, and forgot him.

41 And it came to pass at the end of two full years,[d] that Pharaoh dreamed, and behold, he 2 stood by the river.[e] And behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fine-looking and fatfleshed, and they fed in the reed-3 grass. And behold, seven other kine came up after them out of the river, bad-looking and lean-fleshed, and stood by the kine on the bank 4 of the river. And the kine that were bad-looking and lean-fleshed ate up the seven kine that were fine-looking and fat. And Pha-5 raoh awoke. And he slept and dreamed the second time; and behold, seven ears of corn grew up on one stalk, fat and good.
6 And behold, seven ears, thin and parched with the east wind, sprung 7 up after them. And the thin ears devoured the seven fat and full ears. And Pharaoh awoke; and behold, it was a dream.
8 And it came to pass in the morning, that his spirit was troubled; and he sent and called for all the scribes[f] of Egypt, and all the sages who were therein, and Pharaoh told them his dream; but [there was] none to interpret them 9 to Pharaoh. Then spoke the chief of the cup-bearers to Pharaoh, saying, I remember mine offences 10 this day. Pharaoh as wroth with his bondmen, and put me in custody into the captain of the life-guard's house, me and the 11 chief of the bakers. And we dreamed a dream in one night, I and he; we dreamed each according to the interpretation of his 12 dream. And there was there with us a Hebrew youth, a bondman of the captain of the life-guard, to whom we told [them], and he interpreted to us our dreams; to each he interpreted according to 13 his dream. And it came to pass, just as he interpreted to us, so it came about: me has he restored to my office, and him he hanged.

14 Then Pharaoh sent and called Joseph; and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon. And he shaved [himself], and changed his clothes, and came in to Pha-15 raoh. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I have dreamt a dream, and there is none to interpret it. And I have heard say of thee, thou understandest a dream to inter-16 pret it. And Joseph answered Pharaoh, saying, It is not in me: God will give Pharaoh an answer 17 of peace. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, In my dream, behold, I stood on the bank of the river.
18 And behold, there came up out of the river seven kine, fat-fleshed and of fine form, and they fed in 19 the reed-grass. And behold, seven other kine came up after them, poor, and very ill-formed, and lean-fleshed—such as I never saw in all the land of Egypt for bad-20 ness. And the lean and bad kine 21 ate up the seven first fat kine; and they came into their belly, and it could not be known that they had come into their belly; and their look was bad, as at the beginning.
22 And I awoke. And I saw in my dream, and behold, seven ears came up on one stalk, full and 23 good. And behold, seven ears, withered, thin, parched with the east wind, sprung up after them; 24 and the thin ears devoured the seven good ears. And I told it to the scribes; but there was none to make it known to me.
25 And Joseph said to Pharaoh, The dream of Pharaoh is one. What God will do he has made 26 known to Pharaoh. The seven fine kine are seven years; and the seven good ears are seven years: 27 the dream is one. And the seven lean and bad kine that came up after them are seven years; and the seven empty ears, parched with the east wind, will be seven 28 years of famine. This is the word which I have spoken to Pharaoh: what God is about to do he has let 29 Pharaoh see. Behold, there come seven years of great plenty through-30 out the land of Egypt. And there will arise after them seven years of famine; and all the plenty will be forgotten in the land of Egypt, and the famine will waste away 31 the land. And the plenty will not be known afterwards in the land by reason of that famine; for it 32 will be very grievous. And as regards the double repetition of the dream to Pharaoh, it is that the thing is established by God, and 33 God will hasten to do it. And now let Pharaoh look himself out a man discreet and wise, and set 34 him over the land of Egypt. Let Pharaoh do [this]: let him appoint overseers over the land, and take the fifth part of the land of Egypt during the seven years of plenty, 35 and let them gather all the food of these coming good years, and lay up corn under the hand of Pharaoh, for food in the cities, and 36 keep [it]. And let the food be as store for the land for the seven years of famine, which will be in the land of Egypt, that the land perish[g] not through the famine.
37 And the word was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of 38 all his bondmen. And Pharaoh said to his bondmen, Shall we find [one] as this, a man in whom the 39 Spirit of God[h] is? And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Since God has made all this known to thee, there is none [so] discreet and wise as 40 thou. Thou shalt be over my house, and according to thy commandment[i] shall all my people regulate themselves; only concerning the throne will I be greater 41 than thou. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, See, I have set thee over 42 all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh took off his ring from his hand, and put it on Joseph's hand, and arrayed him in clothes of byssus,[k] and put a gold chain 43 on his neck. And he caused him to ride in the second chariot that he had; and they cried before him, Bow the knee![l] and he set him over all the land of Egypt.
44 And Pharaoh said to Joseph, I am Pharaoh; and without thee shall no man lift up his hand or his foot 45 in all the land of Egypt. And Pharaoh called Joseph's name Zaphnath-paaneah,[m] and gave him as wife Asnath the daughter of Potipherah the priest in On. And Joseph went out over the land of Egypt.
46 And Joseph was thirty years old when he stood before Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from Pharaoh, and passed through the whole land of Egypt.

47 And in the seven years of plenty the land brought forth [n] by hand-48 fuls. And he gathered up all the food of the seven years that was in the land of Egypt, and put the food in the cities; the food of the fields of the city, which were round 49 about it, he laid up in it. And Joseph laid up corn as sand of the sea exceeding much, until they left off numbering; for it was without number.
50 And to Joseph were born two sons before the year of famine came, whom Asnath the daughter of Potipherah the priest in On 51 bore to him. And Joseph called the name of the firstborn Manasseh [o]—For God has made me forget all my toil, and all my father's 52 house. And the name of the second he called Ephraim [p]—For God has caused me to be fruitful in the land of my affliction.
53 And the seven years of plenty that were in the land of Egypt 54 were ended; and the seven years of the dearth began to come, according as Joseph had said. And there was dearth in all lands; but in all the land of Egypt there was 55 bread. And all the land of Egypt suffered from the dearth. And the people cried to Pharaoh for bread; and Pharaoh said to all the Egyptians, Go to Joseph: what he says 56 to you, that do. And the famine was on all the earth. [q] And Joseph opened every place in which there was [provision], and sold grain to the Egyptians; and the famine was grievous in the land of Egypt.
57 And all countries [r] came into Egypt to Joseph, to buy [grain], because the famine was grievous on the whole earth.

42 And Jacob saw that there was grain in Egypt, and Jacob said to his sons, Why do ye look one 2 upon another? And he said, Behold, I have heard that there is grain in Egypt; go down thither and buy [grain] for us from thence, in order that we may live, and not 3 die. And Joseph's ten brethren went down to buy [grain] out of 4 Egypt. But Benjamin, Joseph's brother, Jacob sent not with his brethren; for he said, Lest mis-5 chief may befall him. So the sons of Israel came to buy [grain] among those that came; for the famine was in the land of Canaan.
6 And Joseph, he was the governor over the land—he it was that sold [the corn] to all the people of the land. And Joseph's brethren came and bowed down to him, the 7 face to the earth. And Joseph saw his brethren, and knew them; but he made himself strange to them, and spoke roughly to them, and said to them, Whence come ye? And they said, From the 8 land of Canaan, to buy food. And Joseph knew his brethren, but they did not know him.
9 And Joseph remembered the dreams that he had dreamt of them; and he said to them, Ye are spies: to see the exposed places [s] of the land ye are come.
10 And they said to him, No, my lord; but to buy food are thy ser-11 vants come. We are all one man's sons; we are honest: thy ser-12 vants are not spies. And he said to them, No; but to see the exposed places of the land are ye 13 come. And they said, Thy servants were twelve brethren, sons of one man, in the land of Canaan; and behold, the youngest is this day with our father, and one is 14 not. And Joseph said to them, That is it that I have spoken to 15 you, saying, Ye are spies. By this ye shall be put to the proof: as Pharaoh lives, ye shall not go forth hence, unless your youngest 16 brother come hither! Send one of you, that he may fetch your brother, but ye shall be imprisoned, and your words shall be put to the proof, whether the truth is in you; and if not, as Pharaoh 17 lives, ye [t] are spies. And he put [v] them in custody three days.
18 And Joseph said to them the third day, This do, that ye may 19 live: I fear God. If ye are honest, let one of your brethren remain bound in the house of your prison, but go ye, carry grain for the 20 hunger of your households; and bring your youngest brother to me, in order that your words be verified, and that ye may not die.
21 And they did so. Then they said one to another, We are indeed guilty concerning our brother, whose anguish of soul we saw when he besought us, and we did not hearken; therefore this dis-22 tress is come upon us. And Reuben answered them, saying, Did I not speak to you, saying, Do not sin against the lad? But ye did not hearken; and now behold, his 23 blood also is required. And they did not know that Joseph understood, for the interpreter was be-24 tween them. And he turned away from them, and wept. And he returned to them, and spoke to them, and took Simeon from among them, and bound him before their eyes.

25 And Joseph gave orders to fill their vessels with corn, and to restore every man's money into his sack, and to give them provision for the way. And thus did 26 they to them. And they loaded their asses with their grain, and 27 departed thence. And one of them opened his sack to give his ass food in the inn,[w] and saw his money, and behold, it was in the mouth 28 of his sack.[x] And he said to his brethren, My money is returned [to me], and behold, it is even in my sack.[x] And their heart failed [them], and they were afraid, saying one to another, What is this [that] God has done to us?
29 And they came into the land of Canaan, to Jacob their father, and told him all that had befallen 30 them, saying, The man, the lord of the land, spoke roughly to us, and treated us as spies of the land.
31 And we said to him, We are honest; 32 we are not spies: we are twelve brethren, sons of our father; one is not, and the youngest is this day with our father in the land of 33 Canaan. And the man, the lord of the land, said to us, Hereby shall I know that ye are honest: leave one of your brethren with me, and take [for] the hunger of your 34 households, and go, and bring your youngest brother to me, and I shall know that ye are not spies, but are honest. Your brother will I give up to you; and ye may trade in the land.
35 And it came to pass as they emptied their sacks, that behold, every man had his bundle of money in his sack; and they saw their bundles of money, they and 36 their father, and were afraid. And Jacob their father said to them, Ye have bereaved me of children: Joseph is not, and Simeon is not, and ye will take Benjamin! All 37 these things are against me. And Reuben spoke to his father, saying, Slay my two sons if I bring him not back to thee: give him into my hand, and I will bring him to 38 thee again. But he said, My son shall not go down with you, for his brother is dead, and he alone is left; and if mischief should befall him by the way in which ye go, then would ye bring down my grey hairs with sorrow to Sheol.

43 And the famine was grievous in the land. 2 And it came to pass, when they had finished eating the grain which they had brought from Egypt, that their father said to them, Go again, buy us a little 3 food. And Judah spoke to him, saying, The man did positively testify to us, saying, Ye shall not see my face, unless your brother 4 be with you. If thou wilt send our brother with us, we will go 5 down and buy thee food; but if thou do not send [him], we will not go down, for the man said to us, Ye shall not see my face, unless 6 your brother be with you. And Israel said, Why did ye deal [so] ill with me [as] to tell the man whether ye had yet a brother?
7 And they said, The man asked very closely after us, and after our kindred, saying, Is your father yet alive? have ye a brother? And we told him according to the tenor of these words. Could we at all know that he would say, Bring 8 your brother down? And Judah said to Israel his father, Send the lad with me, and we will arise and go, that we may live, and not die, both we and thou and our little 9 ones. I will be surety for him: of my hand shalt thou require him; if I bring him not to thee, and set him before thy face, then shall I be guilty toward thee for ever.
10 For had we not lingered, we should now certainly have returned al-11 ready twice. And their father Israel said to them, If it is then so, do this: take of the best fruits in[y] the land in your vessels, and carry down the man a gift: a little balsam and a little honey, tragacanth and ladanum, pistacia-nuts and 12 almonds. And take other money in your hand, and the money that was returned to you in the mouth of your sacks, carry back in your hand: perhaps it is an oversight.
13 And take your brother, and arise, 14 go again to the man. And the Almighty God give you mercy before the man, that he may send away your other brother and Benjamin! And I, if I be bereaved of 15 children, am bereaved. And the men took that gift, and took double money in their hand, and Benjamin, and rose up, and went down to Egypt, and came before Joseph.

16 And Joseph saw Benjamin with them, and said to the [man] who was over his house, Bring the men into the house, and slaughter cattle,[z] and make ready; for the men shall eat with me at noon.
17 And the man did as Joseph had said; and the man brought the 18 men into Joseph's house. And the men were afraid because they were brought into Joseph's house, and said, Because of the money that was returned to us in our sacks at the beginning are we brought in, that he may turn against us, and fall upon us and take us for bond-19 men, and our asses. And they came up to the man that was over Joseph's house, and they spoke to 20 him at the door of the house, and said, Ah! my lord, we came indeed 21 down at the first to buy food. And it came to pass when we came to the inn, that we opened our sacks, and behold, [every] man's money was in the mouth of his sack, our money according to its weight; and we have brought it again in 22 our hand. And other money have we brought down in our hand to buy food. We do not know who 23 put our money in our sacks. And he said, Peace be to you, fear not: your God, and the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks; your money came to me. And he brought Simeon out 24 to them. And the man brought the men into Joseph's house, and gave water, and they washed their feet; and he gave their asses food.
25 And they made ready the gift for Joseph's coming at noon; for they had heard that they should 26 eat bread there. When Joseph came home, they brought him the gift that was in their hand, into the house, and bowed themselves 27 to him to the earth. And he asked them of their welfare,[a] and said, Is your father well[b]—the old man of whom ye spoke? Is he yet 28 alive? And they said, Thy servant our father is well; he is yet alive. And they bowed, and made 29 obeisance. And he lifted up his eyes and saw his brother Benjamin, his mother's son, and said, Is this your younger brother of whom ye spoke to me? And he said, God be gracious to thee, my 30 son! And Joseph made haste, for his bowels burned for his brother; and he sought [a place] to weep, and he went into the chamber, and 31 wept there. And he washed his face, and came out, and controlled himself, and said, Set on bread.
32 And they set on for him by himself, and for them by themselves, and for the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves; because the Egyptians might not eat bread with the Hebrews, for that is an abomination unto the Egyptians.
33 And they sat before him, the first-born according to his birthright, and the youngest according to his youth; and the men marvelled 34 one at another. And he had portions carried to them from before him. And Benjamin's portion was five times greater than the portions of them all. And they drank, and made merry with him.

44 And he commanded him who was over his house, saying, Fill the men's sacks with food, as much as they can carry; and put every man's money in the mouth of his 2 sack. And put my cup, the silver cup, in the mouth of the sack of the youngest, and his grain-money. And he did according to the word of Joseph which he had spoken.
3 In the morning, when it was light, the men were sent away, they and 4 their asses. They were gone out of the city, [and] not [yet] far off, when Joseph said to him who was over his house, Up! follow after the men; and when thou overtakest them, thou shalt say to them, Why have ye rewarded evil 5 for good? Is not this [it] in which my lord drinks, and in which indeed he divines?[c] Ye have done 6 evil [in] what ye have done. And he overtook them, and he spoke 7 to them these words. And they said to him, Why does my lord speak such words as these? Far be it from thy servants to do such 8 a thing![d] Behold, the money that we found in our sacks' mouths we have brought again to thee from the land of Canaan; and how should we steal out of thy lord's 9 house silver or gold? With whomsoever of thy servants it is found, let him die; and we also will be 10 my lord's bondmen. And he said, Now also [let] it [be] according to your words: let him with whom it is found be my bondman, but 11 ye shall be blameless. And they hasted and laid down every man his sack on the ground, and opened 12 every man his sack. And he searched carefully: he began at the eldest, and ended at the youngest; and the cup was found in 13 Benjamin's sack. Then they rent their clothes, and loaded every man his ass, and they returned to the city.

14 And Judah and his brethren came to Joseph's house; and he was still there; and they fell down 15 before him to the ground. And Joseph said to them, What deed is this which ye have done? Did ye not know that such a man as I can 16 certainly divine? And Judah said, What shall we say to my lord? what shall we speak, and how justify ourselves? God has found out the iniquity of thy servants; behold, we are my lord's bondmen, both we, and he in whose hand the cup has been 17 found. And he said, Far be it from me to do so! The man in whose hand the cup has been found, he shall be my bondman; but as for you, go up in peace to your father.
18 Then Judah came near to him, and said, Ah! my lord, let thy servant, I pray thee, speak a word in my lord's ears, and let not thine anger burn against thy servant;
19 for thou art even as Pharaoh. My lord asked his servants, saying, Have ye a father, or a brother?
20 And we said to my lord, We have an aged father, and a child born to him in his old age, [yet] young; and his brother is dead, and he alone is left of his mother; and his 21 father loves him. And thou saidst unto thy servants, Bring him down to me, that I may set mine eye on 22 him. And we said to my lord, The youth cannot leave his father: if he should leave his father, [his 23 father] would die. And thou saidst to thy servants, Unless your youngest brother come down with you, ye shall see my face no more.
24 And it came to pass when we came up to thy servant my father, we told him the words of my lord.
25 And our father said, Go again, buy 26 us a little food. But we said, We cannot go down: if our youngest brother be with us, then will we go down; for we cannot see the man's face unless our youngest 27 brother is with us. And thy servant my father said to us, Ye know that my wife bore me two 28 [sons]; and the one went out from me, and I said, He must certainly have been torn in pieces; and I have not seen him [again] hitherto.
29 And if ye take this one also from me, and mischief should befall him, ye will bring down my grey 30 hairs with misery to Sheol. And now, when I come to thy servant my father, and the lad is not with us,—seeing that his life is bound 31 up with his life,[e] it will come to pass when he sees that the lad is not [there], that he will die; and thy servants will bring down the grey hairs of thy servant our father 32 with sorrow to Sheol.[f] For thy servant became surety for the lad to my father, saying, If I bring him not to thee, then I shall be guilty toward my father all my[g] 33 days. And now, let thy servant stay, I pray thee, instead of the lad a bondman to my lord, and let the lad go up with his brethren; 34 for how should I go up to my father if the lad were not with me?—lest I see the evil that would come on my father.

45 And Joseph could not control himself before all them that stood by him, and he cried, Put every man out from me! And no man stood with him when Joseph made himself known to his brethren. And he raised[h] his voice in 2 weeping; and the Egyptians heard, and the house of Pharaoh heard.
3 And Joseph said to his brethren, I am Joseph. Does my father yet live? And his brethren could not answer him, for they were troubled 4 at his presence. And Joseph said to his brethren, Come near to me, I pray you. And they came near. And he said, I am Joseph your brother, whom ye sold into Egypt.
5 And now, be not grieved, and be not angry with yourselves,[i] that ye sold me hither, for God sent me 6 before you to preserve life. For the famine has been these two years in[j] the land; and yet there are five years in which there will be neither ploughing nor harvest.
7 So God sent me before you to preserve you a remnant in the earth, and to save you alive by a great 8 deliverance. And now it was not you [that] sent me here, but God; and he has made me a father to Pharaoh, and lord of all his house, and governor over all the land of 9 Egypt. Haste and go up to my father, and say to him, Thus says thy son Joseph: God has made me lord of all Egypt; come down 10 to me, tarry not. And thou shalt dwell in the land of Goshen, and thou shalt be near to me, thou, and thy sons, and thy sons' sons, and thy sheep, and thy cattle, and 11 all that thou hast. And there will I maintain thee; for yet there are five years of famine; in order that thou be not impoverished, thou, and thy household, and all that 12 thou hast. And behold, your eyes see, and the eyes of my brother Benjamin, that it is my mouth 13 which speaks to you. And tell my father of all my glory in Egypt, and of all that ye have seen, and haste and bring down my father 14 hither. And he fell on his brother Benjamin's neck, and wept; and 15 Benjamin wept on his neck. And he kissed all his brethren, and wept upon them; and after that his brethren talked with him.

16 And the report[k] was heard in Pharaoh's house, saying, Joseph's brethren are come. And it was good in the eyes of Pharaoh, and 17 in the eyes of his bondmen. And Pharaoh said to Joseph, Say to thy brethren, Do this: load your beasts and depart, go into the land 18 of Canaan, and take your father and your households, and come to me; and I will give you the good[l] of the land of Egypt, and ye shall 19 eat the fat of the land. And thou art commanded—this do: take waggons out of the land of Egypt for your little ones and for your wives, and take up your father, 20 and come. And let not your eye regret your stuff; for the good of all the land of Egypt shall be yours.
21 And the sons of Israel did so; and Joseph gave them waggons, according to the commandment[m] of Pharaoh, and gave them pro-22 vision for the way. To each one of them all he gave changes of clothing; but to Benjamin he gave three hundred [pieces] of silver and 23 five changes of clothing. And to his father he sent this: ten asses laden with the good things of Egypt, and ten she-asses laden with corn and bread, and food for 24 his father by the way. And he sent his brethren away, and they departed. And he said to them, Do not quarrel on the way.
25 And they went up out of Egypt, and came into the land of Canaan 26 to Jacob their father. And they told him, saying, Joseph is still alive, and he is governor over all the land of Egypt. And his heart fainted, for he did not believe 27 them. And they spoke to him all the words of Joseph, which he had spoken to them. And he saw the waggons that Joseph had sent to carry him. And the spirit of Jacob 28 their father revived. And Israel said, It is enough: Joseph my son is yet alive; I will go and see him before I die.

46 And Israel took his journey with all that he had, and came to Beer-sheba; and he offered sacrifices to the God of his father 2 Isaac. And God spoke to Israel in the visions of the night and said, Jacob, Jacob! And he said, Here 3 am I. And he said, I am God,[n] the God of thy father: fear not to go down to Egypt; for I will there make of thee a great nation.
4 I will go down with thee to Egypt, and I will also certainly bring thee up; and Joseph shall put his hand
5 on thine eyes. And Jacob rose up from Beer-sheba; and the sons of Israel carried Jacob their father, and their little ones, and their wives, on the waggons that Pha-6 raoh had sent to carry him. And they took their cattle, and their goods which they had acquired in the land of Canaan, and came to Egypt, Jacob and all his seed with 7 him; his sons and his sons' sons with him, his daughters and his sons' daughters and all his seed he brought with him to Egypt.
8 And these are the names of the sons of Israel who came into Egypt: Jacob and his sons, Jacob's first-9 born, Reuben. And the sons of Reuben: Enoch, and Phallu, and 10 Hezron, and Carmi.—And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Saul the son of a Canaanitish 11 woman.—And the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.— 12 And the sons of Judah: Er, and Onan, and Shelah, and Pherez, and Zerah; but Er and Onan died in the land of Canaan. And the sons of Pherez were Hezron and Hamul.
13 —And the sons of Issachar: Tola, and Puah, and Job, and Shimron.
14 —And the sons of Zebulun: Sered,

15 and Elon, and Jahleel.—These are the sons of Leah, whom she bore to Jacob in Padan-Aram; and his daughter, Dinah. All the souls of his sons and his daughters were thirty-three.
16 And the sons of Gad: Ziphion and Haggi, Shuni and Ezbon, Eri, 17 and Arodi, and Areli.—And the sons of Asher: Jimnah, and Jishvah, and Jishvi, and Beriah; and Serah their sister; and the sons of Beriah: Heber and Malchiel.— 18 These are the sons of Zilpah, whom Laban gave to Leah his daughter; and she bore these to Jacob: sixteen souls.
19 The sons of Rachel Jacob's wife: 20 Joseph and Benjamin. And to Joseph in the land of Egypt were born Manasseh and Ephraim, whom Asnath bore to him, the daughter of Potipherah the priest 21 in On.—And the sons of Benjamin:
Belah, and Becher, and Ashbel, Gera and Naaman, Ehi and Rosh, Muppim, and Huppim, and Ard.— 22 These are the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob: all the souls were fourteen.
23 And the sons of Dan: Hushim.
24 —And the sons of Naphtali: Jah-zeel, and Guni, and Jezer, and 25 Shillem.—These are the sons of Bilhah, whom Laban gave to Rachel his daughter; and she bore these to Jacob: all the souls were seven.
26 All the souls that came with Jacob to Egypt, that had come out of his loins,[o] besides Jacob's sons' wives: all the souls were 27 sixty-six. And the sons of Joseph who were born to him in Egypt, were two souls. All the souls of the house of Jacob that came to Egypt were seventy.[p] 28 And he sent Judah before him to Joseph, to give notice before he came[q] to Goshen. And they came 29 into the land of Goshen. Then Joseph yoked his chariot, and went up to meet Israel his father, to Goshen, and he presented himself to him; and he fell on his neck, and wept on his neck a good while.[r] 30 And Israel said to Joseph, Now[s] let me die, after I have seen thy face, since thou still livest.
31 And Joseph said to his brethren and to his father's house, I will go up, and tell Pharaoh, and say to him, My brethren and my father's house, who were in the land of 32 Canaan, are come to me; and the men are shepherds, for they have been occupied with cattle;[t] and they have brought their sheep, and their cattle, and all that they have.
33 And it shall come to pass that when Pharaoh shall call you and say, What is your occupation?
34 then ye shall say, Thy servants are men that have been occupied with cattle from our youth even until now, both we and our fathers; in order that ye may dwell in the land of Goshen; for every shepherd is an abomination to the Egyptians.

47 And Joseph came and told Pharaoh and said, My father and my brethren, and their sheep and their cattle, and all that they have, are come out of the land of Canaan; and behold, they are in 2 the land of Goshen. And he took from the whole number[u] of his brethren, five men, and set them 3 before Pharaoh. And Pharaoh said to his brethren, What is your occupation? And they said to Pharaoh, Thy servants are shepherds, both we and our fathers.
4 And they said to Pharaoh, To sojourn in the land are we come; for there is no pasture for the sheep that thy servants have, for the famine is grievous in the land of Canaan; and now, we pray thee, let thy servants dwell in the land 5 of Goshen. And Pharaoh spoke to Joseph, saying, Thy father and thy brethren are come to thee.
6 The land of Egypt is before thee; in the best of the land settle thy father and thy brethren: let them dwell in the land of Goshen. And if thou knowest men of activity[v] among them, then set them as overseers of cattle over what I have.
7 And Joseph brought Jacob his father, and set him before Pharaoh. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh.
8 And Pharaoh said to Jacob, How many are the days of the years of 9 thy life? And Jacob said to Pharaoh, The days of the years of my sojourning are a hundred and thirty years. Few and evil have been the days of the years of my life, and they do not attain to the days of the years of the life of my fathers, in the days of their so-10 journing. And Jacob blessed Pharaoh, and went out from Pharaoh.
11 And Joseph settled his father and his brethren, and gave them a possession in the land of Egypt, in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had com-12 manded. And Joseph maintained his father, and his brethren, and all his father's household, with bread, according to the number of the little ones.[w] 13 And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very grievous; and the land of Egypt and the land of Canaan were ex-14 hausted through the famine. And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the grain which they bought; and Joseph brought the money 15 into Pharaoh's house. And when money came to an end in the land of Egypt and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came to Joseph, saying, Give us bread! for why should we die before thee?

16 for [our] money is all gone. And Joseph said, Give your cattle, and I will give you for your cattle, if 17 [your] money be all gone. And they brought their cattle to Joseph; and Joseph gave them bread for horses, and for flocks of sheep, and for herds of cattle, and for asses; and he fed them with bread for all their cattle that year.
18 And that year ended; and they came to him the second year, and said to him, We will not hide [it] from my lord that since [our] money is come to an end, and the herds of cattle are in the possession of my lord, nothing is left before my lord but our bodies and 19 our land. Why should we die before thine eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for bread, and we and our land will be bondmen to Pharaoh; and give seed, that we may live, and not die, and that the land be not desolate.
20 And Joseph bought all the soil of Egypt for Pharaoh; for the Egyptians sold every man his field, because the famine prevailed over them; and the land became Pha-21 raoh's. And as for the people, he removed them into the cities, from [one] end of the borders of Egypt 22 even to the [other] end of it. Only the land of the priests he did not buy; for the priests had an assigned portion from Pharaoh, and ate their assigned portion which Pharaoh had given them; so they 23 did not sell their land. And Joseph said to the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for 24 you, and sow the land. And it shall come to pass in the increase that ye shall give the fifth to Pharaoh, and the four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your 25 little ones. And they said, Thou hast saved us alive. Let us find favour in the eyes of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's bondmen.
26 And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt to this day, [that] the fifth should be for Pharaoh, except the land of the priests: theirs alone did not become Pharaoh's.
27 And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen; and they had possessions in it, and were fruitful and multiplied exceedingly.
28 And Jacob lived in the land of Egypt seventeen years; and the days of Jacob, the years of his life, were a hundred and forty-seven 29 years. And the days of Israel approached that he should die. And he called his son Joseph, and said to him, If now I have found favour in thine eyes, put, I pray thee, thy hand under my thigh, and deal kindly and truly with me: bury me not, I pray thee, in Egypt; 30 but when I shall lie with my fathers, thou shalt carry me out of Egypt, and bury me in their sepulchre. And he said, I will do 31 according to thy word. And he said, Swear to me; and he swore to him. And Israel worshipped on the bed's head.[x]

48 And it came to pass after these things, that one told Joseph, Behold, thy father is sick. And he took with him his two sons 2 Manasseh and Ephraim. And one told Jacob and said, Behold, thy son Joseph is coming to thee. And Israel strengthened himself, and 3 sat upon the bed. And Jacob said to Joseph, The Almighty God appeared to me at Luz in the land 4 of Canaan, and blessed me, and he said to me, Behold, I will make thee fruitful and multiply thee, and I will make of thee a company of peoples; and will give this land to thy seed after thee [for] an 5 everlasting possession. And now thy two sons, who were born to thee in the land of Egypt before [v] I came to thee into Egypt, shall be mine: Ephraim and Manasseh shall be mine, as Reuben and 6 Simeon. And thy family which thou hast begotten [z] after them shall be thine: they shall be called after the name of their brethren 7 in their inheritance. And as for me, when I came from Padan, Rachel died by me in the land of Canaan on the way, when there was yet a certain distance to come to Ephrath; and I buried her there on the way to Ephrath, that is, Bethlehem.

8 And Israel beheld Joseph's sons, 9 and said, Who are these? And Joseph said to his father, They are my sons, whom God has given me here. And he said, Bring them, I pray thee, to me, that I may bless 10 them. But the eyes of Israel were heavy from age: he could not see. And he brought them nearer to him; and he kissed them, and 11 embraced them. And Israel said to Joseph, I had not thought to see thy face; and behold, God has 12 let me see also thy seed. And Joseph brought them out from his knees, and bowed down with his 13 face to the earth. And Joseph took them both, Ephraim in his right hand towards Israel's left hand, and Manasseh in his left hand toward Israel's right hand, and brought [them] near to him.
14 But Israel stretched out his right hand, and laid [it] on Ephraim's head—now he was the younger—and his left hand on Manasseh's head; guiding his hands intelligently,[a] for Manasseh was the 15 firstborn. And he blessed Joseph, and said, The God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God that shepherded me all my life long to this day, 16 the Angel that redeemed me from all evil, bless the lads; and let my name be named upon them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isaac; and let them grow into a multitude in the midst of the land![b]
17 When Joseph saw that his father laid his right hand on the head of Ephraim, it was evil in his eyes; and he took hold of his father's hand to remove it from Ephraim's 18 head to Manasseh's head. And Joseph said to his father, Not so, my father, for this is the firstborn: put thy right hand on his 19 head. But his father refused and said, I know, my son, I know: he also will become a people, and he also will be great; but truly his younger brother will be greater than he: and his seed will become 20 the fulness of nations. And he blessed them that day, saying, In thee will Israel bless, saying, God make thee as Ephraim and Manasseh! And he set Ephraim be-21 fore Manasseh. And Israel said to Joseph, Behold, I die; and God will be with you, and bring you again to the land of your fathers.
22 And I have given to thee one tract [of land][c] above thy brethren, which I took out of the hand of the Amorite with my sword and with my bow.

49 And Jacob called his sons, and said, Gather yourselves together, and I will tell you what will befall you at the end of days.

2 Assemble yourselves, and hear, ye sons of Jacob,
And listen to Israel your father.
3 Reuben, thou art my firstborn, My might, and the firstfruits of my vigour:
Excellency of dignity, and excellency of strength.
4 Impetuous[d] as the waters, thou shalt have no pre-eminence;
Because thou wentest up to thy father's couch:
Then defiledst thou [it]: he went up to my bed.
5 Simeon and Levi are brethren: Instruments of violence their swords.[e] 6 My soul, come not into their council;
Mine honour, be not united with their assembly;[f]
For in their anger they slew men,
And in their wantonness houghed oxen.[g] 7 Cursed be their anger, for it [was] violent;
And their rage, for it [was] cruel!
I will divide them in Jacob,
And scatter them in Israel.
8 Judah—[as to] thee, thy brethren will praise thee;[h]

29 And he charged them, and said to them, I am gathered to my people: bury me with my fathers in the cave that is in the field of Ephron 30 the Hittite, in the cave that is in the field of Machpelah, which is opposite to Mamre, in the land of Canaan, which Abraham bought of Ephron the Hittite along with the field for a possession of a 31 sepulchre. There they buried Abraham and Sarah his wife; there they buried Isaac and Rebecca his wife; and there I buried 32 Leah. The purchase of the field, and of the cave that is in it, was 33 from the children of Heth. And when Jacob had made an end of commanding his sons, he gathered his feet into the bed, and expired, and was gathered to his peoples.

50 And Joseph fell upon his father's face, and wept upon 2 him, and kissed him. And Joseph commanded his servants the physicians to embalm his father. And the physicians embalmed Israel.
3 And forty days were fulfilled for him; for so are fulfilled the days of those who are embalmed. And the Egyptians mourned for him 4 seventy days. And when the days of his mourning were past, Joseph spoke to the house of Pharaoh, saying, If now I have found favour in your eyes, speak, I pray you, in 5 the ears of Pharaoh, saying, My father made me swear, saying, Behold, I die; in my grave which I have dug myself in the land of Canaan, there shalt thou bury me. And now, let me go up, I pray thee, that I may bury my father;
6 and I will come again. And Pharaoh said, Go up and bury thy father, according as he made thee 7 swear. And Joseph went up to bury his father; and with him went up all the bondmen of Pharaoh, the elders of his house, and all the elders of the land of Egypt, 8 and all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his father's house; only their little ones, and their flocks, and their herds, they 9 left in the land of Goshen. And there went up with him both chariots and horsemen; and the 10 camp was very great. And they came to the threshing-floor of Atad, which is beyond the Jordan; and there they lamented with a great and very grievous lamentation; and he made a mourning for 11 his father of seven days. And the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, saw the mourning at the threshing-floor of Atad, and they said, This is a grievous mourning of the Egyptians. Therefore the name of it was called Abel-Mizraim,[u] which is beyond the Jordan.
12 And his sons did to him according 13 as he had commanded them; and his sons carried him into the land of Canaan, and buried him in the cave of the field of Machpelah which Abraham had bought along with the field, for a possession of a sepulchre, of Ephron the Hittite, opposite to Mamre.
14 And, after he had buried his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, he and his brethren, and all that had gone up with him to bury his father.
15 And when Joseph's brethren saw that their father was dead, they said, If now Joseph should be hostile to us, and should indeed requite us all the evil that we did 16 to him! And they sent a messenger to Joseph, saying, Thy father commanded before he died, saying, 17 Thus shall ye speak to Joseph: Oh forgive, I pray thee, the transgression of thy brethren, and their sin! for they did evil to thee. And now, we pray thee, forgive the transgression of the servants of the God of thy father. And Joseph 18 wept when they spoke to him. And his brethren also went and fell down before his face, and said, 19 Behold, we are thy bondmen. And Joseph said to them, Fear not: am I then in the place of God?
20 Ye indeed meant evil against me: God meant it for good, in order that he might do as [it is] this day, 21 to save a great people alive. And now, fear not: I will maintain you and your little ones. And he comforted them, and spoke consolingly to them.
22 And Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his father's house; and Joseph lived a hundred and ten years.
23 And Joseph saw Ephraim's children of the third [generation]; the sons also of Machir the son of Manasseh were born on Joseph's 24 knees. And Joseph said to his brethren, I die; and God will certainly visit you, and bring you up out of this land, into the land that he swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, 25 and to Jacob. And Joseph took an oath of the children of Israel, saying, God will certainly visit you; and ye shall carry up my 26 bones hence. And Joseph died, a hundred and ten years old; and they embalmed him; and he was put in a coffin[v] in Egypt.

[u] Lamentation of the Egyptians: so the LXX. But according to the points and Onkelos, it would be, Plain of the Egyptians.

THE SECOND BOOK OF MOSES

EXODUS

1 And these are the names of the sons of Israel who had come into Egypt; with Jacob had they come, each with[w] his household:
2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi, and Judah;
3 Issachar, Zebulun, and Benjamin; 4 Dan and Naphtali; Gad and 5 Asher. And all the souls that had come out of the loins of Jacob were seventy souls; and Joseph was in Egypt.
6 And Joseph died, and all his brethren, and all that generation.
7 And the children of Israel were fruitful, and swarmed and multiplied, and became exceeding strong; and the land was full of them.
8 And there arose a new king over Egypt, who did not know Joseph.
9 And he said to his people, Behold, the people of the children of Israel are more numerous and stronger 10 than we. Come on, let us deal wisely with them, lest they multiply, and it come to pass that, if war occur, they take side with our enemies and fight against us, and 11 go up out of the land. And they set over them service-masters to oppress them with their burdens. And they built store-cities for Pha-12 raoh, Pithom and Rameses. But the more they afflicted them, the more they multiplied and spread; and they were distressed[x] because 13 of the children of Israel. And the Egyptians made the children of 14 Israel serve with harshness; and they embittered their life with hard labour in clay and bricks, and in all manner of labour in the field: all their labour with which they made them serve was with harshness.
15 And the king of Egypt spoke to the Hebrew midwives—of whom the name of the one was Shiphrah, and the name of the other was 16 Puah—and he said, When ye help the Hebrew women in bearing, and see [them] on[y] the stool,[z] if it be a son, then ye shall kill him, but if a daughter, then she shall live.
17 But the midwives feared God, and did not as the king of Egypt had said to them, but saved the male 18 children alive. And the king of Egypt called the midwives and said to them, Why have ye done this, and saved the male children 19 alive? And the midwives said to Pharaoh, Because the Hebrew women are not as the Egyptian; for they are strong, and they have borne before the midwife comes 20 to them. And God dealt well with the midwives; and the people multiplied and became very strong.
21 And it came to pass, because the midwives feared God, that he made 22 them houses. Then Pharaoh charged all his people, saying, Every son that is born ye shall cast into the river, but every daughter ye shall save alive.

2 And a man of the house of Levi went and took a daughter of Levi.
2 And the woman conceived, and bore a son. And she saw him that he was fair, and hid him three 3 months. And when she could no longer hide him, she took for him an ark of reeds, and plastered it with resin and with pitch, and put the child in it, and laid [it] in the sedge on the bank of the river.
4 And his sister stood afar off to see 5 what would happen to him. And the daughter of Pharaoh went down to bathe in the river; and her maids went along by the river's side. And she saw the ark in the midst of the sedge, and sent her 6 handmaid and fetched it. And she opened [it], and saw the child, and behold, the boy wept. And she had compassion on him, and said, This is [one] of the Hebrews' chil-7 dren. And his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, Shall I go and call thee a wet-nurse of the Hebrew women, that she may nurse the 8 child for thee? And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Go. And the damsel went and called the child's 9 mother. And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, Take this child away and nurse it for me, and I will give [thee] thy wages. And the woman 10 took the child and nursed it. And [w] Lit. 'the man and.' [x] The word implies 'fear' and 'aversion.' [y] Or 'you look upon.' [z] Of uncertain meaning.

when the child was grown, she brought him to Pharaoh's daughter, and he became her son. And she called his name Moses,[a] and said, Because I drew him out of the water.

11 And it came to pass in those days, when Moses was grown, that he went out to his brethren and looked on their burdens; and he saw an Egyptian smiting a He-12 brew, one of his brethren. And he turned this way and that way, and when he saw that there was no man, he smote the Egyptian, and 13 hid him in the sand. And he went out on the second day, and behold, two Hebrew men were quarrelling; and he said to him that was in the wrong, Why art thou smiting thy 14 neighbour? And he said, Who made thee ruler[b] and judge over us? dost thou intend[c] to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? Then Moses feared, and said, Surely the matter is known.

15 And Pharaoh heard of this matter, and sought to slay Moses. But Moses fled from before Pharaoh, and dwelt in the land of Midian.
16 And he sat by the well. And the priest of Midian had seven daughters; and they came and drew [water], and filled the troughs, to 17 water their father's flock. And the shepherds came and drove them away; but Moses rose and helped them, and watered their 18 flock. And when they came to Reuel their father, he said, Why 19 are ye come so soon to-day? And they said, An Egyptian delivered us out of the hand of the shepherds, and also drew [water] abundantly for us, and watered the 20 flock. And he said to his daughters, And where is he? why then have ye left the man behind? Call 21 him, that he may eat bread. And Moses consented to remain with the man; and he gave Moses Zip-22 porah his daughter. And she bore a son, and he called his name Gershom;[d] for he said, I have been a sojourner in a foreign land.

23 And it came to pass during those many days, that the king of Egypt died. And the children of Israel sighed because of the bondage, and cried; and their cry came up to God because of the 24 bondage; and God heard their groaning, and God remembered his covenant with Abraham, with 25 Isaac, and with Jacob; and God looked upon the children of Israel, and God acknowledged [them].[e]

3 And Moses tended the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian. And he led the flock behind the wilderness, and came to the mountain of God—to 2 Horeb. And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to him in a flame of fire out of the midst of a thorn-bush:[f] and he looked, and behold, the thorn-bush burned with fire, and the thorn-bush was not being con-3 sumed. And Moses said, Let me now turn aside and see this great sight, why the thorn-bush is not 4 burnt. And Jehovah saw that he turned aside to see, and God called to him out of the midst of the thorn-bush and said, Moses, Moses!
5 And he said, Here am I. And he said, Draw not nigh hither: loose thy sandals from off thy feet, for the place whereon thou standest 6 is holy ground. And he said, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hid his face; for he was afraid to look at God.

7 And Jehovah said, I have seen assuredly the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and their cry have I heard on account of their taskmasters; for I know 8 their sorrows. And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good and spacious land, unto a land flowing with milk and honey, unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.
9 And now behold, the cry of the children of Israel is come unto me; and I have also seen the oppression with which the Egyptians oppress 10 them. And now come, and I will send thee unto Pharaoh, that thou mayest bring forth my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 And Moses said to God, Who am I, that I should go unto Pharaoh, and that I should bring forth the children of Israel out of Egypt?
12 And he said, For I will[g] be with thee; and this shall be the sign to thee that I have sent thee: when thou hast brought forth the people out of Egypt, ye shall serve 13 God upon this mountain. And

Moses said to God, Behold, [when] I come unto the children of Israel, and shall say unto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me unto you; and they shall say, What is his name? what shall I say unto 14 them? And God said to Moses, I AM THAT I AM. And he said, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel: I AM hath sent me unto you.
15 And God said moreover to Moses, Thus shalt thou say unto the children of Israel: Jehovah, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me unto you. This is my name for ever, and this is my memorial unto 16 all generations. Go and gather the elders of Israel together, and say unto them, Jehovah the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, hath appeared to me, saying, I have indeed visited you, and [seen] that which is done unto you in Egypt;
17 and I have said, I will bring you up out of the affliction of Egypt, unto the land of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, unto a land 18 flowing with milk and honey. And they shall hearken to thy voice. And thou shalt come, thou and the elders of Israel, unto the king of Egypt, and ye shall say unto him, Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews, hath met with us; and now, let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, that we may sacrifice to Jehovah our 19 God. But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go, no, 20 not[h] by a powerful hand. And I will stretch out my hand and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will do in the midst thereof; and 21 after that he will let you go. And I will give this people favour in the eyes of the Egyptians, and it shall come to pass, when ye go out, 22 that ye shall not go out empty; but every woman shall ask of her neighbour, and of her that is the inmate of her house, utensils of silver, and utensils of gold, and clothing; and ye shall put [them] on your sons and on your daughters, and shall spoil the Egyptians.

4 And Moses answered and said, But behold, they will not believe me, nor hearken unto my voice; for they will say, Jehovah has not 2 appeared to thee. And Jehovah said to him, What is that in thy 3 hand? And he said, A staff. And he said, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent; and Moses 4 fled from before it. And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out thy hand and take it by the tail—and he stretched out his hand and caught it, and it became a staff in 5 his hand—that they may believe that Jehovah, the God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, hath appeared unto thee.
6 And Jehovah said moreover to him, Put now thy hand into thy bosom. And he put his hand into his bosom, and took it out, and behold, his hand was leprous, as 7 snow. And he said, Put thy hand into thy bosom again. And he put his hand into his bosom again, and took it out of his bosom, and behold, it was turned again as his 8 flesh. And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe thee, neither hearken to the voice of the first sign, that they will believe the 9 voice of the other sign. And it shall come to pass, if they will not believe also those two signs, neither hearken unto thy voice, that thou shalt take of the water of the river, and pour [it] on the dry [land]; and the water that thou takest out of the river shall become blood upon the dry [land].
10 And Moses said to Jehovah, Ah Lord! I am not eloquent,[i] neither heretofore nor since thou hast spoken to thy servant, for I am slow of speech[j] and of a slow 11 tongue. And Jehovah said to him, Who gave man a mouth? or who maketh dumb, or deaf, or seeing, or blind? [have] not I, 12 Jehovah? And now go, and I will be with thy mouth, and will teach 13 thee what thou shalt say. And he said, Ah Lord! send, I pray thee, by the hand [of him whom] thou 14 wilt send. Then the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Moses, and he said, Is not Aaron the Levite thy brother? I know that he can speak well. And also behold, he goeth out to meet thee; and when he seeth thee he will be 15 glad in his heart. And thou shalt speak unto him, and put the words in his mouth; and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and will teach you what ye shall 16 do. And he shall speak for thee unto the people; and it shall come

[h] Or 'unless it be.' [i] Lit. 'a man of words.' [j] Lit. 'heavy of mouth.'

to pass that he shall be to thee for a mouth, and thou shalt be to 17 him for God. And thou shalt take this staff in thy hand, with which thou shalt do the signs.
18 And Moses went and returned to Jethro[k] his father-in-law, and said to him, Let me go, I pray thee, and return to my brethren who are in Egypt, that I may see whether they are yet alive. And Jethro said to Moses, Go in peace.
19 And Jehovah said to Moses in Midian, Go, return to Egypt; for all the men are dead who sought 20 thy life. And Moses took his wife and his sons, and set them riding upon an[l] ass, and he returned to the land of Egypt. And Moses took the staff of God in his hand.
21 And Jehovah said to Moses, When thou goest to return to Egypt, see that thou do all the wonders before Pharaoh that I have put in thy hand. And I will harden[m] his heart, that he shall 22 not let the people go. And thou shalt say to Pharaoh, Thus saith Jehovah: Israel is my son, my 23 firstborn. And I say to thee, Let my son go, that he may serve me. And if thou refuse to let him go, behold, I will kill thy son, thy firstborn.
24 And it came to pass on the way, in the inn, that Jehovah came upon him, and sought to slay him.
25 Then Zipporah took a stone and cut off the foreskin of her son, and cast it at his feet, and said, A bloody husband indeed art thou 26 to me! And he let him go. Then she said, A bloody husband—because of the circumcision.
27 And Jehovah said to Aaron, Go into the wilderness to meet Moses. And he went, and met him on the mountain of God, and kissed him.
28 And Moses told Aaron all the words of Jehovah who had sent him, and all the signs that he had com-29 manded him. And Moses and Aaron went and gathered all the 30 elders of the children of Israel; and Aaron spoke all the words that Jehovah had spoken to Moses, and did the signs before the eyes of the 31 people. And the people believed. And when they heard that Jehovah had visited the children of Israel, and that he had seen their affliction, then they bowed their heads and worshipped.

5 And afterwards Moses and Aaron went in, and said to Pharaoh, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, Let my people go that they may celebrate a feast 2 to me in the wilderness. And Pharaoh said, Who is Jehovah, to whose voice I am to hearken to let Israel go? I do not know Jehovah, 3 neither will I let Israel go. And they said, The God of the Hebrews has met with us: let us go, we pray thee, three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Jehovah our God; lest he fall upon us with pestilence or with sword.
4 And the king of Egypt said to them, Why do ye, Moses and Aaron, wish to have the people go off from their works? Away, to 5 your burdens! And Pharaoh said, Behold the people of the land are now many, and ye wish to make them rest from their burdens.
6 And Pharaoh commanded the same day the taskmasters of the people, and their officers,[n] saying, 7 Ye shall no more give the people straw to make brick, as heretofore: let them go and gather straw for 8 themselves. And the number of the bricks they have made heretofore shall ye lay upon them: ye shall not diminish any of it, for they are idle; therefore they cry, saying, Let us go [and] sacrifice to 9 our God. Let them put heavier labour on the men, that they may be taken up with it, and not regard 10 vain words. And the taskmasters of the people and their officers went out and spoke to the people, saying, Thus says Pharaoh: I will 11 not give you straw: go ye, get yourselves straw where ye may find it; but none of your work shall be diminished.
12 And the people were scattered abroad throughout the land of Egypt to gather stubble for straw.
13 And the taskmasters urged [them], saying, Fulfil your labours, the daily work,[o] as when there was 14 straw. And the officers of the children of Israel, whom Pharaoh's taskmasters had set over them, were beaten, [and] it was said, Why have ye not fulfilled your task in making brick, both yesterday and to-day, as heretofore?
15 Then the officers of the children of Israel came and cried to Pha-16 raoh, saying, Why dost thou deal thus with thy bondmen? There

[k] Here in Hebrew, 'Jether.' [l] Or 'his.' [m] Or 'make stubborn:' so xiv. 4, 8, 17. [n] See note to Deut. i. 15. [o] Literally 'the day's business in its day:' so in ver. 19.

is no straw given to thy bondmen, and they say to us, Make brick; and behold, thy bondmen are beaten, but it is the fault of thy 17 people. And he said, Ye are idle, idle! therefore ye say, Let us go 18 and sacrifice to Jehovah. And now go—work! and straw shall not be given you, and ye shall deliver the measure of bricks.
19 And the officers of the children of Israel saw [that] it stood ill with them, because it was said, Ye shall not diminish anything from your bricks, the daily work.
20 And they met Moses and Aaron, who stood there to meet them, as 21 they came out from Pharaoh. And they said to them, Jehovah look upon you and judge, that ye have made our odour to stink in the eyes of Pharaoh, and in the eyes of his bondmen, putting a sword 22 into their hand to kill us! And Moses returned to Jehovah, and said, Lord, why hast thou done evil to this people? why now 23 hast thou sent me? For ever since I came to Pharaoh to speak in thy name, he hath done evil to this people; neither hast thou delivered thy people at all!

6 And Jehovah said to Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will do to Pharaoh; for by a strong hand shall he let them go, and by a strong hand shall he drive them out of his land.

2 And God spoke to Moses, and 3 said to him, I am Jehovah. And I appeared unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, as the Almighty God; but by my name Jehovah I was not made known[p] 4 to them. And I established also my covenant with them, to give them the land of Canaan, the land of their pilgrimage, in which they 5 were sojourners. And I have heard also the groaning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians have forced to serve, and I have 6 remembered my covenant. Therefore say unto the children of Israel, I am Jehovah, and I will bring you out from under the burdens of the Egyptians, and I will deliver you from their service, and I will redeem you with a stretched-out arm, and with great judgments.
7 And I will take you to me for a people, and will be your God; and ye shall know that I, Jehovah your God, am he who bringeth you out from under the burdens of the 8 Egyptians. And I will bring you into the land concerning which I swore[q] to give it unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob; and I will give it you for a possession: I am Jehovah.
9 And Moses spoke thus to the children of Israel; but they did not listen to Moses from anguish of spirit,[r] and from hard service.
10 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 11 saying, Go in, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel go out of his 12 land. And Moses spoke before Jehovah, saying, Lo, the children of Israel do not hearken to me: how then should Pharaoh hearken to me, to me of uncircumcised lips?
13 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, and gave them a commandment to the children of Israel, and to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.
14 These are the heads of their fathers' houses: the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Enoch and Phallu, Hezron and Carmi: these are the families of Reuben.—
15 And the sons of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, and Ohad, and Jachin, and Zohar, and Saul the son of a Canaanitish woman: these are the families of Simeon.
16 And these are the names of the sons of Levi, according to their generations: Gershon, and Kohath, and Merari. And the years of the life of Levi were a hundred 17 and thirty-seven years. The sons of Gershon: Libni and Shimei, 18 according to their families. And the sons of Kohath: Amram, and Jizhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel. And the years of the life of Kohath were a hundred and thirty-three 19 years. And the sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi: these are the families of Levi according to their 20 generations. And Amram took Jochebed his aunt as wife; and she bore him Aaron and Moses. And the years of the life of Amram were a hundred and thirty-seven 21 years. And the sons of Jizhar: Korah, and Nepheg, and Zicri.
22 And the sons of Uzziel: Mishael, 23 and Elzaphan, and Sithri. And Aaron took Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab, sister of Nahshon, as wife; and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
24 And the sons of Korah: Assir, and Elkanah, and Abiasaph: these are the families of the Korahites.

of the daughters of Putiel as wife; and she bore him Phinehas: these are the heads of the fathers of the Levites according to their families.
26 This is that Aaron and Moses, to whom Jehovah said, Bring out the children of Israel from the land of Egypt according to their hosts.
27 These are they who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt, to bring out the children of Israel from Egypt: this is that Moses and Aaron.
28 And it came to pass on the day when Jehovah spoke to Moses in 29 the land of Egypt, that Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, I am Jehovah: speak thou unto Pharaoh king of Egypt all that I say unto 30 thee. And Moses said before Jehovah, Behold, I am of uncircumcised lips, and how will Pharaoh hearken unto me?

7 And Jehovah said to Moses, See, I have made thee God to Pharaoh; and Aaron thy brother shall 2 be thy prophet.[s] Thou shalt speak all that I command thee; and Aaron thy brother shall speak unto Pharaoh, that he let the children of Israel go out of his land.
3 And I will render Pharaoh's heart obdurate, and multiply my signs and my wonders in the land of 4 Egypt. And Pharaoh will not hearken unto you; and I will lay my hand upon Egypt, and bring forth my hosts, my people, the children of Israel, out of the land of Egypt 5 by great judgments. And the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah, when I stretch forth my hand on Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among 6 them. And Moses and Aaron did as Jehovah had commanded them:
7 so did they. And Moses was eighty years old, and Aaron was eighty-three years old, when they spoke to Pharaoh.
8 And Jehovah spoke to Moses
9 and to Aaron, saying, When Pharaoh shall speak to you, saying, Do a miracle for yourselves,—then thou shalt say unto Aaron, Take thy staff and cast [it] before Pharaoh—it will become a serpent.
10 And Moses and Aaron went in to Pharaoh, and did so, as Jehovah had commanded; and Aaron cast down his staff before Pharaoh, and before his bondmen, and it be-11 came a serpent. And Pharaoh also called the sages and the sorcerers; and they too, the scribes[t] of Egypt, did so with their enchant-12 ments: they cast down every man his staff, and they became serpents; but Aaron's staff swallowed 13 up their staves. And Pharaoh's heart was stubborn, and he hearkened not to them, as Jehovah had said.
14 And Jehovah said to Moses, Pharaoh's heart is hardened:[v] he 15 refuseth to let the people go. Go unto Pharaoh in the morning—behold, he will go out unto the water—and take thy stand by the bank of the river in front of him; and take in thy hand the staff that 16 was turned into a serpent. And say unto him, Jehovah the God of the Hebrews has sent me to thee, saying, Let my people go, that they may serve me in the wilderness; but behold, hitherto thou 17 hast not hearkened. Thus saith Jehovah: In this shalt thou know that I am Jehovah—behold, I will smite with the staff that is in my hand upon the water which is in the river, and it shall be turned 18 into blood. And the fish that is in the river shall die; and the river shall stink; and the Egyptians shall loathe to drink the 19 water out of the river. And Jehovah said to Moses, Say unto Aaron, Take thy staff, and stretch out thy hand upon the waters of the Egyptians[w]—upon their streams, upon their rivers, and upon their ponds, and upon all their reservoirs of water, that they may become blood; and there shall be blood throughout the land of Egypt, both in [vessels of] wood 20 and in [vessels of] stone. And Moses and Aaron did so, as Jehovah had commanded; and he lifted up the staff, and smote the waters that were in the river before the eyes of Pharaoh, and before the eyes of his bondmen; and all the waters that were in the 21 river were turned into blood. And the fish that was in the river died; and the river stank, and the Egyptians could not drink the water of the river; and the blood was throughout the land of Egypt.
22 And the scribes of Egypt did so with their sorceries; and Pharaoh's heart was stubborn, neither did he hearken to them, as Jeho-23 vah had said. And Pharaoh turned and went into his house, and took not this to heart either.
24 And all the Egyptians dug round about the river for water to drink;

[s] Or 'spokesman.' [t] See on Gen. xli. 8. [v] Lit. 'heavy:' so ix. 7, and similarly viii. 15, 32. [w] Or 'of Egypt.'

for they could not drink of the 25 water of the river. And seven days were fulfilled, after Jehovah had smitten the river.

8 And Jehovah said to Moses, Go unto Pharaoh, and say unto him, Thus saith Jehovah: Let my people go, that they may serve me.
2 And if thou refuse to let [them] go, behold, I will smite all thy borders 3 with frogs. And the river shall swarm with frogs, and they shall go up and come into thy house, and into thy bedroom, and upon thy bed, and into the house of thy bondmen, and upon thy people, and into thine ovens, and into thy 4 kneading-troughs. And the frogs shall come up both upon thee and upon thy people, and upon all thy 5 bondmen. And Jehovah said to Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy hand with thy staff over the streams, over the rivers, and over the ponds, and cause frogs to come up on the land of Egypt.
6 And Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt; and the frogs came up, and covered the 7 land of Egypt. And the scribes did so with their sorceries, and brought up frogs on the land of Egypt.
8 And Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, Intreat Jehovah, that he may take away the frogs from me and from my people; and I will let the people go, that they 9 may sacrifice to Jehovah. And Moses said to Pharaoh, Glory over[x] me, for what time shall I intreat for thee, and for thy bondmen, and for thy people, to cut off the frogs from thee and from thy houses; [so that] they shall re-10 main in the river only? And he said, For to-morrow. And he said, Be it according to thy word; that thou mayest know that there 11 is none like Jehovah our God. And the frogs shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, and from thy bondmen, and from thy people:
they shall remain in the river only.
12 And Moses and Aaron went out from Pharaoh; and Moses cried to Jehovah because of the frogs that he had brought against Pha-13 raoh. And Jehovah did according to the word of Moses; and the frogs died out of the houses, out of the courts, and out of the fields.
14 And they gathered them in heaps; 15 and the land stank. And Pharaoh saw that there was respite; and he hardened his heart, and hearkened not to them, as Jehovah had said.
16 And Jehovah said to Moses, Say unto Aaron, Stretch out thy staff, and smite the dust of the earth, and it shall become gnats through-17 out the land of Egypt. And they did so; and Aaron stretched out his hand with his staff, and smote the dust of the earth, and there arose gnats on man and on beast: all the dust of the land became gnats throughout the land of 18 Egypt. And the scribes did so with their sorceries, to bring forth gnats; but they could not. And the gnats were on man and on 19 beast. Then the scribes said to Pharaoh, This is the finger of God!
But Pharaoh's heart was stubborn, and he hearkened not to them, as Jehovah had said.
20 And Jehovah said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and stand before Pharaoh—behold, he will go out to the water—and say to him, Thus saith Jehovah, Let my people go, that they may serve 21 me. For, if thou do not let my people go, behold, I will send dog-flies upon thee, and upon thy bondmen, and upon thy people, and into thy houses; and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of dog-flies, and also the 22 ground on which they are. And I will distinguish in that day the land of Goshen, in which my people dwell, that no dog-flies shall be there; that thou mayest know that I Jehovah am in the midst of 23 the land. And I will put a separation[y] between my people and thy people; to-morrow shall this sign 24 be. And Jehovah did so; and there came dog-flies in a multitude into the house of Pharaoh, and [into] the houses of his bondmen; and throughout the land of Egypt, the land was corrupted by the dog-flies.
25 And Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron, and said, Go, sacrifice to 26 your God in the land. And Moses said, It is not proper to do so; for we should sacrifice the abomination of the Egyptians to Jehovah our God: lo, if we sacrificed the abomination of the Egyptians before their eyes, would they not 27 stone us? We will go three days' journey into the wilderness, and sacrifice to Jehovah our God, as 28 he shall command us. And Pha-

[x] The LXX and Jerome give the sense: Fix for me.

[y] Lit. 'deliverance,' or 'redemption.'

raoh said, I will let you go, that you may sacrifice to Jehovah your God in the wilderness; only, go not very far away: intreat for 29 me! And Moses said, Behold, I go out from thee, and will intreat Jehovah; and the dog-flies will depart from Pharaoh, from his bondmen, and from his people, to-morrow; only let not Pharaoh deal deceitfully any more in not letting the people go to sacrifice 30 to Jehovah. And Moses went out from Pharaoh, and intreated Je-31 hovah. And Jehovah did according to the word of Moses; and he removed the dog-flies from Pharaoh, from his bondmen, and from his people; there remained not 32 one. And Pharaoh hardened his heart this time also, and would not let the people go.

9 And Jehovah said to Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh, and tell him, Thus saith Jehovah the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, 2 that they may serve me. For if thou refuse to let them go, and 3 shalt retain them still, behold, the hand of Jehovah shall be on thy cattle which is in the field, on the horses, on the asses, on the camels, on the oxen and on the sheep, 4 with a very grievous plague. And Jehovah will distinguish between the cattle of Israel and the cattle of Egypt; and there shall nothing die of all that the children of Israel 5 have. And Jehovah appointed a set time, saying, To-morrow will Jehovah do this thing in the land.
6 And Jehovah did this thing on the following day, and all the cattle of Egypt died; but of the cattle of the children of Israel died not 7 one. And Pharaoh sent, and behold, there was not one of the cattle of the Israelites dead. But the heart of Pharaoh was hardened, and he did not let the people go.
8 And Jehovah said to Moses and to Aaron, Take to yourselves handfuls of ashes of the furnace, and let Moses scatter it toward the heavens before the eyes of Pha-9 raoh. And it shall become fine dust over all the land of Egypt, and shall become boils on man and on cattle, breaking out [with] blisters, throughout the land of 10 Egypt. And they took ashes of the furnace, and stood before Pharaoh; and Moses sprinkled it toward the heavens; and it became boils [with] blisters breaking out 11 on man and on cattle. And the scribes could not stand before Moses because of the boils; for the boils were on the scribes, and 12 on all the Egyptians. And Jehovah made Pharaoh's heart stubborn, and he did not hearken to them, as Jehovah had told Moses.
13 And Jehovah said to Moses, Rise up early in the morning, and set thyself before Pharaoh, and say to him, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of the Hebrews: Let my people go, that they may serve 14 me. For I will at this time send all my plagues to thy heart, and on thy bondmen, and on thy people; that thou mayest know that there is none like me in all the 15 earth. For now have I put forth my hand, and I will smite thee and thy people with pestilence; and thou shalt be cut off from the 16 earth. And for this very cause have I raised thee up,[z] to shew thee my power; and that my name may be declared in all the 17 earth. Dost thou still exalt thyself against my people, that thou 18 wilt not let them go? Behold, to-morrow about this time I will cause it to rain a very grievous hail, such as hath not been in Egypt since its foundation until 19 now. And now send, [and] secure thy cattle, and all that thou hast in the field: all the men[a] and the cattle that are found in the field, and are not brought home—on them the hail shall come down, 20 and they shall die. He that feared the word of Jehovah among the bondmen of Pharaoh made his bondmen and his cattle flee into 21 the houses. But he that did not regard the word of Jehovah left his bondmen and his cattle in the 22 field. And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out thy hand toward the heavens, that there may be hail throughout the land of Egypt, upon men, and upon cattle, and upon every herb of the field in the land 23 of Egypt. And Moses stretched out his staff toward the heavens, and Jehovah gave thunder[b] and hail; and the fire ran along the ground; and Jehovah rained hail 24 on the land of Egypt. And there was hail, and fire mingled with the hail, very grievous, such as there had been none like it in all the land of Egypt since it became a 25 nation. And the hail smote throughout the land of Egypt all [z] Others, 'let thee live,' 'kept thee alive.' Lit. 'made thee stand.' [a] האדם, as in ver. 22, in contrast with cattle. [b] Lit. 'voices:' so always.

that was in the field, both men and cattle; and the hail smote every herb of the field, and broke 26 every tree of the field. Only in the land of Goshen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hail.
27 And Pharaoh sent, and called Moses and Aaron, and said to them, I have sinned this time: Jehovah is the righteous [one], but I and my people are the wicked 28 [ones]. Intreat Jehovah that it may be enough, that there be no more thunder of God and hail; and I will let you go, and ye shall stay 29 no longer! And Moses said to him, When I go out of the city, I will spread out my hands to Jehovah: the thunder will cease, and there will be no more hail; that thou mayest know that the earth is Je-30 hovah's. But as to thee and thy bondmen, I know that ye do not 31 yet fear Jehovah Elohim. And the flax and the barley were smitten; for the barley was in the ear, 32 and the flax was bolled. But the wheat and the spelt were not smitten; for they were not come 33 out into ear.[c] And Moses went out of the city from Pharaoh, and spread out his hands to Jehovah; and the thunders and hail ceased, and the rain was not [any more] 34 poured on the earth. And Pharaoh saw that the rain and the hail and the thunders had ceased, and he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he, and his bondmen.
35 And the heart of Pharaoh was stubborn, neither would he let the children of Israel go, as Jehovah had spoken by[d] Moses.

10 And Jehovah said to Moses, Go in unto Pharaoh; for I have hardened his heart, and the heart of his bondmen, that I might do
2 these my signs in their[e] midst, and that thou mightest tell in the ears of thy son and thy son's son what I have wrought in Egypt, and my signs which I have done among them; and ye shall know that I 3 am Jehovah. And Moses and Aaron came to Pharaoh, and said to him, Thus saith Jehovah the God of the Hebrews: How long dost thou refuse to humble thyself before me? let my people go, that 4 they may serve me. For, if thou refuse to let my people go, behold, I will to-morrow bring locusts into 5 thy borders; and they shall cover the face[f] of the land, so that ye will not be able to see the land; and they shall eat the residue of that which is escaped, which ye have remaining from the hail, and shall eat every tree which ye have 6 growing in the field; and they shall fill thy houses, and the houses of all thy bondmen, and the houses of all the Egyptians; which neither thy fathers nor thy fathers' fathers have seen, since the day that they were upon the earth unto this day. And he turned and went out from Pharaoh.
7 And Pharaoh's bondmen said to him, How long shall this man be a snare to us? let the men go, that they may serve Jehovah their God: dost thou not yet know that Egypt 8 is ruined? And Moses and Aaron were brought again to Pharaoh. And he said to them, Go, serve Jehovah your God. Who[g] are they 9 that shall go? And Moses said, We will go with our young and with our old, with our sons and with our daughters; with our flocks and with our herds will we go; for we have 10 a feast of Jehovah. And he said to them, Let Jehovah be so with you, as I let you go, and your little ones:
11 see that evil is before you![h] Not so: go now, ye [that are] men, and serve Jehovah! for it is that ye have desired. And they were driven out from Pharaoh's presence.
12 And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out thy hand over the land of Egypt for the locusts, that they may come up over the land of Egypt, and eat every herb of the land—all that the hail hath left.
13 And Moses stretched out his staff over the land of Egypt, and Jehovah brought an east wind on the land all that day and all that night. When it was morning, the east wind brought the locusts.
14 And the locusts went up over all the land of Egypt, and rested in all the borders of Egypt, very grievous; before them there were no such locusts as they, neither 15 after them will be such. And they covered the face of the whole land, so that the land was darkened; and they ate every herb of the land, and all the fruit of the trees that the hail had left; and there remained not any green thing on the trees, and in the herbs of the field, throughout the land of Egypt.

[c] Lit. 'were concealed.' [d] Lit. 'by the hand of.' [e] Lit. 'his.' [f] Lit. 'the eye:' so in ver. 15. Lit. 'the land will not be able to be seen.' [g] Lit. 'who and who.' [h] Some take it as 'ye have an evil purpose,' following the LXX, but this does not seem borne out by the usage of רעה.

16 And Pharaoh called Moses and Aaron in haste; and he said, I have sinned against Jehovah your God, 17 and against you. And now, forgive, I pray you, my sin only this time, and intreat Jehovah your God that he may take away from 18 me this death only! And he went out from Pharaoh, and intreated 19 Jehovah. And Jehovah turned a very powerful west wind, which took away the locusts, and drove them into the Red Sea: there remained not one locust in all the 20 borders of Egypt. And Jehovah made Pharaoh's heart stubborn, and he did not let the children of Israel go.
21 And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out thy hand toward the heavens, that there may be darkness in the land of Egypt—so that 22 one may feel darkness. And Moses stretched out his hand toward the heavens; and there was a thick darkness throughout the land of 23 Egypt three days: they saw not one another, neither rose any from his place, for three days. But all the children of Israel had light in 24 their dwellings. And Pharaoh called Moses and said, Go, serve Jehovah; only, let your flocks and your herds remain; let your little 25 ones also go with you. And Moses said, Thou must give also sacrifices and burnt-offerings into our hands, that we may sacrifice to Jehovah 26 our God. Our cattle also must go with us: there shall not a hoof be left behind; for we must take thereof to serve Jehovah our God; and we do not know with what we must serve Jehovah, until we 27 come there. But Jehovah made Pharaoh's heart stubborn, and he 28 would not let them go. And Pharaoh said to him, Get thee from me, take heed to thyself, see my face no more; for in the day thou seest 29 my face thou shalt die. And Moses said, Thou hast spoken rightly: I will see thy face again no more!

11 And Jehovah said to Moses, Yet one plague will I bring upon Pharaoh, and upon Egypt; afterwards he will let you go hence: when he shall let [you] go altogether, he shall utterly drive you out hence.
2 Speak now in the ears of the people, that they ask every man of his neighbour, and every woman of her neighbour, utensils of silver 3 and utensils of gold. And Jehovah gave the people favour in the eyes of the Egyptians. Moreover the man Moses was very great in the land of Egypt—in the eyes of Pharaoh's bondmen, and in the eyes
4 of the people. And Moses said, Thus saith Jehovah: About midnight I will go out into the midst 5 of Egypt. And all the firstborn in the land of Egypt shall die, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sitteth on his throne, even unto the firstborn of the bondwoman that is behind the mill; and all the 6 firstborn of cattle. And there shall be a great cry throughout the land of Egypt, such as there hath been none like it, nor shall be like it any 7 more. But against any of the children of Israel shall not a dog move his tongue, against man or beast; that ye may know that Jehovah distinguisheth between 8 the Egyptians and Israel. And all these thy bondmen shall come down unto me, and bow down to me, saying, Go out, thou, and all the people that follow thee;[i] and after that I will go out. And he went out from Pharaoh in a glow-9 ing anger. And Jehovah had said to Moses, Pharaoh shall not hearken to you; that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.
10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharaoh; but Jehovah made Pharaoh's heart stubborn, and he did not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

12 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, 2 saying, This month shall be unto you the beginning[k] of months: it shall be the first month of the year
3 to you. Speak unto all the assembly[l] of Israel, saying, On the tenth of this month let them take themselves each a lamb, for a father's house, a lamb for a house.
4 And if the household be too small for a lamb, let him and his neighbour next unto his house take [it] according to the number of the souls; each according to [the measure] of his eating shall ye 5 count for the lamb. Your lamb shall be without blemish, a yearling male; ye shall take [it] from 6 the sheep, or from the goats. And ye shall keep it until the fourteenth day of this month; and the whole congregation[m] of the assembly of

[i] Lit. 'are at thy feet.' [k] Lit. 'head.' [l] עדה. [m] קהל, 'congregation,' is, I apprehend, the actual subsisting congregation composed of all its members; עדה, 'assembly,' more the congregation looked at as a moral whole, a corporate person before God: see Lev. iv. 13; viii. 3.

Israel shall kill it between the two 7 evenings. And they shall take of the blood, and put [it] on the two door-posts and on the lintel of the 8 houses in which they eat it. And they shall eat the flesh in that night, roast with fire, and unleavened bread; with bitter [herbs] [n] 9 shall they eat it. Ye shall eat none of it raw, nor boiled at all with water, but roast with fire; its head with its legs and with its in-10 wards. And ye shall let none of it remain until the morning; and what remaineth of it until the morning ye shall burn with fire.
11 And thus shall ye eat it: your loins shall be girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and ye shall eat it in haste; 12 it is Jehovah's passover. And I will go through the land of Egypt in that night, and smite all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and against all the gods of Egypt I will execute 13 judgment: I am Jehovah. And the blood shall be for you as a sign on the houses in which ye are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you; and the plague shall not be among you for destruction, when I smite the land of Egypt.
14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall celebrate it [as] a feast to Jehovah; throughout your generations [as] an ordinance for ever shall ye 15 celebrate it. Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread: on the very first day ye shall put away [o] leaven out of your houses; for whoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day—that soul shall be cut off from 16 Israel. And on the first day ye shall have a holy convocation, [p] and on the seventh day a holy convocation: no manner of work shall be done on them, save what is eaten by every person—that 17 only shall be done by you. And ye shall keep the [feast of] unleavened [bread]; for in this same day have I brought your hosts out of the land of Egypt; and ye shall keep this day in your generations 18 [as] an ordinance for ever. In the first [month], on the fourteenth day of the month, in the evening, ye shall eat unleavened bread until the one and twentieth day of the 19 month in the evening. Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses; for whoever eateth what is leavened—that soul shall be cut off from the assembly of Israel, whether he be a sojourner, 20 or born in the land. Ye shall eat nothing leavened: in all your dwellings shall ye eat unleavened bread.
21 And Moses called all the elders of Israel, and said to them, Seize [q] and take yourselves lambs [r] for your families, and kill the passover.
22 And take a bunch of hyssop, and dip [it] in the blood that is in the bason, and smear the lintel and the two door-posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out of the door of 23 his house until the morning. And Jehovah will pass through to smite [s] the Egyptians; and when he sees the blood on the lintel, and on the two door-posts, Jehovah will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come into your houses to smite [you].
24 And ye shall observe this as an ordinance for thee and for thy sons 25 for ever. And it shall come to pass, when ye are come into the land that Jehovah will give you, as he has promised, that ye shall 26 keep this service. And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say to you, What mean ye by 27 this service? that ye shall say, It is a sacrifice of passover to Jehovah, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt when he smote the Egyptians and delivered our houses.
And the people bowed their heads 28 and worshipped. And the children of Israel went away, and did as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron; so did they.
29 And it came to pass that at midnight Jehovah smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh who sat on his throne to the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon, [t] and all the firstborn of 30 cattle. And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his bondmen, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house in which 31 there was not one dead. And he called Moses and Aaron in the night, and said, Rise up, go away from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve Jehovah, as ye have said.

[n] Lit. 'bitterness.' [o] Lit. 'put a stop to.' [p] מִקְרָא. [q] Or 'Draw out.'
[r] Lit. 'small cattle:' see ver. 5. [s] Here and ver. 27, נֶגֶף, 'plague,' see ver. 13.
[t] Lit. 'house of the pit.'

32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and go; and 33 bless me also. And the Egyptians urged the people, to send them out of the land in haste; for they said, 34 We are all dead [men]! And the people took their dough before it was leavened; their kneading-troughs bound up in their clothes 35 upon their shoulders. And the children of Israel had done according to the word of Moses, and they had asked of the Egyptians utensils of silver, and utensils of gold, 36 and clothing. And Jehovah had given the people favour in the eyes of the Egyptians, and they gave to them; and they spoiled the Egyptians.
37 And the children of Israel journeyed from Rameses to Succoth, about six hundred thousand on foot [that were] men, besides chil-38 dren. And a mixed multitude went up also with them; and flocks 39 and herds—very much cattle. And they baked the dough that they brought forth out of Egypt into unleavened cakes, for it was not leavened; for they were driven out of Egypt, and could not wait; neither had they prepared for 40 themselves any food. And the residence of the children of Israel that they resided in Egypt[u] was four hundred and thirty years.
41 And it came to pass at the end of the four hundred and thirty years, on that same day it came to pass that all the hosts of Jehovah went 42 out from the land of Egypt. It is a night of observance to Jehovah, because of their being brought out from the land of Egypt: that same night is an observance to Jehovah for all the children of Israel in their generations.
43 And Jehovah said to Moses and Aaron, This is the ordinance of the passover: No stranger shall eat 44 of it; but every man's bondman that is bought for money—let him be circumcised: then shall he eat 45 it. A settler and a hired servant 46 shall not eat it. In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth any of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye 47 break a bone thereof. All the assembly of Israel shall hold it.
48 And when a sojourner sojourneth with thee, and would hold the passover to Jehovah, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and hold it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land; but no uncircumcised 49 person shall eat thereof. One law shall be for him that is home-born and for the sojourner that so-50 journeth among you. And all the children of Israel did as Jehovah had commanded Moses and Aaron; so did they.
51 And it came to pass on that same day, [that] Jehovah brought the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt according to their hosts.

13 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Hallow unto me every firstborn, whatever breaketh open the womb among the children of Israel, of man and of cattle: it is 3 mine. And Moses said to the people, Remember this day, in which ye came out from Egypt, out of the house of bondage; [v] for with a powerful hand [w] hath Jehovah brought you out from this; and nothing leavened shall be eaten.
4 Ye come out to-day, in the month
5 Abib. And it shall be when Jehovah hath brought thee into the land of the Canaanite and the Hittite and the Amorite and the Hivite and the Jebusite, which he swore to thy fathers to give thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, that thou shalt keep [x] this service 6 in this month. Seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread; and in the seventh day is a feast to 7 Jehovah. Unleavened bread shall be eaten the seven days; and leavened bread shall not be seen with thee, neither shall there be leaven seen with thee in all thy 8 borders. And thou shalt inform thy son in that day, saying, It is because of what Jehovah did to me when I came out of Egypt.
9 And it shall be for a sign to thee on thy hand, and for a memorial between thine eyes, that the law of Jehovah may be in thy mouth; for with a powerful hand hath Jehovah brought thee out of 10 Egypt. And thou shalt keep this ordinance at its set time from year 11 to year.[y] And it shall be when Jehovah hath brought thee into the land of the Canaanites, as he hath sworn to thee and to thy fathers, and hath given it thee, 12 that thou shalt offer [z] unto Jehovah all that breaketh open the womb, and every firstling that cometh of cattle which is thine: the males [shall be] Jehovah's.

13 And every firstling of an ass shalt thou ransom with a lamb; and if thou do not ransom it, thou shalt break its neck; and every firstborn of a man among thy sons 14 shalt thou ransom. And it shall be when thy son asketh thee in time to come,[a] saying, What is this? that thou shalt say to him, With a powerful hand Jehovah brought us out from Egypt, out 15 of the house of bondage. And it came to pass, when Pharaoh stubbornly refused[b] to let us go, that Jehovah slew all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both the firstborn of men and the firstborn of cattle: therefore I sacrifice to Jehovah all that breaketh open the womb—being males; and every firstborn of my children I 16 ransom. And it shall be for a sign on thy hand, and for frontlets between thine eyes, for with a powerful hand Jehovah brought us forth out of Egypt.

17 And it came to pass, when Pharaoh let the people go, that God did not lead them the way of the land of the Philistines, although that was near; for God said, That the people may not repent when they see conflict, and return to 18 Egypt. And God led the people about, the way of the wilderness of the Red Sea; and the children of Israel went arrayed[c] out of the 19 land of Egypt. And Moses took the bones of Joseph with him; for he had made the children of Israel swear an oath, saying, God will be sure to visit you; then ye shall carry my bones with you hence.
20 And they took their journey from Succoth, and encamped in Etham, 21 at the end of the wilderness. And Jehovah went before their face by day in a pillar of a cloud, to lead them [in] the way; and by night in a pillar of fire, to give them light; so that they could go 22 day and night. The pillar of the cloud did not remove [from] before the people by day, nor the pillar of fire by night.

14 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they turn and encamp before Pi-hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea: before Baal-Zephon, opposite to it, shall ye 3 encamp by the sea. And Pharaoh will say of the children of Israel, They are entangled in the land, the wilderness has hemmed them in.
4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, that he may pursue after them; and I will glorify myself in Pharaoh, and in all his host; and the Egyptians shall know that I am 5 Jehovah. And they did so. And it was told the king of Egypt that the people had fled; and the heart of Pharaoh and of his bondmen was turned against the people, and they said, Why have we done this, that we have let Israel go from 6 our service? And he yoked his chariot, and took his people with 7 him. And he took six hundred chosen chariots, and all the chariots of Egypt, and captains over 8 every one of them. And Jehovah hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he pursued after the children of Israel; and the children of Israel had gone out 9 with[d] a high hand. And the Egyptians pursued after them,—all the horses and chariots of Pharaoh, and his horsemen, and his army, and overtook them where they had encamped by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth, opposite to Baal-Zephon.

10 And Pharaoh approached; and the children of Israel lifted up their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians marched after them; and the children of Israel were much afraid, and cried out to Jehovah.
11 And they said to Moses, Is it because there were no graves in Egypt, thou hast taken us away to die in the wilderness? why hast thou done this to us, that thou 12 hast led us out of Egypt? Is not this what we told thee in Egypt, when we said, Let us alone, and we will serve the Egyptians? For [it had been] better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the 13 wilderness. And Moses said to the people, Fear not: stand still, and see the salvation of Jehovah, which he will work for you to-day; for the Egyptians whom ye have seen to-day, ye shall see them 14 again no more for ever. Jehovah will fight for you, and ye shall be still.[e]

15 And Jehovah said to Moses, Why dost thou cry unto me? Speak unto the children of Israel, 16 that they go forward. And thou, lift thy staff, and stretch out thy hand over the sea, and divide it; and the children of Israel shall go on dry [ground] through the midst 17 of the sea. And I, behold, I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians, and they shall pursue after them; and I will glorify myself in Pharaoh and in all his host, in his 18 chariots and in his horsemen. And the Egyptians shall know that I am Jehovah, when I have glorified myself in Pharaoh, in his chariots 19 and in his horsemen. And the Angel of God, who went before the camp of Israel, removed and went behind them; and the pillar of the cloud went from before them, and stood behind them.

20 And it came between the camp of the Egyptians and the camp of Israel; and was a cloud and darkness, and lit up the night; and the one did not come near the other 21 all the night. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea; and Jehovah made the sea go [back] by a strong east wind all the night, and made the sea dry [land], 22 and the waters were divided. And the children of Israel went through the midst of the sea on the dry [ground]; and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand 23 and on their left. And the Egyptians pursued and came after them—all Pharaoh's horses, his chariots and his horsemen, into the 24 midst of the sea. And it came to pass in the morning watch, that Jehovah looked upon the camp of the Egyptians, in the pillar of fire and of the cloud, and embarrassed 25 the camp of the Egyptians. And he took off their chariot wheels, and caused them to drive with difficulty; and the Egyptians said, Let us flee before Israel, for Jehovah is fighting for them against the Egyptians!
26 And Jehovah said to Moses, Stretch out thy hand over the sea, that the waters may return upon the Egyptians, upon their chariots 27 and upon their horsemen. And Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and the sea returned to its strength toward the morning; and the Egyptians fled against it; and Jehovah overturned[f] the Egyptians into the midst of the sea.
28 And the waters returned, and covered the chariots and the horsemen of all the host of Pharaoh that had come into the sea after them; there remained not 29 even one of them. And the children of Israel walked on dry [ground] through the midst of the sea; and the waters were a wall to them on their right hand and 30 on their left. Thus Jehovah saved Israel that day out of the hand of the Egyptians; and Israel saw the Egyptians dead on the sea-shore.
31 And Israel saw the great power[g] [with] which Jehovah had wrought against the Egyptians; and the people feared Jehovah, and believed in Jehovah, and in Moses his bondman.

15 Then sang Moses and the children of Israel this song to Jehovah, and spoke, saying,

I will sing unto Jehovah, for he is highly exalted:
The horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.
2 My strength and song is Jah,[h] and he is become my salvation:
This is my God,[i] and I will glorify[k] him;
My father's God, and I will extol him.
3 Jehovah is a man of war; Jehovah, his name.
4 Pharaoh's chariots and his army hath he cast into the sea;
His chosen captains also are drowned in the Red Sea.
5 The depths covered them; they sank to the bottom as a stone.
6 Thy right hand, Jehovah, is become glorious in power:
Thy right hand, Jehovah, hath dashed in pieces the enemy.
7 And by the greatness of thine excellency thou hast overthrown thine adversaries:[l] Thou sentest forth thy burning wrath, it consumed them as stubble.
8 And by the breath of thy nostrils the waters were heaped up;
The streams stood as a mound;
The depths were congealed in the heart of the sea.
9 The enemy said, I will pursue, I will overtake,
I will divide the spoil; my soul shall be sated upon them;
I will unsheath my sword, my hand shall dispossess them.
10 Thou didst blow with thy breath, the sea covered them;
They sank as lead in the mighty waters.

[f] Lit. 'shot off.' [g] Lit. 'hand.' [h] Jah may be a short, archaic, form of Jehovah; but it seems to express His absolute rather than His continuous existence. [i] El. [k] Or 'make him a dwelling,' for which there is good Jewish authority. [l] Lit. 'them that rose up against thee.'

11 Who is like unto thee, Jehovah, among the gods?
Who is like unto thee, glorifying thyself in holiness, Fearful [in] praises, doing wonders?
12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, the earth swallowed them.
13 Thou by thy mercy hast led forth the people that thou hast redeemed; Thou hast guided them by thy strength unto the abode of thy holiness.
14 The peoples heard it, they were afraid:
A thrill seized the inhabitants of Philistia.
15 Then the princes of Edom were amazed;
The mighty men of Moab, trembling hath seized them;
All the inhabitants of Canaan melted away.
16 Fear and dread fall upon them;
By the greatness of thine arm they are still as a stone;
Till thy people pass over, Jehovah, Till the people pass over that thou hast purchased.
17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the mountain of thine inheritance,
The place that thou, Jehovah, hast made thy dwelling,
The Sanctuary, Lord, that thy hands have prepared.
18 Jehovah shall reign for ever and ever!
19 For the horse of Pharaoh, with his chariots and with his horsemen, came into the sea, and Jehovah brought again the waters of the sea upon them; and the children of Israel went on dry [ground] through the midst of the sea.
20 And Miriam the prophetess, the sister of Aaron, took the tambour in her hand, and all the women went out after her with tambours 21 and with dances. And Miriam answered them, Sing to Jehovah, for he is highly exalted:
The horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.
22 And Moses brought Israel from the Red Sea, and they went out into the wilderness of Shur; and they went three days in the wilder-23 ness, and found no water. And they came to Marah, and could not drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter; therefore the name of it was called Marah.[m] 24 And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we 25 drink? And he cried to Jehovah; and Jehovah shewed him wood, and he cast it into the waters, and the waters became sweet. There he made for them a statute and an ordinance; and there he tested 26 them. And he said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of Jehovah thy God, and do what is right in his eyes, and incline thine ears to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the complaints upon thee that I have put upon the Egyptians; for I am Jehovah who healeth thee.
27 And they came to Elim; and twelve springs of water were there, and seventy palm trees; and they encamped there by the waters.

16 And they journeyed from Elim, and the whole assembly of the children of Israel came into the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after their departure out of the 2 land of Egypt. And the whole assembly of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron in the wilderness.
3 And the children of Israel said to them, Would that we had died by the hand of Jehovah in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh-pots, when we ate bread to the full; for ye have brought us out into this wilderness, to kill this whole congregation with hun-4 ger! Then said Jehovah to Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather the daily need[n] on its day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in 5 my law, or not. And it shall come to pass on the sixth day, that they shall prepare what they have brought in; and it shall be twice as much as they shall gather daily.
6 And Moses and Aaron said to all the children of Israel, In the evening, then shall ye know that Jehovah has brought you out from the 7 land of Egypt; and in the morning, then shall ye see the glory of Jehovah; for he has heard your murmurings against Jehovah;—and what are we, that ye murmur 8 against us? And Moses said, When Jehovah gives you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for Jehovah hears your murmurings which ye murmur against him .... and what [are] we? your murmurings are not against us, but

[m] Bitterness. [n] Lit. 'word,' or 'thing.'

9 against Jehovah. And Moses spoke to Aaron, Say to all the assembly of the children of Israel, Come near into the presence of Jehovah; for he has heard your 10 murmurings. And it came to pass, when Aaron spoke to the whole assembly of the children of Israel, that they turned toward the wilderness, and behold, the glory of Je-11 hovah appeared in the cloud. And 12 Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: speak to them, saying, Between the two evenings ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am Jehovah your God.

13 And it came to pass in the evening, that quails came up, and covered the camp; and in the morning the dew lay round the 14 camp. And when the dew that lay [round it] was gone up, behold, on the face of the wilderness there was [something] fine, granular,[o] fine as hoar-frost, on the ground.
15 And the children of Israel saw [it], and said one to another, What[p] is it? for they did not know what it was. And Moses said to them, This is the bread which Jehovah 16 has given you to eat. This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded: Gather of it every man according to what he can eat, an omer a poll, [according to] the number of your persons: ye shall take every man for those that are 17 in his tent. And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some 18 much, some little. And they measured with the omer: then he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little wanted nothing: they had gathered every man according to 19 the measure of his eating. And Moses said to them, Let no man leave [any] of it until the morning.
20 But they did not hearken to Moses; and some men left of it until the morning; then worms bred in it and it stank. And Moses was 21 wroth with them. And they gathered it every morning, every man as much as he could eat; and when the sun became hot, it 22 melted. And it came to pass on the sixth day, that they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one; and all the princes of the assembly came and told Moses.
23 And he said to them, This is what Jehovah has said: To-morrow is the rest, the holy sabbath, of Jehovah: bake what ye will bake, and cook what ye will cook; and lay up for yourselves all that remains over, to be kept for the morning.
24 And they laid it up for the morning, as Moses had commanded; and it did not stink, neither was 25 there any worm in it. And Moses said, Eat it to-day; for to-day is sabbath to Jehovah: to-day ye 26 shall not find it in the field. Six days shall ye gather it; but on the seventh day is sabbath: on it 27 there shall be none. And it came to pass on the seventh day that there went out [some] from the people to gather [it], and they 28 found none. And Jehovah said to Moses, How long do ye refuse to keep my commandments and 29 my laws? See, for Jehovah hath given you the sabbath; therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread for two days. Abide every man in his place: let no man go from his place on the seventh day.
30 And the people rested on the 31 seventh day. And the house of Israel called its name Manna;[p] and it was like coriander-seed, white; and the taste of it was like cake with honey.

32 And Moses said, This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded: Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that they may see the bread that I gave you to eat in the wilderness, when I brought you out of the land of 33 Egypt. And Moses said to Aaron, Take a pot, and put in it an omer full of manna, and deposit it before Jehovah, to be kept for your 34 generations. As Jehovah had commanded Moses, so Aaron deposited it before the Testimony, 35 to be kept. And the children of Israel ate the manna forty years, until they came into an inhabited land: they ate the manna until they came to the borders of the 36 land of Canaan. Now an omer is the tenth [part] of an ephah.

17 And all the assembly of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, according to their journeys, at the command[q] of Jehovah; and they encamped in Rephidim; and there was no water for the people to 2 drink. And the people contended with Moses, and said, Give us water, that we may drink! And Moses said to them, Why do ye dispute with me? Why do ye

3 tempt[r] Jehovah? And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Why is it that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our 4 cattle with thirst? And Moses cried to Jehovah, saying, What shall I do with this people? Yet a little, and they will stone me!
5 And Jehovah said to Moses, Go on before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel, and thy staff with which thou didst smite the river, take in thy 6 hand, and go. Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the rock on Horeb; and thou shalt strike the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so before the eyes of the elders of Israel.
7 And he called the name of the place Massah,[s] and Meribah,[t] because of the contention of the children of Israel, and because they had tempted Jehovah, saying, Is Jehovah among us, or not?
8 And Amalek came and fought 9 with Israel in Rephidim. And Moses said to Joshua,[u] Choose us men, and go out, fight with Amalek; to-morrow I will stand on the top of the hill with the staff of God 10 in my hand. And Joshua did as Moses had said to him, to fight with Amalek; and Moses, Aaron and Hur[v] went up to the top of the 11 hill. And it came to pass when Moses raised his hand, that Israel prevailed; and when he let down 12 his hand, Amalek prevailed. And Moses' hands were heavy; then they took a stone, and put [it] under him, and he sat on it; and Aaron and Hur supported his hands, one on this side, and one on that side; and his hands were steady until the going down of the 13 sun. And Joshua broke the power of Amalek and his people with the 14 edge of the sword. And Jehovah said to Moses, Write this [for] a memorial in the book, and rehearse [it] in the ears of Joshua, that[w] I will utterly blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the 15 heavens. And Moses built an altar, and called the name of it 16 Jehovah-nissi.[x] And he said, For the hand is on the throne of Jah; Jehovah will have war with Amalek from generation to generation!

18 And Jethro the priest of Midian, Moses' father-in-law, heard of all that God had done to Moses, and to Israel his people; that Jehovah had brought Israel out of 2 Egypt. And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took Zipporah, Moses' wife, 3 after he had sent her back, and her two sons, of whom the name of the one was Gershom[y]—for he said, I have been a sojourner in a foreign 4 land,—and the name of the other, Eliezer[z]—For the God of my father has been my help, and has delivered me from the sword of 5 Pharaoh. And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, came to Moses with his sons and his wife into the wilderness, where he encamped at 6 the mountain of God. And he sent word to Moses: I, thy father-in-law Jethro, am come to thee, and thy wife, and her two sons 7 with her. And Moses went out to meet his father-in-law, and did obeisance, and kissed him; and they asked each other [after] their welfare,[a] and went into the tent.
8 And Moses told his father-in-law all that Jehovah had done to Pharaoh and to the Egyptians for Israel's sake; all the trouble that had befallen[b] them on the way, and [how] Jehovah had delivered 9 them. And Jethro rejoiced for all the goodness that Jehovah had done to Israel; that he had delivered them out of the hand of the 10 Egyptians. And Jethro said, Blessed be Jehovah, who has delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharaoh; who has delivered the people from under the hand of 11 the Egyptians. Now I know that Jehovah is greater than all gods; for in the thing in which they acted haughtily [he was] above them.
12 And Jethro, Moses' father-in-law, took a burnt-offering and sacrifices for God; and Aaron came, and all the elders of Israel, to eat bread with Moses' father-in-law in the presence of God.
13 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Moses sat to judge the people; and the people stood by Moses from the morning to the 14 evening. And Moses' father-in-law saw all that he did with the people, and said, What is this thing which thou art doing with the people? why dost thou sit alone, and all the people are standing by thee from morning to even-15 ing? And Moses said to his father-in-law, Because the people come 16 to me to enquire of God. When they have a matter, they come to me, and I judge between one and another;[c] and I make known [to them] the statutes of God, and 17 his laws. And Moses' father-in-law said to him, The thing that 18 thou art doing is not good. Thou wilt be quite exhausted, both thou and this people that is with thee; for the thing is too heavy for thee:

thou canst not perform it alone.
19 Hearken now to my voice: I will give thee counsel, and God shall be with thee. Be thou for the people with God, and bring the 20 matters before God; and teach them the statutes and the laws, and make known to them the way in which they must walk, and the 21 work that they must do. But do thou provide among all the people able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating covetousness; and place [them] over them, chiefs of thousands, chiefs of hundreds, chiefs of fifties, and chiefs of tens, 22 that they may judge the people at all times; and it shall be [that] they shall bring to thee every great matter, and that they shall judge every small matter, and they shall lighten [the task] on thee, and 23 they shall bear [it] with thee. If thou do this thing, and God command thee [so], thou wilt be able to endure, and all this people shall also go to their place in peace.
24 And Moses hearkened to the voice of his father-in-law, and did all 25 that he had said. And Moses chose able men out of all Israel, and made them heads over the people, chiefs of thousands, chiefs of hundreds, chiefs of fifties, and 26 chiefs of tens. And they judged the people at all times: the hard matters they brought to Moses, but every small matter they 27 judged. And Moses sent away his father-in-law, and he departed into his land.

19 In the third month after the departure of the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, the same day came they [into] the 2 wilderness of Sinai: they departed from Rephidim, and came [into] the wilderness of Sinai, and encamped in the wilderness; and Israel encamped there before the 3 mountain. And Moses went up to God, and Jehovah called to him out of the mountain, saying, Thus shalt thou say to the house of Jacob, and tell the children of 4 Israel: Ye have seen what I have done to the Egyptians, and [how] I have borne you on eagles' wings 5 and brought you to myself. And now, if ye will hearken to my voice indeed and keep my covenant, then shall ye be my own possession out of all the peoples—6 for all the earth is mine—and ye shall be to me a kingdom of priests, and a holy nation. These are the words which thou shalt speak to the children of Israel.
7 And Moses came and called the elders of the people, and laid before them all these words which Jehovah had commanded him.
8 And all the people answered together, and said, All that Jehovah has spoken will we do! And Moses brought the words of the people 9 back to Jehovah. And Jehovah said to Moses, Lo, I will come to thee in the cloud's thick darkness, that the people may hear when I speak with thee, and believe thee also for ever. And Moses told the words of the people to Jehovah.
10 And Jehovah said to Moses, Go to the people, and hallow them today and to-morrow, and let them 11 wash their clothes; and let them be ready for the third day; for on the third day Jehovah will come down before the eyes of all 12 the people on mount Sinai. And set bounds round about the people, saying, Take heed to yourselves, [not] to go up unto the mountain nor touch the border of it: whatever toucheth the mountain shall 13 certainly be put to death: not a hand shall touch it, but it shall certainly be stoned, or shot through; whether it be a beast or a man, it shall not live. When the long drawn note of the trumpet soundeth, they shall come up to 14 the mountain. And Moses came down from the mountain to the people, and hallowed the people; and they washed their clothes.
15 And he said to the people, Be ready for the third day; do not come near [your] wives.
16 And it came to pass on the third day, when it was morning, that there were thunders and lightnings and a heavy cloud on the mou-tain, and the sound of the trumpet exceeding loud; and the whole people that was in the camp trem-

[c] Lit. 'a man and his neighbour.'

17 bled. And Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet with God; and they stood at the foot 18 of the mountain. And the whole of mount Sinai smoked, because Jehovah descended on it in fire; and its smoke ascended as the smoke of a furnace; and the whole 19 mountain shook greatly. And the sound of the trumpet increased and became exceeding loud; Moses spoke, and God answered him by 20 a voice. And Jehovah came down on mount Sinai, on the top of the mountain; and Jehovah called Moses to the top of the mountain, 21 and Moses went up. And Jehovah said to Moses, Go down, testify to the people that they break not through to Jehovah to gaze, and 22 many of them perish. And the priests also, who come near to Jehovah, shall hallow themselves, lest Jehovah break forth on them.
23 And Moses said to Jehovah, The people cannot come up to mount Sinai; for thou hast testified to us, saying, Set bounds about the 24 mountain, and hallow it. And Jehovah said to him, Go, descend, and thou shalt come up, thou, and Aaron with thee; but the priests and the people shall not break through to go up to Jehovah, lest 25 he break forth on them. So Moses went down to the people, and told them.

20 And God spoke all these words, saying,

2 I am Jehovah thy God, who have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bond-3 age. Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

4 Thou shalt not make thyself any graven image, or any form of what is in the heavens above, or what is in the earth beneath, or what is in the waters under the earth:
5 thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I, Jehovah thy God, am a jealous God,[d] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the sons to the third and to the fourth [generation] of 6 them that hate me, and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.

7 Thou shalt not idly utter the name of Jehovah thy God; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that idly[e] uttereth his name.

8 Remember the sabbath day to 9 hallow it. Six days shalt thou 10 labour, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the sabbath of Jehovah thy God: thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy bondman, nor thy handmaid, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy 11 gates. For in six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, and rested on the seventh day; therefore Jehovah blessed the sabbath day, and hallowed it.

12 Honour thy father and thy mother, that thy days may be prolonged in the land that Jehovah thy God giveth thee.

13 Thou shalt not kill.[f]

14 Thou shalt not commit adultery.

15 Thou shalt not steal.

16 Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not desire thy neighbour's house, thou shalt not desire thy neighbour's wife, nor his bondman, nor his handmaid, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's.

18 And all the people saw the thunderings, and the flames, and the sound of the trumpet, and the mountain smoking; and when the people saw [it], they trembled, and 19 stood afar off, and said to Moses, Speak thou with us, and we will hear; but let not God speak 20 with us, lest we die. And Moses said to the people, Fear not; for God is come to prove you, and that his fear may be before you, 21 that ye sin not. And the people stood afar off, and Moses drew near to the obscurity where God was.

22 And Jehovah said to Moses, Thus shalt thou say to the children of Israel: Ye have seen that I have spoken with you from the 23 heavens. Ye shall not make beside me gods of silver, and ye shall 24 not make to you gods of gold. An altar of earth shalt thou make unto me, and shalt sacrifice on it thy burnt-offerings, and thy peace-offerings,[g] thy sheep and thine oxen: in all places where I shall make my name to be remembered, I will come unto thee, and bless 25 thee. And if thou make me an altar of stone, thou shalt not build it of hewn stone; for if thou lift up thy sharp tool upon it, thou 26 hast profaned it. Neither shalt thou go up by steps unto mine altar, that thy nakedness be not discovered thereon.

[d] El. [e] Or 'for an untruth.' [f] Murder. [g] Or 'thank-offerings.'

21 And these are the judgments[h] which thou shalt set before 2 them. If thou buy a Hebrew bondman, six years shall he serve; and in the seventh he shall go out 3 free for nothing. If he came in alone,[i] he shall go out alone: if he had a wife, then his wife shall 4 go out with him. If his master have given him a wife, and she have born him sons or daughters, the wife and her children shall be her master's, and he shall go out 5 alone. But if the bondman shall say distinctly, I love my master, my wife, and my children, I will 6 not go free; then his master shall bring him before the judges,[j] and shall bring him to the door, or to the door-post; and his master shall bore his ear through with an awl; and he shall be his bondman for ever.
7 And if a man shall sell his daughter as a handmaid, she shall not 8 go out as the bondmen go out. If she is unacceptable[k] in the eyes of her master, who had taken her for himself, then shall he let her be ransomed: to sell her unto a foreign people he hath no power, after having dealt unfaithfully with her.
9 And if he have appointed her unto his son, he shall deal with her after 10 the law of daughters. If he take himself another, her food, her clothing, and her conjugal rights 11 he shall not diminish. And if he do not these three things unto her, then shall she go out free without money.
12 He that striketh a man, so that he die, shall certainly be put to 13 death. But if he have not lain in wait, and God have delivered [him] into his hand, I will appoint thee 14 a place to which he shall flee. But if a man act wantonly toward his neighbour, and slay him with guile, thou shalt take him from 15 mine altar, that he may die. And he that striketh his father, or his mother, shall certainly be put to 16 death. And he that stealeth a man, and selleth him, or if he be found in his hand, he shall cer-17 tainly be put to death. And he that curseth his father, or his mother, shall certainly be put to 18 death. And if men dispute, and one strike the other with a stone, or with the fist, and he die not, 19 but take to [his] bed,—if he rise, and walk abroad upon his staff, then shall he that struck [him] be guiltless; only he shall pay [for] the loss of his time,[l] and shall cause [him] to be thoroughly healed.
20 And if a man strike his bondman or his handmaid with a staff, and he die under his hand, he shall 21 certainly be avenged. Only, if he continue [to live] a day or two days, he shall not be avenged; for 22 he is his money. And if men strive together, and strike a woman with child, so that she be delivered,[m] and no mischief happen, he shall in any case be fined, according as the woman's husband shall impose on him, and shall give it as the 23 judges estimate. But if mischief happen, then thou shalt give life 24 for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for 25 foot, branding for branding, wound
26 for wound, stripe for stripe. And if a man strike the eye of his bondman or the eye of his handmaid, and it be marred, he shall let him 27 go for his eye. And if he knock out his bondman's tooth or his handmaid's tooth, he shall let him go free for his tooth.
28 And if an ox gore a man or a woman, so that they die, then the ox shall certainly be stoned, and its flesh shall not be eaten; but the owner of the ox shall be guilt-29 less. But if the ox have gored heretofore, and it have been testified to its owner, and he have not kept it in, and it kill a man or a woman,—the ox shall be stoned, and its owner also shall be put to 30 death. If there be imposed on him a satisfaction, then he shall give the ransom of his life, according to what is imposed on him.
31 Whether it gore a son or gore a 32 daughter, according to this judgment shall it be done to him. If the ox gore a bondman or a handmaid, he shall give to their master thirty shekels of silver, and the 33 ox shall be stoned.—And if a man open a pit, or if a man dig a pit, and do not cover it, and an ox or 34 an ass fall into it, the owner of the pit shall make it good, shall give money to the owner of them; and 35 the dead [ox] shall be his.—And if one man's ox gore his neighbour's ox, and it die, then they shall sell the live ox, and divide the money thereof, and divide the dead also.
36 Or if it be known that the ox have gored heretofore, and its owner have not kept him in, he shall in any case restore ox for ox; and the dead shall be his.

22 If a man steal an ox, or a sheep,[n] and kill it, or sell it, he shall restore five oxen for the ox, 2 and four sheep for the sheep. If the thief be encountered breaking in, and be smitten so that he die, there shall be no blood-guiltiness 3 for him. If the sun be risen on him, there shall be blood-guiltiness for him; he should have made full restitution: if he had nothing, he would have been sold for his 4 theft. If the stolen thing be actually found alive in his hand, whether it be ox, or ass, or sheep, he shall restore double.

5 If a man shall cause a field or vineyard to be eaten, and put in his cattle, and pasture in another man's field, of the best of his own field, and of the best of his own vineyard shall he make [it] good. 6 —If fire break out, and seize[o] the thorns, and the stacks of corn, or the standing corn, or the field be consumed, he that kindled the fire 7 shall fully make it good.—If a man deliver unto his neighbour money or stuff to keep, and it be stolen out of the man's house; if the thief be found, let him restore 8 double; if the thief be not found, the master of the house shall be brought before the judges, [to see] if he has not put his hand unto 9 his neighbour's goods. As to all manner of fraud,—as to ox, as to ass, as to sheep, as to clothing, as to everything lost, of which [a man] saith, It is this—the cause of both parties shall come before the judges: he whom the judges shall condemn shall restore double to 10 his neighbour. If a man deliver unto his neighbour an ass, or an ox, or a sheep,[n] or any cattle, to keep, and it die, or be hurt, or driven away, and no man see [it], 11 an oath of Jehovah shall be between them both, that he hath not put his hand unto his neighbour's goods; and the owner of it shall accept it, and he shall not 12 make [it] good. But if it have been stolen from him, he shall make [it] good unto its owner. 13 If it have been torn in pieces, let him bring it [as] witness: he shall not make good what was torn.— 14 And if a man borrow anything of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or die, its owner not being with it, 15 he shall fully make it good; if the owner thereof be with it, he shall not make [it] good; if it be a hired [thing], it came for its hire.

16 And if a man seduce a virgin that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall certainly endow her, to be 17 his wife. If her father utterly refuse to give her unto him, he shall weigh money according to the dowry of 18 virgins.—Thou shalt not suffer a 19 witch to live.—Every one that lieth with a beast shall certainly be put 20 to death.—He that sacrificeth to [any] god, save to Jehovah only, shall be devoted to destruction.

21 Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress him; for ye have been strangers in the land of 22 Egypt. Ye shall not afflict any 23 widow or fatherless child. If thou afflict him in any way, if he cry at all unto me, I will certainly hear 24 his cry; and my anger shall burn, and I will slay you with the sword; and your wives shall be widows, 25 and your children fatherless.—If thou lend money to my people, the poor with thee, thou shalt not be to him as a usurer: ye shall charge 26 him no interest.—If thou at all take thy neighbour's garment in pledge, thou shalt return it to him 27 before the sun goes down; for that is his only covering, his garment for his skin: on what shall he lie down? And it shall come to pass, when he crieth unto me, that I will hear; for I am gracious.

28 Thou shalt not revile the judges,[p] nor curse a prince amongst thy 29 people.—Thou shalt not delay the fulness of thy [threshing-floor] and the outflow[q] of thy [wine-press]. The firstborn of thy sons shalt thou 30 give unto me. Likewise shalt thou do with thy calf, with thy sheep: seven days shall it be with its dam; on the eighth day thou shalt give 31 it me.—And ye shall be holy men unto me; and ye shall not eat flesh torn in the field: ye shall cast it to the dog.

23 Thou shalt not accept[r] a false report; extend not thy hand to[s] the wicked, to be an 2 unrighteous witness.[t] Thou shalt not follow the multitude for evil; neither shalt thou answer in a cause, to go after the multitude 3 to pervert [judgment]. Neither shalt thou favour[u] a poor man in 4 his cause.—If thou meet thine enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shalt certainly bring it back 5 to him. If thou see the ass of him that hateth thee lying under its burden, beware of leaving [it] to him: thou shalt certainly loosen 6 [it] with him. Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of thy poor 7 in his cause. Thou shalt keep far from the cause of falsehood; and the innocent and righteous slay not; for I will not justify the 8 wicked. And thou shalt take no bribe; for the bribe blindeth those whose eyes are open, and perverteth the words of the righteous.

9 And the stranger thou shalt not oppress; for ye know the spirit[v] of the stranger, for ye have been strangers in the land of Egypt.
10 And six years thou shalt sow thy land, and gather in its pro-11 duce; but in the seventh thou shalt let it rest and lie [fallow], that the poor of thy people may eat [of it]; and what they leave, the beasts of the field shall eat.
In like manner thou shalt deal with thy vineyard, and with thine 12 olive-tree.—Six days thou shalt do thy work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest; that thine ox and thine ass may rest, and the son of thy handmaid, and the stranger 13 may be refreshed. And ye shall be on your guard as to everything that I have said unto you; and shall make no mention of the name of other gods—it shall not be heard in thy mouth.
14 Thrice in the year thou shalt 15 celebrate a feast to me. Thou shalt keep the feast of unleavened bread, (thou shalt eat unleavened bread seven days, as I have commanded thee, in the time appointed of the month Abib; for in it thou camest out from Egypt; and none shall appear in my presence empty;) 16 and the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours which thou hast sown in the field, and the feast of in-gathering, at the end of the year, when thou gatherest in thy labours out of the field.
17 Three times in the year all thy males shall appear in the presence 18 of the Lord Jehovah. Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice with leavened bread; neither shall the fat of my feast remain all 19 night until the morning. The first of the first-fruits of thy land thou shalt bring into the house of Jehovah thy God. Thou shalt not boil
a kid in its mother's milk.

20 Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee to the place that I 21 have prepared. Be careful in his presence, and hearken unto his voice: do not provoke him, for he will not forgive your transgressions; for my name is in him.
22 But if thou shalt diligently harken unto his voice, and do all that I shall say, then I will be an enemy to thine enemies, and an adversary 23 to thine adversaries. For mine Angel shall go before thee, and bring thee in unto the Amorites and the Hittites and the Perizzites and the Canaanites, the Hivites and the Jebusites; and I will cut 24 them off. Thou shalt not bow down to their gods, nor serve them, nor do after their deeds; but thou shalt utterly destroy them, and 25 utterly shatter their statues. And ye shall serve Jehovah your God; and he shall bless thy bread and thy water; and I will take sick-26 ness away from thy midst. There shall nothing cast their young, nor be barren, in thy land; the num-27 ber of thy days will I fulfil. I will send my fear before thee, and confound every people to which thou comest, and will make all thine enemies turn their back to thee.
28 And I will send hornets before thee, which shall drive out the Hivite, the Canaanite, and the 29 Hittite, from before thee. I will not drive them out from before thee in one year: lest the land become desolate, and the beast of the field multiply against thee.
30 By little and little I will drive them out from before thee, until thou art fruitful, and possess the 31 land. And I will set thy bounds from the Red Sea even unto the sea of the Philistines, and from the wilderness unto the river; for I will give the inhabitants of the land into your hand, that thou mayest dispossess them from before 32 thee. Thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor with their gods.
33 They shall not dwell in thy land, lest they make thee sin against me; for if thou serve their gods, it is sure to be a snare unto thee.

24 And he said to Moses, Go up to Jehovah, thou and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel; and worship 2 afar off. And let Moses alone come near Jehovah; but they shall not come near; neither shall the people go up with him.

[v] Lit. 'soul.'

3 And Moses came and told the people all the words of Jehovah, and all the judgments; and all the people answered with one voice, and said, All the words that 4 Jehovah has said will we do! And Moses wrote all the words of Jehovah, and rose up early in the morning, and built an altar under the mountain, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of 5 Israel. And he sent the youths of the children of Israel, and they offered up burnt-offerings, and sacrificed sacrifices of peace-offer-6 ing of bullocks to Jehovah. And Moses took half the blood, and put [it] in basons; and half of the blood he sprinkled on the altar.
7 And he took the book of the covenant, and read [it] in the ears of the people; and they said, All that Jehovah has said will we do, and 8 obey! And Moses took the blood, and sprinkled [it] on the people, and said, Behold the blood of the covenant that Jehovah has made with you concerning all these words.
9 And Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the 10 elders of Israel went up; and they saw the God of Israel; and there was under his feet as it were work of transparent sapphire, and as it were the form[w] of heaven for clear-11 ness. And on the nobles of the children of Israel he laid not his hand: they saw God, and ate and drank.
12 And Jehovah said to Moses, Come up to me into the mountain, and be there; and I will give thee the tables of stone, and the law, and the commandment that I have 13 written, for their instruction. And Moses rose up, and Joshua his attendant; and Moses went up to 14 the mountain of God. And he said to the elders, Wait here for us, until we return to you; and behold, Aaron and Hur are with you: if any man have any matter, let 15 him come before them. And Moses went up to the mountain, and the cloud covered the moun-16 tain. And the glory of Jehovah abode on mount Sinai, and the cloud covered it six days; and on the seventh day he called to Moses 17 out of the midst of the cloud. And the appearance of the glory of Jehovah was like a consuming fire on the top of the mountain, before the eyes of the children of Israel.
18 And Moses went into the midst of the cloud, and ascended the mountain. And Moses was on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

25 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring me a heave-offering: of every one whose heart prompteth him, ye 3 shall take my heave-offering. And this is the heave-offering that ye 4 shall take of them: gold, and silver, and copper, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and byssus,[x]
5 and goats' [hair], and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins;[y] 6 and acacia-wood; oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil, and for 7 the incense of fragrant drugs; onyx stones, and stones to be set in the ephod, and in the breastplate.
8 And they shall make me a sanctuary, that I may dwell among 9 them. According to all that I shall shew thee, the pattern of the tabernacle,[z] and the pattern of all the utensils thereof, even so shall ye make [it].
10 And they shall make an ark[a] of acacia-wood; two cubits and a half the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height 11 thereof. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold: inside and outside shalt thou overlay it; and shalt make upon it a border of 12 gold round about. And cast four rings of gold for it, and put [them] at the four corners thereof, that two rings may be upon the one side thereof and two rings upon 13 the other side thereof. And make staves of acacia-wood and overlay 14 them with gold. And put the staves into the rings upon the sides of the ark, that the ark may 15 be borne with them. The staves shall be in the rings of the ark: they shall not come out from it.
16 And thou shalt put into the ark the testimony that I shall give 17 thee. And thou shalt make a mercy-seat[b] of pure gold: two cubits and a half the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the 18 breadth thereof. And thou shalt make two cherubim of gold; [of] beaten work shalt thou make them, at the two ends of the mercy-seat.
19 And make one cherub at the end of the one side, and one cherub at the end of the other side; out of the mercy-seat shall ye make the cherubim at the two ends thereof.

[w] Lit. 'body.' [x] See on Gen. xli. 42. [y] Or 'seals' skins:' so xxvi. 14, xxxv. 7, 23. [z] משכן, 'habitation;' otherwise קדש, 'sanctuary.' [a] Chest. [b] The lid or cover of the chest.

20 And the cherubim shall stretch out [their] wings over it, covering over with their wings the mercy-seat, and their faces opposite to one another: toward the mercy-seat shall the faces of the cherubim be 21 [turned]. And thou shalt put the mercy-seat above on the ark, and shalt put in the ark the testimony 22 that I shall give thee. And there will I meet with thee, and will speak with thee from above the mercy-seat, from between the two cherubim which are upon the ark of the testimony, everything that I will give thee in commandment unto the children of Israel.
23 And thou shalt make a table of acacia-wood, two cubits the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the 24 height thereof. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, and make upon it a border of gold 25 round about. And thou shalt make for it a margin of a hand-breadth round about, and shalt make a border of gold for the 26 margin thereof round about. And thou shalt make for it four rings of gold, and put the rings at the four corners that are on the four 27 feet thereof. Close to the margin shall the rings be, as receptacles of 28 the staves to carry the table. And thou shalt make the staves of acacia-wood, and overlay them with gold; and the table shall be 29 carried upon them. And thou shalt make the dishes thereof, and cups thereof, and goblets thereof, and bowls thereof, with which to pour out: of pure gold shalt thou 30 make them. And thou shalt set upon the table shewbread [c] before me continually.
31 And thou shalt make a lamp-stand of pure gold; [of] beaten work shall the lamp-stand be made: its base and its shaft, its cups, its knobs, and its flowers
32 shall be of the same. And six branches shall come out of the sides thereof—three branches of the lamp-stand out of one side thereof, and three branches of the lamp-stand out of the other side 33 thereof; three cups shaped like almonds in the one branch, a knob and a flower: and three cups shaped like almonds in the other branch, a knob and a flower: so in the six branches that come out 34 of the lamp-stand. And in the lamp-stand four cups shaped like almonds, its knobs and its flowers; 35 and a knob under two branches of it, and [again] a knob under two branches of it, and [again] a knob under two branches of it, for the six branches that proceed out of 36 the lamp-stand. Their knobs and their branches shall be of itself—all of one beaten work of pure gold.
37 And thou shalt make the seven lamps thereof, and they shall light [d] the lamps thereof, that they may 38 shine out before it; and the snuffers thereof, and the snuff-39 trays thereof, of pure gold. Of a talent of pure gold shall they make 40 it, with all these utensils. And see that thou make [them] according to their pattern, which hath been shewn to thee in the mountain.

26 And thou shalt make the tabernacle [with] ten curtains of twined byssus, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: with cherubim of artistic work [e] shalt thou 2 make them. The length of one curtain shall be twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits—one measure for 3 all the curtains. Five of the curtains shall be coupled one to another, and [the other] five curtains 4 coupled one to another. And thou shalt make loops of blue on the edge of the one curtain at the end of the coupling; and likewise shalt thou make [them] in the edge of the outermost curtain in 5 the other coupling. Fifty loops shalt thou make in the one curtain, and fifty loops shalt thou make at the end of the curtain in the other coupling: the loops shall 6 be opposite to one another. And thou shalt make fifty clasps of gold, and couple the curtains together with the clasps, that the tabernacle may be one [whole].
7 And thou shalt make curtains of goats' [hair] for a tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains shalt 8 thou make them. The length of one curtain shall be thirty cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits—one measure for the 9 eleven curtains. And thou shalt couple five of the curtains by themselves, and six of the curtains by themselves, and shalt double the sixth curtain in the front of the 10 tent. And thou shalt make fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain of the coupling, and fifty loops on the edge of the cur-11 tain in the other coupling. And thou shalt make fifty clasps of copper, and put the clasps into the loops, and couple the tent, that it 12 may be one [whole]. And that which remaineth hanging over of the curtains of the tent, the half curtain that remaineth, shall hang over the rear of the tabernacle.

13 And the cubit on the one side, and the cubit on the other side of that which remaineth in the length of the curtains of the tent, shall hang over the sides of the tabernacle on this side and on that side, to cover it.
14 And thou shalt make a covering for the tent of rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins over [that].
15 And the boards for the tabernacle thou shalt make of acacia-16 wood, standing up; ten cubits the length of the board, and a cubit and a half the breadth of one 17 board. One board shall have two tenons,[f] connected one with the other: thus shalt thou make for all the boards of the tabernacle.
18 And thou shalt make the boards for the tabernacle, twenty boards 19 on the south side southward. And thou shalt make forty bases of silver under the twenty boards; two bases under one board for its two tenons, and two bases under another board for its two tenons.
20 And for the other side of the tabernacle on the north side there shall 21 be twenty boards. And their forty bases of silver; two bases under one board, and two bases 22 under another board. And for the rear of the tabernacle westward 23 thou shalt make six boards. And two boards shalt thou make for the corners of the tabernacle at 24 the rear; and they shall be joined beneath, and together shall be united at the top thereof to one ring: thus shall it be for them both; they shall be for the two 25 corners. And there shall be eight boards, and their bases, of silver, sixteen bases; two bases under one board, and two bases under another board.
26 And thou shalt make bars of acacia-wood; five for the boards of the one side of the tabernacle, 27 and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the side of the tabernacle at the rear west-28 ward; and the middle bar in the midst of the boards reaching from 29 one end to the other. And thou shalt overlay the boards with gold, and make [of] gold their rings, the receptacles of the bars, and shalt 30 overlay the bars with gold. And thou shalt set up the tabernacle according to its fashion, as hath been shewn thee on the mountain.
31 And thou shalt make a veil[g] of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined byssus; of artistic work shall it be made, with cherubim.
32 And thou shalt attach[h] it to four pillars of acacia-wood overlaid with gold, their hooks of gold; they shall be on four bases of 33 silver. And thou shalt bring the veil under the clasps, and bring in thither, inside the veil, the ark of the testimony; and the curtain shall make a division to you between the holy [place] and the 34 holiest of all.[i] And thou shalt put the mercy-seat on the ark of the testimony in the holiest of all.
35 And thou shalt set the table outside the veil, and the lamp-stand opposite to the table on the side of the tabernacle southward; and thou shalt put the table on 36 the north side. And thou shalt make for the entrance of the tent a curtain[j] of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined byssus, of em-37 broidery. And thou shalt make for the curtain five pillars of acacia [wood], and overlay them with gold; their hooks shall be of gold; and thou shalt cast five bases of copper for them.

27 And thou shalt make the altar of acacia-wood, five cubits the length, and five cubits the breadth; the altar shall be square; and the 2 height thereof three cubits. And thou shalt make its horns at the four corners thereof; its horns shall be of itself; and thou shalt 3 overlay it with copper. And thou shalt make its pots to cleanse it of the fat, its shovels, and its bowls, and its forks, and its fire-pans; for all the utensils thereof 4 thou shalt employ copper. And thou shalt make for it a grating of network of copper; and on the net shalt thou make four copper 5 rings at its four corners; and thou shalt put it under the ledge of the altar beneath, and the net shall be to the very middle of the altar.

6 And thou shalt make staves for the altar, staves of acacia-wood, and overlay them with copper.
7 And its staves shall be put into the rings, that the staves may be on both sides of the altar, when it 8 is carried. Hollow with boards shalt thou make it: as it hath been shewn thee on the mountain, so shall they make [it].
9 And thou shalt make the court of the tabernacle. On the south side, southward, hangings for the court of twined byssus; a hundred cubits the length for the one side, 10 and the twenty pillars thereof, and their twenty bases of copper, the hooks of the pillars and their 11 connecting-rods of silver. And likewise on the north side in length, hangings a hundred [cubits] long, and its twenty pillars, and their twenty bases of copper; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting-12 rods of silver.—And the breadth of the court on the west side, hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars 13 ten, and their bases ten.—And the breadth of the court on the east 14 side, eastward,[k] fifty cubits; the hangings on the one wing,[l] of fifteen cubits; their pillars three, 15 and their bases three. And on the other wing hangings of fifteen [cubits]; their pillars three, and their 16 bases three.—And for the gate of the court a curtain of twenty cubits, of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined byssus, embroidered with needlework; their pillars 17 four, and their bases four. All the pillars of the court round about shall be fastened together with [rods of] silver; their hooks of silver, and their bases of cop-18 per. The length of the court shall be a hundred cubits, and the breadth fifty everywhere,[m] and the height five cubits of twined byssus; and their bases of copper.
19 All the utensils of the tabernacle for the service thereof and all the pegs thereof, and all the pegs of the court shall be of copper.
20 And thou shalt command the children of Israel, that they bring thee olive oil, pure, beaten, for the light, to light[n] the lamp contin-21 ually. In the tent of meeting outside the veil, which is before the testimony, Aaron and his sons shall dress them from evening to morning before Jehovah: [it is] an everlasting statute, for their generations, on the part of the children of Israel.

28 And thou shalt take thee Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him, from among the children of Israel, that he may serve me as priest—Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron's 2 sons. And thou shalt make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, 3 for glory and for ornament. And thou shalt speak with all [that are] wise-hearted, whom I have filled with the spirit of wisdom, that they may make Aaron's garments to hallow him, that he may serve 4 me as priest. And these are the garments which they shall make:
a breastplate, and an ephod, and a cloak, and a checkered vest,[o] a turban, and a girdle; [p] and they shall make holy garments for Aaron thy brother, and his sons, that he may serve me as priest.
5 And they shall take gold, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and 6 twined byssus, and shall make the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, scarlet and twined byssus, of 7 artistic work. It shall have two shoulder-pieces joined at the two ends thereof, where it is joined 8 together. And the girdle[q] of the ephod, which is upon it, shall be of the same, according to its work of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet 9 and twined byssus. And thou shalt take two onyx stones, and engrave on them the names of the 10 children of Israel: six of their names on the one stone, and the six names of the rest on the other stone, according to their birth.
11 According to the work of an engraver in stone, as the engravings of a seal, shalt thou engrave the two stones with the names of the sons of Israel; surrounded by enclosures[r] of gold shalt thou make 12 them. And thou shalt put the two stones upon the shoulder-pieces of the ephod [as] stones of memorial for the children of Israel; and Aaron shall bear their names before Jehovah upon his two shoul-13 ders for a memorial. And thou 14 shalt make enclosures of gold; and two chains of pure gold; of laced work shalt thou make them, of wreathen work, and fasten the wreathen chains to the enclosures.

15 And thou shalt make the breast-plate of judgment of artistic work, like the work of the ephod thou shalt make it; of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined 16 byssus shalt thou make it. Square shall it be, doubled; a span the length thereof, and a span the 17 breadth thereof. And thou shalt set in it settings[s] of stones—four rows of stones: [one] row, a sardoin,[t] a topaz, and an emerald 18 —the first row; and the second row, a carbuncle, a sapphire, and 19 a diamond; and the third row, an opal, an agate, and an amethyst; 20 and the fourth row, a chrysolite, and an onyx, and a jasper; enclosed in gold shall they be in their 21 settings. And the stones shall be according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, engraved as a seal:
every one according to his name shall they be for the twelve tribes.
22 And thou shalt make on the breastplate chains of laced work, of wreathen work, of pure gold.
23 And thou shalt make on the breast-plate two rings of gold, and shalt put the two rings on the two ends 24 of the breastplate. And thou shalt put the two wreathen [cords] of gold in the two rings on the ends 25 of the breastplate; and the two ends of the two wreathen [cords] thou shalt fasten to the two enclosures, and shalt put [them] on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, 26 on the front thereof. And thou shalt make two rings of gold, and shalt put them on the two ends of the breastplate, on the border thereof, which faceth the ephod 27 inwards. And two rings of gold shalt thou make, and shalt put them upon the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod underneath, to the front thereof just by the coupling thereof, above the girdle of the 28 ephod. And they shall bind the breastplate with its rings to the rings of the ephod with a lace of blue, that it may be above the girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate be not loosed from the 29 ephod. And Aaron shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment on his heart, when he goes in to the sanctuary, for a memorial before 30 Jehovah continually. And thou shalt put into the breastplate of judgment the Urim[v] and the Thummim,[w] that they may be upon Aaron's heart when he goeth in before Jehovah; and Aaron shall bear the judgment of the children of Israel upon his heart before Jehovah continually.
31 And thou shalt make the cloak 32 of the ephod all of blue. And its opening for the head shall be in the midst thereof; there shall be a binding of woven work at its opening round about; as the opening of a coat of mail, it shall be in 33 it—it shall not rend. And on the skirts thereof thou shalt make pomegranates of blue, and purple, and scarlet, round about the skirts thereof; and bells of gold between 34 them round about: a golden bell and a pomegranate, a golden bell and a pomegranate, in the skirts of 35 the cloak round about. And it shall be on Aaron for service; that his sound may be heard when he goeth into the sanctuary before Jehovah, and when he cometh out, that he may not die.
36 And thou shalt make a thin plate of pure gold, and engrave on it, as the engravings of a seal, 37 Holiness to Jehovah! And thou shalt put it on a lace of blue, and it shall be upon the turban—upon the front of the turban shall it be.
38 And it shall be upon Aaron's forehead, and Aaron shall bear the iniquity of the holy things, which the children of Israel shall hallow in all gifts of their holy things; and it shall be continually on his forehead, that they may be accepted before Jehovah.
39 And thou shalt weave[x] the vest of byssus; and thou shalt make a turban of byssus; and thou shalt make a girdle of embroidery.
40 And for Aaron's sons thou shalt make vests; and thou shalt make for them girdles; and high caps shalt thou make for them, for 41 glory and for ornament. And thou shalt clothe with them Aaron thy brother, and his sons with him; and shalt anoint them, and consecrate them,[y] and hallow them, that they may serve me as priests.
42 And thou shalt make them linen trousers to cover the flesh of nakedness; from the loins even to the

43 hips shall they reach. And they shall be upon Aaron and his sons when they enter into the tent of meeting, or when they come near to the altar to serve in the sanctuary; that they may not bear iniquity and die—an everlasting statute for him and his seed after him.

29 And this is the thing which thou shalt do to them to hallow them, that they may serve me as priests: take one young bullock, 2 and two rams without blemish, and unleavened bread, and unleavened cakes [z] mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil —of wheaten flour shalt thou 3 make them. And thou shalt put them into one basket, and present them in the basket, with the bul- 4 lock and the two rams. And Aaron and his sons thou shalt bring near the entrance of the tent of meeting, and shalt bathe them with 5 water. And thou shalt take the garments, and clothe Aaron with the vest, and the cloak of the ephod, and the ephod, and the breastplate, and shalt gird him 6 with the girdle of the ephod. And thou shalt put the turban upon his head, and fasten the holy dia- 7 dem to the turban, and shalt take the anointing oil, and pour [it] on his head, and anoint him.

8 And thou shalt bring his sons near, and clothe them with the 9 vests. And thou shalt gird them with the girdle—Aaron and his sons, and bind the high caps on them; and the priesthood shall be theirs for an everlasting statute; and thou shalt consecrate Aaron 10 and his sons. And thou shalt present the bullock before the tent of meeting; and Aaron and his sons shall lay [a] their hands upon 11 the head of the bullock; and thou shalt slaughter the bullock before Jehovah, at the entrance of the 12 tent of meeting; and thou shalt take of the blood of the bullock, and put it on the horns of the altar with thy finger, and shalt pour all the blood at the bottom 13 of the altar. And thou shalt take all the fat that covereth the inwards, and the net of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and burn [b] 14 them upon the altar. And the flesh of the bullock, and its skin, and its dung, shalt thou burn with fire outside the camp: it is a sin- 15 offering. And thou shalt take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall put their hands upon the 16 head of the ram; and thou shalt slaughter the ram, and shalt take its blood, and sprinkle [it] on the 17 altar round about. And thou shalt cut up the ram into its pieces, and wash its inwards, and its legs, and put [them] upon its pieces, 18 and upon its head; and thou shalt burn the whole ram upon the altar: it is a burnt-offering to Jehovah—a sweet odour; it is an offering by fire to Jehovah.

19 And thou shalt take the second ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands upon the head of 20 the ram; and thou shalt slaughter the ram, and take of its blood, and put [it] on the tip of the [right] ear of Aaron, and on the tip of the right ear of his sons, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot; and thou shalt sprinkle the blood 21 upon the altar round about. And thou shalt take of the blood that is upon the altar, and of the anointing oil, and sprinkle [it] on Aaron, and on his garments, and on his sons, and on the garments of his sons with him; and he shall be hallowed, and his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments 22 with him. Also of the ram shalt thou take the fat, and the fat-tail, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the net of the liver, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is upon them, and the right shoulder—for it is a ram of conse- 23 cration—and one loaf of bread, and one cake of oiled bread, and one wafer out of the basket of the unleavened [bread] that is before 24 Jehovah; and thou shalt put all this in the hands of Aaron, and in the hands of his sons, and shalt wave them as a wave-offering be- 25 fore Jehovah. And thou shalt receive them of their hand and burn [them] upon the altar over the burnt-offering, for a sweet odour before Jehovah: it is an offering 26 by fire to Jehovah. And thou shalt take the breast of the ram of consecration which is for Aaron, and wave it as a wave-offering before Jehovah; and it shall be 27 thy part. And thou shalt hallow the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heave-offering, that hath been waved and heaved up, of the ram of the consecration, of that which is for Aaron, and of [that] which is for his sons.

28 And they shall be for Aaron and his sons, as an everlasting statute, on the part of the children of Israel; for it is a heave-offering; and it shall be a heave-offering on the part of the children of Israel of the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, [as] their heave-offering to Jehovah.
29 And the holy garments of Aaron shall be his sons' after him, to be anointed therein, and to be conse-30 crated in them. The son that is priest in his stead shall put them on seven days, when he cometh into the tent of meeting to serve in the sanctuary.
31 And thou shalt take the ram of the consecration, and boil its flesh 32 in a holy place. And Aaron and his sons shall eat the flesh of the ram, and the bread that is in the basket, at the entrance of the tent 33 of meeting. They shall eat the things with which the atonement was made, to consecrate [and] to hallow them; but a stranger shall not eat [of them], for they are holy.
34 And if [any] of the flesh of the consecration, and of the bread, remain until the morning, then thou shalt burn[c] the remainder with fire: it shall not be eaten, 35 for it is holy. And thus shalt thou do to Aaron, and to his sons, according to all that I have commanded thee: seven days shalt thou consecrate them.
36 And thou shalt offer every day a bullock as a sin-offering for atonement; and the altar shalt thou cleanse from sin,[d] by making atonement for it, and shalt 37 anoint it, to hallow it. Seven days shalt thou make atonement for the altar and hallow it; and the altar shall be most holy:[e] whatever toucheth the altar shall be holy.
38 And this is what thou shalt offer upon the altar—two lambs of the first year, day by day continually.
39 The one lamb thou shalt offer in the morning; and the other lamb thou shalt offer between the two 40 evenings. And with the one lamb a tenth part of wheaten flour mingled with beaten oil, a fourth part of a hin; and a drink-offering, a fourth part of a hin of wine.
41 And the second lamb shalt thou offer between the two evenings; as the oblation in the morning, and as its drink-offering shalt thou offer with this, for a sweet odour, 42 an offering by fire to Jehovah. It shall be a continual burnt-offering throughout your generations at the entrance of the tent of meeting before Jehovah, here I will meet with you, to speak there with thee.
43 And there will I meet with the children of Israel; and it shall be 44 hallowed by my glory. And I will hallow the tent of meeting, and the altar; and I will hallow Aaron and his sons, that they may serve 45 me as priests. And I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel, 46 and will be their God. And they shall know that I am Jehovah their God, who have brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, to dwell in their midst: I am Jehovah their God.

30 And thou shalt make an altar for the burning of incense: of acacia-wood shalt thou make it;
2 a cubit the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof—square shall it be; and two cubits its height; of itself shall be its 3 horns. And thou shalt overlay it with pure gold, the top[f] thereof, and the sides[g] thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and thou shalt make upon it a border of 4 gold round about. And two rings of gold shalt thou make for it under its border; by its two corners[h] shalt thou make [them], on the two sides thereof; and they shall be for receptacles for the 5 staves, with which to carry it. And thou shalt make the staves of acacia-wood, and overlay them 6 with gold. And thou shalt put it in front of the veil which is before the ark of the testimony in front of the mercy-seat which is over the testimony, where I will meet with 7 thee. And Aaron shall burn thereon fragrant incense:[i] every morning, when he dresseth the lamps, 8 he shall burn the incense. And when Aaron lighteth[j] the lamps between the two evenings, he shall burn the incense—a continual incense before Jehovah throughout 9 your generations. Ye shall offer up no strange incense thereon, nor burnt-offering, nor oblation; nei-10 ther shall ye pour drink-offering thereon. And Aaron shall make atonement for[k] its horns once in the year: with the blood of the sin-offering of atonement shall he make atonement for[k] it, once in the year, throughout your generations: it is most holy to Jehovah.

11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
12 saying, When thou shalt take the sum of the children of Israel according to those of them that are numbered, then shall they give every man a ransom for his soul to Jehovah on their being numbered, that there be no plague among them on their being numbered.
13 This shall they give—every one that passeth among them that are numbered—half a shekel after the shekel of the sanctuary,—twenty gerahs the shekel; a half shekel shall be the heave-offering for Je-14 hovah. Every one that passeth among those that are numbered, from twenty years old and above, shall give the heave-offering of Je-15 hovah. The rich shall not give more, and the poor shall not give less than half a shekel, when ye give the heave-offering of Jehovah, to make atonement for your souls.
16 And thou shalt take the atonement-money of the children of Israel, and devote it to the service of the tent of meeting; and it shall be a memorial to the children of Israel before Jehovah, to make atonement for your souls.
17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
18 saying, Thou shalt also make a laver of copper, and its stand of copper, for washing; and thou shalt put it between the tent of meeting and the altar, and shalt 19 put water in it. And Aaron and his sons shall wash their hands and 20 their feet out of it. When they go into the tent of meeting, they shall wash with water, that they may not die; or when they come near to the altar to serve, to burn an 21 offering by fire to Jehovah. And they shall wash their hands and their feet, that they may not die; and it shall be an everlasting statute for them, for him and for his seed throughout their generations.
22 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
23 saying, And thou, take best spices —of liquid myrrh five hundred [shekels], and of sweet cinnamon the half—two hundred and fifty, and of sweet myrtle two hundred 24 and fifty, and of cassia five hundred, after the shekel of the sanc-25 tuary, and of olive oil a hin; and make of it an oil of holy ointment, a perfume of perfumery after the work of the perfumer: it shall be 26 the holy anointing oil. And thou shalt anoint the tent of meeting with it, and the ark of the testi-27 mony, and the table and all its utensils, and the lamp-stand and its utensils, and the altar of in-28 cense, and the altar of burnt-offering and all its utensils, and the 29 laver and its stand. And thou shalt hallow them, that they may be most holy: whatever toucheth 30 them shall be holy. And Aaron and his sons thou shalt anoint, and shalt hallow them, that they may 31 serve me as priests. And thou shalt speak to the children of Israel, saying, A holy anointing oil shall this be unto me throughout your 32 generations. Upon man's flesh shall it not be poured, neither shall ye make [any] like it, after the preparation of it: it is holy—holy 33 shall it be unto you. Whoever compoundeth [any] like it, or whoever putteth [any] of it upon any strange thing, shall be cut off from his peoples.
34 And Jehovah said to Moses, Take fragrant drugs—stacte, and onycha, and galbanum—fragrant drugs and pure frankincense; in 35 like proportions shall it be. And thou shalt make it into incense, a perfume, after the work of the 36 perfumer, salted, pure, holy. And thou shalt beat [some] of it to powder, and put [some] of it before the testimony in the tent of meeting, where I will meet with thee: it shall be unto you most holy.
37 And the incense that thou shalt make, ye shall not make for yourselves according to the proportions of it; it shall be unto thee 38 holy to Jehovah. Whoever maketh like unto it, to smell it, shall be cut off from his peoples.

31 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
2 saying, See, I have called by name Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, 3 and have filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, and in understanding, and in knowledge, and 4 in every work, to devise artistic work—to work in gold, and in 5 silver, and in copper, and in cutting of stones, for setting, and for carving of timber—to work in all 6 manner of work. And I, behold, I have given with him Aholiab the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan; and in the heart of every one that is wise-hearted have I given wisdom, that they may make all that I have commanded thee—7 the tent of meeting and the ark of the testimony, and the mercy-seat that is thereupon, and all the 8 utensils of the tent, and the table and its utensils, and the pure lampstand and all its utensils, and the 9 altar of incense; and the altar of burnt-offering and all its utensils, and the laver and its stand;

10 and the garments of service, both the holy garments of Aaron the priest, and the garments of his 11 sons, to serve as priests; and the anointing oil, and the incense of fragrant drugs for the sanctuary: according to all that I have commanded thee shall they do.
12 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
13 saying, And thou, speak thou unto the children of Israel, saying, Surely my sabbaths shall ye keep; for this is a sign between me and you throughout your generations, that ye may know that it is I, Jehovah, who do hallow you.
14 Keep the sabbath, therefore; for it is holy unto you; every one that profaneth it shall certainly be put to death: yea, whoever doeth work on it, that soul shall be cut 15 off from among his peoples. Six days shall work be done; but on the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, holy to Jehovah: whoever doeth work on the sabbath day shall certainly be put to death.
16 And the children of Israel shall keep the sabbath, to observe the sabbath throughout their generations—[it is] an everlasting cove-17 nant. It shall be a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever; for [in] six days Jehovah made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.
18 And he gave to Moses, when he had ended speaking with him on mount Sinai, the two tables of testimony, tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

32 And when the people saw that Moses delayed to come down from the mountain, the people collected together to Aaron, and said to him, Up, make us a god,[l] who will go before us; for this Moses, the man that has brought us up out of the land of Egypt,—we do not know what is become 2 of him! And Aaron said to them, Break off the golden rings that are in the ears of your wives, of your sons, and of your daughters, and 3 bring [them] to me. Then all the people broke off the golden rings that were in their ears, and brought 4 [them] to Aaron. And he took [them] out of their hand, and fashioned it with a chisel and made of it a molten calf: and they said, This is thy god, Israel, who has brought thee up out of the land of 5 Egypt! And Aaron saw [it], and built an altar before it; and Aaron made a proclamation, and said, To-morrow is a feast to Jehovah!
6 And they rose up early on the morrow, and offered up burnt-offerings, and brought peace-offerings; and the people sat down to eat and to drink, and rose up to sport.
7 Then Jehovah said to Moses, Away, go down! for thy people, which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt, is acting corruptly.
8 They have turned aside quickly out of the way that I commanded them: they have made themselves a molten calf, and have bowed down to it, and have sacrificed thereunto, and said, This is thy god, Israel, who has brought thee 9 up out of the land of Egypt! And Jehovah said to Moses, I see this people, and behold, it is a stiff-10 necked people. And now let me alone, that my anger may burn against them, and I may consume them; and I will make of thee a great nation.
11 And Moses besought Jehovah his God, and said, Why, Jehovah, doth thy wrath burn against thy people, which thou hast brought forth out of the land of Egypt with great power and with a strong 12 hand? Why should the Egyptians speak, and say, For misfortune he has brought them out, to slay them on the mountains, and to annihilate them from the face of the earth? Turn from the heat of thine anger, and repent of this evil 13 against thy people! Remember Abraham, Isaac and Israel, thy servants, to whom thou sworest by thyself, and saidst to them, I will multiply your seed as the stars of heaven, and all this land that I have spoken of will I give to your seed, and they shall possess [it] for 14 ever! And Jehovah repented of the evil that he had said he would do to his people.
15 And Moses turned and went down from the mountain, [with] the two tables of the testimony in his hand—tables written on both their sides: on this side and on [l] Or 'gods:' similarly vers. 4, 8, 23, 31.

16 that were they written. And the tables [were] God's work, and the writing was God's writing, en-17 graven on the tables. And Joshua heard the noise of the people as they shouted, and said to Moses, There is a shout of war in the 18 camp. And he said, It is not the sound of a shout of victory, neither is it the sound of a shout of defeat: [m] it is the noise of alternate singing 19 I hear. And it came to pass, when he came near the camp, and saw the calf and the dancing, that Moses' anger burned, and he cast the tables out of his hands, and shattered them beneath the moun-20 tain. And he took the calf that they had made, and burned [it] with fire, and ground it to powder, and strewed [it] on the water, and made the children of Israel drink 21 [it]. And Moses said to Aaron, What has this people done to thee, that thou hast brought so great 22 a sin on them? And Aaron said, Let not the anger of my lord burn! thou knowest the people, that 23 they are [set] on mischief. And they said to me, Make us a god, who will go before us; for this Moses, the man that has brought us up out of the land of Egypt, we do not know what is become of 24 him! And I said to them, Who has gold? They broke [it] off, and gave [it] me, and I cast it into the fire, and there came out this 25 calf. And Moses saw the people how they were stripped; [n] for Aaron had stripped them to [their] shame before their adversaries.
26 And Moses stood in the gate of the camp, and said, He that is for Jehovah, [let him come] to me. And all the sons of Levi gathered 27 to him. And he said to them, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel: Put every man his sword upon his hip; go and return from gate to gate through the camp, and slay every man his brother, and every man his friend, and every 28 man his neighbour. And the sons of Levi did according to the word of Moses; and there fell of the people that day about three thou-29 sand men. And Moses said, Consecrate yourselves to-day to Jehovah, yea, every man with [o] his son, and with his brother, and bring on yourselves a blessing to-day.
30 And it came to pass the next day, that Moses said to the people, Ye have sinned a great sin. And now I will go up to Jehovah: perhaps I shall make atonement for 31 your sin. And Moses returned to Jehovah, and said, Alas, this people has sinned a great sin, and they have made themselves a god of 32 gold! And now, if thou wilt forgive their sin .... but if not, blot me, I pray thee, out of thy book 33 that thou hast written. And Jehovah said to Moses, Whoever hath sinned against me, him will 34 I blot out of my book. And now go, lead the people whither I have told thee: behold, my Angel shall go before thee; but in the day of my visiting I will visit their sin 35 upon them. And Jehovah smote the people, because they made the calf, which Aaron had made.

33 And Jehovah said to Moses, Depart, go up hence, thou and the people that thou hast brought up out of the land of Egypt, into the land that I swore unto Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it,
2 (and I will send an angel before thee, and dispossess the Canaanite, the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the 3 Jebusite,) into a land flowing with milk and honey; for I will not go up in the midst of thee, for thou art a stiff-necked people,—lest I 4 consume thee on the way. And when the people heard this evil word, they mourned; and no man 5 put on his ornaments. Now Jehovah had said to Moses, Say unto the children of Israel, Ye are a stiff-necked people: in one moment I will come up into the midst of thee and will consume thee. And now put off thine ornaments from thee, and I will know what I will 6 do unto thee. And the children of Israel stripped themselves of their ornaments at [p] mount Horeb.
7 And Moses took the tent, and pitched it outside the camp, far from the camp, and called it the Tent of meeting. And it came to pass [that] every one who sought Jehovah went out to the tent of meeting which was outside the 8 camp. And it came to pass, when Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose up, and stood every man at the entrance of his tent, and they looked after Moses until 9 he entered into the tent. And it came to pass when Moses entered into the tent, the pillar of cloud descended, and stood at the entrance of the tent, and [Jehovah] 10 talked with Moses. And all the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance of the tent; and all the people rose and worshipped, every man at the 11 entrance of his tent. And Jehovah spoke with Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. And he returned to the camp; but his attendant, Joshua the son of Nun, a young man, departed not from within the tent.

12 And Moses said to Jehovah, Behold, thou sayest unto me, Bring up this people; but thou dost not let me know whom thou wilt send with me; and thou hast said, I know thee by name, and thou hast also found grace in mine eyes.
13 And now, if indeed I have found grace in thine eyes, make me now to know thy way[q], that I may know thee, that I may find grace in thine eyes; and consider that 14 this nation is thy people! And he said, My presence shall go, and 15 I will give thee rest. And he said to him, If thy presence do not go, 16 bring us not up hence. And how shall it be known then that I have found grace in thine eyes—I and thy people? [Is it] not by thy going with us? so shall we be distinguished, I and thy people, from every people that is on the face of the earth.
17 And Jehovah said to Moses, I will do this thing also that thou hast said; for thou hast found grace in mine eyes, and I know 18 thee by name. And he said, Let me, I pray thee, see thy glory.
19 And he said, I will make all my goodness pass before thy face, and I will proclaim the name of Jehovah before thee; and I will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and I will shew mercy on whom I 20 will shew mercy. And he said, Thou canst not see my face; for Man shall not see me, and live.
21 And Jehovah said, Behold, [there is] a place by me: there shalt thou 22 stand on the rock. And it shall come to pass, when my glory passeth by, that I will put thee in a cleft of the rock, and will cover thee with my hand, until I have passed 23 by. And I will take away my hand, and thou shalt see me from behind; but my face shall not be seen.

34 And Jehovah said to Moses, Hew for thyself two tables of stone like the first; and I will write upon the tables the words that were upon the first tables, 2 which thou hast broken. And be ready for the morning, and go up in the morning to mount Sinai, and stand there before me on the 3 top of the mountain. And let no man go up with thee, neither shall any man be seen on all the mountain; neither shall sheep and oxen feed in front of that mountain.
4 And he hewed two tables of stone like the first; and Moses rose up early in the morning and went up to mount Sinai, as Jehovah had commanded him, and took in his hand the two tables of stone.
5 And Jehovah came down in the cloud, and stood beside him there, and proclaimed the name of Jeho-6 vah. And Jehovah passed by before his face, and proclaimed, Jehovah, Jehovah God[r] merciful and gracious, slow to anger, and abundant in goodness and truth, 7 keeping mercy unto thousands, forgiving iniquity and transgression and sin, but by no means clearing [the guilty]; visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, and upon the children's children, upon the third and upon 8 the fourth [generation]. And Moses made haste, and bowed his head to the earth and worshipped, 9 and said, If indeed I have found grace in thine eyes, Lord, let the Lord, I pray thee, go in our midst; for it is a stiff-necked people; and pardon our iniquity and our sin, and take us for an inheritance!
10 And he said, Behold, I make a covenant: before all thy people I will do marvels that have not been done[s] in all the earth, nor in any nation; and all the people in the midst of which thou [art] shall see the work of Jehovah; for a terrible thing it shall be that I will do with thee.
11 Observe what I command thee this day: behold, I will drive out before thee the Amorite, and the Canaanite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Hivite, and 12 the Jebusite. Take heed to thyself, that thou make no covenant with the inhabitants of the land to which thou shalt come, lest it be 13 a snare in the midst of thee; but ye shall demolish their altars, shatter their statues, and hew 14 down their Asherahs.[t] For thou shalt worship no other God; for Jehovah—Jealous is his name—is [q] Lit. 'ways.' [r] El. [s] Lit. 'created.' [t] Images of the goddess Asherah: possibly the same as Ashtoreth (Astarte).

15 a jealous God; [u] lest [v] thou make a covenant with the inhabitants of the land, and then, when they go a whoring after their gods, and sacrifice unto their gods, thou be invited, and eat of their [w] sacrifice, 16 and thou take of their [w] daughters unto thy sons, and their [w] daughters go a whoring after their gods, and make thy sons go a whoring 17 after their gods.—Thou shalt make 18 thyself no molten gods.—The feast of the unleavened bread shalt thou keep: seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread, as I have commanded thee, at the appointed time of the month Abib; for in the month Abib thou camest out 19 from Egypt.—All that openeth the womb [is] mine; and all the cattle that is born a male, the firstling of 20 ox and sheep. But the firstling of an ass thou shalt ransom with a lamb; [x] and if thou ransom [it] not, then shalt thou break its neck. All the first-born of thy sons thou shalt ransom; and none shall appear before me empty.— 21 Six days shalt thou work, but on the seventh day thou shalt rest; in ploughing time and in harvest 22 thou shalt rest.—And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, of the first-fruits of wheat-harvest, and the feast of ingathering at the 23 turn of the year. Thrice in the year shall all thy males appear before the Lord Jehovah, the God 24 of Israel. For I will dispossess the nations before thee, and enlarge thy border, and no man shall desire thy land, when thou goest up to appear before the face of Jehovah thy God thrice in the 25 year.—Thou shalt not offer [y] the blood of my sacrifice with leaven; neither shall the sacrifice of the feast of the passover be left over 26 night until the morning.—The first of the first-fruits of thy land shalt thou bring into the house of Jehovah thy God. Thou shalt not boil
a kid in its mother's milk.
27 And Jehovah said to Moses, Write thee these words; for after the tenor of these words have I made a covenant with thee and 28 with Israel.—And he was there with Jehovah forty days and forty nights; he ate no bread, and drank no water.—And he wrote on the tables the words of the covenant, the ten words.
29 And it came to pass, when Moses came down from mount Sinai—and the two tables of testimony were in Moses' hand, when he came down from the mountain —that Moses knew not that the skin of his face shone through his 30 talking [z] with him. And Aaron and all the children of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone; and they were afraid 31 to come near him. And Moses called to them; and they turned to him,—Aaron and all the principal men of the assembly; and 32 Moses talked with them. And afterwards, all the children of Israel came near; and he gave them in commandment all that Jehovah had spoken with him on mount 33 Sinai. And Moses ended speaking with them; and he had put [a] on 34 his face a veil. And when Moses went in before Jehovah to speak with him, he took the veil off, until he came out; and he came out, and spoke to the children of Israel 35 what he was commanded. And the children of Israel saw the face of Moses, that the skin of Moses' face shone; and Moses put the veil on his face again, until he went in to speak with him.

35 And Moses collected all the assembly of the children of Israel, and said to them, These are the things which Jehovah has 2 commanded, to do them. Six days shall work be done, but on the seventh day there shall be to you a holy day, [b] a sabbath of rest to Jehovah: whoever does work on 3 it shall be put to death. Ye shall kindle no fire throughout your dwellings upon the sabbath day.
4 And Moses spoke to all the assembly of the children of Israel, saying, This is the word which Jehovah has commanded, saying, 5 Take from among you a heave-offering to Jehovah: every one whose heart [is] willing, let him bring it, Jehovah's heave-offering 6 —gold, and silver, and copper, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and

The force would be: 'having (or, when he had) put a covering over his face.' Verse 35 would, I think, imply that as long as he was getting these divine communications he kept the veil over his face, except when he went into the sanctuary. 2 Cor. iii., which has been alleged for the opposite view, proves this, for it alludes to the fact in saying of the veil on Israel's heart, that when they turned to the Lord it would be taken off. [b] Lit. 'holiness.'

7 byssus, and goats' [hair], and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' 8 skins, and acacia-wood, and oil for the light, and spices for the anointing oil, and for the incense of fra-9 grant drugs; and onyx stones, and stones to be set for the ephod, and 10 for the breastplate. And all who are wise-hearted among you shall come and make all that Jehovah 11 has commanded: the tabernacle, its tent, and its covering, its clasps, and its boards, its bars, its pillars, 12 and its bases; the ark, and its staves; the mercy-seat, and the 13 veil of separation;[c] the table and its staves, and all its utensils, and 14 the shewbread; and the lamp-stand for the light, and its utensils, and its lamps, and the oil for the 15 light; and the altar of incense, and its staves; and the anointing-oil, and the incense of fragrant drugs; and the entrance-curtain at the entrance of the tabernacle; 16 the altar of burnt-offering, and the copper grating for it, its staves, and all its utensils; the laver and 17 its stand; the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its bases, and the curtains of the gate of the 18 court; the pegs of the tabernacle, and the pegs of the court, and 19 their cords; the garments of service, to do service in the sanctuary, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, to serve as priests.
20 And all the assembly of the children of Israel departed from before 21 Moses. And they came, every one whose heart moved him, and every one whose spirit prompted him; they brought Jehovah's heave-offering for the work of the tent of meeting, and for all its service, 22 and for the holy garments. And they came, both men and women; every one who was of willing heart brought nose-rings, and earrings, and rings, and bracelets, all kinds of utensils of gold: every man that waved a wave-offering of gold to 23 Jehovah. And every man with whom was found blue, and purple, and scarlet, and byssus, and goats' [hair], and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, brought [them].
24 All they that offered[d] a heave-offering of silver and copper brought Jehovah's heave-offering. And every one with whom was found acacia-wood for all manner of work of the service, brought [it].
25 And every woman that was wise-hearted spun with her hands, and brought what she had spun: the blue, and the purple, and the 26 scarlet, and the byssus. And all the women whose heart moved them in wisdom spun goats' [hair].
27 And the principal men brought the onyx stones, and the stones to be set, for the ephod, and for the 28 breastplate; and the spice, and the oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the incense 29 of fragrant drugs. The children of Israel brought a voluntary offering to Jehovah, every man and woman whose heart prompted them to bring for all manner of work, which Jehovah, by the hand of Moses, had commanded to be done.
30 And Moses said to the children of Israel, See, Jehovah has called by name Bezalcel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of 31 Judah, and he has filled him with the spirit of God, in wisdom, in understanding, and in knowledge, and in all manner of workmanship, 32 and to devise artistic things: to work in gold, and in silver, and in 33 copper, and in cutting of stones, for setting, and in carving of wood, 34 to execute all artistic work; and he has put in his heart to teach, he 35 and Aholiab, the son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan: he has filled them with wisdom of heart, to work all manner of work of the engraver, and of the artificer, and of the embroiderer, in blue, and in purple, in scarlet, and in byssus, and of the weaver, [even] of them that do every kind of work, and of those that devise artistic work.

36 Then wrought Bezalcel and Aholiab, and every man that was wise-hearted, in whom Jehovah had put wisdom and understanding to know how to work all manner of work of the service of the sanctuary—according to all that Jehovah had commanded.
2 And Moses called Bezalcel and Aholiab, and every man that was wise-hearted, in whose heart God had put wisdom, every one whose heart moved him to come to the 3 work to do it. And they took from Moses every heave-offering that the children of Israel had brought for the work of the service of the sanctuary, to make it. And they still brought him voluntary offerings morning by morning.
4 And all the wise men that wrought all the work of the sanctuary came, every man from his work

[c] Strictly, 'veil of the cover,' or 'covering veil:' so xxxix. 34; xl. 21. [d] Lit. 'heaved.'

5 which they wrought, and spoke to Moses, saying, The people bring much more than enough for the service of the work that Jehovah 6 commanded to be done. Then Moses gave commandment, and they caused it to be proclaimed through the camp, saying, Let neither man nor woman make any more work for the heave-offering of the sanctuary! So the people 7 were restrained from bringing; for the work they had was sufficient for all the work to do it, and it was too much.
8 And every wise-hearted man among those that wrought the work of the tabernacle made ten curtains of twined byssus, and blue, and purple, and scarlet: [with] cherubim of artistic work 9 did he make them. The length of one curtain was twenty-eight cubits, and the breadth of one curtain four cubits—one measure for 10 all the curtains. And he coupled five of the curtains one to another, and [the other] five curtains coup-11 led he one to another. And he made loops of blue on the edge of one curtain at the edge of the coupling; he did likewise in the edge of the outermost curtain in 12 the other coupling. He made fifty loops in one curtain, and he made fifty loops at the end of the curtain that was in the other coupling: the loops were opposite to one another.
13 And he made fifty clasps of gold, and coupled the curtains together with the clasps, so that the tabernacle became one.
14 And he made curtains of goats' [hair] for the tent over the tabernacle: eleven curtains did he make 15 them. The length of one curtain was thirty cubits, and four cubits the breadth of one curtain—one measure for the eleven curtains.
16 And he coupled five of the curtains by themselves, and six of the cur-17 tains by themselves. And he made fifty loops on the edge of the outermost curtain in the coupling, and fifty loops made he on the edge of the 18 curtain in the other coupling. And he made fifty clasps of copper to couple the tent, that it might be one.
19 And he made a covering for the tent [of] rams' skins dyed red, and a covering of badgers' skins above [that].
20 And he made the boards for the tabernacle of acacia-wood, stand-21 ing up; ten cubits the length of the boards, and one cubit and a half the breadth of one board; 22 two tenons in one board, connected one with the other: thus did he make for all the boards of the 23 tabernacle. And he made the boards for the tabernacle: twenty boards for the south side south-24 ward; and he made forty bases of silver under the twenty boards, two bases under one board, for its two tenons, and two bases under another board for its two tenons.
25 And for the other side of the tabernacle, on the side toward the north, 26 he made twenty boards, and their forty bases of silver, two bases under one board, and two bases 27 under another board. And at the rear of the tabernacle, westward, 28 he made six boards; and he made two boards for the corners of the 29 tabernacle at the rear; and they were joined beneath, and were coupled together at the top thereof into [e] one ring: thus he did to both of them in both the corners; 30 and there were eight boards, and their silver bases: sixteen bases, under every board two bases.— 31 And he made bars of acacia-wood: five for the boards of the one side 32 of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the other side of the tabernacle, and five bars for the boards of the tabernacle at the rear, 33 westward. And he made the middle bar in the midst of the boards reach 34 from one end to the other. And he overlaid the boards with gold; and made their rings of gold [as] receptacles for the bars; and overlaid the bars with gold.
35 And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined byssus: of artistic work he made 36 it [with] cherubim. And he made four pillars of acacia [wood] for it, and overlaid them with gold; their hooks were of gold; and he cast for them four bases of silver.
37 And he made a curtain for the entrance of the tent of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined 38 byssus, of embroidery; and its five pillars with their hooks; and he overlaid their capitals and their connecting-rods with gold; and their five bases were of copper.

37 And Bezaleel made the ark of acacia-wood; two cubits and a half the length thereof, and a cubit and a half the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the 2 height thereof. And he overlaid it with pure gold inside and outside, and made a border of gold

[e] Or 'to.'

upon it round about. And he cast for it four rings of gold, for its four corners: two rings on the one side of it, and two rings on the other side of it. And he made staves of acacia-wood and overlaid them with gold. And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the ark, to carry the ark.—And he made a mercy-seat of pure gold; two cubits and a half the length thereof, and one cubit and a half the breadth thereof. And he made two cherubim of gold; of beaten work did he make them, at the two ends of the mercy-seat; one cherub at the end of one side, and one cherub at the end of the other side; out of the mercy-seat he made the two cherubim at the two ends thereof. And the cherubim spread out [their] wings over it, covering over with their wings the mercy-seat; and their faces were opposite to one another: the faces of the cherubim were [turned] toward the mercy-seat.

And he made the table of acacia-wood; two cubits the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, and a cubit and a half the height thereof. And he overlaid it with pure gold, and made upon it a border of gold round about. And he made for it a margin of a hand-breadth round about; and made a border of gold for the margin thereof round about. And he cast for it four rings of gold, and put the rings on the four corners that were on the four feet thereof.
Close to the margin were the rings, as receptacles of the staves to carry the table. And he made the staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with gold, to carry the table.
And he made the utensils that were on[f] the table, the dishes thereof, and the cups thereof, and the bowls thereof, and the goblets with which to pour out, of pure gold.

And he made the candlestick[g] of pure gold; [of] beaten work he made the candlestick: its base, and its shaft, its cups, its knobs, and its flowers were of itself. And six branches went out of the sides thereof—three branches of the candlestick out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlestick out of the other side thereof; [there were] three cups shaped like almonds[h] in the one branch, a knob and a flower; and three cups shaped like almonds in the other branch, a knob and a flower: so in the six branches which went out of the candlestick.
And in the candlestick were four cups, shaped like almonds, its knobs, and its flowers; and a knob under two branches thereof, and [again] a knob under two branches thereof, and [again] a knob under two branches thereof, for the six branches which went out of it.
Their knobs and their branches were of itself—all of one beaten work of pure gold. And he made the seven lamps thereof, and the snuffers thereof, and the snuff-trays thereof, of pure gold. Of a talent of pure gold he made it, and all its utensils.

And he made the altar of incense of acacia-wood; a cubit the length thereof, and a cubit the breadth thereof, square, and two cubits the height thereof: its horns were of itself. And he overlaid it with pure gold, the top thereof, and the sides thereof round about, and the horns thereof; and made upon it a border of gold round about. And he made two rings of gold for it under its border, by its two corners, on the two sides thereof, as receptacles for the staves with which to carry it.
And he made the staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with gold.

And he made the holy anointing oil, and the pure incense of fragrant drugs, according to the work of the perfumer.

38 And he made the altar of burnt-offering of acacia-wood; five cubits the length thereof, and five cubits the breadth thereof, square, and three cubits the height thereof. And he made its horns on the four corners thereof; its horns were of itself; and he overlaid it with copper. And he made all the utensils of the altar: the pots, and the shovels, and the bowls, the forks, and the firepans; all its utensils made he of copper.
And he made for the altar a grating of network of copper under its ledge from beneath, to the very middle of it. And he cast four rings for the four corners of the grating of copper, as receptacles for the staves. And he made the staves of acacia-wood, and overlaid them with copper. And he put the staves into the rings on the sides of the altar, with which to carry it.
Hollow with boards did he make it.

[f] Or 'for.' [g] Or 'lamp-stand,' and so in all the passage. [h] Or 'almond-flowers,' and so elsewhere.

8 And he made the laver of copper, and its stand of copper, of the mirrors of the crowds of women who crowded before the entrance of the tent of meeting.
9 And he made the court. On the south side southward, the hangings of the court were of twined byssus, 10 a hundred cubits; their pillars twenty, and their bases twenty, of copper; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting-rods of silver.
11 And on the north side, a hundred cubits; their pillars twenty, and their bases twenty, of copper; the hooks of the pillars and their con-12 necting-rods of silver. And on the west side, hangings of fifty cubits; their pillars ten, and their bases ten; the hooks of the pillars and their connecting-rods of silver.
13 And for the east side, eastward, 14 fifty cubits; the hangings on the one wing of fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their bases three;
15 and on the other wing, on this side as on that side of the gate of the court, hangings of fifteen cubits, their pillars three, and their bases 16 three. All the hangings of the court round about were of twined 17 byssus; and the bases of the pillars of copper, the hooks of the pillars and their connecting-rods of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals of silver; and all the pillars of the court were fastened together with [rods of] silver.—
18 And the curtain of the gate of the court was of embroidery of blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined byssus; and the length was twenty cubits, and the height like the breadth, five cubits, just as the 19 hangings of the court; and their pillars four, and their bases four, of copper; their hooks of silver, and the overlaying of their capitals and their connecting-rods of 20 silver. And all the pegs for the tabernacle and for the court round about were of copper.
21 These are the things numbered of the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the testimony, which were counted, according to the commandment of Moses, by the service of the Levites, under the hand of Ithamar, son of Aaron the 22 priest. And Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made all that Jehovah 23 had commanded Moses; and with him Aholiab, son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, an engraver and artificer, and an embroiderer in blue, and in purple, and in scarlet, 24 and in byssus. All the gold that it took for the work in all the work of the sanctuary—the gold of the wave-offering, was twenty-nine talents, and seven hundred and thirty shekels, according to the 25 shekel of the sanctuary. And the silver of them that were numbered of the assembly was a hundred talents, and a thousand seven hundred and seventy-five shekels, according to the shekel of the sanc-
26 tuary: a bekah the head—half a shekel, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, for every one that passed the numbering from twenty years old and upward, [of] the six hundred and three thousand five 27 hundred and fifty. And there were a hundred talents of silver for casting the bases of the sanctuary, and the bases of the veil; a hundred bases of a hundred ta-28 lents, a talent for a base. And of the thousand seven hundred and seventy-five [shekels] he made the hooks for the pillars, and overlaid their capitals, and fastened them 29 [with rods]. And the copper of the wave-offering was seventy talents, and two thousand four 30 hundred shekels. And he made with it the bases for the entrance of the tent of meeting, and the copper altar, and the copper grating for it, and all the utensils of 31 the altar. And the bases of the court round about, and the bases of the gate of the court, and all the pegs of the tabernacle, and all the pegs of the court round about.

39 And of the blue and purple and scarlet they made garments of service, for service in the sanctuary, and made the holy garments for Aaron; as Jehovah had 2 commanded Moses. And he made the ephod of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined byssus.
3 And they beat the gold into thin plates, and cut it [into] wires, to work it artistically into the blue, and into the purple, and into the 4 scarlet, and into the byssus. They made shoulder-pieces for it, joining it: at its two ends was it 5 joined together. And the girdle of his ephod, which was on it, was of the same, according to its work, of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined byssus; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
6 And they wrought the onyx stones mounted in[i] enclosures of gold,

[i] Or 'surrounded by.'

engraved with the engravings of a seal, according to the names of 7 the sons of Israel. And he put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, [as] stones of memorial for the children of Israel; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
8 And he made the breastplate of artistic work, like the work of the ephod, of gold, blue, and purple, and scarlet, and twined byssus.
9 It was square; double did they make the breastplate, a span the length thereof, and a span the 10 breadth thereof, doubled. And they set in it four rows of stones: [one] row, a sardoin, a topaz, and 11 an emerald—the first row; and the second row, a carbuncle, a 12 sapphire, and a diamond; and the third row, an opal, an agate, and 13 an amethyst; and the fourth row, a chrysolite, an onyx, and a jasper; mounted in[j] enclosures of gold in 14 their settings. And the stones were according to the names of the children of Israel, twelve, according to their names, engraved as a seal, every one according to his 15 name, for the twelve tribes. And they made on the breastplate chains of laced work of wreathen 16 work, of pure gold. And they made two settings[k] of gold, and two gold rings, and put the two rings on the two ends of the breast-17 plate. And they put the two wreathen [cords] of gold in the two rings on the ends of the breast-18 plate; and the two ends of the two wreathen [cords] they fastened to the two settings,[k] and put them on the shoulder-pieces of the ephod, 19 on the front thereof. And they made two rings of gold, and put [them] on the two ends of the breastplate, on the border thereof, which faceth the ephod inwards.
20 And they made two rings of gold, and put them upon the two shoulder-pieces of the ephod underneath, to the front thereof, just by the coupling thereof, above the girdle 21 of the ephod. And they bound the breastplate with its rings to the rings of the ephod with lace of blue, that it might be above the girdle of the ephod, and that the breastplate might not be loosed from the ephod; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
22 And he made the cloak of the ephod of woven work, all of blue; 23 and the opening of the cloak in its middle, as the opening of a coat of mail; a binding was round about the opening, that it should 24 not rend. And they made on the skirts of the cloak pomegranates of blue and purple and scarlet, 25 twined. And they made bells of pure gold, and put the bells between the pomegranates, in the skirts of the cloak, round about, 26 between the pomegranates: a bell and a pomegranate, a bell and a pomegranate, in the skirts of the cloak round about, for service; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
27 And they made the vests of byssus of woven work, for Aaron, 28 and for his sons; and the turban of byssus; and the ornamental caps, of byssus; and the linen 29 trousers, of twined byssus; and the girdle, of twined byssus, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, of embroidery; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
30 And they made the thin plate, the holy diadem, of pure gold, and wrote on it with the writing of the engravings of a seal, Holiness to 31 Jehovah! And they fastened to it a lace of blue, to fasten [it] on the turban above; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
32 And all the labour of the tabernacle of the tent of meeting was ended; and the children of Israel had done [it] according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses—33 so had they done [it]. And they brought the tabernacle to Moses—the tent, and all its utensils, its 34 clasps, its boards, its bars, and its pillars, and its bases; and the covering of rams' skins dyed red, and the covering of badgers' skins, 35 and the veil of separation; the ark of the testimony, and its staves, 36 and the mercy-seat; the table, all its utensils, and the shewbread; 37 the pure candlestick,[l] its lamps, the lamps set in order, and all its utensils, and the oil for the light;
38 and the golden altar, and the anointing oil, and the incense of fragrant drugs; and the curtain 39 for the entrance of the tent; the copper altar, and the copper grating that was for it, its staves and all its utensils; the laver and its 40 stand; the hangings of the court, its pillars, and its bases; and the curtain for the gate of the court, its cords, and its pegs; and all the vessels of service of the tabernacle, 41 for the tent of meeting; the garments of service, for service in the sanctuary; the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and his sons' 42 garments, to serve as priests. According to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so had the children of Israel done all the labour. 43 And Moses saw all the work, and behold, they had done it as Jehovah had commanded—so had they done [it]; and Moses blessed them.

40 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 On the day of the first month, on the first of the month, shalt thou set up the tabernacle 3 of the tent of meeting. And thou shalt put in it the ark of the testimony, and shalt cover the ark with 4 the veil. And thou shalt bring in the table, and set in order the things that are to be set in order upon it.[m] And thou shalt bring in the candlestick[n] and light its 5 lamps. And thou shalt set the golden altar for the incense before the ark of the testimony; and hang up the curtain of the entrance 6 to the tabernacle. And thou shalt set the altar of burnt-offering before the entrance of the tabernacle 7 of the tent of meeting. And thou shalt set the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar, and 8 shalt put water in it. And thou shalt fix the court round about, and hang up the curtain at the gate of the court.

9 And thou shalt take the anointing oil, and anoint the tabernacle, and all that is in it, and shalt hallow it, and all its utensils; and it 10 shall be holy. And thou shalt anoint the altar of burnt-offering, and all its utensils; and thou shalt hallow the altar, and the altar shall 11 be most holy. And thou shalt anoint the laver and its stand, and 12 hallow it. And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sons near, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, 13 and bathe them with water. And thou shalt clothe Aaron with the holy garments, and anoint him, and hallow him, that he may serve 14 me as priest. And thou shalt bring his sons near, and clothe them with 15 vests. And thou shalt anoint them, as thou didst anoint their father, that they may serve me as priests. And their anointing shall be to them an everlasting priesthood throughout their generations. 16 And Moses did so: as Jehovah had commanded him, so did he.

17 And it came to pass in the first month in the second year, on the first of the month, that the taber- 18 nacle was set up. And Moses set up the tabernacle, and put in its bases, and fixed its boards, and put in its bars, and set up its 19 pillars. And he spread the tent over the tabernacle, and put the covering of the tent above over it; as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 20 And he took and put the testimony into the ark, and put the staves in the ark, and put the 21 mercy-seat above on the ark. And he brought the ark into the tabernacle, and hung up the veil of separation, and covered the ark of the testimony; as Jehovah had 22 commanded Moses. And he put the table in the tent of meeting, on the side of the tabernacle north- 23 ward, outside the veil, and arranged the bread in order upon it[o] before Jehovah; as Jehovah 24 had commanded Moses. And he put the candlestick[n] in the tent of meeting, opposite to the table, on the side of the tabernacle south- 25 ward. And he lighted the lamps before Jehovah; as Jehovah had 26 commanded Moses. And he put the golden altar in the tent of 27 meeting before the veil. And he burnt on it fragrant incense; as Jehovah had commanded Moses. 28 And he hung up the curtain of the 29 entrance to the tabernacle. And he put the altar of burnt-offering at the entrance to the tabernacle of the tent of meeting, and offered on it the burnt-offering and the oblation; as Jehovah had com- 30 manded Moses. And he set the laver between the tent of meeting and the altar, and put water in it 31 for washing. And Moses and Aaron and his sons washed their 32 hands and their feet out of it: when they went into the tent of meeting, and when they drew near to the altar, they washed; as Jehovah 33 had commanded Moses. And he set up the court round about the tabernacle and the altar, and hung up the curtain of the gate of the court. And so Moses finished the work.

34 And the cloud covered the tent of meeting, and the glory of Jeho- 35 vah filled the tabernacle. And Moses could not enter into the tent of meeting, for the cloud abode on it, and the glory of Jehovah filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloud was taken up from over the tabernacle, the children of Israel journeyed in all

37 their journeys. And if the cloud were not taken up, then they did not journey until the day that it was 38 taken up. For the cloud of Jehovah was on the tabernacle by day, and fire was in it by night, before the eyes of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

THE THIRD BOOK OF MOSES

LEVITICUS

1 And Jehovah called to Moses and spoke to him out of the tent 2 of meeting, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them, When any man of you presenteth an offering[a] to Jehovah, ye shall present your offering of the cattle, of the herd and of the 3 flock. If his offering be a burnt-offering of the herd, he shall present it a male without blemish:[b] at the entrance of the tent of meeting shall he present it, for his 4 acceptance before Jehovah. And he shall lay[c] his hand on the head of the burnt-offering; and it shall be accepted for him to make atone-5 ment for him. And he shall slaughter[d] the bullock[e] before Jehovah; and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall present the blood and sprinkle the blood round about on the altar that is at the entrance 6 of the tent of meeting. And he shall flay the burnt-offering, and 7 cut it up into its pieces. And the sons of Aaron the priest shall put fire on the altar, and lay wood in 8 order on the fire; and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall lay the pieces, the head, and the fat,[f] in order on the wood that is on the 9 fire which is on the altar; but its inwards and its legs shall he wash in water; and the priest shall burn[g] all on the altar, a burnt-offering, an offering by fire to Jehovah of a sweet odour.[h]
10 And if his offering be of the flock, of the sheep or of the goats, for a burnt-offering, he shall present it a male without blemish.
11 And he shall slaughter it on the side of the altar northward before Jehovah; and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle its blood on 12 the altar round about. And he shall cut it into its pieces, and its head, and its fat; and the priest shall lay them in order on the wood that is on the fire which is on the 13 altar; but the inwards and the legs shall he wash with water; and the priest shall present [it] all, and burn [it] on the altar: it is a burnt-offering, an offering by fire to Jehovah of a sweet odour.
14 And if his offering to Jehovah be a burnt-offering of fowls, then he shall present his offering of turtle-doves, or of young pigeons.
15 And the priest shall bring it near to the altar and pinch off its head and burn it on the altar; and its blood shall be pressed out at the 16 side of the altar. And he shall remove its crop with its feathers,[i] and cast it beside the altar on the east, into the place of the ashes;[j] 17 and he shall split it open at its wings, [but] shall not divide [it] asunder; and the priest shall burn it on the altar on the wood that is on the fire: it is a burnt-offering, an offering by fire to Jehovah of a sweet odour.

2 And when any one will present an oblation[k] to Jehovah, his offering shall be of fine flour;[l] and he 2 shall pour oil on it, and put frankincense thereon. And he shall bring it to Aaron's sons, the priests; and he shall take thereout his handful of the flour thereof, and of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof; and the [d] Or 'kill,' and so elsewhere. [e] Or 'calf.' [f] חֵלֶב, only used of the burnt-offering; so ver. 12 and chap. viii. 20. [g] Properly 'burn as incense,' but applied also to the burnt-offering and to the fat; see on Exo. xxix. 13, and cf. vers. 13, 15, 17; ii. 2, 11, 16; iii. 5, 16. [h] Or 'offering by fire of a sweet odour to Jehovah;' and so in each case where this formula is found. But see iv. 31. [i] Or 'refuse.' [j] The word is used for fat, but the remains of what was burnt, fat and ashes and all, were thrown aside. [k] Minchah, 'gift,' 'food-offering.' 'Oblation' will always represent this word. priest shall burn [m] the memorial thereof on the altar, an offering by fire to Jehovah of a sweet odour.

3 And the remainder of the oblation shall be Aaron's and his sons': [it is] most holy of Jehovah's offerings by fire.
4 And if thou present an offering of an oblation baken in the oven, it shall be unleavened cakes [n] of fine flour mingled [o] with oil, or unleavened wafers anointed with 5 oil. And if thine offering be an oblation [baken] on the pan, it shall be fine flour unleavened, 6 mingled with oil. Thou shalt part it in pieces, and pour oil thereon: it 7 is an oblation. And if thine offering be an oblation [prepared] in the cauldron, it shall be made of 8 fine flour with oil. And thou shalt bring the oblation that is made of these things to Jehovah; and it shall be presented to the priest, and he shall bring it to the altar.
9 And the priest shall take [p] from the oblation a memorial thereof, and shall burn it on the altar, an offering by fire to Jehovah of a 10 sweet odour. And the remainder of the oblation [shall be] Aaron's and his sons': [it is] most holy of Jehovah's offerings by fire.
11 No oblation which ye shall present to Jehovah shall be made with leaven; for no leaven and no honey shall ye burn [m] [in] any fire-12 offering to Jehovah. As to the offering [q] of the first-fruits, ye shall present them to Jehovah; but they shall not be offered [r] upon the 13 altar for a sweet odour. And every offering of thine oblation shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thine oblation: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer [s] salt.
14 And if thou present an oblation of thy first-fruits to Jehovah, thou shalt present as the oblation of thy first-fruits green ears of corn roasted in fire, corn beaten out of 15 full ears. [t] And thou shalt put oil on it, and lay frankincense thereon:
16 it is an oblation. And the priest shall burn the memorial thereof, [part] of the beaten corn thereof, and [part] of the oil thereof, with all the frankincense thereof: [it is] an offering by fire to Jehovah.

3 And if his offering be a sacrifice of peace-offering,—if he present [it] of the herd, whether a male or female, he shall present it without 2 blemish before Jehovah. And he shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and slaughter it at the entrance of the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons, the priests, shall sprinkle the blood on the altar 3 round about. And he shall present of the sacrifice of peace-offering an offering by fire to Jehovah; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is on the in-4 wards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the net above the liver which he shall take away as 5 far as the kidneys; and Aaron's sons shall burn it on the altar upon the burnt-offering which [lieth] on the wood that is upon the fire: [it is] an offering by fire to Jehovah of a sweet odour. [u] 6 And if his offering for a sacrifice of peace-offering to Jehovah be of small cattle, male or female, he shall present it without blemish.
7 If he present a sheep for his offering, then shall he present it before 8 Jehovah, and shall lay his hand on the head of his offering, and slaughter it before the tent of meeting; and Aaron's sons shall sprinkle the blood thereof upon the altar round 9 about. And he shall present of the sacrifice of peace-offering an offering by fire to Jehovah; the fat thereof, the whole fat tail, which he shall take off close by the backbone, and the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is 10 on the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the net above the liver which he shall take 11 away as far as the kidneys; and the priest shall burn it on the altar: [it is] the food [v] of the offering by fire to Jehovah.

'Mixed,' 'mingled,' is the sense of the word. In Psa. xcii. 10 (11) it is not merely 'anointed' as consecration, but his whole system is invigorated and strengthened by it: it formed his strength; hence it is 'fresh oil' there. 12 And if his offering be a goat, then he shall present it before 13 Jehovah. And he shall lay his hand on the head of it, and slaughter it before the tent of meeting; and the sons of Aaron shall sprinkle the blood thereof on the altar 14 round about. And he shall present thereof his offering, an offering by fire to Jehovah; the fat that covereth the inwards and all the 15 fat that is on the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the net above the liver which he shall take away as far as the 16 kidneys; and the priest shall burn them on the altar: [it is] the food of the offering by fire for a sweet odour. All the fat [shall be] Jeho-17 vah's. [It is] an everlasting statute for your generations throughout all your dwellings: no fat and no blood shall ye eat.

4 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a soul shall sin through inadvertence against any of the commandments of Jehovah [in things] that ought not to be 3 done, and do any of them; if the priest that is anointed sin according to the trespass of the people; then for his sin which he hath sinned shall he present a young bullock without blemish to Jeho-
4 vah for a sin-offering. And he shall bring the bullock to the entrance of the tent of meeting before Jehovah; and shall lay his hand on the bullock's head, and slaughter 5 the bullock before Jehovah. And the priest that is anointed shall take of the bullock's blood, and bring it into the tent of meeting;
6 and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle of the blood seven times before Jehovah before the veil of the sanctuary;
7 and the priest shall put of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense, which is in the tent of meeting, before Jehovah; and he shall pour all the blood of the bullock at the bottom of the altar of burnt-offering, which is at the entrance of the tent of meeting.
8 And all the fat of the bullock of the sin-offering shall he take off from it; the fat that covereth the inwards, and all the fat that is on 9 the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the net above the liver which he shall take away 10 as far as the kidneys, as it is taken off from the ox of the sacrifice of peace-offering; and the priest shall burn[w] them on the altar of 11 burnt-offering. And the skin of the bullock, and all its flesh, with its head, and with its legs, and its 12 inwards, and its dung, even the whole bullock shall he[x] carry forth outside the camp unto a clean place, where the ashes are poured out,[y] and burn[z] it on wood with fire; where the ashes are poured out shall it be burnt.[z]
13 And if the whole assembly of Israel sin inadvertently, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the congregation, and they do [somewhat against] any of all the commandments of Jehovah [in things] which should not be done, and are 14 guilty; and the sin wherewith they have sinned against it have become known; then the congregation shall present a young bullock for the sin-offering, and shall bring it before the tent of meeting;
15 and the elders of the assembly shall lay their hands on the head of the bullock before Jehovah; and one[a] shall slaughter the bullock before 16 Jehovah. And the priest that is anointed shall bring of the bullock's blood into the tent of meet-17 ing; and the priest shall dip his finger in the blood, and sprinkle it seven times before Jehovah, before 18 the veil; and he shall put of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before Jehovah which is in the tent of meeting; and he shall pour out all the blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt-offering, which is at the entrance of the 19 tent of meeting. And all its fat shall he take off from it and burn 20 on the altar. And he shall do with the bullock as he did with the bullock of sin-offering: so shall he do with it. And the priest shall make atonement for them; and it 21 shall be forgiven them. And he shall carry forth the bullock outside the camp, and burn[z] it as he burned the first bullock: it is a sin-offering of the congregation.

I do not know that it is more precise in vers. 4 and 24. It has interest in respect of the point where self-offering and mediatorial work begins. mandments of Jehovah his God [in things] which should not be done, 23 and is guilty; if his sin, wherein he hath sinned, come to his knowledge, he shall bring his offering, a buck of the goats, a male without 24 blemish. And he shall lay his hand on the head of the goat, and slaughter it at the place where they slaughter the burnt-offering before Jehovah: it is a sin-offer-25 ing. And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger, and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out its blood at the bottom of the altar of burnt-offer-26 ing. And he shall burn all its fat on the altar, as the fat of the sacrifice of peace-offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him [to cleanse him] from his sin, and it shall be forgiven him.
27 And if any one[c] of the people of the land sin through inadvertence, that he do [somewhat against] any of the commandments of Jehovah [in things] which should not be 28 done, and be guilty; if his sin, which he hath sinned, come to his knowledge, then he shall bring his offering, a goat, a female without blemish, for his sin which he hath 29 sinned. And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin-offering, and slaughter the sin-offering at the 30 place of the burnt-offering. And the priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put [it] on the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof at the bottom of the 31 altar. And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat is taken away from off the sacrifice of peace-offering; and the priest shall burn it on the altar, for a sweet odour to Jehovah; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and it shall be forgiven him.
32 And if he bring a sheep for his offering[d] for sin, a female without 33 blemish shall he bring it. And he shall lay his hand on the head of the sin-offering, and slaughter it for a sin-offering at the place where they slaughter the burnt-offering.
34 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin-offering with his finger, and put [it] on the horns of the altar of burnt-offering, and shall pour out all the blood thereof 35 at the bottom of the altar. And he shall take away all the fat thereof, as the fat of the lamb is taken away from the sacrifice of peace-offering; and the priest shall burn them on the altar, with Jehovah's offerings by fire; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.

5 And if any one sin, and hear the voice of adjuration,[e] and he[f] is a witness whether he hath seen or known [it], if he do not give information, then he shall bear his 2 iniquity. Or if any one touch any unclean thing, whether it be the carcase of an unclean beast, or the carcase of unclean cattle, or the carcase of an unclean crawling thing, and it be hid from him,—he 3 also is unclean and guilty; or if he touch the uncleanness of man, any uncleanness of him by which he is defiled, and it be hid from him, when he knoweth [it], then he is 4 guilty.[g] Or if any one swear, talking rashly with the lips, to do evil or to do good, in everything that a man shall say rashly with an oath, and it be hid from him, when he knoweth [it], then is he guilty in 5 one of these. And it shall be, when he shall be guilty in one of these, that he shall confess wherein 6 he hath sinned; and he shall bring his trespass-offering to Jehovah for his sin which he hath sinned, a female from the small cattle, a sheep or doe goat, for a sin-offering; and the priest shall make atonement[h] for him [to cleanse him] from his sin.
7 And if his hand be not able to bring what is so much as a sheep, then he shall bring for his trespass which he hath sinned two turtle-doves or two young pigeons, to Jehovah; one for a sin-offering,

[c] Lit. 'one soul.' [d] Here Corban, as vers. 23, 28; v. 11: see note to chap. i. 2.
[e] Cf. Matt. xxvi. 63. [f] The ו before הוּא has the force of 'because he is a witness,' practically. [g] אשם is guilty as regards one we are responsible to,—here God of course. חטא, 'sin,' is departure from the right. [h] Here is seen the use of כפר. It is a thing done for men towards God. It is not 'sprinkling,' 'washing,' nor exactly 'propitiation,' though that be nearer; but there was guilt on the man, a moral offensiveness which had to be removed out of God's sight. So it was in the offering. It was really bringing his trespass to God in the offering, but in the way of a given atonement for it, by entering into it as his. In ver. 7 it is lit. 'he shall bring his trespass [offering] which he hath sinned.' For the burnt-offering, which was also כפר, see chap. i.

and the other for a burnt-offering.
8 And he shall bring them unto the priest, who shall present that which is for the sin-offering first, and pinch off his head at the neck, but 9 shall not divide it; and he shall sprinkle of the blood of the sin-offering on the wall of the altar; and the rest of the blood shall be wrung out at the bottom of the 10 altar: it is a sin-offering. And he shall offer the other for a burnt-offering, according to the ordinance. And the priest shall make atonement for him [to cleanse him] from his sin which he hath sinned, and it shall be forgiven him.
11 But if his hand cannot attain to two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, then he that sinned shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for a sin-offering: he shall put no oil on it, neither shall he put frankincense thereon; for it is a sin-12 offering. And he shall bring it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handful of it, the memorial thereof, and burn it on the altar, with Jehovah's offerings by fire: 13 it is a sin-offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his sin which he hath sinned in one of these, and it shall be forgiven him; and it shall be the priest's, as the oblation.
14 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 15 saying, If any one act unfaithfully and sin through inadvertence in the holy things of Jehovah, then he shall bring his trespass-offering to Jehovah, a ram without blemish out of the small cattle, according to thy valuation by shekels of silver, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, for a trespass-offer-16 ing. And he shall make restitution for the wrong that he hath done in [i] the holy things, and shall add the fifth part thereto, and shall give it unto the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering, and it shall be forgiven him.
17 And if any one sin and do against any of all the commandments of Jehovah what should not be done, and hath not known [it], yet is he guilty, and shall bear his 18 iniquity. And he shall bring a ram without blemish out of the small cattle, according to thy valuation, as trespass-offering, [j] unto the priest; and the priest shall make atonement for him concerning his inadvertence wherein he sinned inadvertently, and knew [it] not, and it shall be forgiven 19 him. It is a trespass-offering: he hath certainly trespassed against Jehovah.
20 [k] And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 21 saying, If any one sin and act un-faithfully against Jehovah, and lie to his neighbour as to an intrusted thing or a deposit or [that in which] he hath robbed or wronged [l] 22 his neighbour, or have found what was lost, and denieth it, and sweareth falsely in anything of all that 23 man doeth, sinning therein; then it shall be, if he hath sinned and transgressed, that he shall restore what he robbed or that in which he hath defrauded, or the deposit, or the lost thing which he found, 24 or all that about which he hath sworn falsely; and he shall restore it in the principal and shall add the fifth part more thereto; to [him to] whom it belongeth shall he give it, on the day of his tres-25 pass-offering. And his trespass-offering shall he bring to Jehovah, a ram without blemish out of the small cattle according to thy valuation, as a trespass-offering, unto 26 the priest. And the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah, and it shall be forgiven him concerning anything of all that he hath done so as to trespass therein.

6 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Command Aaron and his sons, saying, This is the law of the burnt-offering; this, the burnt-offering, shall be on the hearth [m] on the altar all night unto the morning, and the fire of the altar 3 shall be kept burning on it. And the priest shall put on his linen raiment, and his linen breeches shall he put on his flesh, and take up the ashes [n] to which the fire hath consumed the burnt-offering on the altar, and he shall put them 4 beside the altar. And he shall put off his garments, and put on other garments, and carry forth the ashes without the camp unto a

[i] Lit. 'from.' [j] Or 'according to thy valuation of the trespass.' [k] In A.V. chap. vi commences here. [l] LXX: 'injured.' [m] Or 'because of the burning.' The LXX and ancient versions generally, more or less precisely, give 'burning;' the modern lexicographers, 'place of burning.' In the latter case, עַל must be taken as 'upon the place (or mass) of burning (stuff) on the altar all the night.' Montfaucon gives 'super ustionem.' The sense would be the same: 'the burnt-offering on the burning pile (or place) on the altar,' &c. It is the only place in which the word is found. [n] See i. 16.

clean place. And the fire upon the altar shall be kept burning on it: it shall not be put out; and the priest shall burn wood on it every morning, and lay the burnt-offering in order upon it; and he shall burn thereon the fat of the peace-offerings. A continual fire shall be kept burning on the altar: it shall never go out.

And this is the law of the oblation: [one of] the sons of Aaron shall present it before Jehovah, before the altar. And he shall take[o] of it his handful of the fine flour of the oblation, and of the oil thereof, and all the frankincense which is on the meat-offering, and shall burn [it] on the altar: [it is] a sweet odour of the memorial thereof to Jehovah. And the remainder thereof shall Aaron and his sons eat: unleavened shall it be eaten in a holy place; in the court of the tent of meeting shall they eat it. It shall not be baken with leaven. As their portion have I given it [unto them] of my offerings by fire: it is most holy; as the sin-offering, and as the trespass-offering. All the males among the children of Aaron shall eat of it. [It is] an everlasting statute in your generations, [their portion] of Jehovah's offerings by fire: whatever toucheth these shall be holy.

And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, This is the offering[p] of Aaron and of his sons, which they shall present to Jehovah on the day when he is anointed: the tenth part of an ephah of fine flour as a continual oblation, half of it in the morning, and half thereof at night. It shall be prepared in the pan with oil: saturated with oil shalt thou bring it: baken pieces of the oblation shalt thou present [for] a sweet odour to Jehovah. And the priest who is anointed of his sons in his stead shall prepare it: [it is] an everlasting statute; it shall be wholly burned[q] to Jehovah. And every oblation of the priest shall be wholly burned; it shall not be eaten.

And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, Speak unto Aaron and to his sons saying, This is the law of the sin-offering. At the place where the burnt-offering is slaughtered shall the sin-offering be slaughtered before Jehovah: it is most holy. The priest that offereth it for sin shall eat it: in a holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tent of meeting. Everything that toucheth the flesh thereof shall be holy; and if there be splashed of the blood thereof on a garment—that whereon it is sprinkled shalt thou wash in a holy place. And the earthen vessel wherein it hath been sodden shall be broken; and if it have been sodden in a copper pot, it shall be both scoured and rinsed with water. All the males among the priests shall eat thereof: it is most holy. And no sin-offering whereof blood hath been brought to the tent of meeting, to make atonement in[r] the sanctuary, shall be eaten: it shall be burned with fire.

And this is the law of the trespass-offering—it is most holy: in the place where they slaughter the burnt-offering shall they slaughter the trespass-offering; and the blood thereof shall he sprinkle on the altar round about. And he shall present of it all the fat thereof; the fat tail and the fat that covereth the inwards, and the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, which is by the flanks, and the net above the liver, which he shall take away as far as the kidneys. And the priest shall burn them on the altar, an offering by fire to Jehovah: it is a trespass-offering. Every male among the priests shall eat thereof; in a holy place shall it be eaten: it is most holy. As the sin-offering, so is the trespass-offering; [there shall] be one law for them: it shall be the priest's who maketh atonement therewith. And [as to] the priest that presenteth any man's burnt-offering, the skin of the burnt-offering which he hath presented shall be the priest's for himself. And every oblation that is baken in the oven, and all that is prepared in the cauldron and in the pan, shall be the priest's who offereth it; to him it shall belong. And every oblation, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as the other.

And this is the law of the sacrifice of peace-offering, which [a

[o] Or 'heave.' [p] Corban. [q] See on i. 9. [r] As to the force of ב here: the accents, I suppose, make it 'to make propitiation in the sanctuary.' In xvii. 11 we have ב, 'for,' after נפשׁ, but this is, I think, abstract for 'souls,' i.e., in the case, or matter, of souls: 'in souls.'

12 man] shall present to Jehovah. If he present it for a thanksgiving, then he shall present with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes[s] mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and fine flour saturated with 13 oil, cakes[s] mingled with oil. Besides the cakes, he shall present his offering of leavened bread with the sacrifice of his peace-offering 14 of thanksgiving. And of it he shall present one out of the whole[t] offering as a heave-offering to Jehovah; to the priest that sprinkleth the blood of the peace-offering, 15 to him it shall belong. And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offering of thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is presented; he shall not let any of it 16 remain[u] until the morning. And if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or voluntary, it shall be eaten the same day that he presented his sacrifice; on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten; 17 and the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall 18 be burned with fire. And if [any] of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offering be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, it shall not be reckoned to him that hath presented it; it shall be an unclean thing, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear 19 his iniquity. And the flesh that toucheth anything unclean shall not be eaten; it shall be burned with fire. And as to the flesh, all that are clean may eat [the] flesh.
20 But the soul that eateth the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offering which is for Jehovah, having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from his peoples.
21 And if any one touch anything unclean, the uncleanness of man, or unclean beast, or any unclean abomination, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offering, which is for Jehovah, that soul shall be cut off from his peoples.
22 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
23 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, No fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat shall ye eat.
24 But the fat of a dead carcase, and the fat of that which is torn, may be used[v] in any other use; but ye 25 shall in no wise eat it. For whoever eateth the fat of the beast of which men present an offering by fire to Jehovah, the soul that hath eaten shall be cut off from his peo-26 ples. And no blood shall ye eat in any of your dwellings, whether 27 it be of fowl or of cattle. Whatever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, that soul shall be cut off from his peoples.
28 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
29 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that presenteth the sacrifice of his peace-offering to Jehovah shall bring his offering[w] to Jehovah of the sacri-30 fice of his peace-offering. His own hands shall bring Jehovah's offerings by fire, the fat with the breast shall he bring: the breast, that it may be waved as a wave-offering 31 before Jehovah. And the priest shall burn[x] the fat on the altar; and the breast shall be Aaron's and 32 his sons'. And the right shoulder of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings shall ye give as a heave-33 offering unto the priest. He of the sons of Aaron that presenteth the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoul-34 der for [his] part. For the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heave-offering, have I taken of the children of Israel from the sacrifices of their peace-offerings, and have given them unto Aaron the priest and unto his sons from the children of Israel by an everlasting statute.
35 This is [the portion] of the anointing of Aaron and of the anointing of his sons, from Jehovah's offerings by fire, in the day [when] he presented them to serve Jehovah 36 as priests, which Jehovah commanded to be given them by the children of Israel in the day that he anointed them: [it is] an everlasting statute, throughout their generations.
37 This is the law of the burnt-offering, of the oblation, and of the sin-offering, and of the trespass-offering, and of the consecration-offering, and of the sacrifice of 38 peace-offering, which Jehovah commanded Moses in mount Sinai, in the day that he commanded the children of Israel to present their offerings to Jehovah, in the wilderness of Sinai.

8 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
2 saying, Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments and the anointing oil, and the bullock of the sin-offering, and the two rams, and the basket of unleavened

3 [bread]; and gather all the assembly together at the entrance of the 4 tent of meeting. And Moses did as Jehovah had commanded him; and the assembly was collected at 5 the entrance of the tent of meeting. And Moses said to the assembly, This is the thing which Jehovah 6 has commanded to be done. And Moses brought Aaron near, and his sons, and bathed them with 7 water. And he put upon him the vest and girded him with the girdle, and clothed him with the cloak, and put the ephod on him, and he girded him with the girdle of the ephod, and fastened the ephod on 8 him.[y] And he put the breastplate on it, and put on the breastplate 9 the Urim and the Thummim; and he put the turban upon his head; and upon the turban, on the front of it, he put the golden plate, the holy diadem; as Jehovah had 10 commanded Moses. And Moses took the anointing oil, and anointed the tabernacle and all that was 11 in it, and hallowed them. And he sprinkled thereof on the altar seven times, and anointed the altar and all its utensils, and the laver and 12 its stand, to hallow them. And he poured of the anointing oil on Aaron's head, and anointed him, to hallow him.

13 And Moses brought Aaron's sons near and clothed them with the vests, and girded them with the girdles, and bound the high caps on them, as Jehovah had com-14 manded Moses. And he brought near the bullock for the sin-offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the bullock for the sin-offering; and 15 he slaughtered [it], and Moses took the blood, and put [it] on the horns of the altar round about with his finger, and cleansed the altar from sin, and the blood he poured at the bottom of the altar, and hallowed 16 it, making atonement for it. And he took all the fat that was on the inwards, and the net of the liver, and the two kidneys, and their fat, and Moses burned [them] on 17 the altar. And the bullock, and its skin, and its flesh, and its dung he burned with fire outside the camp, as Jehovah had commanded 18 Moses. And he presented the ram of the burnt-offering; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on 19 the head of the ram; and he slaughtered [it]; and Moses sprinkled the blood on the altar round 20 about. And the ram he cut up into its pieces; and Moses burned the head, and the pieces, and the 21 fat; and the inwards and the legs he[z] washed in water; and Moses burned the whole ram on the altar: it was a burnt-offering for a sweet odour, it was an offering by fire to Jehovah; as Jehovah had com-22 manded Moses. And he presented the second ram, the ram of consecration; and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on the head of the 23 ram; and one slaughtered [it]; and Moses took of its blood, and put [it] on the tip of Aaron's right ear, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his 24 right foot; and he brought Aaron's sons near, and Moses put of the blood on the tip of their right ear, and on the thumb of their right hand, and on the great toe of their right foot; and Moses sprinkled the blood upon the altar round 25 about. And he took the fat, and the fat tail, and all the fat that was on the inwards, and the net of the liver, and the two kidneys and their fat, and the right shoul-26 der; and out of the basket of unleavened bread that was before Jehovah he took one unleavened cake, and a cake of oiled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat and upon the right shoul-27 der; and he gave all into Aaron's hands, and into his sons' hands, and waved them as a wave-offer-28 ing[a] before Jehovah. And Moses took them from off their hands, and burned[b] [them] on the altar, over the burnt-offering: they were a consecration-offering[c] for a sweet odour: it was an offering by fire 29 to Jehovah. And Moses took the breast, and waved it as a wave-offering before Jehovah; of the ram of consecration it was Moses' part; as Jehovah had commanded 30 Moses. And Moses took of the anointing oil, and of the blood that was on the altar, and sprinkled [it] on Aaron, on his garments, and on his sons, and on his sons' garments with him; and

[y] Lit. 'ephoded him with it.' Several, as Piscator, I think rightly, refer בו to the ephod. Compare however Exod. xxix. 5. The girdle of the ephod, which had a peculiar name, kheshev, bound the ephod as well as the cloak, which was called the 'cloak of the ephod:' see Exod. xxix. 5, &c. The other girdle was on the vest or shirt. [z] Or 'one.'

hallowed Aaron, his garments, and his sons, and his sons' garments with him.

31 And Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons, Boil the flesh at the entrance of the tent of meeting; and there eat it and the bread that is in the basket of the consecration-offering, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sons shall eat it.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh and of the bread shall ye burn

33 with fire. And ye shall not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting seven days, until the day when the days of your consecration are at an end: for seven days

34 shall ye be consecrated.[d] As he hath done this day, [so] Jehovah hath commanded to do, to make

35 atonement for you. And ye shall abide at the entrance of the tent of meeting day and night seven days, and keep the charge of Jehovah, that ye die not; for so I am 36 commanded. And Aaron and his sons did all things that Jehovah had commanded by the hand of Moses.

9 And it came to pass on the eighth day, [that] Moses called Aaron and his sons, and the elders

2 of Israel, and said to Aaron, Take thee a young calf for a sin-offering, and a ram for a burnt-offering, without blemish, and present

3 [them] before Jehovah; and to the children of Israel shalt thou speak, saying, Take a buck of the goats for a sin-offering, and a calf and a lamb, yearlings, without

4 blemish, for a burnt-offering; and a bullock and a ram for a peace-offering, to sacrifice before Jehovah; and an oblation mingled with oil; for to-day Jehovah will

5 appear to you. And they brought what Moses commanded before the tent of meeting; and all the assembly approached and stood be-

6 fore Jehovah. And Moses said, This is the thing which Jehovah has commanded that ye should do; and the glory of Jehovah shall appear to you.

7 And Moses said unto Aaron, Go to the altar, and offer thy sin-offering, and thy burnt-offering, and make atonement for thyself, and for the people; and offer the offering[e] of the people, and make atonement for them, as Jehovah

8 has commanded. And Aaron went to the altar and slaughtered the calf of the sin-offering which was

9 for himself; and the sons of Aaron presented the blood to him, and he dipped his finger in the blood, and put [it] on the horns of the altar, and poured out the blood at 10 the bottom of the altar. And the fat, and the kidneys, and the net above the liver, of the sin-offering, he burned[f] on the altar, as Jeho-

11 vah had commanded Moses. And the flesh and the skin he burned

12 with fire outside the camp. And he slaughtered the burnt-offering; and Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, which he sprinkled on 13 the altar round about. And they delivered the burnt-offering to him, in the pieces thereof, and the head; and he burned[f] [them] on

14 the altar. And he washed the inwards and the legs, and burned[f] [them] upon the burnt-offering, on 15 the altar. And he presented the people's offering, and took the goat of the sin-offering which was for the people and slaughtered it, and offered it for sin, as the first.

16 And he presented the burnt-offering and offered it according to the 17 ordinance. And he presented the oblation, and took a handful of it, and burned[f] it on the altar, besides the burnt-offering of the 18 morning. And he slaughtered the bullock and the ram of the sacrifice of peace-offering, which was for the people. And Aaron's sons delivered to him the blood, and he sprinkled it on the altar round

19 about; and the pieces of fat of the bullock and of the ram, the fat tail and what covers [the inwards], and the kidneys, and the net of the 20 liver; and they put the pieces of fat on the breast-pieces, and he burned[f] the pieces of fat on the

21 altar; and the breast-pieces and the right shoulder Aaron waved as a wave-offering before Jehovah, as 22 Moses had commanded. And Aaron lifted up his hands toward the people and blessed them, and came down after the offering of the sin-offering, and the burnt-offering, and the peace-offering.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the tent of meeting, and came out and blessed the people; and the glory of Jehovah appeared to all

24 the people. And there went out fire from before Jehovah, and consumed on the altar the burnt-offering, and the pieces of fat; and all the people saw it, and they shouted, and fell on their face.

[d] Lit. 'shall your hands be filled:' so xvi. 32, xxi. 10; cf. ix. 17, 'took a handful.'
[e] Corban. [f] See on i. 9.

10 And the sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, took each of them his censer, and put fire in it, and put incense on it, and presented strange fire before Jehovah, which 2 he had not commanded them. And there went out fire from before Jehovah, and devoured them, and 3 they died before Jehovah. And Moses said to Aaron, This is what Jehovah spoke, saying, I will be hallowed in them that come near me, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aaron was silent. 4 And Moses called Mishael and Elzaphan, the sons of Uzziel the uncle of Aaron, and said to them, Come near, carry your brethren from before the sanctuary out of 5 the camp. And they went near, and carried them in their vests out of the camp, as Moses had said. 6 And Moses said to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar his sons, Your heads shall ye not uncover, neither rend your clothes; lest ye die, and lest wrath come on all the assembly; but your brethren, the whole house of Israel, shall bewail the burning which Jehovah hath 7 kindled. And ye shall not go out from the entrance of the tent of meeting, lest ye die; for the anointing oil of Jehovah is upon you. And they did according to the word of Moses.

8 And Jehovah spoke to Aaron, 9 saying, Thou shalt not drink wine nor strong drink, thou, and thy sons with thee, when ye go into the tent of meeting, lest ye die—[it is] an everlasting statute 10 throughout your generations, that ye may put difference between the holy and the unholy, and between 11 unclean and clean, and that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which Jehovah hath spoken to them by the hand of Moses.

12 And Moses spoke to Aaron, and to Eleazar and to Ithamar, his sons that were left, Take the oblation that is left of Jehovah's offerings by fire, and eat it with unleavened bread beside the altar; 13 for it is most holy. And ye shall eat it in a holy place, because it is thy due, and thy sons' due, of Jehovah's offerings by fire; for so 14 I am commanded. And the breast of the wave-offering, and the shoulder of the heave-offering shall ye eat in a clean place, thou, and thy sons, and thy daughters with thee; for [as] thy due, and thy sons' due, are they given of the sacrifices of peace-offerings of the 15 children of Israel. The shoulder of the heave-offering and the breast of the wave-offering shall they bring, with the fire-offering of the pieces of fat, to wave [them] as a wave-offering before Jehovah; and they shall be thine, and thy sons' with thee, for an everlasting statute, as Jehovah has commanded.

16 And Moses diligently sought the goat of the sin-offering, and behold, it was burnt up: then he was wroth with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sons of Aaron that were left, 17 saying, Why have ye not eaten the sin-offering in a holy place? for it is most holy, and he has given it to you that ye might bear the iniquity of the assembly, to make atonement for them before Jeho- 18 vah. Lo, its blood was not brought in within the sanctuary: ye should certainly have eaten it in the sanc- 19 tuary, as I commanded. And Aaron said to Moses, Behold, today have they presented their sin-offering and their burnt-offering before Jehovah; and such things have befallen me; and had I today eaten the sin-offering, would it have been good in the sight of 20 Jehovah? And Moses heard it; and it was good in his sight.

11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying to them, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, These are the animals which ye shall eat of all the beasts 3 which are on the earth. Whatever hath cloven hoofs, and feet quite split open, and cheweth a the cud, among the beasts—that shall ye 4 eat. Only these shall ye not eat of those that chew the cud, or of those with cloven hoofs: the camel, for it cheweth the cud, but hath not cloven hoofs—it shall be un- 5 clean unto you; and the rock-badger, for it cheweth the cud, but hath not cloven hoofs—it shall 6 be unclean unto you; and the hare, for it cheweth the cud, but hath not cloven hoofs—it shall be 7 unclean unto you; and the swine, for it hath cloven hoofs, and feet quite split open, but it cheweth not the cud—it shall be unclean unto 8 you. Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch: they shall be unclean unto you.

9 These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatever hath fins and scales in waters, in seas and in a Lit. 'bringeth up.'

10 rivers, these shall ye eat; but all that have not fins and scales in seas and in rivers, of all that swarm in the waters, and of every living soul which is in the waters—they shall be an abomination unto 11 you. They shall be even an abomination unto you: of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase ye shall have in abomination.
12 Whatever in the waters hath no fins and scales, that shall be an abomination unto you.
13 And these shall ye have in abomination of the fowls; they shall not be eaten; an abomination shall they be: the eagle, and the ossifrage, and the sea-eagle,[h] 14 and the falcon, and the kite, after 15 its kind; every raven after its 16 kind; and the female ostrich and the male ostrich, and the sea-gull, 17 and the hawk, after its kind; and the owl, and the gannet, and the 18 ibis, and the swan,[i] and the peli-19 can, and the carrion vulture, and the stork; the heron after its kind, and the hoopoe, and the bat.
20 Every winged crawling thing that goeth upon all four shall be an 21 abomination unto you. Yet these shall ye eat of every winged crawling[k] thing that goeth upon all four: those which have legs above their feet with which to leap upon 22 the earth. These shall ye eat of them: the arbeh after its kind, and the solam after its kind, and the hargol after its kind, and the 23 hargab after its kind.[l] But every winged crawling[k] thing that hath four feet shall be an abomination 24 unto you. And by these ye shall make yourselves unclean; whoever toucheth their carcase shall 25 be unclean until the even. And whoever carrieth [ought] of their carcase shall wash his garments,
and be unclean until the even.
26 Every beast that hath cloven hoofs, but not feet quite split open, nor cheweth[m] the cud, shall be unclean unto you: every one that touch-27 eth them shall be unclean. And whatever goeth on its paws, among all manner of beasts that go upon all four, those are unclean unto you: whoever toucheth their carcase shall be unclean until the 28 even. And he that carrieth their carcase shall wash his garments,
and be unclean until the even:
they shall be unclean unto you.

29 And these shall be unclean unto you among the crawling things which crawl[k] on the earth: the mole, and the field-mouse, and 30 the lizard, after its kind; and the groaning lizard, and the great red lizard, and the climbing lizard, and the chomet,[n] and the chameleon.
31 These shall be unclean unto you among all that crawl: whoever toucheth them when they are dead, shall be unclean until the 32 even. And on whatever any of them when they are dead doth fall, it shall be unclean; all vessels of wood, or garment, or skin, or sack, every vessel wherewith work is done—it shall be put into water,
and be unclean until the even; 33 then shall it be clean. And every earthen vessel into which [any] of them falleth—whatever is in it shall be unclean; and ye shall 34 break it. All food that is eaten on which [such] water hath come shall be unclean; and all drink that is drunk shall be unclean, in 35 every [such] vessel. And everything whereupon [any part] of their carcase falleth shall be unclean; oven and hearth shall be broken down: they are unclean, and shall be unclean unto you.
36 Nevertheless, a spring or a well, a quantity of water, shall be clean.
But he that toucheth their carcase 37 shall be unclean. And if any part of their carcase fall upon any sowing-seed which is to be sown, it 38 shall be clean; but if water have been put on the seed, and any part of their carcase fall thereon, 39 it shall be unclean unto you. And if any beast which is to you for food die, he that toucheth the carcase thereof shall be unclean until 40 the even. And he that eateth of its carcase shall wash his garments, and be unclean until the even: he also that carrieth its carcase shall wash his garments, and be unclean until the even.
41 And every crawling thing which crawleth on the earth shall be an abomination; it shall not be 42 eaten. Whatever goeth on the belly, and whatever goeth on all four, and all that have a great many feet, of every manner of crawling thing which crawleth on the earth—these ye shall not eat; 43 for they are an abomination. Ye shall not make yourselves abominable through any crawling thing which crawleth, neither shall ye make yourselves[o] unclean with them, that ye should be defiled 44 thereby. For I am Jehovah your God; and ye shall hallow yourselves, and ye shall be holy; for I am holy; and ye shall not make yourselves unclean through any manner of crawling thing which 45 creepeth on the earth. For I am Jehovah who brought you up out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: ye shall therefore be holy, for I am holy.

46 This is the law of cattle, and of fowl, and of every living soul that moveth in the waters, and of every 47 soul that crawleth on the earth; to make a difference between the unclean and the clean, and between the beast that is to be eaten and the beast that is not to be eaten.

12 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If a woman conceive seed, and bear a male, then she shall be unclean seven days; as in the days of the separation of her infirmity shall she be unclean.
3 And on the eighth day shall the flesh of his foreskin be circum-4 cised. And she shall continue thirty-three days in the blood of her cleansing; no holy thing shall she touch, nor come into the sanctuary, until the days of her cleans-5 ing are fulfilled. And if she bear a female, then she shall be unclean two weeks, as in her separation; and she shall continue sixty-six days in the blood of her cleansing.
6 And when the days of her cleansing are fulfilled, for a son or for a daughter, she shall bring a yearling lamb[p] for a burnt-offering, and a young pigeon or a turtle-dove for a sin-offering, to the entrance of the tent of meeting, unto 7 the priest. And he shall present it before Jehovah, and make atonement for her; and she shall be clean from the flux[q] of her blood. This is the law for her that hath 8 borne a male or a female. And if her hand cannot find what is sufficient for a sheep, she shall bring two turtle-doves or two young pigeons; one for a burnt-offering, and the other for a sin-offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her; and she shall be clean.

13 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2 When a man shall have in the skin of his flesh a rising or a scab, or bright spot, and it become in the skin of his flesh a sore[r] [as] of leprosy, then he shall be brought unto Aaron the priest, or unto one of 3 his sons the priests. And when the priest looketh on the sore in the skin of the flesh, and the hair in the sore is turned white, and the sore looketh deeper than the skin of his flesh, it is the sore of leprosy; and the priest shall look on him 4 and pronounce him unclean. But if the bright spot be white in the skin of his flesh, and look not deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof be not turned white, the priest shall shut up [him that hath]
5 the sore seven days. And the priest shall look on him the seventh day; and behold, in his sight, the sore remaineth as it was, the sore hath not spread in the skin, then the priest shall shut him up seven 6 days a second time. And the priest shall look on him again the seventh day, and behold, the sore is become pale and the sore hath not spread in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is a scab; and he shall wash his 7 garments and be clean. But if the scab have spread much in the skin, after that he hath been seen by the priest for his cleansing, he shall be seen by the priest again; 8 and the priest shall look on him, and behold, the scab hath spread in the skin; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is leprosy.
9 When a sore [as] of leprosy is in a man, he shall be brought unto 10 the priest; and the priest shall look on him, and behold, there is a white rising in the skin, and it hath turned the hair white, and a trace of raw flesh is in the rising:
11 it is an old leprosy in the skin of his flesh; and the priest shall pronounce him unclean, and he shall not shut him up, for he is unclean.
12 But if the leprosy break out much in the skin, and the leprosy cover all the skin of [him that hath] the sore, from his head even to his foot, wherever the eyes of the 13 priest look, and the priest looketh, and behold, the leprosy covereth all his flesh, he shall pronounce [him] clean [that hath] the sore; it is all turned white; he is clean.
14 And on the day when raw flesh appeareth in him, he shall be un-15 clean. And the priest shall look

[o] Lit. 'your souls.' [p] Or 'a lamb of the first year,' as elsewhere. [q] Lit. 'fountain:' compare xx. 18. [r] Lit. 'stroke.'

on the raw flesh, and shall pronounce him unclean: the raw 16 flesh is unclean, it is leprosy. But if the raw flesh change again, and be turned white, he shall come 17 unto the priest; and the priest shall look on him, and behold, the sore is turned white; then the priest shall pronounce [him] clean [that hath] the sore: he is clean.
18 And the flesh—when in the skin thereof cometh a boil, and it is 19 healed, and there is in the place of the boil a white rising, or a white-reddish bright spot, it shall be 20 shewn to the priest; and the priest shall look on it, and behold, it looketh deeper than the skin, and the hair thereof is turned white; then the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the sore of 21 leprosy broken out in the boil. But if the priest look on it, and behold, there are no white hairs therein, and it is not deeper than the skin, and is pale, the priest shall shut 22 him up seven days; and if it spread much in the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him un-23 clean: it is the sore. But if the bright spot have remained in its place, [and] have not spread, it is the scar of the boil; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
24 Or if in the flesh, in the skin thereof, there is a burning inflammation, and the place of the inflammation become a bright spot 25 white-reddish or white, and the priest look on it, and behold, the hair is turned white in the bright spot, and it looketh deeper than the skin, it is a leprosy which is broken out in the inflammation; and the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is the sore of leprosy.
26 But if the priest look on it, and behold, there is no white hair in the bright spot, and it is no deeper than the skin, and is pale, the priest shall shut him up seven days.
27 And the priest shall look on him the seventh day, and if it have spread much in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean: it is 28 the sore of leprosy. But if the bright spot have remained in its place, [and] not spread in the skin, and is pale, it is the rising of the inflammation; and the priest shall pronounce him clean; for it is the scar of the inflammation.
29 And if a man or a woman have a sore on the head or on the beard, 30 and the priest look on the sore, and behold, it looketh deeper than the skin, and there is in it yellow thin hair, then the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is a scall, the leprosy of the head or the 31 beard. And if the priest look on the sore of the scall, and behold, it is not in sight deeper than the skin, and there is no black hair in it, the priest shall shut up [him that hath] the sore of the scall 32 seven days. And when the priest looketh on the sore on the seventh day, and behold, the scall hath not spread, and there is in it no yellow hair, and the scall doth not 33 look deeper than the skin, he [that hath the sore] shall shave himself; but the scall shall he not shave; and the priest shall shut up [him that hath] the scall seven days 34 a second time. And the priest shall look on the scall on the seventh day, and behold, the scall hath not spread in the skin, nor is in sight deeper than the skin, then the priest shall pronounce him clean; and he shall wash his gar-35 ments, and be clean. But if the scall have spread much in the skin 36 after his cleansing, and the priest shall look on him, and behold, the scall hath spread in the skin, the priest shall not seek for yellow 37 hair: he is unclean. But if the scall have in his sight remained as it was, and there is black hair grown up therein, the scall is healed: he is clean; and the priest shall pronounce him clean.
38 And if a man or a woman have in the skin of their flesh bright 39 spots, white bright spots, and the priest look, and behold, there are in the skin of their flesh pale white spots, it is an eruption which is broken out in the skin: he is clean.
40 And if a man's hair have fallen off his head, he is bald; he is clean; 41 and if he have the hair fallen off from the part of the head towards his face, he is forehead-bald: he 42 is clean. And if there be in the bald head, or bald forehead, a white-reddish sore, it is a leprosy which hath broken out in his bald 43 head, or his bald forehead. And the priest shall look on it, and behold, the rising of the sore is white-reddish in his bald head, or in his bald forehead, like the appearance of the leprosy in the skin of the 44 flesh; he is a leprous man, he is unclean; the priest shall pronounce him utterly unclean; his sore is in his head.
45 And as to the leper in whom the sore is,—his garments shall be rent, and his head shall be uncovered, and he shall put a covering on his beard, and shall cry, 46 Unclean, unclean! All the days that the sore shall be in him he shall be unclean: he is unclean; he shall dwell apart; outside the camp shall his dwelling be.

47 And if a sore of leprosy is in a garment, in a woollen garment, or 48 a linen garment, either in the warp or in the woof of linen or of wool, or in a skin, or in anything 49 made of skin, and the sore is greenish or reddish in the garment, or in the skin, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is the sore of leprosy, and shall be 50 shewn unto the priest. And the priest shall look on the sore, and shall shut up [that which hath] 51 the sore seven days. And he shall see the sore on the seventh day: if the sore have spread in the garment, either in the warp or in the woof, or in a skin, in any work that may be made of skin, the sore is a corroding leprosy: it is unclean.
52 And they shall burn the garment, or the warp or the woof, of wool or of linen, or anything of skin, wherein the sore is; for it is a corroding leprosy: it shall be 53 burned with fire. But if the priest look, and behold, the sore hath not spread in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in any-54 thing of skin, then the priest shall command that they wash the thing wherein the sore is, and he shall shut it up seven days a 55 second time. And the priest shall look on the sore after the washing, and behold, if the sore have not changed its appearance,[s] and the sore have not spread, it is unclean: thou shalt burn it with fire: it is a fretting sore on what is threadbare or where the knap is gone.[t]
56 But if the priest look, and behold, the sore hath become pale after the washing of it, then he shall rend it from the garment, or from the skin, or from the warp, or 57 from the woof. And if it appear still in the garment, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, it is a [leprosy] breaking out: thou shalt burn with fire that 58 wherein the sore is. But the garment, or the warp, or the woof, or whatever thing of skin which thou hast washed, and the sore departeth from them, it shall be washed 59 a second time, and it is clean. This is the law of the sore of leprosy in a garment of wool or linen, or in the warp, or in the woof, or in anything of skin, to cleanse it,[v] or to pronounce it unclean.

14 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
2 saying, This shall be the law of the leper in the day of his cleansing: he shall be brought unto the 3 priest, and the priest shall go out of the camp; and when the priest looketh, and behold, the sore of 4 leprosy is healed in the leper, then shall the priest command to take for him that is to be cleansed two clean living birds, and cedar-wood,
5 and scarlet, and hyssop. And the priest shall command that one bird be killed in an earthen vessel 6 over running[w] water: as to the living bird—he shall take it, and the cedar-wood, and the scarlet, and the hyssop, and dip them and the living bird in the blood of the bird that was killed over the run-7 ning water; and he shall sprinkle upon him that is to be cleansed from the leprosy seven times, and shall pronounce him clean, and shall let the living bird loose into 8 the open field. And he that is to be cleansed shall wash his garments, and shave all his hair, and bathe in water, and he shall be clean; and afterwards shall he come into the camp, and shall abide outside his tent seven days.
9 And it shall come to pass on the seventh day, that he shall shave all his hair, his head, and his beard, and his eyebrows, even all his hair shall he shave, and he shall wash his garments, and shall bathe his flesh in water, and he is clean.
10 And on the eighth day he shall take two he-lambs without blemish, and one yearling ewe-lamb without blemish, and three tenth parts of fine flour mingled with oil, for an oblation, and one log of oil.
11 And the priest that cleanseth [him] shall present the man that is to be cleansed and those things before Jehovah, at the entrance of the 12 tent of meeting. And the priest shall take one he-lamb, and present it for a trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and wave them as a wave-offering before Jehovah.
13 And he shall slaughter the he-lamb at the place where the sin-offering and the burnt-offering are slaughtered, in a holy place; for as the sin-offering, so the trespass-offering is the priest's: it is most 14 holy. And the priest shall take of the blood of the trespass-offering, and the priest shall put it on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great 15 toe of his right foot. And the priest shall take of the log of oil, and pour it into his, the priest's, 16 left hand; and the priest shall dip his right finger in the oil that is in his left hand, and shall sprinkle of the oil with his finger seven 17 times before Jehovah. And of the rest of the oil that is in his hand shall the priest put on the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and on the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot, upon the blood of 18 the trespass-offering. And the remainder of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, and the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah.

19 And the priest shall offer the sin offering, and make atonement for him that is to be cleansed from his uncleanness; and afterwards shall he slaughter the burnt-offer-20 ing. And the priest shall offer[x] the burnt-offering and the oblation upon the altar; and the priest shall make atonement for him, and he shall be clean.
21 But if he be poor, and his hand be not able to get it, then he shall take one lamb for a trespass-offering, for a wave-offering, to make atonement for him; and one tenth part of fine flour mingled with oil for an oblation; and a log of oil, 22 and two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, as his hand may be able to get: the one shall be a sin-offering, and the other a burnt-offering.
23 And he shall bring them on the eighth day of his cleansing unto the priest, unto the entrance of the tent of meeting, before Jehovah.
24 And the priest shall take the he-lamb of the trespass-offering, and the log of oil, and the priest shall wave them as a wave-offering be-25 fore Jehovah. And he shall slaughter the he-lamb of the trespass-offering; and the priest shall take of the blood of the trespass-offering, and put it upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and on the great 26 toe of his right foot. And the priest shall pour of the oil into 27 [his], the priest's, left hand, and the priest shall sprinkle with his right finger of the oil that is in his left hand seven times before Jeho-28 vah. And the priest shall put of the oil that is in his hand upon the tip of the right ear of him that is to be cleansed, and upon the thumb of his right hand, and on the great toe of his right foot, upon the place of the blood of the tres-29 pass-offering. And the remainder of the oil that is in the priest's hand he shall put upon the head of him that is to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before 30 Jehovah. And he shall offer one of the turtle-doves, or of the young pigeons, of what his hand was able 31 to get; of what his hand was able to get shall the one be a sin-offering, and the other a burnt-offering, with the oblation; and the priest shall make atonement for him that is to be cleansed before Jehovah.
32 This is the law for him in whom is the sore of leprosy, whose hand cannot get what is [regularly prescribed] in his cleansing.
33 And Jehovah spoke to Moses
34 and to Aaron, saying, When ye come into the land of Canaan, which I give to you for a possession, and I put a leprous plague[y] in a house of the land of your pos-35 session, then he whose house it is shall come and tell the priest, saying, It seemeth to me like a 36 plague[y] in the house; and the priest shall command that they empty the house before the priest go into it to see the plague,[y] that all that is in the house be not made unclean; and afterwards the priest shall go in to see the house.
37 And when he looked on the plague, and behold, the plague is in the walls of the house, greenish or reddish hollows, and their look is deeper than the surface of the 38 wall, then the priest shall go out of the house to the entrance of the house, and shut up the house seven 39 days. And the priest shall come again the seventh day, and when he looketh, and behold, the plague hath spread in the walls of the 40 house, then the priest shall command that they take away the stones in which the plague is, and they shall cast them out of the 41 city, in an unclean place. And he shall cause the house to be scraped within round about, and they shall pour out the mortar[z] that they have scraped off, out of the city 42 in an unclean place. And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones; and they shall take other mortar,

[x] עלה 'offer' on the altar itself. [y] Elsewhere, as to persons, 'sore.' [z] Lit. 'dust.'

43 and shall plaster the house. And if the plague come again, and break out in the house, after he hath taken away the stones, and after he hath scraped the house, 44 and after it is plasteted, then the priest shall come, and when he looketh, and behold, the plague hath spread in the house, it is a corroding leprosy in the house: it 45 is unclean. And they shall break down the house, the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the mortar of the house, and shall carry them forth out of the city 46 to an unclean place. And he that goeth into the house as long as it is shut up shall be unclean until 47 the even. And he that sleepeth in the house shall wash his garments, and he that eateth in the house shall wash his garments.
48 But if the priest shall come in and look, and behold, the plague hath not spread in the house, after the house hath been plastered, the priest shall pronounce the house clean; for the plague is healed.
49 And he shall take, to purge the house from the defilement, two birds, and cedar-wood, and scarlet, 50 and hyssop; and he shall kill one bird in an earthen vessel over 51 running [a] water; and he shall take the cedar-wood and the hyssop and the scarlet, and the living bird, and dip them in the blood of the bird that was killed, and in the running [a] water and sprinkle 52 the house seven times; and he shall purge the house from the defilement with the blood of the bird, and with the running [a] water, and with the living bird, and with the cedar-wood, and with the 53 hyssop, and with the scarlet; and he shall let the living bird loose out of the city into the open field; and he shall make atonement for the house, and it is clean.
54 This is the law for every sore of 55 leprosy, and for the scall, and for the leprosy of garments, and of 56 houses, and for the rising, and for the scab, and for the bright spot, 57 to teach when [b] there is uncleanness and when [b] it is purified: this is the law of leprosy.

15 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man have a flux from his flesh, because of his 3 flux he is unclean. And this shall be his uncleanness in his flux:
whether his flesh run with his flux, or his flesh be closed from his flux, it is his uncleanness.
4 Every bed whereon he lieth that hath the flux shall be unclean;
and every object on which he sit-5 teth shall be unclean. And whoever toucheth his bed shall wash his garments, and bathe in water,
and be unclean until the even.
6 And he that sitteth on any object whereon he sat that hath the flux shall wash his garments and bathe in water, and be unclean until the 7 even. And he that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the flux shall wash his garments, and bathe
in water, and be unclean until the 8 even. And if he that hath the flux spit upon him that is clean, then he shall wash his garments and bathe in water, and be un-9 clean until the even. And what carriage soever he rideth upon that hath the flux shall be unclean.
10 And whoever toucheth anything that was under him shall be unclean until the even; and he that carrieth them shall wash his garments, and bathe in water, and 11 be unclean until the even. And whomsoever he toucheth who hath the flux and hath not rinsed his hands in water—he shall wash his garments, and bathe in water, and 12 be unclean until the even. And the vessel of earth that he toucheth who hath the flux shall be broken; and every vessel of wood shall be rinsed in water.
13 And when he that hath a flux is clean of his flux, then he shall count seven days for his cleansing, and wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in running water, and he 14 shall be clean. And on the eighth day he shall take two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, and come before Jehovah into the entrance of the tent of meeting, and give them 15 unto the priest. And the priest shall offer them, one as a sin-offering, and one as a burnt-offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him before Jehovah for his flux.
16 And if any man's seed of copulation pass from him, then he shall bathe his whole flesh in water, and 17 be unclean until the even. And every garment, and every skin, whereon the seed of copulation shall be, shall be washed with water, and be unclean until the 18 even. And a woman with whom a man lieth with seed of copulation—they shall bathe in water,
and be unclean until the even.

[a] Lit. 'living.' [b] Lit. 'in the day of.'

19 And if a woman have a flux, and her flux in her flesh be blood, she shall be seven days in her separation, and whoever toucheth her shall be unclean until the even.
20 And everything that she lieth upon in her separation shall be unclean; and everything that she sitteth 21 upon shall be unclean. And whoever toucheth her bed shall wash his garments, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the even.
22 And whoever toucheth any object that she sat upon shall wash his garments, and bathe in water, and 23 be unclean until the even. And if it be on the bed, or on anything whereon she sitteth, when he toucheth it, he shall be unclean 24 until the even. And if a man lie with her at all, and the uncleanness of her separation come upon him, he shall be unclean seven days; and every bed whereon he 25 lieth shall be unclean. And if a woman have her flux of blood many days out of the time of her separation, or if she have the flux beyond the time of her separation, all the days of the flux of her uncleanness shall she be as [in] the days of her separation: she is un-26 clean. Every bed whereon she lieth all the days of her flux shall be unto her as the bed of her separation; and every object on which she sitteth shall be unclean, according to the uncleanness of her 27 separation. And whoever toucheth them shall be unclean, and shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the even.
28 And if she be cleansed of her flux then she shall count seven days, and after that she shall be clean.
29 And on the eighth day she shall take two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, and bring them unto the priest, unto the entrance 30 of the tent of meeting. And the priest shall offer the one as a sin-offering, and the other as a burnt-offering; and the priest shall make atonement for her before Jehovah for the flux of her uncleanness.
31 And ye shall separate the children of Israel from their uncleanness, that they die not in their uncleanness, when they defile my tabernacle that is in their midst.
32 This is the law for him that hath a flux, and for the one whose seed of copulation goeth from him, and 33 who is defiled therewith: and for a woman who is sick[c] in her separation, and for him that hath his flux; for the man and for the woman, and for him that lieth with her that is unclean.

16 And Jehovah spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron, when they came near 2 before Jehovah and died; and Jehovah said to Moses, Speak unto Aaron thy brother, that he come not at all times into the sanctuary inside the veil before the mercy-seat which is upon the ark, that he die not; for I will appear in the 3 cloud upon the mercy-seat. In this manner shall Aaron come into the sanctuary: with a young bullock for a sin-offering, and a ram 4 for a burnt-offering. A holy linen vest shall he put on, and linen trousers shall be upon his flesh, and he shall be girded with a linen girdle, and with the linen mitre shall he be attired: these are holy garments; and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and put them on.
5 And of the assembly of the children of Israel shall he take two bucks of the goats for a sin-offering, and one ram for a burnt-offer-6 ing. And Aaron shall present the bullock of the sin offering, which is for himself, and make atonement for himself, and for his house.
7 And he shall take the two goats, and set them before Jehovah, before the entrance of the tent of 8 meeting. And Aaron shall cast[d] lots upon the two goats: one lot for Jehovah, and the other lot for 9 Azazel.[e] And Aaron shall present the goat upon which the lot fell for Jehovah, and offer it [as] a sin-10 offering. And the goat upon which the lot fell for Azazel shall be set alive before Jehovah, to make atonement with[f] it, to send it away as Azazel into the wilderness.
11 And Aaron shall present the bullock of the sin-offering, which is for himself, and shall make atonement for himself and for his house, and shall slaughter the bullock of the sin-offering which is for him-12 self. And he shall take the censer full of burning coals of fire from off the altar before Jehovah, and both his hands full of fragrant incense[g] beaten small, and bring 13 it inside the veil. And he shall put the incense upon the fire before Jehovah, that the cloud of the incense may cover the mercy-seat which is upon the testimony, that 14 he die not. And he shall take of the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle with his finger upon the front of the mercy-seat eastward; and before the mercy-seat shall he sprinkle of the blood seven times 15 with his finger. And he shall slaughter the goat of the sin-offering, which is for the people, and bring its blood inside the veil, and do with its blood as he did with the blood of the bullock, and sprinkle it upon the mercy-seat, 16 and before the mercy-seat; and he shall make atonement for the sanctuary, [to cleanse it] from[h] the uncleanness of the children of Israel, and from their transgressions in all their sins; and so shall he do for the tent of meeting which dwelleth among them in the midst 17 of their uncleanness. And there shall be no man in the tent of meeting when he goeth in to make atonement in the sanctuary until he come out; and he shall make atonement for himself, and for his house, and for the whole congregation of 18 Israel. And he shall go out unto the altar which is before Jehovah, and make atonement for it; and shall take of the blood of the bullock, and of the goat, and put it upon the horns of the altar round 19 about; and he shall sprinkle upon it of the blood with his finger seven times, and cleanse it, and hallow it from the uncleannesses of the children of Israel.

20 And when he hath ended making atonement for the sanctuary, and the tent of meeting, and the altar, he shall present the living 21 goat; and Aaron shall lay both his hands on the head of the living goat, and confess over it all the iniquities of the children of Israel, and all their transgressions in all their sins, and he shall put them on the head of the goat, and shall send him away to the wilderness by the hand of a man standing 22 ready; that the goat may bear upon him all their iniquities to a land apart [from men]; and he shall send away the goat into the 23 wilderness. And Aaron shall go into the tent of meeting, and shall put off the linen garments, which he put on when he went into the sanctuary, and shall leave them 24 there; and he shall bathe his flesh with water in a holy place, and put on his garments, and go forth, and offer his burnt-offering, and the burnt-offering of the people, and make atonement for himself, and 25 for the people. And the fat of the sin-offering shall he burn[i] upon 26 the altar. And he that letteth go the goat for Azazel shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water; and afterwards he may 27 come into the camp. And the bullock of the sin-offering, and the goat of the sin-offering whose blood was brought in to make atonement in the sanctuary, shall one carry forth outside the camp; and they shall burn[k] with fire their skins, and their flesh, and their 28 dung. And he that burneth them shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water; and afterwards he may come into the camp.

29 And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you. In the seventh month, on the tenth of the month, ye shall afflict your souls, and do no work at all, the home-born, and the stranger that sojourneth a-30 mong you; for on that day shall atonement be made for you, to cleanse you: from all your sins shall ye be clean before Jehovah.
31 A sabbath of rest shall it be unto you, and ye shall afflict your souls:
32 [it is] an everlasting statute. And the priest who hath been anointed, and who hath been consecrated, to exercise the priesthood in his father's stead, shall make atonement; and he shall put on the linen garments, the holy garments.
33 And he shall make atonement for the holy sanctuary; and for the tent of meeting, and for the altar shall he make atonement; and for the priests, and for the whole people of the congregation shall he 34 make atonement. And this shall be an everlasting statute unto you, to make atonement for the children of Israel [to cleanse them] from all their sins once a year. And he did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
2 saying, Speak unto Aaron, and unto his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, This is the thing which Jehovah hath commanded, saying,
3 Every one of the house of Israel that slaughtereth an ox, or sheep, or goat, in the camp, or that slaughtereth it out of the camp, 4 and doth not bring it to the entrance of the tent of meeting to present it as an offering[l] to Jehovah, before the tabernacle of Jehovah, blood shall be reckoned unto that man: he hath shed blood; and that man shall be cut off from 5 among his people, to the end that the children of Israel bring their sacrifices, which they sacrifice in the open field, that they bring them to Jehovah, unto the entrance of the tent of meeting, unto the priest, and sacrifice them as sacrifices of peace-offerings to Je-6 hovah. And the priest shall sprinkle the blood upon the altar of Jehovah, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, and burn[m] the fat 7 for a sweet odour to Jehovah. And they shall no more sacrifice their sacrifices unto demons,[n] after whom they go a whoring. This shall be an everlasting statute unto them for their generations.

8 And thou shalt say unto them, Every one of the house of Israel, and of the strangers who sojourn among them, that offereth up[o] a 9 burnt-offering or sacrifice, and bringeth it not to the entrance of the tent of meeting, to offer it up to Jehovah—that man shall be cut off from his peoples.
10 And every one of the house of Israel, or of the strangers who sojourn among them, that eateth any manner of blood,—I will set my face against the soul that hath eaten blood, and will cut him off from among his people; for the 11 soul[p] of the flesh is in the blood; and I have given it to you upon the altar to make atonement for your souls, for it is the blood that maketh atonement for the soul.[q]
12 Therefore have I said unto the children of Israel, No soul of you shall eat blood, neither shall the stranger who sojourneth among 13 you eat blood. And every one of the children of Israel, and of the strangers who sojourn among them, that catcheth in the hunt a beast or fowl that may be eaten, he shall pour out the blood thereof, 14 and cover it with earth; for as to the life of all flesh, its blood is the life in it;[r] and I have said unto the children of Israel, Of the blood of no manner of flesh shall ye eat, for the life of all flesh is its blood: whoever eateth it shall be cut off.
15 And every soul that eateth of a dead carcase, or of that which was torn, be it one home-born, or a stranger, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe in water, and be unclean until the even: then he shall be 16 clean. And if he wash them not nor bathe his flesh, then he shall bear his iniquity.

18 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, 3 I am Jehovah your God. After the doings of the land of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not do; and after the doings of the land of Canaan, whither I bring you, shall ye not do; neither shall ye 4 walk in their customs. Mine ordinances shall ye do and my statutes shall ye observe to walk therein: I am Jehovah your God.
5 And ye shall observe my statutes and my judgments, by which the man that doeth them shall live: I am Jehovah.
6 No one shall approach to any that is his near relation,[s] to uncover his nakedness: I am Jeho-7 vah. The nakedness of thy father, and the nakedness of thy mother, shalt thou not uncover: she is thy mother: thou shalt not uncover 8 her nakedness. The nakedness of thy father's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy father's naked-9 ness. The nakedness of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, born at home, or born abroad—their nakedness shalt thou not uncover.
10 The nakedness of thy son's daughter, or of thy daughter's daughter —their nakedness shalt thou not uncover; for theirs is thy naked 11 ness. The nakedness of thy father's wife's daughter, begotten of thy father: she is thy sister: thou shalt not uncover her naked-12 ness. The nakedness of thy father's sister shalt thou not uncover: she 13 is thy father's near relation.[t] The nakedness of thy mother's sister shalt thou not uncover; for she is 14 thy mother's near relation.[t] The nakedness of thy father's brother shalt thou not uncover; thou shalt not approach his wife: she is 15 thine aunt. The nakedness of thy daughter-in-law shalt thou not uncover: she is thy son's wife; thou shalt not uncover her naked-16 ness. The nakedness of thy brother's wife shalt thou not uncover: it is thy brother's nakedness. 17 The nakedness of a woman and her daughter shalt thou not uncover; thou shalt not take her son's daughter, nor her daughter's daughter, to uncover her nakedness: they are her near relations: it is wickedness. 18 And thou shalt not take a wife to her sister, to vex her, to uncover her nakedness beside her, during her life. 19 And thou shalt not approach a woman in the separation of her uncleanness to uncover her nakedness. 20 And thou shalt not lie carnally with thy neighbour's wife, to become unclean with her.

21 And thou shalt not give of thy seed to let them pass through [the fire] to Molech, neither shalt thou profane the name of thy God: I am Jehovah. 22 And thou shalt not lie with mankind as one lieth with a woman: it is an abomination. 23 And thou shalt lie with no beast to become unclean therewith; and a woman shall not stand before a beast to lie down with it: it is confusion.

24 Make not yourselves unclean in any of these things; for in all these have the nations which I am casting out before you made themselves unclean. 25 And the land hath become unclean; and I visit the iniquity thereof upon it, and the land vomiteth out its inhabitants. 26 But ye shall observe my statutes and my judgments, and shall not commit any of all these abominations: the home-born, and the stranger that sojourneth among you; 27 (for all these abominations have the men of the land done, who were before you, and the land hath been made unclean;) 28 that the land vomit you not out, when ye make it unclean, as it vomited out the nation that was before you. 29 For whoever committeth any of these abominations, ... the souls that commit them shall be cut off from among their people. 30 And ye shall observe my charge, that ye commit not [any] of the abominable customs which were committed before you; and ye shall not make yourselves unclean therein: I am Jehovah your God.

19 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto all the assembly of the children of Israel, and say unto them, Holy shall ye be, for I Jehovah your God am holy.

3 Ye shall reverence every man his mother, and his father, and my sabbaths shall ye keep: I am Jehovah your God.

4 Ye shall not turn unto idols, and ye shall not make to yourselves molten gods: I am Jehovah your God.

5 And if ye sacrifice a sacrifice of peace-offering to Jehovah, ye shall sacrifice it for your acceptance. 6 On the day when ye sacrifice it shall it be eaten, and on the morrow; and that which remaineth until the third day shall be burned 7 with fire. And if it be eaten at all on the third day, it is an unclean thing: it shall not be accepted. 8 And he that eateth it shall bear his iniquity; for he hath profaned the hallowed thing of Jehovah; and that soul shall be cut off from among his peoples.

9 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not wholly reap the corners of thy field, and the gleaning of thy harvest thou 10 shalt not gather. And thy vineyard shalt thou not glean, neither shalt thou gather what hath been left of thy vineyard; thou shalt leave them for the poor and the stranger: I am Jehovah your God.

11 Ye shall not steal, and ye shall not deal falsely, and ye shall not 12 lie one to another. And ye shall not swear by my name falsely, and profane the name of thy God: I 13 am Jehovah. Thou shalt not oppress thy neighbour, neither rob him. The wages of the hired servant shall not abide with thee all night until the morning.

14 Thou shalt not revile a deaf person, and thou shalt not put a stumbling-block before a blind one; but thou shalt fear thy God: 15 I am Jehovah. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment; thou shalt not respect the person of the lowly, nor honour the person of the great; in righteousness shalt 16 thou judge thy neighbour. Thou shalt not go about as a tale-bearer among thy people; thou shalt not stand up against the life [v] of thy 17 neighbour: I am Jehovah. Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thy heart; thou shalt earnestly rebuke thy neighbour, lest thou bear sin 18 on account of him.[w] Thou shalt not avenge thyself, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am Jehovah.

19 My statutes shall ye observe. Thou shalt not let thy cattle gender with another sort; thou shalt not sow thy field with seed of two sorts; and a garment woven of two materials shall not come upon thee.

20 And if a man lie with a woman for copulation, and she is a bondwoman betrothed to a husband, but not at all ransomed, nor hath freedom been given to her, there shall be a chastisement: they shall not be put to death, for she was 21 not free. And he shall bring his trespass-offering to Jehovah, unto the entrance of the tent of meeting, 22 a ram for a trespass-offering. And the priest shall make atonement for him with the ram of the trespass-offering before Jehovah for his sin which he hath done; and the sin which he hath done shall be forgiven him.

23 And when ye come into the land and plant all manner of trees for food, then ye shall count its fruit as uncircumcised, three years shall it be uncircumcised unto you: it 24 shall not be eaten of; and in the fourth year all the fruit thereof shall be holy for praise to Jehovah; 25 and in the fifth year shall ye eat the fruit thereof, that it may increase unto you the produce thereof: I am Jehovah your God.

26 Ye shall eat nothing with the blood.—Ye shall not practise enchantment, nor use auguries.—Ye 27 shall not shave the corners of your head round, neither shalt thou mutilate the corners of thy beard. 28 And cuttings for a dead person[x] shall ye not make in your flesh, nor put any tattoo writing upon 29 you: I am Jehovah.—Do not profane thy daughter, to give her up to whoredom; lest the land practise whoredom, and the land be30 come full of infamy.—My sabbaths shall ye keep, and my sanctuary shall ye reverence: I am 31 Jehovah.—Turn not unto necromancers and unto soothsayers; seek not after them to make yourselves unclean: I am Jehovah your God.

32 Before the hoary head thou shalt rise up, and shalt honour the face of an old man; and thou shalt fear thy God: I am Jehovah. 33 And if a stranger sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not 34 molest him. As one born among you shall the stranger who sojourneth with you be unto you; and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt: I am Jehovah your 35 God. Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment, in measure of length, in weight, and in measure 36 of capacity: just balances, just weights, a just ephah, and a just hin shall ye have: I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt.

37 And ye shall observe all my statutes, and all mine ordinances, and do them: I am Jehovah.

20 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 2 saying, Thou shalt say also to the children of Israel, Every one of the children of Israel, or of the strangers[y] who sojourn in Israel, that giveth of his seed unto Molech, shall certainly be put to death: the people of the land shall 3 stone him with stones. And I will set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people; because he hath given of his seed unto Molech, so as to make my sanctuary unclean, and to pro4 fane my holy name. And if the people of the land do any ways hide their eyes from that man, when he giveth of his seed unto 5 Molech, that they kill him not, then I will set my face against that man, and against his family, and will cut him off, and all that go a whoring after him, to commit whoredom with Molech, from 6 among their people.—And the soul that turneth unto necromancers and unto soothsayers, to go a whoring after them, I will set my face against that soul, and will cut him off from among his people. 7 Hallow yourselves therefore, and be holy; for I am Jehovah your 8 God. And ye shall observe my statutes, and do them: I am Jehovah who hallow you.

9 Whatever man revileth his father and his mother shall certainly be put to death: he hath reviled his father and his mother; 10 his blood is upon him. And a man that committeth adultery with a man's wife, who committeth adultery with his neighbour's wife,—the adulterer and the adulteress shall certainly be put to death. 11 And a man that lieth with his father's wife hath uncovered his father's nakedness: both of them shall certainly be put to death; 12 their blood is upon them. And if a man lie with his daughter-in-law, both of them shall certainly be put to death: they have wrought confusion; their blood is upon 13 them. And if a man lie with mankind, as he lieth with a woman, both of them have committed an abomination: they shall certainly be put to death; their blood is 14 upon them. And if a man take a wife and her mother, it is infamy: they shall burn him and them with fire, that there be no 15 infamy among you. And if a man lie with a beast for copulation, he shall certainly be put to death; 16 and ye shall kill the beast. And if a woman approach unto any beast to gender therewith, thou shalt kill the woman and the beast: they shall certainly be put to death;

17 their blood is upon them. And if a man take his sister, his father's daughter, or his mother's daughter, and see her nakedness, and she see his nakedness, that is a disgrace; and they shall be cut off before the eyes of the children of their people: he hath uncovered his sister's nakedness; he shall 18 bear his iniquity. And if a man shall lie with a woman in her infirmity, and uncover her nakedness, her flux doth he lay bare, and she hath uncovered the fountain of her blood; and both of them shall be cut off from among 19 their people. And the nakedness of thy mother's sister, and of thy father's sister shalt thou not uncover; for he hath laid naked his near relation: [z] they shall bear 20 their iniquity. And if a man lie with his aunt, he hath uncovered his uncle's nakedness: their sin shall they bear: they shall die 21 childless. And if a man take his brother's wife, it is an unclean thing: he hath uncovered his brother's nakedness: they shall be childless.

22 And ye shall observe all my statutes, and all mine ordinances, and do them, that the land whither I bring you to dwell therein vomit 23 you not out. And ye shall not walk in the customs of the nation which I am casting out before you; for all these things have they done, and they became an abomination 24 to me. And I have said unto you, Ye shall possess their land, and I will give it unto you for a possession; a land flowing with milk and honey: I am Jehovah your God, who have separated you from the 25 peoples. And ye shall make a separation between the clean beast and the unclean, and between the unclean fowl and the clean, and ye shall not make yourselves an abomination by beast, or by fowl, or by anything that creepeth on the ground which I have separated for you, declaring [it] as unclean.
26 And ye shall be holy unto me; for I Jehovah am holy, and have separated you from the peoples to 27 be mine. And if there be a man or a woman in whom is a spirit of Python or of divination,[a] they shall certainly be put to death: they shall stone them with stones; their blood is upon them.

21 And Jehovah said to Moses, Speak unto the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say unto them, There shall none make himself unclean for a dead person [b] among 2 his peoples, except for his immediate relation,[z] who is near unto him—for his mother, and for his father, and for his son, and for his 3 daughter, and for his brother; and for his sister, a virgin, that is near unto him, who hath had no husband, for her may he make him-4 self unclean. He shall not make himself unclean [who is] a chief among his peoples, to profane him-5 self. They shall not make any baldness upon their head, neither shall they shave off the corners of their beard, nor make any cuttings 6 in their flesh. They shall be holy unto their God, and not profane the name of their God; for they present Jehovah's offerings by fire, the bread of their God; there-7 fore shall they be holy. They shall not take as wife a whore, or a dishonoured woman; neither shall they take a woman put away from her husband; for he is holy unto 8 his God. And thou shalt hallow him; for the bread of thy God doth he present: he shall be holy unto thee; for I, Jehovah, who 9 hallow you am holy. And the daughter of any priest, if she profane herself by playing the whore, she profaneth her father: she 10 shall be burned with fire. And the high priest among his brethren, [c] on whose head the anointing oil was poured, and who is consecrated to put on the garments, shall not uncover his head, nor 11 rend his garments. Neither shall he come near any person dead, nor make himself unclean for his 12 father and for his mother; neither

[z] Lit. 'his own flesh.' [a] Or 'who is a necromancer or a soothsayer.' [b] Or 'a soul.' [c] Lit. 'the priest who is greater than his brethren.'

shall he go out of the sanctuary, nor profane the sanctuary of his God; for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is upon 13 him: I am Jehovah. And he shall 14 take a wife in her virginity. A widow, or a divorced woman, or a dishonoured one, a harlot, these shall he not take; but he shall take as wife a virgin from among 15 his peoples. And he shall not profane his seed among his peoples; for I am Jehovah who do hallow him.
16 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 17 saying, Speak unto Aaron, saying, Any of thy seed throughout their generations that hath any defect, shall not approach to present the 18 bread of his God; for whatever man hath a defect, he shall not approach: a blind man, or a lame, or he that hath a flat nose, or 19 one limb longer than the other, or a man that is broken-footed, or 20 broken-handed, or hump-backed, or withered,[d] or that hath a spot in his eye, or hath the itch, or 21 scabs, or his testicles broken. No man of the seed of Aaron the priest that hath defect shall come near to present Jehovah's offerings by fire: he hath a defect; he shall not come near to present the 22 bread of his God. The bread of his God, of the most holy and of 23 the holy, shall he eat; only he shall not come in unto the veil, nor shall he draw near unto the altar; for he hath a defect: that he profane not my sanctuaries;[e] for I am Jehovah who do hallow them.
24 And Moses told it to Aaron, and to his sons, and to all the children of Israel.

22 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
2 saying, Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, that they separate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and that they profane not my holy name in the things that they hallow unto 3 me: I am Jehovah. Say unto them, Every one of all your seed, throughout your generations, that approacheth the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto Jehovah, having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off from before me: I am Jehovah.
4 Whatsoever man of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a flux, he shall not eat of the holy things, until he is clean. And he that toucheth any one that is unclean by a dead person, or a man whose seed of copulation hath passed from 5 him; or a man that toucheth any crawling thing whereby he becometh unclean, or a man by whom he may become unclean, whatever may be his uncleanness, 6 —a person that toucheth any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things; but he shall bathe his flesh with 7 water, and when the sun goeth down, he shall be clean, and may afterwards eat of the holy things;
8 for it is his food. Of a dead carcase and what is torn shall he not eat, to make himself unclean 9 therewith: I am Jehovah. And they shall keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it, and die by it, if they profane it: I am Jehovah who do hallow them.
10 And no stranger[f] shall eat the holy thing; the sojourner with the priest, and the hired servant, shall 11 not eat of the holy thing. But if a priest buy any one[g] for money, he may eat of it, and he that is born in his house: they may eat 12 of his food. And a priest's daughter who is [married] to a stranger may not eat of the heave-offering[h] 13 of the holy things. But a priest's daughter that becometh a widow, or is divorced, and hath no seed, and returneth unto her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; but no 14 stranger shall eat thereof. And if a man eat of a holy thing through inadvertence, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give it unto the priest with the 15 holy thing. And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel which they offer[i] 16 unto Jehovah, and cause them to bear the iniquity of trespass when they eat their holy things; for I am Jehovah who do hallow them.
17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
18 saying, Speak unto Aaron, and to his sons, and unto all the children of Israel, and say unto them, Whatever man of the house of Israel, or of the sojourners in Israel, that presenteth his offering[k] for any of his vows, and for any of his voluntary offerings, which they present 19 to Jehovah as a burnt-offering, it shall be for your acceptance,[l] without blemish, a male of the oxen, of 20 the sheep, and of the goats. Nothing that hath a defect shall ye 21 present; for it shall not be acceptable for you. And if any present a sacrifice of peace-offering to Jehovah to accomplish a vow, or a voluntary offering of oxen or small cattle, it shall be without blemish to be accepted: there shall be no 22 defect therein. Blind, or broken, or maimed, or ulcerous, or with itch, or scabbed—ye shall not present these to Jehovah, nor make an offering by fire of them on the 23 altar to Jehovah. A bullock and a sheep [m] that hath a member too long or too short, that mayest thou offer as a voluntary offering; but as a vow it shall not be ac-24 cepted. That which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut shall ye not present to Jehovah; neither in your land shall ye do [the 25 like]. Nor from the hand of the stranger shall ye present the bread of your God, of any of these; for their corruption is in them: a defect is in them; they shall not be accepted for you.

26 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
27 saying, An ox, or a sheep, or a goat, when it is brought forth, shall be seven days under its dam; and from the eighth day and thenceforth it shall be accepted for an offering by fire [n] to Jehovah.
28 A cow, or sheep [o]—it and its young shall ye not slaughter in one day.
29 And when ye sacrifice a sacrifice of thanksgiving to Jehovah, ye shall sacrifice it for your acceptance.
30 On that day shall it be eaten: ye shall leave none of it until morn-31 ing: I am Jehovah. And ye shall observe my commandments and 32 do them: I am Jehovah. And ye shall not profane my holy name; but I will be hallowed among the children of Israel: I am Jehovah 33 who do hallow you, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, to be your God: I am Jehovah.

23 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
2 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, [Concerning] the set feasts [p] of Jehovah, which ye shall proclaim as holy convocations—these are my set feasts.

3 Six days shall work be done; but on the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, a holy convocation; no manner of work shall ye do: it is the sabbath to Jehovah in all your dwellings.

4 These are the set feasts of Jehovah, holy convocations, which ye 5 shall proclaim in their seasons: In the first month, on the fourteenth of the month, between the two evenings, is the passover to Jehovah.

6 And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast of unleavened bread to Jehovah; seven days 7 shall ye eat unleavened bread. On the first day ye shall have a holy convocation: no manner of 8 servile work shall ye do. And ye shall present to Jehovah an offering by fire seven days; on the seventh day is a holy convocation: no manner of servile work shall ye do.

9 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
10 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them, When ye come into the land that I give unto you, and ye reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf [q] of the first-fruits of your 11 harvest unto the priest. And he shall wave the sheaf before Jehovah, to be accepted for you; on the next day after the sabbath the 12 priest shall wave it. And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf, a he-lamb without blemish, a yearling, for a burnt-offering to 13 Jehovah; and the oblation thereof: two tenths of fine flour mingled with oil, an offering by fire to Jehovah for a sweet odour; and the drink-offering thereof, of wine, 14 a fourth part of a hin. And ye shall not eat bread, or roast corn, or green ears, until the same day that ye have brought the offering of your God: [it is] an everlasting statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 And ye shall count from the morning after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering, seven weeks; [r]
16 they shall be complete; even unto the morning after the seventh sabbath shall ye count fifty days; and ye shall present a new oblation 17 to Jehovah. Out of your dwellings shall ye bring two wave-loaves, of two tenths of fine flour; with leaven shall they be baken; [as] 18 first-fruits to Jehovah. And ye shall present with the bread seven he-lambs without blemish, yearlings, and one young bullock, and

[m] Or 'goat.' [n] Lit. 'an offering (corban) of offering by fire.' [o] Or 'she-goat.'
[p] מוֹעֵד, 'fixed times [for drawing near to God]:' so vers. 4, 37, 44; Num. xv. 3; xxix. 39; Deut. xxxi. 10; 1 Chron. xxiii. 31, &c. [q] Heb. omer. [r] Lit. 'sabbaths:' cf. xxv. 8.

two rams: they shall be a burnt-offering to Jehovah with their oblation, and their drink-offerings, an offering by fire of a sweet odour 19 to Jehovah. And ye shall sacrifice one buck of the goats for a sin-offering, and two he-lambs, yearlings, for a sacrifice of peace-offer-20 ing. And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the first-fruits as a wave-offering before Jehovah, with the two he-lambs; they shall be holy to Jehovah, for 21 the priest. And ye shall make proclamation on that same day—a holy convocation shall it be unto you: no manner of servile work shall ye do: [it is] an everlasting statute in all your dwellings 22 throughout your generations. And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not in thy harvest entirely reap[s] the corners of thy field, and the gleaning of thy harvest shalt thou not gather: thou shalt leave them unto the poor and to the stranger: I am Jehovah your God.

23 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
24 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first of the month, shall ye have a rest, a memorial of blowing of trumpets, a holy con-25 vocation. No manner of servile work shall ye do; and ye shall present an offering by fire to Jehovah.

26 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
27 saying, Also on the tenth of this seventh month is the day of the atonement: a holy convocation shall it be unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and present an 28 offering by fire to Jehovah. And ye shall do no manner of work on that same day; for it is a day of atonement, to make atonement for you before Jehovah your God.
29 For every soul that is not afflicted on that same day, shall be cut off 30 from among his peoples. And every soul that doeth any manner of work on that same day, the same soul will I destroy from 31 among his people. No manner of work shall ye do: [it is] an everlasting statute throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
32 A sabbath of rest shall it be unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls. On the ninth of the month at even, from even unto even, shall ye celebrate[t] your sabbath.

33 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 34 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, On the fifteenth day of this seventh month is the feast of booths seven days to 35 Jehovah. On the first day there shall be a holy convocation: no manner of servile work shall ye do.
36 Seven days ye shall present an offering by fire to Jehovah; on the eighth day shall be a holy convocation unto you; and ye shall present an offering by fire to Jehovah: it is a solemn assembly; no manner of servile work shall ye do.

37 These are the set feasts of Jehovah, which ye shall proclaim as holy convocations, to present an offering by fire to Jehovah, a burnt-offering, and an oblation, a sacrifice, and drink-offerings, every-38 thing upon its day; [v] besides the sabbaths of Jehovah, and besides your gifts, and besides all your vows, and besides all your voluntary offerings, which ye give to 39 Jehovah. But on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when ye have gathered in the produce of the land, ye shall celebrate the feast of Jehovah seven days: on the first day there shall be rest, and on the eighth day there shall 40 be rest. And ye shall take on the first day the fruit of beautiful trees, palm branches and the boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook; and ye shall rejoice 41 before Jehovah your God seven days. And ye shall celebrate it as a feast to Jehovah seven days in the year: [it is] an everlasting statute throughout your generations; in the seventh month shall 42 ye celebrate it. In booths shall ye dwell seven days; all born in 43 Israel shall dwell in booths; that your generations may know that I caused the children of Israel to dwell in booths, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I 44 am Jehovah your God. And Moses declared the set feasts of Jehovah to the children of Israel.

24 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel that they bring[w] unto thee pure beaten olive oil for the light, to light[x] the lamp contin-3 ually. Outside the veil of the testimony, in the tent of meeting, shall Aaron dress it from evening to morning before Jehovah continually: [it is] an everlasting statute 4 throughout your generations. Upon the pure candlestick shall he arrange the lamps before Jehovah continually.

5 And thou shalt take fine wheaten flour, and bake twelve cakes thereof; each cake shall be of two 6 tenths. And thou shalt set them in two rows, six in a row, upon the 7 pure table before Jehovah. And thou shalt put pure frankincense upon each row; and it shall be a bread of remembrance, an offer-8 ing by fire to Jehovah. Every sabbath day he shall arrange it before Jehovah continually, on the part of the children of Israel: [it is] 9 an everlasting covenant. And it shall be Aaron's and his sons'; and they shall eat it in a holy place; for it is most holy unto him of Jehovah's offerings by fire: [it is] an everlasting statute.
10 And the son of an Israelitish woman—but withal the son of an Egyptian,—went out among the children of Israel; and this son of the Israelitess and a man of Israel strove together in the camp; 11 and the Israelitish woman's son blasphemed the Name, and cursed; and they brought him to Moses. And his mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri, of the 12 tribe of Dan. And they confined him, that they might decide at the 13 mouth of Jehovah. And Jehovah 14 spoke to Moses, saying, Lead the reviler outside the camp; and all that heard [him] shall lay their hands upon his head, and the whole assembly shall stone him.
15 And thou shalt speak unto the children of Israel, saying, Every one when he revileth his God shall 16 bear his sin. And he that blasphemeth the name of Jehovah shall certainly be put to death; all the assembly shall certainly stone him; as well the stranger as he that is home-born, when he blasphemeth the Name, shall be put to 17 death. And if any one smiteth any man mortally,[v] he shall cer-18 tainly be put to death. And he that smiteth a beast mortally shall 19 make it good, life for life. And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour, as he hath done, so 20 shall it be done to him; breach for breach, eye for eye, tooth for tooth: as he hath caused a blemish in a man, so shall it be done to him.
21 He that smiteth a beast [mortally] shall make it good; and he that smiteth a man [mortally] shall be 22 put to death. Ye shall have one law: as the stranger, so the home-born; for I am Jehovah your God.
23 And Moses spoke to the children of Israel; and they led the reviler outside the camp and stoned him with stones. And the children of Israel did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

25 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in mount Sinai, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them, When ye come into the land that I will give you, the land shall celebrate[z] a sabbath 3 to[a] Jehovah. Six years shalt thou sow thy field, and six years shalt thou prune thy vineyard, and 4 gather in the produce thereof, but in the seventh year shall be a sabbath of rest for the land, a sabbath to[a] Jehovah. Thy field shalt thou not sow, and thy vineyard 5 shalt thou not prune. That which springeth up from the scattered seed of thy harvest thou shalt not reap, and the grapes of thine undressed vines thou shalt not gather: a year of rest shall it be 6 for the land. And the sabbath of the land shall be for food for you, for thee, and for thy bondman, and for thy handmaid, and for thy hired servant, and for him that dwelleth as a sojourner with thee, 7 and for thy cattle, and for the beasts that are in thy land: all the produce thereof shall be for food.
8 And thou shalt count seven sabbaths of years, seven times seven years; so that the days of the seven sabbaths of years be unto 9 thee forty-nine years. Then shalt thou cause the loud sound of the trumpet to go forth in the seventh month, on the tenth of the month; on the day of atonement shall ye cause the trumpet to go forth 10 throughout your land. And ye shall hallow the year of the fiftieth year, and proclaim liberty in the land unto all the inhabitants thereof; a [year of] jubilee[b] shall it be unto you, and ye shall return every man unto his possession, and ye shall return every man 11 unto his family; a year of jubilee shall that fiftieth year be unto you: ye shall not sow, neither reap its aftergrowth, nor gather [the fruit 12 of] its undressed vines. For it is the jubilee; it shall be holy unto you; out of the field[c] shall ye eat

[v] Lit. 'smiteth any soul [life] of a man.' [z] Lit. 'shall rest.' [a] Or 'of.'

13 its produce. In this year of the jubilee ye shall return every man unto his possession.
14 And if ye sell ought unto your neighbour, or buy of your neighbour's hand, ye shall not overreach 15 one another.[d] According to the number of years since the jubilee, thou shalt buy of thy neighbour; according to the number of years of the produce, he shall sell unto 16 thee. According to the greater number of the years, thou shalt increase the price thereof; and according to the fewness of years, thou shalt diminish the price of it;
for it is the number of crops that 17 he selleth unto thee. And ye shall not oppress one another; but thou shalt fear thy God; for I 18 am Jehovah your God. And ye shall do my statutes, and observe mine ordinances and do them:
thus shall ye dwell in your land 19 securely. And the land shall yield its fruit, and ye shall eat and be satisfied, and dwell therein securely.
20 And if ye say, What shall we eat in the seventh year? behold, we may not sow, nor gather in our 21 produce; then I will command my blessing upon you in the sixth year, that it may bring forth pro-22 duce for three years; and ye shall sow in the eighth year, and ye shall eat of the old fruit until the ninth year; until her produce come in, 23 ye shall eat the old. And the land shall not be sold for ever;[e] for the land is mine; for ye are strangers 24 and sojourners with me. And in all the land of your possession ye shall grant a redemption for the land.
25 If thy brother grow poor, and sell of his possession, then shall his redeemer, his nearest relation,[f] come and redeem that which his 26 brother sold. And if the man have no one having right of redemption, and his hand have acquired and found what sufficeth for its re-27 demption, then shall he reckon the years since the sale thereof, and restore the overplus unto the man to whom he sold it; and so return 28 unto his possession. And if his hand have not found what sufficeth for him to restore it to him, then that which is sold shall remain in the hand of the purchaser, until the year of jubilee; and in the jubilee it shall go out, and he shall return unto his possession.
29 And if any one sell a dwelling-house in a walled city, then he shall have the right of redemption up to the end of the year of the sale thereof; for a full year shall he have the right of redemption.
30 But if it be not redeemed until a whole year is complete, then the house that is in the walled city shall be established for ever to him that bought it, throughout his generations: it shall not go out in 31 the jubilee. But the houses in villages that have no wall round about them shall be reckoned as the fields of the country: they may be redeemed, and they shall 32 go out in the jubilee. But as to the cities of the Levites, the houses in the cities of their possession, the Levites shall have a perpetual 33 right of redemption. And if any one redeem from one of the Levites, then the house that was sold, in the city of his possession,[g] shall go out in the jubilee; for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the 34 children of Israel. And the field of the suburbs of their cities shall not be sold; for it is their perpetual possession.
35 And if thy brother grow poor, and he be fallen into decay beside thee, then thou shalt relieve him, [be he] stranger or sojourner, that 36 he may live beside thee. Thou shalt take no usury nor increase of him; and thou shalt fear thy God; that thy brother may live 37 beside thee. Thy money shalt thou not give him upon usury, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.
38 I am Jehovah your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, to give you the land of Canaan, to be your God.
39 And if thy brother grow poor beside thee, and be sold unto thee, thou shalt not compel him to serve 40 as a bondservant: as a hired servant, as a sojourner, shall he be with thee; until the year of jubilee 41 shall he serve thee. Then shall he depart from thee, he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he 42 return. For they are my bond-men,[h] whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: they shall not be sold as [men] sell bondmen.
43 Thou shalt not rule over him with [d] Or 'a man shall not overreach his brother.' [e] Lit. 'unto extinction:' so ver. 30.

rigour; and thou shalt fear thy 44 God. And as for thy bondman and thy handmaid whom thou shalt have—of the nations that are round about you, of them shall ye buy bondmen and handmaids.
45 Moreover of the children of them that dwell as sojourners with you, of them may ye buy, and of their family that is with you, which they beget in your land, and they 46 shall be your possession. And ye shall leave them as an inheritance to your children after you, to inherit them as a possession: these may ye make your bondmen for ever; but as for your brethren, the children of Israel, ye shall not rule over one another with rigour.
47 And if a stranger or sojourner become wealthy beside thee, and thy brother beside him grow poor, and sell himself unto the stranger, who is settled by thee, or to a scion 48 of the stranger's family, after that he is sold there shall be right of redemption for him; one of his 49 brethren may redeem him. Either his uncle or his uncle's son may redeem him, or one of his next relations of his family may redeem him; or if his means be sufficient, 50 he may redeem himself. And he shall reckon with him that bought him from the year that he was sold to him unto the year of jubilee; and the price of his sale shall be according to the number of the years, according to the days of a hired servant shall he be with him.
51 If there are yet many years, according unto them shall he return his redemption [money] out of the money that he was bought for; 52 and if there remain but few years unto the year of jubilee, then he shall reckon with him; according unto his [remaining] years [of service] shall he give him back his 53 redemption [money]. As a hired servant shall he be with him year by year; [his master] shall not rule with rigour over him before 54 thine eyes. And if he be not redeemed in this manner, then he shall go out in the year of jubilee, he 55 and his children with him. For the children of Israel are servants unto me; they are my servants whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt: I am Jehovah your God.

26 Ye shall make yourselves no idols, neither rear you up for yourselves carved image, or statue, nor shall ye set up a figured stone in your land, to bow down unto it; for I am Jehovah your God.
2 Ye shall observe my sabbaths, and my sanctuary shall ye reverence: I am Jehovah.
3 If ye walk in my statutes, and observe my commandments and 4 do them, then I will give your rain in the season thereof, and the land shall yield its produce, and the trees of the field shall yield their 5 fruit; and your threshing[i] shall reach unto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach unto the sowing-time; and ye shall eat your bread to the full, and dwell in your 6 land securely. And I will give peace in the land, and ye shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; and I will put away the evil beasts out of the land; and the sword shall not go through 7 your land. And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall 8 before you by the sword; and five of you shall chase a hundred, and a hundred of you shall put ten thousand to flight; and your enemies shall fall beside you by 9 the sword. And I will turn my face towards you and make you fruitful, and multiply you, and establish my covenant with you.
10 And ye shall eat old store, and clear away the old because of the 11 new. And I will set my habitation[j] among you; and my soul 12 shall not abhor you; and I will walk among you, and will be your God, and ye shall be to me a peo-13 ple. I am Jehovah your God, who brought you forth out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen; and I have broken the bands of your yoke, and made you walk upright.
14 But if ye hearken not unto me, and do not all these command-15 ments, and if ye shall despise[k] my statutes, and if your soul shall abhor mine ordinances, so that ye do not all my commandments, that 16 ye break my covenant, I also will do this unto you—I will even appoint over you terror, consumption, and fever, which shall cause the eyes to fail, and the soul to waste away; and ye shall sow your seed in vain, for your enemies 17 shall eat it. And I will set my face against you, that ye may be routed before your enemies; they that hate you shall have dominion over you; and ye shall flee when none pursueth you.

[i] Strictly, 'treading out:' see Deut. xxv. 4. [j] Or 'tabernacle.' [k] Or 'reject:' so vers. 43, 44.

18 And if for this ye hearken not unto me, I will punish you seven-19 fold more for your sins, and I will break the arrogance of your power; and I will make your heaven as 20 iron, and your earth as bronze, and your strength shall be spent in vain, and your land shall not yield its produce; and the trees of the land shall not yield their fruit.
21 And if ye walk contrary unto me, and will not hearken unto me, I will bring sevenfold more plagues upon you according to your sins.
22 And I will send the beasts of the field among you, that they may rob you of your children, and cut off your cattle, and make you few in number; and your streets shall be desolate.
23 And if ye will not be disciplined by me through these, but walk 24 contrary unto me, then will I also walk contrary unto you, and will smite you, even I, sevenfold for 25 your sins. And I will bring a sword upon you that avengeth with the vengeance of the covenant, and ye shall be gathered together into your cities, and I will send the pestilence among you; and ye shall be delivered into the 26 hand of the enemy. When I break the staff of your bread, ten women shall bake your bread in one oven, and shall deliver you the bread again by weight; and ye shall eat, and not be satisfied.
27 And if for this ye hearken not to me, but walk contrary unto 28 me, then I will walk contrary unto you also in fury; and I, even I, will chastise you sevenfold for 29 your sins. And ye shall eat the flesh of your sons, and the flesh of your daughters shall ye eat.
30 And I will lay waste your high places, and cut down your sun-pillars, and cast your carcases upon the carcases of your idols; 31 and my soul shall abhor you. And I will lay waste your cities and desolate your sanctuaries; and I will not smell your sweet odours.
32 And I will bring the land into desolation; that your enemies who dwell therein may be astonished 33 at it. And I will scatter you among the nations, and will draw out the sword after you; and your land shall be desolation, and your 34 cities waste. Then shall the land enjoy its sabbaths all the days of the desolation, when ye are in your enemies' land; then shall the land 35 rest, and enjoy [1] its sabbaths. All the days of the desolation it shall rest, [the days in] which it did not rest on your sabbaths, when ye 36 dwelt therein. And as to those that remain of you—I will send faintness into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, that the sound of a driven leaf shall chase them, and they shall flee, as fleeing from a sword; and they shall fall 37 when none pursueth; and they shall stumble one over another, as it were before a sword, when none pursueth; and ye shall have no power to stand before your enemies.
38 And ye shall perish among the nations, and the land of your 39 enemies shall eat you up. And they that remain of you shall waste away through their iniquity in your enemies' lands; and also through the iniquities of their fathers shall they waste away with them.
40 And they shall confess their iniquity, and the iniquity of their fathers, through their unfaithfulness wherein they were unfaithful to me, and also that they have 41 walked contrary unto me, so that I also walked contrary unto them, and brought them into the land of their enemies. If then their uncircumcised heart be humbled, and they then accept the punish-42 ment of their iniquity, I will remember my covenant with Jacob, and also my covenant with Isaac, and also my covenant with Abraham will I remember; and I will 43 remember the land. For the land shall be left by them, and shall enjoy its sabbaths, when it is in desolation without them; and they shall accept the punishment of their iniquity; because, even because they despised my judgments, and their soul abhorred my 44 statutes. And yet for all that, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not despise them, and will not abhor them, to make an end of them utterly, to break my covenant with them, for I am 45 Jehovah their God. But I will remember toward them the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought forth out of the land of Egypt before the eyes of the nations, that I might be their God: I am Jehovah.
46 These are the statutes and ordinances and laws which Jehovah made between him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

[1] Here, rather 'make good,' in the sense of making up for the sabbaths not kept.'

27 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel and say unto them, When any one devoteth [anything] by a vow, the persons shall be for Jehovah according to thy valuation. 3 And thy valuation shall be of the male from twenty years old even unto sixty years old: thy valuation shall be fifty shekels of silver, after the shekel of the sanctuary; 4 and if it be of a female, thy valuation shall be thirty shekels. 5 And if it be from five years old even unto twenty years old, thy valuation of the male shall be twenty shekels, and for the female ten shekels. 6 And if it be from a month old even unto five years old, thy valuation of the male shall be five shekels of silver; and for the female thy valuation shall be three shekels of silver. 7 And if it be from sixty years old and above, if it be a male, thy valuation shall be fifteen shekels; and for the female ten shekels. 8 And if he be poorer than thy valuation, he shall present himself before the priest, and the priest shall value him: according to his means that vowed shall the priest value him.

9 And if it be a beast whereof men bring an offering unto Jehovah, all that they give of such unto Jehovah shall be holy. 10 They shall not alter it nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good; and if he at all change beast for beast, then it and the exchange thereof shall be holy. 11 And if it be any unclean beast, of which they do not bring an offering unto Jehovah, then he shall present the beast before the priest; 12 and the priest shall value it, [judging] between good and bad: according to the valuation of the priest, so shall it be. 13 And if they will in any wise redeem it, then they shall add a fifth [part] thereof unto thy valuation.

14 And when any one halloweth his house, that it may be holy to Jehovah, the priest shall value it, [judging] between good and bad: as the priest shall value it, so shall it stand. 15 And if he that halloweth it will redeem his house, he shall add the fifth of the money of thy valuation unto it, and it shall be his.

16 And if a man hallow to Jehovah [part] of a field of his possession, thy valuation shall be according to what may be sown in it: [m] the homer of barley seed at fifty shekels of silver. 17 If he hallow his field from the year of jubilee, according to thy valuation shall it stand; 18 but if he hallow his field after the jubilee, then the priest shall reckon unto him the money according to the years that remain, until the year of the jubilee; and there shall be a reduction from thy valuation. 19 And if he that hallowed the field will in any wise redeem it, he shall add the fifth of the money of thy valuation unto it, and it shall be assured to him; 20 but if he do not redeem the field, or if he sell the field to another man, it cannot be redeemed any more; 21 and the field, when it goeth out in the jubilee, shall be holy to Jehovah, as a field devoted; the possession thereof shall be the priest's.

22 And if he hallow to Jehovah a field that he hath bought, which is not of the fields of his possession, 23 the priest shall reckon unto him the amount of thy valuation, unto the year of the jubilee; and he shall give thy valuation on that 24 day, [as] holy to Jehovah. In the year of the jubilee the field shall return unto him of whom it was bought—to him to whom the land belonged.

25 And all thy valuation shall be according to the shekel of the sanctuary: twenty gerahs shall be the shekel.

26 Only the firstling which is offered as firstling to Jehovah among the cattle, that shall no man hallow, whether it be ox or sheep; [n] it is 27 Jehovah's. But if it be of an unclean beast, then he shall ransom it according to thy valuation, and shall add a fifth of it thereto; and if it be not redeemed, it shall be sold according to thy valuation. 28 Notwithstanding, no devoted thing that a man hath devoted to Jehovah of all that he hath, of man or beast, or of the field of his possession, shall be sold or redeemed: every devoted thing is most holy 29 to Jehovah. Nothing devoted, which shall be devoted from among men, shall be ransomed: it shall certainly be put to death.

30 And as to every tithe of the land, of the seed of the land, and of the fruit of the tree, it is Jehovah's: 31 it is holy to Jehovah. And if any one will at all redeem of his tithes, he shall add thereto the fifth 32 thereof. And as to every tithe of the herd, or of the flock, of whatever passeth under the rod, the tenth shall be holy to Jehovah.

33 He shall not search whether it be good or bad, neither shall he change it; and if he change it at all, then both it and the exchange thereof shall be holy; it shall not be redeemed.
34 These are the commandments which Jehovah commanded Moses for the children of Israel upon mount Sinai.

THE FOURTH BOOK OF MOSES

1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai in the tent of meeting, on the first of the second month, in the second year after their departure from the land
2 of Egypt, saying, Take the sum of the whole assembly of the children of Israel, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, every male, according to their polls;
3 from twenty years and upward, all that go forth to military service in Israel: ye shall number them according to their hosts, thou and 4 Aaron. And with you there shall be a man for every tribe, a man who is the head of his father's 5 house. And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: for Reuben, Elizur the son of 6 Shedeur; for Simeon, Shelumiel 7 the son of Zurishaddai; for Judah, Nahshon the son of Amminadab; 8 for Issachar, Nethanel the son of 9 Zuar; for Zebulun, Eliab the son 10 of Helon; for the children of Joseph: for Ephraim, Elishama the son of Ammihud; for Manasseh, Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur; 11 for Benjamin, Abidan the son of 12 Gideoni; for Dan, Ahiezer the son 13 of Ammishaddai; for Asher, Pa-14 giel the son of Ocran; for Gad, 15 Eliasaph the son of Deuel; for Naphtali, Ahira the son of Enan.
16 These were those summoned[a] of the assembly, princes of the tribes of their fathers, the heads of the 17 thousands of Israel. And Moses and Aaron took these men who are 18 expressed by their names, and gathered the whole assembly together on the first of the second month. And they declared their pedigrees after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, according to their polls. As Jehovah 19 had commanded Moses, so he numbered them in the wilderness of Sinai.
20 And the sons of Reuben, Israel's eldest son, their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, according to their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth 21 to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Reuben, were forty-six thousand five hundred.
22 Of the sons of Simeon: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, those that were numbered of them, by the number of the names, according to their polls, every male from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military 23 service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Simeon, were fifty-nine thousand three hundred.
24 Of the sons of Gad: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: 25 those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Gad, were forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.
26 Of the sons of Judah: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service:
27 those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Judah, were seventy four thousand six hundred.
28 Of the sons of Issachar: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Issachar, were fifty-four thousand four hundred.

[a] That is, those who were habitually called to undertake the matters of the assembly.

30 Of the sons of Zebulun: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Zebulun, were fifty-seven thousand four hundred.

32 Of the sons of Joseph: of the children of Ephraim: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Ephraim, were forty thousand five hundred.

34 Of the children of Manasseh: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Manasseh, were thirty-two thousand two hundred.

36 Of the sons of Benjamin: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Benjamin, were thirty-five thousand four hundred.

38 Of the sons of Dan: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Dan, were sixty-two thousand seven hundred.

40 Of the sons of Asher: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Asher, were forty-one thousand five hundred.

42 Of the sons of Naphtali: their generations, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, by the number of the names, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service: those that were numbered of them, of the tribe of Naphtali, were fifty-three thousand four hundred.

44 These are those that were numbered, whom Moses and Aaron numbered, and the princes of Israel, the twelve men: each one was for the house of his fathers.

45 And all those that were numbered of the children of Israel, according to their fathers' houses, from twenty years old and upward, all that went forth to military service

46 in Israel, all they that were numbered were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.

47 But the Levites after the tribe of their fathers were not num-

48 bered among them. For Jehovah

49 had spoken to Moses, saying, Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Levi, neither take the sum of them among the children of Israel.

50 But thou, appoint the Levites over the tabernacle of testimony, and over all the vessels thereof, and over all things that belong to it: they shall bear the tabernacle, and all its vessels; and they shall serve it, and round about the 51 tabernacle shall they encamp; and when the tabernacle setteth forward, the Levites shall take it down; and when the tabernacle encampeth, the Levites shall set it up; and the stranger that cometh near shall be put to death.

52 And the children of Israel shall encamp every man in his camp, and every man by his own stan-

53 dard, according to their hosts; but the Levites shall encamp round about the tabernacle of testimony, that there come not wrath upon the assembly of the children of Israel; and the Levites shall keep the charge of the tabernacle of 54 testimony. And the children of Israel did so; according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so did they.

2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2 The children of Israel shall encamp every one by his standard, with the ensign of their father's house; round about the tent of meeting, afar off, opposite to it shall they encamp.

3 And [for] those encamping eastward toward the sun-rising [there shall be] the standard of the camp of Judah according to their hosts; and the prince of the sons of Judah shall be Nahshon the son of Am-

4 minadab; and his host, even those that were numbered of them, were seventy-four thousand six hun-5 dred. And those that encamp next unto him shall be the tribe of Issachar; and the prince of the sons of Issachar shall be Nethaneel 6 the son of Zuar; and his host, even those that were numbered thereof, fifty-four thousand four hundred.

7 [With them shall be] the tribe of Zebulun; and the prince of the sons of Zebulun shall be Eliab the 8 son of Helon; and his host, even those that were numbered thereof, fifty-seven thousand four hundred.
9 All that were numbered of the camp of Judah were a hundred and eighty-six thousand four hundred, according to their hosts. They shall set forth first.
10 The standard of the camp of Reuben shall be southward according to their hosts; and the prince of the sons of Reuben shall be 11 Elizur the son of Shedeur; and his host, even those that were numbered thereof, forty-six thou-12 sand five hundred. And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of Simeon; and the prince of the sons of Simeon shall be Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai; 13 and his host, even those that were numbered of them, fifty-nine thou-14 sand three hundred. And [with them shall be] the tribe of Gad; and the prince of the sons of Gad shall be Eliasaph the son of Reuel; 15 and his host, even those that were numbered of them, forty-five thousand six hundred and fifty.
16 All that were numbered of the camp of Reuben were a hundred and fifty-one thousand four hundred and fifty, according to their hosts. And they shall set forth second.
17 And the tent of meeting shall set forth, the camp of the Levites in the midst of the camps; as they encamp, so shall they set forth, every man in his place, according to their standards.
18 The standard of the camp of Ephraim according to their hosts shall be westward; and the prince of the sons of Ephraim shall be Elishama the son of Ammihud; 19 and his host, even those that were numbered of them, forty thousand 20 five hundred. And by him shall be the tribe of Manasseh; and the prince of the sons of Manasseh shall be Gamaliel the son of Pedah-21 zur; and his host, even those that were numbered of them, thirty-22 two thousand two hundred. And [with them shall be] the tribe of Benjamin; and the prince of the sons of Benjamin shall be Abidan 23 the son of Gideoni; and his host, even those that were numbered of them, thirty-five thousand four 24 hundred. All that were numbered of the camp of Ephraim were a hundred and eight thousand one hundred, according to their hosts. And they shall set forth third.
25 The standard of the camp of Dan shall be northward according to their hosts; and the prince of the sons of Dan shall be Ahiezer 26 the son of Ammishaddai; and his host, even those that were numbered of them, sixty-two thousand 27 seven hundred. And those that encamp by him shall be the tribe of Asher; and the prince of the sons of Asher shall be Pagiel the 28 son of Ocran; and his host, even those that were numbered of them, forty-one thousand five 29 hundred. And [with them shall be] the tribe of Naphtali; and the prince of the sons of Naphtali shall 30 be Ahira the son of Enan; and his host, even those that were numbered of them, fifty-three 31 thousand four hundred. All that were numbered of the camp of Dan were a hundred and fifty-seven thousand six hundred. They shall set forth last according to their standards.
32 These are those that were numbered of the children of Israel, according to their fathers' houses: all those that were numbered of the camps, according to their hosts, were six hundred and three thousand five hundred and fifty.
33 But the Levites were not numbered among the children of Israel; as 34 Jehovah had commanded Moses. And the children of Israel did according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses: so they encamped according to their standards, and so they journeyed, every one according to their families, according to their fathers' houses.

3 And these are the generations of Aaron and Moses in the day 2 that Jehovah spoke with Moses on mount Sinai. And these are the 3 names of the sons of Aaron: Nadab the firstborn, and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. These are the names of the sons of Aaron, the anointed priests, who were consecrated [b] to exercise the priest-

[b] See on Exo. xxviii. 41.

4 hood. And Nadab and Abihu died before Jehovah when they offered strange fire before Jehovah in the wilderness of Sinai, and they had no sons; and Eleazar and Ithamar exercised the priesthood in the presence of Aaron their father.

5 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
6 saying, Bring the tribe of Levi near, and present them before Aaron the priest, that they may 7 minister unto him; and they shall keep his charge, and the charge of the whole assembly, before the tent of meeting, to do the service of 8 the tabernacle. And they shall keep all the utensils of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the children of Israel, to do the service 9 of the tabernacle. And thou shalt give the Levites to Aaron and to his sons: they are wholly given to him out of[c] the children of 10 Israel. And Aaron and his sons shalt thou appoint that they may attend to their priest's office; and the stranger that cometh near shall be put to death.

11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
12 saying, And I, behold, I have taken the Levites from among the children of Israel instead of every firstborn that breaketh open the womb among the children of Israel, 13 and the Levites shall be mine; for every firstborn is mine. On the day that I smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I hallowed unto me all the firstborn in Israel, both of man and beast; mine shall they be: I am Jehovah.

14 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the sons of Levi according to their fathers' houses, after their families; every male from a month old and upward shalt thou number 16 them. And Moses numbered them, according to the commandment[d] of Jehovah,—as he had been commanded.

17 And these are the sons of Levi by their names: Gershon, and 18 Kohath, and Merari. And these are the names of the sons of Gershon according to their families: 19 Libni and Shimei. And the sons of Kohath according to their families: Amram and Izhar, He-20 bron and Uzziel. And the sons of Merari according to their families: Mahli and Mushi. These are the families of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.

21 Of Gershon, the family of the Libnites, and the family of the Shimites: these are the families of 22 the Gershonites. Those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, those that were numbered of them were seven thousand five hundred.
23 The families of the Gershonites encamped behind the tabernacle 24 westward. And the prince of the father's house of the Gershonites 25 was Eliasaph the son of Lael. And the charge of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting was: the tabernacle and the tent, its covering, and the curtain[e] of the en-26 trance to the tent of meeting. And the hangings of the court, and the curtain of the entrance to the court, which surrounds the tabernacle and the altar, and the cords thereof for all its service.

27 And of Kohath, the family of the Amramites, and the family of the Izharites, and the family of the Hebronites, and the family of the Uzzielites: these are the families 28 of the Kohathites. According to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, there were eight thousand six hundred, who kept the charge of the sanc-29 tuary. The families of the sons of Kohath encamped on the side of 30 the tabernacle southward. And the prince of the father's house of the families of the Kohathites was 31 Elizaphan the son of Uzziel. And their charge was the ark, and the table, and the candlestick, and the altars, and the utensils of the sanctuary with which they ministered, and the curtain,[f] and all that be-32 longs to its service. And the prince of princes of the Levites was Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest: he had the oversight of them that kept the charge of the sanctuary.

33 Of Merari was the family of the Mahlites, and the family of the Mushites: these are the families 34 of Merari. And those that were numbered of them, according to the number of all the males, from a month old and upward, were six 35 thousand two hundred. And the prince of the father's house of the families of Merari was Zuriel the son of Abihail. They encamped on the side of the tabernacle north-36 ward. And the charge of the sons of Merari consisted in the over-

[c] Or 'on behalf of.' [d] Lit. 'mouth:' so very frequently in Numbers. [e] Or 'covering:' so verse 26; iv. 25, 26; see also Exo. xxvi. 36. [f] Here 'the veil.'

sight of the boards of the tabernacle, and its bars, and its pillars, and its bases, and all its furniture, and all that belongs to its service, 37 and the pillars of the court round about, and their bases, and their pegs, and their cords.
38 And those who encamped before the tabernacle eastward, before the tent of meeting toward the sunrising, were Moses, and Aaron and his sons, who kept the charge of the sanctuary for the charge of the children of Israel; and the stranger that cometh near shall be put to death.
39 All that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron numbered at the commandment of Jehovah, according to their families, all the males from a month old and upward, were twenty-two thousand.
40 And Jehovah said to Moses, Number all the first-born males of the children of Israel from a month old and upward, and take 41 the number of their names. And thou shalt take the Levites for me (I am Jehovah) instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel; and the cattle of the Levites, instead of all the firstlings among the cattle of the children 42 of Israel. And Moses numbered, as Jehovah had commanded him, all the firstborn among the chil-43 dren of Israel. And all the firstborn males, by the number of the names, from a month old and upward, according to their numbering, were twenty-two thousand two hundred and seventy-three.
44 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
45 saying, Take the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the children of Israel, and the cattle of the Levites instead of their cattle; and the Levites shall be mine: I am 46 Jehovah. And for those that are to be ransomed, the two hundred and seventy-three of the firstborn of the children of Israel, which are 47 in excess over the Levites, thou shalt take five shekels apiece by the poll, according to the shekel of the sanctuary shalt thou take them,—twenty gerahs the shekel;
48 and thou shalt give the money unto Aaron and unto his sons for those in excess among them who 49 are to be ransomed. And Moses took the ransom-money from them that were over and above those who were ransomed by the Le-50 vites; of the firstborn of the children of Israel he took the money, a thousand three hundred and sixty-five [shekels], according to 51 the shekel of the sanctuary. And Moses gave the money of them that were ransomed to Aaron and to his sons, according to the commandment of Jehovah,—as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

4 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2 Take the sum of the sons of Kohath from among the sons of Levi, after their families, according to their 3 fathers' houses, from thirty years old and upward even unto fifty years old, all that enter into the service,[g] to do the work in the tent of meeting.
4 This shall be the service of the sons of Kohath in the tent of meet-5 ing: it is most holy. And when the camp setteth forward, Aaron and his sons shall go in, and they shall take down the veil of separation[h] and cover the ark of testi-6 mony with it; and shall put thereon a covering of badgers' skin, and shall spread over it a cloth wholly of blue, and shall put its staves
7 [to it]. And upon the table of shewbread they shall spread a cloth of blue; and put thereon the dishes, and the cups, and the bowls, and goblets of the drink-offering; and the continual bread 8 shall be thereon. And they shall spread upon them a cloth of scarlet, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skin, and shall put 9 its staves [to it]. And they shall take a cloth of blue, and cover the candlestick of the light, and its lamps, and its snuffers, and its snuff-trays, and all the oil vessels thereof, wherewith they perform 10 its service; and they shall put it and all the utensils thereof within a covering of badgers' skin, and 11 shall put it upon a pole. And upon the golden altar they shall spread a cloth of blue, and cover it with a covering of badgers' skin, and shall put its staves [to it].
12 And they shall take all the instruments of service, wherewith they serve in the sanctuary, and put them in a cloth of blue, and cover them with a covering of badgers' skin, and shall put them 13 upon a pole. And they shall cleanse the altar of the ashes,[i] and 14 spread a purple cloth thereon; and they shall put upon it all the utensils thereof, wherewith they perform service about it: the firepans, the forks, and the shovels, and the bowls,—all the utensils of the altar; and they shall spread upon it a covering of badgers' skin, and 15 put its staves [to it]. And when Aaron and his sons have ended covering the sanctuary, and all the utensils of the sanctuary, when the camp setteth forward, then afterwards the sons of Kohath shall come to carry it; but they shall not touch the holy things,[k] lest they die. This is what the sons of Kohath have to carry in the tent of meeting.

16 And Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest shall have the oversight of the oil for the light, and the fragrant incense,[l] and the continual oblation, and the anointing oil, —the oversight of the whole tabernacle, and of all that is therein, over the sanctuary, and over its furniture.
17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses
18 and to Aaron, saying, Ye shall not cut off the families of the Kohath-19 ites from among the Levites, but this shall ye do unto them, that they may live, and not die, when they draw near unto the most holy things: [m] Aaron and his sons shall go in, and appoint them every one to his service and to his burden; 20 but they shall not go in and see for a moment [n] the holy things, lest they die.
21 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
22 saying, Take also the sum of the sons of Gershon, according to their fathers' houses, after their families.
23 From thirty years old and upward to fifty years old shalt thou number them; every one that cometh to labour in the work, to perform the service [o] in the tent of meeting.
24 This shall be the service of the families of the Gershonites, in 25 serving, and in carrying: they shall carry the curtains of the tabernacle, and the tent of meeting, its covering, and the covering of badgers' skin that is above upon it, and the curtain of the entrance
26 to the tent of meeting, and the hangings of the court, and the curtain of the entrance, of the gate of the court, which surroundeth the tabernacle and the altar, and the cords thereof, and all the instruments of their service; and all that is to be done for these things 27 shall they perform. At the commandment of Aaron and his sons shall be all the service of the sons of the Gershonites, in all their carrying, and in all their service; and ye shall appoint unto them in 28 charge all their carrying. This is the service of the families of the sons of Gershon in the tent of meeting, and their charge shall be under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.
29 The sons of Merari: after their families, according to their fathers' houses shalt thou number them; 30 from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old shalt thou number them, every one that entereth into the labour, to perform the service of the tent of meeting.
31 And this shall be the charge of their burden, according to all their service in the tent of meeting: the boards of the tabernacle, and the bars thereof, and the pillars thereof,
32 and bases thereof, and the pillars of the court round about, and their bases, and their pegs, and their cords, all their instruments, according to all their service; and by name ye shall number to them the materials which are their charge 33 to carry. This is the service of the families of the sons of Merari, according to all their service in the tent of meeting, under the hand of Ithamar the son of Aaron the priest.
34 And Moses and Aaron and the princes of the assembly numbered the sons of the Kohathites after their families, and according to 35 their fathers' houses, from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, every one that entered into the labour, [p] for service in the 36 tent of meeting. And those that were numbered of them according to their families were two thousand 37 seven hundred and fifty. These are they that were numbered of the families of the Kohathites, every one that served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.
38 And those that were numbered of the sons of Gershon, after their families, and according to their 39 fathers' houses, from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, every one that entered into the labour, [p] for service in the tent

40 of meeting, even those that were numbered of them, after their families, according to their fathers' houses, were two thousand six 41 hundred and thirty. These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Gershon, all that served in the tent of meeting, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Jehovah.
42 And those that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, after their families, accord-43 ing to their fathers' houses, from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, every one that entered into the labour,[q] for service 44 in the tent of meeting, even those that were numbered of them according to their families, were three thousand two hundred.
45 These are they that were numbered of the families of the sons of Merari, whom Moses and Aaron numbered according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.
46 All those that were numbered of the Levites, whom Moses and Aaron and the princes of Israel numbered, after their families and according to their fathers' houses, 47 from thirty years old and upward even to fifty years old, every one that came to serve [in] the work of the service, and [in] the work of carrying, in the tent of meeting, 48 even those that were numbered of them, were eight thousand five 49 hundred and eighty. According to the commandment of Jehovah they were numbered by Moses, every one for his service, and for his burden, and numbered by him, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

5 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, that they put out of the camp every leper, and every one that hath an issue, and whosoever 3 is defiled by a dead person: both male and female shall ye put out; outside the camp shall ye put them, that they defile not their camps, in the midst whereof I 4 dwell. And the children of Israel did so, and put them outside the camp: as Jehovah had said to Moses, so did the children of Israel.
5 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
6 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, When a man or woman shall commit any of all the sins of man to work unfaithfulness against Jehovah, and that soul is guilty, 7 then they shall confess their sin which they have done; and he shall recompense his trespass according to the principal thereof, and shall add unto it the fifth part thereof, and give it unto him against whom he hath trespassed.
8 And if the man have no kinsman[r] to recompense the trespass unto, the trespass which is recompensed to Jehovah shall be the priest's, besides the ram of the atonement, wherewith an atonement is made 9 for him. And every heave-offering of all the holy things of the children of Israel, which they present 10 unto the priest, shall be his. And every man's hallowed things shall be his: whatever any man giveth the priest shall be his.
11 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
12 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If any man's wife go astray, and commit 13 unfaithfulness against him, and a man lie with her carnally, and it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and she be defiled in secret, and there be no witness against her, and she have not been caught;
14 and the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she have been defiled,— or if the spirit of jealousy come upon him, and he be jealous of his wife, and she have not been de-15 filed,—then shall the man bring his wife unto the priest, and he shall bring her offering[s] for her, a tenth part of an ephah of barley-meal; he shall pour no oil upon it, nor put frankincense thereon; for it is an oblation of jealousy, a memorial oblation, bringing ini-16 quity to remembrance. And the priest shall bring her near, and set 17 her before Jehovah. And the priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessel; and the priest shall take of the dust that is on the floor of the tabernacle, and put it 18 into the water. And the priest shall set the woman before Jehovah, and uncover the woman's head, and put the memorial oblation in her hands, which is the jealousy offering; and in the hand of the priest shall be the bitter water that bringeth the curse.
19 And the priest shall adjure her, and say unto the woman, If no man have lain with thee, and if thou hast not gone astray in uncleanness, in being with another instead of thy husband,[t] be free from this bitter water that bring-20 eth the curse. But if thou hast gone astray to another instead of thy husband, and hast been defiled, and a man other than thy husband 21 have lain with thee,—then the priest shall adjure the woman with the oath of cursing, and the priest shall say unto the woman: Jehovah make thee a curse and an oath among thy people, when Jehovah doth make thy thigh to shrink, and 22 thy belly to swell; and this water that bringeth the curse shall enter into thy bowels, to make the belly to swell, and the thigh to shrink.

[q] See verse 3. [r] גֹּאֵל, 'one who has the right of redemption.' [s] Corban.

And the woman shall say, Amen, 23 amen. And the priest shall write these curses in a book, and shall blot them out with the bitter water, 24 and he shall cause the woman to drink the bitter water that bringeth the curse, that the water that bringeth the curse may enter into 25 her, for bitterness. And the priest shall take out of the woman's hand the oblation of jealousy, and shall wave the oblation before Jehovah, and shall present it at 26 the altar. And the priest shall take a handful of the oblation as a memorial thereof, and burn[u] it upon the altar; and afterwards he shall make the woman drink the 27 water. And when he hath made her to drink the water, then it shall come to pass, if she have been defiled, and have committed unfaithfulness against her husband, that the water that bringeth the curse shall enter into her, for bitterness, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall shrink; and the woman shall become a curse 28 among her people. But if the woman have not been defiled, and be clean, then she shall be clear, and shall conceive seed.
29 This is the law of jealousies, when a wife goeth astray to another instead of her husband and 30 is defiled, or when the spirit of jealousy cometh upon a man, and he is jealous as regards his wife; then shall he set the woman before Jehovah, and the priest shall do to her according to all this law.
31 Then shall the man be free from iniquity, but that woman shall bear her iniquity.

6 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, If a man or a woman have vowed the special vow of a Nazarite,[v] to consecrate[w] themselves to Jehovah; 3 he shall separate himself from wine and strong drink: he shall drink no vinegar of wine, nor vinegar of strong drink, neither shall he drink any liquor of grapes, nor 4 eat grapes, fresh or dried. All the days of his separation[x] shall he eat nothing that is made of the vine, from the seed-stones[y] even 5 to the skin. All the days of the vow of his separation there shall no razor come upon his head; until the days be fulfilled, that he hath consecrated himself to Jehovah, he shall be holy; he shall let the locks of the hair of his head 6 grow. All the days that he hath consecrated himself to Jehovah, he shall come near no dead body.
7 He shall not make himself unclean for his father, or for his mother, for his brother, or for his sister when they die; for the consecration[z] of his God is upon his head.
8 All the days of his separation he 9 is holy to Jehovah. And if any one die unexpectedly by him suddenly, and he hath defiled the head of his consecration, then he shall shave his head on the day of his cleansing; on the seventh day 10 shall he shave it. And on the eighth day he shall bring two turtle-doves, or two young pigeons, to the priest, at the entrance of the 11 tent of meeting. And the priest shall offer one for a sin-offering,
and the other for a burnt-offering,
and make an atonement for him, for that he sinned by the dead person; and he shall hallow his 12 head that same day. And he shall [again] consecrate to Jehovah the days of his separation, and shall bring a yearling lamb for a trespass-offering. But the first days are forfeited,[a] for his consecration hath been defiled.
13 And this is the law of the Nazar-ite on the day when the days of his consecration are fulfilled: he shall be brought to the entrance 14 of the tent of meeting. And he shall present his offering to Jehovah, one yearling he-lamb without blemish for a burnt-offering, and one yearling ewe-lamb without blemish for a sin-offering, and one ram without blemish for a peace-15 offering. And a basket with unleavened bread, cakes of fine flour mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and their oblation, and their drink-offerings.

16 And the priest shall present them before Jehovah, and shall offer his sin-offering and his burnt-offering: 17 and he shall offer the ram, a sacrifice of peace-offering to Jehovah, with the basket of unleavened bread; the priest shall offer also his oblation and his drink-offering.
18 And the Nazarite shall shave the head of his consecration at the entrance to the tent of meeting, and shall take the hair of the head of his consecration, and put it on the fire which is under the sacrifice 19 of the peace-offering. And the priest shall take the boiled shoulder of the ram, and one unleavened cake out of the basket, and one unleavened wafer, and shall put them upon the hands of the Nazarite, after he hath shaven [the hair 20 of] his consecration. And the priest shall wave them as wave-offering before Jehovah; it is holy for the priest, with the breast of the wave-offering and with the shoulder of the heave-offering; and afterwards the Nazarite may 21 drink wine. This is the law of the Nazarite who hath vowed: his offering to Jehovah for his consecration, beside what his hand is able to get; according to the vow which he vowed, so shall he do, according to the law of his consecration.

22 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
23 saying, Speak unto Aaron and unto his sons, saying, On this wise ye shall bless the children of Israel: saying unto them, 24 Jehovah bless thee, and keep thee; 25 Jehovah make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee; 26 Jehovah lift up his countenance upon thee, and give [b] thee peace.
27 And they shall put my name upon the children of Israel; and I will bless them.

7 And it came to pass on the day that Moses had completed the setting up of the tabernacle, and had anointed it, and hallowed it, and all the furniture thereof, and the altar and all its utensils, and had anointed them, and hallowed 2 them, that the princes of Israel, the heads of their fathers' houses, the princes of the tribes, they that were over them that had been 3 numbered, offered; and they brought their offering [c] before Jehovah, six covered waggons, and twelve oxen; a waggon for two princes, and an ox for each; and they presented them before the 4 tabernacle. And Jehovah spoke 5 to Moses, saying, Take it of them, and they shall be for the performance of the service of the tent of meeting, and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, to each according to his service.
6 And Moses took the waggons and the oxen, and 7 gave them to the Levites. Two waggons and four oxen he gave to the sons of Gershon, according to 8 their service; and four waggons and eight oxen he gave to the sons of Merari, according to their service,—under the hand of Ithamar 9 the son of Aaron the priest. But unto the sons of Kohath he gave none, for the service of the sanctuary was upon them: they bore [what they carried] upon the shoulder.

10 And the princes presented the dedication-gift of the altar on the day that it was anointed; and the princes presented their offering be-11 fore the altar. And Jehovah said to Moses, They shall present their offering for the dedication of the 12 altar, each prince on his day. And he that presented his offering the first day was Nahshon the son of Amminadab, of the tribe of Judah.
13 And his offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl, of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled 14 with oil for an oblation; one cup 15 of ten [shekels] of gold, full of incense; one young bullock, one ram, one yearling lamb, [d] for a 16 burnt-offering; one buck of the 17 goats for a sin-offering; and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Nahshon the son of Amminadab.

18 On the second day offered Nethaneel the son of Zuar, prince of 19 Issachar; he presented his offering: one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour, mingled with oil for an 20 oblation; one cup of ten [shekels]
21 of gold, full of incense; one young bullock, one ram, one yearling 22 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one buck of the goats for a sin-offering;
23 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering,

two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Nethaneel the son of Zuar.

24 On the third day, the prince of the children of Zebulun, Eliab the 25 son of Helon: his offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for an oblation; one cup of ten [shekels] of 26 gold, full of incense; one young 27 bullock, one ram, one yearling
28 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one buck of the goats for a sin-offering;
29 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Eliab the son of Helon.

30 On the fourth day, the prince of the children of Reuben, Elizur the 31 son of Shedeur. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for an 32 oblation; one cup of ten [shekels]
33 of gold, full of incense; one young bullock, one ram, one yearling 34 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one buck of the goats for a sin-offering;
35 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Elizur, the son of Shedeur.

36 On the fifth day, the prince of the children of Simeon, Shelumiel 37 the son of Zurishaddai. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for an 38 oblation; one cup of ten [shekels]
39 of gold, full of incense; one young bullock, one ram, one yearling 40 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one buck of the goats for a sin-offering;
41 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Shelumiel the son of Zurishaddai.

42 On the sixth day, the prince of the children of Gad, Eliasaph the 43 son of Deuel. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for an 44 oblation; one cup of ten [shekels]
45 of gold, full of incense; one young bullock, one ram, one yearling 46 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one buck of the goats for a sin-offering;
47 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Eliasaph the son of Deuel.

48 On the seventh day, the prince of the children of Ephraim, Eli-49 shama the son of Ammihud. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for 50 an oblation; one cup of ten [shekels] of gold, full of incense; 51 one young bullock, one ram, one yearling lamb, for a burnt-offering;
52 one buck of the goats for a sin-
53 offering; and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Elishama the son of Ammihud.

54 On the eighth day, the prince of the children of Manasseh, Ga-55 maliel the son of Pedahzur. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for 56 an oblation; one cup of ten [she-57 kels] of gold, full of incense; one young bullock, one ram, one yearling lamb, for a burnt-offering;
58 one buck of the goats for a sin-
59 offering; and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Gamaliel the son of Pedahzur.

60 On the ninth day the prince of the children of Benjamin, Abidan 61 the son of Gideoni. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for an 62 oblation; one cup of ten [shekels]
63 of gold, full of incense; one young bullock, one ram, one yearling
64 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one buck of the goats for a sin-offering;
65 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Abidan the son of Gideoni.

66 On the tenth day, the prince of the children of Dan, Ahiezer the 67 son of Ammishaddai. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels, according to the shekel of the sanctuary, both of them full of fine flour mingled with oil for an 68 oblation; one cup of ten [shekels]
69 of gold, full of incense; one young bullock, one ram, one yearling 70 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one buck of the goats for a sin-offering; 71 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Ahiezer the son of Ammishaddai.
72 On the eleventh day, the prince of the children of Asher, Pagiel the 73 son of Ocran. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels], one silver bowl of seventy shekels,
according to the shekel of the
sanctuary, both of them full of
fine flour mingled with oil for an
74 oblation; one cup of ten [shekels]
75 of gold, full of incense; one young
bullock, one ram, one yearling 76 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one
buck of the goats for a sin-offering;
77 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering, two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Pagiel the son of Ocran.
78 On the twelfth day, the prince of the children of Naphtali, Ahira 79 the son of Enan. His offering was one silver dish of the weight of a hundred and thirty [shekels],
one silver bowl of seventy shekels,
according to the shekel of the
sanctuary, both of them full of
fine flour mingled with oil for an 80 oblation; one cup of ten [shekels]
81 of gold, full of incense; one young
bullock, one ram, one yearling 82 lamb, for a burnt-offering; one buck of the goats for a sin-offering;
83 and for a sacrifice of peace-offering,
two oxen, five rams, five he-goats, five yearling lambs. This was the offering of Ahira the son of Enan.
84 This was the dedication-gift of the altar, on the day when it was anointed, from the princes of Israel: twelve silver dishes, twelve silver bowls, twelve cups of gold: 85 each silver dish of a hundred and thirty [shekels], and each bowl seventy: all the silver of the vessels was two thousand four hundred [shekels] according to the 86 shekel of the sanctuary; twelve golden cups full of incense, each cup of ten [shekels], according to the shekel of the sanctuary: all the gold of the cups, a hundred 87 and twenty [shekels]. All the cattle for the burnt-offering was:
twelve bullocks, twelve rams, twelve yearling lambs and their oblation; and twelve bucks of the 88 goats for a sin-offering. And all the cattle for the sacrifice of the peace-offering was: twenty-four bullocks, sixty rams, sixty he-goats, sixty yearling lambs. This was the dedication-gift of the altar, after it had been anointed.
89 And when Moses went into the tent of meeting to speak with Him, then he heard the voice speaking to him from off the mercy-seat which was upon the ark of testimony, from between the two cheru-bim; and he spoke to Him.

8 And Jehovah spoke to Moses saying, 2 Speak unto Aaron, and say unto him, When thou lightest[e] the lamps, the seven lamps shall give light over against the candle-3 stick. And Aaron did so; he lighted the lamps thereof over against the candlestick, as Jeho-4 vah had commanded Moses. And this was the work of the candlestick: [it was] of beaten gold; from its base to its flowers was it beaten work; according to the form which Jehovah had shewn Moses, so had he made the candlestick.
5 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 6 saying, Take the Levites from among the children of Israel, and 7 cleanse them. And thus shalt thou do unto them, to cleanse them: sprinkle upon them water of purification from sin; and they shall pass the razor over all their flesh, and shall wash their garments, and make themselves 8 clean. And they shall take a young bullock and its oblation of fine flour mingled with oil; and another young bullock shalt thou 9 take for a sin-offering. And thou shalt bring the Levites before the tent of meeting; and thou shalt gather together the whole assem-10 bly of the children of Israel. And thou shalt bring the Levites before Jehovah; and the children of Israel shall put their hands upon 11 the Levites. And Aaron shall offer[f] the Levites as a wave-offering before Jehovah from the children of Israel, and they shall perform the [e] See on Ex. xxv. 37. [f] Lit. 'wave:' so verses 13, 15, 21.

12 service of Jehovah. And the Levites shall lay their hands upon the heads of the bullocks, and thou shalt offer the one for a sin-offering, and the other for a burnt-offering, to Jehovah, to make 13 atonement for the Levites. And thou shalt set the Levites before Aaron, and before his sons, and offer them as a wave-offering to 14 Jehovah. And thou shalt separate the Levites from among the children of Israel, that the Levites 15 may be mine. And afterwards shall the Levites come in to do the service of the tent of meeting. And thou shalt cleanse them, and 16 offer them as a wave-offering. For they are wholly given unto me from among the children of Israel; instead of every one that breaketh open the womb, instead of every firstborn among the children of Israel, have I taken them unto 17 me. For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are mine, both of man and beast; on the day that I smote every firstborn in the land of Egypt, I hal-18 lowed them to myself. And I have taken the Levites instead of all the firstborn among the chil-19 dren of Israel. And I have given the Levites as a gift to Aaron and to his sons, from among the children of Israel, to perform the service of the children of Israel in the tent of meeting, and to make atonement for the children of Israel; that there be no plague among the children of Israel, when the children of Israel draw near 20 to the sanctuary. And Moses and Aaron, and all the assembly of the children of Israel, did to the Levites according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses concerning the Levites: so did the children 21 of Israel to them. And the Levites purified themselves from sin, and they washed their garments; and Aaron offered them as a wave-offering before Jehovah; and Aaron made atonement for them 22 to cleanse them. And afterwards the Levites came in to perform their service in the tent of meeting before Aaron, and before his sons; as Jehovah had commanded Moses concerning the Levites, so did they to them.
23 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 24 saying, This is that which concerneth the Levites: from twenty-five years old and upward shall he come to labour in the work of 25 the service of the tent of meeting. And from fifty years old he shall 26 retire from the labour of the service, and shall serve no more; but he shall minister with his brethren in the tent of meeting, and keep the charge, but he shall not serve [in] the service. Thus shalt thou do unto the Levites with regard to their charges.

9 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after their departure from the land of 2 Egypt, saying, Let the children of Israel also hold the passover at 3 its set time; on the fourteenth day in this month between the two evenings, ye shall hold it at its set time; according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ordinances thereof shall ye hold it.
4 And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, that they should hold the 5 passover. And they held the passover in the first [month] on the fourteenth day of the month, between the two evenings, in the wilderness of Sinai: according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.
6 And there were men, who were unclean through the dead body of a man, and could not hold the passover on that day; and they came before Moses and before 7 Aaron on that day. And those men said to him, We are unclean by reason of the dead body of a man: why are we kept back, that we may not present the offering[g] of Jehovah at its set time among 8 the children of Israel? And Moses said to them, Stay, and I will hear what Jehovah commands concerning you.
9 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
10 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, If any one of you or of your generations be unclean by reason of a dead body or be on a journey afar off, yet he shall 11 hold the passover to Jehovah. In the second month, on the fourteenth day, between the two evenings, shall they hold it; with unleavened bread and bitter herbs 12 shall they eat it. They shall leave none of it until the morning, nor break a bone thereof: according to every ordinance of the passover 13 shall they hold it. But a man that is clean, and is not on a journey, and forbeareth to hold the passover, that soul shall be cut off from among his peoples; because he presented not the offering of Jehovah at its set time: that man 14 shall bear his sin. And if a stranger [h] shall sojourn among you, and would hold the passover to Jehovah, according to the rite of the passover, and according to the ordinance thereof, so shall he do. Ye shall have one rite, both for the stranger and for him that is born in the land.

15 And on the day that the tabernacle was set up, the cloud covered the tabernacle of the tent of testimony; and at even it was upon the tabernacle as the appearance of 16 fire, until the morning. So it was continually: the cloud covered it, and at night it was as the appear-17 ance of fire. And when the cloud rose from the tent, then the children of Israel journeyed; and at the place where the cloud stood still,[i] there the children of Israel 18 encamped. According to the commandment of Jehovah the children of Israel journeyed, and according to the commandment of Jehovah they [remained] encamped; all the days that the cloud dwelt upon the tabernacle they encamped.
19 And when the cloud was long upon the tabernacle many days, then the children of Israel kept the charge of Jehovah, and journeyed 20 not. And if it were so that the cloud was a few days upon the tabernacle, according to the commandment of Jehovah they encamped, and according to the commandment of Jehovah they 21 journeyed. And if it were so that the cloud was there from the evening until the morning, and that the cloud was taken up in the morning, then they journeyed; or a day and a night, and the cloud 22 was taken up, they journeyed; or two days, or a month, or many days, when the cloud was long upon the tabernacle, dwelling upon it, the children of Israel [remained] encamped, and journeyed not; but when it was taken up, 23 they journeyed. At the commandment of Jehovah they encamped, and at the commandment of Jehovah they journeyed: they kept the charge of Jehovah according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.

10 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
2 saying, Make thee two trumpets of silver; of beaten work shalt thou make them; and they shall serve for the calling together of the assembly, and for the 3 journeying of the camps. And when they shall blow with them, the whole assembly shall gather to thee at the entrance of the tent 4 of meeting. And if they blow with one, then the princes, the heads of the thousands of Israel, shall 5 gather unto thee. And when ye blow an alarm, the camps that lie 6 eastward shall set forward. And when ye blow an alarm the second time, the camps that lie southward shall set forward; they shall blow an alarm on their setting for-7 ward. And when the congregation is to be gathered together, ye shall blow, but ye shall not blow 8 an alarm: the sons of Aaron, the priests, shall blow with the trumpets; and they shall be to you for an everlasting statute throughout 9 your generations. And if ye go to war in your land against the enemy [k] that oppresseth you, then ye shall blow an alarm with the trumpets; and ye shall be remembered before Jehovah your God, and ye shall be saved from your 10 enemies. And in the day of your gladness, and in your set feasts, and in your new moons,[l] ye shall blow with the trumpets over your burnt-offerings and over your sacrifices of peace-offering; and they shall be to you for a memorial before your God: I am Jehovah your God.
11 And it came to pass in the second year, in the second month, on the twentieth of the month, that the 12 cloud was taken up from off the tabernacle of the testimony. And the children of Israel set forward according to their journeys [m] out of the wilderness of Sinai; and the cloud stood still in the wilderness 13 of Paran. And they first took their journey, according to the commandment of Jehovah through Moses.
14 The standard of the camp of the children of Judah set forward first according to their hosts, and over 15 his host was Nahshon the son of Amminadab; and over the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar was Nethaneel the son of 16 Zuar; and over the host of the tribe of the children of Zebulun 17 was Eliab the son of Helon. And the tabernacle was taken down;

[h] Or 'sojourner,' as Exo. xii. 48. [i] Lit. 'dwelt,' 'abode:' so verse 18; x. 12; and compare Exo. xxiv. 16. [k] Or 'oppressor.' [l] Or 'the beginnings of your months.' [m] Or 'their marching order.'

and the sons of Gershon and the sons of Merari set forward bearing the tabernacle.
18 And the standard of the camp of Reuben set forward according to their hosts, and over his host was Elizur the son of Shedeur; 19 and over the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon was Shelu-20 miel the son of Zurishaddai; and over the host of the tribe of the children of Gad was Eliasaph the 21 son of Deuel. And the Kohathites set forward bearing the sanctuary: and [the others] set up the tabernacle whilst they came.
22 And the standard of the camp of the children of Ephraim set forward according to their hosts, and over his host was Elishama the 23 son of Ammihud; and over the host of the tribe of the children of Manasseh was Gamaliel the son 24 of Pedahzur; and over the host of the tribe of the children of Benjamin was Abidan the son of Gideoni.
25 And the standard of the camp of the children of Dan set forward, the rear-guard of all the camps according to their hosts, and over his host was Ahiezer the son of Am-26 mishaddai; and over the host of the tribe of the children of Asher 27 was Pagiel the son of Ocran; and over the host of the tribe of the children of Naphtali was Ahira the 28 son of Enan. These were the settings forward of the children of Israel according to their hosts: so did they set forward.
29 And Moses said to Hobab, the son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, We are journeying to the place of which Jehovah said, I will give it unto you: come with us, and we will do thee good; for Jehovah has spoken good con-30 cerning Israel. And he said to him, I will not go; but to mine own land, and to my kindred[n] will 31 I go. And he said, Leave me not, I pray thee, because thou knowest where we are to encamp in the wilderness, and thou wilt be to us 32 for eyes. And it shall be, if thou come with us, that whatever good Jehovah doeth unto us, so will we do to thee.
33 And they set forward from the mountain of Jehovah [and went] three days' journey; and the ark of the covenant of Jehovah went before them in the three days' journey, to search out a resting-34 place for them. And the cloud of Jehovah was over them by day when they set forward out of the 35 camp. And it came to pass when the ark set forward, that Moses said,

Rise up, Jehovah, and let thine enemies be scattered;
And let them that hate thee flee before thy face.

36 And when it rested, he said,

Return, Jehovah, unto the myriads of the thousands of Israel.

11 And it came to pass that when the people murmured, it was evil[o] in the ears of Jehovah; and Jehovah heard it, and his anger was kindled, and the fire of Jehovah burned among them, and consumed [some] in the extremity of 2 the camp. And the people cried to Moses; and Moses prayed to Jehovah—and the fire abated.
3 And they called the name of that place Taberah;[p] because a fire of Jehovah burned among them.
4 And the mixed multitude that was among them lusted; and the children of Israel also wept again and said, Who will give us flesh to 5 eat? We remember the fish that we ate in Egypt for nothing; the cucumbers, and the melons, and the leeks, and the onions, and the 6 garlic; and now our soul is dried up: there is nothing at all but the 7 manna before our eyes. And the manna was as coriander seed, and its appearance[q] as the appearance 8 of bdellium. The people went about, and gathered it, and ground it with hand-mills, or beat it in mortars, and boiled it in pots, and made cakes of it; and the taste of it was as the taste of oil-cakes.[r] 9 And when the dew fell upon the camp by night, the manna fell upon it.
10 And Moses heard the people weep throughout their families, every one at the entrance of his tent; and the anger of Jehovah was kindled greatly; it was also 11 evil in the eyes of Moses. And Moses said to Jehovah, Why hast thou done evil to thy servant, and why have I not found favour in thine eyes, that thou layest the burden of all this people upon me?
12 Have I conceived all this people, have I brought them forth, that thou sayest to me, Carry them in thy bosom, as the nursing-father beareth the suckling, unto the land

[n] Or 'birthplace.' [o] Or 'that the people became like men complaining of evil.'
[p] 'Burning.' [q] Lit. 'eye.' [r] Others, 'fresh oil.'

which thou didst swear unto their 13 fathers? Whence should I have flesh to give unto all this people?
for they weep unto me, saying,
Give us flesh that we may eat!
14 I am not able to bear all this people alone, for it is too heavy for 15 me. And if thou deal thus with me, slay me, I pray thee, if I have found favour in thine eyes, that I may not behold my wretched-16 ness. And Jehovah said to Moses, Gather unto me seventy men of the elders of Israel, whom thou know-est to be the elders of the people, and their officers; and take them to the tent of meeting, and they 17 shall stand there with thee. And I will come down and talk with thee there; and I will take of the Spirit which is upon thee, and will put it upon them; and they shall bear the burden of the people with thee, and thou shalt not bear 18 it alone. And unto the people shalt thou say, Hallow yourselves for to-morrow, and ye shall eat flesh; for ye have wept in the ears of Jehovah, saying, Who will give us flesh to eat? for it was well with us in Egypt; and Jehovah will give you flesh, and ye shall 19 eat. Not one day shall ye eat, nor two days, nor five days, neither 20 ten days, nor twenty days; [but] for a whole month, until it come out at your nostrils, and it become loathsome unto you; because that ye have despised Jehovah who is among you, and have wept before him, saying, Why came we forth 21 out of Egypt? And Moses said, The people in whose midst I am are six hundred thousand footmen; and thou sayest, I will give them flesh that they may eat a 22 whole month. Shall flocks and herds be slaughtered for them, to suffice them? or shall all the fish of the sea be gathered for them, to 23 suffice them? And Jehovah said to Moses, Hath Jehovah's hand become short? Now shalt thou see whether my word will come to pass unto thee or not.
24 And Moses went out and told the people the words of Jehovah; and he gathered the seventy men of the elders of the people, and set them round about the tent.
25 And Jehovah came down in a cloud, and spoke to him, and took of the Spirit that was upon him, and put it upon the seventy men, the elders; and it came to pass, that when the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they 26 did not repeat [it].[s] And two men remained in the camp, the name of the one, Eldad, and the name of the other, Medad; and the Spirit rested upon them (and they were among them that were written, but they had not gone out to the tent); and they pro-27 phesied in the camp. And there ran a youth, and told Moses, and said, Eldad and Medad are pro-28 phesying in the camp. And Joshua the son of Nun, the attendant of Moses, one of his young men,[t] answered and said, My lord Moses, 29 forbid them! But Moses said to him, Enviest thou for my sake?
would that all Jehovah's people were prophets, [and] that Jehovah would put his Spirit upon them!
30 And Moses withdrew into the camp, he and the elders of Israel.
31 And there went forth a wind from Jehovah, and drove quails from the sea, and cast them about the camp, about a day's journey on this side, and about a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and about two cubits above 32 the earth. And the people rose up all that day, and the whole night, and all the next day, and they gathered the quails: he that gathered little gathered ten homers; and they spread them abroad for themselves round about the camp.
33 The flesh was yet between their teeth, before it was chewed, when the wrath of Jehovah was kindled against the people, and Jehovah smote the people with a very great 34 plague. And they called the name of that place Kibroth-hattaavah;[u] because there they buried the 35 people who lusted. From Kibroth-hattaavah the people journeyed to Hazeroth; and they were at Hazeroth.

12 And Miriam and Aaron spoke against Moses because of the Ethiopian[v] woman whom he had taken; for he had taken a Cushite 2 as wife. And they said, Has Jehovah indeed spoken only to[w] Moses? has he not spoken also to[w] us? And Jehovah heard it.
3 But the man Moses was very meek, above all men that were 4 upon the face of the earth. Then Jehovah spoke suddenly to Moses, and to Aaron, and to Miriam,

[s] So the LXX. The Vulg. 'and ceased not,' follows a different punctuation of the Hebrew. [t] Or 'select ones;' others, 'an attendant from his youth up.' [u] Graves of lust. [v] Or 'Cushite.' [w] Or 'through.'

Come out ye three unto the tent of meeting. And they went out, 5 they three. And Jehovah came down in the pillar of the cloud, and stood at the entrance of the tent, and called Aaron and Miriam; 6 and they both came forth. And he said, Hear now my words: If there be a prophet among you, I Jehovah will make myself known to him in a vision, I will speak to 7 him in a dream. Not so my servant Moses: he is faithful in all 8 my house. Mouth to mouth do I speak to him openly,[x] and not in riddles; and the form of Jehovah doth he behold. Why then were ye not afraid to speak against my 9 servant, against Moses? And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against them, and he went away; 10 and the cloud departed from off the tent. And behold, Miriam was leprous as snow; and Aaron turned toward Miriam, and be-11 hold, she was leprous. Then Aaron said to Moses, Alas, my lord, I beseech thee, lay not this sin upon us, wherein we have been foolish, 12 and have sinned! Let her not be as one stillborn, half of whose flesh is consumed when he comes 13 out of his mother's womb. And Moses cried to Jehovah, saying, O God,[y] heal her, I beseech thee!
14 And Jehovah said to Moses, But had her father anyways spat in her face, should she not be shamed seven days? She shall be shut outside the camp seven days, and afterwards she shall be received 15 in [again]. And Miriam was shut outside the camp seven days; and the people did not journey till Miriam was received in [again].

13 And afterwards the people journeyed from Hazeroth, and encamped in the wilderness of Paran.

2 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
3 saying, Send thou men, that they may search out the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel. Ye shall send a man of every tribe of his fathers, each a 4 prince among them. And Moses sent them from the wilderness of Paran: according to the commandment of Jehovah, all of them heads[z] of the children of Israel.
5 And these are their names: for the tribe of Reuben, Shammua the 6 son of Zaccur; for the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat the son of Hori; 7 for the tribe of Judah, Caleb the 8 son of Jephunneh; for the tribe of Issachar, Igal the son of Joseph; 9 for the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea 10 the son of Nun; for the tribe of Benjamin, Palti the son of Raphu; 11 for the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel 12 the son of Sodi; for the tribe of Joseph, for the tribe of Manasseh, 13 Gaddi the son of Susi; for the tribe of Dan, Ammiel the son of 14 Gemalli; for the tribe of Asher, 15 Sethur the son of Michael; for the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi the son of 16 Vophsi; for the tribe of Gad, 17 Geuel the son of Machi. These are the names of the men whom Moses sent to search out the land. And Moses called Hoshea[a] the son of Nun, Jehoshua.[b] 18 And Moses sent them to search out the land of Canaan, and said to them, Go up this way by the south[c] and go up into the hill-19 country, and ye shall see the land, what it is; and the people that dwell in it, whether they are strong 20 or weak, few or many; and what the land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they are that they dwell in, whether in camps, or in 21 strongholds; and what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there are trees in it, or not. And take courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first grapes.
22 And they went up, and searched out the land from the wilderness of Zin to Rehob, where one comes 23 towards Hamath. And they went up by the south, and came to Hebron; and Ahiman, Sheshai, and Talmai, the children of Anak, were there. Now Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan 24 in Egypt. And they came as far as the valley of Eshcol, and cut down thence a branch with one bunch of grapes, and they bore it between two upon a pole; and [they brought] of the pomegra-25 nates, and of the figs. That place was called the valley of Eshcol,[d] because of the grapes which the children of Israel had cut down 26 there. And they returned from searching out the land after forty days.
27 And they came, and went to Moses and to Aaron, and to the whole assembly of the children of Israel, to the wilderness of Paran, [x] Or 'visibly.' [y] El. [z] Lit. 'men, heads.' [a] Deliverance. [b] Jehovah [is] Saviour. [c] Or 'by the south country;' see on Gen. xii. 9. [d] Valley of the bunch of grapes.

to Kadesh; and brought back word to them, and to the whole assembly; and shewed them the 28 fruit of the land. And they told him, and said, We came to the land to which thou didst send us, and surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit 29 of it. Only, the people are strong that dwell in the land, and the cities are walled, very great; moreover we saw the children of 30 Anak there. Amalek dwells in the land of the south; and the Hittites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the hill-country; and the Canaanites dwell by the sea, and by the side of the Jordan.
31 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up boldly and possess it, for we are 32 well able to do it. But the men that went up with him said, We are not able to go up against the people, for they are stronger than 33 we. And they brought to the children of Israel an evil report of the land which they had searched out, saying, The land, which we have passed through to search it out, is a land that eateth up its inhabitants; and all the people that we have seen in it are men of 34 great stature; and there have we seen giants—the sons of Anak are of the giants—and we were in our sight as grasshoppers, and so we were also in their sight.

14 And the whole assembly lifted up their voice, and cried;[e] and 2 the people wept that night. And all the children of Israel murmured against Moses and against Aaron; and the whole assembly said to them, Would that we had died in the land of Egypt! or in 3 this wilderness would that we had died! And why is Jehovah bringing us to this land that we may fall by the sword, that our wives and our little ones may become a prey? Is it not better for us to 4 return to Egypt? And they said one to another, Let us make a captain, and let us return to 5 Egypt. Then Moses and Aaron fell upon their faces before the whole congregation of the assembly of the children of Israel.
6 And Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, of them that searched out the land, 7 rent their garments. And they spoke to the whole assembly of the children of Israel, saying, The land, which we passed through to search it out, is a very, very good 8 land. If Jehovah delight in us, he will bring us into this land, and give it us, a land that flows with 9 milk and honey; only rebel not against Jehovah; and fear not the people of the land; for they shall be our food. Their defence[f] is departed from them, and Jehovah 10 is with us: fear them not. And the whole assembly said that they should be stoned with stones. And the glory of Jehovah appeared in the tent of meeting to all the children of Israel.
11 And Jehovah said to Moses, How long will this people despise me? and how long will they not believe me, for all the signs which 12 I have done among them? I will smite them with the pestilence, and destroy[g] them, and will make of thee a nation greater and 13 mightier than they. And Moses said to Jehovah, Then the Egyptians will hear it; for in thy might thou broughtest up this people 14 from the midst of them; and they will tell it to the inhabitants of this land, [who] have heard that thou, Jehovah, art in the midst of this people, that thou, Jehovah, lettest thyself be seen eye to eye, and that thy cloud standeth over them, and that thou goest before them, in a pillar of cloud by day, and in a pillar of fire by night;
15 if thou now slayest this people as one man, then the nations that have heard thy fame will speak, 16 saying, Because Jehovah was not able to bring this people into the land that he had sworn unto them, he has therefore slain them in the 17 wilderness. And now, I beseech thee, let the power of the Lord be great, according as thou hast 18 spoken, saying, Jehovah is slow to anger, and abundant in goodness, forgiving iniquity and transgression, but by no means clearing [the guilty], visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children, upon the third and fourth [generation].
19 Pardon, I beseech thee, the iniquity of this people according to the greatness of thy loving-kindness,[h] and as thou hast forgiven this people, from Egypt even until now.
20 And Jehovah said, I have par-21 doned according to thy word. But as surely as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of 22 Jehovah! for all those men who [e] Lit. 'lifted up and gave their voice.' [f] Lit. 'shade.' [g] Elsewhere 'dispossess.' [h] Or 'goodness.'

have seen my glory, and my signs, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me these ten times, and have not 23 hearkened to my voice, shall in no wise see[i] the land which I did swear unto their fathers: none of them that despised me shall see it.
24 But my servant Caleb, because he hath another spirit in[j] him, and hath followed me fully, him will I bring into the land whereinto he came; and his seed shall possess 25 it. (Now the Amalekites and the Canaanites dwell in the valley.) To-morrow turn you, and take your journey into the wilderness, on the way to the Red sea.
26 And Jehovah spoke to Moses 27 and to Aaron, saying, How long [shall I bear] with this evil assembly, which murmur against me? I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel, which they 28 murmur against me. Say unto them, As surely as I live, saith Jehovah, if I do not do unto you as ye have spoken in mine ears!
29 In this wilderness shall your carcases fall; and all that were numbered of you, according to your whole number from twenty years old and upwards, who have mur-30 mured against me, shall in nowise come[k] into the land, concerning which I have lifted up my hand to make you dwell in it; save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and 31 Joshua the son of Nun. But your little ones, of whom ye said they should be a prey, them will I bring in, and they shall know the land 32 that ye have despised. And as to you, your carcases shall fall in this 33 wilderness. And your children shall wander[l] in the wilderness forty years, and bear your whoredoms, until your carcases be 34 wasted in the wilderness. After the number of the days in which ye have searched out the land, forty days, each day for a year shall ye bear your iniquities forty years, and ye shall know mine 35 estrangement [from you]. I Jehovah have spoken; I will surely do it unto all this evil assembly which have gathered together against me! in this wilderness they shall be consumed, and there they shall die.
36 And the men whom Moses had sent to search out the land, who returned, and made the whole assembly to murmur against him, by bringing up an evil report upon 37 the land, even those men who had brought up an evil report upon the land, died by a plague before 38 Jehovah. But Joshua the son of Nun, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh, lived still of the men that had gone to search out the land.
39 And Moses told all these sayings to all the children of Israel; then 40 the people mourned greatly. And they rose up early in the morning, and went up to the hill-top, saying, Here are we, and we will go up to the place of which Jehovah has 41 spoken; for we have sinned. And Moses said, Why now do ye transgress the commandment of Jeho-42 vah? but it shall not prosper! Go not up, for Jehovah is not among you; that ye be not smitten before 43 your enemies; for the Amalekites and the Canaanites are there before you, and ye shall fall by the sword; for as ye have turned away from Jehovah, Jehovah will 44 not be with you. Yet they presumed to go up to the hill-top; but the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and Moses, did not depart from the midst of the camp.
45 And the Amalekites and the Canaanites who dwelt on that hill, came down and smote them, and cut them to pieces, as far as Hormah.[m]

15 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
2 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land of your dwellings, which I give unto 3 you, and will make an offering by fire to Jehovah, a burnt-offering or a sacrifice for the performance[n] of a vow, or as a voluntary offering, or in your set feasts, to make a sweet odour to Jehovah, of the 4 herd or of the flock, then shall he that presenteth his offering to Jehovah bring as oblation a tenth part of fine flour mingled with 5 a fourth part of a hin of oil; and of wine for a drink-offering shalt thou offer the fourth part of a hin with the burnt-offering, or with 6 the sacrifice, for one lamb. And for a ram thou shalt offer as oblation two tenth parts of fine flour mingled with oil, a third part of a 7 hin, and of wine for a drink-offering shalt thou offer the third part of a hin; for a sweet odour to 8 Jehovah. And when thou offerest a bullock for a burnt-offering, or a sacrifice for the performance of a vow, or for a peace-offering to 9 Jehovah, then shall they present with the bullock as oblation three tenth parts of fine flour mingled 10 with half a hin of oil; and of wine shalt thou present half a hin, for a drink-offering, as an offering by fire, of a sweet odour to Jehovah.

11 Thus shall it be done for one ox, or for one ram, or for a lamb, or 12 for a kid; according to the number that ye offer, so shall ye do to every one according to their num-13 ber. And all that are born in the land shall do these things thus, in presenting an offering by fire of 14 a sweet odour to Jehovah. And if a stranger sojourn with you, or whoever be among you throughout your generations, and will offer an offering by fire of a sweet odour to Jehovah,—as ye do, so shall he 15 do. As to the congregation, there shall be one statute for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you, an everlasting statute throughout your generations: as ye are, so shall the stranger be, 16 before Jehovah. One law and one ordinance shall be for you, and for the stranger that sojourneth with you.
17 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
18 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land 19 whither I bring you, then it shall be, when ye eat of the bread of the land, that ye shall offer[o] a heave-20 offering to Jehovah; the first of your dough shall ye offer,[o] a cake, for a heave-offering; as the heave-offering of the threshing-floor, so 21 shall ye offer[o] this. Of the first of your dough ye shall give to Jehovah a heave-offering throughout your generations.
22 And if ye sin inadvertently, and do not all these commandments, which Jehovah hath spoken unto 23 Moses, all that Jehovah hath commanded you through Moses, from the day that Jehovah gave commandment, and henceforward 24 throughout your generations; then it shall be, if ought be committed by inadvertence [hid] from the eyes of the assembly, that the whole assembly shall offer one young bullock for a burnt-offering, for a sweet odour to Jehovah, and its oblation and its drink-offering according to the ordinance, and one buck of the goats for a sin-
25 offering. And the priest shall make atonement for the whole assembly of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiven them; for it was a sin of inadvertence, and they have brought before Jehovah their offering, as an offering by fire to Jehovah, and their sin-offering for their [sin of] inadvert-26 ence; and it shall be forgiven the whole assembly of the children of Israel, and the stranger that sojourneth among them; for with all the people there was [a sin of] inadvertence.
27 And if one soul sin through inadvertence, then he shall present a yearling she-goat for a sin-28 offering. And the priest shall make atonement for the soul that hath done inadvertently, when he sinneth by inadvertence before Jehovah, to make atonement for him; 29 and it shall be forgiven him. For him that is born in the land among the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them—there shall be one law for you, for him who doeth anything 30 through inadvertence. But the soul that doeth ought with a high hand, whether born in the land, or a stranger, he reproacheth Jehovah; and that soul shall be cut off 31 from among his people. For he hath despised the word of Jehovah, and hath broken his commandment: that soul shall surely be cut off; his iniquity is upon him.
32 And while the children of Israel were in the wilderness they found a man gathering sticks on the sab-33 bath day. And they that found him gathering sticks brought him to Moses and Aaron, and to the 34 whole assembly. And they put him in custody, for it was not declared what should be done to 35 him. And Jehovah said to Moses, The man shall certainly be put to death: the whole assembly shall stone him with stones outside the 36 camp. And the whole assembly led him outside the camp, and stoned him with stones, and he died, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
37 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
38 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and bid them that they make them tassels[p] on the corners of their garments, throughout their generations, and that they attach to the tassel of the corners 39 a lace of blue; and it shall be unto you for a tassel, that ye may look

[o] Lit. 'heave.' [p] Or 'fringes.'

upon it, and remember all the commandments of Jehovah, and do them; and that ye seek not after [the lusts of] your own heart and your own eyes, after which ye 40 go a whoring; that ye may remember and do all my commandments, and be holy unto your 41 God. I am Jehovah your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: I am Jehovah your God.

16 And Korah, the son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, made bold, and [with him] Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, and On, the son of Peleth, 2 the sons of Reuben; and they rose up [against Moses, with two hundred and fifty men of the children of Israel, princes of the assembly, summoned to[q] the council, men 3 of renown; and they gathered themselves together against Moses and against Aaron, and said to them, It is enough; for all the assembly, all of them are holy, and Jehovah is among them; and why do ye lift up yourselves above the 4 congregation of Jehovah? When Moses heard this, he fell on his 5 face. And he spoke to Korah and to all his band, saying, Even tomorrow will Jehovah make known who is his, and who is holy; and he will cause him to come near to him; and him whom he has chosen, him will he cause to come near to 6 him. This do: take you censers, 7 Korah, and all his band, and put fire therein, and lay incense thereon before Jehovah to-morrow; and it shall be that the man whom Jehovah doth choose, he shall be holy. It is enough, ye sons of 8 Levi! And Moses said to Korah, Hear, I pray you, ye sons of Levi!
9 Is it too little for you, that the God of Israel has separated you from the assembly of Israel, to bring you near to himself to do the work of the tabernacle of Jehovah, and to stand before the assembly to minister to them?— 10 that he has brought thee near, and all thy brethren the sons of Levi with thee; and seek ye now the 11 priesthood also? For which cause thou and all thy band are banded together against Jehovah; and Aaron, who is he that ye murmur against him?
12 And Moses sent to call Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab; but they said, We will not come 13 up! Is it a small thing that thou hast brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey, to kill us in the wilderness, that thou must make thyself altogether a 14 ruler over us? Moreover, thou hast not brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey, or given us inheritance of fields and vineyards: wilt thou put out the eyes of these men? we will not 15 come up! Then Moses was very wroth, and said to Jehovah, Have no regard to their oblation: not one ass have I taken from them, neither have I hurt one of them.
16 And Moses said to Korah, Be thou and all thy band before Jehovah, thou, and they, and 17 Aaron, to-morrow. And take each his censer, and put incense thereon, and present before Jehovah every man his censer, two hundred and fifty censers; and thou, and 18 Aaron, each his censer. And they took each his censer, and put fire on them, and laid incense thereon, and stood before the entrance to the tent of meeting, as well as 19 Moses and Aaron. And Korah gathered the whole assembly against them to the entrance of the tent of meeting. And the glory of Jehovah appeared to all the assembly.
20 And Jehovah spoke to Moses
21 and to Aaron, saying, Separate yourselves from the midst of this assembly, and I will consume them 22 in a moment. And they fell on their faces, and said, O God,[r] the God of the spirits of all flesh! shall one man sin, and wilt thou be wroth with the whole assembly?
23 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, say-24 ing, Speak unto the assembly, saying, Get you up from about the habitation[s] of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram.
25 And Moses rose up and went to Dathan and Abiram; and the 26 elders of Israel followed him. And he spoke to the assembly, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tents of these wicked men, and touch nothing of theirs, lest ye perish in 27 all their sins. And they got up from the habitation[s] of Korah, Dathan, and Abiram, on every side. And Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the entrance of their tents, and their wives, and their sons, and their 28 little ones. And Moses said, Hereby ye shall know that Jehovah has sent me to do all these deeds, for they are not out of my own heart:

[q] Or 'of note in.' [r] El. [s] 'Tabernacle;' ver. 9.

29 if these men die as all men die, and are visited with the visitation of all men, Jehovah has not sent me; 30 but if Jehovah make a new thing,[t] and the ground open its mouth, and swallow them up, and all that they have, and they go down alive into Sheol, then ye shall know that these men have despised Je-31 hovah. And it came to pass when he had ended speaking all these words, that the ground clave apart 32 that was under them. And the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, and their households, and all the men that belonged to Korah, and all their 33 property. And they went down, they and all that they had, alive into Sheol, and the earth covered them; and they perished from 34 among the congregation. And all Israel that were round about them fled at their cry; for they said, Lest the earth swallow us 35 up! And there came out a fire from Jehovah, and consumed the two hundred and fifty men that had presented incense.
36 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 37 saying, Speak to Eleazar the son of Aaron the priest, that he take up the censers out of the burning; and scatter the fire afar; for they 38 are hallowed, the censers of these sinners who have forfeited[u] their life; and they shall make them into broad plates for the covering of the altar; for they presented them before Jehovah, therefore they are hallowed; and they shall be a sign unto the children of 39 Israel. And Eleazar the priest took the copper censers, which they that were burnt had presented; and they were made broad plates for a covering of the 40 altar: as a memorial to the children of Israel, that no stranger who is not of the seed of Aaron come near to burn[v] incense before Jehovah, that he be not as Korah, and as his band,—as Jehovah had said to him[w] through Moses.
41 And the whole assembly of the children of Israel murmured on the morrow against Moses and against Aaron, saying, Ye have killed the 42 people of Jehovah. And it came to pass, when the assembly was gathered together against Moses and against Aaron, that they looked toward the tent of meeting, and behold, the cloud covered it, and the glory of Jehovah appeared.
43 And Moses and Aaron went before 44 the tent of meeting. And Jehovah 45 spoke to Moses, saying, Get you up from the midst of this assembly, and I will consume them in a moment. And they fell on their 46 faces. And Moses said to Aaron, Take the censer, and put fire thereon from off the altar, and lay on incense, and carry it quickly to the assembly, and make atonement for them; for there is wrath gone out from Jehovah: the 47 plague is begun. And Aaron took as Moses had said, and ran into the midst of the congregation; and behold, the plague had begun among the people; and he put on incense, and made atonement for 48 the people. And he stood between the dead and the living; and 49 the plague was stayed. Now they that died in the plague were fourteen thousand seven hundred, besides them that had died because of 50 the matter of Korah. And Aaron returned to Moses to the entrance of the tent of meeting; and the plague was stayed.

17 1 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and take of them a staff, a staff for each father's house, of all their princes according to the houses of their fathers, twelve staves: thou shalt write each one's 3 name upon his staff. And Aaron's name shalt thou write upon the staff of Levi; for one staff shall be for [each] head of their fathers' 4 houses. And thou shalt lay them up in the tent of meeting before the testimony, where I meet with 5 you. And it shall come to pass, that the man whom I shall choose, his staff shall bud forth; and I will make to cease from before me the murmurings of the children of Israel, that they murmur against you.
6 And Moses spoke to the children of Israel, and all their princes gave him a staff, one staff for each prince according to their fathers' houses, twelve staves, and the staff of Aaron was among their staves.
7 And Moses laid the staves before Jehovah in the tent of the testi-8 mony. And it came to pass, when on the morrow Moses went into the tent of the testimony, behold, the staff of Aaron for the house of Levi had budded, and brought forth buds, and bloomed blossoms, 9 and ripened almonds. And Moses

[t] Lit. 'create a creation.' [u] Or 'sinned against.' [v] See on Exo. xxix. 13.
[w] That is, to Eleazar.

brought out all the staves from before Jehovah to all the children of Israel, and they looked and 10 took each one his staff. And Jehovah said to Moses, Bring Aaron's staff again before the testimony, to be kept as a token for the sons of rebellion, that thou mayest put an end to their murmurings before 11 me, that they may not die. And Moses did so: as Jehovah had commanded him, so did he.
12 And the children of Israel spoke to Moses, saying, Lo, we expire, 13 we perish, we all perish. Every one that comes at all near to the tabernacle of Jehovah shall die: shall we then expire altogether?

18 And Jehovah said to Aaron, Thou and thy sons and thy father's house with thee shall bear the iniquity of the sanctuary; and thou and thy sons with thee shall bear the iniquity of your priest-2 hood. And thy brethren also, the tribe of Levi, the tribe of thy father, bring near with thee, that they may unite[x] with thee, and minister unto thee; but thou and thy sons with thee [shall serve] before the tent of the testimony.
3 And they shall keep thy charge, and the charge of the whole tent: only they shall not come near to the vessels of the sanctuary and to the altar, that they may not die,
4 and you as well as they. And they shall unite with thee, and keep the charge of the tent of meeting, for all the service of the tent; and no stranger shall come near to you.
5 And ye shall keep the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the altar; that there come no wrath any more upon the children 6 of Israel. And I, behold, I have taken your brethren, the Levites, from among the children of Israel; to you are they given as a gift for Jehovah to perform the service 7 of the tent of meeting. But thou and thy sons with thee shall attend to your priesthood for all that concerneth the altar, and for that which is inside the veil; and ye shall perform the service: I give you your priesthood as a service to gift, and the stranger that cometh near shall be put to death.
8 And Jehovah spoke to Aaron, And I, behold, I have given thee the charge of my heave-offerings, of all the hallowed things of the children of Israel; to thee have I given them, because of the anointing, and to thy sons by an 9 everlasting statute. This shall be thine of the most holy things, [reserved] from the fire: every offering[y] of theirs, of all their oblations, and of all their sin-offerings, and of all their trespass-offerings, which they render unto me, it is most holy for thee and 10 for thy sons. As most holy[z] shalt thou eat it: every male shall eat 11 it; it shall be holy unto thee. And this shall be thine: the heave-offering of their gift, with all the wave-offerings of the children of Israel; I have given them unto thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by an everlasting statute; every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.
12 All the best[a] of the oil, and all the best[a] of the new wine, and of the wheat, the firstfruits of them which they give to Jehovah, have 13 I given thee. The first ripe of everything that is in their land, which they shall bring to Jehovah, shall be thine; every one that is clean in thy house shall eat of it.
14 Every devoted thing in Israel shall 15 be thine. Everything that breaketh open the womb of all flesh, which they present to Jehovah, of men or of beasts, shall be thine; nevertheless the firstborn of man shalt thou in any case ransom, and the firstborn of unclean beasts 16 shalt thou ransom. And those that are to be ransomed from a month old shalt thou ransom, according to thy valuation, for the money of five shekels, after the shekel of the sanctuary, which is 17 twenty gerahs. But the firstborn of a cow, or the firstborn of a sheep, or the firstborn of a goat, thou shalt not ransom: they are holy. Thou shalt sprinkle their blood on the altar, and their fat shalt thou burn[b] as an offering by fire for 18 a sweet odour to Jehovah. And their flesh shall be thine; as the wave-breast and as the right shoul-19 der shall it be thine. All the heave-offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer[c] to Jehovah, have I given thee, and to thy sons and to thy daughters with thee, by an everlasting statute: it shall be an everlasting covenant of salt before Jehovah unto thee and thy seed with thee.

20 And Jehovah said to Aaron, In their land thou shalt have no inheritance, neither shalt thou have any portion among them: I am thy portion and thine inheritance 21 among the children of Israel. And to the children of Levi, behold, I have given all the tithes in Israel for an inheritance, for[d] their service which they perform, the ser-22 vice of the tent of meeting. Neither shall the children of Israel henceforth come near the tent of meet-23 ing, to bear sin and die. But the Levite, he shall perform the service of the tent of meeting, and they[e] shall bear their iniquity: it is an everlasting statute throughout your generations. And among the children of Israel shall they 24 possess no inheritance; for I have given for an inheritance to the Levites the tithes of the children of Israel, which they offer as a heave-offering to Jehovah; therefore I have said of them, They shall possess no inheritance among the children of Israel.
25 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 26 saying, And to the Levites shalt thou speak, and say unto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I have given you from them for your inheritance, then ye shall offer a heave-offering from it for Jehovah, 27 the tenth of the tithe. And your heave-offering shall be reckoned unto you, as the corn from the threshing-floor, and as the fulness 28 of the winepress. Thus ye also shall offer Jehovah's heave-offering of all your tithes, which ye take of the children of Israel; and ye shall give thereof Jehovah's heave-offering to Aaron the priest.
29 Out of all that is given you ye shall offer the whole heave-offering of Jehovah,—of all the best[f] thereof 30 the hallowed part thereof. And thou shalt say unto them, When ye heave the best[f] thereof from it, then it shall be counted unto the Levites as produce of the threshing-floor, and as produce of 31 the winepress. And ye shall eat it in every place, ye and your households; for it is your reward for[g] your service in the tent of 32 meeting. And ye shall bear no sin by reason of it, if ye heave from it the best[f] of it; and ye shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, lest ye die.

19 And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron, saying, 2 This is the statute of the law which Jehovah hath commanded, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a red heifer without blemish, wherein is no defect, and upon which never came 3 yoke; and ye shall give it to Eleazar the priest, and he shall bring it outside the camp, and one 4 shall slaughter it before him. And Eleazar the priest shall take of its blood with his finger, and shall sprinkle of its blood directly before the tent of meeting seven times.
5 And one shall burn[h] the heifer before his eyes; its skin and its flesh, and its blood, with its dung, 6 shall he burn. And the priest shall take cedar-wood, and hyssop, and scarlet, and cast them into the midst of the burning of the heifer.
7 And the priest shall wash his garments, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and afterwards he shall come into the camp; and the priest shall be unclean until the 8 even; and he that hath burned it shall wash his garments in water, and bathe his flesh in water, and shall be unclean until the even.
9 And a clean man shall gather the ashes of the heifer, and deposit them outside the camp in a clean place, and it shall be kept for the assembly of the children of Israel for a water of separation: it is a 10 purification for sin.[i] And he that hath gathered the ashes of the heifer shall wash his clothes, and be unclean until the even. And it shall be unto the children of Israel, and unto the stranger that sojourneth among them, an everlasting statute.
11 He that toucheth a dead person, any dead body of a man, shall be 12 unclean seven days. He shall purify[k] himself with it on the third day, and on the seventh day he shall be clean; but if he purify not himself the third day, then the seventh day he shall not be 13 clean. Whoever toucheth a dead person, the dead body of a man that is dead, and purifieth not himself, defileth the tabernacle of Jehovah; and that soul shall be cut off from Israel; for the water of separation was not sprinkled upon him: he shall be unclean; his uncleanness is yet upon him.
14 This is the law, when a man dieth in a tent: every one that cometh into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shall be unclean 15 seven days. And every open vessel, which hath no covering bound upon it, shall be unclean.

16 And every one that toucheth one that is slain with a sword in the open fields, or a dead person, or the bone of a man, or a grave, shall 17 be unclean seven days. And they shall take for the unclean of the ashes of the purification-offering that hath been burned, and shall put running water thereon in a 18 vessel; and a clean man shall take hyssop, and dip it in the water, and sprinkle it on the tent, and upon all the utensils, and upon the persons that were there, and upon him that hath touched the bone, or the one slain, or the dead per-19 son, or the grave; and the clean shall sprinkle it on the unclean on the third day, and on the seventh day; and he shall purify him on the seventh day; and he shall wash his garments, and bathe himself in water, and shall be clean at 20 even. And the man that is unclean, and doth not purify himself, that soul shall be cut off from the midst of the congregation, for he hath defiled the sanctuary of Jehovah: the water of separation hath not been sprinkled on him: he is 21 unclean. And it shall be an everlasting statute unto them. And he that sprinkleth the water of separation shall wash his garments, and he that toucheth the water of separation shall be unclean until 22 even. And whatever the unclean person toucheth shall be unclean; and the soul that toucheth it shall be unclean until even.

20 And the children of Israel, the whole assembly, came into the wilderness of Zin, in the first month; and the people abode at Kadesh; and Miriam died there, and was buried there.

2 And there was no water for the assembly, and they gathered themselves together against Moses and 3 against Aaron. And the people contended with Moses, and spoke, saying, Would that we had died when our brethren died before 4 Jehovah! And why have ye brought the congregation of Jehovah into this wilderness, that we should die there, we and our 5 beasts? And why have ye made us to go up out of Egypt, to bring us to this evil place? it is no place of seed, or of figs, or of vines, or of pomegranates; neither is there 6 any water to drink. And Moses and Aaron went from before the congregation to the entrance of the tent of meeting, and fell upon their faces; and the glory of Jehovah appeared to them.

7 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
8 saying, Take the staff, and gather the assembly together, thou, and Aaron thy brother, and speak ye unto the rock before their eyes, and it shall give its water; and thou shalt bring forth to them water out of the rock, and shalt give the assembly and their beasts 9 drink. And Moses took the staff from before Jehovah, as he had 10 commanded him. And Moses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rock, and he said to them, Hear now, ye rebels: shall we bring forth to you water 11 out of this rock? And Moses lifted up his hand, and with his staff smote the rock twice, and much water came out, and the assembly drank, and their beasts.
12 And Jehovah said to Moses and to Aaron, Because ye believed me not, to hallow me before the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land that I have given 13 them. These are the waters of Meribah,[1] where the children of Israel contended with Jehovah, and he hallowed himself in them.
14 And Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, Thus says thy brother Israel: Thou knowest all the trouble that hath 15 befallen us, how our fathers went down to Egypt, and we dwelt in Egypt a long time, and the Egyptians evil entreated us and our 16 fathers; and when we cried to Jehovah, he heard our voice, and sent an angel, and brought us forth out of Egypt; and behold, we are at Kadesh, a city at the 17 extremity of thy border. Let us pass, I pray thee, through thy country; we will not pass through fields, or through vineyards, neither will we drink water out of the wells: we will go by the king's road; we will not turn to the right hand nor to the left, until we have 18 passed thy border. But Edom said to him, Thou shalt not pass by me, lest I come out against thee 19 with the sword. And the children of Israel said to him, We will go by the high way; and if we drink of [1] Contention.

thy water, I and my cattle, then I will pay for it: I will only, without anything else, go through on 20 my feet. And he said, Thou shalt not go through. And Edom came out against him with much people, 21 and with a strong hand. Thus Edom refused to give Israel passage through his territory; and Israel turned away from him.
22 And they removed from Kadesh; and the children of Israel, the whole assembly, came to mount 23 Hor. And Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Aaron in mount Hor, on the border of the land of Edom, 24 saying, Aaron shall be gathered unto his peoples; for he shall not enter into the land that I have given unto the children of Israel, because ye rebelled against my commandment at the waters of 25 Meribah. Take Aaron and Eleazar his son, and bring them up unto 26 mount Hor, and strip Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron shall be gathered [to his peoples], and 27 shall die there. And Moses did as Jehovah had commanded, and they went up mount Hor before the eyes of the whole assembly.
28 And Moses stripped Aaron of his garments, and put them upon Eleazar his son; and Aaron died there upon the top of the mountain; and Moses and Eleazar came 29 down from the mountain. And the whole assembly saw that Aaron was dead, and they mourned for Aaron thirty days, [even] the whole house of Israel.

21 And the Canaanite king of Arad, who dwelt in the south,[m] heard that Israel came by the way of Atharim,[n] and he fought against Israel, and took some of them
2 prisoners. Then Israel vowed a vow to Jehovah, and said, If thou give this people wholly into my hand, then I will utterly destroy 3 their cities. And Jehovah listened to the voice of Israel, and delivered up the Canaanites; and they utterly destroyed them, and their cities. And they called the name of the place Hormah.[o]
4 And they journeyed from mount Hor by the way of the Red sea, to go round the land of Edom; and the soul of the people became im-
5 patient[p] on the way; and the people spoke against God, and against Moses, Why have ye brought us up out of Egypt that we should die in the wilderness? for there is no bread, and no water, and our soul 6 loathes this light bread. Then Jehovah sent fiery serpents among the people, which bit the people; and much people of Israel died.
7 And the people came to Moses and said, We have sinned, in that we have spoken against Jehovah, and against thee: pray to Jehovah that he take away the serpents from us. And Moses prayed for 8 the people. And Jehovah said to Moses, Make thee a fiery [serpent], and set it upon a pole; and it shall come to pass, that every one that is 9 bitten, and looketh upon it, shall live. And Moses made a serpent of brass,[q] and put it upon a pole; and it came to pass, if a serpent had bitten any man, and he beheld the serpent of brass,[q] he lived.
10 And the children of Israel journeyed, and encamped in Oboth.
11 And they removed from Oboth, and encamped at Ijim-Abarim,[r] in the wilderness that is before Moab, toward the sun-rising.
12 From thence they removed, and encamped at the torrent Zered.
13 From thence they removed, and encamped on the other side of the Arnon, which is in the wilderness that comes out of the border of the Amorites. For the Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and 14 the Amorites. Therefore it is said in the book of the wars of Jehovah, Vaheb in Suphah, and the brooks of Arnon; 15 And the stream of the brooks which turneth to the dwelling of Ar,[s] And inclineth toward the border of Moab.
16 And from thence to Beer:[t] that is the well of which Jehovah spoke to Moses, Assemble the people, and 17 I will give them water. Then Israel sang this song, Rise up, well! sing unto it:
18 Well which princes digged, which the nobles of the people hollowed out at [the word of] the lawgiver, with their staves.[v]
And from the wilderness [they 19 went] to Mattanah; and from Mattanah to Nahaliel; and from 20 Nahaliel to Bamoth; and from Bamoth to the valley that is in the fields of Moab, to the top of Pisgah, which looks over the surface of the waste.

21 And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, saying, 22 Let us pass through thy land; we will not turn into the fields, or into the vineyards; we will not drink water out of the wells; on the king's road will we go until we 23 have passed thy border. But Sihon would not suffer Israel to go through his border; and Sihon gathered all his people, and went out against Israel into the wilderness, and came to Jahaz, and 24 fought against Israel. And Israel smote him with the edge of the sword, and took possession of his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, even unto the children of Ammon; for the border of the chil-25 dren of Ammon was strong. And Israel took all these cities, and Israel dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites, at Heshbon, and in all 26 its dependent villages.[w] For Heshbon was the city of Sihon the king of the Amorites; and he had fought against the former king of Moab, and had taken all his land out of his hand, even unto the 27 Arnon. Therefore the poets say, Come to Heshbon; let the city of Sihon be built and established.
28 For there went forth fire from Heshbon, a flame from the city of Sihon;
It consumed Ar of Moab, the lords of the high places of the Arnon.
29 Woe to thee, Moab! thou art undone, people of Chemosh:
He gave his sons that had escaped,[x] and his daughters into captivity to Sihon the king of the Amorites.
30 And we have shot at them;[y] Heshbon is perished even unto Dibon; and we have laid [them] waste even unto Nophah, which reacheth unto Medeba.[z] 31 And Israel dwelt in the land of 32 the Amorites. And Moses sent to spy out Jaazer, and they took its dependent villages,[a] and he dispossessed the Amorites that were there.
33 And they turned and went up by the way to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan went out against them, he and all his people, for 34 battle to Edrei. And Jehovah said to Moses, Fear him not! for into thy hand have I given him, and all his people, and his land;
and thou shalt do to him as thou didst unto Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon.
35 And they smote him, and his sons, and all his people, so that they left him none remaining, and took possession of his land.

22 And the children of Israel journeyed, and encamped in the plains of Moab on the other side of the Jordan from[b] Jericho.
2 And Balak the son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the 3 Amorites. And Moab was much afraid of the people, because they were many; and Moab was distressed[c] because of the children 4 of Israel. And Moab said to the elders of Midian, Now will this company lick up all that is round about us, as an ox licks up the green herb of the field. Now Balak the son of Zippor was king of Moab 5 at that time. And he sent messengers to Balaam the son of Beor, to Pethor, which is on the river in[d] the land of the children of his people, to call him, saying, Behold, a people is come out from Egypt; behold, they cover the face[e] of the land, and they abide over against 6 me. And now come, I pray thee, curse me this people; for they are mightier than I: perhaps I may be able to smite them, and drive them out of the land; for I know that he whom thou blessest is blessed, and he whom thou cursest 7 is cursed. And the elders of Moab and the elders of Midian departed, having the rewards of divination in their hand. And they came to Balaam, and spoke to him the 8 words of Balak. And he said to them, Lodge here this night, and I will bring you word again, according as Jehovah shall speak unto me. And the princes of Moab abode with Balaam.
9 And God came to Balaam, and said, Who are these men with 10 thee? And Balaam said to God, Balak the son of Zippor, king of 11 Moab hath sent unto me, Behold, a people is come out of Egypt, and it covers the face of the land.
Now come, curse me them: perhaps I may be able to fight against 12 them, and drive them out. And God said to Balaam, Thou shalt not go with them; thou shalt not curse the people; for they are 13 blessed. And Balaam rose up in the morning, and said to the princes of Balak, Go into your land; for Jehovah refuses to give me leave 14 to go with you. And the princes of Moab rose up; and they went to Balak, and said, Balaam has refused to come with us.

15 Then sent Balak yet again princes, more, and more honour-16 able than they. And they came to Balaam, and said to him, Thus says Balak the son of Zippor: Suffer not thyself, I pray thee, to be restrained from coming to me;
17 for very highly will I honour thee, and whatever thou shalt say to me will I do; come therefore, I pray thee, curse me this people.
18 And Balaam answered and said to the servants of Balak, If Balak give me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the commandment of Jehovah my 19 God, to do less or more. And now, I pray you, abide ye also here this night, and I shall know what Jeho-20 vah will say to me further. Then God came to Balaam at night, and said to him, If the men have come to call thee, rise up, [and] go with them; but only what I shall say 21 unto thee shalt thou do. And Balaam rose up in the morning, and saddled his ass,[f] and went with the princes of Moab.
22 And God's anger was kindled because he went; and the Angel of Jehovah set himself in the way to withstand him.[g] Now he was 23 riding upon his ass, and his two young men were with him. And the ass saw the Angel of Jehovah standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand; and the ass turned aside out of the way, and went into the field, and Balaam smote the ass to turn her into the 24 way. And the Angel of Jehovah stood in a hollow of the vineyards, a wall being on this side, and a wall 25 on that side. And the ass saw the Angel of Jehovah, and she pressed herself against the wall, and crushed Balaam's foot against the wall; and he smote her again.
26 Then the Angel of Jehovah went still further, and stood in a narrow place, where was no way to turn either to the right hand or to the 27 left. And the ass saw the Angel of Jehovah, and lay down under Balaam; and Balaam's anger was kindled, and he smote the ass with 28 his staff. And Jehovah opened the mouth of the ass, and she said to Balaam, What have I done to thee, that thou hast smitten me these 29 three times? And Balaam said to the ass, Because thou hast mocked me: I would there were a sword in my hand, for now would I kill 30 thee! And the ass said to Balaam, Am not I thine ass, upon which thou hast ridden ever since I was thine to this day? was I ever wont to do so to thee? And he said, 31 No. Then Jehovah opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the Angel of Jehovah standing in the way, and his sword drawn in his hand; and he bowed and pros-32 trated himself on his face. And the Angel of Jehovah said to him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine ass these three times? behold, it was I who came forth to withstand thee,[h] for the way [thou walkest 33 in] is for ruin before me. And the ass saw me, and turned from me these three times; had she not turned from me, I had now certainly slain thee, and saved her 34 alive. And Balaam said to the Angel of Jehovah, I have sinned; for I knew not that thou stoodest in the way against me; and now, if it be evil in thine eyes, I will get 35 me back again. And the Angel of Jehovah said to Balaam, Go with the men, but only the word that I shall speak unto thee, that shalt thou speak. And Balaam went with the princes of Balak.
36 And when Balak heard that Balaam came, he went out to meet him, to the city of Moab, which is on the border of the Arnon, which is at the extremity of the border.
37 And Balak said to Balaam, Did I not earnestly send to thee to call thee? why didst thou not come to me? am I not surely able to 38 honour thee? And Balaam said to Balak, Lo, I am come to thee; but shall I now be able at all to say anything? the word that God puts in my mouth, that shall I speak.
39 And Balaam went with Balak, and 40 they came to Kirjath-huzoth. And Balak offered oxen and small cattle, and sent to Balaam and to the princes that were with him.
41 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Balak took Balaam, and brought him up to the high places of Baal, and he saw from thence the extremity of the people.

23 And Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven bullocks 2 and seven rams. And Balak did

[f] 'She-ass,' all through. [g] Lit. 'as an adversary against him.' [h] Lit. 'as an adversary.'

as Balaam had said; and Balak and Balaam offered up a bullock 3 and a ram on [each] altar. And Balaam said to Balak, Stand by thy burnt-offering, and I will go; perhaps Jehovah will come to meet me; and whatever he shews me I will tell thee. And he went to 4 a hill.[i] And God met Balaam; and [Balaam] said to him, I have disposed seven altars, and have offered up a bullock and a ram 5 upon [each] altar. And Jehovah put a word in Balaam's mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and 6 thus shalt thou speak. And he returned to him, and behold, he was standing by his burnt-offering, he, 7 and all the princes of Moab. And he took up his parable,[j] and said, Balak the king of Moab hath brought me from Aram,[k] from the mountains of the east:
Come, curse me Jacob, and come, denounce Israel!
8 How shall I curse whom God[l] hath not cursed? or how shall I denounce whom Jehovah doth not denounce?
9 For from the top of the rocks I see him, and from the hills I behold him:
Lo, [it is] a people that shall dwell alone and shall not be reckoned among the nations.
10 Who can count the dust of Jacob, and the number of the fourth part of Israel?
Let my soul die the death of the righteous, and let my end be like his!
11 And Balak said to Balaam, What hast thou done to me? I took thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast blessed them 12 altogether. And he answered and said, Must I not take heed to speak that which Jehovah puts in my 13 mouth? And Balak said to him, Come, I pray thee, with me to another place, from whence thou wilt see them; thou shalt see only the extremity of them and shalt not see them all, and curse me 14 them from thence. And he took him to the watchmen's field,[m] to the top of Pisgah, and built seven altars, and offered up a bullock 15 and a ram on [each] altar. And [Balaam] said to Balak, Stand here by thy burnt-offering, and I will go to meet yonder.
16 And Jehovah met Balaam, and put a word in his mouth, and said, Return to Balak, and thus shalt 17 thou speak. And he came to him, and behold, he was standing by his burnt-offering, and the princes of Moab with him; and Balak said to him, What has Jehovah 18 spoken? Then he took up his parable and said, Rise up, Balak, and hear! hearken unto me, son of Zippor!
19 God[l] is not a man, that he should lie; neither a son of man, that he should repent.
Shall he say and not do? and shall he speak and not make it good?
20 Behold, I have received [mission] to bless; and he hath blessed, and I cannot reverse it.
21 He hath not beheld iniquity in Jacob, neither hath he seen wrong in Israel; Jehovah his God is with him, and the shout of a king is in his midst.
22 God[l] brought him[n] out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength[o] of a buffalo.
23 For there is no enchantment against Jacob, neither is there any divination against Israel.
At this time[p] it shall be said of Jacob and of Israel, What hath God[l] wrought!
24 Lo, the people will rise up as a lioness, and lift himself up as a lion.
He shall not lie down until he have eaten the prey and drunk the blood of the slain.
25 And Balak said to Balaam, Neither curse them at all, nor bless 26 them at all. And Balaam answered and said to Balak, Did I not tell thee, saying, All that Jehovah shall speak, that will I do?
27 And Balak said to Balaam, Come, I pray thee, I will bring thee to another place; perhaps it will be right in the sight of God that thou 28 curse me them from thence. And Balak brought Balaam to the top of Peor, which looks over the sur-29 face of the waste. And Balaam said to Balak, Build me here seven altars, and prepare me here seven 30 bullocks and seven rams. And Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered up a bullock and a ram on each altar.

24 And Balaam saw that it was good in the sight of Jehovah to bless Israel, and he went not, as at other times, to seek for [q] enchantments but he set his face toward 2 the wilderness. And Balaam lifted up his eyes and saw Israel dwelling [in tents] according to his tribes; and the Spirit of God came upon 3 him. And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor saith, [r] and the man of opened eye saith, [r] 4 He saith, [r] who heareth the words of God, [s] who seeth the vision of the Almighty, who falleth down, and who hath his eyes open:

5 How goodly are thy tents, Jacob, and thy tabernacles, Israel!
6 Like valleys are they spread forth, like gardens by the river side, Like aloe-trees which Jehovah hath planted, like cedars beside the waters.
7 Water shall flow out of his buckets, and his seed shall be in great waters,
And his king shall be higher than Agag, and his kingdom shall be exalted.
8 God [s] brought him out of Egypt; he hath as it were the strength [t] of a buffalo.
He shall consume the nations his enemies, and break [u] their bones, and with his arrows shall smite [them] in pieces.
9 He stooped, he lay down like a lion, and like a lioness: who will stir him up?
Blessed is he that blesseth thee, and cursed is he that curseth thee.
10 Then Balak's anger was kindled against Balaam, and he smote his hands together; and Balak said to Balaam, I called thee to curse mine enemies, and behold, thou hast altogether blessed [them] 11 these three times! And now flee thou to thy place; I said I would very highly honour thee, and behold, Jehovah has kept thee back 12 from honour. And Balaam said to Balak, Did I not also speak to thy messengers whom thou sentest 13 to me, saying, If Balak gave me his house full of silver and gold, I could not go beyond the commandment of Jehovah to do good or bad out of my heart: what Jehovah shall say, that will I speak?
14 And now behold, I go to my people: come, I will admonish thee what this people will do to thy 15 people at the end of days. And he took up his parable, and said, Balaam the son of Beor saith, [r] and the man of opened eye saith, [r] 16 He saith, [r] who heareth the words of God, [s] who knoweth the knowledge of the Most High,
Who seeth the vision of the Almighty, who falleth down, and who hath his eyes open:
17 I shall see him, but not now; I shall behold him, but not nigh:
There cometh a Star out of Jacob, and a Sceptre shall rise out of Israel, and he shall cut in pieces the corners of Moab, and destroy [v] all the sons of tumult. [w] 18 And Edom shall be a possession, and Seir a possession,—they, his enemies; but Israel will do valiantly.
19 And one out of Jacob shall have dominion, and will destroy out of the city what remaineth. [x] 20 And he saw Amalek, and took up his parable, and said, Amalek is the first of the nations, but his latter end shall be for destruction.
21 And he saw the Kenites, and took up his parable, and said, Firm is thy dwelling-place, and thy nest fixed in the rock; 22 But the Kenite shall be consumed, until Asshur shall carry thee away captive.
23 And he took up his parable, and said, Alas! Who shall live when God [y] doeth this?
24 And ships shall come from the coast of Chittim, and afflict Asshur, and afflict Eber, and he also shall be for destruction.
25 And Balaam rose up, and went and returned to his place; and Balak also went his way.

25 And Israel abode in Shittim; and the people began to commit fornication with the daughters 2 of Moab. And they invited the people to the sacrifices of their gods; and the people ate, and 3 bowed down to their gods. And Israel joined himself to Baal-Peor; and the anger of Jehovah was 4 kindled against Israel. And Jehovah said to Moses, Take all the heads of the people, and hang them up to Jehovah before the sun, that the fierce anger of Jehovah may be 5 turned away from Israel. And Moses said to the judges of Israel, Slay every one his men that have joined themselves to Baal-Peor.

6 And behold, a man of the children of Israel came and brought a Midianitish woman to his brethren, in the sight of Moses, and in the sight of the whole assembly of the children of Israel, who were weeping before the entrance of the 7 tent of meeting. And Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, saw it, and rose up from among the assembly, and 8 took a javelin in his hand, and he went after the man of Israel into the tent-chamber, and thrust both of them through, the man of Israel and the woman through her belly. And the plague was stayed 9 from the children of Israel. And those that died in the plague were twenty-four thousand.
10 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 11 saying, Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the priest, hath turned my wrath away from the children of Israel, in that he was jealous with my jealousy among them, so that I consumed not the children of Israel in my 12 jealousy. Therefore say, Behold, I give unto him my covenant of 13 peace! And he shall have it, and his seed after him, the covenant of an everlasting priesthood; because he was jealous for his God, and made atonement for the children of Israel.
14 And the name of the man of Israel that was slain, who was slain with the Midianitish woman, was Zimri, the son of Salu, the prince of a father's house of the 15 Simeonites. And the name of the Midianitish woman that was slain was Cozbi, the daughter of Zur; he was tribal head of a father's house in Midian.
16 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 17 saying, Harass the Midianites, and 18 smite them, for they have harassed you with their wiles, wherewith they have beguiled you in the matter of Peor, and in the matter of Cozbi, the daughter of a prince of Midian, their sister, who was slain on the day of the plague because of the matter of Peor.

26 And it came to pass after the plague, that Jehovah spoke to Moses and to Eleazar the son of 2 Aaron the priest, saying, Take the sum of the whole assembly of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, according to their fathers' houses, all that go forth to military service in 3 Israel. And Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them in the plains of Moab by the Jordan of 4 Jericho, saying, From twenty years old and upward . . .; as Jehovah had commanded Moses and the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt.
5 Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: the children of Reuben: [of] Enoch, the family of the Enochites; of Pallu, the family of the 6 Palluites; of Hezron, the family of the Hezronites; of Carmi, the 7 family of the Carmites. These are the families of the Reubenites; and they that were numbered of them were forty-three thousand 8 seven hundred and thirty. And 9 the sons of Pallu: Eliab; and the sons of Eliab were Nemuel, and Dathan, and Abiram. This is that Dathan and Abiram, summoned [z] of the assembly, who contended against Moses and against Aaron in the band of Korah, when they 10 contended against Jehovah. And the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up together with Korah, when that band died, when the fire devoured the two hundred and fifty men; and they became a 11 sign.[a] But the children of Korah died not.
12 The sons of Simeon, after their families: of Nemuel, the family of the Nemuelites; of Jamin, the family of the Jaminites; of Jachin, 50 These are the families of Naphtali, according to their families; and they that were numbered of them were forty-five thousand four hundred.

51 These were the numbered of the children of Israel, six hundred and one thousand seven hundred and thirty.

52 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 53 saying, Unto these shall the land be divided for an inheritance according to the number of the 54 names; to the many thou shalt increase their inheritance, and to the few thou shalt diminish their inheritance; to every one shall his inheritance be given according to those that were numbered of him.
55 Notwithstanding the land shall be divided by lot; according to the names of the tribes of their fathers 56 shall they inherit; according to lot shall his inheritance be divided to each, be they many or few in number.[c]

57 And these are the numbered of the Levites, after their families:

[b] Lit. 'family of Jimnah.'

[c] Or 'be it much or little.'

of Gershon, the family of the Gershonites; of Kohath, the family of the Kohathites; of Merari, the 58 family of the Merarites. These are the families of the Levites: the family of the Libnites, the family of the Hebronites, the family of the Mahlites, the family of the Mushites, the family of the Korahites.—And Kohath begot Amram.
59 And the name of Amram's wife was Jochebed, the daughter of Levi, who was born to Levi in Egypt; and she bore to Amram Aaron and Moses, and Miriam 60 their sister. And to Aaron were born Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, 61 and Ithamar. And Nadab and Abihu died, when they presented 62 strange fire before Jehovah. And those that were numbered of the [Levites] were twenty-three thousand, all males from a month old and upward; for they were not numbered among the children of Israel, because there was no inheritance given them among the children of Israel.
63 These are they that were numbered by Moses and Eleazar the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the plains of Moab, by 64 the Jordan of Jericho. But among these there was not a man numbered by Moses and Aaron the priest, who numbered the children of Israel in the wilderness of Sinai.
65 For Jehovah had said of them, They shall surely die in the wilderness. And there was not left a man of them, save Caleb the son of Jephunneh, and Joshua the son of Nun.

27 Then drew near the daughters of Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of Manasseh the son of Joseph; and these were the names of his daughters: Mahlah, Noah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, 2 and Tirzah. And they stood before Moses, and before Eleazar the priest, and before the princes and the whole assembly, at the entrance of the tent of meeting, say-3 ing, Our father died in the wilderness, and he was not in the band of them that banded themselves together against Jehovah in the band of Korah; but he died in his 4 own sin, and he had no sons. Why should the name of our father be taken away from his family, because he has no son? Give unto us a possession among the brethren 5 of our father. And Moses brought their cause before Jehovah.
6 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
7 saying, The daughters of Zelophehad speak right: thou shalt surely give them a possession of an inheritance among their father's brethren; and thou shalt cause the inheritance of their father to pass 8 unto them. And unto the children of Israel shalt thou speak, saying, If a man die, and have no son, then ye shall cause his inheritance to 9 pass unto his daughter. And if he have no daughter, ye shall give his 10 inheritance unto his brethren. And if he have no brethren, ye shall give his inheritance unto his 11 father's brethren. And if his father have no brethren, ye shall give his inheritance to his kinsman that is nearest to him in his family, and he shall possess it; and it shall be unto the children of Israel a statute of right,[d] as Jehovah commanded Moses.
12 And Jehovah said to Moses, Get thee up into this mount Abarim, and see the land that I have given 13 unto the children of Israel. And when thou hast seen it, thou also shalt be gathered unto thy peoples, as Aaron thy brother was 14 gathered, because ye rebelled against my word[e] in the wilderness of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, as to hallowing me in the matter of the water before their eyes. (That is the water of Meribah[f] at Kadesh in the wilder-15 ness of Zin.) And Moses spoke to 16 Jehovah, saying, Let Jehovah, the God of the spirits of all flesh, set 17 a man over the assembly, who may go out before them, and who may come in before them, and who may lead them out, and who may bring them in, that the assembly of Jehovah be not as sheep that 18 have no shepherd. And Jehovah said to Moses, Take Joshua the son of Nun, a man in whom is the Spirit, and thou shalt lay thy 19 hand upon him; and thou shalt set him before Eleazar the priest, and before the whole assembly; and give him commandment be-20 fore their eyes. And thou shalt put of thine honour upon him, that the whole assembly of the children 21 of Israel may obey him. And he shall stand before Eleazar the priest, who shall inquire for him, by the judgment of the Urim before Jehovah: at his word shall they go out, and at his word they shall come in, he, and all the children of Israel with him, even 22 the whole assembly. And Moses did as Jehovah had commanded him; and he took Joshua and set him before Eleazar the priest, and 23 before the whole assembly. And he laid his hands upon him, and gave him commandment, as Jehovah had said through Moses.

[d] Or 'judgment.' [e] Lit. 'mouth.' [f] Strife.

28 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, My offering,[g] my bread for my offerings by fire of sweet odour to me, shall ye take heed to present to me at their set time.

3 And say unto them, This is the offering by fire which ye shall present to Jehovah: two yearling lambs[h] without blemish, day by day, as a continual burnt-offering.
4 The one lamb shalt thou offer in the morning, and the other lamb thou shalt offer between the two 5 evenings; and a tenth part of an ephah of fine flour for an oblation, mingled with beaten oil, a fourth 6 part of a hin: [it is] the continual burnt-offering which was ordained[i] on mount Sinai for a sweet odour, an offering by fire to Jehovah.
7 And the drink-offering thereof shall be a fourth part of a hin for one lamb; in the sanctuary shall the drink-offering of strong drink 8 be poured out to Jehovah. And the second lamb thou shalt offer between the two evenings; [with the] like oblation as that of the morning, and the like drink-offering, shalt thou offer it as an offering by fire of a sweet odour to Jehovah.

9 And on the sabbath day two yearling lambs without blemish, and two tenth parts of fine flour as an oblation, mingled with oil, and 10 the drink-offering thereof: it is the burnt-offering of the sabbath, for each sabbath besides the continual burnt-offering, and its drink-offering.

11 And in the beginnings of your months ye shall present a burnt-offering to Jehovah: two young bullocks, and one ram, seven yearling lambs without blemish.
12 And three tenth parts of fine flour as an oblation, mingled with oil, for one bullock; and two tenth parts of fine flour as an oblation, 13 mingled with oil, for the ram; and a tenth part of fine flour mingled with oil as an oblation for each lamb: [it is] a burnt-offering of a sweet odour, an offering by fire 14 to Jehovah. And their drink-offerings: half a hin of wine for a bullock, and the third part of a hin for the ram, and the fourth part of a hin for a lamb. This is the monthly burnt-offering for each month throughout the months 15 of the year. And a buck of the goats shall be offered, for a sin-offering to Jehovah, besides the continual burnt-offering, and its drink-offering.

16 And in the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month, is 17 the passover to Jehovah. And on the fifteenth day of this month is the feast; seven days shall un-18 leavened bread be eaten. On the first day shall be a holy convocation: no manner of servile work 19 shall ye do; and ye shall present an offering by fire, a burnt-offering to Jehovah: two young bullocks, and one ram, and seven yearling lambs; they shall be unto you 20 without blemish; and their oblation shall be of fine flour mingled with oil: three tenth parts shall ye offer for a bullock, and two 21 tenth parts for the ram; one tenth part shalt thou offer for each lamb, 22 of the seven lambs; and a he-goat as a sin-offering, to make 23 atonement for you. Besides the burnt-offering of the morning, which is for a continual burnt-24 offering, shall ye offer this. After this manner ye shall offer daily, seven days, the bread of the offering by fire of a sweet odour to Jehovah; it shall be offered besides the continual burnt-offering, and 25 its drink-offering. And on the seventh day ye shall have a holy convocation; no manner of servile work shall ye do.

26 And on the day of the firstfruits, when ye present a new oblation to Jehovah, after your weeks,[j] ye shall have a holy convocation: no manner of servile work shall ye do.
27 And ye shall present a burnt-offering for a sweet odour to Jehovah: two young bullocks, one ram, 28 seven yearling lambs; and their oblation of fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts for one bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, 29 one tenth part for each lamb of the 30 seven lambs; [and] one buck of the goats, to make atonement for 31 you. Ye shall offer them besides the continual burnt-offering, and [g] Heb. Corban. [h] Or 'lambs of the first year;' and so often. [i] Lit. 'made.' [j] Or 'in your [feast of] weeks.'

its oblation (without blemish shall they be unto you), and their drink-offerings.

29 And in the seventh month, on the first of the month, ye shall have a holy convocation: no manner of servile work shall ye do; a day of blowing the trumpets 2 shall it be unto you. And ye shall offer a burnt-offering for a sweet odour to Jehovah: one young bullock, one ram, seven yearling 3 lambs without blemish; and their oblation of fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth parts for the ram, 4 and one tenth part for each lamb 5 of the seven lambs; and one buck of the goats for a sin-offering, to 6 make atonement for you,—besides the monthly burnt-offering and its oblation, and the continual burnt-offering and its oblation, and their drink-offerings, according to their ordinance, for a sweet odour, an offering by fire to Jehovah.

7 And on the tenth of this seventh month ye shall have a holy convocation; and ye shall afflict your souls; no manner of work shall ye 8 do. And ye shall present a burnt-offering to Jehovah for a sweet odour: one young bullock, one ram, seven yearling lambs (without blemish shall they be unto 9 you); and their oblation of fine flour mingled with oil, three tenth parts for the bullock, two tenth 10 parts for the ram, one tenth part for each lamb, of the seven lambs; 11 [and] one buck of the goats for a sin-offering,—besides the sin-offering of atonement, and the continual burnt-offering and its oblation, and their drink-offerings.

12 And on the fifteenth day of the seventh month ye shall have a holy convocation: no manner of servile work shall ye do; and ye shall celebrate a feast to Jehovah 13 seven days; and ye shall present a burnt-offering, an offering by fire for a sweet odour to Jehovah: thirteen young bullocks, two rams, fourteen yearling lambs (they shall 14 be without blemish); and their oblation of fine flour mingled with oil: three tenth parts for each bullock of the thirteen bullocks, two tenth parts for each ram of the 15 two rams, and one tenth part for each lamb of the fourteen lambs; 16 and one buck of the goats for a sin-offering,—besides the continual burnt-offering, its oblation and its drink-offering.

17 And on the second day, [ye shall present] twelve young bullocks, two rams, fourteen yearling lambs 18 without blemish; and their oblation and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, 19 according to the ordinance; and one buck of the goats for a sin-offering,—besides the continual burnt-offering and its oblation, and their drink-offerings.

20 And on the third day, eleven bullocks, two rams, fourteen year-21 ling lambs without blemish; and their oblation and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordi-22 nance; and one he-goat for a sin-offering,—besides the continual burnt-offering and its oblation and its drink-offering.

23 And on the fourth day, ten bullocks, two rams, fourteen yearling 24 lambs without blemish; their oblation and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, 25 according to the ordinance; and one buck of the goats for a sin-offering,—besides the continual burnt-offering, its oblation and its drink-offering.

26 And on the fifth day, nine bullocks, two rams, fourteen yearling 27 lambs without blemish; and their oblation and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, 28 according to the ordinance; and one he-goat for a sin-offering,—besides the continual burnt-offering and its oblation and its drink-offering.

29 And on the sixth day, eight bullocks, two rams, fourteen yearling 30 lambs without blemish; and their oblation and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, 31 according to the ordinance; and one he-goat for a sin-offering,—besides the continual burnt-offering, its oblation and its drink-offerings.

32 And on the seventh day, seven bullocks, two rams, fourteen yearling lambs without blemish; 33 and their oblation and their drink-offerings for the bullocks, for the rams, and for the lambs, by their number, according to their ordi-34 nance; and one he-goat for a sin-offering,—besides the continual burnt-offering, its oblation and its drink-offering.

35 On the eighth day ye shall have a solemn assembly: no manner of 36 servile work shall ye do. And ye shall present a burnt-offering, an offering by fire of a sweet odour to Jehovah: one bullock, one ram, seven yearling lambs without blem-37 ish; their oblation and their drink-offerings for the bullock, for the ram, and for the lambs, by their number, according to the ordi-38 nance; and one he-goat for a sin-offering,—besides the continual burnt-offering and its oblation and 39 its drink-offering. These shall ye offer to Jehovah in your set feasts, besides your vows, and your voluntary-offerings, for your burnt-offerings, and for your oblations, and for your drink-offerings, and for your peace-offerings.

40 And Moses told the children of Israel according to all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.

30 And Moses spoke to the heads of the tribes of the children of Israel, saying, This is what Jehovah hath commanded.
2 If a man vow a vow to Jehovah, or swear an oath to bind his soul with a bond, he shall not break his word; according to all that hath gone out of his mouth shall he do.
3 If a woman also vow a vow to Jehovah, and bind herself by a bond, in her father's house in her 4 youth, and her father hear her vow, and her bond wherewith she hath bound her soul, and her father shall be silent at her, then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her soul shall 5 stand. But if her father prohibited her in the day that he heard, none of her vows, or of her bonds wherewith she hath bound her soul, shall stand; and Jehovah shall pardon her, because her 6 father prohibited her. And if she have a husband, when she hath her vow upon her or ought that hath passed her lips wherewith she 7 hath bound her soul, and her husband hear it and be silent at her in the day that he heareth it, then her vows shall stand, and her bonds wherewith she bound her 8 soul shall stand. But if her husband prohibit her on the day that he heareth it, and annul her vow which is upon her, and what hath passed her lips, wherewith she hath bound her soul, then Jehovah shall 9 pardon her. But the vow of a widow, and of her that is divorced, —everything wherewith she hath bound her soul shall stand against 10 her. And if she have vowed in her husband's house, or have bound her soul by an oath with a bond, 11 and her husband have heard it, and been silent at her, and hath not prohibited her, then all her vows shall stand, and every bond wherewith she hath bound her 12 soul shall stand. But if her husband have expressly annulled them on the day that he heard them, then nothing of that which is gone out of her lips as to her vows or the bond on her soul, shall stand: her husband hath annulled them; and Jehovah will pardon 13 her. Every vow, and every binding oath to afflict the soul, her husband can establish it, or her 14 husband can annul it. And if her husband be altogether silent at her from day to day, then he hath established all her vows or all her bonds which are upon her; he hath confirmed them, for he hath been silent at her in the day that 15 he heard them. But if he in any way[k] annul them after he hath heard them, then he shall bear her 16 iniquity. These are the statutes, which Jehovah commanded Moses, between a man and his wife, between a father and his daughter, in her youth in her father's house.

31 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Avenge the children of Israel upon the Midianites; afterwards shalt thou be gathered unto 3 thy peoples. And Moses spoke to the people, saying, Arm from amongst you men for military service, that they go[l] against Midian to execute Jehovah's vengeance 4 upon Midian. Of every tribe a thousand, of all the tribes of Israel, 5 shall ye send to the war. And there were levied out of the thousands of Israel, a thousand by tribe, twelve thousand armed for 6 war. And Moses sent them to the war, a thousand by the tribe, them and Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, to the war, and the holy instruments,[m] even[n] the 7 alarm-trumpets in his hand. And they warred against Midian, as Jehovah had commanded Moses, 8 and slew all the males. And they slew the kings of Midian, besides the others slain, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, five kings of Midian; and Balaam the son of Beor they slew with the 9 sword. And the children of Israel took the women of Midian captives, and their little ones, and took for a spoil all their cattle and all their flocks and all their goods; 10 and all their cities in their settlements and all their encampments 11 they burned with fire. And they took all the booty, and all the 12 prey, of man and of cattle; and they brought to Moses and Eleazar the priest, and to the assembly of the children of Israel, the captives[o] and the prey and the booty, to the camp in the plains of Moab, which are by the Jordan of Jericho.

[k] Or 'expressly;' as ver. 12. [l] Lit. 'be.' [m] Or 'instruments of the sanctuary.' [n] Or 'and.'

13 And Moses and Eleazar the priest and all the princes of the assembly went forth to meet them 14 outside the camp. And Moses was wroth with the officers of the army, with the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, who came from the service of the war;
15 and Moses said to them, Have ye 16 saved all the women alive? Lo, these, through the counsel[p] of Balaam, caused the children of Israel to commit sin[q] against Jehovah in the matter of Peor, and there was a plague on the assembly 17 of Jehovah. And now slay every male among the little ones, and slay every woman that hath known man by lying with him, 18 but all the children among the women that have not known lying with a man, keep alive for your-19 selves. And encamp outside the camp seven days; whoever hath killed a person,[r] and whoever hath touched any slain; ye shall purify[s] yourselves on the third day, and on the seventh day, you and your 20 captives. And every garment, and every vessel of skin, and all work of goat's hair, and every utensil of wood shall ye purify.[s] 21 And Eleazar the priest said to the men of war that had gone to the battle, This is the statute of the law which Jehovah hath com-22 manded Moses. Only the gold, and the silver, the copper, the iron, 23 the tin, and the lead, everything that passeth through the fire, ye shall make it go through the fire, and it shall be clean; only it shall be purified[s] with the water of separation; and everything that cannot pass through the fire ye shall make go through the water.
24 And ye shall wash your garments on the seventh day, and ye shall be clean; and afterwards ye may come into the camp.
25 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
26 saying, Take the sum of the prey that was taken, of man and of cattle, thou, and Eleazar the priest, and the chief fathers of the 27 assembly; and divide the prey into halves, between them that conducted the war, who went out to the battle, and the whole assembly.
28 And thou shalt levy a tribute for Jehovah of the men of war who went out to the army, one soul of five hundred of the persons, and of the oxen, and of the asses, and 29 of the small cattle. Of their half shall ye take it, and give it unto Eleazar the priest, for a heave-30 offering of Jehovah. And of the children of Israel's half, thou shalt take one portion of fifty, of the persons, of the oxen, of the asses, and of the small cattle, of every [kind of] beasts, and thou shalt give them unto the Levites, who keep the charge of the tabernacle 31 of Jehovah. And Moses and Eleazar the priest did as Jehovah 32 had commanded Moses. And the prey, the rest of the spoil, which the men of war had taken, was six hundred and seventy-five thou-33 sand sheep,[t] and seventy-two 34 thousand oxen, and sixty-one 35 thousand asses, and of human persons, of the women that had not known lying with a man, all the persons were thirty-two thousand.
36 And the half, the portion of them that had gone out to the war, was in number three hundred and thirty-seven thousand five hun-37 dred sheep,[t] and the tribute for Jehovah of the sheep was six hun-38 dred and seventy-five; and the oxen were thirty-six thousand, and the tribute thereof for Jehovah, 39 seventy-two; and the asses were thirty thousand five hundred, and the tribute thereof for Jehovah, 40 sixty-one; and the human persons were sixteen thousand, of whom the tribute for Jehovah was thirty-41 two persons. And Moses gave the tribute of Jehovah's heave-offering to Eleazar the priest, as Jehovah 42 had commanded Moses. And of the children of Israel's half, which Moses had divided, [taking it] from the men that served in the 43 war, (now the half belonging to the assembly was of the sheep, three hundred and thirty-seven thou-44 sand five hundred, and thirty-six 45 thousand oxen, and thirty thou-46 sand five hundred asses, and sixteen thousand human persons,) . . .

Moses took one portion of fifty, of man and of cattle, and gave them to the Levites who kept the charge of the tabernacle of Jehovah; as Jehovah had commanded Moses.

48 And the officers who were over the thousands of the host, the captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, came near to 49 Moses, and they said to Moses, Thy servants have taken the sum of the men of war who were under our hand, and there is not one 50 man of us lacking. So we present the offering[u] of Jehovah, that which each one hath found, jewels of gold, chains, and bracelets, rings, earrings, and necklaces, to make atonement for our souls 51 before Jehovah. And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of them, all manner of wrought 52 jewels. And all the gold of the heave-offering that they offered[v] to Jehovah was sixteen thousand seven hundred and fifty shekels, from the captains of thousands and 53 the captains of hundreds. (The men of war had taken spoil each 54 one for himself.) And Moses and Eleazar the priest took the gold of the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and brought it into the tent of meeting, as a memorial for the children of Israel before Jehovah.

32 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad had much cattle, a very great multitude; and they saw the land of Jaazer, and the land of Gilead, and behold, the place was a place for 2 cattle. And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben came and spoke to Moses, and to Eleazar the priest, and to the princes of the 3 assembly, saying, Ataroth, and Dibon, and Jaazer, and Nimrah, and Heshbon, and Elaleh, and 4 Sebam, and Nebo, and Beon, the country that Jehovah smote before the assembly of Israel, is a land for cattle, and thy servants 5 have cattle; and they said, If we have found favour in thine eyes, let this land be given to thy servants for a possession: bring us not over the Jordan.

6 And Moses said to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, Shall your brethren go to 7 war, and shall ye abide here? And why do ye discourage[w] the children of Israel from going over into the land that Jehovah has given them?
8 Thus did your fathers, when I sent them from Kadesh-barnea to see 9 the land: they went up to the valley of Eshcol, and saw the land, and discouraged the children of Israel, that they should not go into the land that Jehovah had 10 given them. And Jehovah's anger was kindled the same time, and 11 he swore, saying, If the men that came up out of Egypt, from twenty years old and upward, shall see[x] the land that I swore to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob! for they 12 have not wholly followed me; save Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite, and Joshua the son of Nun; for they have wholly followed 13 Jehovah. And Jehovah's anger was kindled against Israel, and he made them wander in the wilderness forty years, until the whole generation was consumed that had done evil in the eyes of Jehovah.
14 And behold, ye are risen up in your fathers' stead, a progeny of sinful men, to augment yet the fierce anger of Jehovah toward Israel.
15 If ye turn away from after him, he will yet again leave them in the wilderness; and ye shall destroy all this people.

16 And they drew near to him, and said, We will build sheepfolds[y] here for our cattle, and cities for 17 our little ones; but we ourselves will go with diligence armed before the children of Israel, until we have brought them to their place; and our little ones shall dwell in the strong cities because of the 18 inhabitants of the land. We will not return to our houses, until the children of Israel have inherited each one his inheritance.
19 For we will not inherit with them on yonder side the Jordan, and further, because our inheritance is fallen to us on this side the Jordan eastward.

20 And Moses said to them, If ye do this thing, if ye arm yourselves 21 before Jehovah for war, and all of you that are armed go over the Jordan before Jehovah, until he have dispossessed his enemies from 22 before him, and the land is subdued before Jehovah, and afterwards ye return, ye shall be guiltless toward Jehovah and toward Israel, and this land shall be your 23 possession before Jehovah. But if ye do not do so, behold, ye have sinned against Jehovah, and be sure your sin will find you out.

24 Build yourselves cities for your little ones, and folds for your flocks, and do that which has gone out of your mouth.
25 And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben spoke to Moses, saying, Thy servants will do as 26 my lord commands. Our little ones, our wives, our cattle, and all our beasts shall be there in the 27 cities of Gilead; but thy servants will pass over, every one armed for war, before Jehovah to battle, as my lord says.
28 So concerning them Moses commanded Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the 29 children of Israel. And Moses said unto them, If the children of Gad and the children of Reuben pass with you over the Jordan, every one armed for battle, before Jehovah, and the land be subdued before you, then ye shall give them the land of Gilead for a possession; 30 but if they do not pass over with you armed, they shall have possessions among you in the land of 31 Canaan. And the children of Gad and the children of Reuben answered, saying, As Jehovah has said to thy servants, so will we do.
32 We will pass over armed before Jehovah into the land of Canaan, and the possession of our inheritance on this side the Jordan shall be ours.
33 And Moses gave to them, to the children of Gad, and to the children of Reuben, and to half the tribe of Manasseh the son of Joseph, the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites, and the kingdom of Og the king of Bashan, the land, according to its cities and territories, the cities of the land round 34 about. And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and 35 Aroer, and Atroth-Shophan, and 36 Jaazer, and Jogbehah, and Beth-Nimrah, and Beth-haran, strong 37 cities, and sheepfolds.—And the children of Reuben built Heshbon, 38 and Elaleh, and Kirjathaim, and Nebo, and Baal-meon (of which the names were changed), and Sibmah; and they gave other names to the cities that they built.
39 —And the children of Machir the son of Manasseh went to Gilead, and took it, and they [z] dispossessed the Amorites that were therein.
40 And Moses gave Gilead to Machir the son of Manasseh; and he dwelt 41 therein. And Jair the son of Manasseh went and took their hamlets, and called them Havoth-[a] 42 Jair. And Nobah went and took Kenath, and its dependent villages,[b] and called it Nobah, after his name.

33 These are the journeys of the children of Israel, who went forth out of the land of Egypt according to their armies under 2 the hand of Moses and Aaron. And Moses wrote their goings out according to their journeys by the commandment of Jehovah; and these are their journeys according 3 to their goings out. They journeyed [c] from Rameses in the first month, on the fifteenth day of the first month. On the morrow after the passover the children of Israel went out with a high hand in the 4 sight of all the Egyptians. And the Egyptians buried those whom Jehovah had smitten among them, all the firstborn; and upon their gods Jehovah executed judgments.
5 And the children of Israel re-6 moved from Rameses, and encamped in Succoth. And they removed from Succoth and encamped in Etham, which is at the 7 end of the wilderness. And they removed from Etham, and turned back to Pi-hahiroth, which is opposite Baal-Zephon, and en-8 camped before Migdol. And they removed from before Hahiroth, and passed through the midst of the sea into the wilderness, and went three days' journey in the wilderness of Etham, and en-9 camped in Marah. And they removed from Marah, and came to Elim; and in Elim were twelve springs of water, and seventy palm-trees, and they encamped 10 there. And they removed from 11 Elim, and encamped by the Red sea. And they removed from the 12 Red sea, and encamped in the wilderness of Sin. And they removed from the wilderness of Sin, 13 and encamped in Dophkah. And they removed from Dophkah, and 14 encamped in Alush. And they removed from Alush, and encamped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to 15 drink. And they removed from Rephidim, and encamped in the 16 wilderness of Sinai. And they removed from the wilderness of Sinai, and encamped at Kibroth-17 hattaavah. And they removed from Kibroth-hattaavah, and en-18 camped at Hazeroth. And they removed from Hazeroth, and en-19 camped in Rithmah. And they removed from Rithmah, and en-20 camped at Rimmon-perez. And they removed from Rimmon-perez, 21 and encamped in Libnah. And they removed from Libnah, and 22 encamped at Rissah. And they removed from Rissah, and en-23 camped in Kehelathah. And they removed from Kehelathah, and 24 encamped in mount Shapher. And they removed from mount Sha-pher, and encamped in Haradah.

25 And they removed from Haradah, 26 and encamped in Makheloth. And they removed from Makheloth, 27 and encamped at Tahath. And they removed from Tahath, and 28 encamped at Terah. And they removed from Terah, and en-29 camped in Mithcah. And they removed from Mithcah, and en-30 camped in Hashmonah. And they removed from Hashmonah, and 31 encamped in Moseroth. And they removed from Moseroth, and en-32 camped in Bene-Jaakan. And they removed from Bene-Jaakan, and encamped at Hor-hagidgad.
33 And they removed from Hor-hagidgad, and encamped in Jot-34 bathah. And they removed from Jotbathah, and encamped at Abro-35 nah. And they removed from Abronah, and encamped at Ezion-36 geber. And they removed from Ezion-geber, and encamped in the wilderness of Zin, which is Kadesh 37 And they removed from Kadesh, and encamped in mount Hor, in the border of the land of Edom.

38 And Aaron the priest went up mount Hor by the commandment of Jehovah, and died there, in the fortieth year after the children of Israel came out of the land of Egypt, in the fifth month, on the 39 first of the month. And Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on mount Hor.
40 And the Canaanite, the king of Arad who dwelt in the south [d] in the land of Canaan, heard of the coming of the children of Israel.
41 And they removed from mount Hor, and encamped in Zalmonah.
42 And they removed from Zalmonah, 43 and encamped in Punon. And they removed from Punon, and 44 encamped in Oboth. And they removed from Oboth, and encamped in Ijim-Abarim, in the 45 border of Moab. And they removed from Ijim, and encamped 46 in Dibon-Gad. And they removed from Dibon-Gad, and encamped in 47 Almon-Diblathaim.[e] And they removed from Almon-Diblathaim, and encamped in the mountains 48 of Abarim, before Nebo. And they removed from the mountains of Abarim, and encamped in the plains of Moab by the Jordan of 49 Jericho. And they encamped by the Jordan, from Beth-jeshimoth unto Abel Shittim,[f] in the plains of Moab.

50 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan 51 of Jericho, saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye pass over Jordan 52 into the land of Canaan, then ye shall dispossess all the inhabitants of the land from before you, and ye shall destroy all their figured images, and all their molten images shall ye destroy, and all their high 53 places shall ye lay waste; and ye shall take possession of the land, and dwell therein, for to you have I given the land to possess it.
54 And ye shall take for yourselves the land as an inheritance by lot according to your families: to the many ye shall increase their inheritance, and to the few thou shalt diminish their inheritance:
where the lot falleth to him, there shall be each man's [inheritance]; according to the tribes of your fathers shall ye take for yourselves 55 the inheritance. But if ye will not dispossess the inhabitants of the land from before you, those that ye let remain of them shall be thorns in your eyes, and pricks in your sides, and they shall harass you in the land wherein ye dwell.
56 And it shall come to pass that I will do unto you as I thought to do unto them.

34 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, saying, 2 Command the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye come into the land of Canaan, this shall be the land that shall fall to you for an inheritance, the land of Canaan according to the borders thereof.

3 Then your south side shall be from the wilderness of Zin alongside of Edom, and your southern border shall be from the end of the 4 salt sea eastward; and your border

[d] See on xiii. 18; xxi. 1; Gen. xii. 9. [e] Or 'Almon near Diblathaim.' [f] Or 'plain of acacias.'

shall turn from the south of the ascent of Akrabbim, and pass on to Zin, and shall end [g] southward at Kadesh-barnea, and shall go on to Hazar-Addar, and pass on to 5 Azmon. And the border shall turn from Azmon unto the torrent of Egypt, and shall end at the sea.
6 And as west border ye shall have the great sea,[h] and [its] coast. This shall be your west border.
7 And this shall be your north border: from the great sea ye shall mark out for you mount Hor; 8 from mount Hor ye shall mark out the entrance to Hamath, and the end of the border shall be toward 9 Zedad; and the border shall go to Ziphron, and shall end at Hazar-enan. This shall be your north border.
10 And ye shall mark out for you as eastern border from Hazar-enan 11 to Shepham: and the border shall go down from Shepham to Riblah, on the east side of Ain; and the border shall descend, and shall strike upon the extremity [i] of the 12 sea of Chinnereth eastward; and the border shall go down to the Jordan, and shall end at the salt sea. This shall be your land according to the borders thereof round about.
13 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shall take for yourselves as inheritance by lot, which Jehovah commanded to give to the nine tribes, and to the half 14 tribe. For the tribe of the children of the Reubenites according to their fathers' houses, and the tribe of the children of the Gadites according to their fathers' houses, have received, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their 15 inheritance; the two tribes and the half tribe have received their inheritance on this side the Jordan of Jericho eastward, toward the sun-rising.
16 And Jehovah spoke to Moses, 17 saying, These are the names of the men who shall divide the land unto you: Eleazar the priest, and 18 Joshua the son of Nun. And ye shall take one prince of every tribe, 19 to divide the land. And these are the names of the men: for the tribe of Judah, Caleb the son of 20 Jephunneh; and for the tribe of the children of Simeon, Samuel the 21 son of Ammihud; for the tribe of Benjamin, Elidad the son of Chis-22 lon; and for the tribe of the children of Dan, a prince, Bukki the 23 son of Jogli; for the children of Joseph: for the tribe of the children of Manasseh, a prince, Han-24 niel the son of Ephod, and for the tribe of the children of Ephraim, a prince, Kemuel the son of 25 Shiphtan; and for the tribe of the children of Zebulun, a prince, Elizaphan the son of Parnach; 26 and for the tribe of the children of Issachar, a prince, Phaltiel the 27 son of Azzan; and for the tribe of the children of Asher, a prince, 28 Ahihud the son of Shelomi; and for the tribe of the children of Naphtali, a prince, Phedahel the 29 son of Ammihud. These are they whom Jehovah commanded to distribute to the children of Israel their inheritance in the land of Canaan.

35 And Jehovah spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the 2 Jordan of Jericho, saying, Command the children of Israel, that of the inheritance of their possession they give unto the Levites cities to dwell in; and a suburb for the cities round about them 3 shall ye give unto the Levites. And the cities shall they have to dwell in, and their suburbs shall be for their cattle, and for their goods, 4 and for all their beasts. And the suburbs of the cities that ye shall give unto the Levites shall be from the walls of the city outward, a 5 thousand cubits round about. And ye shall measure, without [j] the city, the east side two thousand cubits, and the south side two thousand cubits, and the west side two thousand cubits, and the north side two thousand cubits, and the city shall be in the midst: they shall have this as suburbs of 6 the cities. And [among] the cities that ye shall give unto the Levites [shall be] the six cities of refuge, which ye shall appoint for the manslayer, that he may flee thither, —and besides them ye shall give 7 forty-two cities: all the cities that ye shall give to the Levites shall be forty-eight cities, they and 8 their suburbs. And the cities which ye shall give shall be of the possession of the children of Israel: from them that have much ye shall take much, and from them that have little ye shall take little; each one according to his inheritance which he will inherit shall give of his cities to the Levites.

[g] Lit. 'its goings forth shall be;' and so often. [h] i.e., the Mediterranean. [i] Lit. 'shoulder.' [j] See Knobel or Keil in loco.

9 And Jehovah spoke to Moses,
10 saying, Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye pass over the Jordan 11 into the land of Canaan, then ye shall appoint for yourselves cities: cities of refuge shall they be for you; that a manslayer may flee thither, who without intent smit-12 eth a person mortally. And ye shall have these cities for refuge from the avenger; that the manslayer die not, until he have stood before the assembly in judgment.
13 And the cities that ye shall give shall be six cities of refuge for you.
14 Three cities shall ye give on this side of the Jordan, and three cities shall ye give in the land of Canaan; 15 they shall be cities of refuge. For the children of Israel, and for the stranger, and for the sojourner among them shall these six cities be a refuge, that one who smiteth a person mortally without intent may flee thither.
16 And if he have smitten him with an instrument of iron, so that he die, he is a murderer: [k] the mur-derer shall certainly be put to 17 death. And if he have smitten him with a stone from the hand, wherewith one may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the mur-derer shall certainly be put to 18 death. Or if he have smitten him with an instrument of wood, in the hand, wherewith one may die, and he die, he is a murderer: the murderer shall certainly be put to 19 death; the avenger of blood, he shall put the murderer to death; when he meeteth him, he shall put 20 him to death. And if he thrust at him out of hatred, or hurl at him 21 intentionally, so that he die, or from enmity smite him with his hand, so that he die, he that smote him shall certainly be put to death; he is a murderer: the avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death, when he meet-22 eth him.—But if he have thrust at him suddenly without enmity, or have cast upon him anything [l] 23 unintentionally, or [have smitten him] with any stone wherewith one may die, without seeing him, and have cast it upon him so that he die, and he was not his enemy, 24 neither sought his harm: then the assembly shall judge between the smiter and the avenger of blood according to these judgments; [m] 25 and the assembly shall rescue the manslayer out of the hand of the avenger of blood, and the assembly shall restore him to the city of his refuge, whither he had fled; and he shall abide in it until the death of the high-priest, who was anoin-26 ted with the holy oil. But if the manslayer shall in any way come outside the limits of the city of his 27 refuge whither he hath fled, and the avenger of blood find him outside the limits of his city of refuge, and the avenger of blood kill the manslayer, there shall be no blood-28 guiltiness upon him; for the manslayer should have remained in the city of his refuge until the death of the high-priest; but after the death of the high-priest he may return into the land of his possession.
29 And this shall be unto you a statute of right [n] throughout your generations in all your dwellings.
30 Whoever shall smite a person mortally, at the mouth of witnesses shall the murderer be put to death; [o] but one witness shall not testify [p] against a person to 31 cause him to die. And ye shall take no satisfaction for the life [q] of a murderer, who is guilty of death, but he shall certainly be 32 put to death. And ye shall take no satisfaction for him that hath fled to the city of his refuge, that he should come again to dwell in the land, until the death of the 33 priest. And ye shall not pollute the land wherein ye are; for blood, it polluteth the land; and there can be no atonement made for the land, for the blood that hath been shed therein, but by the 34 blood of him that shed it. And ye shall not defile the land that ye inhabit, in the midst whereof I dwell; for I am Jehovah who dwell in the midst of the children of Israel.

36 And the chief fathers of families of the sons of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, of the families of the sons of Joseph, came near, and spoke before Moses, and before the princes, the chief fathers of the 2 children of Israel: and they said, Jehovah commanded my lord to give the land for an inheritance by lot to the children of Israel; and my lord was commanded by Jehovah to give the inheritance of Zelophehad our brother to his 3 daughters. Now if they be married to any of the sons of the [other] tribes of the children of Israel, then shall their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shall be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they shall belong; and it shall be taken from the lot of our inherit-4 ance. And when the jubilee of the children of Israel shall come, then shall their inheritance be added to the inheritance of the tribe to which they shall belong; and their inheritance shall be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel according to the word [r] of Jehovah, saying, The tribe of the sons of Joseph hath 6 said well. This is the thing which Jehovah hath commanded concerning the daughters of Zelophehad, saying, Let them marry whom they please; [s] only they shall marry one of the tribe of 7 their father, that no inheritance of the children of Israel pass from tribe to tribe; for every one of the children of Israel shall keep to the inheritance of the tribe of 8 his fathers. And every daughter that possesseth an inheritance among the tribes of the children of Israel, shall be married to one of the family of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may possess every one the inherit-9 ance of his fathers, and the inheritance shall not pass from one tribe to another tribe; for each of the tribes of the children of Israel shall keep to his inheritance.
10 Even as Jehovah had com-11 manded Moses, so did the daughters of Zelophehad; and Mahlah, Tirzah, and Hoglah, and Milcah, and Noah, the daughters of Zelophehad, were married unto their 12 uncles' sons. To those that were of the families of the sons of Manasseh the son of Joseph were they married; and their inheritance remained [t] in the tribe of the family of their father.
13 These are the commandments and the ordinances which Jehovah commanded through [u] Moses to the children of Israel, in the plains of Moab, by the Jordan of Jericho.

THE FIFTH BOOK OF MOSES

DEUTERONOMY

1 These are the words which Moses spoke to all Israel on this side the Jordan, in the wilderness, in the plain, [a] opposite to Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab. There are 2 eleven days' journey from Horeb by the way of mount Seir to Kadesh-barnea.
3 And it came to pass in the fortieth year, in the eleventh month, on the first of the month, that Moses spoke to the children of Israel, according to all that Jehovah had given him in com-4 mand to them; after he had smitten Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt at Heshbon, and Og the king of Bashan, who dwelt at Ashtaroth [and [b]] at 5 Edrei. On this side the Jordan, in the land of Moab, began Moses 6 to unfold [c] this law, saying, Jehovah our God spoke unto us in Horeb, saying, Ye have staid long 7 enough in this mountain. Turn and take your journey, and go to the hill-country of the Amorites, and unto all the neighbouring places in the plain, in the mountain, and in the lowland, [d] and in the south, [e] and by the seaside, the land of the Canaanites, and Lebanon, unto the great river, the river 8 Euphrates. Behold, I have set the land before you: go in and possess the land which Jehovah swore unto your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give unto them and to their seed after 9 them. And I spoke unto you at that time, saying, I am not able 10 to bear you myself alone. Jehovah your God hath multiplied you, and behold, ye are this day as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 Jehovah, the God of your fathers, make you a thousand times so many more as ye are, and bless you as he hath said unto you!
12 How can I myself alone sustain your wear, and your burden, and 13 your strife? Provide you wise and understanding and known men, according to your tribes, that I may make them your chiefs.[f] 14 And ye answered me, and said,
The thing that thou hast spoken 15 is good [for us] to do. So I took the chiefs[f] of your tribes, wise men and known, and made them chiefs[f] over you, captains of thousands, and captains of hundreds, and captains of fifties, and captains of tens, and officers[g] for your 16 tribes. And I commanded your judges at that time, saying, Hear [the causes] between your brethren, and judge righteously between a man and his brother, and him also that sojourneth with him.
17 Ye shall not respect persons in judgment: ye shall hear the small as well as the great; ye shall not be afraid of the face of man, for the judgment is God's; and the matter that is too hard for you shall ye bring to me, that I may 18 hear it. And I commanded you at that time all the things that ye should do.
19 And we departed from Horeb and went through all that great and terrible wilderness, which ye saw, on the way to the mountain[h] of the Amorites, as Jehovah our God had commanded us; and we 20 came to Kadesh-barnea. And I said unto you, Ye are come unto the mountain of the Amorites, which Jehovah our God giveth us.
21 Behold, Jehovah thy God hath set the land before thee: go up, take possession, as Jehovah the God of thy fathers hath said unto thee; fear not, neither be dismayed.
22 And ye came near to me all of you, and said, We will send men before us, who shall examine the land for us, and bring us word again of the way by which we must go up, and of the cities to which we shall 23 come. And the matter was good in mine eyes; and I took twelve men of you, one man for a tribe.
24 And they turned and went up into the mountain, and came to the valley of Eshcol, and searched it 25 out. And they took of the fruit of the land in their hand, and brought it down unto us, and brought us answer, and said, The land is good that Jehovah our God 26 hath given us. But ye would not go up, and rebelled against the 27 word[i] of Jehovah your God; and ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because Jehovah hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to 28 destroy us. Whither shall we go up? Our brethren have made our hearts melt, saying, [They are] a people greater and taller than we;
the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakim there.
29 And I said unto you, Be not afraid, 30 neither fear them; Jehovah your God who goeth before you, he will fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before 31 your eyes; and in the wilderness where thou hast seen that Jehovah thy God bore thee, as a man doth bear his son, in all the way that ye went, until ye came to this 32 place. But in this thing ye did not believe Jehovah your God, 33 who went in the way before you, to search you out a place for your encamping, in fire by night, to shew you by what way ye should 34 go, and in the cloud by day. And Jehovah heard the voice of your words, and was wroth, and swore, 35 saying, None among these men, this evil generation, shall in any wise see[k] that good land, which I swore to give unto your fathers!
36 Except Caleb the son of Jephun-neh, he shall see it, and to him will I give the land that he hath trodden upon, and to his children, because he hath wholly followed 37 Jehovah. Also Jehovah was angry with me on your account, saying, Thou also shalt not go in thither.
38 Joshua the son of Nun, who standeth before thee, he shall go in thither: strengthen him, for he shall cause Israel to inherit it.
39 And your little ones, of whom ye said, They shall be a prey, and your children, who this day know

[f] Here ראש, 'head.' [g] These were evidently civil officers constantly associated with 'judges,' as xvi. 18; Josh. viii. 33, &c., and cf. chap. xx. 9, Num. xi. 16. [h] Or 'hill-country;' and so in vers. 20, 24, &c.; cf. Num. xiii. 30. [i] Lit. 'mouth;' and so ver. 43. [k] See Num. xiv. 23, and note.

neither good nor evil, they shall go in thither, and unto them will I give it, and they shall possess it.
40 But ye, turn, and take your journey into the wilderness by the way 41 of the Red sea.—And ye answered and said unto me, We have sinned against Jehovah, we will go up and fight, according to all that Jehovah our God hath commanded us. And ye girded on every man his weapons of war, and ye would go 42 presumptuously up the hill.[l] And Jehovah said to me, Say unto them, Go not up, neither fight; for I am not among you; lest ye be smitten before your enemies.
43 And I spoke unto you, but ye would not hear, and ye rebelled against the word of Jehovah, and acted presumptuously, and went 44 up the hill.[l] And the Amorite that dwelt on that hill[l] came out against you, and chased you, like as bees do, and cut you in pieces 45 in Seir, as far as Hormah. And ye returned and wept before Jehovah, but Jehovah would not listen to your voice, nor give ear unto you.
46 And ye abode in Kadesh many days, according unto the days that ye abode [there].

2 And we turned, and took our journey into the wilderness by the way of the Red sea, as Jehovah had said unto me; and we went round mount Seir many days.
2 And Jehovah spoke to me, saying, 3 Ye have gone round this mountain long enough: turn you northward.
4 And command the people, saying, Ye are to pass through the border of your brethren the children of Esau, who dwell in Seir; and they will be afraid of you; and ye shall 5 be very guarded: attack them not; for I will not give you of their land, no, not so much as a footbreadth; for I have given mount 6 Seir as a possession unto Esau. Ye shall buy of them food for money, that ye may eat; and water shall ye also buy of them for money, 7 that ye may drink; for Jehovah thy God hath blessed thee in all the work of thy hand. He hath known thy walking through this great wilderness: these forty years hath Jehovah thy God been with thee; thou hast lacked nothing.
8 And we passed by from our brethren the children of Esau, who dwelt in Seir, by the plain, by Elath, and by Ezion-geber, and we turned and passed by the way 9 of the wilderness of Moab. And Jehovah said to me, Distress not the Moabites, neither engage with them in battle; for I will not give thee of their land a possession; for unto the children of Lot have I 10 given Ar as a possession. (The Emim dwelt therein in times past, a people great, and many, and 11 tall as the Anakim. They also are reckoned as giants[m] like the Anakim; but the Moabites call 12 them Emim. And in Seir dwelt the Horites in times past; and the children of Esau dispossessed them, and destroyed them from before them, and dwelt in their stead; as Israel did to the land of their possession, which Jehovah 13 gave to them.) Now rise up, and pass over the torrent[n] Zered. And we passed over the torrent[n] Zered.
14 Now the days in which we came from Kadesh-barnea, until we had come over the torrent[n] Zered, were thirty-eight years; until the whole generation of the men of war was consumed from the midst of the camp, as Jehovah had sworn 15 unto them. Moreover the hand of Jehovah was against them to destroy them from the midst of the camp, until they were consumed.
16 And it came to pass when all the men of war were consumed, having died off from among the people, 17 that Jehovah spoke to me, saying, 18 Thou art to pass this day over the 19 border of Moab, [which is] Ar, and come near over against the children of Ammon; thou shalt not distress them nor attack them; for I will not give thee of the land of the children of Ammon a possession; for unto the children of Lot have I given it as a possession.
20 (That also is reckoned a land of giants: giants dwelt therein in time past, and the Ammonites call 21 them Zamzummim; a people great, and many, and tall as the Anakim; and Jehovah destroyed them before them, and they dispossessed them, and dwelt in their 22 stead; as he did to the children of Esau, who dwelt in Seir, from before whom he destroyed the Horites; and they dispossessed them, and dwelt in their stead, 23 even to this day. And the Avvites who dwelt in the hamlets as far as Gazah—the Caphtorim, who came out of Caphtor, destroyed them,

[l] Or 'mountain.' [m] Rephaim; and so ver. 20, and chap. iii. 11, 13. [n] Or 'valley;' elsewhere also translated 'river,' as in vers. 24, 36, 37 of this chapter: the word applies equally to the gorge in which the torrent runs.

24 and dwelt in their stead.) Rise up, take your journey, and pass over the river Arnon. Behold, I have given into thy hand Sihon the king of Heshbon, the Amorite, and his land: begin, take possession, and engage with him in 25 battle. This day will I begin to put the dread of thee and the fear of thee upon the peoples under the whole heaven; who will hear report of thee, and will tremble, and quake because of thee.
26 And I sent messengers out of the wilderness of Kedemoth unto Sihon the king of Heshbon with words of 27 peace, saying, Let me pass through thy land: by the high-way alone will I go; I will neither turn to the 28 right hand nor to the left. Thou shalt sell me food for money that I may eat; and thou shalt give me water for money that I may drink; I will only pass through on 29 my feet,—as the children of Esau who dwell in Seir, and the Moabites who dwell in Ar, did to me,—until I shall pass over the Jordan into the land which Jehovah our 30 God giveth us. But Sihon the king of Heshbon would not let us pass by him; for Jehovah thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obdurate, that he might give him into thy hand, as it is 31 this day. And Jehovah said to me, Behold, I begin to give Sihon and his land before thee: begin, take possession, that thou mayest 32 possess his land. And Sihon came out against us for battle, he and 33 all his people, to Jahaz.[o] But Jehovah our God gave him up before us; and we smote him, and his sons, and his whole people.
34 And we took all his cities at that time, and utterly destroyed every city, men, and women, and little 35 ones: we let none escape. Only the cattle we took as booty for ourselves, and the spoil of the 36 cities which we took. From Aroer, which is on the bank of the river[p] Arnon, and the city that is in the ravine[p] even to Gilead, there was not one city too strong for us: Jehovah our God delivered all 37 before us. Only thou didst not approach the land of the children of Ammon, the whole border of the river Jabbok, nor the cities of the mountain,[q] nor to whatsoever Jehovah our God had forbidden[r] us.

3 And we turned, and went up the way to Bashan; and Og the king of Bashan came out against us, he and all his people, for battle at 2 Edrei. And Jehovah said to me, Fear him not; for into thy hand have I given him, and all his people, and his land; and thou shalt do unto him as thou didst unto Sihon the king of the Amorites, 3 who dwelt at Heshbon. And Jehovah our God gave into our hand Og the king of Bashan also, and all his people; and we smote him until none was left to him remain-4 ing. And we took all his cities at that time: there was not a town which we took not from them, sixty cities, the whole region of Argob, the kingdom of Og in 5 Bashan. All these cities were fortified with high walls, gates, and bars; besides unwalled towns very 6 many. And we utterly destroyed them, as we had done to Sihon the king of Heshbon, utterly destroying every city, men, women and 7 little ones. But all the cattle and the spoil of the cities we took as 8 booty for ourselves. And we took at that time the land out of the hand of the two kings of the Amorites, that were on this side the Jordan, from the river Arnon 9 to mount Hermon (the Sidonians call Hermon Sirion, and the Amor-10 ites call it Senir[s]): all the cities of the plateau, and all Gilead, and all Bashan, as far as Salchah and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of 11 Og in Bashan. For only Og the king of Bashan remained of the residue of giants: behold, his bedstead was a bedstead of iron; is it not in Rabbah of the children of Ammon? its length was nine cubits, and its breadth four cubits, 12 after the cubit[t] of a man. And this land we took in possession at that time. From Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, and the half of mount Gilead, and its cities, I gave to the Reubenites and to the 13 Gadites; and the rest of Gilead, and all Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to half the tribe of Manasseh. (The whole region of Argob, even[u] all Bashan, is called a land 14 of giants. Jair the son of Manasseh took the whole region of Argob

[o] Or perhaps 'Jahzah' (Josh. xiii. 18, &c.); and so in Num. xxi. 23. [p] 'River' and 'ravine' are here the same Hebrew word; and so iii. 16, Josh. xii. 2, &c. [q] Or 'highlands.' [r] Lit. 'bidden.' [s] Cf. iv. 48, Sion. [t] Or 'lower arm's length.' The cubit length is taken from the lower arm of a man—as foot from our foot. [u] Or 'for;' cf. ver 4, and see Keil in loco.

as far as the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and called Bashan after his own name, Ha-15 voth-Jair,[v] to this day.) And I 16 gave Gilead to Machir. And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites I gave from Gilead even to the river Arnon, the middle of the ravine and its border, as far as the river Jabbok, the border of the children 17 of Ammon; the plain[w] also, and the Jordan, and [its] border from Chinnereth as far as the sea of the plain,[w] the salt sea, under the slopes of Pisgah eastward.
18 And I commanded you at that time, saying, Jehovah your God hath given you this land to take possession of it: ye shall pass over armed before your brethren the children of Israel, all [who are] 19 combatants. Only your wives, and your little ones, and your cattle,—I know that ye have much cattle,—shall abide in your cities 20 which I have given you, until Jehovah give rest to your brethren, as well as to you, and they also take possession of the land that Jehovah your God giveth them beyond the Jordan; then shall ye return, each man to his possession, 21 which I have given you. And I commanded Joshua at that time, saying, Thine eyes have seen all that Jehovah your God hath done to these two kings: so will Jehovah do to all the kingdoms to 22 which thou shalt go.[x] Ye shall not fear them; for Jehovah your God, he will fight for you.
23 And I besought Jehovah at that 24 time, saying, Lord Jehovah, thou hast begun to shew thy servant thy greatness, and thy powerful hand; for what God[y] is in the heavens or in the earth that can do like to thy works, and like to 25 thy might? Let me go over, I pray thee, and see the good[z] land that is beyond the Jordan, that goodly[z] mountain, and Lebanon.
26 But Jehovah was wroth with me on your account, and did not hear me; and Jehovah said to me, Let it suffice thee; speak no more unto 27 me of this matter! Go up to the top of Pisgah, and lift up thine eyes westward, and northward, and southward, and eastward, and behold it with thine eyes; for thou 28 shalt not go over this Jordan. But charge Joshua, and encourage him and strengthen him; for he shall go over before this people, and he shall put them in possession of the 29 land which thou shalt see. And we abode in the valley opposite to Beth-Peor.

4 And now, Israel, hearken to the statutes and to the ordinances which I teach you, to do [them], that ye may live, and go in and possess the land which Jehovah the God of your fathers giveth you.
2 Ye shall not add to the word which I command you, neither shall ye take from it, that ye may keep the commandments of Jehovah your God which I command 3 you. Your eyes have seen what Jehovah did because of Baal-Peor; for all the men that followed Baal-Peor, Jehovah thy God hath destroyed them from among you; 4 but ye that did cleave to Jehovah your God are alive every one of 5 you this day. See, I have taught you statutes and ordinances, even as Jehovah my God commanded me, that ye may do so in the land into which ye enter to possess it.
6 And ye shall keep and do them; for that will be your wisdom and your understanding before the eyes of the peoples that shall hear all these statutes, and say, Verily this great nation is a wise and un-7 derstanding people. For what great nation is there that hath God[a] near to them as Jehovah our God is in everything we call upon him 8 for? And what great nation is there that hath righteous statutes and ordinances, as all this law which I set before you this day?
9 Only take heed to thyself, and keep thy soul diligently, lest thou forget the things that thine eyes have seen (and lest they depart from thy heart all the days of thy life; but thou shalt make them known to thy sons and to thy 10 sons' sons), the day that thou stoodest before Jehovah thy God in Horeb, when Jehovah said to me, Gather me the people together, that I may cause them to hear my words, that they may learn them, and fear me all the days that they live upon the earth, and teach 11 them to their children. And ye came near and stood under the mountain; and the mountain burned with fire to the heart of heaven, with darkness, clouds, and 12 obscurity. And Jehovah spoke to you from the midst of the fire: ye heard the voice of the words, but ye saw no form; only [ye heard] 13 a voice. And he declared to you his covenant, which he commanded you to do, the ten words; and he wrote them on two tables of stone.

14 And Jehovah commanded me at that time to teach you statutes and ordinances, that ye might do them in the land whither ye are 15 passing over to possess it. And take great heed to your souls (for ye saw no form on the day that Jehovah spoke to you in Horeb from 16 the midst of the fire), lest ye corrupt yourselves, and make you a graven image, the form of any figure, the pattern of male or 17 female, the pattern of any beast that is on the earth, the pattern of any winged fowl that flieth in 18 the heaven, the pattern of anything that creepeth on the ground, the pattern of any fish that is in 19 the waters under the earth; and lest thou lift up thine eyes to the heavens, and see the sun, and the moon, and the stars, the whole host of heaven, and be drawn away and bow down to them and serve them, which Jehovah thy God hath assigned unto all peoples 20 under the whole heaven. But you hath Jehovah taken, and hath brought you forth out of the iron furnace, out of Egypt, that ye might be to him a people of inheritance, as it is this day.
21 And Jehovah was angry with me on your account, and swore that I should not go over the Jordan, and that I should not enter in to that good land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee [for] an 22 inheritance; for I shall die in this land, I shall not go over the Jordan; but ye shall go over, and 23 possess this good land. Take heed to yourselves lest ye forget the covenant of Jehovah your God, which he made with you, and make yourselves a graven image, the form of anything which Jehovah thy God hath forbidden [b] thee.
24 For Jehovah thy God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.[c] 25 When thou begettest sons, and sons' sons, and ye have remained long in the land, and shall corrupt yourselves, and make a graven image, the form of anything, and do evil in the sight of Jehovah thy God, to provoke him to anger, 26 I call heaven and earth to witness against you this day, that ye shall soon utterly perish from off the land whereunto ye pass over the Jordan to possess it: ye shall not prolong your days on it, but shall 27 be utterly destroyed. And Jehovah will scatter you among the peoples, and ye shall be left a small company [d] among the nations to which Jehovah will lead 28 you. And ye shall there serve gods, the work of men's hands, wood and stone, which neither see, nor hear, nor eat, nor smell.
29 And from thence ye shall seek Jehovah thy God, and thou shalt find him, if thou shalt seek him with thy whole heart and with thy 30 whole soul. In thy tribulation, and when all these things shall come upon thee, at the end of days, thou shalt return to Jehovah thy God, and shalt hearken to his 31 voice,—for Jehovah thy God is a merciful God,[c]—he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the covenant of thy fathers which he swore unto them.
32 For ask now of the days that are past, which were before thee, since the day that God created man on the earth, and from one end of the heavens to the other end of the heavens, whether there hath been anything as this great thing is, or if anything hath been 33 heard like it? Did [ever] people hear the voice of God speaking from the midst of the fire, as thou 34 hast heard, and live? Or hath God essayed to come to take him a nation from the midst of a nation, by trials, by signs, and by wonders, and by war, and by a powerful hand, and by a stretched-out arm, and by great terrors, according to all that Jehovah your God did for you in Egypt before 35 your eyes? Unto thee it was shewn, that thou mightest know that Jehovah, he is God—there is 36 none other besides him. From the heavens he made thee hear his voice, that he might instruct thee; and on the earth he shewed thee his great fire; and thou heardest his words from the midst of the 37 fire. And because he loved thy fathers, and chose their seed after them, he brought thee out with his countenance, with his great power, 38 out of Egypt, to dispossess nations from before thee greater and mightier than thou art, to bring thee in, to give thee their land for an inheritance, as it is this day.

[b] Lit. 'bidden.' [c] El. [d] Lit. 'men of number,' or 'that can be numbered:' a usual idiom; cf. xxxiii. 6.

39 Thou shalt know therefore this day, and consider it in thy heart, that Jehovah, he is God in the heavens above, and on the earth beneath: [there is] none else.
40 And thou shalt keep his statutes, and his commandments, which I command thee this day, that it may be well with thee and with thy sons after thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days on the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, for ever.[e] 41 Then Moses separated three cities on this side the Jordan to-42 ward the sun-rising, that the manslayer might flee thither, who should kill his neighbour unawares, and hated him not previously, that fleeing to one of these 43 cities, he might live: Bezer in the wilderness, in the plateau,[f] of the Reubenites, and Ramoth in Gilead, of the Gadites, and Golan in Bashan, of the Manassites.
44 And this is the law which Moses set before the children of Israel: 45 these are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances that Moses declared to the children of Israel, when they came out of 46 Egypt, on this side the Jordan, in the valley opposite to Beth-Peor, in the land of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who dwelt in Heshbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote when they came out 47 of Egypt; and they took possession of his land, and the land of Og the king of Bashan, two kings of the Amorites, who were on this side the Jordan, toward the sun-48 rising; from Aroer, which is on the bank of the river Arnon, as far as mount Sion, which is Hermon, 49 and all the plain on this side the Jordan, eastward, and as far as the sea of the plain, under the slopes of Pisgah.

5 And Moses called to all Israel, and said to them, Hear, Israel, the statutes and the ordinances that I speak in your ears this day, and learn them, and keep them to do them.
2 Jehovah our God made a cove-3 nant with us in Horeb. Not with our fathers did Jehovah make this covenant, but with us, [even] us, those [who are] here alive all of us 4 this day. Face to face on the mountain from the midst of the 5 fire Jehovah spoke with you (I stood between Jehovah and you at that time, to declare to you the word of Jehovah; for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up to the mountain), 6 saying, I am Jehovah thy God who have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of 7 bondage.[g] Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
8 Thou shalt not make thyself any graven image, any form of what is in the heavens above, or what is in the earth beneath, or what is in 9 the waters under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them; for I, Jehovah thy God, am a jealous God,[h] visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the sons,[i] and upon the third and upon the fourth [generation] 10 of them that hate me, and shewing mercy[k] unto thousands of them that love me and keep my commandments.
11 Thou shalt not idly[l] utter the name of Jehovah thy God; for Jehovah will not hold him guiltless that idly[l] uttereth his name.
12 Keep the sabbath day to hallow it, as Jehovah thy God hath com-13 manded thee. Six days shalt thou 14 labour, and do all thy work; but the seventh day is the sabbath of Jehovah thy God: thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, nor thy bond-man, nor thy handmaid, nor thine ox, nor thine ass, nor any of thy cattle, nor thy sojourner[m] that is within thy gates; that thy bond-man and thy handmaid may rest 15 as well as thou. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bond-man in the land of Egypt, and that Jehovah thy God brought thee out thence with a powerful hand and with a stretched-out arm; therefore Jehovah thy God hath commanded thee to observe the sabbath day.
16 Honour thy father and thy mother, as Jehovah thy God hath commanded thee; that thy days may be prolonged, and that it may be well with thee in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
17 Thou shalt not kill.[n] 18 Neither shalt thou commit adultery.
19 Neither shalt thou steal.

20 Neither shalt thou bear false witness against thy neighbour.
21 Neither shalt thou desire thy neighbour's wife, neither shalt thou covet thy neighbour's house, his field, nor his bondman, nor his handmaid, his ox, nor his ass, nor anything that is thy neighbour's.
22 These words Jehovah spoke to all your congregation on the mountain from the midst of the fire, of the cloud, and of the obscurity, with a great voice, and he added no more; and he wrote them on two tables of stone, and 23 gave them to me. And it came to pass, when ye heard the voice from the midst of the darkness, and the mountain burned with fire, that ye came near to me, all the heads of your tribes, and your elders;
24 and ye said, Behold, Jehovah our God has shewn us his glory and his greatness, and we have heard his voice from the midst of the fire: we have seen this day that God 25 talks with man, and he lives. And now, why should we die? for this great fire will consume us. If we hear the voice of Jehovah our God 26 any more, we shall die. For who is there of all flesh, that has heard the voice of the living God speaking from the midst of the fire, as 27 we, and has lived? Come thou near, and hear all that Jehovah our God will say; and speak thou to us all that Jehovah our God will speak to thee; and we will hear 28 it, and do it. And Jehovah heard the voice of your words, when ye spoke to me; and Jehovah said unto me, I have heard the voice of the words of this people that have spoken to thee: they have well spoken all that [o] they have spoken.
29 Oh that there were such a heart in them, that they would fear me, and keep all my commandments continually,[p] that it might be well with them and with their sons for 30 ever! Go, say unto them, Get you 31 into your tents again. But as for thee, stand thou here by me, and I will speak unto thee all the commandments,[q] and the statutes, and the ordinances, which thou shalt teach them, that they may do them in the land which I give 32 them to possess it. Take heed then to do as Jehovah your God hath commanded you: turn not aside to the right hand or to the 33 left. In all the way that Jehovah your God hath commanded you shall ye walk, that ye may live, and that it may be well with you, and that ye may prolong your days in the land which ye shall possess.

6 And these are the commandments,[q] the statutes, and the ordinances, which Jehovah your God commanded to teach you, that ye may do them in the land whereunto ye pass over to possess it,
2 that thou mayest fear Jehovah thy God, to keep all his statutes and his commandments which I command thee, thou, and thy son, and thy son's son, all the days of thy life; and that thy days may be 3 prolonged. And thou shalt hear, Israel, and take heed to do [them]; that it may be well with thee, and that ye may increase greatly, as Jehovah the God of thy fathers hath said unto thee, in a land flowing with milk and honey.
4 Hear, Israel: Jehovah our God 5 is one Jehovah; and thou shalt love Jehovah thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and 6 with all thy strength. And these words, which I command thee 7 this day, shall be in thy heart; and thou shalt impress them on thy sons, and shalt talk of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou goest on the way, and when thou liest down, and when 8 thou risest up. And thou shalt bind them for a sign on thy hand, and they shall be for frontlets 9 between thine eyes. And thou shalt write them upon the posts of thy house, and upon thy gates.
10 And it shall be, when Jehovah thy God bringeth thee into the land which he swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give thee: great and good cities which thou buildedst 11 not, and houses full of everything good which thou filledst not, and wells digged which thou diggedst not, vineyards and oliveyards which thou plantedst not, and thou shalt have eaten and shalt 12 be full; [then] beware lest thou forget Jehovah who brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, out 13 of the house of bondage. Thou shalt fear Jehovah thy God, and serve him, and shalt swear by his 14 name. Ye shall not go after other gods, of the gods of the peoples 15 that are round about you; for Jehovah thy God is a jealous

[o] Lit. 'they have done all well that.' [p] Lit. 'all days;' and so vi. 24. [q] Lit. 'commandment.'

God [r] in thy midst; lest the anger of Jehovah thy God be kindled against thee, and he destroy thee from the face of the earth.
16 Ye shall not tempt Jehovah your God, as ye tempted him in 17 Massah. Ye shall diligently keep the commandments of Jehovah your God, and his testimonies, and his statutes, which he hath com-18 manded thee. And thou shalt do what is right and good in the sight of Jehovah, that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest enter in and possess the good land which Jehovah swore unto thy 19 fathers, thrusting out all thine enemies from before thee, as Jehovah hath spoken.
20 When thy son shall ask thee in time to come, saying, What are the testimonies, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which Jehovah our God hath commanded you?
21 then thou shalt say unto thy son, We were Pharaoh's bondmen in Egypt; and Jehovah brought us out of Egypt with a powerful 22 hand; and Jehovah shewed signs and wonders, great and grievous, upon Egypt, upon Pharaoh, and upon all his household, before our 23 eyes; and he brought us out thence, that he might bring us in, to give us the land which he swore 24 unto our fathers. And Jehovah commanded us to do all these statutes, to fear Jehovah our God, for our good continually, that he might preserve us alive, as it is 25 this day. And it shall be our righteousness if we take heed to do all these commandments [s] before Jehovah our God, as he hath commanded us.

7 When Jehovah thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and shall cast out many nations from before thee, the Hittites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, seven nations greater and mightier
2 than thou, and when Jehovah thy God shall give them up before thee and thou shalt smite them, then shalt thou utterly destroy them: thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor shew mercy 3 unto them. And thou shalt make no marriages with them: thy daughter thou shalt not give unto his son, nor take his daughter for 4 thy son; for he will turn away thy son from following me, and they will serve other gods, and the anger of Jehovah will be kindled against you, and he will destroy thee
5 quickly. But thus shall ye deal with them: ye shall break down their altars, and shatter their statues, and hew down their asherahs, [t] and burn their graven images 6 with fire. For a holy people art thou unto Jehovah thy God: Jehovah thy God hath chosen thee to be unto him a people for a possession, [u] above all the peoples that are upon the face of the earth.
7 Not because ye were more in number than all the peoples, hath Jehovah been attached to you and chosen you, for ye are the fewest 8 of all the peoples; but because Jehovah loved you, and because he would keep the oath which he had sworn unto your fathers, hath Jehovah brought you out with a powerful hand, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage, from the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt.
9 And thou shalt know that Jehovah thy God, he is God, the faithful God, [r] who keepeth covenant and mercy to a thousand generations with them that love him and 10 keep his commandments; and repayeth them that hate him [each] to his face, to cause them to perish: he delayeth not with him that hateth him, he will repay him 11 to his face. And thou shalt keep the commandment, and the statutes, and the ordinances, which I command thee this day, to do them.
12 And it shall come to pass, if ye hearken to these ordinances, and keep and do them, that Jehovah thy God will keep with thee the covenant and the mercy which he 13 swore unto thy fathers; and he will love thee, and bless thee, and multiply thee, and will bless the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy ground, thy corn and thy new wine, and thine oil, the offspring of thy kine, and the increase [v] of thy sheep, in the land which he swore unto thy fathers to give thee.
14 Thou shalt be blessed above all the peoples; there shall not be male or female barren with thee, or 15 with thy cattle; and Jehovah will take away from thee all sickness, and none of the evil infirmities of Egypt, which thou knowest, will he put upon thee; but he will lay them upon all them that hate thee.

16 And thou shalt consume all the peoples that Jehovah thy God will give up unto thee; thine eye shall not spare them, and thou shalt not serve their gods; for that 17 would be a snare unto thee. If thou shouldest say in thy heart, These nations are greater than I; 18 how can I dispossess them? fear them not; remember well what Jehovah thy God did unto Pharaoh, and unto all the Egyptians;
19 the great trials which thine eyes saw, and the signs, and the wonders, and the powerful hand, and the stretched-out arm, whereby Jehovah thy God brought thee out: so will Jehovah thy God do unto all the peoples whom thou 20 fearest. Moreover, Jehovah thy God will send the hornet among them, until they that are left, and they that hide themselves from 21 thee, are destroyed. Thou shalt not be afraid of them; for Jehovah thy God is in thy midst, a 22 God[w] great and terrible. And Jehovah thy God will cast out those nations from before thee by little and little; thou shalt not be able to make an end of them at once, lest the beasts of the field 23 increase upon thee. But Jehovah thy God will give them up before thee, and will confound them with great consternation, until they are 24 destroyed. And he will give their kings into thy hand, and thou shalt put out their name from under the heavens; no man shall stand before thee, until thou hast 25 destroyed them. The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire; thou shalt not covet the silver and gold [that is] on them and take it unto thee, lest thou be ensnared therein; for it is an abomination to Jehovah thy God.
26 And thou shalt not bring an abomination into thy house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing.

8 Every commandment which I command thee this day shall ye take heed to do, that ye may live, and multiply, and enter in and possess the land which Jehovah 2 swore unto your fathers. And thou shalt remember all the way which Jehovah thy God led thee these forty years in the wilderness, to humble thee, and to prove thee, to know what was in thy heart, whether thou wouldest keep his 3 commandments or not. And he humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fed thee with the manna, which thou hadst not known, and which thy fathers knew not; that he might make thee know that man doth not live by bread alone, but by everything that goeth out of the mouth of 4 Jehovah doth man live. Thy clothing grew not old upon thee, neither did thy foot swell, these 5 forty years. And know in thy heart that, as a man chasteneth his son, so Jehovah thy God 6 chasteneth thee; and thou shalt keep the commandments of Jehovah thy God, to walk in his ways, and to fear him.
7 For Jehovah thy God bringeth thee into a good land, a land of waterbrooks, of springs, and of deep waters, that gush forth in 8 the valleys and hills; a land of wheat, and barley, and vines, and fig-trees, and pomegranates; a 9 land of olive-trees and honey; a land wherein thou shalt eat bread without scarceness, where thou shalt lack nothing; a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose mountains thou wilt dig copper.[x]
10 And thou shalt eat and be filled, and shalt bless Jehovah thy God for the good land which he hath 11 given thee. Beware that thou forget not Jehovah thy God, in not keeping his commandments, and his ordinances, and his statutes, which I command thee this day; 12 lest when thou hast eaten and art full, and hast built and inhabited 13 fine[y] houses, and thy herds and thy flocks multiply, and thy silver and thy gold is multiplied, and all that 14 thou hast is multiplied, then thy heart be lifted up, and thou forget Jehovah thy God, who brought thee forth out of the land of Egypt, 15 out of the house of bondage; who led thee through the great and terrible wilderness, [a wilderness of] fiery serpents, and scorpions, and drought, where there is no water; who brought thee forth 16 water out of the rock of flint; who fed thee in the wilderness with manna, which thy fathers knew not, that he might humble thee, and that he might prove thee, to do thee good at thy latter end;— 17 and thou say in thy heart, My power and the might of my hand 18 has procured me this wealth. But thou shalt remember Jehovah thy God, that it is he who giveth thee power to get wealth, that he may establish his covenant which he swore unto thy fathers, as it is this 19 day. And it shall be, if thou do at all forget Jehovah thy God, and go after other gods, and serve them, and bow down to them, I testify against you this day that 20 ye shall utterly perish. As the nations which Jehovah is causing to perish before you, so shall ye perish; because ye would not hearken unto the voice of Jehovah your God.

9 Hear, Israel! Thou art to pass over the Jordan this day, to enter in to possess nations greater and mightier than thou, cities great 2 and walled up to heaven, a people great and tall, the sons of the Anakim, whom thou knowest, and of whom thou hast heard [say], Who can stand before the sons of 3 Anak! Know then this day, that Jehovah thy God is he that goeth over before thee, a consuming fire; he will destroy them, and he will cast them down before thee, and thou shalt dispossess them and cause them to perish quickly, as Jehovah hath said unto thee.
4 Thou shalt not say in thy heart, when Jehovah thy God thrusteth them out from before thee, saying, For my righteousness Jehovah hath brought me in to possess this land; but for the wickedness of these nations doth Jehovah dispossess them from before thee.
5 Not for thy righteousness, or for the uprightness of thy heart, dost thou enter in to possess their land, but for the wickedness of these nations doth Jehovah thy God dispossess them from before thee, and that he may perform the word which Jehovah swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and 6 to Jacob. Know therefore that Jehovah thy God doth not give thee this good land to possess it for thy righteousness; for thou art a stiffnecked people.
7 Remember, forget not, how thou provokedst Jehovah thy God to wrath in the wilderness. From the day that thou didst depart out of the land of Egypt, until ye came to this place, ye have been rebellious against Jehovah.
8 And at Horeb ye provoked Jehovah to wrath, and Jehovah was angry with you, to destroy you, 9 when I went up the mountain to receive the tables of stone, the tables of the covenant which Jehovah made with you, and I abode in the mountain forty days and forty nights,—I ate no bread and 10 drank no water,—and Jehovah delivered to me the two tables of stone written with the finger of God; and on them [was written] according to all the words which Jehovah spoke with you on the mountain from the midst of the fire on the day of the assembly.[z]
11 And it came to pass at the end of forty days and forty nights, that Jehovah gave me the two tables of stone, the tables of the cove-12 nant. And Jehovah said unto me, Arise, go down quickly from hence; for thy people which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt have corrupted themselves;[a] they have quickly turned aside from the way which I commanded them: they have made for themselves a molten 13 image. And Jehovah spoke unto me, saying, I have seen this people, and behold, it is a stiffnecked 14 people. Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and blot out their name from under heaven; and I will make of thee a nation mightier 15 and greater than they. And I turned and came down from the mountain, and the mountain burned with fire; and the two tables of the covenant were in[b] 16 my two hands. And I saw, and behold, ye had sinned against Jehovah your God; ye had made for yourselves a molten calf; ye had quickly turned aside from the way which Jehovah had com-17 manded you. And I seized the two tables, and cast them out of my two hands, and broke them before your eyes.
18 And I fell down before Jehovah, as at the first, forty days and forty nights,—I ate no bread and drank no water,—because of all your sin which ye had sinned, in doing what is evil in the eyes of Jehovah, to 19 provoke him to anger. For I was afraid of the anger and fury wherewith Jehovah was wroth against you to destroy you. And Jehovah listened unto me also at that time.
20 And with Aaron Jehovah was very angry to destroy him; and I prayed for Aaron also at the same 21 time. And I took your sin, the calf which ye had made, and burned it with fire, and crushed it, and ground it very small, until it became fine dust; and I cast the dust thereof into the brook that flowed down from the mountain.

22 And at Taberah, and at Massah, and at Kibroth-hattaavah, ye pro-23 voked Jehovah to wrath. And when Jehovah sent you from Kadesh-barnea, saying, Go up and take possession of the land which I have given you, ye rebelled against the word [c] of Jehovah your God, and ye believed him not, nor 24 hearkened to his voice. Ye have been rebellious against Jehovah from the day that I knew you.
25 So I fell down before Jehovah the forty days and forty nights, as I fell down; for Jehovah had 26 said he would destroy you. I prayed therefore to Jehovah, and said, Lord [d] Jehovah, destroy not thy people and thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed through thy greatness, which thou hast brought forth out of Egypt with 27 a powerful hand. Remember thy servants Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; look not at the stubbornness of this people, nor at their 28 wickedness, nor at their sin; lest the land whence thou broughtest us out say, Because Jehovah was not able to bring them into the land which he had promised them, and because he hated them, he hath brought them out to kill 29 them in the wilderness. They are indeed thy people and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest out with thy great power and with thy stretched-out arm.

10 At that time Jehovah said unto me, Hew for thyself two tables of stone like the first, and come up unto me into the mountain, and make thee an ark of 2 wood; and I will write on the tables the words that were on the first tables which thou didst break, and thou shalt lay them in the ark.
3 And I made an ark of acacia-wood, and hewed two tables of stone like the first, and went up the mountain with the two tables 4 in my hand. And he wrote on the tables, as the first writing, the ten words which Jehovah spoke unto you on the mountain, from the midst of the fire, on the day of the assembly, [e] and Jehovah gave 5 them unto me. And I turned and came down from the mountain, and put the tables in the ark which I had made;—and they are there, 6 as Jehovah commanded me. (And the children of Israel took their journey from Beeroth-Bene-Jaakan to Moserah: there Aaron died, and there he was buried; and Eleazar his son exercised the 7 priesthood in his stead. From thence they journeyed unto Gudgodah; and from Gudgodah to Jotbathah, a land of water-brooks.)
8 At that time Jehovah separated the tribe of Levi, to bear the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, to stand before Jehovah to do service unto him, and to bless in his name, 9 unto this day. Therefore Levi has no portion nor inheritance with his brethren; Jehovah is his inheritance, according as Jehovah thy God told him.
10 But I stood upon the mountain according to the former days, forty days and forty nights; and Jehovah listened unto me also at that time: Jehovah would not 11 destroy thee. And Jehovah said unto me, Rise up, take thy journey before the people, that they may enter in and possess the land, which I swore unto their fathers to give unto them.
12 And now, Israel, what doth Jehovah thy God require of thee, but to fear Jehovah thy God, to walk in all his ways, and to love him, and to serve Jehovah thy God with all thy heart and with all thy 13 soul, to keep the commandments of Jehovah, and his statutes, which I command thee this day, 14 for thy good? Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens belong to Jehovah thy God; the earth 15 and all that is therein. Only, Jehovah took pleasure in thy fathers, to love them, and he chose their seed after them, [even] you, out of all the peoples, as it is this day.
16 Circumcise then the foreskin of your heart, and stiffen your neck 17 no more. For Jehovah your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of lords, the great God, [f] the mighty and the terrible, who re-18 gardeth not persons, nor taketh reward; who executeth the judgment of the fatherless and the widow, and loveth the stranger, to 19 give him food and clothing. And ye shall love the stranger; for ye have been strangers in the land of 20 Egypt. Thou shalt fear Jehovah thy God; him thou shalt serve, and unto him shalt thou cleave, 21 and swear by his name. He is thy praise, and he is thy God, who hath done for thee these great and terrible things, which thine eyes

22 have seen. With seventy souls thy fathers went down into Egypt; and now Jehovah thy God hath made thee as the stars of heaven for multitude.

11 Thou shalt love then Jehovah thy God, and keep his charge, and his statutes, and his ordinances, and his commandments
2 continually.[g] And know ye this day . . .; for [I speak] not with your children who have not known, and who have not seen the chastisement of Jehovah your God,[h] his greatness, his powerful hand, 3 and his stretched-out arm, and his signs and his acts which he did in the midst of Egypt unto Pharaoh the king of Egypt, and unto all his 4 land; and what he did unto the army of Egypt, unto their horses, and unto their chariots, over which he made the water of the Red sea flow as they pursued after you, and Jehovah destroyed them unto this 5 day;—and what he did unto you in the wilderness, until ye came 6 to this place; and what he did unto Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab, the son of Reuben,—how the earth opened its mouth, and swallowed them up, with their households, and their tents, and all the living substance that belonged to them,[i] in the midst of 7 all Israel. For your eyes have seen all the great work of Jehovah 8 which he hath done. Keep then all the commandment which I command you this day, that ye may be strong, and enter in and possess the land, whither ye pass 9 over to possess it; and that ye may prolong your days in the land which Jehovah swore unto your fathers to give unto them and unto their seed, a land flowing with milk and honey.
10 For the land, whither thou enterest in to possess it, is not as the land of Egypt, from whence ye came out, where thou sowedst thy seed, and wateredst it with thy 11 foot, as a garden of herbs; but the land, whereunto ye are passing over to possess it, is a land of mountains and valleys, which drinketh water of the rain of hea-12 ven, a land which Jehovah thy God careth for; the eyes of Jehovah thy God are constantly upon it, from the beginning of the year even unto the end of the year.
13 And it shall come to pass, if ye hearken diligently unto my commandments which I command you this day, to love Jehovah your God, and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul, 14 that I will give rain to your land in its season, the early rain and the latter rain; and thou shalt gather in thy corn, and thy new 15 wine, and thine oil; and I will give grass in thy field for thy cattle: and thou shalt eat and be full.
16 Take heed to yourselves, that your heart be not deceived, and ye turn aside and serve other gods, 17 and bow down to them, and Jehovah's wrath kindle against you, and he shut up the heavens, that there be no rain, and that the ground yield not its produce, and ye perish quickly from off the good land which Jehovah is giving you.
18 And ye shall lay up these my words in your heart and in your soul, and bind them for a sign upon your hand, and they shall be for 19 frontlets between your eyes. And ye shall teach them unto your children, speaking of them when thou sittest in thy house, and when thou goest on the way, and when thou liest down, and when thou risest 20 up; and write them upon the posts of thy house, and upon thy 21 gates; that your days may be multiplied, and the days of your children, in the land which Jehovah swore unto your fathers to give them, as the days of the heavens [which are] above the earth.
22 For if ye diligently keep all this commandment which I command you [this day[j]] to do it, to love Jehovah your God, to walk in all his ways, and to cleave unto him, 23 then will Jehovah dispossess all these nations from before you, and ye shall take possession of nations greater and mightier than your-24 selves. Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread shall be yours; from the wilderness and Lebanon, from the river, the river Euphrates, even unto the hinder[k] 25 sea shall your border be. No man shall be able to stand before you: the fear of you and the dread of you will Jehovah your God lay upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as he hath said unto 26 you. See, I set before you this 27 day a blessing and a curse: a blessing, if ye obey the commandments of Jehovah your God, which 28 I command you this day; and a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of Jehovah your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day, to go after other gods which ye have not known.

29 And it shall come to pass, when Jehovah thy God hath brought thee into the land whither thou enterest in to possess it, that thou shalt put the blessing upon mount Gerizim, and the curse upon mount 30 Ebal. Are they not on the other side of the Jordan, beyond the way toward the going down of the sun, in the land of [l] the Canaanites that dwell on the plain opposite to Gilgal, beside the oaks of Moreh?
31 For ye pass over the Jordan to enter in to possess the land which Jehovah your God giveth you, and ye shall take possession of it, and dwell therein.
32 And ye shall take heed to do all the statutes and ordinances which I set before you this day.

12 These are the statutes and ordinances, which ye shall take heed to do in the land, which Jehovah the God of thy fathers is giving thee to possess it, all the days 2 that ye live upon the earth. Ye shall utterly destroy all the places wherein the nations which ye shall dispossess have served their gods, upon the high mountains, and upon the hills, and under every 3 green tree; and ye shall break down their altars, and shatter their statues, and burn their asherahs [m] with fire; and ye shall hew down the graven images of their gods, and ye shall destroy the names of them out of that place.
4 Ye shall not do so unto Jehovah
5 your God; but unto the place which Jehovah your God will choose out of all your tribes to set his name there, his habitation shall ye seek, and thither thou shalt 6 come; and thither ye shall bring your burnt-offerings and your sacrifices, and your tithes, and the heave-offering of your hand, and your vows, and your voluntary-offerings, and the firstlings of your 7 kine and of your sheep; and ye shall eat there before Jehovah your God, and ye shall rejoice, ye and your households, in all the business of your hand, wherein [n] Jehovah thy God hath blessed 8 thee. Ye shall not do after all that we do here this day, each one whatever is right in his own eyes.
9 For ye are not as yet come to the rest and to the inheritance which Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
10 But when ye have gone over the Jordan, and dwell in the land which Jehovah your God causeth you to inherit, and when he hath given you rest from all your enemies round about, and ye dwell in 11 safety, then there shall be a place which Jehovah your God will choose to cause his name to dwell there; thither shall ye bring all that I command you: your burnt-offerings, and your sacrifices, your tithes, and the heave-offering of your hand, and all your choice vows which ye shall vow to Jeho-12 vah. And ye shall rejoice before Jehovah your God, ye, and your sons, and your daughters, and your bondmen, and your handmaids, and the Levite that is within your gates; for he hath no portion nor inheritance with you.
13 Take heed to thyself that thou offer [o] not thy burnt-offerings in 14 every place that thou seest; but in the place which Jehovah will choose in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer [o] thy burnt-offerings, and there thou shalt do all 15 that I command thee. Nevertheless, according to all the desire of thy soul thou mayest slay [p] and eat flesh in all thy gates, according to the blessing of Jehovah thy God which he hath given thee: the unclean and the clean may eat thereof, as of the gazelle, and the 16 hart. Only, ye shall not eat the blood; ye shall pour it upon the earth as water.
17 Thou mayest not eat within thy gates the tithe of thy corn, or of thy new wine, or of thine oil, or the firstlings of thy kine or of thy sheep, nor any of thy vows which thou vowest, nor thy voluntary-offerings, nor the heave-offering of 18 thy hand; but before Jehovah thy God shalt thou eat them in the place which Jehovah thy God will choose, thou and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy bondman, and thy handmaid, and the Levite that is within thy gates; and thou shalt rejoice before Jehovah thy God in all the business of thy 19 hand. Take heed to thyself that thou forsake not the Levite all the days thou shalt be in thy land.

20 When Jehovah thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he promised thee, and thou say, I will eat flesh, because thy soul longeth to eat flesh, thou mayest eat flesh, according to all the desire of thy soul.
21 If the place which Jehovah thy God will choose to set his name there be too far from thee, then thou shalt slay[q] of thy kine and of thy sheep which Jehovah hath given thee, as I have commanded thee, and thou shalt eat in thy gates according to all the desire 22 of thy soul. Even as the gazelle and the hart is eaten, so thou shalt eat them: the unclean and the 23 clean alike may eat of them. Only, be sure that thou eat not the blood; for the blood is the life,[r] and thou mayest not eat the life 24 with the flesh; thou shalt not eat it; thou shalt pour it upon the 25 earth as water: thou shalt not eat it; that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, when thou shalt do what is right 26 in the eyes of Jehovah. But thy hallowed things which thou hast, and what thou hast vowed, thou shalt take, and come to the place 27 which Jehovah will choose; and thou shalt offer[s] thy burnt-offerings, the flesh and the blood, upon the altar of Jehovah thy God; and the blood of thy sacrifices shall be poured out upon the altar of Jehovah thy God, and the flesh shalt 28 thou eat. Take heed to hear[t] all these words which I command thee, that it may be well with thee,
and with thy children after thee for ever, when thou doest what is good and right in the eyes of Jehovah thy God.
29 When Jehovah thy God cutteth off from before thee the nations whither thou goest, to take possession of them, and thou hast dispossessed them, and dwellest in 30 their land, take heed to thyself that thou be not ensnared [to follow] after them, after that they are destroyed from before thee; and that thou inquire not after their gods, saying, How did these nations serve their gods? even so 31 will I do likewise. Thou shalt not do so to Jehovah thy God; for every [thing that is] abomination to Jehovah, which he hateth, have they done unto their gods; for even their sons and their daughters 32 have they burned in the fire to their gods. Everything that I command you, ye shall take heed to do it; thou shalt not add thereto, nor take from it.

13 If there arise among you a prophet, or one that dreameth dreams, and he give thee a sign or 2 a wonder, and the sign or the wonder come to pass that he told unto thee, when he said, Let us go after other gods, whom thou hast not known, and let us serve them, 3 —thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams; for Jehovah your God proveth you, to know whether ye love Jehovah your God with all your heart and with 4 all your soul. Ye shall walk after Jehovah your God, and ye shall fear him, and his commandments shall ye keep, and his voice shall ye hear; and ye shall serve him, 5 and unto him shall ye cleave. And that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams, shall be put to death; for he hath spoken revolt against Jehovah your God who brought you out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage,—to draw[u] thee out of the way that Jehovah thy God commanded thee to walk in; and thou shalt put evil away from thy midst.
6 If thy brother, the son of thy mother, or thy son, or thy daughter, or the wife of thy bosom, or thy friend, who is to thee as thy soul, entice thee secretly, saying,
Let us go and serve other gods (whom thou hast not known, thou, 7 nor thy fathers; of the gods of the peoples which are round about you, near unto thee, or far from thee, from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the 8 earth), thou shalt not consent unto him, nor hearken unto him; neither shall thine eye spare him, neither shalt thou pity him, neither 9 shalt thou screen him, but thou shalt in any case kill him: thy hand shall be the first against him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people; 10 and thou shalt stone him with stones, that he die; for he hath sought to draw thee away from Jehovah thy God who brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out 11 of the house of bondage; and all Israel shall hear, and fear, and shall do no more any such wicked thing as this in thy midst.

12 If in[v] one of thy cities, which Jehovah thy God hath given thee to dwell there, thou hearest, say-13 ing, There are men, children of Belial,[w] gone out from among you, and they have drawn away the inhabitants of their city, saying,
Let us go and serve other gods, 14 whom ye have not known; then shalt thou inquire, and make search, and ask diligently; and if it be[x] truth, [and] the thing be certain, that this abomination hath happened in the midst of 15 thee, thou shalt surely smite the inhabitants of that city with the edge of the sword, devoting it to destruction, and all that is therein, and the cattle thereof, with the 16 edge of the sword. And all the spoil of it shalt thou gather into the midst of the open place thereof, and shalt burn the city with fire, and all the spoil thereof, wholly to Jehovah thy God; and it shall be a heap for ever; it shall not be 17 built again. And thou shalt not let anything cleave to thy hand of the devoted thing; that Jehovah may turn from the fierceness of his anger, and shew thee mercy, and have compassion upon thee, and multiply thee, as he hath 18 sworn unto thy fathers; when thou hearkenest to the voice of Jehovah thy God, to keep all his commandments which I command thee this day, that thou mayest do what is right in the eyes of Jehovah thy God.

14 Ye are sons of Jehovah your God: ye shall not cut yourselves, nor make any baldness between your eyes for a dead person.
2 For thou art a holy people unto Jehovah thy God, and thee hath Jehovah chosen for a people of possession unto himself, out of all the peoples that are upon the face of the earth.
3 Thou shalt not eat any abomin-4 able thing. These are the beasts which ye shall eat: the ox, the 5 sheep, and the goat; the hart, and the gazelle, and the stag, and the wild goat, and the dishon,[y] and 6 the oryx,[y] and the wild sheep. And every beast that hath cloven hoofs, and the feet quite split open into double hoofs, [and] which cheweth the cud, among the beasts, that ye 7 shall eat. Only these ye shall not eat of those that chew the cud, or of those with hoofs cloven and split open: the camel, and the hare, and the rock-badger; for they chew the cud, but have not cloven hoofs—they shall be un-8 clean unto you; and the swine, for it hath cloven hoofs, yet cheweth not the cud—it shall be unclean unto you. Of their flesh shall ye not eat, and their carcase shall ye not touch.
9 These shall ye eat of all that are in the waters: whatsoever hath 10 fins and scales shall ye eat; but whatsoever hath not fins and scales ye shall not eat: it shall be unclean unto you.
11 All clean birds shall ye eat.
12 But these are they of which ye shall not eat: the eagle,[z] and the 13 ossifrage, and the sea-eagle, and the falcon, and the kite, and the black 14 kite after its kind; and every 15 raven after its kind; and the female ostrich, and the male ostrich, and the seagull, and the 16 hawk after its kind; the owl, and 17 the ibis and the swan,[a] and the pelican, and the carrion vulture, 18 and the gannet, and the stork, and the heron after its kind, and the 19 hoopoe, and the bat. And every winged crawling thing shall be unclean unto you; they shall not be 20 eaten. All clean fowls shall ye eat.
21 Ye shall eat of no carcase; thou shalt give it unto the stranger that is within thy gates, that he may eat it, or sell it unto a foreigner; for thou art a holy people to Jehovah thy God. Thou shalt not boil
a kid in its mother's milk.
22 Thou shalt truly tithe all the increase of thy seed, the produce 23 of the field, year by year. And thou shalt eat before Jehovah thy God, in the place which he will choose to cause his name to dwell there, the tithe of thy corn, of thy new wine, and of thine oil, and the firstlings of thy herds and of thy flocks; that thou mayest learn to fear Jehovah thy God continually.[b] 24 And if the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carry it, because the place is too far from thee, which Jehovah thy God will choose to set his name
there, when Jehovah thy God 25 blesseth thee; then shalt thou give it for money, and bind the money together in thy hand, and go to the place which Jehovah thy 26 God will choose, and thou shalt give the money for whatever thy soul desireth, for oxen, or for sheep, or for wine, or for strong drink, or for whatever thy soul asketh of thee; and thou shalt eat there before Jehovah thy God, and thou shalt rejoice, thou, and 27 thy house. And thou shalt not forsake the Levite that is within thy gates; for he hath no portion nor inheritance with thee.

28 At the end of three years thou shalt bring forth all the tithe of thine increase the same year, and shalt lay it up within thy gates;
29 and the Levite—for he hath no portion nor inheritance with thee—and the stranger,[c] and the fatherless, and the widow, that are within thy gates, shall come, and shall eat and be satisfied; that Jehovah thy God may bless thee in all the work of thy hand which thou doest.

15 At the end of seven years thou shalt make a release, 2 and this is the manner of the release: Every creditor shall relax his hand from the loan which he hath lent unto his neighbour; he shall not demand it of his neighbour, or of his brother; for a release to Jeho-3 vah hath been proclaimed. Of the foreigner thou mayest demand it; but what is thine with thy brother 4 thy hand shall release; save when[d] there shall be no one in need among you; for Jehovah will greatly bless thee in the land that Jehovah thy God giveth thee for 5 an inheritance to possess it, if thou only diligently hearken unto the voice of Jehovah thy God, to take heed to do all this commandment which I command thee this day.
6 For Jehovah thy God will bless thee, as he promised thee; and thou shalt lend on pledge to many nations, but thou shalt not borrow;[e] and thou shalt rule over many nations, but they shall not rule over thee.
7 If there be amongst you a poor man, any one of thy brethren in one of thy gates, in thy land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not harden thy heart, nor shut thy hand from thy brother in 8 need; but thou shalt open thy hand bountifully unto him, and shalt certainly lend him on pledge what is sufficient for his need, [in 9 that] which he lacketh. Beware that there be not a wicked thought[f] in thy heart, saying, The seventh year, the year of release, is at hand; and thine eye be evil against thy poor brother, and thou givest him nought; and he cry against thee to Jehovah, and it be 10 sin in[g] thee. Thou shalt bountifully give unto him, and thy heart shall not be evil-disposed[h] when thou givest unto him; because for this thing Jehovah thy God will bless thee in all thy works, and in 11 all the business of thy hand. For the needy shall never cease from within the land; therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt open thy hand bountifully unto thy brother, to thy poor[i] and to thy needy, in thy land.
12 If thy brother, a Hebrew man, or a Hebrew woman, have been sold unto thee, he shall serve thee six years, and in the seventh year thou shalt let him go free from 13 thee. And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not 14 let him go away empty; thou shalt certainly furnish[j] him from thy sheep, and out of thy floor, and out of thy winepress: of what Jehovah thy God hath blessed thee with shalt thou give unto 15 him. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt, and that Jehovah thy God redeemed thee; therefore I command thee this thing to-day.
16 And it shall be, if he say unto thee, I will not go away from thee,—because he loveth thee and thy house, because he is well with thee, 17 —then thou shalt take an awl, and thrust it through his ear and into the door; and he shall be thy bondman for ever. And also unto thy handmaid thou shalt do 18 likewise. Let it not seem hard unto thee, when thou sendest him away free from thee; for double the worth of a hired servant hath he been to thee, [in] serving thee six years; and Jehovah thy God will bless thee in all that thou doest.
19 Every firstling that is born among thy kine and among thy sheep that is a male, thou shalt hallow to Jehovah thy God: thou shalt do no work with the firstling 20 of thy sheep. Thou shalt eat it before Jehovah thy God, year by year, in the place which Jehovah will choose, thou and thy house-21 hold. But if there be a defect therein, [if it be] lame, or blind,

[or have] any evil defect, thou shalt not sacrifice [k] it to Jehovah 22 thy God. In thy gates shalt thou eat it; the unclean and the clean [shall eat it] alike, as the gazelle 23 and as the hart. Only thou shalt not eat the blood thereof: thou shalt pour it upon the earth as water.

16 Keep the month of Abib, and celebrate the passover to Jehovah thy God; for in the month of Abib Jehovah thy God brought thee forth out of Egypt by night.
2 And thou shalt sacrifice the passover to Jehovah thy God, of the flock and of the herd, in the place which Jehovah will choose to cause his name to dwell there.
3 Thou shalt eat no leavened bread along with it; seven days shalt thou eat unleavened bread with it, bread of affliction; for thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt in haste,—that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest forth out of the land of Egypt, all 4 the days of thy life. And there shall be no leaven seen with thee in all thy borders seven days; neither shall any of the flesh, which thou sacrificedst at even on the first day, be left over night
5 until the morning.—Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover in one of thy gates, which Jehovah thy 6 God giveth thee; but at the place that Jehovah thy God will choose, to cause his name to dwell in, there thou shalt sacrifice the passover at even, at the going down of the sun, at the time that thou camest forth 7 out of Egypt. And thou shalt cook and eat it at the place which Jehovah thy God will choose; and in the morning shalt thou turn and 8 go unto thy tents. Six days thou shalt eat unleavened bread, and on the seventh day is a solemn assembly to Jehovah thy God; thou shalt do no work.
9 Seven weeks shalt thou count: from the beginning of putting the sickle into the corn shalt thou 10 begin to count seven weeks. And thou shalt hold the feast of weeks to Jehovah thy God with a tribute of a voluntary-offering of thy hand, which thou shalt give, according as Jehovah thy God hath blessed 11 thee; and thou shalt rejoice before Jehovah thy God, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy bondman, and thy handmaid, and the Levite that is in thy gates, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow that are in thy midst in the place that Jehovah thy God will choose to cause his 12 name to dwell there. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and thou shalt keep and do these statutes.
13 The feast of tabernacles [l] shalt thou hold seven days, when thou hast gathered in [the produce] of thy floor and of thy winepress.
14 And thou shalt rejoice in thy feast, thou, and thy son, and thy daughter, and thy bondman, and thy handmaid, and the Levite, and the stranger, and the fatherless, and the widow, that are in thy 15 gates. Seven days shalt thou hold a feast to Jehovah thy God in the place which Jehovah will choose; for Jehovah thy God will bless thee in all thy produce, and in all the work of thy hands, and thou shalt be wholly joyful.
16 Three times in the year shall all thy males appear before Jehovah thy God in the place which he will choose, at the feast of unleavened bread, and at the feast of weeks, and at the feast of tabernacles; and they shall not appear before 17 Jehovah empty: each [shall give] according to that which is in his power to give, according to the blessing of Jehovah thy God which he hath given thee.
18 Judges and officers [m] shalt thou make thee in all thy gates, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes, that they may judge the people with just 19 judgment. Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a bribe; for the bribe blindeth the eyes of the wise, and perverteth the words of 20 the righteous. Perfect [n] justice shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and possess the land that Jehovah thy God giveth thee.
21 Thou shalt not plant thyself an asherah [o] of any wood near unto 22 the altar of Jehovah thy God, which thou shalt make thee. Neither shalt thou set thee up a statue, which Jehovah thy God hateth.

17 Thou shalt not sacrifice to Jehovah thy God an ox or sheep [p] wherein is a defect, or anything bad; for it is an abomination to Jehovah thy God.
2 If there be found in thy midst in any of thy gates which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, man or woman, that doeth what is evil in the sight of Jehovah thy God, in trans-3 gressing his covenant, and goeth and serveth other gods, and bow-eth down to them, either to the sun or to the moon, or to the whole host of heaven, which I have not 4 commanded; and it be told thee, and thou hearest of it; then thou shalt make thorough inquiry, and if it be truth [and] the thing be certain, that this abomination 5 hath been wrought in Israel, thou shalt bring forth that man or that woman, who committed that wicked thing, unto thy gates, the man or the woman, and shalt stone them with stones, that they die.

6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is to die be put to death: he shall not be put to death at the mouth 7 of one witness. The hands of the witnesses shall be first upon him to put him to death, and afterwards the hands of all the people; and thou shalt put evil away from thy midst.

8 If there arise a matter too hard for thee in judgment, between blood and blood, between cause and cause, and between stroke and stroke, matters of controversy within thy gates, then shalt thou arise, and go up to the place which 9 Jehovah thy God will choose. And thou shalt come unto the priests, the Levites, and unto the judge that shall be in those days, and inquire; and they shall declare unto thee the sentence of judg-10 ment; and thou shalt do according to the tenor of the word, which they of that place which Jehovah will choose shall declare unto thee; and thou shalt take heed to do according to all that 11 they instruct thee: according to the sentence of the law which they shall declare unto thee, and according to the judgment which they shall tell thee, thou shalt do: thou shalt not decline from the word which they shall declare unto thee, 12 to the right hand, or the left. And the man that shall act presump-tuously, and not hearken unto the priest that standeth to serve there before Jehovah thy God, or unto the judge, that man shall die; and thou shalt put away evil from 13 Israel. And all the people shall hear, and fear, and no more act presumptuously.

14 When thou comest unto the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, and shalt possess it, and shalt dwell therein, and shalt say, I will set a king over me, like all the nations that are about me; 15 thou shalt only set him king over thee whom Jehovah thy God will choose: from among thy brethren shalt thou set a king over thee; thou mayest not set a foreigner over thee, who is not thy brother.
16 Only he shall not multiply horses to himself, nor lead back the people to Egypt, to multiply horses; for Jehovah hath said unto you, Ye shall not return again any more 17 that way. Neither shall he multiply wives to himself, that his heart turn not away; neither shall he greatly multiply to himself sil-18 ver and gold. And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write for himself a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before 19 the priests, the Levites; and it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life; that he may learn to fear Jehovah his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do 20 them; that his heart be not lifted up above his brethren, and that he turn not aside from the commandment, to the right hand, or to the left; that he may prolong his days in his kingdom, he, and his sons, in the midst of Israel.

18 The priests, the Levites, [and] the whole tribe of Levi, shall have no portion nor inheritance with Israel: Jehovah's offerings by fire, and his inheritance shall they 2 eat, but they shall have no inheritance among their brethren: Jehovah, he is their inheritance, as he hath said unto them.

3 And this shall be the priest's due from the people, from them that sacrifice a sacrifice, whether ox, or sheep:[q] they shall give unto the priest the shoulder, and the jaw-4 bones, and the maw. The firstfruits [also] of thy corn, of thy new wine, and of thine oil, and the firstfruits of the shearing of thy 5 sheep, shalt thou give him; for Jehovah thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, that he may stand to serve in the name of Jehovah, he and his sons continually.[r]

6 And if the Levite shall come from one of thy gates out of all Israel, where he sojourneth, and shall come according to all the desire of his soul unto the place 7 which Jehovah will choose, and shall serve in the name of Jehovah

[q] Or 'goat.' [r] Lit. 'all the days;' so xix. 9.

his God, as all his brethren the Levites that stand there before 8 Jehovah,—they shall have like portions to eat, besides that which he hath sold of his patrimony.
9 When thou art come into the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, thou shalt not learn to do according to the abominations of 10 those nations. There shall not be found among you he that maketh his son or his daughter to pass through the fire, that useth divination, that useth auguries, or an 11 enchanter, or a sorcerer, or a charmer, or one that inquireth of a spirit of Python,[s] or a soothsayer, or one that consulteth the dead.
12 For every one that doeth these things is an abomination to Jehovah, and because of these abominations Jehovah thy God doth dispossess them from before thee.
13 Thou shalt be perfect with Jeho-14 vah thy God. For these nations, which thou shalt dispossess, hearkened unto those that use auguries, and that use divination; but as for thee, Jehovah thy God hath not suffered thee [to do] so.
15 Jehovah thy God will raise up unto thee a prophet from the midst of thee, of thy brethren, like unto me; unto him shall ye hark-16 en; according to all that thou desiredst of Jehovah thy God at Horeb on the day of the assembly,[t] saying, Let me not hear again the voice of Jehovah my God, neither let me see this great fire any more, 17 that I die not. And Jehovah said 18 unto me, They have well spoken that which they have spoken. A prophet will I raise up unto them from among their brethren, like unto thee, and will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak unto them all that I shall com-19 mand him. And it shall come to pass that the man who hearkeneth not unto my words which he shall speak in my name, I will require it 20 of him. But the prophet who shall presume to speak a word in my name that I have not commanded him to speak, or that shall speak in the name of other gods, that 21 prophet shall die. And if thou say in thy heart, How shall we know the word that Jehovah hath not 22 spoken? When a prophet speaketh in the name of Jehovah, and the thing followeth not, nor cometh to pass, that is the word which Jehovah hath not spoken; the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: be not afraid of him.

19 When Jehovah thy God hath cut off the nations whose land Jehovah thy God giveth thee, and thou hast dispossessed them, and dwellest in their cities and in their 2 houses, thou shalt separate three cities for thyself in the midst of thy land, which Jehovah thy God
3 giveth thee to possess. Thou shalt prepare thee the way, and divide the territory of thy land, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee to inherit, into three parts, so that every slayer may flee thither.
4 And this is the case of the slayer who shall flee thither that he may live: he that smiteth his neighbour unwittingly, whom he hated 5 not previously; as when he goeth into the wood with his neighbour to hew wood, and his hand fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut down the tree, and the iron slippeth from the handle, and lighteth upon his neighbour, that he die; such an one shall flee unto one of these 6 cities, and live; lest the avenger of blood pursue the manslayer, while his heart is hot, and overtake him, because the way is long, and smite him mortally; whereas he was not worthy of death,[v] since he hated him not previously.
7 Therefore I command thee, saying, Thou shalt separate three cities 8 for thyself. And if Jehovah thy God enlarge thy border, as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, and give thee all the land which he pro-9 mised to give unto thy fathers (if thou keep all this commandment to do it, which I command thee this day, to love Jehovah thy God, and to walk in his ways continually), then shalt thou add three cities more for thyself to these 10 three, that innocent blood be not shed in the midst of thy land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and blood come not upon thee.
11 But if a man hate his neighbour, and lie in wait for him, and rise up against him, and smite him mortally that he die, and he flee into 12 one of these cities, then the elders of his city shall send and fetch him thence, and deliver him into the hand of the avenger of blood, 13 that he may die. Thine eye shall not spare him; and thou shalt put away innocent blood from Israel, that it may be well with thee.

[s] Or 'a necromancer.' [t] Elsewhere 'congregation.' [v] Lit. 'there was for him no judgment of death.'

14 Thou shalt not remove thy neighbour's landmark, which they of old time have fixed in thine inheritance, which thou shalt inherit in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee to possess.
15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, and for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall a matter be established.
16 If an unrighteous witness [w] rise up against any man to testify 17 against him of an offence; then both the men between whom the controversy is shall stand before Jehovah, before the priests and the judges that shall be in those 18 days; and the judges shall make thorough inquiry; and if the witness be [x] a false witness, and he have testified falsely against his 19 brother, then shall ye do unto him as he had thought to have done unto his brother; and thou shalt 20 put evil away from thy midst. And those that remain shall hear, and fear, and shall henceforth commit no more any such evil in thy midst.
21 And thine eye shall not spare: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

20 When thou goest out to war against thine enemies, and seest horses, and chariots, [and] a people more numerous than thou, thou shalt not fear them; for Jehovah thy God is with thee, who brought thee up out of the land of Egypt.
2 And it shall be, when ye approach unto the battle, that the priest shall draw near and speak unto 3 the people, and shall say unto them, Hear, Israel, ye are approaching this day unto battle against your enemies: let not your hearts faint, fear not, and do not tremble, neither be afraid of 4 them; for Jehovah your God is he that goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, to 5 save you. And the officers [y] shall speak unto the people, saying, What man is there that hath built a new house, and hath not dedicated it? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, 6 and another man dedicate it. And what man is there that hath planted a vineyard, and hath not eaten of it? [z] let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man eat of it.
7 And what man is there that hath betrothed a wife, and hath not taken her? let him go and return unto his house, lest he die in the battle, and another man take her.
8 And the officers shall speak further unto the people, and shall say, What man is there that is timid and faint-hearted? let him go and return unto his house, lest his brethren's heart melt as well as his 9 heart. And it shall be, when the officers have ended speaking unto the people, that they shall place captains of the hosts at the head of the people.
10 When thou approachest unto a city to fight against it, thou shalt 11 proclaim peace unto it. And it shall be, if it make thee answer of peace, and open unto thee, then all the people that are found therein shall be tributaries unto thee, 12 and they shall serve thee. And if it will not make peace with thee, but will make war with thee, then 13 thou shalt besiege it; and when Jehovah thy God delivereth it into thy hand, thou shalt smite every male thereof with the edge of the 14 sword: only the women, and the little ones, and the cattle, and all that shall be in the city, all the spoil thereof, shalt thou take as booty for thyself; and thou shalt eat the spoil of thine enemies, which Jehovah thy God giveth 15 thee. Thus shalt thou do unto all the cities that are very far off from thee, which are not of the cities 16 of these nations. But of the cities of these peoples which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, thou shalt save alive nothing 17 that breatheth, but shalt utterly devote them to destruction, the Hittites and the Amorites, the Canaanites and the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites, as Jehovah thy God hath commanded 18 thee; that they teach you not to do according to all their abominations, which they have done unto their gods, so that ye sin against Jehovah your God.
19 When thou shalt besiege a city many days, in making war against it to take it, thou shalt not destroy the trees thereof by lifting up an axe against them; for thou canst eat of them; and thou shalt not cut them down, for is the tree of the field a man that it should be 20 besieged? [a] Only the trees which thou knowest are not trees for meat, thou mayest destroy and cut them down, and build bulwarks against the city that maketh war with thee, until it fall.

21 If one be found slain in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee to possess, lying in the field, [and] it be not known who 2 hath smitten him, then thine elders and thy judges shall go forth, and they shall measure unto the cities which are round about him that 3 is slain; and the city that is nearest unto him that is slain, even the elders of that city shall take a heifer that hath not been wrought with, that hath not drawn in the 4 yoke; and the elders of that city shall bring down the heifer unto an ever-flowing watercourse,[b] which is not tilled, nor is it sown, and shall break the heifer's neck there 5 in the watercourse;[b] and the priests the sons of Levi shall come near; for them Jehovah thy God hath chosen to do service unto him, and to bless in the name of Jehovah; and according to their word[c] shall be every controversy 6 and every stroke. And all the elders of that city, that are nearest unto him that is slain, shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck is broken in the watercourse,[b] 7 and shall answer and say, Our hands have not shed this blood, neither have our eyes seen it. 8 Forgive thy people Israel, whom thou, Jehovah, hast redeemed, and lay not innocent blood to the charge[d] of thy people Israel; and the blood shall be expiated for 9 them.[e] So shalt thou put away innocent blood from thy midst, when thou shalt do what is right in the eyes of Jehovah.

10 When thou goest forth to war against thine enemies, and Jehovah thy God delivereth them into thy hands, and thou hast taken 11 captives of them,[f] and thou seest among the captives a woman of beautiful form, and hast a desire unto her, and takest her as thy 12 wife; then thou shalt bring her home to thy house; and she shall shave her head, and pare[g] her 13 nails; and she shall put the clothes of her captivity from off her, and shall abide in thy house, and bewail her father and mother a full month, and afterwards thou mayest go in unto her, and be her husband, and she shall be thy 14 wife. And it shall be, if thou have no delight in her, then thou shalt let her go according to her desire;[h] but thou shalt in no wise sell her for money; thou shalt not treat her as a slave, because thou hast humbled her.

15 If a man have two wives, one beloved, and one hated, and they have borne him children, both the beloved and the hated, and the firstborn son be hers that was 16 hated; then it shall be, in the day that he maketh his sons to inherit what he hath, that he may not make the son of the beloved firstborn before the son of the hated, 17 who is the firstborn; but he shall acknowledge as firstborn the son of the hated, by giving him a double portion of all that is found with him; for he is the firstfruits of his vigour: the right of the firstborn is his.

18 If a man have an unmanageable and rebellious son, who hearkeneth not unto the voice of his father, nor unto the voice of his mother, and they have chastened him, but he hearkeneth not unto them, 19 then shall his father and his mother lay hold on him, and bring him out unto the elders of his city, and 20 unto the gate of his place; and they shall say unto the elders of his city, This our son is unmanageable and rebellious, he hearkeneth not unto our voice; he is a pro- 21 fligate[i] and a drunkard; and all the men of his city shall stone him with stones, that he die. And thou shalt put evil away from thy midst; and all Israel shall hear and fear.

22 And if a man have committed a sin worthy of death, and he be put to death, and thou have 23 hanged him on a tree, his body shall not remain all night upon the tree, but thou shalt in any wise bury him that day (for he that is hanged is a curse of God); and thou shalt not defile thy land, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

22 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ox or his sheep go astray, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case bring them back 2 unto thy brother. And if thy brother be not near unto thee, and thou know him not, then thou shalt bring it unto thy house, and it shall be with thee until thy brother seek after it, and thou 3 shalt restore it unto him. And so shalt thou do with his ass; and so shalt thou do with his clothing; and so shalt thou do with everything that is lost of thy brother, which he loseth, and thou findest: thou mayest not hide thyself.

4 Thou shalt not see thy brother's ass or his ox fall by the way, and hide thyself from them: thou shalt in any case [help k] him to lift them up.
5 There shall not be a man's apparel on a woman, neither shall a man put on a woman's clothing; for whoever doeth so is an abomination to Jehovah thy God.
6 If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in the way, in any tree, or upon the ground, with young or with eggs, and the dam sitting upon the young or upon the eggs, thou shalt not take the dam with 7 the young; thou shalt in any case let the dam go, and thou mayest take the young to thee, that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest prolong thy days.
8 When thou buildest a new house, thou shalt make a parapet for thy roof, that thou bring not blood upon thy house, if any one should in any wise fall from it.
9 Thou shalt not sow thy vineyard with [seed of] two sorts, lest the whole of thy seed which thou hast sown, and the produce of thy 10 vineyard, be forfeited.l Thou shalt not plough with an ox and 11 an ass together. Thou shalt not wear a garment of mixed material, [woven] of wool and linen together.
12 Tassels shalt thou make thee on the four corners of thy clothing,m wherewith thou coverest thyself.
13 If a man take a wife, and go in 14 unto her and hate her, and charge her with things for scandalous talk, and cause an evil name against her to be spread abroad, and say, This woman have I taken, and I came in unto her, and I did 15 not find her a virgin;n then shall the father of the damsel, and her mother, take and bring forth the tokens of the damsel's virginity unto the elders of the city in the 16 gate; and the damsel's father shall say unto the elders, I gave my daughter unto this man as wife, 17 and he hates her; and behold, he charges her with things for scandalous talk, saying, I found not thy daughter a virgin; and here are the tokens of my daughter's virginity. And they shall spread the cloth before the elders of the city.
18 And the elders of that city shall take the man and chastise him; 19 and they shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver, and give them unto the father of the damsel, because he hath caused an evil name to be spread abroad against a virgin in Israel. And she shall remain*o* his wife: he may not put 20 her away all his days. But if this thing is true, [and] virginity hath not been found with the damsel;
21 then they shall bring out the damsel unto the entrance of her father's house, and the men of her city shall stone her with stones that she die: because she hath wrought infamy in Israel, committing fornication in her father's house; and thou shalt put evil away from thy midst.
22 If a man be found lying with a man's wife, they shall both of them die, the man that lay with the woman, and the woman; and thou shalt put away evil from Israel.
23 If a damsel, a virgin, be betrothed to some one, and a man find her in the city, and lie with 24 her, then ye shall bring them both out unto the gate of that city, and stone them with stones that they die; the damsel, because she cried not, [being] in the city, and the man, because he hath humbled his neighbour's wife; and thou shalt put evil away from thy midst.
25 But if a man find a betrothed damsel in the field, and the man force her, and lie with her, then the man only that lay with her 26 shall die; and unto the damsel thou shalt do nothing: there is in the damsel no sin worthy of death; for as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and murdereth him, 27 so is this matter; for he found her in the field, the betrothed damsel cried, and there was no one to save her.
28 If a man find a damsel, a virgin, who is not betrothed, and lay hold on her, and lie with her, and they 29 be found, then the man that lay with her shall give unto the damsel's father fifty [shekels] of silver, and she shall be his wife, because he hath humbled her; he may not put her away all his days.
30 A man shall not take his father's wife, nor uncover his father's skirt.

2 tion of Jehovah. A bastard shall not come into the congregation of Jehovah; even his tenth genera-3 tion shall not come into the congregation of Jehovah. An Ammonite or Moabite shall not come into the congregation of Jehovah; even their tenth generation shall not come into the congregation of 4 Jehovah for ever; because they met you not with bread and with water on the way, when ye came forth out of Egypt, and because they hired against thee Balaam the son of Beor, of Pethor of Meso-5 potamia, to curse thee. But Jehovah thy God would not listen to Balaam; and Jehovah thy God turned the curse into blessing unto thee, because Jehovah thy God 6 loved thee. Thou shalt not seek their peace nor their prosperity all thy days for ever.
7 Thou shalt not abhor an Edomite; for he is thy brother. Thou shalt not abhor an Egyptian; because thou wast a sojourner[p] in 8 his land. Children that are born to them shall come into the congregation of Jehovah in the third generation.
9 When thou goest forth into camp against thine enemies, then keep thee from every evil thing.
10 If there be with thee a man that is not clean from what hath happened in the night, then shall he go outside the camp; he shall not 11 come inside the camp; and it shall be, towards evening, he shall bathe in water: and at the going down of the sun he may come in-12 side the camp. Thou shalt have a place also outside the camp, and 13 shalt go forth thither. And thou shalt have a shovel amongst thy weapons,[q] and it shall be, when thou sittest down abroad, thou shalt dig therewith, and shalt turn back and cover that which is come from 14 thee. For Jehovah thy God walketh in the midst of thy camp, to deliver thee, and to give up thine enemies before thee; and thy camp shall be holy, that he see nothing unseemly with thee, and turn away from thee.
15 Thou shalt not hand over to his master a bondman that hath escaped from his master unto thee:
16 he shall dwell with thee, even in thy midst, in the place that he shall choose in one of thy gates, where it seemeth good to him; thou shalt not oppress him.
17 There shall be no prostitute amongst the daughters of Israel, nor any Sodomite amongst the 18 sons of Israel. Thou shalt not bring the hire of a harlot or the price of a dog into the house of Jehovah thy God for any vow; for even both these are an abomination to Jehovah thy God.
19 Thou shalt take no interest of thy brother, interest of money, interest of victuals, interest of anything that can be lent upon in-20 terest; of a foreigner thou mayest take interest, but of thy brother thou shalt not take interest; that Jehovah thy God may bless thee in all the business of thy hand in the land whither thou goest to possess it.
21 When thou vowest a vow to Jehovah thy God, thou shalt not delay to perform it; for Jehovah thy God will certainly require it of thee, and it shall be sin in thee.
22 But if thou forbear to vow, it shall 23 be no sin in thee. What is gone out of thy lips thou shalt keep and do, as thou hast vowed to Jehovah thy God, the voluntary-offering that thou hast promised with thy mouth.
24 When thou comest into thy neighbour's vineyard, thou mayest eat grapes thy fill, according to thy desire,[r] but thou shalt not put 25 any in thy vessel. When thou comest into the standing corn of thy neighbour, thou mayest pluck ears with thy hand; but thou shalt not wave the sickle against thy neighbour's standing corn.

24 When a man taketh a wife, and marrieth her, it shall be if she find no favour in his eyes, because he hath found some unseemly thing in her, that he shall write her a letter of divorce, and give it into her hand, and send her 2 out of his house. And she shall depart out of his house, and go away, and may become another 3 man's wife. And if the latter husband hate her, and write her a letter of divorce, and give it into her hand, and send her out of his house; or if the latter husband 4 die who took her as his wife; her first husband, who sent her away, may not take her again to be his wife, after that she is defiled;[s] for it is an abomination before Jehovah, and thou shalt not cause the land to sin, which Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance.

5 When a man hath newly taken [t] a wife, he shall not go out with the army, neither shall any kind of business be imposed upon him; he shall be free for his house one year, and shall gladden his wife whom he hath taken.
6 No man shall take the handmill or the upper millstone in pledge; for it would be taking life in pledge.
7 If a man be found who hath stolen one [v] of his brethren of the children of Israel, and who hath treated him as a slave and sold him, that thief shall die; and thou shalt put evil away from thy midst.
8 Take heed in the plague of leprosy, that thou take great heed, and do according to all that the priests the Levites shall teach you: as I commanded them shall ye 9 take heed to do. Remember what Jehovah thy God did unto Miriam on the way, after that ye came forth out of Egypt.
10 When thou dost lend thy brother anything, thou shalt not go into his house to secure his pledge.
11 Thou shalt stand outside, and the man to whom thou hast made a loan shall bring out the pledge to 12 thee without. And if the man be needy, thou shalt not lie down 13 with his pledge; in any case thou shalt return him the pledge at the going down of the sun, that he may sleep in his own upper garment and bless thee; and it shall be righteousness unto thee before Jehovah thy God.
14 Thou shalt not oppress a hired servant [who is] poor [x] and needy of thy brethren, or of thy sojourners [y] who are in thy land 15 within thy gates: on his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, [x] and his soul yearneth after it; [z] lest he cry against thee to Jehovah, and it be a sin in [a] thee.
16 The fathers shall not be put to death for the sons, neither shall the sons be put to death for the fathers: every man shall be put to death for his own sin.
17 Thou shalt not pervert the judgment of the stranger, [or] of the fatherless; and thou shalt not take in pledge a widow's garment.
18 And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in Egypt, and that Jehovah thy God redeemed thee from thence; therefore I command thee to do this thing.
19 When thou reapest thy harvest in thy field, and forgettest a sheaf in the field, thou shalt not return to fetch it; it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the widow; that Jehovah thy God may bless thee in all the work 20 of thy hands. When thou shakest [b] thine olive-tree, thou shalt not go over the boughs again; it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, 21 and for the widow. When thou gatherest the grapes of thy vineyard, thou shalt not glean it afterwards; it shall be for the stranger, for the fatherless, and for the 22 widow. And thou shalt remember that thou wast a bondman in the land of Egypt; therefore I command thee to do this thing.

25 If there be a controversy between men, and they resort to judgment, and they judge [their case]; then they shall justify the righteous, and condemn the wicked.
2 And it shall be if the wicked man have deserved to be beaten, [c] that the judge shall cause him to lie down, and be beaten before his face, according to the measure of his wickedness with a certain num-3 ber of [stripes]. With forty [stripes] shall they beat him; they shall not exceed, lest, if they continue to beat him with many stripes above these, thy brother become despicable in thine eyes.
4 Thou shalt not muzzle the ox when he treadeth out [the corn].
5 If brethren dwell together, and one of them die, and have no son, the wife of the dead shall not marry a stranger abroad: her husband's brother [d] shall go in unto her, and take her to him as wife, and perform the duty of a 6 husband's brother unto her. And it shall be, that the firstborn that she beareth shall stand in the name of his brother who is dead, that his name be not blotted out from 7 Israel. But if the man like not to take his brother's wife, his brother's wife shall go up to the gate unto the elders, and say, My husband's brother refuseth to raise up unto his brother a name in Israel:

[t] Lit. 'hath taken a new.' [v] Lit. 'a soul.' [x] Or 'afflicted.' [y] Or 'strangers.'
[z] Lit. 'he lifteth his soul to it.' [a] Or 'there be sin upon.' [b] Or 'beatest.' [c] Lit. 'be a son of smiting.' [d] Or 'next kinsman.'

he will not perform for me the 8 duty of a husband's brother. Then the elders of his city shall call him and speak unto him; and if he stand to it and say, I like not to 9 take her; then shall his brother's wife come near to him before the eyes of the elders, and draw his sandal from his foot, and spit in his face, and shall answer and say, So shall it be done unto the man that will not build up his brother's 10 house. And his name shall be called in Israel, The house of him that hath his shoe drawn off.
11 When men fight together one with another, and the wife of the one come near to rescue her husband out of the hand of him that smiteth him, and stretch out her hand, and seize him by his secret 12 parts, thou shalt cut off her hand; thine eye shall not spare.
13 Thou shalt not have in thy bag divers weights,[e] a great and a 14 small. Thou shalt not have in thy house divers ephahs, a great and 15 a small. A perfect and just weight shalt thou have; a perfect and just ephah shalt thou have; that thy days may be prolonged in the land that Jehovah thy God giveth 16 thee. For every one that doeth such things, every one that doeth unrighteousness, is an abomination to Jehovah thy God.
17 Remember what Amalek did unto thee on the way, when he 18 came forth out of Egypt; how he met thee on the way, and smote the hindmost of thee, all the feeble that lagged behind thee, when thou wast faint and weary, and he 19 feared not God. And it shall be, when Jehovah thy God shall have given thee rest from all thine enemies round about, in the land that Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance to possess it, that thou shalt blot out the remembrance of Amalek from under the heavens; thou shalt not forget it.

26 1 And it shall be when thou comest into the land that Jehovah thy God giveth thee for an inheritance, and possessest it, and 2 dwellest therein, that thou shalt take of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which thou shalt bring of thy land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, and shalt put it in a basket, and shalt go unto the place that Jehovah thy God will choose to cause his name to dwell 3 there; and thou shalt come unto the priest that shall be in those days, and say unto him, I profess this day unto Jehovah thy God, that I am come unto the land that Jehovah swore unto our fathers to 4 give us. And the priest shall take the basket out of thy hand, and set it down before the altar of 5 Jehovah thy God. And thou shalt speak and say before Jehovah thy God, A perishing Aramæan[f] was my father, and he went down to Egypt with a few, and sojourned there, and became there a nation, 6 great, mighty, and populous. And the Egyptians evil-entreated us, and afflicted us, and laid upon us 7 hard bondage; and we cried to Jehovah, the God of our fathers, and Jehovah heard our voice, and looked on our affliction, and our 8 labour, and our oppression; and Jehovah brought us forth out of Egypt with a powerful hand, and with a stretched-out arm, and with great terribleness, and with 9 signs, and with wonders; and he hath brought us into this place, and hath given us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey!
10 And now, behold, I have brought the first of the fruits of the land,[g] which thou, Jehovah, hast given me. And thou shalt set it down before Jehovah thy God, and wor-11 ship before Jehovah thy God. And thou shalt rejoice in all the good that Jehovah thy God hath given to thee, and to thy house, thou, and the Levite, and the stranger that is in thy midst.
12 When thou hast made an end of tithing all the tithes of thy produce in the third year, the year of tithing, thou shalt give it to the Levite, to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, that they may eat in thy gates, and be 13 filled; and thou shalt say before Jehovah thy God, I have brought away the hallowed things out of the house, and also have given them to the Levite, and to the stranger, to the fatherless, and to the widow, according to all thy commandment which thou hast commanded me; I have not transgressed nor forgotten [any] of thy 14 commandments: I have not eaten thereof in my mourning, neither have I brought away thereof in uncleanness,[h] nor given thereof for a dead person; I have hearkened to the voice of Jehovah my God; I have done according to all that

[e] Lit. 'a stone and a stone.' [f] Or 'a Syrian in danger of perishing.' [g] Or 'ground.' [h] Or 'for [any] unclean use.'

15 thou hast commanded me. Look down from thy holy habitation, from the heavens, and bless thy people Israel, and the land that thou hast given us as thou didst swear unto our fathers, a land flowing with milk and honey!

16 This day Jehovah thy God hath commanded thee to do these statutes and ordinances; and thou shalt keep and do them with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

17 Thou hast this day accepted Jehovah to be thy God, and to walk in his ways, and keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ordinances, and to hearken unto

18 his voice; and Jehovah hath accepted thee this day to be a people of possession to him, as he hath told thee, and that thou shouldest

19 keep all his commandments, so that he should make thee high above all the nations which he hath made, in praise and in name and in honour; and that thou shouldest be a holy people to Jehovah thy God, as he hath said.

27 And Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people, saying, Keep all the commandment which I command you this

2 day. And it shall be on the day when ye pass over the Jordan unto the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, that thou shalt set thee up great stones, and plaster

3 them with plaster: and thou shalt write upon them all the words of this law, when thou goest over that thou mayest enter into the land which Jehovah thy God giveth thee, a land flowing with milk and honey, as Jehovah the God of thy fathers hath promised

4 thee. And it shall be when ye go over the Jordan, that ye shall set up these stones, as I command you this day, on mount Ebal, and thou shalt plaster them with plaster.

5 And there shalt thou build an altar to Jehovah thy God, an altar of stones; thou shalt not lift up

6 an iron [tool] upon them; of whole stones shalt thou build the altar of Jehovah thy God; and thou shalt offer up burnt-offerings

7 thereon to Jehovah thy God. And thou shalt sacrifice peace-offerings, and shalt eat there, and rejoice

8 before Jehovah thy God. And thou shalt write upon the stones all the words of this law very plainly.

9 And Moses and the priests, the Levites, spoke to all Israel, saying, Be silent and hearken, Israel! this day thou art become the people

10 of Jehovah thy God. And thou shalt hearken unto the voice of Jehovah thy God, and do his commandments and his statutes, which I command thee this day.

11 And Moses gave commandment to the people the same day, saying,

12 These shall stand to bless the people upon mount Gerizim, when ye have gone over the Jordan: Simeon, and Levi, and Judah, and Issachar, and Joseph, and Ben-

13 jamin. And these shall stand upon mount Ebal to curse: Reuben, Gad, and Asher, and Zebulun, 14 Dan, and Naphtali. And the Levites shall declare and say unto all the men of Israel with a loud voice:

15 Cursed be the man that maketh a graven or molten image, an abomination to Jehovah, a work of the craftsman's hand, and putteth it up secretly![i] And all the people shall answer and say, Amen.

16 Cursed be he that slighteth his father or his mother! And all the people shall say, Amen.

17 Cursed be he that removeth his neighbour's landmark! And all the people shall say, Amen.

18 Cursed be he that maketh the blind to wander out of the way! And all the people shall say, Amen.

19 Cursed be he that perverteth the judgment of the stranger, fatherless, and widow! And all the people shall say, Amen.

20 Cursed be he that lieth with his father's wife; for he uncovereth his father's skirt! And all the people shall say, Amen.

21 Cursed be he that lieth with any manner of beast! And all the people shall say, Amen.

22 Cursed be he that lieth with his sister, the daughter of his father, or the daughter of his mother! And all the people shall say, Amen.

23 Cursed be he that lieth with his mother-in-law! And all the people shall say, Amen.

24 Cursed be he that smiteth his neighbour secretly! And all the people shall say, Amen.

25 Cursed be he that taketh reward to smite mortally [shedding] innocent blood! And all the people shall say, Amen.

26 Cursed be he that confirmeth not the words of this law to do them! And all the people shall say, Amen.

[i] Or 'in a secret place.'

28 And it shall come to pass, if thou shalt hearken diligently unto the voice of Jehovah thy God, to take heed to do all his commandments which I command thee this day, that Jehovah thy God will set thee supreme above 2 all nations of the earth; and all these blessings shall come on thee and overtake thee, if thou shalt hearken unto the voice of Jehovah thy God.
3 Blessed shalt thou be in the city, and blessed shalt thou be in the field.
4 Blessed shall be the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy ground, and the fruit of thy cattle, the offspring of thy kine, and the increase[k] of thy sheep.
5 Blessed shall be thy basket and thy kneading-trough.
6 Blessed shalt thou be in thy coming in, and blessed shalt thou be in thy going out.
7 Jehovah will give up, smitten before thee, tnine enemies that rise up against thee; they shall come out against thee one way, and by seven ways shall they flee before 8 thee. Jehovah will command blessing on thee in thy granaries, and in all the business of thy hand; and he will bless thee in the land which Jehovah thy God giveth 9 thee. Jehovah will establish thee unto himself a holy people as he hath sworn unto thee, if thou keep the commandments of Jehovah thy God, and walk in his ways.
10 And all peoples of the earth shall see that thou art called by the name of Jehovah,[l] and they shall 11 be afraid of thee. And Jehovah will give thee abundance of good, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, in the land that Jehovah swore unto thy fathers to 12 give thee. Jehovah will open to thee his good treasure, the heavens, to give rain unto thy land in its season, and to bless all the work of thy hand; and thou shalt lend unto many nations, but thou shalt 13 not borrow. And Jehovah will make thee the head, and not the tail; and thou shalt be above only, and thou shalt not be beneath; if thou hearken unto the commandments of Jehovah thy God, which I command thee this 14 day, to keep and to do them, and if thou turn not aside from any of the words that I command thee this day, to the right hand or to the left, to go after other gods to serve them.
15 But it shall come to pass if thou wilt not hearken unto the voice of Jehovah thy God, to take heed to do all his commandments and his statutes which I command thee this day, that all these curses shall come upon thee and overtake thee.
16 Cursed shalt thou be in the city, and cursed shalt thou be in the field.
17 Cursed shall be thy basket and thy kneading-trough.
18 Cursed shall be the fruit of thy womb, and the fruit of thy ground, the offspring of thy kine, and the increase of thy sheep.
19 Cursed shalt thou be in thy coming in, and cursed shalt thou be in thy going out.
20 Jehovah will send upon thee cursing, confusion, and rebuke, in all the business of thy hand which thou doest, until thou be destroyed and until thou perish quickly, because of the wickedness of thy doings, whereby thou hast for-21 saken me. Jehovah will make the pestilence cleave unto thee, until he have consumed thee from off the land whither thou goest to 22 possess it. Jehovah will smite thee with consumption, and with fever, and with inflammation, and with burning ague, and with drought,[m] and with blight, and with mildew, and they shall pursue 23 thee until thou perish. And thy heavens which are over thy head shall be brass,[n] and the earth which is 24 under thee, iron. Jehovah will give as the rain of thy land powder and dust; from the heavens shall it come down upon thee until thou 25 be destroyed. Jehovah will give thee up smitten before thine enemies; thou shalt go out against them one way, and by seven ways shalt thou flee before them; and thou shalt be driven hither and thither into all the kingdoms of the 26 earth. And thy carcase shall be meat unto all the fowl of the air, and unto the beasts of the earth, and there shall be no man to scare 27 them away. Jehovah will smite thee with the ulcers of Egypt, and with boils,[o] and with the scab, and with the itch, whereof thou canst 28 not be healed. Jehovah will smite thee with madness, and with [k] See on vii. 13. [l] Heb. 'that the name of Jehovah is called upon thee.' [m] According as pointed, the word is either 'drought' or 'sword.' Jerome, Mendelssohn, &c., as in text. [n] Elsewhere translated 'bronze' or 'copper.' [o] Or 'hemorrhoids.'

blindness, and with astonishment 29 of heart; and thou shalt grope at noonday, as the blind gropeth in darkness, and thou shalt not prosper in thy ways; and thou shalt be only oppressed and spoiled continually,[p] and there shall be none 30 to save. Thou shalt betroth a wife, and another man shall lie with her; thou shalt build a house, and thou shalt not dwell therein; thou shalt plant a vineyard, and 31 shalt not eat of it.[q] Thine ox shall be slaughtered before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eat thereof; thine ass shall be snatched away from before thy face, and shall not return to thee; thy sheep shall be given unto thine enemies, and thou shalt have none to recover[r] them.
32 Thy sons and thy daughters shall be given unto another people, and thine eyes shall look, and languish for them all the day long; and there shall be no power in thy 33 hand [to help it].[s] The fruit of thy ground and all thy labour, shall a people that thou knowest not eat up; and thou shalt be only oppressed and crushed continually.
34 And thou shalt be mad through the sight of thine eyes which thou 35 shalt see. Jehovah will smite thee in the knees and in the legs with evil ulcers, whereof thou canst not be healed, from the sole of thy foot unto the top of thy head.
36 Jehovah will bring thee, and thy king whom thou shalt set over thee, unto a nation that neither thou nor thy fathers have known, and there shalt thou serve other 37 gods, wood and stone. And thou shalt become an astonishment, a proverb, and a byword, among all the peoples whither Jehovah shall 38 lead thee. Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather little in; for the locust shall 39 devour it. Thou shalt plant and till vineyards, but shalt drink no wine, nor gather [the fruit]; for 40 the worms shall eat it. Olive-trees shalt thou have throughout all thy borders, but thou shalt not anoint thyself with oil; for thine 41 olive-tree shall cast its fruit. Sons and daughters shalt thou beget, but thou shalt not have them [to be with thee]; for they shall go 42 into captivity. All thy trees and the fruit of thy ground shall the 43 locust[t] possess. The sojourner that is in thy midst shall rise above thee higher and higher, and thou shalt sink down lower and lower.
44 He shall lend to thee, but thou shalt not lend to him: he shall be the head, and thou shalt be the tail.
45 And all these curses shall come upon thee, and shall pursue thee, and overtake thee, until thou be destroyed; because thou harkenedst not unto the voice of Jehovah thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which 46 he commanded thee. And they shall be upon thee for a sign and for a wonder, and upon thy seed 47 for ever. Because thou servedst not Jehovah thy God with joyfulness, and with gladness of heart, for the abundance of everything, 48 thou shalt serve thine enemies whom Jehovah will send against thee, in hunger, and in thirst, and in nakedness, and in want of everything; and he shall put a yoke of iron upon thy neck, until 49 he have destroyed thee. Jehovah will bring a nation against thee from afar, from the end of the earth, like as the eagle flieth, a nation whose tongue thou under-50 standest not;[u] a nation of fierce countenance, which regardeth not the person of the old, nor is kind 51 to the young; and he shall eat the fruit of thy cattle, and the fruit of thy ground, until thou be destroyed; for he shall not leave thee corn, new wine, or oil, offspring of thy kine, or increase of thy sheep, until he have destroyed 52 thee. And he shall besiege thee in all thy gates, until thy high and strong walls wherein thou trustedst come down, throughout all thy land; and he shall besiege thee in all thy gates in all thy land, which Jehovah thy God hath given 53 thee. And in the siege, and in the straitness, wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee, thou shalt eat the fruit of thine own body, the flesh of thy sons and of thy daughters whom Jehovah thy God hath 54 given thee. The eye of the man in thy midst that is tender and very luxurious shall be evil towards his brother, and the wife of his bosom, and the residue of his children which he hath left; 55 so that he will not give to any of them of the flesh of his children that he eateth, because he hath nothing left him in the siege and in the straitness wherewith thine enemies shall distress thee in all 56 thy gates. The eye of the tender and luxurious woman in thy midst who would not attempt to set the sole of her foot upon the ground from luxuriousness and from tenderness, shall be evil toward the husband of her bosom, and her 57 son, and her daughter, because of her afterbirth which hath come out between her feet, and her children whom she shall bear; for she shall secretly eat them for want of everything in the siege and in the straitness wherewith thine enemy shall distress thee in 58 thy gates. If thou wilt not take heed to do all the words of this law that are written in this book, to fear[w] this glorious and fearful 59 name, JEHOVAH THY GOD; then Jehovah will make thy plagues wonderful, and the plagues of thy seed, great and persistent plagues and evil and persistent sicknesses; 60 and he will bring upon thee all the diseases of Egypt which thou art 61 afraid of, and they shall cleave unto thee. Also every sickness and every plague which is not written in the book of this law, them will Jehovah bring upon thee, 62 until thou be destroyed. And ye shall be left a small company, whereas ye were as the stars of heaven for multitude; because thou hast not hearkened to the 63 voice of Jehovah thy God. And it shall come to pass, that as Jehovah rejoiced over you to do you good and to multiply you, so Jehovah will rejoice over you to cause you to perish, and to destroy you; and ye shall be plucked from off the land whereunto thou goest to pos-64 sess it. And Jehovah will scatter thee among all peoples, from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth; and thou shalt there serve other gods, whom thou hast not known, neither thou nor thy fathers, wood and stone.

65 And among these nations shalt thou have no rest, neither shall the sole of thy foot have a resting-place, and Jehovah shall give thee there a trembling heart, languishing of the eyes, and pining of the 66 soul. And thy life shall hang in suspense before thee; and thou shalt be in terror day and night, 67 and shalt be afraid of thy life. In the morning thou shalt say, Would that it were even! and in the evening thou shalt say, Would that it were morning! through the fright of thy heart wherewith thou shalt be in terror, and through the sight of thine eyes which thou 68 shalt see. And Jehovah will bring thee into Egypt again with ships, by the way whereof I said unto thee, Thou shalt see it again no more; and there ye shall be sold unto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and there shall be no man to buy [you].
69 [x] These are the words of the covenant that Jehovah commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the land of Moab, besides the covenant that he made with them in Horeb.

29 And Moses called to all Israel, and said unto them, 2 Ye have seen all that Jehovah did before your eyes in the land of Egypt to Pharaoh, and to all his bondmen, 3 and to all his land: the great trials that thine eyes have seen, those 4 great signs and wonders. But Jehovah hath not given you a heart to perceive, and eyes to see, and 5 ears to hear, to this day. And I have led you forty years in the wilderness; your clothes are not grown old upon you, and thy sandal is not grown old upon thy 6 foot; ye have not eaten bread, neither have ye drunk wine or strong drink, that he might know 7 that I am Jehovah your God. And ye came to this place; and Sihon the king of Heshbon and Og the king of Bashan came out against us for battle, and we smote them.
8 And we took their land, and gave it for an inheritance to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to the half tribe of the Manas-9 sites. Ye shall keep then the words of this covenant, and do them, that ye may prosper in all that ye do.
10 Ye stand this day all of you before Jehovah your God: your chiefs [of] your tribes, your elders, and your officers, all the men of 11 Israel, your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, as well the hewer of thy wood as the drawer of thy water;
12 that thou mayest enter into the covenant of Jehovah thy God, and into his oath, which Jehovah thy God maketh with thee this day; 13 that he may establish thee this day for a people unto himself, and [that] he may be to thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob.

14 Neither with you only do I make 15 this covenant and this oath, but with him that standeth here with us this day before Jehovah our God, and with him that is not here 16 with us this day (for ye know how we dwelt in the land of Egypt, and how we came through the nations 17 which ye passed; and ye have seen their abominations, and their idols,[y] wood and stone, silver and gold, which were among them); 18 lest there should be among you man, or woman, or family, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from Jehovah our God, to go and serve the gods of these nations; lest there should be among you a root that beareth gall 19 and wormwood, and it come to pass, when he heareth the words of this curse,[z] that he bless himself in his heart, saying, I shall have peace, though I walk in the stubbornness of my heart, to sweep away the drunken[a] with the 20 thirsty. Jehovah will not pardon him, but the anger of Jehovah and his jealousy will then smoke against that man, and all the curse shall be upon him that is written in this book; and Jehovah will blot out his name from under the heavens; 21 and Jehovah will separate him for mischief out of all the tribes of Israel, according to all the curses of the covenant that is written in 22 this book of the law. And the generation to come, your children who shall rise up after you, and the foreigner that shall come from a far land, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, and its sicknesses wherewith Jehovah hath 23 visited it,[b] [that] the whole ground thereof is brimstone and salt, [and] burning, that it is not sown, nor beareth, and no grass groweth in it, like the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboim, which Jehovah overthrew 24 in his anger and in his fury: even all nations shall say, Why has Jehovah done thus to this land?
whence the heat of this great anger?
25 And men shall say, Because they have forsaken the covenant of Jehovah the God of their fathers, which he had made with them when he brought them forth out 26 of the land of Egypt; and they went and served other gods, and bowed down to them, gods whom they knew not, and whom he had 27 not assigned to them. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against this land, to bring upon it all the curse that is written in this 28 book; and Jehovah rooted them out of their land in anger, and in fury, and in great indignation, and cast them into another land, as [it 29 appears] this day. The hidden things belong to Jehovah our God; but the revealed ones are ours and our children's for ever, to do all the words of this law.

30 And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt take them to heart among all the nations whither Jehovah thy God hath driven thee, 2 and shalt return to Jehovah thy God, and shalt hearken to his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy sons, with all thy heart and with 3 all thy soul; that then Jehovah thy God will turn thy captivity,
and have compassion upon thee,
and will gather thee again from all the peoples whither Jehovah thy God hath scattered thee.
4 Though there were of you driven out unto the end of the heavens, from thence will Jehovah thy God gather thee, and from thence will 5 he fetch thee; and Jehovah thy God will bring thee into the land that thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee 6 above thy fathers. And Jehovah thy God will circumcise thy heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love Jehovah thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul, that 7 thou mayest live. And Jehovah thy God will put all these curses on thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, who have perse-8 cuted thee. But thou shalt return and hearken[c] to the voice of Jehovah, and do all his commandments which I command thee this day.
9 And Jehovah thy God will make thee abound in every work of thy hand, in the fruit of thy body, and in the fruit of thy cattle, and in the fruit of thy ground, for good; for Jehovah will again rejoice over thee for good, as he rejoiced over 10 thy fathers; if[d] thou shalt hearken unto the voice of Jehovah thy God, to keep his commandments and his statutes which are written in this book of the law; if thou turn[e] to Jehovah thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul.

11 For this commandment which I command thee this day is not too wonderful for thee, neither is it 12 far off. It is not in the heavens, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go up for us to the heavens, and bring it to us, that we should hear 13 it and do it? And it is not beyond the sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall go over the sea for us, and bring it to us, that we should hear 14 it and do it? For the word is very near to thee, in thy mouth and in thy heart, that thou mayest do it.
15 See, I have set before thee this day life and good, and death and 16 evil, in that I command thee this day to love Jehovah thy God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his ordinances, that thou mayest live and multiply, and that Jehovah thy God may bless thee in the land whither thou goest to 17 possess it. But if thy heart turn away, so that thou wilt not hear, but shalt be drawn away, and thou shalt bow down to other gods and 18 serve them; I denounce unto you this day that ye shall surely perish; ye shall not prolong your days upon the land whereunto thou passest over the Jordan to 19 possess it. I call heaven and earth to witness this day against you: life and death have I set before you, blessing and cursing: choose then life, that thou mayest live, 20 thou and thy seed, in loving Jehovah thy God, in hearkening to his voice, and in cleaving to him—for this is thy life and the length of thy days—that thou mayest dwell in the land which Jehovah swore unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them.

31 And Moses went and spoke these words to all Israel; 2 and he said unto them, I am a hundred and twenty years old this day, I can no more go out and come in; and Jehovah hath said unto me, Thou shalt not go over this Jordan.
3 Jehovah thy God, he will go over before thee, he will destroy these nations from before thee, that thou mayest take possession of them: Joshua, he shall go over before thee, as Jehovah hath said.
4 And Jehovah will do to them as he did to Sihon and to Og, the kings of the Amorites, and to their land, 5 whom he destroyed. And when Jehovah giveth them up before you, ye shall do to them according to all the commandment which I 6 have commanded you. Be strong and courageous, fear them not, neither be afraid of them; for Jehovah thy God, he it is that goeth with thee; he will not leave thee, nor forsake thee.
7 And Moses called to Joshua, and said to him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong and courageous, for thou must go with this people into the land which Jehovah hath sworn unto their fathers to give them; and thou shalt cause them 8 to inherit it. And Jehovah, he it is that goeth before thee: he will be with thee; he will not leave thee, nor forsake thee; fear not, neither be dismayed.
9 And Moses wrote this law, and delivered it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and to all 10 the elders of Israel. And Moses commanded them, saying, At the end of every seven years, at the set time of the year of release, at 11 the feast of tabernacles, when all Israel cometh to appear before Jehovah thy God in the place which he will choose, thou shalt read this law before all Israel in 12 their ears. Gather the people together, the men, and the women, and the children, and thy stranger that is within thy gates, that they may hear, and that they may learn, and fear Jehovah your God, and take heed to do all the words of 13 this law; and that their children who do not know it may hear it and learn, that they may fear Jehovah your God, as long as[f] ye live in the land, whereunto ye pass over the Jordan to possess it.
14 And Jehovah said to Moses, Lo, the days are near for thee to die; call Joshua, and present yourselves at the tent of meeting, that I may give him a charge. And Moses and Joshua went and presented them-15 selves at the tent of meeting. And Jehovah appeared at the tent in the pillar of cloud; and the pillar of cloud stood over the entrance 16 to the tent. And Jehovah said to Moses, Behold, thou shalt sleep with thy fathers; and this people will rise up, and go a whoring after the strange gods of the land into which they enter, and will forsake me, and break my covenant which I have made with them.
17 And my anger shall be kindled

against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and I will hide my face from them, and they shall be devoured, and many evils and troubles shall befall[g] them, and they will say in that day, Have not these evils befallen[h] me because my God is not in my midst?
18 And I will entirely hide my face in that day for all the evils that they have wrought, because they 19 turned unto other gods. And now, write ye this song, and teach it to the children of Israel; put it in their mouths, that this song may be a witness for me against the 20 children of Israel. For I shall bring them into the land which I swore unto their fathers, which floweth with milk and honey; and they will eat and fill themselves, and wax fat, and will turn unto other gods, and serve them, and despise me, and break my cove-21 nant. And it shall come to pass, when many evils and troubles have befallen[h] them, that this song shall testify against them as a witness; for it shall not be forgotten out of the mouths of their seed; for I know their imagination which they are forming already this day, before I bring them into the land which I have sworn [unto them].
22 And Moses wrote this song the same day, and taught it to the 23 children of Israel. And [Jehovah] commanded Joshua the son of Nun, and said, Be strong and courageous; for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I have sworn unto them; and I will be with thee.
24 And it came to pass, when Moses had ended writing the words of this law in a book, until their con-25 clusion, that Moses commanded the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, saying, 26 Take this book of the law, and put it at the side of the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, that it may be there for a witness 27 against thee; for I know thy rebellion, and thy stiff neck. Lo, while I am yet alive with you this day, ye have been rebellious against Jehovah; and how much 28 more after my death! Gather to me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speak these words in their ears, and take heaven and earth to witness against 29 them. For I know that after my death ye will utterly corrupt yourselves, and will turn aside from the way which I have commanded you; and mischief will befall you at the end of days; because ye do evil in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to anger through the work of your hands.
30 And Moses spoke in the ears of the whole congregation of Israel the words of this song, until their conclusion.

32 Give ear, ye heavens, and I will speak;
And hear, O earth, the words of my mouth!
2 My doctrine shall drop as rain,
My speech flow down as dew,
As small rain upon the tender herb,
And as showers on the grass.
3 For the name of Jehovah will I proclaim:
Ascribe greatness unto our God!
4 [He is] the Rock, his work is perfect, For all his ways are righteousness;[i] A God[j] of faithfulness without deceit, Just and right is he.
5 They have dealt corruptly with him;
Not his children's is their spot:—
A crooked and perverted generation!
6 Do ye thus requite Jehovah, Foolish and unwise people?
Is not he thy father that hath bought thee?
Hath he not made thee and established thee?
7 Remember the days of old,
Consider the years of generation to generation;
Ask thy father, and he will shew thee;
Thine elders, and they will tell thee.
8 When the Most High assigned to the nations their inheritance, When he separated the sons of Adam,
He set the bounds of the peoples
According to the number of the children of Israel.
9 For Jehovah's portion in his people;
Jacob the lot of his inheritance.
10 He found him in a desert land,
And in the waste, howling wilderness;
He compassed him about,[k] he watched over him,
He preserved him as the apple of his eye.
11 As the eagle stirreth up its nest, Hovereth over its young,

Spreadeth out its wings, Taketh them, beareth them on its feathers, 12 So Jehovah alone did lead him,
And no strange god [l] [was] with him.
13 He made him ride on the high places of the earth,
And he ate the produce of the field;
And he made him suck honey out of the crag,
And oil out of the flinty rock; 14 Cream of kine, and milk of sheep,
With the fat of lambs,[m]
And rams of the breed of Bashan, and he-goats,
With the fat of kidneys of wheat;
And thou didst drink pure wine, the blood of the grape.
15 Then Jeshurun [n] grew fat, and kicked—Thou art waxen fat,
Thou art grown thick,
And thou art covered with fatness;—
He gave up God [o] who made him,
And lightly esteemed the Rock of his salvation.
16 They moved him to jealousy with strange gods,
With abominations did they provoke him to anger.
17 They sacrificed unto demons who are not *God;
To gods whom they knew not,
To new ones, who came newly up,
Whom your fathers revered not.
18 Of the Rock that begot thee wast thou unmindful,
And thou hast forgotten God [l] who brought thee forth.
19 And Jehovah saw it, and despised them, Because of the provoking of his sons and of his daughters.
20 And he said, I will hide my face from them, I will see what their end shall be;
For they are a perverse generation, Children in whom is no faithfulness.
21 They have moved me to jealousy with that which is no God; [p]
They have exasperated me with their vanities;
And I will move them to jealousy with that which is not a people;
With a foolish nation will I provoke them to anger.
22 For a fire is kindled in mine anger,
And it shall burn into the lowest Sheol,[q]
And shall consume the earth and its produce,
And set fire to the foundations of the mountains.
23 I will heap mischiefs upon them;
Mine arrows will I spend against them.
24 They shall be consumed with hunger, and devoured with burning heat,
And with poisonous pestilence;
And the teeth of beasts will I send against them,
With the poison of what crawleth in the dust.
25 From without shall the sword bereave them, and in the chambers, terror—Both the young man and the virgin,
The suckling with the man of gray hairs.
26 I would say, I will scatter,
I will make the remembrance of them to cease from among men, 27 If I did not fear provocation from the enemy, Lest their adversaries should misunderstand it, Lest they should say, Our hand is high, and Jehovah has not done all this.
28 For they are a nation void of counsel,
And understanding is not in them.
29 Oh that they had been wise! they would have understood this,
They would have considered their latter end!
30 How could one chase a thousand,
And two put ten thousand to flight,
Were it not that their Rock had sold them,
And Jehovah had delivered them up?
31 For their rock is not as our Rock:
Let our enemies themselves be judges.
32 For their vine is of the vine of Sodom,
And of the fields of Gomorrah:
Their grapes are grapes of poison, Bitter are their clusters;
33 Their wine is the poison of dragons,
And the cruel venom of vipers.
34 Is not this hidden with me, Sealed up among my treasures?
35 Vengeance is mine, and recompense,
For the time when their foot shall slip.

For the day of their calamity is at hand,
And the things that shall come upon them make haste.
36 For Jehovah will judge his people,
And shall repent in favour of[r] his servants;
When he seeth that power is gone,
And there is none shut up or left.[s] 37 And he shall say, Where are their gods, Their rock in whom they trusted, 38 Who ate the fat of their sacrifices, [And] drank the wine of their drink-offering?
Let them rise up and help you,
That there may be a protection over you.
39 See now that I, I am HE,[t]
And there is no god with me;
I kill, and I make alive;
I wound, and I heal,
And there is none that delivereth out of my hand, 40 For I lift up my hand to the heavens, and say,
I live for ever!
41 If I have sharpened my gleaming sword,
And my hand take hold of judgment,
I will render vengeance to mine adversaries,
And will recompense them that hate me.
42 Mine arrows will I make drunk with blood,
And my sword shall devour flesh;
[I will make them drunk] with the blood of the slain and of the captives,[u]
With the head of the princes of the enemy.
43 Shout for joy, ye nations, with his people,
For he avengeth the blood of his servants,
And rendereth vengeance to his enemies,
And maketh atonement for[w] his land, for his people.
44 And Moses came and spoke all the words of this song in the ears of the people, he and Hoshea the 45 son of Nun. And when Moses had ended speaking all these words to 46 all Israel, he said unto them, Set your hearts unto all the words that I testify among you this day, which ye shall command your children to take heed to do, all 47 the words of this law. For it is no vain word for you, but it is your life, and through this word ye shall prolong your days on the land whereunto ye pass over the Jordan to possess it.
48 And Jehovah spoke to Moses 49 that same day, saying, Go up into this mountain Abarim, mount Nebo, which is in the land of Moab, which is opposite Jericho; and behold the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of 50 Israel for a possession, and die on the mountain whither thou goest up, and be gathered unto thy peoples, as Aaron thy brother died on mount Hor, and was gathered 51 unto his peoples; because ye trespassed against me among the children of Israel at the waters of Meribah-Kadesh, in the wilderness of Zin; because ye hallowed me not in the midst of the children of 52 Israel. For thou shalt see the land before [thee]; but thou shalt not go thither unto the land which I give the children of Israel.

33 And this is the blessing, wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death.

2 And he said,
Jehovah came from Sinai,
And rose up from Seir unto them;
He shone forth from mount Paran,
And he came from the myriads of the sanctuary;[x]
From his right hand [went forth] a law of fire for them.[y] 3 Yea, he loveth the peoples,[z]
All his saints are in thy hand,
And they sit down at thy feet;
Each receiveth of thy words.
4 Moses commanded us a law,
The inheritance of the congregation of Jacob.
5 And he was king in Jeshurun, When the heads of the people And the tribes of Israel were gathered together.
6 Let Reuben live, and not die;
And let his men be few.[a] 7 And this of Judah; and he said, Hear, Jehovah, the voice of Judah,
And bring him unto his people;
May his hands strive for them;
And be thou a help to him against his oppressors.

[r] Or 'shall have compassion upon.' [s] Or 'at liberty.' The phrase, for which cf. 1 Kings xiv. 10, 2 Kings xiv. 26, seems to be a Hebrew proverbial expression, in itself a paronomasia, to express forcibly 'the totality.' [t] Or 'the Same;' 'the self-existent one.' This expression becomes virtually a name of God: cf. Neh. ix. 6, Psa. cii. 27, Isa. xli. 4, &c. [u] Lit. 'captivity.' [w] Or 'forgiveth;' cf. xxi. 8. [x] Or 'holy myriads.' [y] Others, 'fire to guide them.' [z] Or 'tribes:' and so in ver. 19. [a] Lit. 'of number:' i.e. that can be counted [easily].

8 And of Levi he said, Thy Thummim and thy Urim are for thy godly one,[b] Whom thou didst prove at Massah,
With whom thou didst strive at the waters of Meribah; 9 Who said to his father and to his mother, I see him not,
And he acknowledged not his brethren,
And knew not his own children;
For they have observed thy word,
And kept thy covenant.
10 They shall teach Jacob thine ordinances,[c]
And Israel thy law:
They shall put incense before thy nostrils,
And whole burnt-offering upon thine altar.
11 Bless, Jehovah, his substance,[d]
And let the work of his hands please thee;
Crush the loins of his adversaries,
And of them that hate him, that they may never rise again!
12 Of Benjamin he said,
The beloved of Jehovah,—he shall dwell in safety by him;
He will cover him all the day long,
And dwell between his shoulders.
13 And of Joseph he said, Blessed of Jehovah be his land,
By the precious things of the heavens,
By the dew, and by the deep that lieth beneath, 14 And by the precious fruits of the sun,
And by the precious things put forth by the months,[e] 15 And by the best things[f] of the ancient mountains,
And by the precious things of the everlasting hills, 16 And by the precious things of the earth and the fulness thereof.
And let the good will of him that dwelt in the bush Come upon the head of Joseph,
Upon the top of the head of him that was separated from[g] his brethren.
17 His majesty is as the firstling of his ox;
And his horns are as the horns of a buffalo.
With them shall he push the peoples Together to the ends of the earth.
These are the myriads of Ephraim,
And these are the thousands of Manasseh.
18 And of Zebulun he said, Rejoice, Zebulun, in thy going out;
And thou, Issachar, in thy tents!
19 They shall invite [the] peoples to the mountain;
There they shall offer sacrifices of righteousness;
For they will suck the abundance of the seas,
And the hidden treasures of the sand.
20 And of Gad he said, Blessed be he that enlargeth Gad!
As a lion doth he dwell, and teareth the arm, even the top of the head.
21 And he provided the first part for himself,
For there was reserved[h] the portion of the lawgiver;
And he came with[i] the heads of the people;
The justice of Jehovah and his judgments Hath he executed with Israel.
22 And of Dan he said, Dan is a young lion;
He shall spring forth from Bashan.
23 And of Naphtali he said, Naphtali, satisfied with favour,
And full of the blessing of Jehovah, Possess thou the west and the south.[k] 24 And of Asher he said, Asher shall be blessed with sons;
Let him be acceptable to his brethren,
And let him dip his foot in oil.
25 Iron and brass shall be thy bolts;
And thy rest as thy days.
26 There is none like unto the God[l] of Jeshurun, Who rideth upon the heavens to thy help,
And in his majesty, upon the clouds.
27 [Thy] refuge is the God of old,
And underneath are the eternal arms;
And he shall drive out the enemy from before thee,
And shall say, Destroy [them]!
28 And Israel shall dwell in safety alone,
The fountain of Jacob, in a land of corn and new wine;
Also his heavens shall drop down dew.
29 Happy art thou, Israel!
Who is like unto thee, a people saved by Jehovah,
The shield of thy help,

And the sword of thine excellency?
And thine enemies shall come cringing to thee;
And thou shalt tread upon their high places.

34 And Moses went up from the plains of Moab to mount Nebo, to the top of Pisgah, which is opposite Jericho. And Jehovah shewed him the whole land, Gilead 2 to Dan, and all Naphtali, and the land of Ephraim, and Manasseh, and all the land of Judah, unto 3 the hindmost sea, and the south, and the plain[m] of the valley of Jericho, the city of palm-trees, to 4 Zoar. And Jehovah said unto him, This is the land that I swore unto Abraham, unto Isaac, and unto Jacob, saying, Unto thy seed will I give it: I have caused thee to see it with thine eyes, but thou 5 shalt not go over thither. And Moses the servant of Jehovah died there in the land of Moab, accord-6 ing to the word[n] of Jehovah. And he buried him in the valley in the land of Moab, opposite Beth-Peor; and no man knows his sepulchre to this day.
7 And Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died; his eye was not dim, nor his 8 natural force abated. And the children of Israel wept for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days; and the days of weeping and mourning for Moses were ended.
9 And Joshua the son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom, for Moses had laid his hands upon him; and the children of Israel hearkened unto him, and did as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
10 And there arose no prophet since in Israel like Moses, whom Jeho-11 vah had known face to face, according to all the signs and wonders that Jehovah had sent him to do in the land of Egypt, to Pharaoh, and to all his servants, and 12 to all his land, and according to all that mighty hand, and according to all the great terribleness that Moses had wrought in the sight of all Israel.

BOOK OF JOSHUA

1 And it came to pass after the death of Moses the servant of Jehovah, that Jehovah spoke to Joshua the son of Nun, Moses' 2 attendant, saying, Moses my servant is dead; and now, rise up, go over this Jordan, thou and all this people, into the land which I give unto them, to the children of 3 Israel. Every place whereon the sole of your foot shall tread have I given to you, as I said unto 4 Moses. From the wilderness and this Lebanon to the great river, the river Euphrates, the whole land of the Hittites, to the great sea, toward the going down of the 5 sun, shall be your border. None shall be able to stand before thee all the days of thy life: as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee; I will not leave thee, neither will 6 I forsake thee. Be strong and courageous, for thou shalt cause this people to inherit the land which I have sworn unto their 7 fathers to give them. Only be strong and very courageous, that thou mayest take heed to do according to all the law that Moses my servant commanded thee. Turn not from it to the right or to the left, that thou mayest prosper 8 whithersoever thou goest. This book of the law shall not depart from thy mouth; and thou shalt meditate upon it day and night, that thou mayest take heed to do according to all that is written therein; for then shalt thou have good success in thy ways, and then 9 shalt thou prosper. Have I not commanded thee: Be strong and courageous? Be not afraid, neither be dismayed; for Jehovah thy God is with thee whithersoever thou goest.
10 And Joshua commanded the 11 officers of the people, saying, Go through the midst of the camp, and command the people, saying, Prepare yourselves victuals, for in three days ye shall pass over this Jordan, that ye may enter in to take possession of the land which Jehovah your God giveth you to 12 possess it. And to the Reubenites and to the Gadites and to half the tribe of Manasseh spoke Joshua, 13 saying, Remember the word that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, saying, Jehovah your God has given you rest and 14 has given you this land. Your wives, your little ones, and your cattle shall abide in the land that Moses gave you on this side of the Jordan, but ye, all the valiant men, shall go over in array [a] before 15 your brethren and help them, until Jehovah give your brethren rest as to you, and they also take possession of the land which Jehovah your God giveth them; then shall ye return into the land of your possession and possess it, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you on this side of the Jordan toward the sun-rising.

16 And they answered Joshua, saying, All that thou hast commanded us will we do, and whither thou 17 shalt send us will we go. According as we hearkened to Moses in all things, so will we hearken to thee; only may Jehovah thy God be with thee as he was with Moses.
18 Every one that is rebellious against thy commandment [b] and hearkeneth not to thy words in everything that thou commandest us,[c] shall be put to death. Only be strong and courageous.

2 And Joshua the son of Nun sent from Shittim two spies secretly, saying, Go, see the land, even Jericho. And they went, and came into a harlot's [d] house, named Rahab, and they lay down 2 there. And it was told the king of Jericho, saying, Behold, men have come hither to-night from the chil-3 dren of Israel to search out the land. And the king of Jericho sent to Rahab, saying, Bring forth the men that have come to thee, who have come into thy house: for they have come to search out all 4 the land. And the woman had taken and concealed the two men; and she said, Yes, the men did come unto me, but I knew not 5 whence they were; and it came to pass when the gate had to be closed, at dark, that the men went out; I know not whither the men have gone. Pursue after them quickly;
6 for ye shall overtake them. But she had taken them up to the roof, and secreted them under the stalks of flax, which she had laid 7 out on the roof. And the men pursued after them the way to the Jordan, to the fords; and when they who pursued after them had gone out, they closed the gate.
8 And before they had lain down, she went up to them upon the 9 roof; and said to the men, I know that Jehovah has given you the land, and that the dread of you has fallen on us, and that all the inhabitants of the land faint [e] be-10 cause of you. For we have heard that Jehovah dried up the waters of the Red sea before you when ye came out of Egypt; and what ye did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond the Jordan, to Sihon and to Og, whom ye 11 utterly destroyed.[f] We heard [of it], and our heart melted, and there remained no more spirit in any man because of you; for Jehovah your God, he is God in the heavens above and on the earth 12 beneath. And now, I pray you, swear to me by Jehovah, since I have dealt kindly with you, that ye will also deal kindly with my father's house, and give me a cer-13 tain sign,[g] that ye will let my father live, and my mother, and my brethren, and my sisters, and all that belong to them, and deliver 14 our souls from death. And the men said to her, Our lives shall pay for yours, if ye do not make this our business known; and it shall be when Jehovah shall give us the land, that we will deal 15 kindly and truly with thee. And she let them down by a cord through the window; for her house was upon the city-wall, and 16 she dwelt upon the wall. And she said to them, Go to the mountain, that the pursuers may not meet with you; and hide yourselves there three days, until the pursuers have returned; and after-17 wards go your way. And the men said to her, We will be quit of this thine oath which thou hast made 18 us swear. Behold, when we come into the land, thou shalt bind in the window this line of scarlet thread by which thou hast let us down; and thou shalt gather to thee in the house thy father, and thy mother, and thy brethren, and 19 all thy father's household; and it shall be, that whoever shall go out of the doors of thy house into the street,—his blood shall be upon his head, and we shall be innocent;

[a] See on Exo. xiii. 18. [b] Lit. 'mouth.' [c] Or 'him.' [d] Lit. 'the house of a woman, a harlot.' [e] 'Melt away;' and so ver. 24. [f] Same word as 'devoted to destruction.' [g] Lit. 'sign of truth:' cf. ver 14.

but every one who shall be with thee in the house, his blood shall be upon our head, if any hand be 20 upon him. And if thou make known this our business, we will be quit of thine oath which thou hast 21 made us swear. And she said, According to your words, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed. And she bound the scarlet line in the window.
22 And they went, and came to the mountain, and remained there three days, until the pursuers had returned; and the pursuers sought them all the way, and found them
23 not. And the two men returned and came down from the mountain, and went over and came to Joshua the son of Nun, and related to him everything that had hap-24 pened to them. And they said to Joshua, Of a surety Jehovah has given the whole land into our hands, and even all the inhabitants of the land faint because of us.

3 And Joshua rose early in the morning; and they removed from Shittim, and came to the Jordan, he and all the children of Israel, and lodged there before they 2 passed over. And it came to pass at the end of three days, that the officers went through the camp;
3 and they commanded the people, saying, When ye see the ark of the covenant of Jehovah your God, and the priests the Levites bearing it, then remove from your place, 4 and go after it; yet there shall be a distance between you and it, about two thousand cubits by measure. Ye shall not come near it, that ye may know the way by which ye must go; for ye have not 5 passed this way heretofore. And Joshua said to the people, Hallow yourselves; for to-morrow Jehovah will do wonders in your midst.
6 And Joshua spoke to the priests, saying, Take up the ark of the covenant, and go over before the people. And they took up the ark of the covenant, and went before the people.
7 And Jehovah said to Joshua, This day will I begin to magnify thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may know that as I was with 8 Moses, so will I be with thee. And thou shalt command the priests who bear the ark of the covenant, saying, When ye come to the edge of the waters of the Jordan, stand still in the Jordan.
9 And Joshua said to the children of Israel, Come hither, and hear the words of Jehovah your God.
10 And Joshua said, Hereby shall ye know that the[h] living God[i] is in your midst, and [that] he will without fail dispossess from before you the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Hivites, and the Perizzites, and the Girgashites, and the Amorites, and the Jebus-11 ites. Behold, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth is going over before you into the 12 Jordan. And now take you twelve men out of the tribes of Israel, one 13 man for each tribe. And it shall come to pass, when the soles of the feet of the priests who bear the ark of Jehovah, the Lord of all the earth, rest in the waters of the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan, the waters flowing down from above, shall be cut off, and shall stand up in a heap.
14 And it came to pass when the people removed from their tents, to pass over the Jordan, that the priests bearing the ark of the cove-15 nant were before the people; and when they that bore the ark were come to the Jordan, and the feet of the priests who bore the ark dipped in the edge of the water (and the Jordan is full over all its banks throughout the days of harvest), 16 the waters which flowed down from above stood [and] rose up in a heap, very far, by[k] Adam, the city that is beside Zaretan; and those that flowed down towards the sea of the plain,[l] the salt sea, were completely cut off. And the people went over opposite to 17 Jericho. And the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah stood firm on dry ground in the midst of the Jordan. And all Israel went over on dry ground, until all the nation had completely gone over the Jordan.

4 And it came to pass when the whole nation had completely gone over the Jordan, that Jehovah 2 spoke to Joshua, saying, Take you twelve men out of the people, one 3 man out of every tribe, and command them, saying, Take up hence out of the midst of the Jordan, from the place where the priests feet stood firm, twelve stones, and carry them over with you, and lay them down in the lodging-place where ye shall lodge this night.

4 And Joshua called the twelve men, whom he had appointed of the children of Israel, a man out of 5 every tribe; and Joshua said to them, Pass before the ark of Jehovah your God into the midst of the Jordan, and lift up each of you a stone [and put it] upon his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the children of 6 Israel, that this may be a sign in your midst. When your children ask hereafter,[m] saying, What mean 7 ye by these stones? then ye shall say to them, That the waters of the Jordan were cut off before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah; when it went through the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. And these stones shall be for a memorial unto the children of 8 Israel for ever. And the children of Israel did so, as Joshua had commanded, and took up twelve stones out of the midst of the Jordan, as Jehovah had spoken to Joshua, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel; and they carried them over with them to the lodging-place, and laid them down there.
9 And twelve stones did Joshua set up in the midst of the Jordan, in the place where the feet of the priests who bore the ark of the covenant had stood firm; and 10 they are there to this day. And the priests who bore the ark stood in the midst of the Jordan, until everything was finished that Jehovah had commanded Joshua to speak unto the people, according to all that Moses had commanded Joshua. And the people hasted 11 and passed over. And it came to pass, when all the people had completely gone over, that the ark of Jehovah went over, and the priests, in the presence of the people.
12 And the children of Reuben, and the children of Gad, and the half tribe of Manasseh, went over in array before the children of Israel, as Moses had spoken to them.
13 About forty thousand armed for military service passed over before Jehovah to the war, unto the plains of Jericho.
14 On that day Jehovah magnified Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they feared him, as they had feared Moses, all the days of his life.
15 And Jehovah spoke to Joshua, 16 saying, Command the priests who bear the ark of the testimony, that they come up out of the Jordan.
17 And Joshua commanded the priests, saying, Come up out of the 18 Jordan. And it came to pass when the priests who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah had come up out of the midst of the Jordan, [when] the soles of the priests' feet were lifted up on to the dry land, that the waters of the Jordan returned to their place, and they flowed as previously,[n] over all its banks.
19 And the people came up out of the Jordan on the tenth of the first month, and encamped in Gilgal, on the eastern extremity of Jericho.
20 And those twelve stones which 21 they had taken out of the Jordan did Joshua set up in Gilgal. And he spoke to the children of Israel, saying, When your children hereafter ask their fathers, saying, 22 What [mean] these stones? then ye shall let your children know, saying, On dry land did Israel
23 come over this Jordan; because Jehovah your God dried up the waters of the Jordan from before you, until ye had passed over, as Jehovah your God did to the Red sea, which he dried up from before 24 us, until we had passed over; that all peoples of the earth might know the hand of Jehovah, that it is mighty; that ye might fear Jehovah your God continually.[o]

5 And it came to pass when all the kings of the Amorites, who were beyond the Jordan westward, and all the kings of the Canaanites, who were by the sea, heard that Jehovah had dried up the waters of the Jordan from before the children of Israel, until they[p] had passed over, that their heart melted, and there was no spirit in them any more, because of the children of Israel.
2 At that time Jehovah said to Joshua, Make thee stone-knives,[q] and circumcise again the children 3 of Israel the second time. And Joshua made him stone-knives, and circumcised the children of 4 Israel at the hill of Araloth.[r] And this is the cause why Joshua circumcised [them]: all the people that had come out of Egypt, the males, all the men of war, had died in the wilderness on the way, after 5 they came out of Egypt. For all the people that came out were circumcised; but all the people that were born in the wilderness on the way, after they came out of Egypt, [them] had they not circumcised.

6 For the children of Israel had walked forty years in the wilderness, till the whole nation of men of war had perished who had come out of Egypt, who had not hearkened to the voice of Jehovah; to whom Jehovah had sworn that he would not show them the land which Jehovah had sworn unto their fathers that he would give us, a land flowing with milk and 7 honey. And their sons [whom] he raised up in their stead, them Joshua circumcised, for they were uncircumcised, because they had not circumcised them on the way.
8 And it came to pass when the whole nation had finished being circumcised, that they abode in their place in the camp, till they 9 were whole. And Jehovah said to Joshua, This day have I rolled away the reproach of Egypt from off you. And the name of the place was called Gilgal[s] to this day.
10 And the children of Israel encamped in Gilgal, and held the passover on the fourteenth day of the month, at even, in the plains 11 of Jericho. And they ate of the old corn[t] of the land on the morrow after the passover, unleavened loaves, and roasted [corn] on that 12 same day. And the manna ceased on the morrow, when they had eaten of the old corn of the land; and there was no more manna for the children of Israel; and they ate of the produce of the land of Canaan that year.
13 And it came to pass when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there stood a man before him with his sword drawn in his hand. And Joshua went to him, and said to him: Art thou for[w] 14 us, or for[w] our enemies? And he said, No; for [as] captain of the army of Jehovah am I now come.[x] Then Joshua fell upon his face to the earth, and worshipped, and said to him, What saith my lord 15 unto his servant? And the captain of Jehovah's army said to Joshua, Loose thy sandal from off thy foot: for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

6 Now Jericho was shut up and was barred, because of the children of Israel: none went out, and 2 none came in. And Jehovah said to Joshua, See, I have given into thy hand Jericho, and the king thereof, [and] the valiant men.
3 And ye shall go round the city, all the men of war, encompassing the city once. Thus shalt thou do six 4 days. And seven priests shall carry before the ark seven blast-trumpets;[y] and on the seventh day ye shall go round the city seven times, and the priests shall 5 blow with the trumpets. And it shall come to pass when they make a long blast with the blast-horn, that all the people on hearing the sound of the trumpet shall shout with a great shout; and the wall of the city shall fall flat, and the people shall go up, each one straight before him.
6 And Joshua the son of Nun called the priests, and said to them, Carry the ark of the covenant, and seven priests shall carry seven blast-trumpets before the 7 ark of Jehovah. And he said to the people, Pass on, go round the city, and they that are armed shall pass on before the ark of Jehovah.
8 And it came to pass when Joshua had spoken to the people, that the seven priests carrying the seven blast-trumpets before Jehovah passed on and blew with the trumpets; and the ark of the covenant 9 of Jehovah went after them. And the armed men went before the priests who blew with the trumpets, and the rearguard came after the ark; they blew with the trum-10 pets in marching. And Joshua had commanded the people, saying, Ye shall not shout, nor let your voice be heard, neither shall a word proceed out of your mouth, until the day I say to you, Shout; 11 then shall ye shout. And the ark of Jehovah went round the city, encompassing [it] once; and they came into the camp, and lodged in the camp.
12 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and the priests carried 13 the ark of Jehovah. And the seven priests carrying the seven blast-trumpets before the ark of

Jehovah went on and blew continually with the trumpets; and the armed men went before them, and the rearguard went after the ark of Jehovah; they blew with 14 the trumpets in marching. And on the second day they went round the city once, and returned into the camp. So they did six days.
15 And it was so that on the seventh day they rose early, about the morning-dawn, and went round the city after the same manner seven times; only on that day they went round the city seven 16 times. And it came to pass the seventh time, when the priests blew with the trumpets, that Joshua said to the people, Shout; for Jehovah has given you the 17 city. And the city shall be accursed,[z] it and all that is in it, to Jehovah; only Rahab the harlot shall live, she and all that are with her in the house, because she hid 18 the messengers that we sent. But in any wise keep from the accursed[z] thing, lest ye make [yourselves] accursed in taking of the accursed thing, and make the camp of Israel a curse, and trouble 19 it. And all the silver, and gold, and vessels of copper and iron, shall be holy to Jehovah; they shall come into the treasury of 20 Jehovah. And the people shouted, and they blew with the trumpets. And it came to pass when the people heard the sound of the trumpets, and the people shouted with a great shout, that the wall fell down flat; and the people went up into the city, each one straight before him, and they took 21 the city. And they utterly destroyed all that was in the city; both man and woman, young and old, and ox, and sheep, and ass, 22 with the edge of the sword. And Joshua said to the two men that had spied out the country, Go into the harlot's house and bring out thence the woman and all that she has, as ye swore unto her.
23 And the young men, the spies, went in and brought out Rahab, and her father, and her mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: all her kindred did they bring out, and they left them out-24 side the camp of Israel. And they burned the city with fire, and all that was therein; only the silver, and the gold, and the vessels of copper and of iron, they put into the treasury of the house of Jeho-25 vah. And Joshua saved alive Rahab the harlot, and her father's household, and all that she had, and she dwelt in the midst of Israel to this day; because she hid the messengers whom Joshua had sent to spy out Jericho.
26 And Joshua swore at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before Jehovah who shall rise up and build this city Jericho! In[a] his first-born shall he lay its foundation, and in[a] his youngest son 27 shall he set up its gates. And Jehovah was with Joshua; and his fame was in all the land.

7 But the children of Israel committed unfaithfulness in that which had been brought under the curse: Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took of the accursed thing; and the anger of Jehovah was kindled against the 2 children of Israel. And Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is beside Beth-Aven, on the east side of Bethel, and spoke to them, saying, Go up and spy out the country, And the men went up 3 and spied out Ai. And they returned to Joshua, and said to him, Let not all the people go up; let about two or three thousand men go up and smite Ai; make not all the people to toil thither, for they 4 are few. And there went up thither of the people about three thousand men, but they fled before the men 5 of Ai. And the men of Ai smote of them about thirty-six men; and they pursued them from before the gate to Shebarim, and smote them on the descent. Then the hearts of the people melted, and became as water.
6 And Joshua rent his clothes, and fell to the earth upon his face before the ark of Jehovah until the evening, he and the elders of Israel, and threw dust upon their 7 heads. And Joshua said, Alas, Lord Jehovah, wherefore hast thou at all brought this people over the Jordan, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us? Oh that we had been content and had remained beyond 8 the Jordan! Ah Lord! what shall I say after Israel have turned their 9 backs before their enemies? When the Canaanites and all the inhabitants of the land shall hear [of it], they will surround us, and cut off our name from the earth. And what wilt thou do unto thy great 10 name? And Jehovah said to Joshua, Rise up; wherefore liest 11 thou thus upon thy face? Israel hath sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them, and they have even taken of the accursed thing, and have also stolen, and dissembled also, and they have 12 put it among their stuff. And the children of Israel shall not be able to stand before their enemies: they shall turn their backs before their enemies, for they have made themselves accursed. I will no more be with you, except ye destroy the accursed thing from your midst.

13 Rise up, hallow the people, and say, Hallow yourselves for tomorrow; for thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel, There is an accursed thing in the midst of thee, Israel: thou shalt not be able to stand before thine enemies, until ye take away the accursed thing 14 from your midst. And ye shall be brought near in the morning according to your tribes; and it shall be, that the tribe which Jehovah taketh shall come forward by families, and the family which Jehovah taketh shall come forward by households; and the household which Jehovah taketh shall 15 come forward man by man. And it shall be, that he who is taken with the accursed thing shall be burned with fire, he and all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the covenant of Jehovah, and because he hath wrought wickedness in Israel.
16 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and caused Israel to come forward by their tribes, and 17 the tribe of Judah was taken. And he caused the families of Judah to come forward, and he took the family of the Zarhites. And he caused the family of the Zarhites to come forward man by man, and 18 Zabdi was taken. And he caused his household to come forward man by man, and Achan, the son of Carmi, the son of Zabdi, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, 19 was taken. And Joshua said to Achan, My son, give, I pray thee, glory to Jehovah the God of Israel, and make confession [b] to him: tell me now what thou hast done, keep 20 it not back from me. And Achan answered Joshua and said, Indeed I have sinned against Jehovah the God of Israel, and thus and thus 21 have I done. I saw among the spoils a beautiful mantle of Shinar, and two hundred shekels of silver, and a golden bar of fifty shekels weight, and I coveted them and took them; and behold, they are hid in the earth in the midst of my 22 tent, and the silver under it. And Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent, and behold, it was hid in his tent, and the silver under 23 it. And they took them out of the midst of the tent, and brought them to Joshua and to all the children of Israel, and laid them 24 out before Jehovah. Then Joshua, and all Israel with him, took Achan the son of Zerah, and the silver, and the mantle, and the bar of gold, and his sons, and his daughters, and his oxen, and his asses, and his sheep, and his tent, and all that he had; and they brought them up unto the valley of Achor.
25 And Joshua said, How hast thou troubled us! Jehovah will trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones; and they burned them with fire, and stoned 26 them with stones. And they raised over him a great heap of stones, [which is there] to this day. And Jehovah turned from the fierceness of his anger. Therefore the name of that place was called, The Valley of Achor,[c] to this day.

8 And Jehovah said to Joshua, Fear not, neither be dismayed. Take with thee all the people of war, and arise, go up to Ai. See, I have given into thy hand the king of Ai, and his people, and his 2 city, and his land. And thou shalt do to Ai and to its king as thou didst to Jericho and to its king; only, the spoil thereof and the cattle thereof shall ye take as prey for yourselves. Set an ambush against the city behind it.
3 And Joshua arose, and all the people of war, to go up to Ai. And Joshua chose thirty thousand valiant men, and sent them away 4 by night. And he commanded them, saying, See, ye shall be in ambush against the city, behind the city: go not very far from the 5 city, and be all of you ready. And I and all the people that are with me will approach to the city; and it shall come to pass when they come out against us, as at the first, 6 that we will flee before them. And they will come out after us till we have drawn them from the city;

[b] Or 'give praise.' [c] Meaning, 'trouble.'

for they will say, They flee before us, as at the first; and we will flee 7 before them. And ye shall rise up from the ambush and take possession of the city; and Jehovah your God will deliver it into your 8 hand. And it shall be when ye have taken the city, that ye shall set the city on fire; according to the word of Jehovah shall ye do.
9 See, I have commanded you. And Joshua sent them forth; and they went to lie in ambush, and abode between Bethel and Ai, on the west of Ai. And Joshua lodged that night among the people.
10 And Joshua rose early in the morning, and inspected the people, and went up, he and the elders of Israel, before the people to Ai.
11 And all the people of war that were with him went up, and drew near, and came before the city; and they encamped on the north of Ai; and the valley was between 12 them and Ai. Now he had taken about five thousand men, and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, on the west of the city.
13 And when they had set the people, the whole camp on the north of the city, and their ambush on the west of the city, Joshua went that night into the midst of the valley.
14 And it came to pass when the king of Ai saw it, that the men of the city hasted and rose early, and went out against Israel to battle, he and all his people, at the appointed place[d] before the plain.[e] But he knew not that there was an ambush against him behind the 15 city. And Joshua and all Israel let themselves be beaten before them; and they fled by the way 16 of the wilderness. And all the people that were in the city[f] were called together to pursue after them; and they pursued after Joshua, and were drawn away 17 from the city. And not a man remained in Ai and Bethel that went not out after Israel; and they left the city open, and pur-18 sued after Israel. And Jehovah said to Joshua, Stretch out the javelin that is in thy hand toward Ai; for I will give it into thy hand. And Joshua stretched out the javelin that he had in his hand 19 toward the city. And the ambush arose quickly from their place, and they ran when he stretched out his hand, and came into the city, and took it, and hasted and set the 20 city on fire. And the men of Ai turned and saw, and behold, the smoke of the city went up to heaven, and they had no power[g] to flee this way or that way; and the people that fled to the wilderness turned upon the pursuers.
21 When Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city, and that the smoke of the city went up, they turned again, 22 and slew the men of Ai. And the others went out of the city against them; so they were in the midst of Israel, some on this side, and some on that side; and they smote them, until they let none of them 23 escape or flee away. And the king of Ai they took alive, and brought him to Joshua.
24 And it came to pass when Israel had ended slaying all the inhabitants of Ai in the field, in the wilderness wherein they had chased them, and they had all fallen by the edge of the sword, until they were consumed, that all Israel returned to Ai, and smote it with 25 the edge of the sword. And so it was, that all who fell that day, men as well as women, were twelve thousand, all the people of Ai.
26 And Joshua did not draw back his hand, which he had stretched out with the javelin, until they had utterly destroyed[h] all the 27 inhabitants of Ai. Only, the cattle and the spoil of the city Israel took as prey to themselves, according to the word of Jehovah which he 28 had commanded Joshua. And Joshua burned Ai, and made it an everlasting heap of desolation to 29 this day. And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree until the evening; and at the going down of the sun Joshua commanded, and they took his carcase down from the tree, and threw it down at the entrance of the gate of the city, and raised upon it a great heap of stones, [which remains] to this day.
30 Then Joshua built an altar to Jehovah the God of Israel, in 31 mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded the children of Israel, as it is written in the book of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, over which iron had not been lifted up. And they offered up burnt-offerings on it to Jehovah, and sacri-32 ficed peace-offerings. And he wrote there on the stones a copy of the law of Moses, which he had written before the children of Israel.

33 And all Israel, and their elders, and their officers[i] and judges, stood on this side and on that side of the ark before the priests the Levites, who bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, as well the stranger as the home-born [Israelite]; half of them toward mount Gerizim, and the other half of them toward mount Ebal; as Moses the servant of Jehovah had commanded, that they should bless the people of Israel, in the begin-34 ning.[j] And afterwards he read all the words of the law, the blessing and the curse, according to all that is written in the book of the law.
35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded which Joshua read not before the whole congregation of Israel, and the women, and the children, and the strangers that lived[k] among them.

9 And it came to pass when all the kings who were on this side the Jordan, in the hill-country, and in the lowland,[l] and along all the coast of the great sea as far as opposite to Lebanon, the Hittite, and the Amorite, the Canaanite, the Perizzite, the Hivite, and the 2 Jebusite, heard [of it], that they assembled together, to fight with Joshua and with Israel, with one accord.[m] 3 And when the inhabitants of Gibeon heard what Joshua had 4 done to Jericho and to Ai, then they also acted with craft, and they went prepared as on a journey,[n] and took old sacks upon their asses, and wine-flasks, old and rent
5 and tied up; and old and patched sandals upon their feet, and old garments upon them; and all the bread of their provision was dry 6 [and] mouldy. And they went to Joshua unto the camp at Gilgal, and said to him, and to the men of Israel, From a far country are we come; and now make[o] a cove-7 nant with us. And the men of Israel said to the Hivite, Perhaps thou dwellest in the midst of us, and howshould I[p] make a covenant 8 with thee? And they said unto Joshua, We are thy servants. And Joshua said to them, Who are ye?
9 and from whence come ye? And they said to him, From a very far country are thy servants come, because of the name of Jehovah thy God; for we have heard the fame of him, and all that he did 10 in Egypt, and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Jordan, to Sihon the king of Heshbon, and to Og the king of Bashan, who was at Ash-11 taroth. And our elders and all the inhabitants of our country spoke to us, saying, Take victuals in your hand for the way, and go to meet them, and say to them, We are your servants, and now make a 12 covenant with us. This our bread we took warm for our provision out of our houses on the day we came forth to go unto you; and now, behold, it is dry, and is be-13 come mouldy. And these flasks of wine which we filled new, behold, they are rent; and these our garments and our sandals are become old by reason of the very 14 long journey. And the men took of their victuals, but they did not inquire at the mouth of Jehovah.
15 And Joshua made peace with them, and made a covenant with them, to let them live; and the princes of the assembly swore unto them.
16 And it came to pass at the end of three days after they had made a covenant with them, that they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt in their midst.
17 And the children of Israel journeyed, and came to their cities on the third day; and their cities were Gibeon, and Chephirah, and 18 Beeroth, and Kirjath-jearim. And the children of Israel did not smite them, because the princes of the assembly had sworn unto them by Jehovah the God of Israel. Then all the assembly murmured against 19 the princes. And all the princes said to all the assembly, We have sworn unto them by Jehovah the God of Israel, and now we may 20 not touch them. This we will do to them, and let them live, lest wrath come upon us, because of the oath which we swore unto 21 them. And the princes said to them, Let them live. And they were hewers of wood and drawers of water for all the assembly; as the princes had said to them.
22 And Joshua called for them, and he spoke to them, saying, Why have ye deceived us, saying, We are very far from you; whereas ye 23 dwell in our midst? And now ye are cursed, and ye shall never cease to be[q] bondmen, and hewers of wood, and drawers of water for 24 the house of my God. And they answered Joshua and said, Because it was certainly told thy servants how that Jehovah thy God commanded his servant Moses to give you all the land, and to destroy all the inhabitants of the land from before you; and we feared greatly for our lives[r] because of you, and did this thing.

25 And now behold, we are in thy hand: as it is good and right in 26 thine eyes to do to us, do. And he did so to them, and delivered them out of the hand of the children of Israel, and they did not 27 slay them. And Joshua made them that day hewers of wood and drawers of water for the assembly, and for the altar of Jehovah, to this day, in the place which he should choose.

10 And it came to pass when Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai and had utterly destroyed it, that he had done to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and that the inhabitants of Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them, that 2 they feared greatly; for Gibeon was a great city, as one of the royal cities, and it was greater than Ai, and all its men were mighty.
3 And Adoni-zedek king of Jerusalem sent to Hoham king of Hebron, and to Piream king of Jarmuth, and to Japhia king of Lachish, and to Debir king of Eglon, 4 saying, Come up to me, and help me, that we may smite Gibeon; for it has made peace with Joshua and with the children of Israel.
5 And the five kings of the Amorites, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachish, [and] the king of Eglon, gathered themselves together, and went up, they and all their armies,[s] and they encamped before Gibeon, and made war 6 against it. And the men of Gibeon sent to Joshua, to the camp at Gilgal, saying, Withdraw not thy hand from thy servants: come up to us quickly, and save us and help us; for all the kings of the Amorites that dwell in the hill-country are gathered against us.
7 So Joshua went up from Gilgal, he and all the people of war with 8 him, even all the valiant men. And Jehovah said to Joshua, Fear them not; for into thy hand have I given them: not a man of them 9 shall stand before thee. And Joshua came upon them suddenly; he went up from Gilgal all night.
10 And Jehovah discomfited them before Israel, and smote them [with] a great slaughter at Gibeon; and he chased them on the way of the ascent of Beth-horon, and smote them up to Azekah and 11 Makkedah. And it came to pass, as they fled from before Israel,—they were at the descent of Beth-horon,—that Jehovah cast down great stones from heaven upon them up to Azekah, and they died. They were more who died with the hailstones than they whom the children of Israel had slain with the sword.
12 Then spoke Joshua to Jehovah in the day when Jehovah gave up the Amorites before the children of Israel, and he said in the sight of Israel,

Sun, stand still[t] upon Gibeon;
And thou, moon, in the valley of Ajalon!

13 And the sun stood still, and the moon remained where it was, until the nation had avenged themselves upon their enemies. Is not this written in the book of Jasher?[u] And the sun remained standing in the midst of heaven, and hasted not to go down about a full day.
14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that Jehovah hearkened to the voice of a man; for Jehovah fought for Israel.
15 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp, to Gilgal.
16 And these five kings fled, and hid themselves in the cave at 17 Makkedah. And it was told Joshua, saying, The five kings have been found, hid in the cave 18 at Makkedah. And Joshua said, Roll great stones before the mouth of the cave, and set men before it 19 to keep them. And ye, stay not, pursue after your enemies, and smite the hindmost of them; suffer them not to enter into their cities; for Jehovah your God has given 20 them into your hand. And it came to pass when Joshua and the children of Israel had ended smiting them with a very great slaughter, until they were consumed, that the remnant which remained of them entered into fortified cities; 21 and all the people returned to the camp to Joshua, at Makkedah, in peace; none moved his tongue against the children of Israel.

22 And Joshua said, Open the mouth of the cave, and bring forth to me those five kings out of the 23 cave. And they did so, and brought forth to him those five kings out of the cave, the king of Jerusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of 24 Lachish, the king of Eglon. And it came to pass when they had brought forth those kings to Joshua, that Joshua called to all the men of Israel, and said to the captains of the men of war who went with him, Come forward, put your feet on the necks of these kings. And they came forward and put their 25 feet on their necks. And Joshua said to them, Fear not, neither be dismayed, be strong and courageous, for thus will Jehovah do to all your enemies against whom 26 ye fight. And afterwards Joshua smote them, and put them to death, and hanged them on five trees; and they were hanging upon the trees until the evening.
27 And it came to pass at the time of the going down of the sun, that Joshua commanded, and they took them down off the trees, and cast them into the cave where they had been hid, and laid great stones before the cave's mouth, [which remain] to this very day.
28 And Joshua took Makkedah on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, him and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed; he let none remain; and he did to the king of Makkedah as he had 29 done to the king of Jericho. And Joshua passed, and all Israel with him, from Makkedah to Libnah, 30 and fought against Libnah. And Jehovah gave it also and the king thereof into the hand of Israel; and he smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein; he let none remain in it: and he did to the king thereof as he had done to the king of Jericho.
31 And Joshua passed, and all Israel with him, from Libnah to Lachish, and encamped against it, and 32 fought against it. And Jehovah gave Lachish into the hand of Israel; and they took it on the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and all the souls that were therein, according to all 33 that he had done to Libnah. Then Horam king of Gezer came up to help Lachish; and Joshua smote him and his people, until he had 34 left him none remaining. And Joshua, and all Israel with him, passed from Lachish to Eglon; and they encamped against it, and 35 fought against it. And they took it on that day, and smote it with the edge of the sword; and all the souls that were therein he utterly destroyed on that day, according to all that he had done to Lachish.
36 And Joshua went up, and all Israel with him, from Eglon to Hebron; 37 and they fought against it. And they took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and all the souls that were therein: he let none remain, according to all that he had done to Eglon; and he utterly destroyed it, and all the 38 souls that were therein. And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to Debir; and fought 39 against it. And he took it, and the king thereof, and all the cities thereof, and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and utterly destroyed all the souls that were therein; he let none remain: as he had done to Hebron, and as he had done to Libnah, and to the king thereof, so he did to Debir and to the king thereof.
40 And Joshua smote the whole country, the mountain,[v] and the south,[w] and the lowland, and the hill-slopes, and all their kings: he let none remain, but he utterly destroyed all that breathed, as Jehovah the God of Israel had 41 commanded. And Joshua smote them from Kadesh-barnea even to Gazah, and all the country of Go-42 shen, even to Gibeon; and all these kings and their land did Joshua take at one time; for Jehovah the God of Israel fought for Israel.
43 And Joshua returned, and all Israel with him, to the camp, to Gilgal.

11 And it came to pass when Jabin king of Hazor heard [this], that he sent to Jobab king of [v] Or 'hill-country;' and so in xi. 16, 21; xii. 8; xviii. 12; xxi. 11. [w] It appears that the border land between the country that was afterwards allotted to Judah, and the wilderness, was called 'Negeb,' which means 'the South.' Cf. Gen. xii. 9.

Madon, and to the king of Shimron, and to the king of Achshaph, 2 and to the kings that were northward in the mountains, and in the plain south of Chinneroth, and in the lowland, and on the upland of 3 Dor on the west,[x] to the Canaanite on the east and on the west, and to the Amorite, and the Hittite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite in the mountains, and to the Hivite at the foot of Hermon in the 4 land of Mizpah. And they went out, they and all their armies[y] with them, a people numerous as the sand that is on the sea-shore in multitude, with horses and 5 chariots very many. And all these kings met together, and came and encamped together at the waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.
6 And Jehovah said to Joshua, Be not afraid because of them; for to-morrow about this time will I give them all up slain[z] before Israel: their horses shalt thou hough, and thou shalt burn their 7 chariots with fire. And Joshua, and all the people of war with him, came upon them by the waters of Merom suddenly, and fell upon 8 them. And Jehovah delivered them into the hand of Israel, and they smote them, and chased them unto great Zidon, and to Misrephoth-maim, and to the valley[a] of Mizpah eastward, and smote them until none were left 9 remaining to them. And Joshua did to them as Jehovah had said to him: he houghed their horses and burned their chariots with fire.
10 And Joshua turned back at that time, and took Hazor, and smote the king thereof with the sword; for Hazor was in times past the 11 head of all those kingdoms. And they smote all the souls that were therein with the edge of the sword, destroying them utterly: there was not any left to breathe; and 12 he burned Hazor with fire. And all the cities of those kings and all their kings did Joshua take; and he smote them with the edge of the sword, destroying them utterly, as Moses the servant of Jehovah 13 had commanded. Only, all the cities that stood still upon their hills[b] Israel did not burn, save Hazor alone, [which] Joshua 14 burned. And all the spoil of these cities and the cattle the children of Israel took as prey to themselves; only, they smote all the men with the edge of the sword, until they had destroyed them:
15 they left none that breathed. As Jehovah had commanded Moses his servant, so did Moses command Joshua, and so did Joshua: he let nothing[c] fail of all that Jehovah had commanded Moses.
16 And Joshua took all that land, the mountain and all the south,[d] and all the land of Goshen, and the lowland,[e] and the plain,[f] and the mountain of Israel, and its 17 lowland; from the smooth mountain,[g] which rises toward Seir, as far as Baal-Gad in the valley[a] of Lebanon, at the foot of mount Hermon; and he took all their kings, and smote them, and put 18 them to death. Joshua made war a long time with all those kings.
19 There was not a city that made peace with the children of Israel, save the Hivites who dwelt at Gibeon; they took all in battle.
20 For it was of Jehovah that their heart was hardened, to meet Israel in battle, that they might be utterly destroyed, and that there might be no favour shewn to them, but that they might be destroyed, as Jehovah had commanded Moses.
21 And Joshua came at that time and cut off the Anakim from the mountains,[h] from Hebron, from Debir, from Anab, and from all the mountain[h] of Judah, and from all the mountain[h] of Israel:
22 Joshua destroyed them utterly, with their cities. There were none of the Anakim left in the land of the children of Israel; only at 23 Gazah, at Gath, and at Ashdod there remained. And Joshua took the whole land, according to all that Jehovah had said to Moses; and Joshua gave it for an inheritance to Israel according to their divisions, by their tribes. And the land rested from war.

12 And these are the kings of the land, whom the children of Israel smote, and of whose land they took possession across the Jordan, toward the sun-rising, from the river Arnon to mount Hermon, and all the plain on the

the bank of the river[i] Arnon, and from the middle of the ravine,[i] and over half Gilead, as far as the river[i] Jabbok, [which is] the border of the children of Ammon; 3 and[k] the plain as far as the sea of Chinneroth on the east, and as far as the sea of the plain, the salt sea, on the east, toward Beth-jeshimoth; and on the south, under 4 the slopes of Pisgah;[l] and the territory of Og the king of Bashan, of the residue of the giants,[m] who dwelt at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, 5 and ruled over mount Hermon, and over Salcah, and over all Bashan, as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maachathites, and [over] half Gilead [as far as] the border of Sihon the king 6 of Heshbon. Moses the servant of Jehovah and the children of Israel smote them, and Moses the servant of Jehovah gave it for a possession to the Reubenites, and to the Gadites, and to half the tribe of Manasseh.
7 And these are the kings of the land whom Joshua and the children of Israel smote on this side the Jordan on the west, from Baal-Gad in the valley of Lebanon as far as the smooth mountain, which rises toward Seir. And Joshua gave it to the tribes of Israel for a possession according to their 8 divisions, in the mountain, and in the lowland, and in the plain, and on the hill-slopes, and in the wilderness, and in the south: the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Canaanites, the Perizzites, the Hivites and the Jebusites:
9 The king of Jericho, one; the king of Ai, which is beside Bethel, 10 one; the king of Jerusalem, one;
11 the king of Hebron, one; the king of Jarmuth, one; the king of La-12 chish, one; the king of Eglon, 13 one; the king of Gezer, one; the king of Debir, one; the king of 14 Geder, one; the king of Hormah, 15 one; the king of Arad, one; the king of Libnah, one; the king of 16 Adullam, one; the king of Makkedah, one; the king of Bethel, 17 one; the king of Tappuah, one;
18 the king of Hepher, one; the king of Aphek, one; the king of Lasha-19 ron,[n] one; the king of Madon, 20 one; the king of Hazor, one; the king of Shimron-meron, one; the 21 king of Achshaph, one; the king of Taanach, one; the king of Megiddo, 22 one; the king of Kedesh, one; the king of Jokneam on Carmel, one; 23 the king of Dor in the upland of Dor, one; the king of Goïm,[o] at Gil-24 gal, one; the king of Tirzah, one: all the kings thirty and one.

13 And Joshua was old, advanced in age,[p] and Jehovah said to him, Thou art old, advanced in age,[p] and there remaineth yet very much land to take possession of.
2 This is the land that yet remaineth: all the districts of the Philistines 3 and all the Geshurites, from the Shihor, which [floweth] before Egypt, as far as the borders of Ekron northward, [and which] is counted to the Canaanite; five lordships of the Philistines: of Gazah, and of Ashdod,[q] of Eshkalon, of Gath, and of Ekron; also 4 the Avvites; in the south, the whole land of the Canaanites, and Mearah which [belongeth] to the Sidonians, unto Aphek, to the 5 border of the Amorites; and the land of the Giblites, and all Lebanon, toward the sun-rising, from Baal-Gad at the foot of mount Hermon to the entrance 6 into Hamath; all the inhabitants of the hill-country from Lebanon to Misrephoth-maim, all the Sidonians; I will dispossess them from before the children of Israel. Only, partition it by lot to Israel for an inheritance, as I have com-7 manded thee. And now divide this land for an inheritance to the nine tribes, and to half the tribe
8 of Manasseh; with him[r] the Reubenites and the Gadites have received their inheritance, which Moses gave them, beyond the Jordan eastward, as Moses the servant 9 of Jehovah gave them: from Aroer, which is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the ravine, and all the plateau of Medeba to Dibon, 10 and all the cities of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who reigned at Heshbon, to the border of the 11 children of Ammon; and Gilead, and the border of the Geshurites and Maachathites, and all mount Hermon, and the whole of Bashan 12 to Salcah; all the kingdom of Og in Bashan, who reigned at Ashtaroth and at Edrei, who remained of the residue of the giants; and Moses smote them and dispossessed

13 them. But the children of Israel did not dispossess the Geshurites nor the Maachathites; but the Geshurites and the Maachathites dwell among the Israelites to this 14 day. Only to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance: the offerings by fire of Jehovah the God of Israel are their inheritance, as he said to them.
15 And Moses gave [a portion] to the tribe of the children of Reuben 16 according to their families. And their territory was from Aroer, which is on the bank of the river Arnon, and the city that is in the midst of the ravine, and all the 17 plateau by Medeba; Heshbon, and all her cities that are in the plateau, Dibon, and Bamoth-Baal, 18 and Beth-Baal-meon, and Jahzah, and Kedemoth, and Mephaath, 19 and Kirjathaim, and Sibmah, and Zereth-shahar in the mountain of 20 the vale, and Beth-Peor, and the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth-jeshi-21 moth; all the cities of the plateau, and the whole kingdom of Sihon the king of the Amorites, who reigned at Heshbon, whom Moses smote, him and the princes of Midian, Evi, and Rekem, and Zur, and Hur, and Reba, the chiefs of 22 Sihon dwelling in the land. And Balaam the son of Beor, the diviner, did the children of Israel kill with the sword among them 23 that were slain by them. And the border of the children of Reuben was the Jordan, and [its] border. This is the inheritance of the children of Reuben according to their families, the cities and their hamlets.[s] 24 And Moses gave [a portion] to the tribe of Gad, to the children of Gad according to their families.
25 And their territory was Jaazer, and all the cities of Gilead, and half the land of the children of Ammon, to Aroer which is before 26 Rabbah; and from Heshbon to Ramath-Mizpeh, and Betonim; and from Mahanaim to the border 27 of Debir; and in the valley, Beth-haram, and Beth-Nimrah, and Succoth, and Zaphon, the rest of the kingdom of Sihon the king of Heshbon, the Jordan and [its] border, as far as the edge of the sea of Chinnereth beyond the 28 Jordan eastward. This is the inheritance of the children of Gad according to their families, the cities and their hamlets.[s] 29 And Moses gave [a portion] to half the tribe of Manasseh; and for half the tribe of the children of Manasseh according to their 30 families: their territory was from Mahanaim, all Bashan, the whole kingdom of Og the king of Bashan, and all the villages[t] of Jair, which 31 are in Bashan, sixty cities. And half Gilead, and Ashtaroth, and Edrei, the cities of the kingdom of Og in Bashan, [belonged] to the children of Machir the son of Manasseh, to the one half of the children of Machir according to their 32 families. This is that which Moses allotted for inheritance in the plains of Moab, beyond the Jordan of Jericho,[v] eastward.
33 But to the tribe of Levi Moses gave no inheritance: Jehovah the God of Israel is their inheritance, as he said to them.

14 And this is what the children of Israel inherited in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, allotted 2 for inheritance to them: their inheritance was by lot, as Jehovah had commanded by Moses, for the nine tribes, and the half tribe.
3 For Moses had given the inheritance of the two tribes and the half tribe beyond the Jordan, but to the Levites he had given no inherit-4 ance among them. For the children of Joseph were two tribes, Manasseh and Ephraim; and they gave no part to the Levites in the land, save cities to dwell in, and their suburbs for their cattle and 5 for their substance. As Jehovah had commanded Moses, so the children of Israel did, and they divided the land.
6 Then the children of Judah came near to Joshua in Gilgal, and Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, Thou knowest the word that Jehovah spoke to Moses the man of God, concerning me and thee, in Kadesh-7 barnea. Forty years old was I when Moses the servant of Jehovah sent me from Kadesh-barnea to search out the land; and I brought him word again as it was 8 in my heart. And my brethren that had gone up with me made the heart of the people melt; but I wholly followed Jehovah my 9 God. And Moses swore on that day, saying, The land whereon thy feet have trodden shall assuredly be thine inheritance, and thy children's for ever! for thou hast wholly followed Jehovah my God.

10 And now behold, Jehovah has kept me alive, as he said, these forty-five years, since Jehovah spoke this word to Moses, when Israel wandered in the wilderness; and now behold, I am this day 11 eighty-five years old. I am still this day strong, as in the day that Moses sent me: as my strength was then, even so is my strength now, for war, both to go out and 12 to come in. And now give me this mountain, of which Jehovah spoke in that day; for thou heardest in that day that Anakim are there, and great fortified cities. If so be Jehovah shall be with me, then I shall dispossess them, as 13 Jehovah said. And Joshua blessed him, and gave Hebron to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for an inherit-14 ance. Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite to this day, because he wholly followed Jehovah 15 the God of Israel. Now the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-Arba;[w] the great man among the Anakim. And the land rested from war.

15 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Judah according to their families was: to the border of Edom, the wilderness of Zin, southward, in the extreme south.
2 And their southern border was from the end of the salt sea from the tongue that turns southward;
3 and it went out south of the ascent of Akrabbim, and passed on to Zin, and went up on the south of Kadesh-barnea, and passed to Hezron, and went up toward Addar, and turned toward Kar-4 kaah, and passed on to Azmon, and went out by the torrent of Egypt; and the border ended[x] at the sea. That shall be your border 5 southward.—And the eastern border was the salt sea as far as the end of the Jordan.—And the border on the north side was from the tongue of the salt sea, at the 6 end of the Jordan; and the border went up toward Beth-hoglah, and passed north of Beth-Arabah; and the border went up to the stone 7 of Bohan, the son of Reuben; and the border went up toward Debir from the valley of Achor, and turned northward to Gilgal, which is opposite to the ascent of Adummim, which is on the south side of the torrent; and the border passed to the waters of En-she-8 mesh, and ended at En-rogel; and the border went up to the valley of the son of Hinnom, toward the south side of the Jebusite, that is, Jerusalem; and the border went up to the top of the mountain that is before the valley of Hinnom westward, which is at the end of the valley[y] of Rephaim northward;
9 and the border reached along from the top of the mountain toward the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, and went out toward the cities of mount Ephron; and the border reached along to Baalah, 10 that is, Kirjath-jearim; and the border turned from Baalah westwards toward mount Seir, and passed toward the side of Har-jearim,[z] that is, Chesalon, northwards, and went down to Beth-11 shemesh, and passed Timnah. And the border went out to the side of Ekron northwards, and the border reached along toward Shicron, and passed mount Baalah, and went toward Jabneel; and 12 the border ended at the sea.—And the west border is the great sea and [its] coast. This is the border of the children of Judah round about, according to their families.
13 And to Caleb the son of Jephunneh he gave a portion among the children of Judah according to the commandment of Jehovah to Joshua, the city of Arba,[a] the father of Anak, that is, Hebron.
14 And thence Caleb dispossessed the three sons of Anak, Sheshai and Ahiman and Talmai, who were 15 born of Anak. And from there he went up against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir 16 before was Kirjath-sepher. And Caleb said, He that smites Kirjath-sepher and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daughter as wife.
17 And Othniel the son of Kenaz, the brother of Caleb, took it; and he gave him Achsah his daughter as 18 wife. And it came to pass as she came, that she urged him to ask of her father a field; and she sprang down from the ass. And Caleb said to her, What wouldest 19 thou? And she said, Give me a blessing; for thou hast given me a southern land;[b] give me also springs of water. Then he gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Judah ac-21 cording to their families. The cities at the extremity of the tribe of the children of Judah, toward the border of Edom in the south, were: Kabzeel, and Eder, and 22 Jagur, and Kinah, and Dimonah, 23 and Adadah, and Kedesh, and 24 Hazor, and Jithnan, Ziph, and 25 Telem, and Bealoth, and Hazor-hadattah,[c] and Kerioth-Hezron, 26 that is Hazor,[d] Amam, and Shema, 27 and Molada, and Hazar-gaddah, and Heshmon, and Beth-Pelet, 28 and Hazar-Shual, and Beer sheba, 29 and Biziothiah; Baalah, and Iim, 30 and Ezem, and Eltolad, and Chesil, 31 and Hormah, and Ziklag, and 32 Madmannah, and Sansanna, and Lebaoth, and Shilhim, and Ain, and Rimmon: all the cities twenty-33 nine, and their hamlets.[e]—In the lowland: Eshtaol, and Zoreah, 34 and Ashnah, and Zanoah, and En-gannim, Tappuah and Enam, 35 Jarmuth and Adullam, Sochoh 36 and Azekah, and Shaaraim, and Adithaim, and Gederah, and Gederothaim: fourteen cities and their 37 hamlets. Zenan, and Hadashah, 38 and Migdal-Gad, and Dilean, and 39 Mizpeh, and Joktheel, Lachish, 40 and Bozkath, and Eglon, and Cabbon, and Lahmas,[f] and Chithlish, 41 and Gederoth, Beth-Dagon, and Naamah, and Makkedah: sixteen 42 cities and their hamlets. Libna, 43 and Ether, and Ashan, and Jiph-44 thah, and Ashnah, and Nezib, and Keilah, and Achzib, and Mareshah:
45 nine cities and their hamlets. Ekron and its dependent villages[g] 46 and its hamlets. From Ekron and westward[h] all that are by the side of Ashdod, and their hamlets.
47 Ashdod, its dependent villages and its hamlets; Gazah, its dependent villages and its hamlets, as far as the torrent of Egypt, and the great 48 sea and [its] coast.—And in the hill-country: Shamir, and Jattir, 49 and Sochoh, and Dannah, and 50 Kirjath-sannah, that is, Debir, and Anab, and Eshtemoh, and Anim, 51 and Goshen, and Holon, and Giloh: eleven cities and their ham-52 lets. Arab, and Dumah, and 53 Eshan, and Janum, and Beth-54 Tappuah, and Aphekah, and Humtah, and Kirjath-Arba, that is, Hebron, and Zior: nine cities and 55 their hamlets. Maon, Carmel, and 56 Ziph, and Jutah, and Jizreel, and 57 Jokdeam, and Zanoah, Kain, Gibeah and Timnah: ten cities and 58 their hamlets. Halhul, Beth-Zur, 59 and Gedor, and Maarath, and Beth-anoth, and Eltekon: six 60 cities and their hamlets. Kirjath-Baal, that is, Kirjath-jearim, and Rabbah: two cities and their 61 hamlets.—In the wilderness: Beth-62 Arabah, Middin, and Secacah, and Nibshan, and Ir-Hammelah,[i] and En-gedi: six cities and their hamlets.
63 But as for the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the children of Judah could not dispossess them, and the Jebusites dwell with the children of Judah at Jerusalem to this day.

16 And the lot came forth for the children of Joseph from the Jordan of Jericho as far as the waters of Jericho eastwards, to the wilderness which goes up from Jericho to the hill-country of 2 Bethel. And [the border] went from Bethel to Luz, and passed to the border of the Archites to 3 Ataroth, and went down westward to the border of the Japhletites, as far as the border of the lower Beth-horon, and to Gezer; and 4 ended at the sea. And the children of Joseph, Manasseh and Ephraim, took their inheritance.
5 And the border of the children of Ephraim was according to their families; the border of their inheritance eastwards was Ataroth-Addar as far as the upper Beth-6 horon; and the border went forth westwards to Micmethath on the north, and the border turned eastwards to Taanath-Shiloh, and passed by it eastwards to Janohah, 7 and went down from Janohah to Ataroth and Naarath, and touched upon Jericho, and went out to the 8 Jordan. From Tappuah the border went westwards to the torrent Kanah, and ended at the sea. This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim according 9 to their families, with the cities that were set apart for the children of Ephraim in the midst of the inheritance of the children of Manasseh, all the cities and their 10 hamlets. But they did not dispossess the Canaanites that dwelt at Gezer; and the Canaanites dwell in the midst of Ephraim to this day, and serve under tribute.

17 And the lot came to the tribe of Manasseh (for he was the firstborn of Joseph), to Machir, the firstborn of Manasseh, the father of Gilead; for he was a man of war, and he had Gilead and Bashan.
2 There was also [a portion] for the rest of the children of Manasseh according to their families: for the children of Abiezer, and for the children of Helek, and for the children of Asriel, and for the children of Shechem, and for the children of Hepher, and for the children of Shemida: these are the children of Manasseh, the son of Joseph, the males, according to their families.
3 And Zelophehad, the son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Machir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons, but daughters; and these are the names of his daughters: Mahlah, and Noah, Hoglah, 4 Milcah, and Tirzah. And they came near before Eleazar the priest, and before Joshua the son of Nun, and before the princes, saying, Jehovah commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brethren. And he gave them according to the commandment of Jehovah an inheritance among the 5 brethren of their father. And there fell ten portions to Manasseh, besides the land of Gilead and Bashan, which are beyond the 6 Jordan. For the daughters of Manasseh received an inheritance among his sons; and the rest of Manasseh's sons had the land of Gilead.
7 And the territory of Manasseh was from Asher to Michmethath, which is before Shechem, and the border went on the right hand toward the inhabitants of En-Tap-8 puah. Manasseh had the land of Tappuah; but Tappuah on the border of Manasseh belonged to 9 the children of Ephraim. And the border descended to the torrent Kanah, south of the torrent. These cities were Ephraim's among the cities of Manasseh. And the territory of Manasseh was on the north side of the torrent, and ended at 10 the sea. Southward it was Ephraim's, and northward it was Manasseh's, and the sea was his border. And they touched upon Asher on the north, and upon Issa-11 char on the east. And Manasseh had in Issachar and in Asher, Beth-shean and its dependent villages,[j] and Ibleam and its dependent villages,[j] and the inhabitants of Dor and its dependent villages,[j] and the inhabitants of En-Dor and its dependent villages,[j] and the inhabitants of Taanach and its dependent villages,[j] and the inhabitants of Megiddo and its dependent villages,[j] the three hilly 12 regions. But the children of Manasseh could not dispossess [the inhabitants of] those cities; and the Canaanites would dwell in that 13 land. And it came to pass when the children of Israel were become strong, that they made the Canaanites tributary; but they did not utterly dispossess them.
14 And the children of Joseph spoke to Joshua, saying, Why hast thou given me as inheritance one lot and one portion, seeing I am a great[k] people, forasmuch as Jeho-15 vah has blessed me hitherto? And Joshua said unto them, If thou art a great people, then get thee up to the wood, and cut down for thyself there in the land of the Perizzites and of the giants,[l] if the hill-country of Ephraim is too narrow 16 for thee. And the children of Joseph said, The hill-country will not be enough for us; and all the Canaanites that dwell in the land of the valley have chariots of iron, those that are of Beth-shean and its dependent villages, and those that are in the valley of Jizreel.
17 And Joshua spoke to the house of Joseph, to Ephraim and to Manasseh, saying, Thou art a great people, and hast great power: thou 18 shalt not have one lot only, but the hill-country shall be thine; as it is a wood, thou shalt cut it down, and its outgoings[m] shall be thine; for thou shalt dispossess the Canaanites, though they have iron chariots; for they are powerful.

18 And the whole assembly of the children of Israel gathered together at Shiloh, and set up the tent of meeting there; and the land was subdued before them.
2 And there remained among the children of Israel seven tribes whose inheritance had not been 3 distributed to them. And Joshua said to the children of Israel, How long will ye shew yourselves slack to go to take possession of the land which Jehovah the God of 4 your fathers hath given you? Provide you three men for a tribe; that I may send them, and they shall rise and go through the land, and describe it according to the proportion of their inheritance, 5 and they shall come to me. And they shall divide it into seven portions. Judah shall remain in their border on the south,[n] and the house of Joseph shall remain in 6 their border on the north; and ye shall describe the land into seven portions, and bring [the description] hither to me, and I will cast lots for you here before Jehovah

7 our God. But the Levites have no portion among you, for the priesthood of Jehovah is their inheritance. And Gad, and Reuben, and half the tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance beyond the Jordan on the east, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave them.

8 And the men arose and went away. And Joshua charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Go and walk through the land, and describe it, and come again to me, and I will cast lots for you here before Jehovah in 9 Shiloh. And the men went and passed through the land, and described it by cities into seven portions, in a book, and they came to Joshua, to the camp at Shiloh.
10 And Joshua cast lots for them in Shiloh before Jehovah. And there Joshua divided the land to the children of Israel according to their divisions.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Benjamin came up according to their families. And the territory of their lot came forth between the children of Judah and 12 the children of Joseph. And their border on the north side was from the Jordan; and the border went up to the side of Jericho on the north, and went up to the mountain westward; and ended at the 13 wilderness of Beth-Aven; and the border passed on from thence toward Luz, to the south side of Luz, which is Bethel: and the border went down to Ataroth-Addar, near the hill that is on the south 14 of the lower Beth-horon.—And the border reached along and turned on the west side, southward from the hill that is before Beth-horon southward; and ended at Kirjath-Baal, which is Kirjath-jearim, a city of the children of 15 Judah: this is the west side.—And the south side was from the extreme end of Kirjath-jearim, and the border went out on the west, and went out to the spring of the 16 waters of Nephtoah. And the border went down to the end of the mountain that is before the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is in the valley of Rephaim on the north, and went down the valley of Hinnom, to the side of the Jebusite on the south, and 17 went down to En-rogel; and it reached along on the north, and went forth to En-shemesh, and went forth towards Geliloth, which is opposite to the ascent of Adummim, and went down to the stone 18 of Bohan, the son of Reuben, and passed along towards the side opposite to Arabah[o] northwards, 19 and went down to Arabah; and the border passed on to the side of Beth-hoglah on the north, and the border ended at the tongue of the salt sea northward, at the south end of the Jordan: this is 20 the southern border.—And the Jordan borders it on the east side. —This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin, according to its borders round about, according to their families.

21 And the cities of the tribe of the children of Benjamin according to their families were: Jericho, and Beth-hoglah, and Emek-22 Keziz, and Beth-Arabah, and Ze-23 maraim, and Bethel, and Avvim, 24 and Parah, and Ophrah, and Chephar-haammonai,[p] and Ophni, and Geba: twelve cities and their 25 hamlets; Gibeon, and Ramah, 26 and Beeroth, and Mizpeh, and 27 Chephirah, and Mozah, and Rekem, and Jirpeel, and Tharalah, 28 and Zelah, Eleph, and Jebusi, that is, Jerusalem, Gibeah, Kirjath: fourteen cities and their hamlets. This was the inheritance of the children of Benjamin according to their families.

19 And the second lot came forth to Simeon, for the tribe of the children of Simeon according to their families; and their inheritance was within the inheritance 2 of the children of Judah. And they had in their inheritance Beer-sheba, and Sheba, and Moladah, 3 and Hazar-Shual, and Balah, and 4 Ezem, and Eltolad, and Bethul, 5 and Hormah, and Ziklag, and Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susah, 6 and Beth-lebaoth, and Sharuhen: thirteen cities and their hamlets;
7 Ain, Rimmon, and Ether, and Ashan: four cities and their ham-

8 lets; and all the hamlets that are round these cities to Baalath-beer, [that is] Ramah of the south.[q] This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Simeon accord-9 ing to their families. Out of the lot of the children of Judah was the inheritance of the children of Simeon; for the portion of the children of Judah was too great for them, and the children of Simeon inherited within their inheritance.
10 And the third lot came up for the children of Zebulun according to their families. And the border of their inheritance was unto Sarid;
11 and their border went up westwards, and [to] Marealah, and reached to Dabbesheth, and reached to the torrent that is before 12 Jokneam; and turned from Sarid eastward, toward the sun-rising, to the border of Chisloth-Tabor, and went out to Dabrath, and went 13 up to Japhia; and from thence it passed eastward toward the sunrising to Gath-Hepher, to Ethkazin, and went out to Rimmon 14 which reaches to Neah. And the border turned round it northwards to Hannathon: and ended in the valley of Jiphthah-el; ....
15 and Kattath, and Nahalal, and Shimron, and Jidalah, and Bethlehem: twelve cities and their 16 hamlets. This was the inheritance of the children of Zebulun according to their families, these cities and their hamlets.
17 The fourth lot came forth to Issachar, for the children of Issachar according to their families.
18 And their territory was toward Jizreel, and Chesulloth, and Shu-19 nem, and Hapharaim, and Shion, 20 and Anaharath, and Rabbith, and 21 Kishion, and Ebez, and Remeth, and En-gannim, and En-haddah, 22 and Beth-pazzez; and the border reached to Tabor, and Shahazimah, and Beth-shemesh; and their border ended at the Jordan: sixteen cities and their hamlets.
23 This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Issachar according to their families, the cities and their hamlets.
24 And the fifth lot came forth for the tribe of the children of Asher 25 according to their families. And their territory was Helkath, and Hali, and Beten, and Acshaph, 26 and Allammelech, and Amead, and Mishal; and [the border] reached to Carmel westwards, and to Shi-27 hor-libnath, and turned towards the sun-rising to Beth-Dagon, and reached to Zebulun, and to the valley of Jiphthah-el northward [to] Beth-emek and Neiel, and went out to Cabul on the left,[r] 28 and Ebron, and Rehob, and Hammon, and Kanah, as far as great 29 Zidon; and the border turned to Ramah, and as far as the fortified city of Tyre; and the border turned to Hosah; and ended at the sea by the tract of country 30 of Achzib; and Ummah, and Aphek, and Rehob: twenty-two 31 cities and their hamlets. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Asher according to their families, these cities and their hamlets.
32 The sixth lot came forth to the children of Naphtali, for the children of Naphtali according to their 33 families. And their border was from Heleph, from the oak of Zaanannim;[s] and Adami-nekeb and Jabneel to Lakkum; and 34 ended at the Jordan; and the border turned westwards to Aznoth-Tabor, and went out from thence to Hukkok, and reached to Zebulun on the south, and reached to Asher on the west, and to Judah upon Jordan towards the 35 sun-rising. And the fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, and Hammath, 36 Rakkath, and Chinnereth, and 37 Adamah, and Ramah, and Hazor, and Kedesh, and Edrei, and En-38 Hazor, and Jiron, and Migdal-el, Horem, and Beth-anath, and Beth-shemesh: nineteen cities and their 39 hamlets. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Naphtali according to their families, the cities and their hamlets.
40 The seventh lot came forth for the tribe of the children of Dan 41 according to their families. And the territory of their inheritance was Zoreah, and Eshtaol, and Ir-42 shemesh, and Shaalabbin, and 43 Ajalon, and Jithlah, and Elon, and 44 Timnathah, and Ekron, and Elteketh, and Gibbethon, and Baalath, 45 and Jehud, and Bene-berak, and 46 Gath-Rimmon, and Me-jarkon, and Rakkon, with the border over 47 against Japho.[t] And the border of the children of Dan ended with[v] these; and the children of Dan went up and fought against

Leshem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and took possession of it, and dwelt in it, and called Leshem, Dan, after 48 the name of Dan their father. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Dan according to their families, these cities and their hamlets.
49 And they ended dividing the land for inheritance according to its borders. And the children of Israel gave an inheritance to Joshua the son of Nun among them.
50 According to the word [w] of Jehovah they gave him the city that he asked, Timnath-serah in the hill-country of Ephraim; and he built the city, and dwelt in it.
51 These were the inheritances, which Eleazar the priest, and Joshua the son of Nun, and the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel, distributed by lot in Shiloh before Jehovah, at the entrance of the tent of meeting. And they ended dividing the land.

20 And Jehovah spoke to Joshua, saying, 2 Speak to the children of Israel, saying, Appoint [x] for yourselves the cities of refuge, whereof I spoke unto you through [y] Moses, 3 that the slayer who unwittingly without intent smiteth any one mortally may flee thither: and they shall be your refuge from the 4 avenger of blood. And he shall flee unto one of those cities and stand at the entrance of the city-gate, and shall declare his matter in the ears of the elders of that city, and they shall take [z] him into the city unto them, and give him a place, that he may dwell among 5 them. And if the avenger of blood pursue after him, they shall not deliver the slayer up into his hand; for he smote his neighbour unwittingly, and hated him not pre-6 viously. And he shall dwell in that city, until he have stood before the assembly in judgment, until the death of the high-priest that shall be in those days; then shall the slayer return, and come unto his own city, and unto his own house, unto the city from whence he fled.
7 And they hallowed Kedesh in Galilee in the hill-country of Naphtali, and Shechem in the hill-country of Ephraim, and Kirjath-Arba, that is, Hebron, in the hill-8 country of Judah. And beyond the Jordan from [a] Jericho eastward, they assigned Bezer in the wilderness, in the plateau, out of the tribe of Reuben, and Ramoth in Gilead out of the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan of the tribe 9 of Manasseh. These were the cities appointed for all the children of Israel, and for the stranger that sojourneth among them, that whosoever smiteth any one mortally without intent might flee thither, and not die by the hand of the avenger of blood, until he stood before the assembly.

21 Then the chief fathers of the Levites drew near to Eleazar the priest, and to Joshua the son of Nun, and to the chief fathers of the tribes of the children of 2 Israel; and they spoke to them at Shiloh in the land of Canaan, saying, Jehovah commanded through Moses to give us cities to dwell in, and their suburbs for our cattle.
3 And the children of Israel gave to the Levites out of their inheritance, according to the word of Jehovah, these cities and their suburbs.
4 And the lot came forth for the families of the Kohathites. And the children of Aaron the priest, of the Levites, had by lot out of the tribe of Judah, and out of the tribe of the Simeonites, and out of the tribe of Benjamin, thirteen 5 cities. And the children of Kohath that remained had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Ephraim, and out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the half tribe of Ma-6 nasseh, ten cities. And the children of Gershon had by lot out of the families of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the half tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen cities.
7 The children of Merari according to their families had by lot out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebulun, twelve cities.
8 And the children of Israel gave by lot to the Levites these cities and their suburbs, as Jehovah commanded through Moses.
9 And they gave out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, these cities which were 10 mentioned by name, and which the children of Aaron, of the families of the Kohathites, of the children of Levi had (for theirs was 11 the first lot); and they gave them Kirjath-Arba, [which Arba was] the father of Anak, that is, Hebron, in the mountain[b] of Judah, with 12 its suburbs round about it. But the fields of the city and the hamlets thereof gave they to Caleb the son of Jephunneh for his posses-13 sion. And they gave to the children of Aaron the priest the city of refuge for the slayer, Hebron and its suburbs; and Libnah and 14 its suburbs, and Jattir and its suburbs, and Eshtemoa and its sub-15 urbs, and Holon and its suburbs, 16 and Debir and its suburbs, and Ain and its suburbs, and Juttah and its suburbs, [and] Beth-she-mesh and its suburbs: nine cities 17 out of those two tribes; and out of the tribe of Benjamin: Gibeon and its suburbs, Geba and its 18 suburbs, Anathoth and its suburbs, and Almon and its suburbs; four 19 cities. All the cities of the children of Aaron, the priests, were thirteen cities and their suburbs.

20 And to the families of the children of Kohath, the Levites that remained of the children of Kohath, [they gave cities]. And the cities of their lot were out of 21 the tribe of Ephraim, and they gave them the city of refuge for the slayer, Shechem and its suburbs in mount Ephraim; and 22 Gezer and its suburbs, and Kib-zaim and its suburbs, and Bethhoron and its suburbs: four cities; 23 and out of the tribe of Dan, Eltekeh and its suburbs, Gibbethon 24 and its suburbs, Ajalon and its suburbs, Gath-Rimmon and its 25 suburbs: four cities; and out of half the tribe of Manasseh, Taanach and its suburbs and Gath-Rimmon and its suburbs: two 26 cities. All the cities were ten and their suburbs, for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.
27 And to the children of Gershon, of the families of the Levites, out of half the tribe of Manasseh, [they gave] the city of refuge for the slayer, Golan in Bashan and its suburbs; and Beeshterah and its 28 suburbs: two cities; and out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishion and its suburbs, Dabrath and its 29 suburbs, Jarmuth and its suburbs, En-gannim and its suburbs: four 30 cities; and out of the tribe of Asher, Mishal and its suburbs, 31 Abdon and its suburbs, Helkath and its suburbs, and Rehob and 32 its suburbs: four cities; and out of the tribe of Naphtali, the city of refuge for the slayer, Kedesh in Galilee, and its suburbs; and Ham-moth-Dor and its suburbs, and Kartan and its suburbs: three 33 cities. All the cities of the Gershonites according to their families were thirteen cities and their suburbs.
34 And to the families of the children of Merari, that remained of the Levites, [they gave] out of the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam and its suburbs, Kartah and its suburbs, 35 Dimnah and its suburbs, Nahalal 36 and its suburbs: four cities; and out of the tribe of Reuben, Bezer and its suburbs, and Jahzah and 37 its suburbs, Kedemoth and its suburbs, and Mephaath and its 38 suburbs: four cities; and out of the tribe of Gad, the city of refuge for the slayer, Ramoth in Gilead and its suburbs; and Mahanaim 39 and its suburbs, Heshbon and its suburbs, Jaazer and its suburbs: 40 four cities in all. [These were] all the cities of the children of Merari according to their families, which remained of the families of the Levites, and their lot was twelve cities.
41 All the cities of the Levites within the possession of the children of Israel were forty-eight 42 cities and their suburbs. Each one of these cities had its suburbs round about it: thus were all these cities.
43 And Jehovah gave to Israel all the land which he swore to give unto their fathers; and they took possession of it, and dwelt in it.
44 And Jehovah gave them rest round about, according to all that he had sworn unto their fathers; and there stood not a man of all their enemies before them: Jehovah gave all their enemies into 45 their hand. There failed nothing of all the good things[c] that Jehovah had spoken to the house of Israel: all came to pass.

22 Then Joshua called the Reu-benites, and the Gadites, and 2 the half tribe of Manasseh, and said unto them, Ye have kept all that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, and have hearkened to my voice in all that I 3 commanded you. Ye have not left your brethren these many days unto this day, and ye have kept the charge of the commandment

4 of Jehovah your God. And now Jehovah your God hath given rest to your brethren, as he said unto them; and now return, and get you unto your tents, unto the land of your possession, which Moses the servant of Jehovah gave you 5 beyond the Jordan. Only, take great heed to do the commandment and the law, which Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded you, to love Jehovah your God, and to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments, and to cleave unto him, and to serve him with all your heart and with 6 all your soul. And Joshua blessed them, and sent them away; and they went to their tents.
7 And to half the tribe of Manasseh Moses had given [inheritance] in Bashan, and to the other half thereof had Joshua given among their brethren on this side the Jordan westward. And when Joshua sent them away to their 8 tents, he blessed them also, and spoke to them, saying, Return unto your tents with much wealth and with very much cattle, with silver, and with gold, and with copper,[d] and with iron, and with clothing, in very great quantity; divide the spoil of your enemies
9 with your brethren. And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Shiloh, which is in the land of Canaan, to go to the country of Gilead, into the land of their possession, of which they had become possessed, according to the word of Jehovah through Moses.
10 And they came to the districts[e] of the Jordan that are in the land of Canaan, and the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh built there an altar by the Jordan, 11 an altar of grand appearance. And the children of Israel heard say, Behold, the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manasseh have built an altar over against the land of Canaan, in the districts of the Jordan, separately from[f] the chil-12 dren of Israel. And when the children of Israel heard [of it], the whole assembly of the children of Israel gathered together at Shiloh, to go up against them to war.
13 And the children of Israel sent to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, into the land of Gilead, Phinehas the son 14 of Eleazar the priest, and with him ten princes, of each father's house a prince, out of all the tribes of Israel; and each of them was head of a father's house, of the thou-15 sands of Israel. And they came to the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the half tribe of Manasseh, to the land of Gilead, and spoke with them, say-16 ing, Thus saith the whole assembly of Jehovah: What wickedness[g] is this which ye have committed against the God of Israel, to turn away this day from following Jehovah, in that ye have built yourselves an altar, rebelling this day 17 against Jehovah? Is the iniquity of Peor too little for us? from which we are not cleansed until this day, although[h] there was a plague in the assembly of Jehovah.
18 And ye turn away this day from following Jehovah; and it will be, that since ye rebel this day against Jehovah, to-morrow he will be wroth with the whole assembly of 19 Israel. Notwithstanding, if the land of your possession is unclean, come over into the land of the possession of Jehovah, where Jehovah's tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession amongst us; but rebel not against Jehovah, and rebel not against us, in building for yourselves an altar besides the 20 altar of Jehovah our God. Did not Achan the son of Zerah commit a trespass in the accursed thing? and wrath fell on all the assembly of Israel, and he perished not alone in his iniquity.
21 And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the half tribe of Manassch answered and said to the heads of the thousands 22 of Israel, The God[i] of gods, Jehovah, the God[i] of gods, Jehovah, he knoweth, and Israel he shall know [it]; if it is in rebellion, or if in trespass against Jehovah,— 23 save us not this day!—that we have built for ourselves an altar to turn from following Jehovah, and if it is to offer up burnt-offering and oblation on it, and if to offer peace-offerings thereon, let Jehovah himself require it [from 24 us], and if we have not done it from fear of this thing, saying, In future[k] your children will speak to our children, saying, What have ye to do with Jehovah the God of 25 Israel? Jehovah hath made the Jordan a border between us and you, ye children of Reuben and children of Gad, ye have no portion in Jehovah! And so shall your children make our children 26 cease from fearing Jehovah. And we said, Let us now set to work to build an altar, not for burnt-27 offering, nor for sacrifice, but to be a witness between us and you, and between our generations after us, that we might do service to Jehovah before him with our burnt-offerings, and with our sacrifices, and with our peace-offerings; that your children may not say to our children in future, Ye have no portion in Jehovah.

28 And we said, If it shall be that in future they so say to us and to our generations, we will say, Behold the pattern of the altar of Jehovah which our fathers made, not for burnt-offering, nor for sacrifice, but as a witness between us and 29 you. Far be it from us that we should rebel against Jehovah, and turn this day from following Jehovah, in building an altar for burnt-offering, for oblation, and for sacrifice, besides the altar of Jehovah our God that is before his tabernacle.
30 And when Phinehas the priest and the princes of the assembly and the heads of the thousands of Israel that were with him heard the words that the children of Reuben and the children of Gad and the children of Manasseh spoke, it was good in their sight.
31 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest said unto the children of Reuben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of Manasseh, This day we perceive that Jehovah is among us, because ye have not committed this trespass against Jehovah: now have ye delivered the children of Israel out of the hand of Jehovah.
32 And Phinehas the son of Eleazar the priest, and the princes, returned from the children of Reuben, and from the children of Gad, out of the land of Gilead, to the land of Canaan, to the children of Israel, and brought them word 33 again. And the thing was good in the sight of the children of Israel, and the children of Israel blessed God, and no more said [l] that they would go up in warfare against them, to destroy the land in which the children of Reuben and the 34 children of Gad dwelt. And the children of Reuben and the children of Gad gave a name to the altar; for it is a witness [m] between us that Jehovah is God.

23 And it came to pass a long time after that Jehovah had given rest to Israel from all their enemies round about, and Joshua had become old, advanced in age, [n]
2 that Joshua called for all Israel, for their elders, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers, and said unto them, I am 3 become old, advanced in age; and ye have seen all that Jehovah your God hath done to all these nations because of you. For Jehovah your God is he that hath fought for you.
4 Behold, I have divided unto you by lot for an inheritance according to your tribes these nations that remain, from the Jordan, as well as all the nations that I have cut off, as far as the great sea toward 5 the sun-setting. And Jehovah your God, he will expel them from before you, and dispossess them from out of your sight; and ye shall take possession of their land, as Jehovah your God hath said 6 unto you. And be ye very courageous to keep and to do all that is written in the book of the law of Moses, that ye turn not aside therefrom to the right hand or to 7 the left; that ye enter not among these nations, these that remain among you; and ye shall make no mention of the name of their gods, nor cause to swear [by them], neither serve them, nor bow your-8 selves unto them; but ye shall cleave unto Jehovah your God, as 9 ye have done unto this day. For Jehovah hath dispossessed from before you great and strong nations; and as to you, no man hath been able to stand before you unto 10 this day. One man of you chaseth a thousand; for Jehovah your God, he it is that fighteth for you, 11 as he hath said unto you. Take great heed therefore unto your souls, that ye love Jehovah your 12 God. For if ye in any wise go back, and cleave unto the residue of these nations, these that remain among you, and make marriages with them, and come in unto them 13 and they unto you: know for a certainty that Jehovah your God will no more dispossess these nations from before you, and they shall be snares and traps unto you, and scourges in your sides, and thorns in your eyes, until ye perish from off this good land[o] which Jehovah your God hath given you.

14 And behold, I am going this day the way of all the earth; and ye know in all your heart, and in all your soul, that not one thing hath failed of all the good words that Jehovah your God hath spoken concerning you: all are come to pass unto you—not one thing hath 15 failed thereof. But it shall come to pass, that as every good word hath been fulfilled[p] to you, that Jehovah your God spoke to you, so will Jehovah bring upon you every evil word, until he have destroyed you from off this good land[o] which Jehovah your God 16 hath given you; when ye transgress the covenant of Jehovah your God which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods, and bow yourselves unto them, so that the anger of Jehovah shall be kindled against you, and ye shall perish quickly from off the good land which he hath given unto you.

24 And Joshua gathered all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, and called for the elders of Israel, and for their heads, and for their judges, and for their officers; and they presented themselves before 2 God. And Joshua said unto all the people, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: Your fathers dwelt of old on the other side of the river,[q] Terah, the father of Abraham and the father of Nahor, 3 and they served other gods. And I took your father Abraham from the other side of the river, and led him throughout the land of Canaan, and multiplied his seed 4 and gave him Isaac. And I gave unto Isaac Jacob and Esau; and I gave unto Esau mount Seir, to possess it; and Jacob and his sons 5 went down into Egypt. And I sent Moses and Aaron, and I plagued Egypt, according to that which I did among them; and 6 afterwards I brought you out. And I brought your fathers out of Egypt, and ye came unto the sea; and the Egyptians pursued after your fathers with chariots and 7 horsemen unto the Red sea. Then they cried to Jehovah, and he put darkness between you and the Egyptians, and brought the sea upon them, and covered them; and your eyes saw what I did in Egypt;[r] and ye dwelt in the 8 wilderness a long time. And I brought you into the land of the Amorites, who dwelt beyond the Jordan, and they fought with you, and I gave them into your hand, and ye took possession of their land, and I destroyed them from 9 before you. And Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab, arose and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the son of Beor 10 to curse you; but I would not hearken unto Balaam, and he blessed you expressly, and I de-11 livered you out of his hand. And ye went over the Jordan, and came unto Jericho, and the men[s] of Jericho fought against you, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Girgashites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites; and I delivered 12 them into your hand. And I sent the hornet before you, which drove them out from before you [as] the two kings of the Amorites; not with thy sword, nor with thy bow.
13 And I have given you a land for which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and ye dwell in them; of vineyards and olive-yards which ye planted not do ye 14 eat. And now fear Jehovah and serve him in perfectness and in truth; and put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the river, and in 15 Egypt; and serve Jehovah. And if it seem evil unto you to serve Jehovah, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods whom your fathers that were on the other side of the river served, or the gods of the Amorite, in whose land ye dwell; but as for me and my house, we will serve Jehovah.
16 And the people answered and said, Far be it from us that we should forsake Jehovah, to serve 17 other gods; for Jehovah our God, he it is that brought us up and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage,[t] and who did those great signs before our eyes, and preserved us in all the way wherein we went, and among all the peoples through whom we 18 passed! And Jehovah drove out from before us all the peoples, and the Amorites the inhabitants of the land: so therefore we will serve Jehovah, for he is our God.

19 And Joshua said to the people, Ye cannot serve Jehovah, for he is a holy God; he is a jealous God; [v] he will not forgive your trans-20 gressions nor your sins. If ye forsake Jehovah, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and do you hurt, and consume you, after that 21 he hath done you good. And the people said to Joshua, No; but 22 we will serve Jehovah. And Joshua said unto the people, Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you Jehovah, to serve him. And they said, [We 23 are] witnesses. Now therefore put away the strange gods that are among you, and incline your heart unto Jehovah the God of Israel.
24 And the people said unto Joshua, Jehovah our God will we serve, and to his voice will we hearken.
25 So Joshua made a covenant with the people that day, and set them a statute and an ordinance 26 in Shechem. And Joshua wrote these words in the book of the law of God, and took a great stone, and set it up there under the oak that was by the sanctuary of Jeho-27 vah. And Joshua said unto all the people, Behold, this stone shall be a witness unto us, for it hath heard all the words [w] of Jehovah which he spoke unto us; and it shall be a witness against you, lest 28 ye deny your God. And Joshua dismissed the people every man to his inheritance.
29 And it came to pass after these things, that Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died, 30 a hundred and ten years old. And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the mountain of Gaash.
31 And Israel served Jehovah all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders whose days were prolonged after Joshua, and who had known all the works of Jehovah, which he had done for Israel.
32 And the bones of Joseph, which the children of Israel had brought up out of Egypt, buried they in Shechem in the portion [x] of the field which Jacob had bought of the sons of Hamor, Shechem's father, for a hundred kesitahs; [y] and it became the inheritance of the children of Joseph.
33 And Eleazar the son of Aaron died; and they buried him in the hill of Phinehas his son, which had been given him in mount Ephraim.

THE BOOK OF JUDGES

1 And it came to pass after the death of Joshua that the children of Israel asked Jehovah, saying, Which of us shall go up against the Canaanites first, to fight against 2 them? And Jehovah said, Judah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.
3 And Judah said to Simeon his brother, Come up with me into my lot, and let us fight against the Canaanites, and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot; and Sim-4 eon went with him. And Judah went up; and Jehovah delivered the Canaanites and the Perizzites into their hand, and they smote them in Bezek, ten thousand men.
5 And they found Adoni-Bezek in Bezek, and fought against him, and they smote the Canaanites and 6 the Perizzites. And Adoni-Bezek fled, and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his 7 thumbs and his great toes. And Adoni-Bezek said, Seventy kings with their thumbs and their great toes cut off gleaned under my table: as I have done, so God has requited me. And they brought him to Jerusalem, and there he died.
8 And the children of Judah fought [a] against Jerusalem, and took it, and smote it with the edge of the sword, and set the city 9 on fire. And afterwards the children of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites, that dwelt in the hill-country, and in the 10 south, [b] and in the lowland. [c] And Judah went against the Canaanites that dwelt in Hebron—the name of Hebron before was Kirjath-Arba;[d] and they slew Sheshai 11 and Ahiman and Talmai. And from there he went against the inhabitants of Debir; now the name of Debir before was Kirjath-sepher.[e] 12 And Caleb said, He that smites Kirjath-sepher and takes it, to him will I give Achsah my daugh-13 ter as wife. And Othniel the son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, took it; and he gave him Achsah 14 his daughter as wife. And it came to pass as she came, that she urged him to ask of her father the field; and she sprang down from the ass. And Caleb said to her, What 15 wouldest thou? And she said to him, Give me a blessing; for thou hast given me a southern land;[f] give me also springs of water. And Caleb gave her the upper springs and the lower springs.

16 And the children of the Kenite, Moses' father-in-law, had gone up out of the city of palm-trees with the children of Judah into the wilderness of Judah, which is in the south of Arad;[g] and they went and dwelt with the people.
17 And Judah went with Simeon his brother, and they slew the Canaanites that inhabited Zephath, and utterly destroyed it; and they called the name of the city 18 Hormah. And Judah took Gazah and its border, and Ashkelon and its border, and Ekron and its 19 border. And Jehovah was with Judah; and he took possession of the hill-country, for he did not dispossess the inhabitants of the valley,[h] because they had chariots of iron.
20 And they gave to Caleb Hebron, as Moses had said; and he dispossessed from thence the three sons of Anak.
21 And the children of Benjamin did not dispossess the Jebusites, the inhabitants of Jerusalem; but the Jebusites dwell with the children of Benjamin in Jerusalem to this day.
22 And the house of Joseph, they also went up against Bethel; and 23 Jehovah was with them. And the house of Joseph sent to search out Bethel; now the name of the city 24 before was Luz. And the guards[i] saw a man come forth out of the city, and said unto him, Shew us, we pray thee, how [we] may enter into the city, and we will shew 25 thee kindness. And he shewed them how to enter into the city. And they smote the city with the edge of the sword; but they let 26 go the man and all his family. And the man went into the land of the Hittites, and built a city, and called its name Luz, which is its name to this day.
27 And Manasseh did not dispossess Beth-shean and its dependent villages,[j] nor Taanach and its dependent villages, nor the inhabitants of Dor and its dependent villages, nor the inhabitants of Ibleam and its dependent villages, nor the inhabitants of Megiddo and its dependent villages; and the Canaanites would dwell in that 28 land. And it came to pass when Israel became strong, that they made the Canaanites tributary; but they did not utterly dispossess them.
29 And Ephraim did not dispossess the Canaanites that dwelt in Gezer; but the Canaanites dwelt among them in Gezer.
30 Zebulun did not dispossess the inhabitants of Kitron, nor the inhabitants of Nahalol; but the Canaanites dwelt among them, and became tributaries.
31 Asher did not dispossess the inhabitants of Accho, nor the inhabitants of Zidon, nor Ahlab, nor Achzib, nor Helbah, nor Aphik, 32 nor Rehob; and the Asherites dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land; for they did not dispossess them.
33 Naphtali did not dispossess the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh, nor the inhabitants of Beth-anath; and he dwelt among the Canaanites, the inhabitants of the land, but the inhabitants of Beth-shemesh and of Beth-anath became tributaries to them.
34 And the Amorites forced the children of Dan into the hill-country, for they would not suffer them to come down to the valley.
35 And the Amorites would dwell on mount Heres, in Ajalon and in Shaalbim; but the hand of the house of Joseph prevailed, and 36 they became tributaries. And the border of the Amorites was from the ascent of Akrabbim, from the rock, and upwards.

2 And the Angel of Jehovah came up from Gilgal to Bochim, and said, I made you to go up out of [d] City of Arba. [e] City of the Book. [f] Or 'the south land.' [g] That part of the Negeb which formed the district of 'Arad:' cf. Josh. x. 40, and 1 Sam. xxvii. 10; xxx. 14. [h] Or 'plain.' [i] Or 'scouts.' [j] Lit. 'its daughters.'

Egypt, and have brought you to the land which I swore unto your fathers; and I said, I will never 2 break my covenant with you; and as for you, ye shall make no covenant with the inhabitants of this land; ye shall throw down their altars: but ye have not hearkened unto my voice. Why have ye 3 done this? Wherefore I also said, I will not drive them out from before you; but they shall be [scourges] in your sides,[k] and their gods shall be a snare unto 4 you. And it came to pass, when the Angel of Jehovah spoke these words to all the children of Israel, that the people lifted up their voice 5 and wept. And they called the name of that place Bochim;[l] and they sacrificed there to Jehovah.
6 And Joshua dismissed the people, and the children of Israel went every man to his inheritance to 7 possess the land. And the people served Jehovah all the days of Joshua, and all the days of the elders whose days were prolonged after Joshua, who had seen all the great works of Jehovah, which he 8 had done for Israel. And Joshua the son of Nun, the servant of Jehovah, died, a hundred and ten 9 years old. And they buried him in the border of his inheritance in Timnath-Heres, in mount Ephraim, on the north side of the 10 mountain of Gaash. And also all that generation were gathered to their fathers; and there arose another generation after them, which knew not Jehovah, nor yet the works which he had done for Israel.
11 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and 12 served the Baals.[m] And they forsook Jehovah the God of their fathers, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt, and followed other gods of the gods of the peoples that were round about them, and bowed themselves to 13 them, and provoked Jehovah to anger. And they forsook Jehovah, and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.[m]
14 And the anger of Jehovah was hot against Israel, and he delivered them into the hands of spoilers that spoiled them, and he sold them into the hands of their enemies round about; and they could not any longer stand before 15 their enemies. Whithersoever they went out the hand of Jehovah was against them for evil, as Jehovah had said, and as Jehovah had sworn unto them; and they were 16 greatly distressed. And Jehovah raised up judges, and they saved them out of the hand of those that 17 spoiled them. But they did not even hearken to their judges, for they went a whoring after other gods, and bowed themselves to them; they turned quickly out of the way that their fathers had walked in, obeying the commandments of Jehovah; they did not 18 so. And when Jehovah raised them up judges, then Jehovah was with the judge, and saved them out of the hand of their enemies all the days of the judge; for it repented Jehovah[n] because of their groanings by reason of them that oppressed them and crushed them.
19 And it came to pass when the judge died, that they turned back and corrupted themselves more than their fathers, in following other gods to serve them, and to bow down to them: they ceased not from their own doings, nor 20 from their stubborn way. And the anger of Jehovah was hot against Israel; and he said, Because this nation hath transgressed my covenant which I commanded their fathers, and hath not hearkened 21 unto my voice, I also will not henceforth dispossess from before them any of the nations that 22 Joshua left when he died; that through them I may prove Israel whether they will keep the way of Jehovah to walk therein, as their fathers did keep [it], or not.
23 Therefore Jehovah left those nations, without dispossessing them hastily, neither delivered he them into the hand of Joshua.

3 And these are the nations that Jehovah left, to prove Israel by them, all that had not known all
2 the wars of Canaan; only that the generations of the children of Israel might know war by learning it, at the least those who before 3 had known nothing thereof: five lordships of the Philistines, and all the Canaanites, and the Sidonians, and the Hivites that dwell on mount Lebanon; from mount Baal-Hermon unto the entering 4 into Hamath. And they were to prove Israel by them, to know whether they would obey the commandments of Jehovah, which he commanded their fathers by the hand of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Canaanites: Hittites and Amorites and Perizzites and 6 Hivites and Jebusites; and they took their daughters as wives, and gave their daughters to their sons, 7 and served their gods. And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and forgot Jehovah their God, and served the 8 Baals and the Asherahs.[o] And the anger of Jehovah was hot against Israel, and he sold them into the hand of Chushan-rishathaim king of Mesopotamia;[p] and the children of Israel served Chushan-9 rishathaim eight years. And the children of Israel cried to Jehovah; and Jehovah raised up a saviour to the children of Israel, who saved them, Othniel the son of Kenaz, 10 Caleb's younger brother. And the Spirit of Jehovah was upon him, and he judged Israel; and he went out to war, and Jehovah gave Chushan-rishathaim king of Syria into his hand; and his hand prevailed against Chushan-rishathaim.
11 And the land had rest forty years; and Othniel the son of Kenaz died.
12 And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of Jehovah; and Jehovah strengthened Eglon the king of Moab against Israel, because they did evil in the sight 13 of Jehovah. And he gathered to him the children of Ammon and Amalek and went and smote Israel, and they took possession of the 14 city of palm-trees. And the children of Israel served Eglon the king 15 of Moab eighteen years. And the children of Israel cried to Jehovah, and Jehovah raised them up a saviour, Ehud the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, a man left-handed.[q]
And by him[r] the children of Israel sent a gift to Eglon king of Moab.
16 And Ehud made him a sword having two edges, it was of a cubit[s] length; and he girded it under his 17 raiment upon his right hip. And he brought the gift to Eglon king of Moab; now Eglon was a very 18 fat man. And it came to pass when he had ended offering the gift, he sent away the people that 19 had borne the gift. But he turned from the graven images[t] that were by Gilgal, and said, I have a secret word unto thee, O king. And he said, Be silent! And all that stood 20 by him went out from him. And Ehud came to him; now he was sitting in the cool upper chamber, which was for him alone. And Ehud said, I have a word from God unto thee. And he arose from 21 the seat. Then Ehud put forth his left hand, and took the sword from his right hip, and thrust it 22 into his belly; and the haft also went in after the blade, and the fat closed upon the blade; for he did not draw the sword out of his belly, and it came out between the legs.
23 And Ehud went out into the portico, and shut the doors of the upper-chamber upon him, and bolted them.
24 And when he was gone out, the servants of the [king] came and saw, and behold, the doors of the upper-chamber were bolted. And they said, Surely he is covering his 25 feet in the summer[u] chamber. And they waited till they were ashamed; and behold, he opened not the doors of the upper-chamber, and they took the key, and opened [them], and behold, their lord lay dead on the earth.
26 And Ehud had escaped while they lingered, and passed beyond the graven images,[t] and escaped to 27 Seirah. And it came to pass when he was come, that he blew a trumpet in the hill-country of Ephraim, and the children of Israel went down with him from the hill-28 country, and he before them. And he said to them, Follow after me, for Jehovah has delivered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they went down after him, and took the fords of the Jordan toward Moab, and suffered 29 no one to pass over. And they slew the Moabites at that time, about ten thousand men, all fat, and all men of valour, and not a 30 man escaped. And Moab was subdued that day under the hand of Israel. And the land had rest eighty years.
31 And after him was Shamgar the son of Anath; and he smote the Philistines, six hundred men, with an ox-goad. And he also delivered Israel.

4 And the children of Israel again did evil in the sight of Jehovah;
2 now Ehud was dead. And Jehovah sold them into the hand of Jabin king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor; and the captain of his army was Sisera, who dwelt in 3 Harosheth-Goim.[w] And the children of Israel cried to Jehovah; for he had nine hundred chariots of iron, and he mightily oppressed the children of Israel twenty years.
4 And Deborah, a prophetess,[x] the wife of Lapidoth, judged Israel at 5 that time. And she dwelt under the palm-tree of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in mount Ephraim; and the children of Israel came up to her for judgment.
6 And she sent and called Barak the son of Abinoam out of Kedesh-Naphtali, and said to him, Hath not Jehovah the God of Israel commanded? Go and draw towards mount Tabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Naphtali and of the 7 children of Zebulun, and I will draw unto thee, to the torrent Kishon, Sisera, the captain of Jabin's army, and his chariots and his multitude, and I will give him 8 into thy hand. And Barak said to her, If thou goest with me, then I will go, but if thou goest not with 9 me, I will not go. And she said, I will by all means go with thee, only that it will not be to thine honour upon the way which thou goest, for Jehovah will sell Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Deborah arose, and went with Barak to Kedesh.
10 And Barak called together Zebulun and Naphtali to Kedesh; and there went up at his feet ten thousand men; and Deborah 11 went up with him. (Now Heber the Kenite had severed himself from the Kenites, from the children of Hobab the father-in-law of Moses, and had pitched his tent as far as the oak of Zaannaim,[y] 12 which is by Kedesh.) And they told Sisera that Barak the son of Abinoam had gone up to mount 13 Tabor. Then Sisera gathered together all his chariots, nine hundred chariots of iron, and all the people that were with him, from Harosheth-Goim to the torrent Kishon.
14 And Deborah said to Barak, Up; for this is the day in which Jehovah hath given Sisera into thy hand! Is not Jehovah gone out before thee? And Barak went down from mount Tabor, and ten 15 thousand men after him. And Jehovah discomfited Sisera, and all the chariots, and all the army, with the edge of the sword before Barak; and Sisera got down from 16 [his] chariot, and fled on foot. And Barak pursued after the chariots and after the army to Harosheth-Goim; and all the army of Sisera fell by the edge of the sword; not 17 one was left. And Sisera fled on foot to the tent of Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite; for there was peace between Jabin the king of Hazor and the house of Heber the 18 Kenite. And Jael went out to meet Sisera, and said to him, Turn in, my lord, turn in to me; fear not. And he turned in to her, into the tent, and she covered him 19 with the quilt. And he said to her, Give me, I pray thee, a little water to drink, for I am thirsty. And she opened the flask of milk, and gave him drink, and covered him.
20 And he said to her, Stand in the door of the tent, and it shall be if any one come and inquire of thee, and say, Is there any man here? that thou shalt say, No.
21 And Jael Heber's wife took a tent-pin, and took the hammer in her hand, and went softly to him, and smote the pin into his temples, and it penetrated into the ground; for he had fallen into a deep sleep and 22 was faint; and he died. And behold, as Barak pursued Sisera, Jael went out to meet him, and said to him, Come, and I will shew thee the man whom thou seekest. And he went into her [tent], and behold, Sisera lay dead, and the pin 23 was in his temples. So God subdued on that day Jabin king of Canaan before the children of 24 Israel. And the hand of the children of Israel ever advanced, and prevailed against Jabin king of Canaan, until they had cut off Jabin king of Canaan.

5 Then sang Deborah and Barak, the son of Abinoam, on that day, saying,

2 For that leaders led in Israel,
For that the people willingly offered themselves, Bless Jehovah!

I, [even] I, will sing to Jehovah;
I will hymn to Jehovah the God of Israel.
4 Jehovah, when thou wentest forth from Seir, When thou marchedst out of the fields of Edom,
The earth trembled, and the heavens dropped, Yea, the clouds dropped water.
5 The mountains quaked before the face of Jehovah, That Sinai, from before Jehovah the God of Israel.
6 In the days of Shamgar the son of Anath, in the days of Jael,
The roads were unused,[z] and the travellers on highways went by crooked paths.
7 The villages[a] ceased in Israel, Ceased until that I Deborah arose,
That I arose a mother in Israel.
8 They chose new gods; then was war in the gates:
Was there a shield or spear seen among forty thousand in Israel?
9 My heart is toward the governors of Israel, who offered themselves willingly among the people.
Bless Jehovah!
10 Ye that ride on white she-asses, ye that sit on carpets, and ye that walk by the way, consider,[b] 11 Because of the voice of those who divide [the spoil] in the midst of the places of drawing water;
There they rehearse the righteous acts[c] of Jehovah,
His righteous acts toward his villages in Israel.
Then the people of Jehovah went down to the gates.
12 Awake, awake, Deborah! awake, awake, utter a song!
Arise, Barak, and lead captive thy captives,[d] thou son of Abinoam!
13 Then come down, thou, the remnant of nobles, [as his] people; Jehovah! come down with me in the midst of the mighty ones.[e] 14 Out of Ephraim [came] those whose root[f] was in[g] Amalek; After thee was Benjamin among thy peoples.
Out of Machir came down governors,
And out of Zebulun they that handled the staff of the ruler.[h] 15 And the princes in Issachar were with Deborah;
And Issachar, like Barak;
They were sent into the valley at his feet.
In the divisions[i] of Reuben there were great resolves of heart!
16 Why abodest thou among the sheepfolds,
To hear the bleating of[k] the flocks?
In the divisions of Reuben there were great deliberations[l] of heart.
17 Gilead abode beyond Jordan;
And Dan, why did he remain in ships?
Asher sat on the sea-shore,
And abode in his creeks.
18 Zebulun is a people [that] jeoparded their lives unto death, Naphtali also, on the high places of the field.
19 Kings came,—they fought;
Then fought the kings of Canaan
At Taanach, by the waters of Megiddo;
They took no spoil of silver.
20 From heaven was the fight,
The stars from their courses fought with Sisera.
21 The torrent of Kishon swept them away,
That ancient torrent,[m] the torrent Kishon.
My soul, thou hast trodden down strength!
22 Then did the horse-hoofs clatter with the coursings, The coursings of their steeds.[n] 23 Curse Meroz, saith the Angel of Jehovah; Curse, curse the inhabitants thereof;
For they came not to the help of Jehovah,
To the help of Jehovah among the mighty.
24 Blessed above women shall Jael the wife of Heber the Kenite be, Blessed above women in the tent!
25 He asked water, she gave milk,
In the nobles' bowl she brought forth cream.
26 She put her hand to the tent-pin,
And her right hand to the workmen's hammer;
And she smote Sisera, she struck through his head, Shattered and pierced through his temples.
27 Between her feet he bowed, he fell, he lay down:
Between her feet he bowed, he fell;

28 The mother of Sisera looketh out at the window,
And crieth through the lattice,
Why is his chariot so long in coming?
Why tarry the trampings of his chariots?

A damsel, two damsels, to each?[o]
A booty of dyed stuffs for Sisera, A booty of dyed stuffs of embroidery, Dyed stuff of double embroidery for the neck of a spoiler.[p] 31 So let all thine enemies perish, Jehovah!
But let them that love him be as the rising of the sun in its might.
And the land had rest forty years.

6 And the children of Israel did evil in the sight of Jehovah; and Jehovah delivered them into the 2 hand of Midian seven years. And the hand of Midian prevailed against Israel. Because of the Midianites the children of Israel made for themselves the dens that are in the mountains, and the 3 caves, and the strongholds. And it came to pass when Israel sowed, that Midian came up, and Amalek, and the children of the east, and 4 came up against them. And they encamped against them, and destroyed the produce of the land, until thou come to Gazah, and they left no sustenance in Israel, 5 neither sheep, nor ox, nor ass. For they came up with their cattle and their tents, and they came as locusts for multitude; both they and their camels were without number; and they entered into 6 the land to destroy it. And Israel was greatly impoverished because of Midian. And the children of Israel cried to Jehovah.
7 And it came to pass when the children of Israel cried to Jehovah
8 because of Midian, that Jehovah sent a prophet to the children of Israel, who said to them, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: I brought you up from Egypt, and brought you forth out of the house
9 of bondage;[q] and I delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and drove them out from before you, and gave you 10 their land, and I said to you, I am Jehovah your God; fear not the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell. But ye have not hearkened to my voice.
11 And an angel of Jehovah came and sat under the terebinth that was in Ophrah, that [belonged] to Joash the Abi-ezrite. And his son Gideon threshed wheat in the winepress, to secure [it] from the 12 Midianites. And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to him, and said to him, Jehovah is with thee, 13 thou mighty man of valour. And Gideon said to him, Ah my Lord, if Jehovah be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where are all his miracles that our fathers told us of, saying, Did not Jehovah bring us up from Egypt? And now Jehovah hath cast us off, and given us into the hand of Midian.
14 And Jehovah looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of Midian. Have not I sent 15 thee? And he said to him, Ah Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my thousand is the poorest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.
16 And Jehovah said to him, I will certainly be with thee; and thou shalt smite Midian as one man.
17 And he said to him, If now I have found favour in thine eyes, shew me a sign that it is thou who 18 talkest with me. Depart not hence, I pray thee, until I come unto thee, and bring forth my present, and set it before thee. And he said, I will tarry until thou 19 come again. And Gideon went in, and made ready a kid of the goats, and an ephah of flour in unleavened cakes: the flesh he put in a basket, and he put the broth in a pot, and brought it out to him under the terebinth, and 20 presented it. And the Angel of God said to him, Take the flesh and the unleavened cakes, and lay them upon this rock, and pour out 21 the broth. And he did so. And the Angel of Jehovah put forth the end of the staff that was in his hand, and touched the flesh and the unleavened cakes; and there rose up fire out of the rock, and consumed the flesh and the unleavened cakes. And the Angel of Jehovah departed out of his sight.
22 And Gideon perceived that he [o] Lit. 'the head of a man.' [p] Or 'of the spoil.' [q] Lit. 'bondmen:' so habitually was an angel of Jehovah; and Gideon said, Alas, Lord Jehovah! for because I have seen an angel of 23 Jehovah face to face . . . . And Jehovah said to him, Peace be unto thee: fear not; thou shalt 24 not die. And Gideon built there an altar to Jehovah, and called it Jehovah-shalom.[r] To this day it is yet in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.

25 And it came to pass the same night, that Jehovah said to him, Take the young bullock, which thy father hath, even the second bullock of seven years old, and throw down the altar of Baal that thy father hath, and cut down the 26 Asherah that is by it; and build an altar to Jehovah thy God upon the top of this strong place in the ordered manner, and take the second bullock, and offer up a burnt-offering with the wood of the Asherah that thou shalt cut down.
27 And Gideon took ten men of his servants, and did as Jehovah had said to him. And it came to pass, because he feared his father's house, and the men of the city, if he did it by day, that he did it by night.
28 And when the men of the city arose early in the morning, behold, the altar of Baal was broken down, and the Asherah was cut down that was by it, and the second bullock was offered up upon the 29 altar that was built. And they said one to another, Who has done this thing? And when they inquired and asked, they said, Gideon the son of Joash has done 30 this thing. And the men of the city said to Joash, Bring out thy son, that he may die, because he has broken down the altar of Baal, and because he has cut down the 31 Asherah that was by it. And Joash said to all that stood near him, Will ye contend for Baal? or will ye save him? he that contends for him, let him be put to death whilst it is yet morning. If he be a god, let him plead for himself, because they have broken 32 down his altar. And on that day they called him Jerub-Baal,[s] saying, Let Baal plead with[t] him, because he has broken down his altar.
33 And all Midian and Amalek and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over,[v] and encamped in the valley of 34 Jezreel. And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon Gideon, and he blew the trumpet, and the Abi-ezrites 35 were gathered after him. And he sent messengers throughout Manasseh, and they also were gathered after him; and he sent messengers to Asher, and to Zebulun, and to Naphtali; and they came up to meet them.
36 And Gideon said to God, If thou wilt save Israel by my hand, as 37 thou hast said, behold, I put a fleece of wool on the threshing-floor; if dew shall be on the fleece only, and it be dry upon all the ground, then shall I know that thou wilt save Israel by my hand, 38 as thou hast said. And it was so. And when he rose up early on the morrow, he pressed the fleece together, and wrung dew out of the 39 fleece, a bowl-full of water. And Gideon said to God, Let not thine anger be hot against me, and I will speak but this once! Let me prove, I pray thee, but this once with the fleece; let it, I pray thee, be dry upon the fleece only, and upon all 40 the ground let there be dew. And God did so that night, and it was dry upon the fleece only, but on all the ground there was dew.

7 And Jerubbaal, who is Gideon, arose early, and all the people that were with him, and they encamped beside the spring Harod; and he had the camp of Midian on the north by the hill of Moreh in 2 the valley. And Jehovah said to Gideon, The people that are with thee are too many for me to give Midian into their hand, lest Israel vaunt themselves against me, saying, Mine own hand hath saved
3 me. And now proclaim in the ears of the people, saying, Whoever is timid and afraid, let him go back and turn from mount Gilead. And there went back of the people twenty two thousand; and there
4 remained ten thousand. And Jehovah said to Gideon, Still the people are many; bring them down to the water, and I will try them for thee there, and it shall be, that of whom I shall say unto thee, This shall go with thee, the same shall go with thee; and of whomsoever I shall say unto thee, This shall not go with thee, the same 5 shall not go. And he brought down the people to the water; and Jehovah said to Gideon, Every one that lappeth of the water with his tongue, as a dog lappeth, him

[r] 'Jehovah [of] peace.' [s] 'Let Baal plead, or contend.' [t] Or 'contend against.'
[v] i.e. 'went over the Jordan.'

shalt thou set by himself; likewise every one that boweth down on 6 his knees to drink. And the number of them that lapped, with their hand to their mouth, were three hundred men; and all the rest of the people bowed down on 7 their knees to drink water. And Jehovah said to Gideon, By the three hundred men that lapped will I save you, and give Midian into thy hand; and let all the people go every man to his place.
8 And they took the victuals of the people in their hand, and their trumpets; and all the men of Israel he sent away, every man to his tent, but retained the three hundred men. Now the camp of Midian was beneath him in the valley.
9 And it came to pass in that night, that Jehovah said to him, Arise, go down to the camp; for I have given it into thy hand.
10 And if thou fear to go down, go thou with Phurah thy servant 11 down to the camp; and thou shalt hear what they say; and afterwards shall thy hand be strengthened, and thou shalt go down unto the camp. And he went down with Phurah his servant to the outside of the armed men that 12 were in the camp. And Midian and Amalek and all the children of the east lay along in the valley as locusts for multitude; and their camels were without number, as the sand upon the sea-shore for 13 multitude. And Gideon came, and behold, a man was telling a dream to his fellow; and he said, Behold, I dreamed a dream, and lo, a cake of barley-bread tumbled into the camp of Midian, and came to the tent, and smote it that it fell, and overturned it; and the tent lay 14 along. And his fellow answered and said, This is nothing else save the sword of Gideon the son of Joash, the man of Israel: God hath given into his hand Midian and all the host.
15 And it came to pass when Gideon heard the telling of the dream and its interpretation, that he worshipped. And he returned into the camp of Israel, and said, Arise; for Jehovah hath given into your 16 hand the camp of Midian. And he divided the three hundred men into three companies, and he put a trumpet in every man's hand, and empty pitchers, and torches 17 within the pitchers. And he said to them, Look on me, and do likewise; behold, when I come to the extremity of the camp, it shall be 18 that, as I do, so shall ye do. And when I blow with a trumpet, I and all that are with me, ye also shall blow the trumpets around the whole camp, and shall say, For Jehovah and for Gideon!
19 And Gideon, and the hundred men that were with him, came to the outside of the camp in the beginning of the middle watch;[w] and they had but newly set the watch; and they blew the trumpets, and broke the pitchers that 20 were in their hands. And the three companies blew the trumpets, and broke in pieces the pitchers, and held the torches in their left hand, and the trumpets in their right hand for blowing, and cried, The sword of Jehovah 21 and of Gideon! And they stood every man in his place round about the camp; and all the host ran, 22 and cried out, and fled. And the three hundred blew the trumpets, and Jehovah set every man's sword against his fellow, even throughout the camp. And the host fled to Beth-shittah towards Zererah, to the border[x] of Abel-meholah, by Tabbath.
23 And the men of Israel were called together out of Naphtali, and out of Asher, and out of all Manasseh, and pursued after Midian.
24 And Gideon sent messengers throughout mount Ephraim, saying, Come down against Midian, and take before them the waters unto Beth-barah, and the Jordan. And all the men of Ephraim were called together, and took the waters unto Beth-barah, and the 25 Jordan. And they took two princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and they slew Oreb upon the rock Oreb, and Zeeb they slew at the winepress of Zeeb; and they pursued Midian, and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon beyond the Jordan.

8 And the men of Ephraim said to him, What is this thing thou hast done to us, that thou calledst us not, when thou wentest to fight with Midian? And they dis-
2 puted with him sharply. And he said to them, What have I done now in comparison with you? Are not the gleanings of Ephraim better than the vintage of Abi-3 ezer? Into your hands hath God

delivered the princes of Midian, Oreb and Zeeb; and what was I able to do in comparison with you? Then their spirit was appeased toward him, when he said that word.

4 And Gideon came to the Jordan, [and] passed over, he and the three hundred men that were with 5 him, faint, yet pursuing. And he said to the men of Succoth, Give, I pray you, loaves of bread to the people that follow me, for they are faint; and I am pursuing after Zebah and Zalmunna, kings of 6 Midian. And the chief men of Succoth said, Are the hands[y] of Zebah and Zalmunna already in thy hand, that we should give 7 bread to thine army? And Gideon said, Therefore when Jehovah delivers Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will thresh your flesh with thorns of the wilderness and 8 with briars. And he went up thence to Penuel, and spoke to them in like manner. And the men of Penuel answered him as the men of Succoth had answered.
9 And he spoke also to the men of Penuel, saying, When I come again in peace, I will break down this tower.

10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor, and their camp with them, about fifteen thousand [men], all that were left of the whole camp of the children of the east; for there had fallen a hundred and twenty thousand men 11 that drew sword. And Gideon went up by the way of them that dwell in tents on the east of Nobah and Jogbehah, and smote the camp; for the camp was at its 12 ease. And Zebah and Zalmunna fled, and he pursued after them, and he took the two kings of Midian, Zebah and Zalmunna, and discomfited all the camp.

13 And Gideon the son of Joash returned from the battle, from the 14 ascent of Heres. And he caught a youth of the men of Succoth, and inquired of him; and he wrote down for him the chief men of Succoth, and the elders thereof, 15 seventy-seven men. And he came to the men of Succoth, and said, Behold Zebah and Zalmunna, with whom ye did upbraid me, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna already in thy hand, that we should give bread to thy men 16 that are weary?[z] And he took the elders of the city, and thorns of the wilderness and briars, and with them he taught the men of Suc-17 coth. And he broke down the tower of Penuel, and slew the men of the city.

18 Then said he to Zebah and Zalmunna, What sort of men were they that ye slew at Tabor? And they answered, As thou art, so were they; each one resembled 19 the sons of a king. And he said, They were my brethren, the sons of my mother. [As] Jehovah liveth, if ye had saved them alive, 20 I would not slay you. And he said to Jether his firstborn, Arise, slay them! But the youth drew not his sword; for he feared, be-21 cause he was yet a youth. Then Zebah and Zalmunna said, Rise thou, and fall on us; for as is the man, so is his strength. And Gidcon arose, and slew Zebah and Zalmunna; and he took the moons that were on their camels' necks.

22 And the men of Israel said to Gideon, Rule over us, both thou, and thy son, and thy son's son 23 also; for thou hast saved us from the hand of Midian. And Gideon said to them, I will not rule over you, neither shall my son rule over 24 you: Jehovah will rule over you. And Gidcon said to them, I would desire a request of you: give me every man the earrings of his booty; for they had golden earrings, because they were Ish-25 maelites. And they said, We will willingly give [them]. And they spread a garment, and cast therein every man the earrings of his booty.
26 And the weight of the golden earrings that he requested was a thousand seven hundred [shekels] of gold; besides the moons, and eardrops, and the purple garments that were on the kings of Midian, and besides the chains that were 27 about their camels' necks. And Gideon made an ephod of them, and put it in his city, in Ophrah. And all Israel went thither a whoring after it; and it became a snare to Gideon, and to his house.

28 And Midian was subdued before the children of Israel, and they lifted up their heads no more. And the land had rest forty years in the days of Gideon.

29 And Jerubbaal the son of Joash 30 went and dwelt in his house. Now Gideon had seventy sons who had come out of his loins, for he had 31 many wives. And his concubine that was in Shechem, she also bore

[y] Lit. 'palms;' and so in ver. 15. [z] Or 'faint.'

him a son, and he gave him the 32 name of Abimelech. And Gideon the son of Joash died in a good old age, and was buried in the sepulchre of Joash his father, in Ophrah of the Abi-ezrites.
33 And it came to pass when Gideon was dead, that the children of Israel turned again, and went a whoring after the Baals, and set 34 up Baal-Berith [a] as their god. And the children of Israel remembered not Jehovah their God, who had delivered them out of the hand of all their enemies on every side.
35 And they shewed no kindness to the house of Jerubbaal-Gideon, according to all the good that he had done to Israel.

9 And Abimelech son of Jerubbaal went to Shechem to his mother's brethren, and spoke to them, and to all the family of the house of 2 his mother's father, saying, Speak, I pray you, in the ears of all the citizens [b] of Shechem, Which is better for you, that seventy persons, all sons of Jerubbaal, rule over you, or that one man rule over you? And remember that I am your bone and your flesh.
3 And his mother's brethren spoke of him in the ears of all the citizens of Shechem all these words. And their heart inclined after Abime-lech; for they said, He is our 4 brother. And they gave him seventy pieces of silver out of the house of Baal-Berith, and Abime-lech hired with them vain and wanton men, and they followed 5 him. And he came to his father's house, to Ophrah, and slew his brethren the sons of Jerubbaal, seventy persons upon one stone; but there remained Jotham the youngest son of Jerubbaal; for he had hid himself.
6 And all the citizens of Shechem gathered together, and all the house of Millo, [c] and went and made Abimelech king, by the memorial-oak [d] that is in Shechem.
7 And they told it to Jotham, and he went and stood on the top of mount Gerizim, and lifted up his voice, and cried, and said to them, Hearken to me, ye citizens of Shechem, that God may hearken to 8 you. The trees once went forth to anoint a king over them; and they said to the olive-tree, Reign 9 over us. And the olive-tree said to them, Should I leave my fatness, wherewith by me they honour God and man, and go to wave over 10 the trees? And the trees said to the fig-tree, Come thou, reign over 11 us. But the fig-tree said to them, Should I leave my sweetness, and my good fruit, and go to wave over 12 the trees? Then said the trees to the vine, Come thou, reign over 13 us. And the vine said to them, Should I leave my new wine, which cheers God and man, and 14 go to wave over the trees? Then said all the trees to the thorn-bush, 15 Come thou, reign over us. And the thorn-bush said to the trees, If in truth ye anoint me king over you, come, put confidence in my shadow; but if not, fire shall come out of the thorn-bush and devour 16 the cedars of Lebanon. Now therefore, if ye have dealt truly and sincerely [e] in that ye have made Abimelech king, and if ye have dealt well with Jerubbaal and his house, and if ye have done to him according to the deserving of 17 his hands;—for my father fought for you, and endangered his life, and delivered you out of the hand 18 of Midian; but ye are risen up against my father's house this day, and have slain his sons, seventy men, upon one stone, and have made Abimelech, the son of his handmaid, king over the citizens of Shechem, because he is your 19 brother;—if ye then have dealt truly and sincerely with Jerubbaal and with his house this day, rejoice ye in Abimelech, and let him also 20 rejoice in you; but if not, let fire come out from Abimelech, and devour the citizens of Shechem and the house of Millo; and let fire come out from the citizens of Shechem and from the house of 21 Millo, and devour Abimelech. And Jotham ran away, and fled, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, because of Abimelech his brother.
22 And Abimelech ruled over Israel 23 three years. And God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the citizens of Shechem; and the citizens of Shechem dealt treacher-24 ously with Abimelech, that the violence [done] to the seventy sons of Jerubbaal might come, and their blood be laid upon Abimelech their brother, who slew them, and upon the citizens of Shechem, who had strengthened his hands to slay 25 his brethren. And the citizens of Shechem set liers in wait for him on the tops of the mountains, and they robbed all that came along that way by them. And it was told Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the son of Ebed came with his brethren, and went over to Shechem; and the citizens of Shechem put confidence in him.
27 And they went out into the fields, and gathered their vineyards, and trode [the grapes], and made rejoicings, and went into the house of their god, and ate and drank, and cursed Abimelech.
28 And Gaal the son of Ebed said, Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should serve him? is he not the son of Jerubbaal? and Zebul his overseer? Serve the men of Hamor the father of Shechem! and why should we serve him?
29 Oh! would that this people were under my hand! then would I remove Abimelech. And he said of Abimelech, Increase thine army, and come out.
30 And Zebul the ruler of the city heard the words of Gaal the son of Ebed, and his anger was kindled; 31 and he sent messengers to Abimelech craftily, saying, Behold, Gaal the son of Ebed and his brethren are come to Shechem, and behold, they shut up[f] the city against 32 thee; and now, rise up by night, thou and the people that are with thee, and lie in ambush in the 33 fields. And it shall be in the morning when the sun is up, thou shalt rise early, and fall upon the city; and behold, he and the people that is with him shall come out against thee, and thou shalt do with him 34 as thou shalt find occasion. And Abimelech rose up, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they lay in ambush against Shechem in four compan-35 ies. And Gaal the son of Ebed went out, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city. Then Abimelech rose up, and the people that were with him, out of the 36 ambush. And Gaal saw the people, and said to Zebul, Behold, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains. And Zebul said to him, Thou seest the shadow 37 of the mountains as men. And Gaal spoke again, and said, Behold, people are coming down from the high part of the land, and one company is coming along by the 38 way of the Magician's oak. Then said Zebul to him, Where is now thy mouth, that thou saidst, Who is Abimelech, that we should serve him? is not this the people that thou hast despised? go out now, I pray, and fight against them.
39 And Gaal went out before the citizens of Shechem, and fought 40 against Abimelech. And Abimelech pursued him, and he fled before him, and there fell many wounded,[g] as far as the entrance 41 of the gate. And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah. And Zebul drove out Gaal and his brethren, that they might not dwell in Shechem.
42 And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people went out into the field; and they told Abime-43 lech. And he took the people, and divided them into three companies, and lay in ambush in the field. And he looked, and behold, the people came forth out of the city; and he rose up against them and 44 smote them. And Abimelech, and the companies that were with him, rushed forward, and stood in the entrance of the gate of the city; and two of the companies ran upon all that were in the fields, and slew 45 them. And Abimelech fought against the city all that day; and he took the city, and slew the people that were in it, and broke down the city, and sowed it with salt.
46 And all the men[h] of the tower of Shechem heard [that], and they entered into the stronghold of the 47 house of the god[i] Berith. And it was told Abimelech that all the men[h] of the tower of Shechem had 48 gathered together. Then Abimelech went up to mount Zalmon, he and all the people that were with him; and Abimelech took an axe[k] in his hand, and cut down a bough from the trees, and took it up and laid it on his shoulder, and said to the people that was with him, What ye have seen me do, make 49 haste, do as I have done. And all the people likewise cut down every man his bough, and they followed Abimelech, and put [them] to the hold, and burned the hold with fire upon them. And all the men of the tower of Shechem died also, about a thousand men and women.
50 And Abimelech went to Thebez, 51 and encamped against Thebez, and took it. But there was a strong tower in the midst of the city, and thither fled all the men and women, all the citizens of the city; and they shut it behind them, and went up to the roof of 52 the tower. And Abimelech came

[f] Or 'stir up.' [g] Or 'slain.' [h] See note on verse 2. [i] Heb. El. [k] Or 'axes.'

to the tower, and fought against it, and he drew near to the entrance of the tower to burn it with fire; 53 and a woman cast the upper stone of a handmill[l] on Abimelech's 54 head, and crushed his skull. Then he called hastily to the young man that carried his armour, and said to him, Draw thy sword, and slay me, that they say not of me, A woman killed him. And his young man thrust him through, and he died.
55 And when the men of Israel saw that Abimelech was dead, they 56 went every man to his place. And God rendered back the wickedness of Abimelech, which he did to his father in slaying his seventy 57 brethren. And all the evil of the men of Shechem did God render back upon their heads; and upon them came the curse of Jotham the son of Jerubbaal.

10 And after Abimelech, there rose up to save Israel Tola the son of Puah, the son of Dodo, a man of Issachar; and he dwelt in 2 Shamir on mount Ephraim. And he judged Israel twenty-three years; and he died, and was buried in Shamir.
3 And after him rose up Jair, a Gileadite; and he judged Israel 4 twenty-two years. And he had thirty sons who rode on thirty ass colts; and they had thirty cities, which are called the villages of Jair[m] to this day, which are in the 5 land of Gilead. And Jair died, and was buried in Kamon.
6 And the children of Israel again did evil[n] in the sight of Jehovah, and served the Baals, and the Ashtoreths, and the gods of Syria, and the gods of Zidon, and the gods of Moab, and the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines; and they forsook Jehovah, and served him not.
7 And the anger of Jehovah was hot against Israel, and he sold him into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the children of 8 Ammon. And they oppressed and crushed the children of Israel in that year; eighteen years [they oppressed] all the children of Israel that were beyond the Jordan in the land of the Amorites, which 9 is in Gilead. And the children of Ammon passed over the Jordan to fight also against Judah, and against Benjamin, and against the house of Ephraim; and Israel was greatly distressed.
10 And the children of Israel cried to Jehovah, saying, We have sinned against thee, both because we have forsaken our God, and also served 11 the Baals. And Jehovah said to the children of Israel, Did I not [save you] from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the 12 Philistines? The Zidonians also and Amalek and Maon oppressed you, and ye cried to me, and I 13 saved you out of their hand. But ye have forsaken me, and served other gods; therefore I will save 14 you no more. Go and cry to the gods that ye have chosen: let them save you in the time of your 15 trouble. And the children of Israel said to Jehovah, We have sinned. Do thou unto us according to all that is good in thy sight; only deliver us, we pray thee, this 16 day. And they put away the strange gods from among them, and served Jehovah; and his soul was grieved for the misery of Israel.
17 And the children of Ammon were called together and encamped in Gilead; and the children of Israel gathered together and en-18 camped in Mizpeh. And the people, the chief men of Gilead, said one to another, Who is the man that will begin to fight against the children of Ammon? he shall be head over all the inhabitants of Gilead.

11 Now Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty man of valour; and he was the son of a harlot, and Gilead had begotten Jephthah.
2 And Gilead's wife bore him sons; and when his wife's sons were grown, they expelled Jephthah, and said to him, Thou shalt not inherit in our father's house; for thou art the son of another wo-3 man. Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the land of Tob. And vain men were gathered to Jephthah, and they made expeditions[o] with him.
4 And it came to pass after some time, that the children of Ammon 5 fought with Israel. And when the children of Ammon made war against Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fetch Jephthah out of the 6 land of Tob. And they said to Jephthah, Come, and be our captain, that we may fight against the 7 children of Ammon. And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expel me out of my father's house? and why are ye come to me now when ye 8 are in trouble? And the elders of Gilead said to Jephthah, Therefore we have returned to thee now, that thou mayest go with us, and fight against the children of Ammon, and be head over all of us 9 the inhabitants of Gilead. And Jephthah said to the elders of Gilead, If ye take me back to fight against the children of Ammon, and Jehovah give them up before 10 me, shall I be your head? And the elders of Gilead said unto Jephthah, Jehovah be witness [p] between us, if we do not so accord-11 ing to thy words! Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and captain over them; and Jephthah uttered all his words before Jehovah in Mizpeh.

12 And Jephthah sent messengers to the king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight against my 13 land? And the king of the children of Ammon said to the messengers of Jephthah, Because Israel took away my land, when they came up out of Egypt, from the Arnon even unto the Jabbok and unto the Jordan; and now 14 restore it peaceably. And Jephthah sent messengers again to the 15 king of the children of Ammon, and said to him, Thus saith Jephthah: Israel took not away the land of Moab, nor the land of the 16 children of Ammon. But when they came up from Egypt, then Israel walked through the wilderness as far as the Red sea, and 17 came to Kadesh. And Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying, Let me, I pray thee, pass through thy land; but the king of Edom would not hearken. And they also sent to the king of Moab; and he would not. And Israel 18 abode in Kadesh. And they walked through the wilderness, and went round the land of Edom and the land of Moab, and came by the east [q] of the land of Moab, and encamped beyond the Arnon, but came not within the border of Moab; for the Arnon is the 19 border of Moab. And Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, the king of Heshbon, and Israel said to him, Let us pass, we pray thee, through thy land 20 unto my place. But Sihon trusted not Israel, to let him pass through his border, and Sihon gathered all his people, and they encamped in Jahzah; and he fought with Israel.
21 And Jehovah the God of Israel gave Sihon and all his people into the hand of Israel, and they smote them; and Israel took possession of the whole land of the Amorites, 22 who dwelt in that country. And they possessed all the borders of the Amorites, from the Arnon unto the Jabbok, and from the wilder-23 ness unto the Jordan. And now Jehovah the God of Israel has dispossessed the Amorites from before his people Israel, and shouldest thou take possession of 24 it? Dost not thou possess what Chemosh thy god puts thee in possession of? and whatever Jehovah our God has dispossessed be-25 fore us, that will we possess. And now art thou indeed better than Balak the son of Zippor, king of Moab? did he ever strive with Israel? did he ever fight against 26 them? While Israel dwelt in Heshbon and its dependent villages, and in Aroer and its dependent villages, and in all the cities that are along the banks of the Arnon, three hundred years—why did ye not recover [them] within 27 that time? So I have not sinned against thee, but it is thou who doest me wrong in making war against me. Jehovah the Judge be judge this day between the children of Israel and the children of Ammon!
28 But the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not to the words of Jephthah that he had 29 sent him. Then the Spirit of Jehovah came upon Jephthah, and he passed through Gilead and Manasseh, and passed to Mizpeh of Gilead, and from Mizpeh of Gilead he passed over to the children of Ammon.
30 And Jephthah vowed a vow to Jehovah, and said, If thou wilt without fail give the children of 31 Ammon into my hand, then shall that which cometh forth from the door of my house to meet me, when I return in peace from the children of Ammon, be Jehovah's, and I will offer it up for a burnt-offering.
32 And Jephthah passed over to the children of Ammon to fight against them; and Jehovah gave 33 them into his hand. And he smote them from Aroer until thou come to Minnith, twenty cities, even unto Abel-Cheramim,[r] with a very great slaughter; and the children of Ammon were subdued before the children of Israel.

[p] Lit. 'hearer.' [q] Lit. 'sun-rising.'

34 And Jephthah came to Mizpah to his house, and behold, his daughter came out to meet him with tambours and with dances; and she was an only child: besides her he had neither son nor daugh-35 ter. And it came to pass, when he saw her, that he rent his garments, and said, Alas, my daughter! thou hast brought me very low, and thou art one of them that trouble me; for I have opened my mouth to Jehovah, and I cannot 36 go back. And she said to him, My father, if thou hast opened thy mouth to Jehovah, do to me according to that which has proceeded out of thy mouth; forasmuch as Jehovah has taken vengeance for thee upon thine enemies, upon the children of Ammon.
37 And she said to her father, Let this thing be done for me: leave me alone two months, that I may go and descend to the mountains, and bewail my virginity, I and my 38 companions. And he said, Go. And he sent her away for two months. And she went with her companions, and bewailed her vir-39 ginity upon the mountains. And it came to pass at the end of two months, that she returned to her father, and he performed on her the vow that he had vowed; and she had known no man. And it became a fixed custom in Israel, 40 that from year to year the daughters of Israel go to celebrate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite four days in the year.

12 And the men of Ephraim were called together, and passed over northwards, and said to Jephthah, Why didst thou pass over to fight against the children of Ammon, and didst not call us to go with thee? We will burn thy house 2 upon thee with fire. And Jephthah said to them, I was at great strife,[s] I and my people, with the children of Ammon; and I called you, but ye saved me not out of 3 their hand. And when I saw that ye would not save me, I put my life in my hand, and passed over against the children of Ammon, and Jehovah gave them into my hand. Why then are ye come up to me this day, to fight against 4 me? And Jephthah gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with Ephraim; and the men of Gilead smote Ephraim, because they said, Ye, Gilead, ye are fugitives of Ephraim in the midst of Ephraim, [and] in the 5 midst of Manasseh. And Gilead took the fords of the Jordan before Ephraim; and it came to pass that when the fugitives of Ephraim said, Let me go over, the men of Gilead said to him, Art thou an Ephraimite? and he said, 6 No. Then they said to him, Say now Shibboleth![t] and he said, Sibboleth, and did not manage to pronounce [it] rightly. Then they took him, and slaughtered him at the fords of the Jordan. And there fell at that time of Ephraim forty-two thousand.
7 And Jephthah judged Israel six years. And Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in [one of] the cities of Gilead.
8 And after him Ibzan of Bethle-9 hem judged Israel. And he had thirty sons; and thirty daughters he sent out of the house, and thirty daughters he took in from abroad for his sons. And he judged Israel 10 seven years. And Ibzan died, and was buried at Bethlehem.
11 And after him Elon, the Zebulonite, judged Israel; and he 12 judged Israel ten years. And Elon the Zebulonite died, and was buried in Ajalon in the land of Zebulun.
13 And after him Abdon the son of Hillel, the Pirathonite, judged 14 Israel. And he had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy ass colts. And he judged 15 Israel eight years. And Abdon the son of Hillel the Pirathonite died, and was buried in Pirathon in the land of Ephraim, in the hill-country of the Amalekites.

13 And the children of Israel again did evil[v] in the sight of Jehovah; and Jehovah gave them into the hand of the Philistines forty years.
2 And there was a certain man of Zoreah, of the family of the Danites, and his name was Manoah. And his wife was barren and did 3 not bear. And the Angel of Jehovah appeared to the woman, and said to her, Behold now, thou art [r] Or 'the plain of the vineyards.' [s] Lit. 'a man of strife.' [t] Stream, flood.

[v] See on x. 6.

barren and bearest not; but thou 4 shalt conceive and bear a son. And now beware, I pray thee, and drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat 5 nothing unclean. For lo, thou shalt conceive, and bear a son, and no razor shall come on his head; for the boy shall be a Nazarite[w] of God from the womb; and he shall begin to save Israel out of the hand of the Philistines.
6 And the woman came and told her husband, saying, A man of God came to me, and his appearance was like the appearance of an angel of God, very terrible; but I did not ask him whence he was, neither did he tell me his name.
7 And he said to me, Behold, thou shalt conceive and bear a son; and now drink not wine nor strong drink, and eat not anything unclean; for the boy shall be a Nazarite of God from the womb to the day of his death.
8 Then Manoah prayed to Jehovah, and said, Ah Lord! let the man of God which thou didst send come again unto us, I pray thee, and teach us what we shall do unto the child that shall be born.
9 And God hearkened to the voice of Manoah; and the Angel of God came again to the woman whilst she sat in the field; but Manoah her husband was not with her.
10 Then the woman hasted and ran, and informed her husband, and said to him, Behold, the man has appeared to me, that came to me that day.
11 And Manoah rose up and went after his wife, and came to the man, and said to him, Art thou the man that didst speak to the 12 woman? And he said, I am. And Manoah said, When thy words then come to pass, what shall be the child's manner and his doing?
13 And the Angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, Of all that I said unto 14 the woman let her beware: she shall not eat of anything that cometh of the vine, neither shall she drink wine or strong drink, nor eat anything unclean: all that I commanded her shall she observe.
15 And Manoah said to the Angel of Jehovah, I pray thee, let us detain thee, and we will make ready a kid of the goats for thee.
16 And the Angel of Jehovah said to Manoah, Though thou shouldest detain me, I will not eat of thy bread; and if thou wilt offer a burnt-offering, thou shalt offer it up to Jehovah. For Manoah knew not that he was the Angel 17 of Jehovah. And Manoah said to the Angel of Jehovah, What is thy name, that when thy word cometh to pass we may do thee honour?
18 And the Angel of Jehovah said to him, How is it that thou askest[x] after my name, seeing it is wonderful?
19 Then Manoah took the kid and the oblation, and offered it up to Jehovah upon the rock. And he did wondrously, and Manoah and 20 his wife looked on. And it came to pass, as the flame went up from off the altar towards the heavens, that the Angel of Jehovah ascended in the flame of the altar; and Manoah and his wife looked on, and fell on their faces to the 21 ground. And the Angel of Jehovah appeared no more to Manoah and to his wife. Then Manoah knew that it was the Angel of 22 Jehovah. And Manoah said to his wife, We shall surely die, be-23 cause we have seen God. But his wife said to him, If Jehovah were pleased to kill us, he would not have received a burnt-offering and an oblation at our hands, neither would he have shewed us all these things, nor would he at this time have told us [such things] as these.
24 And the woman bore a son, and called his name Samson. And the child grew, and Jehovah blessed 25 him. And the Spirit of Jehovah began to move[y] him at Mahaneh-Dan,[z] between Zoreah and Eshtaol.

14 And Samson went down to Timnathah, and saw a woman in Timnathah of the daughters of 2 the Philistines. And he went up, and told his father and his mother, and said, I have seen a woman in Timnathah of the daughters of the Philistines; and now take her 3 for me as wife. And his father and his mother said to him, Is there no woman among the daughters of thy brethren, and among all my people, that thou goest to take a wife of the Philistines, the uncircumcised? And Samson said to his father, Take her for me, for 4 she pleases me well. And his father and his mother did not know that it was of Jehovah, that he was seeking an occasion against the Philistines. Now at that time

[w] See on Num. vi. 2. [x] See note on Gen. xxxii. 29. [y] The Hebrew word is expressive of powerful emotion. Cf. Gen. xli. 8, where it is translated 'troubled.' [z] Or 'in the camp of Dan.'

the Philistines were ruling over Israel.

5 And Samson went down, and his father and his mother, to Timnathah; and they came to the vineyards of Timnathah. And behold, a young lion roared against 6 him; and the Spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and he rent it as one rends a kid, and nothing was in his hand. And he did not tell his father or his mother what he 7 had done. And he went down and talked with the woman; and she 8 pleased Samson well. And he returned after a time to take her, and he turned aside to see the carcase of the lion; and behold, [there was] a swarm of bees in the 9 carcase of the lion, and honey; and he took it out in his hands, and went on, and ate as he went. And he came to his father and to his mother, and gave them, and they ate; but he did not tell them that he had taken the honey out of the carcase of the lion.

10 And his father went down to the woman, and Samson made there a feast; for so used the young 11 men to do. And it came to pass when they saw him, that they brought thirty companions, and 12 they were with him. And Samson said to them, Let me now propound a riddle to you; if ye clearly explain it to me within the seven days of the feast, and find [it] out, then I will give you thirty shirts, and thirty changes of garments.
13 But if ye cannot explain [it] to me, then shall ye give me thirty shirts and thirty changes of garments. And they said to him, Propound thy riddle, that we may hear it.
14 And he said to them,

Out of the eater came forth food,
And out of the strong came forth sweetness.

And they could not in three 15 days explain the riddle. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that they said to Samson's wife, Persuade thy husband, that he may explain to us the riddle, lest we burn thee and thy father's house with fire. Have ye invited us to impoverish us,—is it not 16 [so]? And Samson's wife wept before him, and said, Thou dost but hate me, and lovest me not. Thou hast propounded the riddle to the children of my people, and hast not explained it to me. And he said to her, Behold, I have not explained it to my father nor my mother, and shall I explain it to 17 thee? And she wept before him the seven days, while they had the feast. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that he explained it to her, for she pressed him. And she explained the riddle to the 18 children of her people. And the men of the city said to him on the seventh day before the sun went down,

What is sweeter than honey,
And what stronger than a lion?

And he said to them, If ye had not ploughed with my heifer, ye had 19 not found out my riddle. And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and he went down to Ashkelon, and slew of them thirty men, and took their spoil, and gave the changes of garments unto them that explained the riddle. And his anger was kindled, and he went up 20 to his father's house. And Samson's wife was [given] to his companion, whom he had made his friend.

15 And it came to pass after a time, in the days of the wheat-harvest, that Samson visited his wife with a kid of the goats. And he said, I will go in to my wife into the chamber; but her father 2 would not suffer him to go in. And her father said, I verily thought that thou didst utterly hate her; therefore I gave her to thy companion. Is not her younger sister fairer than she? Let her, I pray 3 thee, be thine instead of her. And Samson said to them,[a] This time I am blameless toward [b] the Philistines, though I do them harm.
4 And Samson went and caught three hundred jackals, and took torches, and turned tail to tail, and put a torch in the midst be-5 tween the two tails. And he set the torches on fire, and let [them] run into the standing corn of the Philistines, and burnt up both the shocks, and also the standing 6 corn, and the olive gardens. And the Philistines said, Who has done this? And they answered, Samson, the son-in-law of the Timnite, because he took his wife and gave her to his companion. And the Philistines came up, and burned 7 her and her father with fire. And Samson said to them, If ye act thus, for a certainty I will avenge myself on you, and then I will 8 cease. And he smote them hip and thigh with a great slaughter. And he went down and dwelt in the cleft of the cliff Etam.

[a] Or 'of them.' [b] Or 'shall be more blameless than.'

9 And the Philistines went up, and encamped in Judah, and spread 10 themselves in Lehi. And the men of Judah said, Why are ye come up against us? And they said, To bind Samson are we come up, to do to him as he has done to us.
11 Then three thousand men of Judah went down to the cleft of the cliff Etam, and said to Samson, Knowest thou not that the Philistines rule over us? And what is this that thou hast done to us? And he said to them, As they did to me, 12 so have I done to them. And they said to him, We are come down to bind thee, that we may give thee into the hand of the Philistines. And Samson said to them, Swear to me that ye will not fall on me 13 yourselves. And they spoke to him, saying, No; but we will bind thee fast, and deliver thee into their hand; but we certainly shall not put thee to death. And they bound him with two new cords, and brought him up from the 14 cliff. When he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him. And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon him, and the cords that were on his arms became as threads of flax that are burned with fire, and his bands loosed from off his hands.
15 And he found a fresh jawbone of an ass, and put forth his hand and took it, and slew with it a thousand 16 men. And Samson said,

With the jawbone of an ass, a heap,[c] two heaps,
With the jawbone of an ass have I slain a thousand men.

17 And it came to pass when he had ended speaking, that he cast away the jawbone out of his hand, and called that place Ramath-Lehi.[d]
18 And he was very thirsty, and called on Jehovah, and said, Thou hast given by the hand of thy servant this great deliverance, and now shall I die for thirst, and fall into the hand of the uncircum-19 cised? And God clave the hollow rock which was in Lehi, and water came out of it. And he drank, and his spirit came again, and he revived. Therefore its name was called En-hakkore,[e] which is in Lehi to this day.
20 And he judged Israel in the days of the Philistines twenty years.

16 And Samson went to Gazah, and saw there a harlot,[f] and 2 went in to her. [And it was told] the Gazathites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they surrounded [him], and laid wait for him all night at the gate of the city, and were quiet all the night, saying, In the morning light we will kill 3 him. And Samson lay till midnight; and he arose at midnight, and seized the doors of the gate of the city, and the two posts, and tore them up with the bar, and put [them] upon his shoulders, and carried them up to the top of the mountain that is before Hebron.
4 And it came to pass afterwards that he loved a woman in the valley of Sorek, whose name was 5 Delilah. And the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and said to her, Persuade him, and see in what his great strength is, and with what we may prevail against him, that we may bind him to overpower[g] him; and we will each give thee eleven hundred silver-6 pieces. Then Delilah said to Samson, Tell me, I pray thee, in what is thy great strength, and with what thou mightest be bound to 7 overpower thee. And Samson said to her, If they should bind me with seven fresh cords which have not been dried, then should I be weak, and be as another man.
8 Then the lords of the Philistines brought up to her seven fresh cords which had not been dried, and she 9 bound him with them. Now she had liers in wait abiding in the chamber; and she said to him, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson! And he broke the cords, as a thread of tow is broken when it touches the fire; and his strength was not known.
10 And Delilah said to Samson, Behold, thou hast mocked me and told me lies. Now tell me, I pray thee, with what thou mightest be 11 bound. And he said to her, If they should bind me fast with new ropes, with which no work has been done, then should I be weak, and 12 be as another man. And Delilah took new ropes, and bound him with them, and said to him, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson! Now there were liers in wait abiding in the chamber. And he broke them from off his arms like a thread.
13 And Delilah said to Samson,

[c] There is here a paronomasia, the Hebrew word for 'ass' and 'heap' being the same. [d] Hill of the jawbone. [e] The caller's spring. [f] Lit. 'a woman, a harlot.' [g] Or 'afflict;' and so vers. 6, 19.

Hitherto thou hast mocked me and told me lies. Tell me with what thou mightest be bound. And he said to her, If thou shouldest weave the seven locks of my head 14 with the web. And she fastened it with the pin, and said to him, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson! And he awoke out of his sleep, and tore out the pin of the beam, and the web.
15 Then she said to him, How canst thou say, I love thee, when thy heart is not with me? these three times hast thou mocked me, and hast not told me in what is thy 16 great strength. And it came to pass when she pressed him daily with her words and urged him, that his soul was vexed unto death;
17 and he told her all his heart, and said to her, There has not come a razor upon my head; for I am a Nazarite of God from my mother's womb; if I should be shaven, then my strength would go from me, and I should be weak, and be like all mankind.
18 And Delilah saw that he had told her all his heart, and she sent and called for the lords of the Philistines, saying, Come up this time, for he has told me all his heart. And the lords of the Philistines came up to her, and brought 19 the money in their hand. And she made him sleep upon her knees, and called a man, and she caused him to shave off the seven locks of his head; and she began to overpower him, and his strength 20 went from him. And she said, The Philistines are upon thee, Samson! And he awoke out of his sleep, and thought, I will go out as at other times before, and disengage myself. And he knew not that Jehovah had departed 21 from him. And the Philistines seized him, and put out his eyes, and brought him down to Gazah, and bound him with fetters[h] of bronze; and he had to grind in the 22 prison-house. But the hair of his head began to grow after he was shaved.
23 Then the lords of the Philistines gathered together to sacrifice a great sacrifice to Dagon their god, and to rejoice; for they said, Our god has given Samson our enemy 24 into our hands. And when the people saw him, they praised their god; for they said, Our god has given into our hands our enemy, and the destroyer of our country, even him who multiplied our slain.
25 And it came to pass when their hearts were merry, that they said, Call for Samson, that he may make us sport. And they called for Samson out of the prison-house, and he played before them; and they set him between the pillars.
26 And Samson said to the lad that held him by the hand, Let loose of me, and suffer me to feel the pillars upon which the house stands, that I may lean upon them.
27 Now the house was full of men and women; and all the lords of the Philistines were there; and upon the roof there were about three thousand men and women, who looked on while Samson made 28 sport. And Samson called to Jehovah, and said, Lord Jehovah, remember me, I pray thee, and strengthen me, I pray thee, only this once, O God, that I may take one vengeance upon the Philis-29 tines for my two eyes. And Samson took hold of the two middle pillars upon which the house stood (and he supported himself upon them), the one with his right hand 30 and the other with his left. And Samson said, Let me die with the Philistines! And he bowed himself with might; and the house fell on the lords, and on all the people that were therein. So the dead that he slew at his death were more than those whom he had 31 slain in his life. And his brethren came down, and all the house of his father, and took him, and brought him up, and buried him between Zorcah and Eshtaol in the sepulchre of Manoah his father. And he had judged Israel twenty years.

17 1 And there was a man of mount Ephraim, whose name was Mi-2 cah. And he said to his mother, The eleven hundred silver-pieces that were taken from thee, and about which thou didst curse and speak of in mine ears, behold, the silver is with me; I took it. And his mother said, Blessed be my 3 son of Jehovah! And he restored the eleven hundred silver-pieces to his mother; and his mother said, I had[i] dedicated the silver to Jehovah from my hand for my son, to make a graven image and a molten image; and now I will 4 restore it to thee. Now he restored the silver to his mother; and his mother took two hundred silver-pieces and gave them to the founder, and he made of them a graven image and a molten image; and they were[k] in the house of 5 Micah.[l] And the man Micah had a house of gods, and made an ephod and teraphim, and consecrated[m] one of his sons, who became his priest.

6 In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes.
7 And there was a young man out of Bethlehem-Judah of the family of Judah, who was a Levite, and 8 he sojourned there. And the man departed from the city, from Bethlehem-Judah, to sojourn where he might find [a place]. And as he journeyed, he came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah.
9 And Micah said to him, Whence comest thou? And he said to him, I am a Levite of Bethlehem-Judah, and I go to sojourn where I may 10 find [a place]. And Micah said to him, Dwell with me, and be to me a father and a priest, and I will give thee yearly ten silver-pieces, and a suit of garments, and thy victuals. And the Levite went in.
11 And the Levite was content to dwell with the man; and the young man was to him as one of 12 his sons. And Micah consecrated[m] the Levite; and the young man became his priest, and was in the 13 house of Micah. Then said Micah, Now I know that Jehovah will do me good, because I have the Levite for priest.

18 In those days there was no king in Israel, and in those days the tribe of the Danites sought for themselves an inheritance to dwell in; for to that day [their lot] had not fallen to them for inheritance
2 among the tribes of Israel. And the children of Dan sent of their family five men of their whole number, men of valour, from Zoreah and from Eshtaol, to spy out the land, and to examine it; and they said to them, Go, examine the land. And they came to the hill-country of Ephraim, to the house 3 of Micah, and lodged there. When they were by the house of Micah, they knew the voice of the young man, the Levite; and they turned in thither, and said to him, Who brought thee hither? and what 4 doest thou in this [place]? and what hast thou here? And he said to them, Thus and thus has Micah done to me; and he has hired me, and I am his priest.
5 And they said to him, Inquire, we pray thee, of God, that we may know whether our way on which 6 we go shall be prosperous. And the priest said to them, Go in peace: before Jehovah is your way on which ye go.
7 And the five men departed, and came to Laish; and they saw the people that were therein, dwelling securely, after the manner of the Zidonians, quiet and secure; and no one was in the land who possessed authority, that might put [them] to shame in anything; and they were far from the Zidonians, and had nothing to do with [any] 8 man.—And they came to their brethren at Zoreah and Eshtaol. And their brethren said to them, 9 What [say] ye? And they said, Arise, and let us go up against them; for we have seen the land, and behold, it is very good; and ye are still? Be not slothful to go, to enter to take possession of 10 the land. When ye go in, ye shall come to a people secure, and the land is spacious in every direction; for God has given it into your hands; [it is] a place where there is no want of anything that is on the earth.
11 And there went from thence of the family of the Danites, out of Zoreah and out of Eshtaol, six hundred men girded with weapons 12 of war. And they went up and encamped in Kirjath-jearim, in Judah; therefore they call that place Mahaneh-Dan[n] to this day; behold, it is behind Kirjath-jearim.
13 And they passed thence to mount Ephraim, and came to the house 14 of Micah. Then the five men that had gone to spy out the country of Laish spoke and said to their brethren, Do ye know that there is in these houses an ephod, and teraphim, and a graven image, and a molten image? And now ye 15 know what to do. And they turned thither, and came to the house of the young man the Levite, the house of Micah, and inquired 16 after his welfare.[o] And the six hundred men of the children of Dan, girded with their weapons of war, stood at the entrance of the 17 gate. And the five men that had gone to spy out the land went up, entered in thither, [and] took the graven image, and the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image; and the priest stood at the entrance of the gate with the six hundred men that were girded 18 with weapons of war. And these came into Micah's house, and took the carved image, the ephod, and the teraphim, and the molten image. And the priest said to 19 them, What do ye? And they said to him, Hold thy peace, lay thy hand upon thy mouth, and go with us, and be to us a father and a priest. Is it better for thee to be a priest for the house of one man, or to be priest for a tribe 20 and a family in Israel? Then the priest's heart was glad, and he took the ephod, and the teraphim, and the graven image, and went in the midst of the people.

21 And they turned and departed, and put the little ones and the cattle and the baggage[p] before 22 them. They were already far from the house of Micah, when the men that were in the houses near to Micah's house were gathered together, and overtook the children 23 of Dan. And they cried to the children of Dan. And they turned their faces, and said to Micah, What aileth thee, that thou comest 24 with such a company? And he said, Ye have taken away my gods which I made, and the priest, and ye are gone away; and what have I more? and what is this that ye 25 say to me, What aileth thee? And the children of Dan said to him, Let not thy voice be heard among us, lest men of exasperated spirit run upon you, and thou lose thy life and the lives of thy household.
26 And the children of Dan went their way; and Micah saw that they were too strong for him, and he turned and went back to his 27 house. And they took that which Micah had made, and the priest that he had had, and came upon Laish, upon a people quiet and secure; and they smote them with the edge of the sword, and burned 28 the city with fire. And there was no deliverer, for it was far from Zidon, and they had nothing to do with [any] man; and it [lay] in the valley that is by Beth-rehob. And they built the city and dwelt 29 therein. And they called the name of the city Dan, after the name of Dan their father, who was born to Israel; howbeit Laish was the name of the city at the first.
30 And the children of Dan set up the graven image; and Jehonathan, the son of Gershom, the son of Moses,[q] he and his sons were priests to the tribe of Dan until the day of the captivity of the 31 land. And they set up for themselves Micah's graven image, which he had made, all the time that the house of God was in Shiloh.

19 And it came to pass in those days, when there was no king in Israel, that a certain Levite, sojourning on the further side of mount Ephraim, took him a concubine out of Bethlehem-Judah.
2 And his concubine played the whore against him, and went away from him to her father's house to Bethlehem-Judah, and was there 3 some time,—four months.[r] And her husband rose up and went after her, to speak kindly to her,[s] to bring her again; and his servant[t] was with him, and a couple of asses. And she brought him into her father's house; and when the father of the damsel saw him 4 he rejoiced to meet him. And his father-in-law, the damsel's father, retained him, and he abode with him three days; and they ate and 5 drank, and lodged there. And it came to pass on the fourth day, that they arose early in the morning, and he rose up to depart; and the damsel's father said to his son-in-law, Refresh thy heart with a morsel of bread, and afterwards 6 ye may go your way. And they sat down, and ate and drank, both of them together. And the damsel's father said to the man, Be content, I pray thee, and pass the night, and let thy heart be glad.
7 And the man rose up to depart, but his father-in-law urged him, 8 and he lodged there again. And he arose early in the morning on the fifth day to depart; but the damsel's father said, Refresh thy heart, I pray thee. And they lingered until the afternoon,[u] and 9 they did eat both of them. And the man rose up to depart, he, and his concubine, and his servant; and his father-in-law, the damsel's father, said to him, Behold now, the day draws toward evening—I pray you stay all night; behold, the day is declining, lodge here, and let thy heart be merry; and to-morrow get you early on your way, that thou mayest go 10 to thy tent. But the man would not tarry the night; and he rose up and departed, and came opposite to Jebus, that is, Jerusalem; and there were with him two asses saddled, and his concubine was with him.

11 They were near Jebus, and the day was far spent; and the servant said to his master, Come, I pray thee, and let us turn aside into this city of the Jebusites, and 12 lodge in it. But his master said to him, We will not turn aside into the city of a stranger, which is not of the children of Israel, but 13 we will pass on to Gibeah. And he said to his servant, Come and let us draw near to one of these places, and lodge in Gibeah, or in 14 Ramah. And they passed on and went their way; and the sun went down upon them [when they were] by Gibeah, which belongs to Ben-15 jamin. And they turned aside thither, to go in, to lodge in Gibeah. And he went in, and sat down in the open place[v] of the city; and there was no one that received him into his house to pass the night.
16 And behold, there came an old man from his work out of the field at even; and the man was of mount Ephraim, and he sojourned in Gibeah; but the men of the 17 place were Benjaminites. And he lifted up his eyes, and saw the wayfaring man in the open place of the city; and the old man said, Whither goest thou? and whence 18 comest thou? And he said to him, We are travelling from Bethlehem-Judah towards the further side of mount Ephraim; from thence am I; and I went to Bethlehem-Judah, and I have to do with[w] the house of Jehovah; and there is no man that receives me into his house.
19 And we have both straw and provender for our asses; and I have bread and wine also for me, and for thy handmaid, and for the young man with thy servants:
20 there is no lack of anything. Then the old man said, Peace be with thee; only let all thy wants lie on me; but lodge not in the street.
21 And he brought him into his house, and gave the asses provender; and they washed their feet, and ate and drank.
22 They were making their hearts merry, when behold, the men of the city, sons of Belial,[x] surrounded the house, beating at the door; and they spoke to the master of the house, the old man, saying, Bring forth the man that came into thy house, that we may know 23 him. And the man, the master of the house, went out to them, and said to them, No, my brethren, I pray you, do not wickedly; seeing that this man is come into my house, do not this villany.
24 Behold, my daughter, who is a virgin, and his concubine; let me bring them out, and humble ye them, and do to them as is good in your sight; but to this man do 25 not so vile a thing. But the men would not hearken to him; and the man took his concubine, and brought her forth to them; and they knew her, and abused her all the night until the morning; and let her go when the morning-26 dawn arose. And the woman came at the dawning of the day, and fell down at the entrance of the man's house where her lord was, till it 27 was light. And her lord rose up in the morning, and opened the door of the house, and went out to go his way, and behold, there lay the woman his concubine at the entrance of the house, and her hands 28 were upon the threshold. And he said to her, Up, and let us go; but no one answered. And he took her upon the ass; and the man rose up, and went to his place.
29 And when he was come into his house, he took the knife, and laid hold on his concubine, and divided her, according to her bones, into twelve pieces, and sent her into 30 all the borders of Israel. And it came to pass that every one that saw it said, There was no such deed done nor seen from the day that the children of Israel came out of Egypt to this day. Think it over, advise, and speak.

20 And all the children of Israel went forth, and the assembly gathered together as one man, from Dan to Beer-sheba, and the land of Gilead, unto Jehovah at 2 Mizpah.[y] And the heads[z] of all the people, of all the tribes of Israel, presented themselves in the congregation of the people of God, four hundred thousand footmen 3 that drew sword. And the children of Benjamin heard that the children of Israel had gone up to Mizpah. And the children of Israel said, Tell [us], how was this 4 wickedness? Then the Levite, the husband of the woman that was murdered, answered and said, I came to Gibeah that [belongs] to Benjamin, I and my con-

[v] Or 'broadway.' [w] Lit. 'walk with:' see Keil or Gesenius (Thes.). [x] i.e. 'of iniquity.' It is literally 'men, sons of Belial,' according to a usual Hebrew idiom: see ver. 23. [y] Called Mizpeh in Josh. xviii. 26. [z] Lit. 'corners.'

5 cubine, to lodge. And the citizens of Gibeah rose against me, and surrounded the house because of me, by night; they thought to slay me, and my concubine have they humbled so that she died.
6 Then I took my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout the country of the inheritance of Israel; for they have committed lewdness and villany 7 in Israel. Behold, all ye, children of Israel, deliberate and give here [your] counsel.
8 And all the people rose up as one man, saying, We will not any 9 one go to his tent, neither will we any one turn into his house. But now this is the thing which we will do to Gibeah: [we go] by lot 10 against it;[a] and we will take ten men of a hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred of a thousand, and a thousand of ten thousand, to fetch victuals for the people, that they may do, when they come to Gibeah[b] of Benjamin, according to all the villany that they have wrought in Israel.
11 And all the men of Israel were gathered against the city, knit together as one man.
12 And the tribes of Israel sent men to all the families[c] of Benjamin, saying, What wickedness is this that has been done among 13 you? And now give up the men, the sons of Belial, who are in Gibeah, that we may put them to death, and put away evil from Israel. But [the children of[d]] Benjamin would not hearken to the voice of their brethren the 14 children of Israel. And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together out of the cities of Gibeah, to go out to battle 15 against the children of Israel. And the children of Benjamin were numbered at that time out of the cities, twenty-six thousand men that drew sword, besides the inhabitants of Gibeah, who were numbered seven hundred chosen 16 men. Among all this people there were seven hundred chosen men left-handed; all these slang stones at a hair [breadth], and missed not.
17 And the men of Israel, besides Benjamin, were numbered four hundred thousand men that drew sword: all these were men of war.
18 And the children of Israel arose and went up to Bethel,[e] and inquired of God, and said, Which of us shall go up first to the battle against the children of Benjamin? And Jehovah said, Judah first.
19 And the children of Israel rose up in the morning and encamped 20 against Gibeah. And the men of Israel went out to battle against Benjamin; and the men of Israel put themselves in array to fight 21 against them at Gibeah. And the children of Benjamin went forth out of Gibeah, and destroyed to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty-two thousand men.
22 And the people, the men of Israel, took courage, and set the battle again in array in the place where they put themselves in array the 23 first day. And the children of Israel went up and wept before Jehovah until even, and inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go up again to battle against the children of Benjamin my brother? And Jehovah said, Go up against him.
24 And the children of Israel came near against the children of Ben-25 jamin the second day. And Benjamin went forth against them out of Gibeah the second day, and again destroyed to the ground of the children of Israel eighteen thousand men: all these drew the 26 sword. Then all the children of Israel, and all the people, went up and came to Bethel, and wept, and abode there before Jehovah, and fasted that day until even, and offered up burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before Jehovah.
27 And the children of Israel inquired of Jehovah (and the ark of the covenant of God was there in 28 those days, and Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, stood before it in those days), saying, Shall I yet again go out to battle against the children of Benjamin

[a] Or 'we will deal with it according as the lot shall decide.' [b] Heb. Geba: as it is in ver. 33; but in the second place probably a distinct city. [c] Lit. 'tribes.' [d] The Chetiv omits. [e] Others translate the word, 'to the house of God' (El): so in ver. 26.

my brother, or shall I cease? And Jehovah said, Go up; for to-29 morrow I will give them into thy hand.
And Israel set liers in wait 30 against Gibeah, round about. And the children of Israel went up against the children of Benjamin on the third day, and put themselves in array against Gibeah, as 31 at the other times. And the children of Benjamin went out against the people, and were drawn away from the city, and began to smite of the people, slaying as at the former times, in the highways, of which one leads to Bethel and the other to Gibeah in f the field, about 32 thirty men of Israel. And the children of Benjamin said, They are smitten down before us, as at the first. And the children of Israel said, Let us flee, that we may draw them from the city to 33 the highways. And all the men of Israel rose up out of their place, and put themselves in array at Baal-Tamar; and the ambush of Israel rushed forth out of their place, out of the meadows of Geba.
34 And there came from opposite Gibeah ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and the battle was severe; but they knew not that disaster was coming upon 35 them. And Jehovah smote Benjamin before Israel; and the children of Israel destroyed of the Benjamites that day twenty-five thousand, one hundred men: all 36 these drew the sword. And the children of Benjamin saw that they were smitten.—And the men of Israel gave place to Benjamin, because they trusted to the ambush that they had set against 37 Gibeah. And the ambush hasted, and fell upon Gibeah; and the ambush drew along, and smote the whole city with the edge of the 38 sword. Now there was an appointed sign between the men of Israel and the ambush, that they should make a thick column of 39 smoke rise up out of the city. And when the men of Israel turned back in the battle, Benjamin began to smite, slaying of the men of Israel about thirty men; for they said, Surely they are quite routed before us as in the first battle.
40 And when the burning began to rise up out of the city as a pillar of smoke, Benjamin looked behind, and behold, the whole city ascended [in smoke] to the hea-41 vens. Then the men of Israel turned back, and the men of Benjamin were amazed, for they saw that disaster was come upon them.
42 And they turned before the men of Israel to the way of the wilderness; but the battle overtook them; and those who came out of the cities destroyed them in their 43 midst. They encompassed the Benjaminites, chased them, trode them down at the resting-place over against Gibeah toward the 44 sun-rising. And there fell of Benjamin eighteen thousand men: all 45 these, men of valour. And they turned and fled towards the wilderness to the cliff of Rimmon, and they gleaned of them in the highways five thousand men; and pursued hard after them to Gidom, and slew two thousand men of 46 them. So that all who fell that day of Benjamin were twenty-five thousand men that drew the sword: all these, men of valour.
47 And six hundred men turned and fled to the wilderness to the cliff of Rimmon, and abode at the cliff 48 of Rimmon four months. And the men of Israel turned again upon the children of Benjamin, and smote them with the edge of the sword, as well the men of [every] city as the cattle, g and all that was found; even all the cities that were found did they set on fire.

21 Now the men of Israel had sworn in Mizpah, saying, There shall not any of us give his daughter to the Benjaminites as wife.
2 And the people came to Bethel, and abode there till even before God, and lifted up their voices and 3 wept bitterly, and said, Jehovah, God of Israel, why is it come to pass in Israel, that there should be this day one tribe lacking in 4 Israel? And it came to pass on the morrow, that the people rose early, and built there an altar, and offered up burnt-offerings and 5 peace-offerings. And the children of Israel said, Who is there among all the tribes of Israel that came not up with the congregation to Jehovah? For they had [made] a great oath h concerning him that came not up to Jehovah to Mizpah, saying, He shall certainly be put to death.
6 And the children of Israel repented them for Benjamin their brother, and said, To-day is one 7 tribe extirpated from Israel. What shall we do for wives for them that remain? since we have sworn by Jehovah that we will not give them of our daughters for wives.

8 And they said, What one is there of the tribes of Israel that came not up to Mizpah to Jehovah?
And behold, there came none to the camp from Jabesh-Gilead, to 9 the congregation; for the people were numbered, and behold, there were none of the inhabitants of 10 Jabesh-Gilead there. And the assembly sent thither twelve thousand men of the most valiant and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead with the edge of the sword, and the women and the children.
11 And this is the thing which ye shall do: ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that 12 hath lain with man. And they found among the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead four hundred young women that were virgins, who had known no man by lying with any male, and they brought them to the camp, to Shiloh, which is in 13 the land of Canaan. And the whole assembly sent to speak to the children of Benjamin that were at the cliff of Rimmon, and to pro-14 claim peace to them. And Benjamin came again at that time; and they gave them the wives whom they had saved alive of the women of Jabesh-Gilead; but even so they found not enough for them.
15 And the people repented them for Benjamin, because Jehovah had made a breach in the tribes 16 of Israel. And the elders of the assembly said, What shall we do for wives for them that remain?
for the women have been destroyed 17 out of Benjamin. And they said, There must be a possession for those of Benjamin that have escaped, that a tribe be not blotted 18 out of Israel. But we cannot give them wives of our daughters, for the children of Israel have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth 19 a wife to the Benjaminites! And they said, Behold, there is a feast of Jehovah from year to year in Shiloh, which is on the north side of Bethel, toward the sun-rising of the highway that goes up from Bethel to Shechem, and on the 20 south of Lebonah. And they commanded the sons of Benjamin, saying, Go and lie in wait in the 21 vineyards; and see, and behold, if the daughters of Shiloh come out to dance in the dances, then come out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shiloh, and go to 22 the land of Benjamin. And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come to complain to us, that we will say to them, Gratify us with them, because we did not take each man his wife in the war; for ye did not give them to them, that ye should now be 23 guilty. And the children of Benjamin did so, and took wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught; and they went and returned to their inheritance, and built the 24 cities, and dwelt in them. And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.
25 In those days there was no king in Israel; every man did what was right in his own eyes.

RUTH

1 And it came to pass in the days when the judges ruled,[a] that there was a famine in the land.
And a certain man went from Bethlehem Judah, to sojourn in the country[b] of Moab, he, and his 2 wife, and his two sons. And the name of the man was Elimelech,[c] and the name of his wife Naomi,[d] and the name of his two sons Mahlon and Chilion, Ephrathites of Bethlehem-Judah. And they came into the country of Moab, and continued there.
3 And Elimelech Naomi's husband died; and she was left, and her 4 two sons. And they took them Moabitish wives; the name of the one was Orpah, and the name of the second Ruth: and they abode there 5 about ten years. And Mahlon and Chilion died also, both of them; and [a] Lit. 'judged.' [b] Lit. 'fields,' as in ver. 6, and elsewhere. [c] Meaning, 'Whose God is king.' [d] My pleasantness.

the woman was left of her two children and of her husband.
6 And she arose, she and her daughters-in-law, and returned from the fields of Moab; for she had heard in the fields of Moab how that Jehovah had visited his 7 people to give them bread. Wherefore she went forth out of the place where she had been, and her two daughters-in-law with her; and they went on the way to return to the land of Judah.
8 And Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, Go, return each to her mother's house. Jehovah deal kindly with you, as ye have dealt 9 with the dead and with me. Jehovah grant you that ye may find rest, each in the house of her husband. And she kissed them; and they lifted up their voice and 10 wept. And they said to her, We will certainly return with thee to 11 thy people. And Naomi said, Return, my daughters: why will ye go with me? Are there yet sons in my womb, that they could be 12 your husbands? Return, my daughters, go; for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say, I have hope, should I even have a husband to-night, and 13 should I also bear sons, would ye wait on that account till they were grown? Would ye stay on that account from having husbands? No, my daughters, for I am in much more bitterness than you; for the hand of Jehovah is gone 14 out against me. And they lifted up their voice and wept again. And Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clave to her.
15 And she said, Behold, thy sister-in-law is gone back to her people and to her gods: return after thy 16 sister-in-law. And Ruth said, Do not intreat me to leave thee, to return from [following] after thee; for whither thou goest I will go, and where thou lodgest I will lodge: thy people shall be my people, and thy God my God; 17 where thou diest will I die, and there will I be buried. Jehovah do so to me, and more also, if aught 18 but death part me and thee! And when she saw that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, she 19 left off speaking to her. And they two went until they came to Bethlehem. And it came to pass, when they came to Bethlehem, that all the city was moved about them, and the [women] said, Is 20 this Naomi? And she said to them, Call me not Naomi—call me Mara; [c] for the Almighty has 21 dealt very bitterly with me. I went out full, and Jehovah has brought me home again empty. Why do ye call me Naomi, seeing Jehovah has brought me low, and the Almighty has afflicted me?
22 So Naomi returned, and Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, with her, who returned out of the fields of Moab; and they came to Bethlehem in the beginning of the barley-harvest.

2 And Naomi had a relation [f] of her husband's, a mighty man of wealth, of the family of Elimelech, 2 and his name was Boaz. [g] And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, Let me, I pray, go to the field and glean among the ears of corn after [him] in whose sight I shall find favour. And she said to her, Go, 3 my daughter. And she went; and she came and gleaned in the fields after the reapers; and she chanced to light on an allotment [h] of Boaz, who was of the family of Elimelech.
4 And behold, Boaz came from Bethlehem; and he said to the reapers, Jehovah be with you! And they said to him, Jehovah 5 bless thee! And Boaz said to his servant [i] that was set over the reapers, Whose maiden is this?
6 And the servant that was set over the reapers answered and said, It is the Moabitish maiden who came back with Naomi out of the fields 7 of Moab; and she said, I pray you, let me glean and gather among the sheaves after the reapers. And she came, and has continued from the morning until now: her sitting in the house has been little as yet.
8 And Boaz said to Ruth, Hearest thou not, my daughter? Go not to glean in another field, neither go from here, but keep here with 9 my maidens. Let thine eyes be on the field which is being reaped, and go thou after them; have I not charged the young men not to touch thee? And when thou art athirst, go to the vessels and drink of what the young men draw.
10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, and said to him, Why have I found favour in thine eyes, that thou shouldest regard me, seeing I am 11 a foreigner? [k] And Boaz answered and said to her, It has fully been shewn me, all that thou hast done to thy mother-in-law since the death of thy husband; and how thou hast left thy father and thy mother, and the land of thy nativity, and art come to a people that thou hast not known heretofore.

12 Jehovah recompense thy work, and let thy reward be full from Jehovah the God of Israel, under whose wings thou art come to take 13 refuge. And she said, Let me find favour in thine eyes, my lord; for that thou hast comforted me, and for that thou hast spoken kindly to [l] thy handmaid, [m] though I am not like one of thy hand-14 maidens. And Boaz said to her at mealtime, Come hither and eat of the bread, and dip thy morsel in the vinegar. And she sat beside the reapers; and he reached her parched corn, and she ate and was 15 sufficed, and reserved [some]. And when she rose up to glean, Boaz commanded his young men, saying, Let her glean even among the sheaves, and ye shall not reproach 16 her. And ye shall also sometimes draw out [n] for her [some ears] out of the handfuls, [o] and leave them that she may glean, and rebuke her not.
17 And she gleaned in the field until even, and beat out what she had gleaned; and it was about an 18 ephah of barley. And she took [it] up, and came into the city, and her mother-in-law saw what she had gleaned; and she brought forth and gave to her that which she had reserved after she was 19 sufficed. And her mother-in-law said to her, Where hast thou gleaned to-day? and where hast thou wrought? Blessed be he that did regard thee! And she told her mother-in-law with whom she had wrought, and said, The man's name with whom I wrought to-day 20 is Boaz. And Naomi said to her daughter-in-law, Blessed be he of Jehovah, who has not left off his kindness to the living and to the dead! And Naomi said to her, The man is near of kin to us, one of those who have the right of our 21 redemption. [p] And Ruth the Moabitess said, He said to me also, Thou shalt keep with my young men until they have ended all my 22 harvest. And Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, It is good, my daughter, that thou go out with his maidens, that they meet 23 thee not in any other field. So she kept with the maidens of Boaz to glean, until the end of the barley-harvest and of the wheat-harvest. And she dwelt with her mother-in-law.

3 And Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, My daughter, shall I not seek rest for thee, that it may 2 be well with thee? And now, is not Boaz of our kindred, with whose maidens thou wast? Behold, he is winnowing barley in the 3 threshing-floor to-night. Wash [q] thyself therefore, and anoint thyself, and put thy raiment upon thee, and go down to the floor; make not thyself known to the man, until he shall have done 4 eating and drinking. And it shall be, when he lies down, that thou shalt mark the place where he shall have lain down, and thou shalt go in, and uncover his feet, and lay thyself down; and he will shew thee what thou shalt do.
5 And she said to her, All that thou sayest [r] will I do.
6 And she went down to the floor, and did according to all that her mother-in-law had bidden her.
7 And Boaz ate and drank, and his heart was merry, and he went to lie down at the end of the heap of corn. Then she went softly, and uncovered his feet, and laid her-8 self down. And it came to pass at midnight, that the man was startled, and turned himself; and behold, a woman lay at his feet.
9 And he said, Who art thou? And she answered, I am Ruth, thy handmaid: spread thy skirt [s] over thy handmaid; for thou hast the 10 right of redemption. And he said, Blessed be thou of Jehovah, my daughter! Thou hast shewn more kindness at the end than at the first, inasmuch as thou followedst not young men, whether poor or 11 rich. And now, my daughter, fear not: all that thou sayest will I do to thee; for all the gate of my people knows that thou art a 12 woman of worth. And now, truly I am one that has the right of redemption, yet there is one that has the right of redemption who is 13 nearer than I. Stay over to-night, and it shall be in the morning, if he will redeem thee, well—let him redeem; but if he like not to redeem thee, then will I redeem thee, [as] Jehovah liveth. Lie down until the morning.

[l] Lit. 'spoken to the heart of.' [m] Or 'bondwoman.' [n] According to others, 'let fall.' [o] Or 'sheaves;' the word is only found in this place. [p] See Lev. xxv. 25. [q] Or 'bathe,' as elsewhere. [r] The Keri adds 'to me.' [s] Lit. 'wing.'

14 And she lay at his feet until the morning; and she rose up before one could know another. And he said, Let it not be known that a woman came into the threshing-15 floor. And he said, Bring the cloak that thou hast upon thee, and hold it. And she held it, and he measured six [measures] of barley, and laid [it] on her; and 16 he[t] went into the city. And she came to her mother-in-law; and she said, Who art thou, my daughter? And she told her all that the man had done to her.
17 And she said, These six [measures] of barley gave he me; for he said to me, Go not empty to thy 18 mother-in-law. Then she said, Be still, my daughter, until thou know how the matter will fall; for the man will not rest until he have completed the matter this day.

4 And Boaz went up to the gate, and sat down there. And behold, he that had the right of redemption, of whom Boaz had spoken, came by. And he said, Thou, such an one, turn aside, sit down here. And he turned aside and sat down.
2 And he took ten men of the elders of the city, and said, Sit down 3 here. And they sat down. And he said to him that had the right of redemption: Naomi, who is come back out of the country of Moab, sells the allotment that was 4 our brother Elimelech's. And I thought[u] I would apprise thee[v] of it and say, Buy [it] in the presence of the inhabitants,[w] and in the presence of the elders of my people. If thou wilt redeem [it], redeem; but if thou wilt not redeem, tell me, that I may know; for there is none to redeem besides thee; and I am after thee. And he said, 5 I will redeem [it]. And Boaz said, On the day thou buyest the field of the hand of Naomi, thou must buy [it] also of Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of the dead, to raise up the name of the dead upon his 6 inheritance. And he that had the right of redemption said, I cannot redeem [it] for myself, lest I mar mine own inheritance. Redeem thou for thyself what I should redeem, for I cannot redeem [it].
7 Now this [was the custom] in former time in Israel concerning redemption and concerning exchange, to confirm the whole matter: a man drew off his sandal, and gave it to his neighbour, and this was the [mode of] attestation 8 in Israel. And he that had the right of redemption said to Boaz, Buy for thyself; and he drew off 9 his sandal. And Boaz said to the elders and all the people, Ye are witnesses this day, that I have bought all that was Elimelech's, and all that was Chilion's and Mahlon's, of the hand of Naomi;
10 moreover Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife, to raise up the name of the dead upon his inheritance, that the name of the dead be not cut off from among his brethren and from the gate of his place:
11 ye are witnesses this day. And all the people that were in the gate and the elders said, [We are] witnesses. Jehovah make the woman that cometh into thy house like Rachel and like Leah, which two did build the house of Israel; and acquire power in Ephratah, and make thyself a name in 12 Bethlehem; and let thy house become like the house of Pherez, whom Tamar bore to Judah, of the seed which Jehovah shall give thee of this young woman.
13 And Boaz took Ruth, and she became his wife; and he went in unto her, and Jehovah gave her conception, and she bore a son.
14 And the women said to Naomi, Blessed be Jehovah who hath not left thee this day without one that has the right of redemption,[x] and may his name be famous in Israel!
15 And he shall be to thee a restorer of thy life, and a nourisher of thine old age; for thy daughter-in-law who loves thee, who is better to thee than seven sons, has 16 borne him. And Naomi took the child, and laid it in her bosom, and 17 became nurse to it. And the women [her] neighbours gave it a name, saying, There is a son born to Naomi. And they called his name Obed.[y] He is the father of Jesse, the father of David.
18 Now these are the generations of 19 Pherez. Pherez begot Hezron, and 20 Hezron begot Ram, and Ram begot Amminadab, and Amminadab be-21 got Nahshon and Nahshon begot 22 Salma, and Salmon begot Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed, and Obed begot Jesse, and Jesse begot David.

FIRST BOOK OF SAMUEL

1 And there was a certain man of Ramathaim-zophim, of mount Ephraim, and his name was Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son 2 of Zuph, an Ephrathite.[a] And he had two wives: the name of the one was Hannah,[b] and the name of the other Peninnah; and Peninnah had children, but Hannah had 3 no children. And this man went up out of his city from year to year to worship and to sacrifice to Jehovah of hosts in Shiloh. And the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, the priests of Jehovah, 4 were there. And it came to pass on the day that Elkanah sacrificed, he gave to Peninnah his wife and to all her sons and her daughters 5 portions; but to Hannah he used to give a double portion, for he loved Hannah; but Jehovah had 6 shut up her womb. And her adversary[c] provoked her much also, to make her fret, because Jehovah 7 had shut up her womb. And [as] he did so year by year, as often as she went up to the house of Jehovah, she provoked her thus; and 8 she wept and did not eat. And Elkanah her husband said to her, Hannah, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart grieved? Am not I better to thee than ten sons?
9 And Hannah rose up after they had eaten in Shiloh, and after they had drunk; (now Eli the priest sat upon the seat by the doorpost 10 of the temple of Jehovah;) and she was in bitterness of soul, and prayed to Jehovah, and wept 11 much. And she vowed a vow, and said, O Jehovah of hosts, if thou wilt indeed look on the affliction of thy handmaid, and remember me, and not forget thy handmaid, but wilt give unto thy handmaid a man child, then I will give him to Jehovah all the days of his life, and there shall no razor come upon his head.
12 And it came to pass as she continued praying before Jehovah, 13 that Eli marked her mouth. Now Hannah spoke in her heart; only her lips moved, but her voice was not heard; and Eli thought she 14 was drunken. And Eli said to her, How long wilt thou be drunken? put away thy wine from thee.
15 And Hannah answered and said, No, my lord, I am a woman of a sorrowful spirit: I have drunk neither wine nor strong drink, but have poured out my soul before 16 Jehovah. Take not thy handmaid for a daughter of Belial:[d] for out of the abundance of my grief and provocation have I spoken hither-17 to. And Eli answered and said, Go in peace; and the God of Israel grant thee thy petition which thou 18 hast asked of him. And she said, Let thy bondwoman find grace in thy sight. And the woman went her way, and did eat, and her countenance was no more [as before].
19 And they rose up early in the morning and worshipped before Jehovah, and returned and came to their house at Ramah. And Elkanah knew Hannah his wife; and Jehovah remembered her.
20 And it came to pass when the time was come about after Hannah had conceived, that she bore a son, and called his name Samuel,[e] [saying,] Because I have asked him of Jeho-21 vah. And Elkanah her husband, and all his house, went up to sacrifice to Jehovah the yearly sacrifice 22 and his vow. But Hannah did not go up, for she said to her husband, [I will wait] until the child is weaned; then will I bring him, that he may appear before Jehovah, and there abide for ever.
23 And Elkanah her husband said to her, Do what is good in thy sight: abide until thou hast weaned him; only, may Jehovah fulfil his word. And the woman abode, and gave her son suck until she weaned 24 him. And she took him up with her when she had weaned him, with three bullocks, and one ephah of flour, and a flask of wine, and brought him to the house of Jehovah to Shiloh; and the boy was 25 young. And they slaughtered the bullock, and brought the boy to

[a] Or 'Ephraimite,' the Levites being considered as belonging to the tribe in which they lived: cf. Judges xvii. 7. [b] Meaning, 'Grace.' [c] Or 'rival.' [d] See on Deut. xiii. 13. [e] Meaning, 'Heard of God,' or 'Asked of God.'

26 Eli. And she said, Oh my lord, [as] thy soul liveth, my lord, I am the woman that stood by thee 27 here to pray to Jehovah. For this boy I prayed; and Jehovah has granted me my petition which I 28 asked of him. And also I have lent him to Jehovah: all the days that he lives, he is lent to Jehovah.
And he worshipped Jehovah there.

2 And Hannah prayed, and said,
My heart exulteth in Jehovah,
My horn is lifted up in[f] Jehovah;
My mouth is opened wide over mine enemies;
For I rejoice in thy salvation.
2 There is none holy as Jehovah, for there is none beside thee, Neither is there any rock like our God.
3 Do not multiply your words of pride, Let not vain-glory come out of your mouth;
For Jehovah is a God[g] of knowledge,[h]
And by him[i] actions are weighed.
4 The bow of the mighty is broken,
And they that stumbled are girded with strength.
5 They that were full have hired themselves out for bread;
And the hungry are [so] no more:
Even the barren beareth seven,
And she that hath many children is waxed feeble.
6 Jehovah killeth, and maketh alive;
He bringeth down to Sheol,[k] and bringeth up.
7 Jehovah maketh poor, and maketh rich,
He bringeth low, also he lifteth up:
8 He raiseth up the poor out of the dust;
From the dung-hill he lifteth up the needy,
To set [him] among nobles;
And he maketh them inherit a throne of glory;
For the pillars of the earth are Jehovah's,
And he hath set the world upon them.
9 He keepeth the feet of his saints[l]
But the wicked are silenced in darkness;
For by strength shall no man prevail.[m] 10 They that strive with Jehovah shall be broken to pieces;
In the heavens will he thunder upon them.
Jehovah will judge the ends of the earth;
And he will give strength unto his king,
And exalt the horn of his anointed.
11 And Elkanah went to Ramah to his house. And the boy ministered to Jehovah in the presence of Eli the priest.
12 Now the sons of Eli were sons of Belial; they knew not Jehovah.
13 And the priest's custom with the people was, when any man sacrificed a sacrifice, the priest's servant[n] came, when the flesh was cooked, with a flesh-hook of three 14 prongs in his hand; and he struck it into the pan, or kettle, or cauldron, or pot; the priest took of it all that the flesh-hook brought up. So they did in Shiloh to all the 15 Israelites that came there. Even before they burned[o] the fat, the priest's servant came, and said to the man that sacrificed, Give flesh to roast for the priest, and he will not accept sodden flesh of thee, 16 but raw. If the man said to him, They will immediately burn[o] the fat entire, then take as thy soul desires; he would say [to him], No, but thou shalt give [it] now; and if not, I will take [it] by force.
17 And the sin of the young men was very great before Jehovah, for men despised the offering[p] of Jehovah.
18 And Samuel ministered before Jehovah, a boy girded with a 19 linen ephod. And his mother made him a little coat, and brought it to him from year to year when she came up with her husband to 20 sacrifice the yearly sacrifice. And Eli blessed Elkanah and his wife, and said, Jehovah give thee seed of this woman for the loan which is lent to Jehovah. And they 21 went to their own home. So Jehovah visited Hannah, and she conceived, and bore three sons and two daughters. And the boy Samuel grew before Jehovah.
22 And Eli was very old, and heard all that his sons were doing to all Israel, and that they lay with the women that served[q] at the en-23 trance of the tent of meeting. And he said to them, Why do ye such things? for I hear of your evil 24 deeds from all this people. No, my sons, for it is no good report that I hear: ye make Jehovah's 25 people transgress. If one man sin against another, God will judge[r] him; but if a man sin against Jehovah, who shall intreat for him? But they hearkened not to the voice of their father, for Jehovah was minded to slay them.

26 And the boy Samuel grew on, and was in favour both with Jehovah and also with men.
27 And there came a man of God to Eli and said to him, Thus saith Jehovah: Did I plainly reveal myself to the house of thy father when they were in Egypt, in[s]
28 Pharaoh's house, and choose him out of all the tribes of Israel, to be my priest, to offer upon[t] mine altar, to burn incense, to wear the ephod before me? and I gave unto the house of thy father all the offerings by fire of the children 29 of Israel. Wherefore do ye trample upon my sacrifice and upon mine oblation which I have commanded [in my] habitation? And thou honourest thy sons above me, to make yourselves fat with the primest of all the oblations of 30 Israel my people. Wherefore Jehovah the God of Israel saith,[v] I said indeed, Thy house and the house of thy father should walk before me for ever. But now Jehovah saith,[v] Be it far from me; for them that honour me I will honour, and they that despise me 31 shall be lightly esteemed. Behold, days come, that I will cut off thine arm, and the arm of thy father's house, that there shall not be an 32 old man in thy house. And thou shalt see an oppressor[w] [in my] habitation, amidst[x] all the good that shall be done to Israel; and there shall not be an old man in 33 thy house for ever.[y] And the man of thine [whom] I shall not cut off from mine altar, shall be to cause thine eyes to fail and to grieve thy soul; and all the increase of thy 34 house shall die in their vigour. And this shall be the sign to thee, which shall come upon thy two sons, upon Hophni and Phinehas: in one day they shall die, both of 35 them. And I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, [who] shall do according to what is in my heart and in my mind; and I will build him a sure house; and he shall walk before mine anointed 36 continually.[y] And it shall come to pass [that] every one that is left of thy house shall come to crouch to him for a small piece of silver and for a cake of bread, and shall say, Put me, I pray thee, into one of the priestly offices, that I may eat a morsel of bread.

3 And the boy Samuel ministered to Jehovah before Eli. And the word of Jehovah was rare in those days; a vision was not frequent.[z]
2 And it came to pass at that time, when Eli lay in his place (now his eyes began to grow dim, he 3 could not see), and the lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel lay in the temple of Jehovah where the ark of God was,
4 that Jehovah called to Samuel.
5 And he said, Here am I; and he ran to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I did not call: lie down again.
6 And he went and lay down. And Jehovah called again, Samuel! And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And he said, I did not call, my son: lie down again.
7 Now Samuel did not yet know Jehovah, neither had the word of Jehovah yet been revealed to him.
8 And Jehovah called again the third time, Samuel! And he arose and went to Eli, and said, Here am I; for thou calledst me. And Eli perceived that Jehovah was calling 9 the boy. And Eli said to Samuel, Go, lie down; and it shall be, if he call thee, that thou shalt say, Speak, Jehovah, for thy servant heareth. So Samuel went and lay down in his place.
10 And Jehovah came, and stood, and called as at the other times, Samuel, Samuel! And Samuel said, Speak, for thy servant hear-11 eth. And Jehovah said to Samuel, Behold, I do a thing in Israel, at which both the ears of every one 12 that heareth it shall tingle. In that day I will perform against Eli all that I have spoken concerning his house; I will begin and make 13 an end. For I have declared to him that I will judge his house for ever for the iniquity which he hath known: because his sons made themselves vile,[a] and he re-14 strained them not. And therefore I have sworn unto the house of [r] Here, 'judge' as an arbitrator. [s] Or 'of,' 'belonging to.' [t] Or 'go up to.' [v] יְהוָה: see on Gen. xxii. 16. [w] Or 'adversary.' [x] Or 'shalt see the distress of [my] habitation in.' [y] Lit. 'all the days.' [z] Or 'was not published;' lit. 'spread.' [a] Or 'accursed.'

Eli that the iniquity of Eli's house shall not be[b] expiated with sacrifice or oblation for ever.
15 And Samuel lay until the morning, and opened the doors of the house of Jehovah. And Samuel feared to declare the vision to Eli.
16 And Eli called Samuel, and said, Samuel, my son. And he said, 17 Here am I. And he said, What is the word that he has spoken to thee? I pray thee, keep it not back from me: God do so to thee, and more also, if thou keep back anything from me of all the word 18 that he spoke to thee. And Samuel told him all the words, and kept nothing back from him. And he said, It is Jehovah: let him do what is good in his sight.
19 And Samuel grew, and Jehovah was with him, and let none of his 20 words fall to the ground. And all Israel, from Dan even to Beersheba, knew that Samuel was established a prophet of Jehovah.
21 And Jehovah appeared again at Shiloh; for Jehovah revealed himself to Samuel at Shiloh by the word of Jehovah.

4 And what Samuel had said happened to all Israel.

And Israel went out against the Philistines to battle, and encamped beside Eben-ezer; [c] and the Philistines encamped in Aphek.
2 And the Philistines put themselves in array against Israel; and the battle spread,[d] and Israel was routed before the Philistines; and they slew in battle array in the field about four thousand men.
3 And the people came into the camp; and the elders of Israel said, Why has Jehovah smitten us to-day before the Philistines? Let us fetch ourselves the ark of the covenant of Jehovah out of Shiloh, that it may come among us, and save us out of the hand of 4 our enemies. So the people sent to Shiloh, and they brought from thence the ark of the covenant of Jehovah of hosts, who sitteth between[e] the cherubim; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, were there by the ark of the covenant of God.
5 And it came to pass when the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came into the camp, that all Israel shouted with a great shout, so that 6 the earth shook. And the Philistines heard the noise of the shout, and said, What is the noise of this great shout in the camp of the Hebrews? And they understood that the ark of Jehovah had come 7 into the camp. And the Philistines were afraid, for they said, God is come into the camp. And they said, Woe unto us! for there has not been such a thing heretofore.
8 Woe unto us! who shall deliver us out of the hand of these mighty gods? these are the gods that smote the Egyptians with every plague in the wilderness.
9 Shew yourselves valiant and be men, ye Philistines, that ye may not have to be servants to the Hebrews, as they have been servants to you: be men, and fight.
10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was routed, and they fled every man to his tent;[f] and there was a very great slaughter, and there fell of Israel thirty thousand 11 footmen. And the ark of God was taken; and the two sons of Eli, Hophni and Phinehas, died.
12 And there ran a man of Benjamin out of the battle, and came to Shiloh the same day, with his clothes rent and with earth upon 13 his head. And when he came, behold, Eli was sitting upon the[g] seat by the wayside watching; for his heart trembled for the ark of God. And the man came to tell it in the city, and all the city 14 cried out. And Eli heard the noise of the crying, and said, What is the noise of this tumult? And the man came hastily, and told 15 Eli. Now Eli was ninety-eight years old; and his eyes were set, 16 that he could not see. And the man said to Eli, I am he that came out of the battle, and I have fled to-day out of the battle. And he said, What has taken place, my 17 son? And the messenger answered and said, Israel has fled before the Philistines, and there has been also a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sons also, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, 18 and the ark of God is taken. And it came to pass, when he mentioned the ark of God, that he fell from off the seat backward by the side of the gate, and his neck broke, and he died; for the man was old, and heavy. And he had judged Israel forty years.

[b] Lit. 'if .... be;' form of Hebrew oath implying a strong negation: cf. Num. xiv. 23, 28. [c] Meaning 'stone of help:' cf. vii. 12. [d] Or 'became general.' [e] Or 'sitteth on;' and so in similar passages. [f] Or 'home:' so xiii. 2; xvii. 54. [g] Or 'his.'

19 And his daughter-in-law, Phinehas' wife, was with child, near to be delivered; and when she heard the tidings that the ark of God was taken, and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she bowed herself and travailed; 20 for her pains came upon her. And as she was dying, the women that stood by her said, Fear not; for thou hast borne a son. But she did not answer, neither did she 21 take it to heart. And she named the child Ichabod,[h] saying, The glory is departed from Israel; because the ark of God was taken, and because of her father-in-law 22 and her husband. And she said, The glory is departed from Israel, for the ark of God is taken.

5 And the Philistines took the ark of God, and brought it from 2 Eben-ezer to Ashdod. And the Philistines took the ark of God and brought it into the house of Dagon, 3 and set it by Dagon. And when they of Ashdod arose early the next day, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of Jehovah. And they took Dagon, and set him in 4 his place again. And when they arose early the next morning, behold, Dagon had fallen on his face to the ground before the ark of Jehovah; and the head of Dagon and both the palms of his hands were cut off upon the threshold; only the fish-stump[i] was left to 5 him. Therefore neither the priests of Dagon nor any that come into Dagon's house tread on the threshold of Dagon in Ashdod to this day.
6 And the hand of Jehovah was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he laid them waste, and smote them with hemorrhoids,—Ashdod 7 and its borders. And when the men of Ashdod saw that it was so, they said, The ark of the God of Israel shall not abide with us; for his hand is severe upon us, and 8 upon Dagon our god. And they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines unto them, and said, What shall we do with the ark of the God of Israel? And they said, Let the ark of the God of Israel be carried about to Gath.
And they carried the ark of the 9 God of Israel about [thither]. And it came to pass that, after they had carried it about, the hand of Jehovah was against the city with very great panic; and he smote the men of the city, both small and great, and hemorrhoids broke out upon them.
10 And they sent the ark of God to Ekron. And it came to pass, when the ark of God came to Ekron, that the Ekronites cried out, saying, They have brought about the ark of the God of Israel to us, to 11 kill us and our people. And they sent and gathered all the lords of the Philistines, and said, Send away the ark of the God of Israel, and let it go again to its own place, that it kill us not, and our people.
For there was deadly alarm throughout the city: the hand of 12 God was very heavy there; and the men that died not were smitten with the hemorrhoids; and the cry of the city went up to heaven.

6 And the ark of Jehovah was in the country[k] of the Philistines 2 seven months. And the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners, saying, What shall we do with the ark of Jehovah? tell us wherewith we shall send it to 3 its place. And they said, If ye send away the ark of the God of Israel, send it not empty; ye must at any rate return him a trespass-offering: then ye shall be healed, and it shall be known to you why his hand is not removed from you.
4 Then they said, What is the trespass-offering which we shall return to him? And they said, Five golden hemorrhoids and five golden mice, the number of the lords of the Philistines; for one plague is upon them[l] all, and upon your 5 lords. And ye shall make images of your hemorrhoids, and images of your mice that destroy the land, and give glory to the God of Israel: perhaps he will lighten his hand from off you, and from off your gods, and from off your land.
6 And why will ye harden your heart, as the Egyptians and Pharaoh hardened their heart? When he had wrought mightily among them, did they not let them go, 7 and they departed? And now make a new cart, and take two milch kine, on which there has come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring their calves 8 home from them; and take the ark of Jehovah, and lay it upon

[h] Meaning, 'No glory;' or, 'Where is the glory?' [i] Or 'Dagon.' Dag signifies 'fish.' [k] Lit. 'fields:' cf. Ruth i. 1. [l] The LXX and Jerome have 'you,' with small but good support of MSS.

the cart, and the golden jewels, which ye return him as a trespass-offering, put in the coffer by the side thereof; and send it away 9 that it may go. And see, if it go up by the way of its own border to Beth-shemesh, it is he who has done us this great evil; if not, then we shall know that it is not his hand that touched us; it was a chance [that] happened to us.
10 And the men did so, and took two milch kine, and tied them to the cart, and shut up their calves 11 at home. And they laid the ark of Jehovah upon the cart, and the coffer with the golden mice and 12 the images of their sores. And the kine went straight forward on the way to Beth-shemesh; they went by the one high way, lowing as they went; and they turned not aside to the right hand or to the left; and the lords of the Philistines went after them as far as the 13 border of Beth-shemesh. And [they of] Beth-shemesh were reaping the wheat-harvest in the valley; and they lifted up their eyes and saw the ark, and rejoiced to see 14 it. And the cart came into the field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite, and stood there; and a great stone was there. And they clave the wood of the cart, and offered up the kine as a burnt-offering to 15 Jehovah. And the Levites took down the ark of Jehovah, and the coffer that was with it, in which were the golden jewels, and put them on the great stone; and the men of Beth-shemesh offered up burnt-offerings and sacrificed sacrifices the same day to Jehovah.
16 And the five lords of the Philistines saw [it], and returned to Ekron the same day.
17 And these are the golden sores which the Philistines returned as a trespass-offering to Jehovah: for Ashdod one, for Gazah one, for Ashkelon one, for Gath one, for 18 Ekron one; and the golden mice, [according to] the number of all the cities of the Philistines belonging to the five lords, both fortified cities and villages of the peasantry; [and they brought them] as far as the great [stone of] Abel,[m] whereon they set down the ark of Jehovah, [which] is to this day in the field of Joshua the Beth-shemeshite.
19 And he smote among the men of Beth-shemesh, because they had looked into the ark of Jehovah, and smote of the people seventy men;[n] and the people lamented, because Jehovah had 20 smitten the people with a great slaughter. And the men of Beth-shemesh said, Who is able to stand before Jehovah, this holy God? and to whom shall he go up from 21 us? And they sent messengers to the inhabitants of Kirjath-jearim, saying, The Philistines have brought again the ark of Jehovah; come down, fetch it up to you.

7 And the men of Kirjath-jearim came, and fetched up the ark of Jehovah, and brought it into the house of Abinadab on the hill,[o] and hallowed Eleazar his son to keep the ark of Jehovah.
2 And it came to pass, from the day that the ark abode in Kirjath-jearim, that the time was long;[p] for it was twenty years. And all the house of Israel lamented after 3 Jehovah. And Samuel spoke to all the house of Israel, saying, If ye return to Jehovah with all your heart, put away the strange gods and the Ashtoreths from among you, and apply your hearts unto Jehovah, and serve him only; and he will deliver you out of the hand 4 of the Philistines. And the children of Israel put away the Baals and the Ashtoreths and served Jehovah only.
5 And Samuel said, Gather all Israel to Mizpah, and I will pray 6 Jehovah for you. And they gathered together to Mizpah, and drew water, and poured it out before Jehovah, and fasted on that day, and said there, We have sinned against Jehovah. And Samuel judged the children of 7 Israel in Mizpah. And the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together at Mizpah; and the lords of the Philistines went up against Israel; and the children of Israel heard [it], and were afraid of the Philis-8 tines. And the children of Israel said to Samuel, Cease not to cry to Jehovah our God for us, that he will save us out of the hand of the 9 Philistines. And Samuel took a sucking-lamb, and offered it as a whole burnt-offering to Jehovah; and Samuel cried to Jehovah for Israel, and Jehovah answered him.

[m] Or 'peasantry: the great stone is witness:' 'stone' is in LXX, but in few MSS. 'Witness' is conjectural. See, however, Keil in loco.
[n] Some add 'fifty thousand.'
[o] Or 'at Gibeah.' [p] Lit. 'the days were many.'

10 And as Samuel was offering up the burnt-offering, the Philistines advanced to battle against Israel.
And Jehovah thundered with a great thunder on that day upon the Philistines, and discomfited them; and they were routed be-11 fore Israel. And the men of Israel went out of Mizpah, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, as far as below Beth-car.
12 And Samuel took a stone and set it between Mizpah and Shen,[q] and called the name of it Ebenezer,[r] and said, Hitherto Jehovah 13 has helped us. And the Philistines were subdued, and came no more into the borders of Israel;
and the hand of Jehovah was against the Philistines all the days 14 of Samuel. And the cities that the Philistines had taken from Israel were restored to Israel, from Ekron even to Gath; and their territory did Israel deliver out of the hand of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorite.
15 And Samuel judged Israel all 16 the days of his life. And he went from year to year in circuit to Bethel, and Gilgal, and Mizpah, and judged Israel in all those 17 places. And his return was to Ramah; for there was his house, and there he judged Israel; and there he built an altar to Jehovah.

8 And it came to pass when Samuel was old, that he made his 2 sons judges over Israel. And the name of his firstborn was Joel; and the name of his second, Abi-jah; they judged in Beersheba.
3 And his sons walked not in his ways, but turned aside after lucre, and took bribes, and perverted 4 justice. Then all the elders of Israel gathered themselves together, and came to Samuel to 5 Ramah, and said to him, Behold, thou art become old, and thy sons walk not in thy ways: now appoint us a king to judge us, like all the 6 nations. And the thing displeased Samuel, when they said, Give us a king to judge us. And Samuel prayed to Jehovah.
7 And Jehovah said to Samuel, Hearken unto the voice of the people in all that they say unto thee: for they have not rejected thee, but they have rejected me, that I should not reign over them.
8 According to all the deeds that they have done since the day that I brought them up out of Egypt even unto this day, in that they have forsaken me and served other gods, so do they also unto thee.
9 And now hearken unto their voice; only, testify solemnly unto them, and declare unto them the manner of the king that shall reign over them.
10 And Samuel spoke all the words of Jehovah to the people that asked 11 of him a king. And he said, This will be the manner[s] of the king that shall reign over you: he will take your sons, and appoint them for himself, on his chariot and among his horsemen, and they shall run before his chariots; 12 and [he will take them] that he may appoint for himself captains over thousands, and captains over fifties, and that they may plough his ground, and reap his harvest, and make his instruments of war and instruments of his chariots.
13 And he will take your daughters for perfumers, and cooks, and 14 bakers. And your fields, and your vineyards, and your olive-yards, the best, will he take and give 15 to his servants. And he will take the tenth of your seed and of your vineyards, and give to his chamberlains[t] and to his servants.
16 And he will take your bondmen, and your bondwomen, and your comeliest young men, and your asses, and use them for his work.
17 He will take the tenth of your sheep.[v] And ye shall be his ser-18 vants. And ye shall cry out in that day because of your king whom ye have chosen; and Jehovah will not answer you in that day.
19 And the people refused to hearken to the voice of Samuel; and they said, No, but there shall be 20 a king over us, that we also may be like all the nations; and our king shall judge us, and go out before us, and conduct our wars.
21 And Samuel heard all the words of the people, and he repeated 22 them in the ears of Jehovah. And Jehovah said to Samuel, Hearken unto their voice, and make them a king. And Samuel said to the men of Israel, Go ye every man to his city.

9 And there was a man of Benjamin whose name was Kish, the son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Bechorath, the son of Aphiah, the son of a Benjaminite, 2 a mighty man of wealth.[w] And he had a son whose name was Saul,[x] choice and comely; and there was not among the children of Israel a comelier person than he; from his shoulders and upward he was higher than any of the people.

[q] Or 'the rock;' lit. 'tooth:' cf. xiv. 4, 5. [r] See on iv. 1. [s] Or 'right,' as x. 25. [t] Or 'eunuchs.' [v] Or also 'goats.' [w] Or 'of valour.'

3 And the asses of Kish Saul's father were lost; and Kish said to Saul his son, Take, I pray, one of the young men with thee, and 4 arise, go seek the asses. And he passed through mount Ephraim, and passed through the land of Shalishah, but they found [them] not; and they passed through the land of Shaalim, and they were not there; and they passed through the land of Benjamin, 5 and they found [them] not. They had come to the land of Zuph when Saul said to his servant[y] that was with him, Come and let us return; lest my father give up the asses, and be anxious about us.
6 And he said to him, Behold now, a man of God is in this city, and the man is held in honour; all that he says comes surely to pass. Let us now go thither: perhaps he will shew us the way that we 7 should go. And Saul said to his servant, But if[z] we go, what shall we bring the man? for the bread is spent in our vessels, and we have no present to give to the man of God: what have we?
8 And the servant answered Saul again and said, Behold, I have here at hand the fourth part of a shekel of silver; that will I give to the man of God, to tell us our 9 way. (In former time in Israel, when a man went to ask counsel of God, he said, Come and let us go to the seer; for he that is now called a Prophet was in former 10 time called a Seer.) And Saul said to his servant, Well said: come, let us go. So they went to the city where the man of God was.
11 As they went up the ascent to the city, they met maidens going forth to draw water; and they said to them, Is the seer here?
12 And they answered them and said, He is; behold, he is before thee: make haste now, for he came to-day to the city; for the people have a sacrifice to-day in the high 13 place. As soon as ye come into the city, ye shall straightway find him, before he goes up to the high place to eat; for the people eat not until he has come, because he blesses the sacrifice; afterwards they eat that are invited. And now go up; for this very day shall 14 ye find him. And they went up into the city. As they were coming into the midst of the city, behold, Samuel was coming out towards them, to go up to the 15 high place. Now Jehovah had apprised[a] Samuel one day before 16 Saul came, saying, To-morrow about this time I will send thee a man out of the land of Benjamin, and thou shalt anoint him prince over my people Israel; and he will save my people out of the hand of the Philistines; for I have looked upon my people, because 17 their cry is come unto me. And as Samuel saw Saul, Jehovah answered him, Behold the man of whom I spoke to thee! this man shall rule over my people.
18 And Saul drew near to Samuel in the midst of the gate, and said, Tell me, I pray thee, where the 19 seer's house is. And Samuel answered Saul and said, I am the seer: go up before me to the high place, and ye shall eat with me to-day, and to-morrow I will let thee go, and will tell thee all that 20 is in thy heart. And as for the asses that thou didst lose three days ago, set not thy heart on them; for they are found. And on whom is all the desire of Israel [set]? Is it not on thee, and on 21 all[b] thy father's house? And Saul answered and said, Am not I a Benjaminite, of the smallest of the tribes of Israel, and my family the least of all the families of the tribe[c] of Benjamin? and why dost thou speak such words 22 to me? And Samuel took Saul and his servant, and brought them into the chamber, and gave them a place at the head of them that were invited; and they were 23 about thirty persons. And Samuel said to the cook, Bring the portion that I gave thee, of which I said 24 to thee, Set it by thee. And the cook took up the shoulder, and what was on it, and set [it] before Saul. And he said, Behold that which has been reserved! set it before thee, eat; for against the set time has it been kept for thee, since I said, I will invite the people. So Saul ate with Samuel that day.

[x] Meaning, 'Asked for.' [y] Strictly, 'young man:' so throughout the chapter. [z] Lit. 'behold.' [a] See on Ruth iv. 4. [b] Others, 'Whose shall be everything desirable in Israel? Shall it not be thine and all ... ?' [c] Or 'clans:' lit. 'tribes:' cf. Judges xx. 12.

25 And they came down from the high place into the city, and he spoke with Saul upon the roof.
26 And they arose early; and when it was about the dawning of the day, Samuel called to Saul on the roof, saying, Arise, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out both of them, he and Samuel, into the street.
27 As they were going down to the end of the city, Samuel said to Saul, Tell the servant to pass on before us (and he passed on), but stand thou still now,[d] that I may cause thee to hear the word of God.

10 Then Samuel took the vial of oil, and poured it upon his head, and kissed him, and said, Is it not because Jehovah has anointed thee prince over his in-2 heritance? When thou goest from me to-day, thou shalt meet two men by Rachel's sepulchre in the border of Benjamin at Zelzah; and they will say to thee, The asses are found which thou went-est to seek, and behold, thy father has dismissed the matter of the asses, and is anxious about you, saying, What shall I do for my 3 son? And thou shalt go on forward from thence, and shalt come to the oak of Tabor, and there shall meet thee three men going up to God, to Bethel, one carrying three kids, and another carrying three cakes of bread, and another 4 carrying a flask of wine. And they will ask after thy welfare, and give thee two loaves, which thou 5 shalt receive of their hands. After that thou shalt come to the hill of God, where are the outposts of the Philistines; and it shall come to pass, when thou comest thither, into the city, that thou shalt meet a company of prophets coming down from the high place with lute and tambour and pipe and harp before them; and they 6 themselves prophesying. And the Spirit of Jehovah will come upon thee, and thou shalt prophesy with them, and shalt be turned 7 into another man. And it shall be, when these signs shall come to thee, thou shalt do as thy hand shall find; for God is with thee.
8 And thou shalt go down before me to Gilgal; and behold, I will come down to thee, to offer up burnt-offerings, [and] to sacrifice sacrifices of peace-offerings: seven days shalt thou wait, until I come to thee and inform thee what thou shalt do.
9 And it was [so] that when he turned his back to go away from Samuel, God gave[e] him another heart; and all those signs came 10 to pass that day. And when they came thither to the hill,[f] behold, a company of prophets met him; and the Spirit of God came upon him, and he prophesied among 11 them. And it came to pass, when all that knew him before saw that, behold, he prophesied among the prophets, then the people said one to another, What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?
12 And a man of that place answered and said, But who is their father? Therefore it became a proverb, Is Saul also among the prophets?
13 And when he had ended prophesy-ing, he came to the high place.
14 And Saul's uncle said to him and to his servant, Whither went ye? And he said, To seek the asses; and when we saw that they were 15 nowhere, we went to Samuel. And Saul's uncle said, Tell me, I pray thee, what Samuel said to you.
16 And Saul said to his uncle, He told us for certain that the asses were found. But of the matter of the kingdom, of which Samuel had spoken, he told him not.
17 And Samuel called the people together to Jehovah to Mizpah.
18 And he said to the children of Israel, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of Israel, I brought up Israel out of Egypt, and delivered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all the kingdoms that oppressed you; 19 but ye have this day rejected your God, who himself saved you out of all your adversities and your troubles, and have said unto him, [Nay,] but a king shalt thou set over us. Now therefore present yourselves before Jehovah by your tribes, and by your thousands.
20 And Samuel caused all the tribes of Israel to come near, and the 21 tribe of Benjamin was taken. And he caused the tribe of Benjamin to come near by their families; and the family of Matri was taken; and Saul the son of Kish was taken. And they sought him, but 22 he was not to be found. Therefore they inquired of Jehovah further, Will the man yet come hither? And Jehovah answered, Behold, he hath hid himself among the 23 baggage. And they ran and fetched him thence; and when he [d] Or 'a moment.' [e] Lit. 'turned.' [f] Or 'Gibeah.'

stood among the people, he was higher than any of the people from 24 his shoulders and upward. And Samuel said to all the people, See ye him whom Jehovah has chosen, that there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted and said, May the king live.
25 And Samuel told the people the right of the kingdom, and wrote it in the book, and laid it before Jehovah. And Samuel sent all the people away, every man to his 26 house. And Saul also went home to Gibeah; and with him went the band, whose hearts God had 27 touched. But the children of Belial said, How should this man save us? And they despised him, and brought him no gifts. But he was as one deaf.

11 And Nahash the Ammonite came up and encamped against Jabesh-Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to Nahash, Make a covenant with us, and we will 2 serve thee. And Nahash the Ammonite said to them, On this [condition] will I treat with you, that I thrust out all your right eyes, and lay it for a reproach upon all 3 Israel. And the elders of Jabesh said to him, Allow us seven days, and we will send messengers into all the districts of Israel; and if there be no man to deliver us, we 4 will come out to thee. And the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and told these words in the ears of the people. And all the people lifted up their voice and wept.
5 And behold, Saul came after the oxen from the field; and Saul said, What [aileth] the people that they weep? And they related to him the words of the men of Jabesh.
6 And the Spirit of God came upon Saul when he heard those words, and his anger was kindled greatly.
7 And he took a yoke of oxen and cut them in pieces, and sent throughout the territory of Israel by the hand of messengers, saying, Whoever comes not forth after Saul and after Samuel, so shall it be done to his oxen! And the fear of Jehovah fell on the people, and they came 8 out as one man. And he numbered them in Bezek, and the children of Israel were three hundred thousand, and the men of Judah thirty thousand.
9 And they said to the messengers that had come, Thus shall ye say to the men of Jabesh-Gilead: To-morrow ye shall have deliverance when the sun is hot. And the messengers came and informed the men of Jabesh-Gilead; and they 10 were glad. And the men of Jabesh said, To-morrow we will come out to you, and ye may do with us according to all that is good in 11 your sight. And it came to pass the next day that Saul set the people in three companies; and they came into the midst of the camp in the morning watch, and smote Ammon until the heat of the day: and it came to pass that they who remained were scattered, and not two of them were left together.
12 And the people said to Samuel, Who is he that said, Shall Saul reign over us? bring the men, that we may put them to death.
13 But Saul said, There shall not a man be put to death this day; for to-day Jehovah has wrought de-14 liverance in Israel. And Samuel said to the people, Come and let us go to Gilgal, and renew the 15 kingdom there. And all the people went to Gilgal; and there they made Saul king before Jehovah in Gilgal; and there they sacrificed peace-offerings before Jehovah. And there Saul and all the men of Israel rejoiced exceedingly.

12 And Samuel said to all Israel, Behold, I have hearkened to your voice in all that ye said to me, and have made a king over 2 you. And now behold, the king walks before you; and I am old and grey-headed; and behold, my sons are with you; and I have walked before you from my youth 3 up to this day. Here I am: testify against me before Jehovah, and before his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? or whose ass have I taken? or whom have I defrauded? whom have I injured? or of whose hand have I received any ransom[a] and blinded mine eyes therewith? and I will restore 4 it to you. And they said, Thou hast not defrauded us, and thou hast not injured us, neither hast thou taken aught of any man's 5 hand. And he said to them, Jehovah is witness against you, and his anointed is witness this day, that ye have not found aught in my hand! And [the people] said, [He is] witness!
6 And Samuel said to the people, [It is] Jehovah who appointed Moses and Aaron, and who brought your fathers up out of the land of 7 Egypt. And now stand still,[h] that I may plead with[i] you before Jehovah of all the righteous acts of Jehovah which he did to you 8 and to your fathers. When Jacob had come into Egypt, and your fathers cried to Jehovah, then Jehovah sent Moses and Aaron, and they brought your fathers forth out of Egypt, and made 9 them dwell in this place. And they forgot Jehovah their God, and he sold them into the hand of Sisera, captain of the host of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought 10 against them. And they cried to Jehovah and said, We have sinned, because we have forsaken Jehovah, and have served the Baals and the Ashtoreths; and now deliver us out of the hand of our enemies, 11 and we will serve thee. And Jehovah sent Jerubbaal and Bedan[k] and Jephthah and Samuel, and delivered you out of the hand of your enemies round about, so that 12 ye dwelt in safety. But when ye saw that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said to me, Nay, but a king shall reign over us; when Jehovah 13 your God was your king. And now behold, the king whom ye have chosen, whom ye have asked for! and behold, Jehovah has set 14 a king over you. If ye fear Jehovah, and serve him, and hearken to his voice, and rebel not against the commandment[l] of Jehovah, then both ye and the king also that reigns over you shall continue 15 following Jehovah your God. But if ye will not hearken to the voice of Jehovah, and if ye rebel against the commandment[l] of Jehovah, then will the hand of Jehovah be against you, as against your 16 fathers. Now therefore stand and see this great thing which Jehovah will do before your eyes. Is it 17 not wheat-harvest to-day? I will call unto Jehovah, and he will send thunder and rain; and ye shall perceive and see that your wickedness is great which ye have done in the sight of Jehovah in asking for yourselves a king.

18 And Samuel called to Jehovah; and Jehovah sent thunder and rain that day. And all the people greatly feared Jehovah and Sam-19 uel. And all the people said to Samuel, Pray to Jehovah thy God for thy servants, that we die not; for we have added to all our sins the wickedness to ask for ourselves 20 a king. And Samuel said to the people, Fear not: ye have done all this wickedness; yet turn not aside from following Jehovah, and serve Jehovah with all your heart; 21 and turn ye not aside; for [it would be] after vain things[m] which cannot profit nor deliver; 22 for they are vain.[m] For Jehovah will not cast away his people for his great name's sake; because it has pleased Jehovah to make you 23 his people. Moreover, as for me, far be it from me that I should sin against Jehovah in ceasing to pray for you; and I will teach you the 24 good and right way. Only, fear Jehovah, and serve him in truth, with all your heart; for see how great things he has done for[n] you.
25 But if ye do wickedly, ye shall perish, both ye and your king.

13 Saul was . . . . years old when he became king;[o] and he 2 reigned two years over Israel. And Saul chose him three thousand men out of Israel: there were with Saul two thousand in Mich-mash and in mount Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan[p] in Gibeah of Benjamin; and the rest of the people he sent every man 3 to his tent. And Jonathan smote the outpost of the Philistines that was in Geba, and the Philistines heard [of it]. And Saul blew the trumpet throughout the land, say-4 ing, Let the Hebrews hear. And all Israel heard say, Saul has smitten the garrison of the Philistines, and Israel also has become odious to the Philistines. And the people were called together after Saul to 5 Gilgal. And the Philistines were assembled together to fight with Israel, thirty thousand chariots, and six thousand horsemen, and people as the sand which is on the sea-shore in multitude; and they came up, and encamped in Mich-mash, eastward from Beth-Aven.
6 And the men of Israel saw that they were in a strait (for the people

[o] Critics in general suppose a hiatus, from the difficulty there is in translating the present text, which would mean, 'Saul was a year old when he became king:' so Jerome. The whole verse is wanting in the LXX, both Vat. and Alex. [p] Heb. Jehonathan, meaning, 'The gift of Jehovah.'

were distressed); and the people hid themselves in caves, and in thickets, and in cliffs, and in 7 strongholds, and in pits. And the Hebrews went over the Jordan into the land of Gad and Gilead. And Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people followed him trembling.
8 And he waited seven days, according to the set time that Samuel [had appointed]; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal; and the peo-9 ple were scattered from him. And Saul said, Bring hither to me the burnt-offering and the peace-offerings. And he offered up the 10 burnt-offering. And it came to pass, as soon as he had ended offering up the burnt-offering, behold, Samuel came; and Saul went out to meet him, that he 11 might salute[q] him. And Samuel said, What hast thou done? And Saul said, Because I saw that the people were scattered from me, and that thou didst not come within the days appointed, and that the Philistines were assembled 12 at Michmash, I said, The Philistines will come down now upon me to Gilgal, and I have not made supplication to Jehovah; and I forced myself, and offered up the 13 burnt-offering. And Samuel said to Saul, Thou hast done foolishly: thou hast not kept the commandment of Jehovah thy God which he commanded thee; for now would Jehovah have established thy kingdom over Israel for ever.
4 But now thy kingdom shall not continue: Jehovah has sought him a man after his own heart, and Jehovah has appointed[r] him ruler over his people; for thou hast not kept what Jehovah commanded thee.
15 And Samuel arose and went up from Gilgal to Gibeah of Benjamin. And Saul numbered the people that were found with him, about six hundred men.
16 And Saul, and Jonathan his son, and the people that were found with them, abode in Geba of Benjamin; and the Philistines en-17 camped in Michmash. And the ravagers came out of the camp of the Philistines in three companies: one company turned the way of Ophrah, into the land of Shual;
18 and another company turned the way to Beth-horon; and the other company turned the way to the district that looks over the ravine of Zeboim toward the wilderness.
19 Now there was no smith found throughout the land of Israel; for the Philistines said, Lest the Hebrews make them swords or spears.
20 And all Israel went down to the Philistines, every man to get his ploughshare, and his hoe, and his axe, and his sickle sharpened, 21 when the edges of the sickles, and the hoes, and the forks,[s] and the axes were blunted; and to set the 22 goads. And it came to pass in the day of battle, that there was neither sword nor spear found in the hand of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan; but with Saul and with Jonathan his 23 son there was found. And a garrison of the Philistines went out to the passage of Michmash.

14 Now it came to pass one day that Jonathan the son of Saul said to the young man that bare his armour, Come and let us go over to the Philistines' garrison which is on the other side. But 2 he did not tell his father. And Saul abode at the extreme end of Gibeah under the pomegranate-tree which [was] in Migron; and the people that were with him were about six hundred men.
3 (And Ahijah the son of Ahitub, Ichabod's brother, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, Jehovah's priest in Shiloh, wore the ephod.) And the people did not know that Jonathan was gone.
4 Now between the passes by which Jonathan sought to go over to the Philistines' garrison there was a sharp rock on the one side and a sharp rock on the other side; and the name of the one [was] Bozez, and the name of the other 5 Seneh. The one crag[t] [formed] a pillar on the north opposite to Michmash, and the other on the 6 south opposite to Geba. And Jonathan said to the young man that bore his armour, Come, and let us go over to the garrison of these uncircumcised: perhaps Jehovah will work for us; for there is no restraint to Jehovah to save 7 by many or by few. And his armour-bearer said to him, Do all that is in thy heart; turn thee; behold, I am with thee according 8 to thy heart. Then said Jonathan, Behold, we will pass over to the men, and we will shew ourselves 9 to them. If they say thus to us, Stand still until we come to you, then we will stay in our place, and 10 will not go up to them. And if they say thus, Come up to us, then we will go up; for Jehovah has given them into our hand; and this shall be the sign to us.

11 And both of them shewed themselves to the garrison of the Philistines; and the Philistines said, Behold, the Hebrews come forth out of the holes where they had hid 12 themselves. And the men of the garrison answered Jonathan and his armour-bearer and said, Come up to us, and we will shew you something. And Jonathan said to his armour-bearer, Come up after me; for Jehovah has delivered them into 13 the hand of Israel. And Jonathan climbed up upon his hands and upon his feet, and his armour-bearer after him; and they fell before Jonathan; and his armour-14 bearer slew after him. And that first slaughter which Jonathan and his armour-bearer wrought was about twenty men, as it were on the half-furrow of an acre [v] of land.
15 And there was trembling in the camp, in the field, and among all the people; the garrison, and the ravagers, they also trembled, and the earth quaked; for it was a trembling [from] God.
16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibeah of Benjamin looked, and behold, the multitude melted away, and they went on slaying 17 one another.[w] Then said Saul to the people that were with him, Muster now, and see who is gone from us. And they mustered, and behold, Jonathan and his armour-18 bearer were not there. And Saul said to Ahijah, Bring hither the ark of God. For the ark of God was at that time with the children 19 of Israel. And it came to pass while Saul talked to the priest, that the noise which was in the camp of the Philistines went on and increased; and Saul said to the priest, Withdraw thy hand.
20 And Saul and all the people that were with him were called together, and they came to the battle; and behold, every man's sword was against his fellow, a 21 very great confusion. And there were Hebrews with the Philistines before that time, who had gone up with them into the camp round about; and they also [turned] to be with the Israelites who were 22 with Saul and Jonathan. And all the men of Israel who had hid themselves in mount Ephraim heard that the Philistines fled, and they also followed hard after them 23 in the battle. And Jehovah saved Israel that day; and the battle passed over beyond Beth-Aven.
24 But the men of Israel were distressed that day. Now Saul had adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food until evening, and [until] I am avenged on mine enemies. So none of the 25 people tasted food. And all they of the land came to a wood; and there was honey on the ground.[x] 26 And the people had come into the wood, and behold, the honey flowed; but no man put his hand to his mouth, for the people feared 27 the oath. But Jonathan had not heard when his father adjured the people; and he put forth the end of his staff which was in his hand, and dipped it in the honeycomb, and put his hand to his mouth, 28 and his eyes became bright. Then answered one of the people and said, Thy father strictly adjured the people, saying, Cursed be the man that eateth food this day; and 29 the people are faint.[y] And Jonathan said, My father has troubled the land: see, I pray you, that mine eyes are bright, because I 30 tasted a little of this honey. How much more, if the people had eaten freely to-day of the spoil of their enemies which they found? for would there not now have been a much greater slaughter among the 31 Philistines? And they smote the Philistines that day from Mich-mash to Ajalon; and the people were very faint.
32 And the people fell on the spoil, and took sheep, and oxen, and calves, and slaughtered them on the ground; and the people ate 33 [them] with the blood. And they told Saul, saying, Behold, the people sin against Jehovah, in that they eat with the blood. And he said, Ye have acted perversely: roll 34 me now a great stone. And Saul said, Disperse yourselves among the people, and say to them, Bring near to me every man his ox, and every man his sheep,[z] and slaughter them here, and eat; and sin not against Jehovah in eating with the blood. And all the people brought every man his ox with him that night, and slaughtered [them] there.

35 And Saul built an altar to Jehovah: this was the first altar he built[a] to Jehovah.
36 And Saul said, Let us go down after the Philistines by night, and plunder them until the morning light, and let us not leave a man of them. And they said, Do whatsoever is good in thy sight. Then said the priest, Let us come near 37 hither to God. And Saul inquired of God, Shall I go down after the Philistines? wilt thou give them into the hand of Israel? But he 38 did not answer him that day. And Saul said, Draw ye near hither, all the heads[b] of the people; and know and see wherein this sin has 39 been this day. For, [as] Jehovah liveth, who has saved Israel, though it be in Jonathan my son, he shall certainly die. And no one answered him among all the peo-40 ple. Then said he to all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Jonathan my son will be on the other side. And the people said to Saul, 41 Do what is good in thy sight. And Saul said to Jehovah the God of Israel, Give a perfect [testimony]! And Jonathan and Saul were taken, and the people escaped.
42 And Saul said, Cast [lots] between me and Jonathan my son. And Jonathan was taken.
43 And Saul said to Jonathan, Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan told him and said, With the end of the staff which is in my hand I tasted a little honey, 44 [and] behold, I must die! And Saul said, God do so [to me] and more also; thou shalt certainly 45 die, Jonathan. And the people said to Saul, Shall Jonathan die, who has wrought this great salvation in Israel? Far be it! [as] Jehovah liveth, there shall not a hair of his head fall to the ground; for he has wrought with God this day. So the people delivered 46 Jonathan, that he died not. And Saul went up from following the Philistines; and the Philistines went to their own place.
47 And Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies round about, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines; and whithersoever he turned himself, 48 he discomfited [them]. And he did valiantly,[c] and smote the Amalekites, and delivered Israel out of the hands of their spoilers.
49 And the sons of Saul were Jonathan, and Jishvi, and Malchi-shua. And the names of his two daughters: the name of the firstborn Merab, and the name of the younger 50 Michal. And the name of Saul's wife was Ahinoam, the daughter of Ahimaaz; and the name of the captain of his host was Abner,[d] the 51 son of Ner, Saul's uncle. And Kish the father of Saul, and Ner the father of Abner were sons of Abiel.[e] 52 And there was sore war against the Philistines all the days of Saul; and when Saul saw any mighty man, or any valiant man, he took him to himself.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Jehovah sent me to anoint thee king over his people, over Israel: now therefore hearken to the voice of the words of Jehovah.
2 Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I have considered what Amalek did to Israel, how he set himself against him in the way, when he 3 came up from Egypt. Now go and smite Amalek, and destroy utterly all that they have, and spare them not, but slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, ox and 4 sheep, camel and ass. And Saul summoned the people, and numbered them in Telaim, two hundred thousand footmen, and ten thousand men of Judah.
5 And Saul came to the city of the Amalekites, and set an ambush 6 in the valley.[f] And Saul said to the Kenites, Go, depart, and go down from among the Amalekites, lest I destroy you with them; for ye shewed kindness to all the children of Israel when they came up out of Egypt. And the Kenites departed from among the Amalek-7 ites. And Saul smote Amalek from Havilah as thou comest to Shur, which is opposite to Egypt.
8 And he took Agag the king of Amalek alive, and utterly de-9 stroyed all the people with the edge of the sword. And Saul and the people spared Agag, and the best of the sheep and oxen, and beasts of the second bearing,[g] and the lambs,[h] and all that was good, and would not devote them to destruction; but everything that was mean and weak, that they destroyed utterly.

10 And the word of Jehovah came 11 to Samuel, saying, It repenteth me that I have set up Saul to be king; for he is turned away from following me, and hath not fulfilled my words. And Samuel was much grieved; and he cried to Jehovah 12 all night. And Samuel rose early to meet Saul in the morning. And it was told Samuel, saying, Saul came to Carmel,[i] and behold, he set him up a monument,[k] and has turned about, and passed on, and 13 gone down to Gilgal. And Samuel came to Saul; and Saul said to him, Blessed art thou of Jehovah: I have fulfilled the word of Jeho-14 vah. And Samuel said, What [means] then this bleating of sheep in mine ears, and the lowing of 15 oxen which I hear? And Saul said, They have brought them from the Amalekites, because the people spared the best of the sheep and of the oxen, to sacrifice to Jehovah thy God; and the rest we have utterly 16 destroyed. And Samuel said to Saul, Stay, that I may tell thee what Jehovah has said to me this night. And he said to him, Say on.

17 And Samuel said, Was it not when thou wast little in thine eyes that thou [becamest] the head of the tribes of Israel, and Jehovah anointed thee king over Israel?
18 And Jehovah sent thee on a way and said, Go and utterly destroy the sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them until they be 19 consumed. Why then didst thou not hearken to the voice of Jehovah, but didst fall upon the spoil, and didst evil in the sight of Jeho-20 vah? And Saul said to Samuel, I have indeed hearkened to the voice of Jehovah, and have gone the way which Jehovah sent me, and have brought Agag the king of Amalek, and have utterly de-21 stroyed the Amalekites. But the people took of the spoil, sheep and oxen, the choicest[l] of the devoted[m] things, to sacrifice to Jehovah thy 22 God in Gilgal. And Samuel said,

Has Jehovah delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices,
As in hearkening to the voice of Jehovah?
Behold, obedience[n] is better than sacrifice, Attention than the fat of rams.
23 For rebellion is [as] the sin of divination,
And selfwill is [as] iniquity and idolatry.[o]
Because thou hast rejected the word of Jehovah, He hath also rejected thee from being king.

24 And Saul said to Samuel, I have sinned, for I have transgressed the commandment of Jehovah, and thy words; for I feared the people 25 and hearkened to their voice. And now, I pray thee, forgive my sin, and turn again with me, that I 26 may worship Jehovah. And Samuel said to Saul, I will not turn again with thee; for thou hast rejected the word of Jehovah, and Jehovah has rejected thee 27 from being king over Israel. And as Samuel turned to go away, [Saul] laid hold upon the skirt of 28 his mantle, and it rent. Then Samuel said to him, Jehovah has rent the kingdom of Israel from thee to-day, and has given it to thy neighbour, who is better than 29 thou. And also the Hope of Israel will not lie nor repent; for he is not a man, that he should repent.
30 And he said, I have sinned; honour me now, I pray thee, before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turn again with me, that I may worship Jehovah 31 thy God. So Samuel turned again after Saul; and Saul worshipped Jehovah.

32 And Samuel said, Bring ye near to me Agag the king of Amalek. And Agag came to him gaily.[p] And Agag said, Surely the bitter-33 ness of death is past. And Samuel said, As thy sword has made women childless, so shall thy mother be childless above[q] women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces be-34 fore Jehovah in Gilgal. And Samuel went to Ramah; and Saul went up to his house to Gibeah 35 of Saul. And Samuel saw Saul no more until the day of his death; for Samuel mourned over Saul; and[r] Jehovah repented that he had made Saul king over Israel.

16 And Jehovah said to Samuel, How long wilt thou mourn for Saul, seeing I have rejected him from reigning over Israel? fill thy horn with oil, and go, I will send thee to Jesse the Bethlehemite; for I have provided me a king among 2 his sons. And Samuel said, How shall I go? if Saul hear [it], he will kill me. And Jehovah said, Take an heifer with thee, and say, I am come to sacrifice to Jehovah.

3 And call Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will tell thee what thou shalt do; and thou shalt anoint unto me him whom I name[s] unto thee.
4 And Samuel did what Jehovah said, and came to Bethlehem. And the elders of the city came trembling to meet him,[t] and said, Dost 5 thou come peaceably? And he said, Peaceably: I am come to sacrifice to Jehovah. Hallow yourselves, and come with me to the sacrifice. And he hallowed Jesse and his sons, and called them to the sacrifice.
6 And it came to pass when they were come, that he looked on Eliab, and said, Surely Jehovah's anoin-7 ted is before him. But Jehovah said to Samuel, Look not on his countenance,[u] or on the height of his stature; because I have rejected him; for it is not as man seeth; for man looketh upon the outward appearance,[v] but Jehovah 8 looketh upon the heart. Then Jesse called Abinadab, and made him pass before Samuel. And he said, Neither has Jehovah chosen 9 this one. Then Jesse made Shammah pass by. And he said, Neither has Jehovah chosen this 10 one. And Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel. And Samuel said to Jesse, Jehovah has not chosen these.
11 And Samuel said to Jesse, Are these all the young men? And he said, There is yet the youngest remaining, and behold, he is feeding the sheep. And Samuel said to Jesse, Send and fetch him; for we will not sit at table till he come 12 hither. And he sent and brought him in. And he was ruddy, and besides of a lovely countenance[w] and beautiful appearance. And Jehovah said, Arise, anoint him; 13 for this is he. And Samuel took the horn of oil, and anointed him in the midst of his brethren. And the Spirit of Jehovah came upon David[x] from that day forward. And Samuel rose up, and went to Ramah.
14 And the Spirit of Jehovah departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from Jehovah troubled him.
15 And Saul's servants said to him, Behold now, an evil spirit from[v] 16 God troubles thee. Let our lord now speak; thy servants are before thee: they shall seek out a man, a skilful player on a harp; and it shall come to pass, when the evil spirit from God is upon thee, that he shall play with his 17 hand, and thou shalt be well. And Saul said to his servants, Provide me now a man that can play well, 18 and bring him to me. And one of the young men answered and said, Behold, I have seen a son of Jesse the Bethlehemite, who is skilled in playing, and he is a valiant man and a man of war, and skilled in speech, and of good presence, and 19 Jehovah is with him. Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, Send me David thy son, who is 20 with the sheep. And Jesse took an ass with bread, and a flask of wine, and a kid, and sent [them] 21 by David his son to Saul. And David came to Saul, and stood before him; and he loved him greatly; and he became his 22 armour-bearer. And Saul sent to Jesse, saying, Let David, I pray thee, stand before me; for he has 23 found favour in my sight. And it came to pass, when the [evil] spirit from God was upon Saul, that David took the harp, and played with his hand; and Saul was refreshed, and was well, and the evil spirit departed from him.

17 And the Philistines assembled their armies[z] to battle, and were gathered together at Sochoh, which belongs to Judah, and encamped between Sochoh and Aze-2 kah, in Ephes-dammim. And Saul and the men of Israel were gathered together, and encamped in the valley of terebinths, and set the battle in array against the Philis-3 tines. And the Philistines stood on the mountain on the one side, and Israel stood on the mountain on the other side; and the ravine was between them.
4 And there went out a champion[a] from the camp of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath, whose height was six cubits and a span.
5 And he had a helmet of bronze upon his head, and he was clothed with a corselet of scales; and the weight of the corselet was five 6 thousand shekels of bronze. And he had greaves of bronze upon his legs, and a javelin of bronze be-7 tween his shoulders. And the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam; and his spear's head weighed six hundred shekels of iron; and the shield-bearer went 8 before him. And he stood and cried to the ranks of Israel, and said to them, Why are ye come out to set your battle in array? am not I the Philistine, and ye servants of Saul? choose for yourselves a man, and let him come 9 down to me. If he be able to fight with me, and to smite me, then will we be your servants; but if I overcome and smite him, then shall ye be our servants and serve 10 us. And the Philistine said, I have defied[b] the ranks of Israel this day; give me a man, that 11 we may fight together. And Saul and all Israel heard these words of the Philistine, and they were dismayed and greatly afraid.

12 Now David was the son of that Ephrathite of Bethlehem-Judah whose name was Jesse; and he had eight sons; and the man was old in the days of Saul, advanced 13 [in years] among men. And the three eldest of the sons of Jesse had gone and followed Saul to the battle; and the names of his three sons that went to the battle were Eliab the firstborn, and the second to him Abinadab, and the third 14 Shammah. And David was the 15 youngest; and the three eldest had followed Saul. But David went and returned from Saul to feed his father's sheep at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine drew near morning and evening, and presented himself forty days.

17 And Jesse said to David his son, Take, I pray, for thy brethren, this ephah of parched [corn] and these ten loaves, and carry them quickly[c] 18 to the camp to thy brethren; and carry these ten cheeses to the captain of the thousand, and visit thy brethren to see how they are, and take a pledge of them.

19 Now Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel [were] in the valley of terebinths, fighting against the 20 Philistines. And David rose up early in the morning, and left the sheep with a keeper, and took his charge and went, as Jesse had commanded him. And he came to the wagon-defence; and the host which was going forth to the battle-array shouted for the fight.
21 And Israel and the Philistines put the battle in array, rank against 22 rank. And David left the things he was carrying in the hand of the keeper of the baggage, and ran into the ranks, and came and 23 saluted his brethren. And as he talked with them, behold there came up the champion, the Philistine of Gath, Goliath by name, out of the ranks of the Philistines, and spoke according to the same words; and David heard [them].
24 And all the men of Israel, when they saw the man, fled from him 25 and were greatly afraid. And the men of Israel said, Have ye seen this man that comes up? for to defy Israel is he come up: and it shall be, that the man who smites him, him will the king enrich with great riches, and will give him his daughter, and make his father's house free in Israel.
26 And David spoke to the men that stood by him, saying, What shall be done to the man that smites this Philistine, and takes away the reproach from Israel? for who is this uncircumcised Philistine, that he should defy the armies[d] of the 27 living God? And the people told him after this manner, saying, So shall it be done to the man that 28 smites him. And Eliab, his eldest brother, heard while he spoke to the men; and Eliab's anger was kindled against David, and he said, Why art thou come down? and with whom hast thou left those few sheep in the wilderness? I know thy pride and the naughtiness of thy heart; for thou art come down that thou mightest see 29 the battle. And David said, What 30 have I now done? Was it not laid upon me?[e] And he turned from him to another, and spoke after the same manner; and the people answered him again after the former manner.

31 And the words were heard which David spoke, and they rehearsed them before Saul; and 32 he sent for him. And David said to Saul, Let no man's heart fail because of him: thy servant will go and fight with this Philistine.
33 And Saul said to David, Thou art not able to go against this Philistine to fight with him; for thou

[b] Or 'reproached;' and so vers. 25, 26, 36, 45. [c] Or 'run.' [d] Strictly 'ranks,' here, as in ver. 10; so vers. 36, 45. [e] Or 'Is there not a cause?'

art but a youth, and he a man of 34 war from his youth. And David said to Saul, Thy servant fed his father's sheep, and there came a lion, and also a bear, and took a 35 lamb out of the flock. And I went after him, and smote him, and delivered it out of his mouth; and when he arose against me, I seized him by his beard, and smote him, 36 and slew him. Thy servant smote both the lion and the bear; and this uncircumcised Philistine shall be as one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God.
37 And David said, Jehovah who delivered me out of the paw of the lion and out of the paw of the bear, he will deliver me out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul said to David, Go, and Jehovah 38 be with thee. And Saul clothed David with his dress, and put a helmet of bronze upon his head, and clothed him with a corselet.
39 And David girded his sword upon his dress, and endeavoured to go; for he had not yet tried [it]. And David said to Saul, I cannot go in these; for I have never tried [them]. And David put them off 40 him. And he took his staff in his hand, and chose him five smooth stones out of the brook,[f] and put them in the shepherd's bag that he had, into the pocket; and his sling was in his hand. And he drew near to the Philistine.
41 And the Philistine came on and approached David; and the man that bore the shield was before 42 him. And when the Philistine looked about and saw David, he disdained him; for he was a youth, and ruddy, and besides of a beauti-43 ful countenance. And the Philis-tine said to David, Am I a dog, that thou comest to me with staves?
And the Philistine cursed David 44 by his gods. And the Philistine said to David, Come to me, and I will give thy flesh to the fowls of the heavens and to the beasts 45 of the field. And David said to the Philistine, Thou comest to me with sword, and with spear, and with javelin; but I come to thee in the name of Jehovah of hosts, the God of the armies of Israel, 46 whom[g] thou hast defied. This day will Jehovah deliver thee up into my hand; and I will smite thee, and take thy head from thee; and I will give the carcases of the camp of the Philistines this day to the fowl of the heavens and to the wild beasts of the earth. And all the earth shall know that Israel 47 has a God; and all this congregation shall know that Jehovah saves not with sword and spear; for the battle is Jehovah's, and he will give you into our hands.
48 And it came to pass, when the Philistine arose, and came and advanced to meet David, that David hasted, and ran towards the 49 ranks to meet the Philistine. And David put his hand into the bag, and took thence a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, and the stone sank into his forehead; and he fell on his 50 face to the earth. So David overcame[h] the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and smote the Philis-tine and killed him; and there was no sword in the hand of David.
51 And David ran, and stood upon the Philistine, and took his sword, and drew it out of its sheath, and killed him completely,[i] and cut off his head with it. And when the Philistines saw that their hero was 52 dead, they fled. And the men of Israel and of Judah arose, and shouted, and pursued the Philistines, until thou comest to the ravine and to the gates of Ekron.
And the wounded of the Philistines fell down on the way to Shaaraim, even to Gath, and to 53 Ekron. And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and they pillaged their 54 camps. And David took the head of the Philistine and brought it to Jerusalem; but he put his armour in his tent.
55 And when Saul saw David go forth against the Philistine, he said to Abner, the captain of the host, Abner, whose son is this young man? And Abner said, As thy soul liveth, O king, I can-56 not tell. And the king said, Inquire thou whose son this youth 57 is. And as David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner took him, and brought him before Saul with the head of the 58 Philistine in his hand. And Saul said to him, Whose son art thou, young man? And David said, I am the son of thy servant Jesse the Beth-lehemite.

18 And it came to pass, when he had ended speaking to Saul, that the soul of Jonathan was knit with the soul of David, and Jona-

[f] Or 'valley.' [g] Or 'which.' [h] Or 'was stronger than.' [i] The Pilel, an intensive form of the verb.

than loved him as his own soul.
2 And Saul took him that day, and would not let him return to his 3 father's house. And Jonathan and David made a covenant, because 4 he loved him as his own soul. And Jonathan stripped himself of the robe that was upon him, and gave it to David, and his dress, even to his sword, and to his bow, and 5 to his girdle. And David went forth;[k] whithersoever Saul sent him he prospered;[l] and Saul set him over the men of war, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, and also in the sight of Saul's servants.
6 And it came to pass as they came, when David returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, that the women came out of all the cities of Israel, singing and dancing, to meet king Saul, with tambours, with joy, and with 7 triangles.[m] And the women answered [one another] as they played, and said,

Saul hath smitten his thousands,
And David his ten thousands.

8 And Saul was very wroth, and that saying was evil in his sight; and he said, They have ascribed to David ten thousands, but to me they have ascribed the thousands; and [what] is there more for him 9 but the kingdom? And Saul eyed David from that day and forward.
10 And it came to pass the next day that an evil spirit from God came upon Saul, and he prophesied in the midst of the house, but David played with his hand, as on other days; and the spear was in Saul's 11 hand. And Saul cast the spear, and thought,[n] I will smite David and the wall.[o] But David turned away from him twice.
12 And Saul was afraid of David, because Jehovah was with him, 13 and had departed from Saul. And Saul removed him from him, and made him his captain over a thousand; and he went out and 14 came in before the people. And David prospered in all his ways; 15 and Jehovah was with him. And Saul saw that he prospered well, 16 and he stood in awe of him. But all Israel and Judah loved David, for he went out and came in before them.
17 And Saul said to David, Behold my eldest daughter Merab, her will I give thee to wife; only be thou valiant for me, and fight Jehovah's battles. But Saul thought, My hand shall not be upon him, but the hand of the 18 Philistines shall be upon him. And David said to Saul, Who am I?
and what is my life, [or] my father's family in Israel, that I should be son-in-law to the king?
19 And it came to pass at the time when Merab Saul's daughter should have been given to David, that she was given to Adriel the Meholathite as wife.
20 And Michal Saul's daughter loved David; and they told Saul, and the thing was right in his 21 sight. And Saul said, I will give him her, that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be upon him.
And Saul said to David, Thou shalt this day be my son-in-law a second time.[p] 22 And Saul commanded his servants, Speak with David secretly, saying, Behold, the king has delight in thee, and all his servants love thee: now therefore be the 23 king's son-in-law. And Saul's servants spoke those words in the ears of David. And David said, Is it a light thing in your eyes to be the king's son-in-law, seeing that I am a poor man, and lightly 24 esteemed? And the servants of Saul told him, saying, On this 25 manner did David speak. And Saul said, Thus shall ye say to David: The king does not desire any dowry, but a hundred fore-skins of the Philistines, to be avenged of the king's enemies.
But Saul thought to make David fall by the hand of the Philistines.
26 And his servants told David these words; and the thing was right in David's sight to be the king's son-in-law. And the days were 27 not expired, when David arose and went, he and his men, and smote of the Philistines two hundred men; and David brought their foreskins, and they delivered them in full to the king, that he might be the king's son-in-law. And Saul gave him Michal his daughter as wife.
28 And Saul saw and knew that Jehovah was with David; and [k] i.e., for warlike raids, as Judges xi. 3, &c. [l] Or 'behaved wisely:' so vers. 14, 30.

[m] The word is differently understood; some interpret it 'noble songs;' cf. Prov. xxii. 20, Keri. [n] Lit. 'said;' and so ver. 17; xx. 3, 26. [o] That is, 'transfix him to the wall.' [p] Some connect 'a second time' with the preceding clause; others translate, 'by one of the two.'

Michal Saul's daughter loved him.
29 And Saul was yet the more afraid of David; and Saul was David's 30 enemy continually. And the princes of the Philistines went forth;[q] and it came to pass, whenever they went forth, that David succeeded better[r] than all the servants of Saul; and his name was much esteemed.

19 And Saul spoke to Jonathan his son, and to all his servants, 2 that they should slay David. But Jonathan Saul's son delighted much in David. And Jonathan told David, saying, Saul my father seeks to kill thee; and now, I pray thee, take heed to thyself in the morning, and abide in a secret 3 place and hide thyself; and I will go out and stand beside my father in the field where thou art, and will speak of thee with my father: and see what it is and tell thee. 4 And Jonathan spoke good of David to Saul his father, and said to him, Let not the king sin against his servant, against David, because he has not sinned against thee; for also what he did was 5 very advantageous to thee; for he put his life in hand, and smote the Philistine, and Jehovah wrought a great salvation for all Israel: thou didst see [it], and didst rejoice; why then wilt thou sin against innocent blood, in slaying 6 David without cause? And Saul hearkened to the voice of Jonathan, and Saul swore, [As] Jehovah liveth, he shall not be[s] put 7 to death! Then Jonathan called David, and Jonathan declared to him all those things. And Jonathan brought David to Saul, and he was in his presence as previously.

8 And there was war again; and David went forth[q] and fought with the Philistines, and smote them with a great slaughter; and 9 they fled before him. And an evil spirit from Jehovah was upon Saul. And he sat in his house with his spear in his hand; and 10 David played with his hand. And Saul sought to smite David and the wall with the spear; but he slipped away out of Saul's presence, and he smote the spear into the wall. And David fled, and 11 escaped that night. And Saul sent messengers to David's house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning; and Michal David's wife told him, saying, If thou save not thy life to-night, to-morrow 12 thou wilt be put to death. And Michal let David down through a window; and he went, and fled 13 and escaped. And Michal took the image,[t] and laid it in the bed, and put the net[v] of goats' [hair] at its head, and covered it with the 14 coverlet. And Saul sent messengers to take David, and she said, 15 He is sick. And Saul sent the messengers to see David, saying, Bring him up to me in the bed, 16 that I may put him to death. And the messengers came in, and behold, the image was in the bed, and the net of goats' [hair] at its 17 head. Then Saul said to Michal, Why hast thou deceived me so, and sent away mine enemy, that he is escaped? And Michal said to Saul, He said to me, Let me go; why should I slay thee?

18 And David fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Ramah, and told him all that Saul had done to him. And he and Samuel went and dwelt in Naioth.

19 And it was told Saul, saying, Behold, David is at Naioth by[w] 20 Ramah. Then Saul sent messengers to take David; and they saw a company of prophets prophesying, and Samuel standing as president over them; and the Spirit of God came upon the messengers of Saul, and they also prophesied. 21 And it was told Saul, and he sent other messengers, and they also prophesied. And Saul sent messengers again the third time, and 22 they also prophesied. Then went he also to Ramah, and came to the great well that is in Sechu; and he asked and said, Where are Samuel and David? And one said, Behold, at Naioth by Ramah. 23 And he went thither to Naioth by Ramah; and the Spirit of God came upon him also, and he went on, and prophesied, until he came 24 to Naioth by Ramah. And he himself also stripped off his clothes, and prophesied, himself also, before Samuel, and lay down naked all that day and all that night. Wherefore they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

20 And David fled from Naioth by Ramah, and came and said before Jonathan, What have I done? what is mine iniquity, and what is my sin before thy father, 2 that he seeks my life? And he said to him, God forbid; thou shalt not die: behold, my father will do nothing either great or small, and not apprise me; and why should my father hide this 3 thing from me? it is not so. And David swore again and again, and said, Thy father certainly knows that I have found favour in thy sight: and he has thought, Jonathan shall not know this, lest he be grieved; but truly [as] Jehovah liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, there is but a step between me and death.

[q] As xviii. 5; and so elsewhere. see on iii. 14. [t] Heb. 'teraphim.' [r] Or 'prospered more.' [v] A protection from gnats. [s] Heb. 'if he be:' [w] Or 'in.'

4 And Jonathan said to David, What thy soul may say, I will 5 even do it for thee. And David said to Jonathan, Behold, tomorrow is new moon, and I should not fail to sit with the king at meat; but let me go, that I may hide myself in the field until the 6 third evening. If thy father should actually miss me, then say, David earnestly asked leave of me that he might run to Bethlehem his city; for there is a yearly sacrifice there for all the family.
7 If he say thus, It is well,—thy servant shall have peace; but if he be very wroth, be sure that evil is 8 determined by him. Deal kindly then with thy servant; for thou hast brought thy servant into a covenant of Jehovah with thee; but if there be in me iniquity, slay me thyself; for why shouldest 9 thou bring me to thy father? And Jonathan said, Far be it from thee; for, if I knew with certainty that evil were determined by my father to come upon thee, would 10 I not tell it thee? Then said David to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? or what if thy father answer 11 thee roughly? And Jonathan said to David, Come and let us go out into the field. And they went out both of them into the field.
12 And Jonathan said to David, Jehovah, God of Israel, when I sound my father about this time to-morrow, [or] the next day, and behold, there be good toward David, and I then send not to thee, 13 and apprise thee of it, Jehovah do so and much more to Jonathan. Should it please my father [to do] thee evil, then I will apprise thee of it, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace; and Jehovah be with thee, as he has 14 been with my father. And thou shalt not only while yet I live shew me the kindness of Jehovah, 15 that I die not, but thou shalt not cut off thy kindness from my house for ever, no, not when Jehovah cuts off the enemies of David every one from the face of 16 the earth. And Jonathan made [a covenant] with the house of David, [saying,] Let Jehovah even require [it] at the hand of David's 17 enemies! And Jonathan caused David to swear again, by the love he had for him, for he loved him as he loved his own soul.
18 And Jonathan said to him, Tomorrow is the new moon; and thou wilt be missed, for thy seat 19 will be empty; but on the third day[a] thou shalt go down quickly, and come to the place where thou didst hide thyself on the day of the business, and abide by the 20 stone Ezel. And I will shoot three arrows on the side of it, as though 21 I shot at a mark. And behold, I will send the lad, [saying,] Go, find the arrows. If I expressly say to the lad, Behold, the arrows are on this side of thee, take them; then come, for there is peace for thee, and it is nothing; [as] Jeho-22 vah liveth. But if I say thus to the youth: Behold, the arrows are beyond thee,—go thy way; 23 for Jehovah sends thee away. And as to the matter which thou and I have spoken of, behold, Jehovah is between me and thee for ever.
24 And David hid himself in the field; and it was the new moon, and the king sat at table to eat.
25 And the king sat on his seat, as at other times, on the seat by the wall; and Jonathan arose, and Abner sat by Saul's side, and 26 David's place was empty. And Saul said nothing that day; for he thought, Something has befallen [him], that he is not clean:
27 surely he is not clean. And it came to pass the next day after the new moon, the second [day of the month], as David's place was empty, that Saul said to Jonathan his son, Why has not the son of Jesse come to table, neither yester-28 day nor to-day? And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me [to go] to Bethle-29 hem, and said, Let me go, I pray thee; for we have a family sacrifice in the city; and my brother himself has commanded me [to be there]; and now, if I have found favour in thy sight, let me go away, I pray thee, and see my brethren. He has therefore not 30 come to the king's table. And

[a] Lit. 'thou shalt leave three days.'

Saul's anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said to him, Son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own shame and to the shame of 31 thy mother's nakedness? For as long as the son of Jesse lives upon earth, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom. And now send and fetch him to me, for 32 he must die.[v] And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said to him, Why should he be put to 33 death? what has he done? Then Saul cast the spear at him to smite him; and Jonathan knew 34 that it was determined by his father to put David to death. And Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and ate no meat the second day of the new moon; for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.
35 And it came to pass in the morning that Jonathan went out into the field, to the place agreed 36 on with David, and a little lad with him. And he said to his lad, Run, find now the arrows which I shoot. The lad ran, and he shot 37 the arrow beyond him. And when the lad came to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad and said, Is not the arrow away beyond 38 thee? And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not! And Jonathan's lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his 39 master. And the lad knew nothing: only Jonathan and David 40 knew the matter. And Jonathan gave his weapons to his lad, and said to him, Go, carry them to the 41 city. The lad went, and David arose from the side of the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times; and they kissed one another, and wept one with another, until David 42 exceeded. And Jonathan said to David, Go in peace, forasmuch as we have both of us sworn in the name of Jehovah, saying, Jehovah be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for 43 ever! And he arose and departed; and Jonathan went into the city.

21 And David came to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest; and Ahimelech trembled at meeting David, and said to him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?
2 And David said to Ahimelech the priest, The king has commanded me a business, and has said to me, Let no man know anything of the business whereon I send thee, and what I have commanded thee; and I have directed the young 3 men to such and such a place. And now what is under thy hand? give me five loaves in my hand, or 4 what may be found. And the priest answered David and said, There is no common bread under my hand, but there is holy bread; if the young men have kept them-
5 selves at least from women. And David answered the priest and said to him, Yes indeed, women have been kept from us about these three days, since I came out, and the vessels of the young men are holy, and the [bread] is in a manner common, and the more so, because to-day [new] is hal-6 lowed in the vessels. And the priest gave him holy [bread]; for there was no bread there but the shew-loaves that were taken from before Jehovah, to put on hot bread in the day when they were 7 taken away. (Now a certain man of the servants of Saul was there that day, detained before Jehovah; and his name was Doeg, the Edomite, chief of the shepherds 8 that [belonged] to Saul.) And David said to Ahimelech, And is there not here under thy hand spear or sword? for I have neither brought my sword nor my weapons with me, for the king's business 9 was urgent. And the priest said, The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom thou slewest in the valley of terebinths, behold, it is here wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod; if thou wilt take that, take it; for there is no other save that here. And David said, There is 10 none like that: give it me. And David arose, and fled that day from before Saul, and went to Achish the king of Gath.
11 And the servants of Achish said to him, Is not this David the king of the land? did they not sing one to another of him in dances, saying, Saul has smitten his thousands, and David his ten thousands?
12 And David took to heart these words, and was much afraid of 13 Achish the king of Gath. And he changed his behaviour before them, and feigned himself mad in their hands, and scratched on the doors of the gate, and let his 14 spittle fall down on his beard. And Achish said to his servants, Be[v] Lit. 'he is a child of death:' similarly in xxvi. 16.

hold, ye see the man is mad: why 15 did ye bring him to me? have I lack of madmen, that ye have brought this one to rave in my presence? shall this [man] come into my house?

22 And David departed thence, and escaped to the cave of Adullam. And his brethren and all his father's house heard [it], and they went down thither to 2 him. And every one in distress, and every one that was in debt, and every one of embittered spirit [z] collected round him; and he became a captain over them; and there were with him about four 3 hundred men. And David went thence to Mizpeh in Moab, and said to the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth amongst you, till I know what God will do for me.
4 And he brought them before the king of Moab; and they abode with him all the while that David was in the stronghold.
5 And the prophet Gad said to David, Abide not in the stronghold; depart, and go into the land of Judah. Then David departed, and came into the forest of Hareth.
6 And Saul heard that David was discovered, and the men that were with him. Now Saul was sitting in Gibeah under the tamarisk upon the height, having his spear in his hand, and all his servants were 7 standing by him. Then Saul said to his servants that stood by him, Hear now, ye Benjaminites: will the son of Jesse give every one of you also fields and vineyards?
Will he make you all captains of thousands and captains of hun-8 dreds, that all of you have conspired against me, and there is none that informs me when my son has made [a covenant] with the son of Jesse; and there is none of you that is sorry for me, or informs me that my son has stirred up my servant as a lier-in-wait against me, as at this day?
9 Then answered Doeg the Edomite, who was set over the servants of Saul, and said, I saw the son of Jesse coming to Nob, to Ahimelech 10 the son of Ahitub. And he inquired of Jehovah for him, and gave him victuals, and gave him the sword of Goliath the Philistine.
11 Then the king sent to call Ahimelech the priest, the son of Ahitub, and all his father's house, the priests that were in Nob; and they came all of them to the king.
12 And Saul said, Hear now, son of Ahitub. And he answered, Here 13 I am, my lord. And Saul said to him, Why have ye conspired against me, thou and the son of Jesse, in that thou hast given him bread, and a sword, and hast inquired of God for him, that he should rise against me as a lier-14 in-wait, as at this day? And Ahimelech answered the king and said, And who is so faithful among all thy servants as David, who is the king's son-in-law, and has access to thy secret council,[a] and 15 is honourable in thy house? Was it to-day that I began to inquire of God for him? be it far from me: let not the king charge anything to his servant, [nor] to all the house of my father; for thy servant knew nothing of all this, 16 less or more. And the king said, Thou shalt certainly die, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy father's 17 house. And the king said to the couriers that stood about him, Turn and put the priests of Jehovah to death; because their hand also is with David, and because they knew when he fled, and did not inform me. But the servants of the king were not willing to put forth their hand to fall on the 18 priests of Jehovah. And the king said to Doeg, Turn thou, and fall on the priests. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and fell on the priests, and put to death that day eighty-five persons who wore the 19 linen ephod. And Nob, the city of the priests, he smote with the edge of the sword, both men and women, infants and sucklings, and oxen, and asses, and sheep, with the edge of the sword.
20 And one of the sons of Ahimelech the son of Ahitub, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled after 21 David. And Abiathar informed David that Saul had slain Jeho-22 vah's priests. And David said to Abiathar, I knew it that day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would certainly tell Saul:
I am accountable for all the 23 lives of thy father's house. Abide with me, fear not; for he that seeks my life seeks thy life; for with me thou art in safe keeping.

23 And they told David, saying, Behold, the Philistines fight against Keilah, and they rob the threshing-floors. And David inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go and smite these Philistines? And Jehovah said to David, Go and smite the Philistines, and save Keilah. But David's men said to him, Behold, we are afraid here in Judah; how much more then if we go to Keilah against the armies[b] of the Philistines? And David inquired of Jehovah yet again. And Jehovah answered him and said, Arise, go down to Keilah; for I will give the Philistines into thy hand. And David and his men went to Keilah, and fought against the Philistines, and brought away their cattle, and smote them with a great slaughter. So David saved the inhabitants of Keilah.

6 And it came to pass, when Abiathar the son of Ahimelech fled to David to Keilah, he came down with an ephod in his hand. And it was told Saul that David had come to Keilah. Then Saul said, God has cast him off into my hand; for he is shut in, by entering into a city that has gates and bars. And Saul summoned all the people to war, to go down to Keilah, to besiege David and his men. And when David knew that Saul devised mischief against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, Bring the ephod. Then said David, Jehovah, God of Israel, thy servant hath heard for certain that Saul seeketh to come to Keilah, to destroy the city for my sake. Will the citizens of Keilah deliver me up into his hand? will Saul come down, as thy servant hath heard? Jehovah, God of Israel, I beseech thee, tell thy servant. And Jehovah said, He will come down. And David said, Will the citizens of Keilah deliver up me and my men into the hand of Saul? And Jehovah said, They will deliver [thee] up.

13 Then David and his men, about six hundred, arose and departed out of Keilah, and went whithersoever they could go. And it was told Saul that David had escaped from Keilah, and he forbore to go forth. And David abode in the wilderness in strongholds, and abode in the mountain in the wilderness of Ziph. And Saul sought him every day, but God did not give him into his hand.

15 And David saw that Saul had come out to seek his life; and David was in the wilderness of Ziph in a wood. And Jonathan Saul's son arose, and went to David into the wood, and strengthened his hand in God. And he said to him, Fear not; for the hand of Saul my father will not find thee; and thou shalt be king over Israel, and I shall be next to thee; and that also Saul my father knows. And they two made a covenant before Jehovah; and David abode in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.

19 And the Ziphites came up to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Does not David hide himself with us in strongholds in the wood, on the hill of Hachilah, which is on the south of the waste? And now, O king, come down according to all the desire of thy soul to come down; and it will be for us to deliver him up into the king's hand. And Saul said, Blessed be ye of Jehovah; for ye have compassion upon me. Go, I pray you, make yet more sure, and know and see his place where his track is, who has seen him there; for it is told me that he deals very subtilly.[c] And see, and ascertain all the lurking-places where he hides himself, and come ye again to me with sure information, that I may go with you; and it shall come to pass, if he be in the land, that I will search him out throughout the thousands of Judah. And they arose and went to Ziph before Saul; but David and his men were in the wilderness of Maon, in the plain[d] on the south of the waste.

25 And Saul and his men went to seek [him]. And they told David; and he came down from the rock, and abode in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul heard [that], and he pursued after David in the wilderness of Maon. And Saul went on this side of the mountain, and David and his men on that side of the mountain; and David made haste to get away from Saul; and Saul and his men sought to surround David and his men to take them. But there came a messenger to Saul, saying, Haste thee and come, for the Philistines have made a raid against the land. And Saul returned from pursuing after David, and went against the Philistines; therefore they called that place Sela-hammahlekoth.[e]

24 And David went up from thence, and abode in the strong-2 holds of Engedi. And it came to pass when Saul had returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of En-3 gedi. And Saul took three thousand men, chosen out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild 4 goats. And he came to the sheepfolds by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet; and David and his men were abiding in the recesses of the 5 cave. And David's men said to him, Behold the day of which Jehovah said to thee, Behold, I will give thine enemy into thy hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good to thee. And David arose, and cut off the skirt 6 of Saul's robe secretly. And it came to pass afterwards that David's heart smote him, because 7 he had cut off Saul's skirt. And he said to his men, Jehovah forbid that I should do this thing to my master, Jehovah's anointed, to stretch forth my hand against him, for he is the anointed of Jehovah.
8 And David checked[f] his men with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. And Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on [his] way.
9 David also arose afterwards, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king! And when Saul looked behind him, David bowed with his face to the earth, and did obeis-10 ance. And David said to Saul, Why dost thou listen to words of men, saying, Behold, David seeks 11 thy hurt? Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that Jehovah had given thee this day into my hand in the cave; and they bade me kill thee; but [mine eye] spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth my hand against my lord, for he is the anointed of Jeho-12 vah. And see, my father, yes, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand. For in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in my hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou liest in wait for[g] 13 my life to take it. Jehovah judge between me and thee, and Jehovah avenge me of thee; but my hand 14 shall not be upon thee. As saith the proverb of the ancients, Wickedness proceedeth from the wicked; but my hand shall not 15 be upon thee. After whom is the king of Israel come out? after whom dost thou pursue? after a 16 dead dog, after a single flea. Jehovah therefore shall be judge, and judge between me and thee, and see, and plead my cause, and do me justice [in delivering me] out of thy hand.
17 And as soon as David had ended speaking these words to Saul, Saul said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And Saul lifted up his 18 voice and wept. And he said to David, Thou art more righteous than I; for thou hast rewarded me good, whereas I have rewarded 19 thee evil. And thou hast shewed this day how that thou hast dealt well with me, forasmuch as when Jehovah had delivered me up into thy hand, thou didst not kill me.
20 For if a man find his enemy, will he let him go well away? wherefore Jehovah reward thee good for 21 that thou hast done to me this day. And now behold, I know that thou shalt certainly be king, and that the kingdom of Israel 22 shall be established in thy hand. Swear now therefore to me by Jehovah, that thou wilt not cut off my seed after me, and that 23 thou wilt not destroy my name out of my father's house. And David swore to Saul. And Saul went home; and David and his men went up to the stronghold.

25 And Samuel died; and all Israel were gathered together, and lamented him; and they buried him in his house at Ramah.

And David arose and went down
2 to the wilderness of Paran. And there was a man at Maon, whose business was at Carmel; [h] and the man was very great, and he had three thousand sheep and a thou-3 sand goats; and he was shearing his sheep at Carmel. And the name of the man was Nabal,[i] and the name of his wife Abigail; and the woman was of good understanding, and of a beautiful countenance; but the man was churl-4 ish[k] and evil in his doings; and he was a Calebite. And David 5 heard in the wilderness that Nabal was shearing his sheep. Then

David sent out ten young men; and David said to the young men, Go up to Carmel, and go to Nabal, 6 and greet him in my name. And thus shall ye say: Long life [to thee]! and peace be to thee, and peace be to thy house, and peace 7 be to all that thou hast! And now I have heard that thou hast shearers; now thy shepherds who were with us, we hurt them not, neither was there aught missed by them, all the while they were in 8 Carmel. Ask thy young men, and they will tell thee. Therefore let the young men find favour in thine eyes; for we come in a good day: give, I pray thee, what thy hand may find to thy servants, and 9 to thy son David. And David's young men came, and spoke to Nabal according to all those words in the name of David, and ceased.
10 And Nabal answered David's servants and said, Who is David? and who is the son of Jesse? there are many servants now-a-days that break away every man from 11 his master. And shall I take my bread, and my water, and my flesh which I have killed for my shearers, and give [it] to men whom I know not whence they 12 are? And David's young men turned their way, and went back, and came and reported to him 13 according to all those words. And David said to his men, Gird ye on every man his sword. And they girded on every man his sword; and David also girded on his sword; and there went up after David about four hundred men; and two hundred abode by the baggage.
14 And one of [Nabal's] young men told Abigail, Nabal's wife, saying, Behold, David sent messengers out of the wilderness to bless our master; and he has 15 insulted[l] them. And the men were very good to us, and we were not hurt, neither missed we anything, as long as we companied with them, when we were in the 16 fields. They were a wall to us both by night and day, all the while we were with them feeding 17 the sheep. And now know and consider what thou wilt do, for evil is determined against our master, and against all his household; and he is such a son of Belial, that one cannot speak to him.
18 And Abigail made haste, and took two hundred loaves, and two skin-bottles of wine, and five sheep ready dressed, and five measures of parched [corn], and a hundred raisin-cakes, and two hundred fig-cakes, and laid them 19 on asses. And she said to her young men, Go on before me; behold, I come after you. But she did not tell her husband Nabal.
20 And as she was riding on the ass, and coming down by the covert of the hill, behold, David and his men came down opposite to her;
21 and she met them. Now David had said, Surely, in vain have I kept all that this [man] had in the wilderness, so that nothing was missed of all that was his; and he 22 has requited me evil for good. So and more also do God to the enemies of David, if I leave of all that is his by the morning light any male.
23 And when Abigail saw David, she hasted and lighted off the ass, and fell before David on her face, and bowed herself to the ground, 24 and fell at his feet, and said, Upon me, my lord, [upon] me let the iniquity be; but let thy handmaid, I pray thee, speak in thine ears, and hear the words of thy hand-25 maid. Let not my lord, I pray thee, regard this man of Belial, Nabal; for as his name is, so is he: Nabal[m] is his name, and folly[n] is with him; and I thy handmaid did not see the young men of my lord, whom thou didst 26 send. And now, my lord, [as] Jehovah liveth, and [as] thy soul liveth, seeing Jehovah has restrained thee from coming with bloodshed, and from avenging thyself with thine own hand, now let thine enemies, and they that seek evil to my lord, be as Nabal.
27 And now this blessing which thy bondmaid has brought to my lord, let it be given to the young men 28 that follow my lord. I pray thee, forgive the transgression of thy handmaid: for Jehovah will certainly make my lord a lasting house; because my lord fights the battles of Jehovah, and evil has not been found in thee all thy 29 days. And if a man is risen up to pursue thee and to seek thy life, the soul of my lord shall be bound in the bundle of the living with Jehovah thy God; and the souls of thine enemies, them shall he sling out from the hollow of the 30 sling. And it shall come to pass,

[l] Lit. 'he flew upon.' [m] See ver. 3. [n] Or 'impiety.'

when Jehovah shall do to my lord according to all the good that he has spoken concerning thee, and shall appoint thee ruler over Israel, 31 that this shall be no stumbling-block to thee, nor offence of heart for my lord, either that thou hast shed blood without cause, or that my lord has avenged himself. And when Jehovah shall deal well with my lord, then remember thy handmaid.
32 And David said to Abigail, Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, who sent thee this day to 33 meet me. And blessed be thy discernment, and blessed be thou, who hast kept me this day from coming with bloodshed, and from avenging myself with mine own 34 hand. But indeed, as Jehovah the God of Israel liveth, who has restrained me from hurting thee, except thou hadst hasted and come to meet me, there had not been left to Nabal by the morning 35 light any male. So David received of her hand what she had brought him, and said to her, Go up in peace to thy house; see, I have hearkened to thy voice, and have accepted thy person.
36 And Abigail came to Nabal; and behold, he held a feast in his house, like the feast of a king; and Nabal's heart was merry within him, for he was drunken to excess; so she told him nothing, less or more, 37 until the morning light. And it came to pass in the morning, when the wine was gone out of Nabal, that his wife told him these things; and his heart died within him, and 38 he became [as] a stone. And it came to pass in about ten days that Jehovah smote Nabal, and he died.
39 And when David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, Blessed be Jehovah, who has pleaded the cause of my reproach from the hand of Nabal, and has kept back his servant from evil; but Jehovah has returned Nabal's evil upon his own head. And David sent and communed with Abigail, to 40 take her as his wife. And the servants of David came to Abigail to Carmel, and spoke to her, saying, David has sent us to thee, 41 to take thee as his wife. And she arose and bowed herself on her face to the earth, and said, Behold, let thy handmaid be a bondwoman to wash the feet of the servants of 42 my lord. And Abigail hasted, and arose, and rode upon an ass, with five damsels of hers that followed her; and she went after the messengers of David, and became his wife.
43 David had also taken Ahinoam of Jizreel; and they became, even 44 both of them, his wives. But Saul had given Michal his daughter, David's wife, to Phalti the son of Laish, who was of Gallim.

26 And the Ziphites came to Saul to Gibeah, saying, Does not David hide himself in the hill of 2 Hachilah, facing the waste? And Saul arose, and went down to the wilderness of Ziph, having three thousand chosen men of Israel with him, to seek David in the 3 wilderness of Ziph. And Saul encamped in the hill of Hachilah, which faces the waste, by the way side. And David abode in the wilderness; and when he saw that Saul had come after him into the 4 wilderness, David sent out spies, and learned that Saul was certainly 5 come. And David arose and came to the place where Saul had encamped; and David beheld the place where Saul lay, and Abner the son of Ner, the captain of his host; and Saul lay within the wagon-defence, and the people were encamped round about him.
6 And David spake and said to Ahimelech the Hittite, and to Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, saying, Who will go down with me to Saul to the camp? And Abishai said, I will go down 7 with thee. And David and Abishai came to the people by night, and behold, Saul lay sleeping within the wagon-defence, and his spear stuck in the ground at his head; and Abner and the people lay 8 round about him. And Abishai said to David, God has delivered thine enemy into thy hand this day; and now let me smite him, I pray thee, with the spear, even to the ground once, and I will not 9 do it the second time. And David said to Abishai, Destroy him not; for who can stretch forth his hand against Jehovah's anointed, and 10 be guiltless? And David said, [As] Jehovah liveth, Jehovah will surely smite him; either his day shall come to die, or he shall de-11 scend into battle and perish. Jehovah forbid that I should stretch forth my hand against Jehovah's anointed! But now take, I pray thee, the spear that is at his head, and the cruse of water, and let us 12 go. And David took the spear and the cruse of water from Saul's head; and they went away, and no man saw [it], and none knew [it], and none awaked, for they were all asleep; for a deep sleep from Jehovah had fallen upon them.

13 And David went over to the other side, and stood on the top of a hill afar off; a great space 14 [being] between them. And David cried to the people, and to Abner the son of Ner, saying, Answerest thou not, Abner? Then Abner answered and said, Who art thou 15 that criest to the king? And David said to Abner, Art not thou a man? and who is like to thee in Israel? and why hast thou not guarded thy lord the king? for one of the people came in to de-16 stroy the king thy lord. This thing is not good which thou hast done. As Jehovah liveth, ye are worthy to die, because ye have not guarded your master, Jehovah's anointed. And now see where the king's spear is, and the cruse of water that was at his head.
17 And Saul knew David's voice, and said, Is this thy voice, my son David? And David said, It 18 is my voice, my lord, O king. And he said, Why does my lord thus pursue after his servant? for what have I done? or what evil is in 19 my hand? And now, I pray thee, let my lord the king hear the words of his servant. If Jehovah have moved thee against me, let him accept an oblation; but if the sons of men, cursed be they before Jehovah; for they have driven me out this day from adhering to the inheritance of Jehovah, saying, 20 Go, serve other gods. And now, let not my blood fall to the earth far from the face of Jehovah; for the king of Israel is come out to seek a single flea, as when they hunt a partridge on the mountains.
21 And Saul said, I have sinned: return, my son David; for I will no more do thee harm, because my life was precious in thine eyes this day: behold, I have acted foolishly, and have erred exceedingly.
22 And David answered and said, Behold the king's spear, and let 23 one of the young men come over and fetch it. And Jehovah will render to every man his righteousness and his faithfulness; for Jehovah gave thee into [my] hand this day, and I would not stretch forth my hand against Jehovah's 24 anointed. And behold, as thy life was highly esteemed[o] this day in mine eyes, so let my life be highly esteemed[p] in the eyes of Jehovah, that he may deliver me out of all 25 distress. And Saul said to David, Blessed be thou, my son David: thou shalt certainly do [great things], and shalt certainly prevail. And David went on his way, and Saul returned to his place.

27 And David said in his heart, I shall now perish one day by the hand of Saul: there is nothing better for me than that I should speedily escape into the land of the Philistines; and Saul will despair of me to seek me any more within all the limits of Israel, and 2 I shall escape out of his hand. And David arose and passed over, he and the six hundred men that were with him, to Achish, the son 3 of Maoch, king of Gath. And David abode with Achish at Gath, he and his men, every man with his household; David with his two wives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the Carmelitess, Na-4 bal's wife. And it was told Saul that David had fled to Gath; and he sought no more for him.
5 And David said to Achish, If now I have found favour in thine eyes, let them give me a place in some country-town, that I may abide there; for why should thy servant abide in the royal city 6 with thee? And Achish gave him Ziklag that day; therefore Ziklag belongs to the kings of Judah to 7 this day. And the time that David abode in the country of the Philistines was a year and four months.
8 And David and his men went up and made a raid upon the Geshurites, and the Gerzites, and the Amalekites: for those were of old the inhabitants of the land, as thou goest to Shur, and as far as the 9 land of Egypt. And David smote the land, and left neither man nor woman alive, and took away the sheep, and the oxen, and the asses, and the camels, and the apparel, and returned, and came to Achish.
10 So Achish said, Have ye not made a raid to-day? And David said, Against the south[q] of Judah, and against the south[q] of the Jerahmeelites, and against the south[q] 11 of the Kenites. And David left neither man nor woman alive, to bring [them] to Gath, for he said, Lest they should tell of us, saying, [o] Lit. 'was great.' [p] Lit. 'be great.' [q] Those portions of the Negeb inhabited respectively by Judah, the Jerahmeelites, and the Kenites: cf. Judges i. 16.

So did David. And such was his custom as long as he abode in the 12 country of the Philistines. And Achish trusted David, saying, He has made himself utterly odious among his people Israel; and he shall be my servant for ever.

28 And it came to pass in those days that the Philistines gathered together their armies for warfare to fight against Israel. And Achish said to David, Know thou assuredly that thou shalt go out with me to the camp, thou and 2 thy men. And David said to Achish, Thereby thou shalt know what thy servant can do. And Achish said to David, Therefore will I make thee keeper of my person[r] for ever.

3 (Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and they had buried him in Ramah, even in his own city. And Saul had put away the necromancers[s] and the soothsayers out of the land.)
4 And the Philistines gathered themselves together, and came and encamped in Shunem; and Saul 5 gathered all Israel together, and they encamped in Gilboa. And when Saul saw the camp of the Philistines, he was afraid, and his 6 heart greatly trembled. And Saul inquired of Jehovah; but Jehovah did not answer him, either by dreams, or by Urim, or by pro-7 phets. Then said Saul to his servants, Seek me a woman that has a spirit of Python, that I may go to her and inquire of her. And his servants said to him, Behold, there is a woman who has a spirit of Python at En-dor.

8 And Saul disguised himself, and put on other garments, and he went, and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night; and he said, I pray thee, divine to me by the spirit of Python, and bring me [him] up whom I shall 9 name to thee. And the woman said to him, Behold, thou knowest what Saul has done, how he has cut off the necromancers and the soothsayers out of the land; and why layest thou a snare for my life, to 10 cause me to die? And Saul swore unto her by Jehovah, saying, [As] Jehovah liveth, there shall no punishment happen to thee for 11 this thing. Then said the woman, Whom shall I bring up to thee? And he said, Bring me up Samuel.

12 And when the woman saw Samuel, she cried out with a loud voice; and the woman spoke to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceived me? Even thou art Saul.
13 And the king said to her, Be not afraid; but what didst thou see? And the woman said to Saul, I saw a god[t] ascending out of the earth.
14 And he said to her, What is his form? And she said, An old man comes up; and he is covered with a mantle. And Saul knew that it was Samuel, and he stooped with his face to the ground, and bowed 15 himself. And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou disquieted me, to bring me up? And Saul said, I am sore distressed; for the Philistines make war against me, and God is departed from me, and answers me no more, neither by prophets nor by dreams; therefore I have called thee, that thou mayest make known to me what 16 I shall do. And Samuel said, Why then dost thou inquire of me, seeing Jehovah is departed from thee, 17 and is become thine enemy? And Jehovah has done for himself[w] as he spoke by me; and Jehovah has rent the kingdom out of thy hand, and given it to thy neighbour, to 18 David. Because thou didst not hearken to the voice of Jehovah, and didst not execute his fierce anger upon Amalek, therefore has Jehovah done this thing to thee 19 this day. And Jehovah will also give Israel with thee into the hand of the Philistines; and to-morrow shalt thou and thy sons be with me; the army[x] of Israel also will Jehovah give into the hands of the 20 Philistines. And Saul fell straightway his full length on the earth, and was sore afraid because of the words of Samuel; and there was no strength in him, for he had eaten no bread all the day nor all the night.

21 And the woman came to Saul, and saw that he was sore troubled, and said to him, Behold, thy bondmaid has hearkened to thy voice, and I have put my life in my hand, and have hearkened to thy words 22 which thou spokest to me. And now, I pray thee, hearken thou also to the voice of thy bondmaid, and let me set a morsel of bread before thee; and eat, that thou mayest have strength when thou 23 goest on thy way. But he refused and said, I will not eat. Then his servants, and the woman also, compelled him, and he hearkened to their voice; and he arose from 24 the earth and sat on the bed. And the woman had a fat calf in the house; and she hasted and killed it, and took flour, and kneaded it, and baked unleavened bread 25 thereof; and she brought it near before Saul, and before his servants, and they ate. And they rose up and went away that night.

29 And the Philistines gathered together all their armies to Aphek; and Israel encamped by 2 the spring that is in Jezreel. And the lords of the Philistines passed on by hundreds and by thousands; and David and his men passed on 3 in the rearward with Achish. And the princes of the Philistines said, What are these Hebrews? And Achish said to the princes of the Philistines, Is not this David, the servant of Saul the king of Israel, who has been with me these days, or these years, and I have found nothing in him since the day of his falling away [to me] to this 4 day? But the princes of the Philistines were wroth with him; and the princes of the Philistines said to him, Make the man return, that he may go again to his place where thou hast appointed him, that he go not down with us to the battle, that in the battle he be not an adversary to us; for wherewith should this [fellow] reconcile himself to his master? should it not be with the heads of these 5 men? Is not this David, of whom they sang one to another in dances, saying, Saul smote his thousands, and David his ten thousands?
6 And Achish called David, and said to him, [As] Jehovah liveth, thou art upright, and thy going out and thy coming in with me in the camp is acceptable to me; [v] for I have not found evil in thee since the day of thy coming to me to this day; but thou art not accept-7 able to the lords. And now return, and go in peace, that thou displease not the lords of the Philis-8 tines. And David said to Achish, But what have I done? and what hast thou found in thy servant so long as I have been with thee to this day, that I should not go and fight against the enemies of my 9 lord the king? And Achish answered and said to David, I know that thou art acceptable to me, as an angel of God; nevertheless the princes of the Philistines have said, He shall not go up with us to the 10 battle. And now rise up early in the morning with thy master's servants that are come with thee; and rise ye early in the morning, and when ye have daylight, de-11 part. And David rose up early, he and his men, to depart in the morning, to return into the land of the Philistines. And the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

30 And it came to pass, when David and his men came to Ziklag on the third day, that the Amalekites had made a raid upon the south, [z] and upon Ziklag, and smitten Ziklag and burned it with 2 fire; and had taken the women captives that were in it; both great and small: they had put none to death, but had carried them off, and went on their way.
3 And David and his men came to the city, and behold, it was burnt with fire; and their wives, and their sons, and their daughters 4 were taken captives. Then David and the people that were with him lifted up their voice and wept, until they had no more power to 5 weep. And David's two wives were taken captives, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife 6 of Nabal the Carmelite. And David was greatly distressed; for the people spoke of stoning him; for the soul of all the people was embittered, every man because of his sons and because of his daughters; but David strengthened himself in Jehovah his God.
7 And David said to Abiathar the priest, Ahimelech's son, Bring near to me, I pray thee, the ephod. And Abiathar brought the ephod 8 near to David. And David inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I pursue after this troop? shall I overtake them? And he said to him, Pursue; for thou shalt assuredly overtake [them] and 9 shalt certainly recover. So David went, he and the six hundred men that were with him, and they came to the torrent Besor; and those that were left stayed be-10 hind. And David pursued, he and four hundred men; for two hundred stayed behind, who were too exhausted to go over the torrent Besor.
11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, and brought him to David, and gave him bread, and he ate; and they gave him water to 12 drink, and gave him a piece of fig-cake and two raisin-cakes, and he ate, and his spirit came again to him; for he had eaten no bread, nor drunk any water, for three 13 days and three nights. And David said to him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? And he said, I am a young man of Egypt, servant of an Amalekite;

and my master left me, because 14 three days ago I fell sick. We made a raid against the south [a] of the Cherethites, and against what [belongs] to Judah, and against the south of Caleb; and we burned 15 Ziklag with fire. And David said to him, Canst thou bring me down to this troop? And he said, Swear to me by God, that thou wilt neither put me to death nor deliver me up into the hand of my master, and I will bring thee down to this troop.
16 And he brought him down, and behold, they were spread over the whole land, eating and drinking, and dancing, because of all the great spoil that they had taken out of the land of the Philistines, 17 and out of the land of Judah. And David smote them from the twilight even to the evening of the next day; and there escaped not a man of them, save four hundred young men, who rode upon camels, 18 and fled. And David recovered all that the Amalekites had taken:
and David recovered his two wives.
19 And there was nothing missed by them, neither small nor great, neither sons nor daughters, neither spoil nor anything that they had taken: David brought all back.
20 And David took all the flocks and the herds, [which] they drove before the other cattle, and said, This is David's spoil.
21 And David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow David, and whom they had left behind at the torrent Besor; and they went forth to meet David, and to meet
the people that were with him;
and David drew near to the people 22 and saluted them. And all the wicked men, and [men] of Belial, of those that had gone with David, answered and said, Because they went not with us, we will not give them [aught] of the spoil that we have recovered, save to every man his wife and his children, that they may lead [them] away and depart.
23 Then said David, Ye shall not do so, my brethren, with that which Jehovah has given us, who has preserved us, and given the troop that came against us into 24 our hand. And who will hearken to you in this matter? For as his share is that goes down to the battle, so shall his share be that abides by the baggage: they shall 25 share alike. And it was [so] from that day forward; and he made it a statute and an ordinance for Israel to this day.
26 And David came to Ziklag, and he sent of the spoil to the elders of Judah, to his friends, saying, Behold a present [b] for you of the spoil of the enemies of Jehovah: 27 to those in Bethel, and to those in south Ramoth, [c] and to those 28 in Jattir, and to those in Aroer, and to those in Siphmoth, and to 29 those in Eshtemoa, and to those in Rachal, and to those in the cities of the Jerahmeelites, and to those 30 in the cities of the Kenites, and to those in Hormah, and to those in Chor-ashan, and to those in 31 Athach, and to those in Hebron, and to all the places where David himself and his men went about.

31 And the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on mount 2 Gilboa. And the Philistines followed hard upon Saul and upon his sons; and the Philistines smote Jonathan, and Abinadab, 3 and Malchi-shua, Saul's sons. And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers came up with him; and he was much terrified [d] 4 by the archers. Then said Saul to his armourbearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through with it; lest these uncircumcised come and thrust me through, and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was much afraid. So Saul took the sword and 5 fell on it. And when his armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on his sword, and 6 died with him. So Saul died, and his three sons, and his armour-bearer, and all his men, that same 7 day together. And when the men of Israel that were on this side of the valley, and [they] that were on this side of the Jordan, saw that the men of Israel fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook the cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.

8 And it came to pass the next day, that the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his three sons fallen on 9 mount Gilboa. And they cut off his head, and stripped off his armour, and sent [them] into the land of the Philistines round about, to announce the glad tidings in the houses of their idols, and to the 10 people. And they put his armour in the house of Ashtaroth;[e] and they fastened his body to the wall 11 of Beth-shan. And when the inhabitants of Jabesh-Gilead heard of what the Philistines had done 12 to Saul, all the valiant men arose and went all night, and took the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons from the wall of Beth-shan, and came to Jabesh, and 13 burned them there. And they took their bones, and buried them under the tamarisk at Jabesh, and fasted seven days.

SECOND BOOK OF SAMUEL

1 And it came to pass after the death of Saul, when David had returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, that David abode two 2 days in Ziklag. And it came to pass on the third day, that behold, a man came out of the camp from Saul with his garments rent, and earth upon his head; and as soon as he came to David, he fell to the 3 earth and did obeisance. And David said to him, Whence comest thou? And he said to him, Out of the camp of Israel am I escaped.
4 And David said to him, What has taken place? I pray thee, tell me. And he said that the people had fled from the battle, and many of the people also had fallen and died, and that Saul and Jonathan 5 his son were dead also. And David said to the young man that told him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his son are dead?
6 And the young man that told him said, I happened by chance to be upon mount Gilboa, and behold, Saul leaned on his spear; and behold, the chariots and horsemen 7 followed hard after him. And he looked behind him, and saw me, and called to me. And I said, 8 Here am I. And he said to me, Who art thou? And I said to 9 him, I am an Amalekite. He said to me again, Stand, I pray thee, over me, and slay me; for anguish[a] has seized me; for my life 10 is yet whole in me. So I stood over him, and put him to death, for I knew that he would not live after his fall; and I took the crown that was upon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arm, and have brought them hither to 11 my lord. Then David took hold of his garments and rent them; and all the men that were with 12 him [did] likewise. And they mourned, and wept, and fasted until even for Saul, and for Jonathan his son, and for the people of Jehovah, and for the house of Israel; because they were fallen by the sword.
13 And David said to the young man that told him, Whence art thou? And he said, I am the son 14 of an Amalekite stranger. And David said to him, How wast thou not afraid to stretch forth thy hand to destroy Jehovah's anoint-15 ed? Then David called one of the young men and said, Draw near, [and] fall on him. And he 16 smote him that he died. And David said to him, Thy blood be upon thy head; for thy mouth has testified against thee, saying, I have slain Jehovah's anointed.
17 And David lamented with this lamentation over Saul and over 18 Jonathan his son; and he bade them teach the children of Judah [the song of] the[b] bow. Behold, it is written in the book of Jasher[c]:— 19 The beauty of Israel is slain upon thy high places:
How are the mighty fallen!
20 Tell [it] not in Gath, Carry not the tidings in the streets of Ashkelon;
Lest the daughters of the Philistines rejoice,

Lest the daughters of the uncircumcised triumph.
21 Ye mountains of [d] Gilboa, let there be no dew, no rain upon
you,
Nor fields of heave-offerings!
For there the shield of the mighty was vilely cast away,
The shield of Saul, [as] not anointed with oil.
22 From the blood of the slain,
From the fat of the mighty,
The bow of Jonathan turned not back,
And the sword of Saul returned not empty.
23 Saul and Jonathan, beloved and pleasant in their lives, Even in their death were not divided;
They were swifter than eagles,
They were stronger than lions.
24 Ye daughters of Israel, weep over Saul, Who clothed you in scarlet with splendour,
Who put ornaments of gold upon your apparel.
25 How are the mighty fallen in the midst of the battle!
Jonathan is slain upon thy high places.
26 I am distressed for thee, my brother Jonathan:
Very pleasant wast thou unto me;
Thy love to me was wonderful,
Passing women's love.
27 How are the mighty fallen, and the instruments of war perished!

2 And it came to pass after this that David inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go up into one of the cities of Judah? And Jehovah said to him, Go up. And David said, Whither shall I go up? And 2 he said, Unto Hebron. So David went up thither, and his two wives also, Ahinoam the Jezreelitess, and Abigail the wife of Nabal the 3 Carmelite. And his men that were with him did David bring up, every man with his household; and they dwelt in the cities of 4 Hebron. And the men of Judah came, and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah.
And they told David, saying, It is the men of Jabesh-Gilead that 5 have buried Saul. And David sent messengers to the men of Jabesh-Gilead, and said to them, Blessed be ye of Jehovah, that ye have shewn this kindness to your lord, to Saul, and have buried him!
6 And now Jehovah shew kindness and faithfulness to you; and I also will requite you this good, because ye have done this thing.
7 And now let your hands be strong, and be ye valiant; for your master Saul is dead, and also the house of Judah have anointed me king over them.
8 And Abner the son of Ner, captain of Saul's host, took Ishbosheth [e] the son of Saul, and brought him over to Mahanaim; 9 and made him king over Gilead, and over the Asshurites, and over Jezreel, and over Ephraim, and over Benjamin, and over all Israel.
10 Ishbosheth Saul's son was forty years old when he began to reign over Israel, and he reigned two years. However, the house of 11 Judah followed David. And the time that David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.
12 And Abner the son of Ner, and the servants of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, went out from Mahanaim 13 to Gibeon. And Joab the son of Zeruiah, and the servants of David, went out. And they met together by the pool of Gibeon; and they sat down, these on the one side of the pool, and those on the other side of the pool.
14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the young men now arise and make sport before us. And Joab said, 15 Let them arise. And they arose and went over by number, twelve for Benjamin, and for Ishbosheth the son of Saul, and twelve of 16 the servants of David. And they caught every one his fellow by the head, and [thrust] his sword in his fellow's side, and they fell down together. And that place was called Helkath-hazzurim,[f] which 17 is by Gibeon. And the battle that day was very severe; and Abner and the men of Israel were routed before the servants of David.
18 And there were three sons of Zeruiah there, Joab, and Abishai, and Asahel. Now Asahel was swift of foot, as one of the gazelles 19 that are in the field. And Asahel pursued after Abner; and in going he turned not to the right hand nor to the left from behind Abner.
20 Then Abner looked behind him, and said, Art thou Asahel? And 21 he said, I am. And Abner said to him, Turn thee aside, to thy right hand or to thy left, and lay hold of one of the young men, and take for thyself his armour. But Asahel would not turn aside from [d] Or 'in.' [e] Esh-Baal: 1 Chron. viii. 33. [f] Meaning, 'Field of sharp swords.'

22 following him. And Abner said again to Asahel, Turn thee aside from following me: why should I smite thee to the ground? how then should I hold up my face to 23 Joab thy brother? But he refused to turn aside; therefore Abner with the hinder end of the spear smote him in the belly,[g] so that the spear came out behind him; and he fell down there, and died in the same place. And it came to pass, that as many as came to the place where Asahel fell down 24 and died stood still. And Joab and Abishai pursued after Abner; and the sun went down when they came to the hill of Ammah, which is before Giah on the way to the wilderness of Gibeon.
25 And the children of Benjamin gathered themselves together after Abner, and became one troop, and 26 stood on the top of a hill. And Abner called to Joab, and said, Shall the sword devour for ever? knowest thou not that it will be bitterness in the latter end? and how long shall it be ere thou bid the people return from following 27 their brethren? And Joab said, [As] God liveth, unless thou hadst spoken, surely then in the morning the people had gone up every one 28 from following his brother. And Joab blew the trumpet, and all the people stood still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither did they fight any more.
29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the plain,[h] and passed over the Jordan, and went through all Bithron, and they 30 came to Mahanaim. And Joab returned from following Abner, and gathered all the people together; and there lacked of David's servants nineteen men, 31 and Asahel. And the servants of David had smitten of Benjamin, and of Abner's men, three hundred 32 and sixty men, who had died. And they took up Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Bethlehem. And Joab and his men went all night, and they came to Hebron at break of day.

3 And the war was long between the house of Saul and the house of David; but David became continually stronger, and the house of Saul became continually weaker.

2 And to David were sons born in Hebron: his firstborn was Amnon, 3 of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; and his second, Chileab, of Abigail the wife of Nabal the Carmelite; and the third, Absalom[i] the son of Maachah, daughter of Talmai king 4 of Geshur; and the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; and the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital; 5 and the sixth, Ithream, of Eglah David's wife. These were born to David in Hebron.
6 And it came to pass while there was war between the house of Saul and the house of David, that Abner made himself strong for the 7 house of Saul. And Saul had a concubine whose name was Rizpah, the daughter of Aiah. And [Ishbosheth] said to Abner, Why hast thou gone in to my father's 8 concubine? Then was Abner very wroth for the words of Ishbosheth, and said, Am I a dog's head, I who against Judah do shew kindness this day to the house of Saul thy father, to his brethren, and to his friends, and have not delivered thee into the hand of David, that thou reproachest me this day with 9 the fault of this woman? So do God to Abner, and more also, if, as Jehovah has sworn to David, 10 I do not so to him; to translate the kingdom from the house of Saul, and to set up the throne of David over Israel and over Judah, from Dan even to Beer-sheba!
11 And he could not answer Abner a word again, because he feared him.
12 And Abner sent messengers to David on his behalf, saying, Whose is the land? saying [also], Make thy covenant with me, and behold, my hand shall be with thee, to 13 turn all Israel to thee. And he said, Well, I will make a covenant with thee; only I require one thing of thee, that is, Thou shalt not see my face, except thou first bring Michal Saul's daughter, when thou comest to see my face.
14 And David sent messengers to Ishbosheth Saul's son, saying, Deliver me my wife Michal, whom I espoused to me for a hundred 15 foreskins of the Philistines. And Ishbosheth sent, and took her from [her] husband, from Phaltiel 16 the son of Laish. And her husband went with her along weeping behind her to Bahurim. Then said Abner to him, Go, return. And he returned.

17 Now Abner had communicated with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for David aforetime to 18 be king over you; and now do [it], for Jehovah has spoken of David, saying, By my servant David will I save my people Israel out of the hand of the Philistines, and out of the hand of all their 19 enemies. And Abner also spoke in the ears of Benjamin; and Abner went also to speak in the ears of David in Hebron all that seemed good to Israel, and that seemed good to the whole house of 20 Benjamin. So Abner came to David to Hebron, and twenty men with him. And David made Abner and the men that were with 21 him a repast. And Abner said to David, I will arise and go, and will gather all Israel to my lord the king, that they may make a covenant with thee, and that thou mayest reign over all that thy heart desires. And David sent Abner away; and he went in peace.
22 And behold, the servants of David and Joab came from an expedition, and brought in a great spoil with them; but Abner was no longer with David in Hebron, for he had sent him away, and he 23 had gone in peace. And Joab and all the host that was with him came; and they told Joab, saying, Abner the son of Ner came to the king, and he has sent him away; 24 and he is gone in peace. Then Joab came to the king, and said, What hast thou done? behold, Abner came to thee; why is it [that] thou hast sent him away, 25 and he is gone? Thou knowest Abner the son of Ner, that he came to deceive thee, to know thy going out and thy coming in, and 26 to know all that thou doest. And when Joab was come out from David, he sent messengers after Abner, who brought him again from the well of Sirah; but David 27 did not know it. And when Abner was returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside in the gate to speak with him secretly, and smote him there in the belly, that he died, for the blood of Asahel his brother.
28 And afterwards David heard [it], and he said, I and my kingdom are guiltless before Jehovah for ever from the blood of Abner the son 29 of Ner: let it fall on the head of Joab, and on all his father's house; and let there not fail from the house of Joab one that has an issue, or that is a leper, or that leans on a staff, or that falls by 30 the sword, or that lacks bread! So Joab and Abishai his brother killed Abner, because he had slain their brother Asahel at Gibeon in the battle.
31 And David said to Joab, and to all the people that were with him, Rend your garments, and gird yourselves with sackcloth, and mourn before Abner. And king 32 David followed the bier. And they buried Abner in Hebron; and the king lifted up his voice and wept at the grave of Abner; and 33 all the people wept. And the king lamented over Abner, and said, Should Abner die as a fool[k] dieth?

34 Thy hands were not bound, Nor thy feet put into fetters;
As a man falleth before wicked men, Fellest thou!

And all the people wept again 35 over him. And all the people came to cause David to eat bread while it was yet day; but David swore, saying, So do God to me, and more also, if I taste bread or aught 36 else till the sun be down! And all the people remarked it, and it pleased them; as whatever the king did pleased all the people.
37 And all the people and all Israel understood that day that it was not of the king to put Abner the 38 son of Ner to death. And the king said to his servants, Know ye not that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel?
39 And I am this day weak, though[l] anointed king; and these men, the sons of Zeruiah, are too hard for me:[m] Jehovah reward the doer of evil according to his wickedness!

4 And when Saul's son heard that Abner was dead in Hebron, his hands were enfeebled, and all 2 Israel was troubled. And Saul's son had two men, captains of bands: the name of the one was Baanah, and the name of the other Rechab, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, of the children of Benjamin; for Beeroth also was 3 reckoned to Benjamin. And the Beerothites had fled to Gittaim, and were sojourners[n] there until this day.
4 And Jonathan Saul's son had a son that was lame of [his] feet. He was five years old when the news came of Saul and Jonathan out of Jezreel; and his nurse took him up and fled. And it came to pass, as she made haste to flee, that he fell, and became lame. And his name was Mephibosheth.[o] 5 And the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, Rechab and Baanah, went and came in about the heat of the day into the house of Ish-6 bosheth, who was taking his noon-day rest. And they came thither into the midst of the house, [as though] they would fetch wheat; and they smote him in the belly; and Rechab and Baanah his 7 brother escaped. They came into the house, as he lay on his bed in his bedchamber, and they smote him, and slew him, and beheaded him; and they took his head, and went by the way of the 8 plain [p] all night. And they brought the head of Ishbosheth to David in Hebron, and said to the king, Behold the head of Ishbosheth the son of Saul, thine enemy who sought thy life; and Jehovah has given to my lord the king to be avenged this day of Saul and of his seed.

[k] נבל, also 'impious,' 'ungodly:' see on 1 Sam. xxv. 3. [l] Lit. 'and.' [m] Or 'are more powerful than I.' [n] Or 'strangers.'

9 Then David answered Rechab and Baanah his brother, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, and said to them, [As] Jehovah liveth, who has redeemed my soul out of 10 all distress, when one told me, saying, Behold, Saul is dead! and he was in his own sight a messenger of good, I took hold of him, and slew him in Ziklag—to whom forsooth I should give a reward for 11 his good tidings: how much more, when wicked men have slain a righteous person in his own house upon his bed? and should I not now demand his blood of your hand, and take you away from the 12 earth? And David commanded his young men, and they slew them, and cut off their hands and their feet, and hanged [them] up over the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ishbosheth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

5 Then came all the tribes of Israel to David to Hebron, and spoke, saying, Behold, we are thy 2 bone and thy flesh. Even aforetime, when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel; and Jehovah said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be 3 prince over Israel. And all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and king David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Jehovah; and they anointed David king over Israel.
4 David was thirty years old when he began to reign; he reigned forty 5 years. In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years and six months; and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty-three years over all Israel and Judah.
6 And the king and his men went to Jerusalem against the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land; and they spoke to David, saying, Thou shalt not come in hither, but the blind and the lame will drive thee back; [q] as much as to say, David 7 will not come in hither. But David took the stronghold of Zion, which 8 is the city of David. And David said on that day, Whoever smites the Jebusites and gets up to the watercourse, and the lame and the blind hated of David's soul .....![r] Therefore they say, The blind and the lame shall not come 9 into the house. So David dwelt in the stronghold, and called it the city of David. And David built round about from the Millo[s] and inward.
10 And David became continually greater; and Jehovah the God of hosts was with him.
11 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, and carpenters, and masons; and they built David a 12 house. And David perceived that Jehovah had established him king over Israel, and that he had exalted his kingdom because of his people Israel.
13 And David took him more concubines and wives out of Jerusalem, after he had come from Hebron; and there were yet sons and 14 daughters born to David. And these are the names of those that were born to him in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, and Na-15 than, and Solomon, and Ibhar, and Elishua, and Nepheg, and 16 Japhia, and Elishama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet.
17 And the Philistines heard that they had anointed David king over Israel, and all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard [of it], and went down to 18 the stronghold. And the Philistines came and spread themselves 19 in the valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of Jehovah, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? wilt thou give them into my hand? And Jehovah said to David, Go up; for I will certainly give the Philistines into 20 thy hand. And David came to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there; and he said, Jehovah has broken in upon mine enemies before me, as the breaking forth of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place Baal-perazim.[t] 21 And they left their images there, and David and his men took them away.

22 And the Philistines came up yet again, and spread themselves in 23 the valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of Jehovah; and he said, Thou shalt not go up; turn round behind them and come upon them opposite the mulberry-24 trees. And it shall be, when thou hearest a sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt bestir thyself; for then will Jehovah have gone forth before thee, to smite the army [u] of 25 the Philistines. And David did so, as Jehovah had commanded him; and smote the Philistines from Geba until thou comest to Gezer.

6 And David again gathered all the chosen men of Israel, thirty 2 thousand. And David arose and went with all the people that were with him from [v] Baale-Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God which is called by the name, the name of Jehovah of hosts who sitteth between [w] the cherubim.
3 And they set the ark of God upon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab, which was upon the hill; and Uzzah [x] and Ahio, the sons of Abinadab, drove 4 the new cart. And they brought it with the ark of God out of the house of Abinadab which was upon the hill; and Ahio went 5 before the ark. And David and all the house of Israel played before Jehovah on all manner of [instruments made of] cypress wood, [y] with harps, and with lutes, and with tambours, and with sis-tra, and with cymbals.
6 And when they came to Nachon's threshing-floor, Uzzah reached after the ark of God, and took hold of it; for the oxen had stumbled.[z] 7 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Uzzah; and God smote him there for his error; and there he died by the ark of God.
8 And David was indignant, because Jehovah had made a breach upon Uzzah; and he called that place 9 Perez-Uzzah [a] to this day. And David was afraid of Jehovah that day, and said, How shall the ark 10 of Jehovah come to me? So David would not bring the ark of Jehovah home unto himself into the city of David; but David carried it aside into the house of 11 Obed-Edom the Gittite. And the ark of Jehovah remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite three months; and Jehovah blessed Obed-Edom and all his household.
12 And it was told King David, saying, Jehovah has blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that is his, because of the ark of God.
And David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom into the city of David 13 with joy. And it was so, that when they that bore the ark of Jehovah had gone six paces, he sacrificed an ox and a fatted beast.
14 And David danced before Jehovah with all his might; and David was 15 girded with a linen ephod. And David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of Jehovah with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet.
16 And as the ark of Jehovah came into the city of David, Michal the daughter of Saul looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before Jehovah; and she despised him in her heart.
17 And they brought in the ark of Jehovah, and set it in its place, in the midst of the tent that David had spread for it. And David offered up burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before Jehovah.
18 And when David had ended offering up the burnt-offerings and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah of 19 hosts. And he dealt to all the people, to the whole multitude of Israel, both men and women, to every one a cake of bread, and a measure [of wine[b]], and a raisin-cake. And all the people departed every one to his house.

20 And David returned to bless his household. And Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, How honourable did the king of Israel make himself to-day, who uncovered himself to-day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the lewd fellows shamelessly uncovers him-21 self! And David said to Michal, It was before Jehovah, who chose me rather than thy father, and than all his house, to appoint me ruler over the people of Jehovah, over Israel; and I played before 22 Jehovah. And I will make myself yet more vile than thus, and will be base in mine own sight; and of the handmaids that thou hast spoken of, of them shall I be had 23 in honour. And Michal the daughter of Saul had no child to the day of her death.

7 And it came to pass when the king dwelt in his house, and Jehovah had given him rest round
2 about from all his enemies, that the king said to Nathan the prophet, See now, I dwell in a house of cedars, and the ark of God 3 dwells under curtains. And Nathan said to the king, Go, do all that is in thy heart; for Jehovah is with thee.

4 And it came to pass that night that the word of Jehovah came 5 to Nathan, saying, Go and say to my servant, to David, Thus saith Jehovah: Wilt thou build me a house for me to dwell in?
6 For I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up the children of Israel out of Egypt, even to this day, but I went about in a tent and in a 7 tabernacle. In all my going about with all the children of Israel, did I speak a word with any of the tribes of Israel whom I commanded to feed my people Israel, saying, Why build ye me not a house of 8 cedars? And now, thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I took thee from the pasture-grounds, from following the sheep, to be prince over my people, over Israel; 9 and I have been with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a great name, like unto the name of the great men that are on the earth.
10 And I will appoint a place for my people, for Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and be disturbed no more; neither shall the sons of wickedness afflict them any 11 more, as formerly, and since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. And I have given thee rest from all thine enemies; and Jehovah telleth thee that Jehovah will make thee a 12 house. When thy days are fulfilled, and thou shalt sleep with thy fathers, I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall proceed out of thy bowels, and I will establish 13 his kingdom. It is he who shall build a house for my name, and I will establish the throne of his 14 kingdom for ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son. If he commit iniquity, I will chasten him with the rod of men and with the stripes of the sons 15 of men; but my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I took it from Saul, whom I put away 16 from before thee. And thy house and thy kingdom shall be made firm[c] for ever before thee: thy throne shall be established for 17 ever. According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.

18 And king David went in and sat[d] before Jehovah, and said, Who am I, Lord Jehovah, and what is my house, that thou hast 19 brought me hitherto? And yet this hath been a small thing in thy sight, Lord Jehovah; but thou hast spoken also of thy servant's house for a great while to come. And is this the manner[e] of 20 man, Lord Jehovah? And what can David say more to thee? for thou, Lord Jehovah, knowest thy 21 servant. For thy word's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, to make thy servant know [it].
22 Wherefore thou art great, Jehovah Elohim; for there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that 23 we have heard with our ears. And who is like thy people, like Israel, the one nation in the earth that God went[f] to redeem to be a people to himself, and to make himself a name, and to do for them[g] great things and terrible, for thy land, before thy people,

[b] Or 'a ration [of flesh].' [c] Or 'made sure.' [d] Or 'tarried:' see Keil. [e] Lit. 'law.' 'Went' is plural here. [g] Lit. 'for you.'

which thou redeemedst to thyself from Egypt, from the nations and 24 their gods? And thou hast established to thyself thy people Israel to be a people unto thee for ever; and thou, Jehovah, art become 25 their God. And now, Jehovah Elohim, the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house, fulfil it for ever, and do as thou hast said.
26 And let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, Jehovah of hosts is God over Israel; and let the house of thy servant David be estab-27 lished before thee. For thou, Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, hast revealed to thy servant, saying, I will build thee a house; therefore hath thy servant found in his heart to pray this prayer 28 unto thee. And now, Lord Jehovah, thou art that God,[h] and thy words are true, and thou hast promised this goodness unto thy 29 servant; and now let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever; for thou, Lord Jehovah, hast spoken it; and with thy blessing shall the house of thy servant be blessed for ever.

8 And after this it came to pass that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them; and David took the power[i] of the capital[j] out of the hand of the Philistines.
2 And he smote the Moabites, and measured them with a line, making them lie down on the ground; and he measured two lines to put to death, and one full line to keep alive. And the Moabites became David's servants, [and] brought gifts.
3 And David smote Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah, as he went to recover his dominion[k] 4 by the river Euphrates. And David took from him one thousand seven hundred horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David houghed all the chariot [horses], but reserved of them [for] a hundred chariots.
5 And the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, and David smote of the Syrians twenty-two thousand men.
6 And David put garrisons in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, [and] brought gifts. And Jehovah preserved David whithersoever he 7 went. And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadadezer, and brought them 8 to Jerusalem. And from Betah, and from Berothai, cities of Hadadezer, king David took exceeding much bronze.
9 And Toi king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the 10 forces of Hadadezer; and Toi sent Joram his son to king David, to inquire of his welfare, and to congratulate[l] him, because he had fought against Hadadezer and smitten him; for Hadadezer was continually at war with Toi. And he brought with him vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and 11 vessels of bronze. Them also king David dedicated to Jehovah, with the silver and the gold that he had dedicated of all the nations that 12 he had subdued: of the Syrians, and of the Moabites, and of the children of Ammon, and of the Philistines, and of the Amalekites, and of the spoil of Hadadezer, the son of Rehob, king of Zobah.
13 And David made him a name when he returned, after he had smitten the Syrians[m] in the valley of salt, eighteen thousand [men].
14 And he put garrisons in Edom: throughout Edom did he put garrisons; and all they of Edom became servants to David. And Jehovah preserved David whithersoever he went.
15 And David reigned over all Israel; and David executed judgment[n] and justice to all his people.
16 And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was chronicler; 17 and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Seraiah was 18 scribe; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;[o] and David's sons were chief rulers.

9 And David said, Is there yet any that is left of the house of Saul, that I may shew him kindness for 2 Jonathan's sake? And there was of the house of Saul a servant whose name was Ziba; and they called him to David. And the king said to him, Art thou Ziba?
3 And he said, Thy servant! And the king said, Is there not yet any of the house of Saul, that I may shew the kindness of God to him? And Ziba said to the king, Jonathan has yet a son, who is lame on 4 [his] feet. And the king said to him, Where is he? And Ziba said to the king, Behold, he is in the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, in Lodebar.

5 And king David sent, and fetched him out of the house of Machir the son of Ammiel, from 6 Lodebar. And Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, and fell on his face and did obeisance. And David said, Mephibosheth. And he said, 7 Behold thy servant! And David said to him, Fear not; for I will certainly shew thee kindness for Jonathan thy father's sake, and will restore thee all the land of Saul thy father; and thou shalt eat bread at my table continually.
8 And he bowed himself, and said, What is thy servant, that thou shouldest look upon such a dead dog as I am?
9 Then the king called Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, I have given to thy master's son all that belonged to Saul and to all his 10 house. And thou, and thy sons, and thy servants, shall till the land for him, and thou shalt bring in [the fruits], that thy master's son may have food to eat. And Mephibosheth thy master's son shall eat bread at my table continually. Now Ziba had fifteen 11 sons and twenty servants. And Ziba said to the king, According to all that my lord the king has commanded his servant, so will thy servant do. And Mephibosheth [said David] shall eat at my table, as one of the king's sons.
12 And Mephibosheth had a young son, whose name was Mica.[p] And all who dwelt in the house of Ziba were servants to Mephibosheth.
13 So Mephibosheth dwelt in Jerusalem; for he did eat continually at the king's table. And he was lame on both his feet.

10 And it came to pass after this that the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanun his son 2 reigned in his stead. And David said, I will shew kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, as his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent to comfort him by the hand of his servants for his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon.
3 And the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun their lord, Is it, in thine eyes, to honour thy father that David has sent comforters to thee? Is it not to search the city and to spy it out, and to overthrow it, that David has sent 4 his servants to thee? And Hanun took David's servants, and had the one half of their beards shaved off, and their raiment cut off in the midst, as far as their buttocks, 5 and sent them away. And they told [it] to David; and he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Abide at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.
6 And the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David; and the children of Ammon sent and hired the Syrians of Beth-Rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba, twenty thousand footmen, and the king of Maacah [with] a thousand men, and the men of Tob twelve thousand men.
7 And David heard [of it], and he sent Joab, and all the host, the 8 mighty men. And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entrance of the gate; and the Syrians of Zoba and of Rehob, and the men of Tob and Maacah were by them-9 selves in the field. And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind; and he chose out of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in 10 array against the Syrians; and the rest of the people he gave into the hand of Abishai his brother that he might array them against 11 the children of Ammon. And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; and if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, then I will 12 come and help thee. Be strong, and let us shew ourselves valiant for our people and for the cities of our God; and Jehovah do what 13 is good in his sight. And Joab drew near, and the people that were with him, unto the battle against the Syrians; and they fled 14 before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, they fled before Abishai, and entered into the city. And Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Jerusalem.
15 And when the Syrians saw that they were routed before Israel, they gathered themselves together.

[p] See note on Judges xvii. 5.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river;[q] and they came to Helam; and Shobach the captain of the host of Hadarezer [went] 17 before them. And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over the Jordan, and came to Helam. And the Syrians set themselves in array against 18 David, and fought with him. And the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven hundred [in] chariots, and forty thousand horsemen, and smote Shobach the captain of their host, 19 who died there. And all the kings that were servants to Hadarezer saw that they were routed before Israel, and they made peace with Israel, and served them. And the Syrians feared to help the children of Ammon any more.

11 And it came to pass, at the return of the year, at the time when kings go forth, that David sent Joab, and his servants with him, and all Israel; and they laid waste the [land of the] children of Ammon, and besieged Rabbah. But David abode at Jerusalem.
2 And it came to pass at evening time that David arose from off his couch, and walked upon the roof of the king's house; and from the roof he saw a woman bathing, and the woman was very beautiful;
3 and David sent and inquired after the woman. And one said, Is not this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam, the wife of Urijah the 4 Hittite? And David sent messengers, and took her; and she came in to him, and he lay with her; and she had purified[r] herself from her uncleanness; and she 5 returned to her house. And the woman conceived, and sent and told David, and said, I am with child.
6 And David sent to Joab [saying], Send me Urijah the Hittite. And Joab sent Urijah to David.
7 And when Urijah had come to him, David asked how Joab prospered,[s] and how the people prospered, and 8 how the war prospered. And David said to Urijah, Go down to thy house and wash thy feet. And Urijah departed out of the king's house, and there followed him 9 presents from the king. And Urijah slept at the entrance of the king's house with all the servants of his lord, and went not down to 10 his house. And they had told David saying, Urijah did not go down to his house; and David said to Urijah, Art thou not come from a journey? why didst thou 11 not go down to thy house? And Urijah said to David, The ark, and Israel, and Judah abide in booths; and my lord Joab, and the servants of my lord, are encamped in the open fields: shall I then go into my house, to eat and to drink, and to lie with my wife? [As] thou livest, and [as] thy soul liveth, I will not do this thing. And 12 David said to Urijah, Abide here to-day also, and to-morrow I will let thee depart. And Urijah abode in Jerusalem that day and 13 the morrow. And David invited him, and he ate and drank before him; and he made him drunk. And in the evening he went out to lie on his couch with the servants of his lord, but did not go down to his house.
14 And it came to pass in the morning, that David wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by Uri-15 jah. And he wrote in the letter saying, Set Urijah in the front of the thickest fight, and withdraw from him, that he may be smitten 16 and die. And it came to pass as Joab watched the city, that he assigned Urijah to a place where he knew that the valiant men 17 were. And the men of the city went out and fought with Joab; and there fell some of the people, of the servants of David; and 18 Urijah the Hittite died also. Then Joab sent and told David all the 19 matters of the war; and charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast ended telling the matters of 20 the war to the king, and if so be that the king's wrath arise, and he say to thee, Why did ye go so near to the city to fight? did ye not know that they would shoot 21 from the wall? Who smote Abimelech the son of Jerubbesheth? did not a woman cast the upper stone of a handmill from the wall, that he died in Thebez? why did ye go near the wall?—then say thou, Thy servant Urijah the Hittite is dead also.
22 And the messenger went; and he came and told David all that 23 Joab had sent him for. And the messenger said to David, The men prevailed against us, and came out against us into the field, and we were upon them as far as the en-24 trance of the gate. And the shooters shot from upon the wall against thy servants; and some of the king's servants are dead, and thy servant Urijah the Hittite is 25 dead also. Then David said to the messenger, Thus shalt thou say to Joab: Let not this thing displease thee, for the sword devours one as well as another: make thy battle strong against the city, and overthrow it;—and encourage him.

[q] i.e., the Euphrates. [r] Or 'and she purified.' [s] Lit. 'about the prosperity of ' (three times repeated).

26 And the wife of Urijah heard that Urijah her husband was dead, and 27 she mourned for her husband. And when the mourning was past, David sent and fetched her to his house, and she became his wife, and bore him a son. But the thing that David had done was evil in the sight of Jehovah.

12 And Jehovah sent Nathan to David. And he came to him, and said to him, There were two men in one city; the one rich, 2 and the other poor. The rich had 3 very many flocks and herds; but the poor man had nothing at all, but one little ewe lamb which he had bought, and was nourishing; and it grew up with him, and together with his children: it ate of his morsel, and drank of his own cup, and slept in his bosom, and was to him as a daughter.
4 And there came a traveller to the rich man, and he spared to take of his own flock and of his own herd, to dress for the wayfaring man that had come to him; and he took the poor man's lamb, and dressed it for the man that had 5 come to him. Then David's anger was greatly kindled against the man; and he said to Nathan, As Jehovah liveth, the man that hath done this thing is worthy of death;[t] 6 and he shall restore the lamb four-fold, because he did this thing, and because he had no pity.
7 And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man! Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: I anointed thee king over Israel, and I delivered thee out of the hand of 8 Saul; and I gave thee thy master's house, and thy master's wives into thy bosom, and gave thee the house of Israel and of Judah; and if [that] had been too little, I would moreover have given unto 9 thee such and such things. Wherefore hast thou despised the word of Jehovah to do evil in his sight?
thou hast smitten Urijah the Hittite with the sword, and hast taken his wife to be thy wife, and hast slain him with the sword of 10 the children of Ammon. Now therefore the sword shall never depart from thy house; because thou hast despised me, and hast taken the wife of Urijah the Hittite 11 to be thy wife. Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I will raise up evil against thee out of thine own house, and I will take thy wives before thine eyes, and give them unto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wives in the sight of 12 this sun. For thou didst [it] secretly; but I will do this thing before all Israel and before the sun.
13 And David said to Nathan, I have sinned against Jehovah. And Nathan said to David, Jehovah has also put away thy sin: thou 14 shalt not die. Howbeit, because by this deed thou hast given great occasion to the enemies of Jehovah to blaspheme, even the child that is born to thee shall certainly die.
15 And Nathan departed to his house.
And Jehovah smote the child that Urijah's wife bore to David, 16 and it became very sick.[v] And David besought God for the child; and David fasted, and went in,
and lay all night on the earth.
17 And the elders of his house arose, [and went] to him, to raise him up from the earth; but he would not, and he ate no bread with 18 them. And it came to pass on the seventh day, that the child died.
And the servants of David feared to tell him that the child was dead; for they said, Behold, while the child was yet alive, we spoke to him, and he would not hearken to our voice; and how shall we say to him, The child is dead? he 19 may do some harm. But David saw that his servants whispered, and David perceived that the child was dead; and David said to his servants, Is the child dead? And 20 they said, He is dead. Then David arose from the earth, and washed, and anointed himself, and changed his clothing, and entered into the house of Jehovah and worshipped; then he came to his own house and required them to set bread before 21 him, and he ate. And his servants said to him, What thing is this which thou hast done? thou didst fast and weep for the child alive; but as soon as the child is dead, 22 thou dost rise and eat bread. And he said, While the child was yet

[t] Lit. 'is a son of death.'

[v] Or 'sick unto death.'

alive, I fasted and wept; for I thought,[w] Who knows? [perhaps] Jehovah will be gracious to me, 23 that the child may live. But now he is dead, why should I fast? can I bring him back again? I shall go to him, but he will not return to me.
24 And David comforted Bath-sheba his wife, and went in to her and lay with her; and she bore a son, and he called his name Solomon;[x] and Jehovah loved 25 him. And he sent by the hand of Nathan the prophet; and he called his name Jedidiah,[y] for Jehovah's sake.
26 And Joab fought against Rab-bah of the children of Ammon, 27 and took the royal city. And Joab sent messengers to David, and said, I have fought against Rabbah, and have taken the city 28 of waters. And now gather the rest of the people, and encamp against the city and take it: lest I take the city and it be called 29 by my name. And David gathered all the people, and went to Rab-bah, and fought against it and 30 took it. And he took the crown of their king from off his head, the weight of which was a talent of gold with [the] precious stones; and it was [set] on David's head; and he brought forth the spoil of 31 the city in great abundance. And he brought out the people that were in it, and put them under the saw, and under harrows of iron, and under axes of iron, and made them pass through the brick-kilns. And so did he to all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

13 And it came to pass after this, that Absalom the son of David having a beautiful sister, whose 2 name was Tamar, Amnon the son of David loved her. And Amnon was so vexed, that he fell sick for his sister Tamar; for she was a virgin; and it seemed difficult for 3 Amnon to do the least thing to her. And Amnon had a friend whose name was Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother; and 4 Jonadab was a very shrewd man. And he said to him, Why dost thou, the king's son, get thinner from morning to morning? Wilt thou not tell me? And Amnon said to him, I love Tamar, my 5 brother Absalom's sister. And Jonadab said to him, Lay thee down on thy bed and feign thyself sick; and when thy father comes to see thee, say to him, I pray thee, let my sister Tamar come, and give me food, and dress the food in my sight, that I may see it, and 6 eat it from her hand. So Amnon lay down and feigned himself sick; and the king came to see him, and Amnon said to the king, I pray thee, let Tamar my sister come, and make a couple of cakes in my sight, that I may eat from her hand.
7 And David sent home to Tamar, saying, Go, I pray thee, to thy brother Amnon's house, and dress 8 him food. And Tamar went to her brother Amnon's house; and he had lain down. And she took flour and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and baked the 9 cakes. And she took the pan, and poured them out before him; but he refused to eat. And Amnon said, Put every man out from me. And they went out every man 10 from him. And Amnon said to Tamar, Bring the dish into the chamber, that I may eat of thy hand. And Tamar took the cakes that she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon 11 her brother. And she presented them to him to eat; and he took hold of her, and said to her, Come, 12 lie with me, my sister. And she said to him, No, my brother, do not humble me; for no such thing is done in Israel: do not this in-13 famy. And I, whither shall I carry my reproach? and thou wouldest be as one of the infamous in Israel. And now, I pray thee, speak to the king; for he will not withhold 14 me from thee. But he would not hearken to her voice, and was stronger than she, and humbled her and lay with her.
15 And Amnon hated her with an exceeding great hatred, for the hatred with which he hated her was greater than the love with which he had loved her. And Amnon said to her, Arise, be gone.
16 And she said to him, There is no cause for this evil in sending me away, [which] is greater than the other that thou didst to me. But he would not hearken to her.
17 Then he called his young man that attended upon him, and said, Put now this [woman] out from me, 18 and bolt the door after her. Now she had a vest of many colours[z]

[w] Lit. 'said.' [x] Meaning, 'Peaceful.' [y] Meaning, 'Beloved of Jehovah.' [z] See on Gen. xxxvii. 3.

upon her; for so were the king's daughters that were virgins apparelled. And his attendant brought her out, and bolted the 19 door after her. And Tamar put ashes on her head, and rent her vest of many colours which was on her, and laid her hand on her head, and went away, crying out as she went.
20 And Absalom her brother said to her, Has Amnon[a] thy brother been with thee? and now, my sister, be still: he is thy brother; take not this thing to heart. And Tamar remained, and [that] desolate, in her brother Absalom's 21 house. And king David heard of all these things, and he was very 22 angry. And Absalom spoke to Amnon neither good nor bad; for Absalom hated Amnon, because he had humbled his sister Tamar.
23 And it came to pass after two full years, that Absalom had sheepshearers in Baal-Hazor, which is beside Ephraim; and Absalom 24 invited all the king's sons. And Absalom came to the king, and said, Behold, now, thy servant has sheepshearers; let the king, I pray thee, and his servants go with 25 thy servant. And the king said to Absalom, No, my son, let us not all go, lest we be[b] burdensome to thee. And he urged him, but he would not go; and he blessed 26 him. And Absalom said, If not, I pray thee, let my brother Amnon go with us. And the king said to him, Why should he go with 27 thee? But Absalom pressed him; and he let Amnon and all the king's sons go with him.
28 And Absalom commanded his servants, saying, Mark ye now when Amnon's heart is merry with wine, and when I say to you, Smite Amnon; then slay him, fear not: have not I commanded you? be courageous, and be 29 valiant. And the servants of Absalom did to Amnon as Absalom had commanded. Then all the king's sons arose, and they rode each upon his mule and fled.
30 And it came to pass, while they were in the way, that tidings came to David, saying, Absalom has smitten all the king's sons, and 31 there is not one of them left. Then the king arose, and rent his garments, and lay on the earth; and all his servants stood by with their 32 garments rent. And Jonadab, the son of Shimeah David's brother, answered and said, Let not my lord suppose that they have slain all the young men the king's sons; for Amnon only is dead; for by the appointment of Absalom this has been determined from the day that he humbled his sister Tamar.
33 And now let not my lord the king take the thing to heart, to say, All the king's sons are dead; for Am-34 non only is dead. And Absalom fled. And the young man that watched lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, there came much people from the way behind 35 him, from the hill-side. And Jonadab said to the king, Behold, the king's sons come: as thy ser-36 vant said, so it is. And as soon as he had ended speaking, behold, the king's sons came, and lifted up their voice and wept; and the king also and all his servants wept very bitterly.
37 And Absalom fled, and went to Talmai, the son of Ammihud, king of Geshur. And [David] mourned for his son every day.[c] 38 Now Absalom fled, and went to 39 Geshur, and was there three years. And king David longed to go forth to Absalom; for he was comforted concerning Amnon, seeing he was dead.

14 And Joab the son of Zeruiah perceived that the king's heart 2 was toward Absalom. And Joab sent to Tekoah, and fetched thence a wise woman, and said to her, I pray thee, feign thyself to be a mourner and put on mourning garments, I pray, and anoint not thyself with oil, but be as a woman that hath a long time mourned for 3 the dead; and come to the king, and speak after this manner to him. And Joab put the words into her mouth.
4 And the woman of Tekoah spoke[d] to the king, and she fell on her face to the ground and did obeisance, and said, Save, O king!
5 And the king said to her, What aileth thee? And she said, I am indeed a widow woman, and my 6 husband is dead. And thy bondmaid had two sons, and they two strove together in the field, and there was none to part[e] them, but the one smote the other and slew 7 him. And behold, the whole family is risen against thy bondmaid, and they say, Deliver him that smote his brother, that we may put him to death, for the life of his brother whom he killed; and we will destroy the heir also: so they will quench my coal which is left, and will not leave to my husband a name or remnant on the 8 earth. And the king said to the woman, Go to thy house, and I will give charge concerning thee.

9 And the woman of Tekoah said to the king, Upon me, my lord, O king, be the iniquity, and upon my father's house; and the king 10 and his throne be guiltless. And the king said, Whoever speaks to thee, bring him to me, and he shall 11 not touch thee any more. Then she said, I pray thee, let the king remember Jehovah thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer the revengers of blood to destroy any more, lest they cut off my son. And he said, [As] Jehovah liveth, there shall not one hair of thy son 12 fall to the earth. And the woman said, Let thy bondmaid, I pray thee, speak a word to my lord the 13 king. And he said, Speak. And the woman said, Why then hast thou thought such a thing against God's people? and the king in saying this thing, is as one guilty, in that the king does not bring 14 back his banished one. For we must needs die, and are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered up again; and God has not taken away his life, but devises means that the banished one be not expelled from him.
15 And now that I am come to speak of this thing to my lord the king, it is because the people have made me afraid; and thy bondmaid said, I will now speak to the king; perhaps the king will perform the 16 request of his handmaid. For the king will hear, to deliver his handmaid out of the hand of the man that would destroy me and my son together out of the inheritance 17 of God. And thy bondmaid said, Let the word of my lord the king now be comfortable; for as an angel of God, so is my lord the king to discern good and bad; and Jehovah thy God will be[f] with thee.
18 And the king answered and said to the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall ask thee. And the woman said, Let my lord the king now speak.
19 And the king said, Is the hand of Joab with thee in all this? And the woman answered and said, [As] thy soul liveth, my lord, O king, there is no turning to the right hand or to the left from aught that my lord the king has spoken; for thy servant Joab, he bade me, and he put all these words into the mouth of thy bond-20 maid: in order to turn the appearance of the thing[g] has thy servant Joab done this thing; but my lord is wise, according to the wisdom of an angel of God, to know all that is in the earth.
21 And the king said to Joab, Behold now, I have done this thing: so go, bring back the young man 22 Absalom. And Joab fell to the ground on his face and bowed himself, and blessed the king; and Joab said, To-day thy servant knows that I have found favour in thy sight, my lord, O king, in that the king has fulfilled the re-23 quest of his[h] servant. And Joab arose and went to Geshur, and brought Absalom to Jerusalem.
24 And the king said, Let him turn to his own house, and let him not see my face. And Absalom withdrew to his own house, and saw not the king's face.
25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for his beauty: from the sole of his foot even to the crown of his head there was no blemish in him.
26 And when he shaved his head (for it was at every year's end that he shaved it, because it was heavy on him, therefore he shaved it), he weighed the hair of his head at two hundred shekels after the 27 king's weight. And to Absalom there were born three sons, and one daughter, whose name was Tamar: she was a woman of a beautiful countenance.
28 So Absalom dwelt two full years in Jerusalem, and did not see the 29 king's face. Then Absalom sent for Joab, to send him to the king; but he would not come to him; and he sent again the second time, 30 but he would not come. Then he said to his servants, See, Joab's allotment is near mine[i] and he has barley there: go and set it on fire. And Absalom's servants set the 31 allotment on fire. Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom to [his] house, and said to him, Why have thy servants set my allot-32 ment on fire? And Absalom said to Joab, Behold, I sent to thee,

[f] Or '.... God be.' [g] Or 'to give this turn to [my] speech.' [h] As the Chetiv. Keri 'thy.' [i] Lit. 'at my hand.'

saying, Come hither, that I may send thee to the king, to say, Why am I come from Geshur? it would have been better for me to be there still. And now let me see the king's face; and if there be iniquity in me, let him slay me.
33 And Joab came to the king, and told him. And he called Absalom, and he came to the king, and bowed himself on his face to the ground before the king; and the king kissed Absalom.

15 And it came to pass after[k] this, that Absalom prepared for himself chariots and horses, and 2 fifty men to run before him. And Absalom rose early, and stood beside the way of the gate; and it was so, that when any man who had a controversy had to come to the king for judgment, then Absalom called him, and said, Of what city art thou? And he said, Thy servant is of one of the tribes of 3 Israel. And Absalom said to him, See, thy matters are good and right; but there is no man to hear 4 thee [appointed] by the king. And Absalom said, Oh that I were made judge in the land, that every man who has any controversy and cause might come to[l] me, and I would 5 do him justice! And it was so, that when any man came near to do him obeisance, he put forth his hand, and took him, and kissed 6 him. And in this manner did Absalom to all Israel that came to the king for judgment; and Absalom stole the hearts of the men of Israel.
7 And it came to pass at the end of forty[m] years, that Absalom said to the king, I pray thee, let me go and pay in Hebron my vow 8 which I have vowed to Jehovah. For thy servant vowed a vow while I abode in Geshur in Syria, saying, If Jehovah shall bring me again indeed to Jerusalem, then I will 9 serve Jehovah. And the king said to him, Go in peace. And he rose 10 up and went to Hebron. And Absalom sent emissaries[n] into all the tribes of Israel, saying, When ye hear the sound of the trumpet, ye shall say, Absalom reigns in 11 Hebron And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were invited; and they went in their simplicity, and they knew 12 nothing. And Absalom sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David's counsellor, from his city, from Giloh, while he offered the sacrifices. And the conspiracy gathered strength; and the people increased continually with Absalom.
13 And there came one to David who reported saying, The hearts of the men of Israel are after 14 Absalom. And David said to all his servants that were with him at Jerusalem, Rise up and let us flee; for we shall not [else] escape from Absalom. Be quick to depart, lest he overtake us quickly, and bring evil upon us, and smite the city with the edge of the sword.
15 And the king's servants said to the king, Behold, thy servants [will do] whatever my lord the king 16 shall choose. And the king went forth, and all his household after him, and the king left ten women, concubines, to keep the house.
17 And the king went forth, and all the people after him, and stayed 18 at the remote house.[o] And all his servants passed on beside him; and all the Cherethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gittites, six hundred men that came after him from Gath, passed over before the king.
19 And the king said to Ittai the Gittite, Why dost thou also go with us? return to thy place, and abide with the king; for thou art a foreigner, and besides, thou hast emigrated to the place where thou 20 [dwellest]. Thou didst come yesterday, and should I this day make thee go up and down with us, seeing I go whither I can? Return and take back thy brethren. Mercy and truth be with thee![p] 21 And Ittai answered the king and said, [As] Jehovah liveth, and [as] my lord the king liveth, surely in what place my lord the king shall be, whether in death or life, even 22 there also will thy servant be. And David said to Ittai, Go and pass over. And Ittai the Gittite passed over, and all his men, and all the little ones that were with him.
23 And all the country wept with a loud voice, and all the people passed over; the king also himself passed over the torrent Kidron, and all the people passed over, towards the way of the wilderness.
24 And behold, Zadok also, and all the Levites with him, bearing the ark of the covenant of God; and they set down the ark of God; and

[k] Or 'soon after.' [l] Or 'round by,' עַל: as Ex. xviii. 13, &c. [m] Some MSS. of Jerome's, with some other versions, Josephus, &c., have 'four'. [n] Lit. 'spies.'

Abiathar went up, until all the people had passed completely out of the city.

25 And the king said to Zadok, Carry back the ark of God into the city. If I shall find favour in the eyes of Jehovah, he will bring me again, and shew me it, and its 26 habitation. But if he thus say, I have no delight in thee; behold, [here am] I, let him do to me as 27 seemeth good to him. And the king said to Zadok the priest, Thou art the seer:[q] return into the city in peace, and your two sons with you, Ahimaaz thy son, and Jonathan the son of Abiathar.
28 See, I will stop in the plains[r] of the desert, until there come word from 29 you to inform me. And Zadok and Abiathar carried the ark of God again to Jerusalem; and they abode there.

30 But David went up by the ascent of the Olives, and wept as he went up, and had his head covered, and he went barefoot; and all the people that was with him covered every man his head, and they went up, weeping as they went up.

31 And one told David saying, Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom. Then said David, Jehovah, I pray thee, turn the counsel of Ahithophel into 32 foolishness. And it came to pass, when David had come to the summit, where he worshipped God, that behold, Hushai the Archite came to meet him with his coat 33 rent, and earth upon his head. And David said to him, If thou passest on with me, thou wilt be a burden 34 to me; but if thou return to the city, and say to Absalom, I will be thy servant, O king; as I have been thy father's servant hitherto, so now will I be thy servant; then mayest thou for me defeat the 35 counsel of Ahithophel. And hast thou not there with thee Zadok and Abiathar the priests? and it shall be, [that] whatsoever thing thou shalt hear out of the king's house, thou shalt tell it to Zadok 36 and Abiathar the priests. Behold, they have there with them their two sons, Ahimaaz Zadok's [son], and Jonathan Abiathar's son; and by them ye shall send to me every-37 thing that ye shall hear. And Hushai David's friend came into the city, and Absalom came into Jerusalem.

16 And when David was a little past the summit, behold, Ziba, Mephibosheth's servant,[s] met him, with a couple of asses saddled, and upon them two hundred [loaves] of bread, and a hundred raisin-cakes, and a hundred cakes of summer
2 fruits, and a flask of wine. And the king said to Ziba, What meanest thou by these? And Ziba said, The asses are for the king's household to ride on; and the bread and summer fruits for the young men to eat; and the wine, that such as are faint in the wilderness may 3 drink. And the king said, And where is thy master's son? And Ziba said to the king, Behold, he abides at Jerusalem; for he said, To-day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdom of my 4 father. And the king said to Ziba, Behold, thine are all that pertained to Mephibosheth. And Ziba said, I humbly bow myself: may I find favour in thy sight, my lord, O king.

5 And when king David came to Bahurim, behold, there came out from thence a man of the family of the house of Saul, whose name was Shimei, the son of Gera: he 6 came forth, and cursed, and cast stones at David, and at all the servants of king David; and all the people and all the mighty men were on his right hand and on his 7 left. And thus said Shimei as he cursed: Away, away, thou man 8 of blood and man of Belial! Jehovah has returned upon thee all the blood of the house of Saul, in whose stead thou hast reigned; and Jehovah has given the kingdom into the hand of Absalom thy son; and behold, thou art [taken] in thine own evil, for thou art a man of blood.

9 And Abishai the son of Zeruiah said to the king, Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? let me go over, I pray thee, and 10 take off his head. And the king said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah? so let him curse, for Jehovah has said to him, Curse David! Who shall then 11 say, Why dost thou so? And David said to Abishai, and to all his servants, Behold, my son, who came forth of my bowels, seeks my life: how much more now a Benjaminite? let him alone and let him curse; for Jehovah has

[q] Or, as interrogative, 'Dost thou see?' which Rashi explains by, 'Does it please thee?' The Targum and Jerome give what is in the text. [r] So the Keri. The Chetiv here, also in xvii. 16, reads 'passages.' [s] Strictly, 'young man.'

12 bidden him. It may be that Jehovah will look on mine affliction, and that Jehovah will requite me good for my being cursed this day.
13 And David and his men went by the way; and Shimei went along on the hill's side over against him, and cursed as he went, and threw 14 stones at him, and cast dust. And the king, and all the people that were with him, came weary, and refreshed themselves there.
15 Now Absalom, and all the people, the men of Israel, came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel with 16 him. And it came to pass, when Hushai the Archite, David's friend, came to Absalom, that Hushai said to Absalom, Long live the 17 king! Long live the king! And Absalom said to Hushai, Is this thy kindness to thy friend? why didst thou not go with thy friend?
18 And Hushai said to Absalom, No; but whom Jehovah, and this people, and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, and with him will I 19 abide. And again, whom should I serve? should it not be in the presence of his son? as I have served in thy father's presence, so will I be in thy presence.
20 And Absalom said to Ahithophel, Give counsel among you what we 21 shall do. And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Go in to thy father's concubines, whom he has left to keep the house; and all Israel shall hear that thou art become odious with thy father; and the hands of all that are with thee shall be strong.
22 So they spread a tent for Absalom upon the roof; and Absalom went in to his father's concubines in the 23 sight of all Israel. And the counsel of Ahithophel, which he counselled in those days, was as if a man had inquired of the word of God: so was all the counsel of Ahithophel both with David and with Absalom.

17 And Ahithophel said to Absalom, Let me, I pray, choose out twelve thousand men, and I will arise and pursue after David to-
2 night; and I will come upon him while he is weary and weak-handed, and will make him afraid; and all the people that are with him shall flee; and I will smite the 3 king only; and I will bring back all the people to thee. The man whom thou seekest is as if all returned: all the people shall be in 4 peace. And the saying was right in the eyes of Absalom, and in the eyes of all the elders of Israel.
5 And Absalom said, Call now Hushai the Archite also, and we 6 will hear also what he says. And Hushai came to Absalom, and Absalom spoke to him saying, Ahithophel has spoken after this manner: shall we carry out his word? If not, speak thou.
7 And Hushai said to Absalom, The counsel that Ahithophel has 8 given this time is not good. And Hushai said, Thou knowest thy father and his men, that they are mighty men, and they are of exasperated spirit, as a bear robbed of her whelps in the field; and thy father is a man of war, and will 9 not lodge with the people. Behold, he is hid now in some pit, or some such place; and it will come to pass, when some of them fall at the first, whoever heareth it will say, There has been slaughter among the people that follow Ab-
10 salom, and even the valiant man whose heart is as the heart of a lion shall utterly melt; for all Israel knows that thy father is a mighty man, and they that are 11 with him are valiant men. But I counsel that all Israel be speedily gathered to thee, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, as the sand that is by the sea for multitude; and that thou go to battle in thine own 12 person. And we shall come upon him in some place where he shall be found, and we will light upon him as the dew falls on the ground; and of him and of all the men that are with him there shall not be 13 left so much as one. And if he withdraw into a city, then shall all Israel bring ropes to that city, and we will draw it into the torrent, until there be not one small stone 14 found there. And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better than the counsel of Ahithophel. And Jehovah had appointed to defeat the good counsel of Ahithophel, in order that Jehovah might bring evil upon Absalom.
15 And Hushai said to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, Thus and thus did Ahithophel counsel Absalom and the elders of Israel; and thus and thus have I counselled.
16 And now send quickly, and tell David saying, Lodge not this night in the plains of the wilderness, but speedily pass over; lest the king be swallowed up, and all the peo-17 ple that are with him. And Jonathan and Ahimaaz stayed by Enrogel: and the maid went and told them; and they went and told king David, for they might not be seen to come into the city.

18 But a lad saw them, and told Absalom. Then they went both of them away quickly, and came to the house of a man at Bahurim, who had a well in his court; and 19 they went down there. And the woman took and spread the covering over the well's mouth, and spread ground corn on it; and 20 the thing was not known. And Absalom's servants came to the woman to the house, and said, Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said to them, They have gone over the brook of water. And they sought and could not find [them], and returned to Jerusalem.
21 And it came to pass after they had departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David; and they said to David, Arise and pass quickly over the water; for thus has Ahitho-22 phel counselled against you. Then David arose, and all the people that were with him, and they passed over the Jordan; by the morning light there was not one of them missing that had not gone over the Jordan.
23 And when Ahithophel saw that his counsel was not followed, he saddled his ass, and arose and went to his house, to his city, and gave charge to his household, and hanged himself, and he died; and he was buried in the sepulchre of his father.
24 And David came to Mahanaim. And Absalom passed over the Jor-25 dan, he and all the men of Israel with him. And Absalom set Amasa over the host instead of Joab; which Amasa was the son of a man whose name was Jithra the Israelite,[t] that went in to Abigail the daughter of Nahash, sister to Zeruiah Joab's mother.
26 And Israel and Absalom encamped in the land of Gilead.
27 And as soon as David came to Mahanaim, Shobi the son of Nahash of Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and Machir the son of Ammiel of Lo-debar, and Barzillai 28 the Gileadite of Rogelim, brought beds, and basons, and earthen vessels, and wheat, and barley, and flour, and parched [corn], and beans, and lentils, and parched 29 [pulse], and honey, and cream, and sheep, and cheese of kine to David, and to the people that were with him, to eat; for they said, The people is hungry, and weary, and thirsty in the wilderness.

18 And David marshalled the people that were with him, and set captains of thousands and captains of hundreds over them.
2 And David sent forth the people, a third part under the hand of Joab, and a third part under the hand of Abishai the son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, and a third part under the hand of Ittai the Gittite. And the king said to the people, I will surely go forth with you my-
3 self also. But the people said, Thou shalt not go forth, for if we should in any case flee, they will not care for us; neither if half of us die, will they care for us; for thou[v] art worth ten thousand of us; and now it is better that thou 4 succour us out of the city. And the king said to them, I will do what is good in your sight. And the king stood by the gate-side, and all the people came out by hundreds and 5 by thousands. And the king commanded Joab and Abishai and Ittai, saying, [Deal] gently for my sake with the young man Absalom. And all the people heard when the king gave all the captains charge concerning Absalom.
6 And the people went out into the field against Israel; and the battle was in the forest of Ephraim.
7 And the people of Israel were routed before the servants of David, and there was a great slaughter there that day: twenty 8 thousand men. And the battle was there scattered over the face of all the country; and the forest devoured more people that day 9 than the sword devoured. And Absalom found himself in the presence of David's servants. And Absalom was riding upon a mule, and the mule went under the thick boughs of the great terebinth, and his head caught in the terebinth, and he was taken up between the heaven and the earth; and the mule that was under him went 10 away. And a man saw it, and told Joab, and said, Behold, I saw Absalom hanging in a terebinth.
11 And Joab said to the man that told him, And behold, thou sawest [him], and why didst thou not smite him there to the ground? and I would have given thee ten

12 silver pieces and a girdle. And the man said to Joab, Though I should receive a thousand silver pieces in my hand, yet would I not put forth my hand against the king's son; for in our hearing the king charged thee and Abishai and Ittai, saying, Take care, whoever it be [of you],[w] of the young man 13 Absalom. Or I should have acted falsely against mine own[x] life, for there is no matter concealed from the king, and thou wouldest have 14 set thyself against [me]. Then said Joab, I may not tarry thus with thee. And he took three spears[y] in his hand, and thrust them into Absalom's body,[z] while he was yet alive in the midst of 15 the terebinth. And ten young men that bore Joab's armour surrounded and smote Absalom, and 16 killed him. And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from pursuing after Israel; for 17 Joab kept back[a] the people. And they took Absalom, and cast him into a great pit in the wood, and raised a very great heap of stones upon him. And all Israel fled 18 every one to his tent. Now Absalom in his lifetime had taken and reared up for himself a monument, which is in the king's dale; for he said, I have no son to keep my name in remembrance; and he called the monument after his own name; and it is called unto this day, Absalom's memorial.

19 And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said, Let me run, I pray, and carry the king the news that Jehovah has avenged him of his enemies.
20 And Joab said to him, Thou shalt not be a bearer of news to-day, but thou shalt carry the news another day; but to-day thou shalt carry no news, because the king's son 21 is dead. Then said Joab to the Cushite,[b] Go, tell the king what thou hast seen. And the Cushite bowed himself to Joab, and ran.
22 And Ahimaaz the son of Zadok said yet again to Joab, Come what may, let me, I pray thee, also run after the Cushite. And Joab said, Why wilt thou run, my son, seeing that there is no news suited [to 23 thee]?—But, come what may, let me run. And he said to him, Run. And Ahimaaz ran by the way of the plain,[c] and outstripped the Cushite.

24 And David sat between the two gates; and the watchman went up to the roof of the gate, on to the wall, and lifted up his eyes and looked, and behold, a man running 25 alone. And the watchman cried, and told the king. And the king said, If he be alone, there is news in his mouth. And he came on and 26 drew near. And the watchman saw another man running; and the watchman called to the porter and said, Behold a man running alone. And the king said, He also 27 is a bearer of news. And the watchman said, I see the running of the foremost like the running of Ahimaaz the son of Zadok. And the king said, He is a good man, and comes with good news.

28 And Ahimaaz called and said to the king, Peace! And he fell down to the earth on his face before the king, and said, Blessed be Jehovah thy God, who has delivered up the men that lifted up their hand against my lord the 29 king. And the king said, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And Ahimaaz said, I saw a great tumult when Joab sent the king's servant, and me thy servant; but 30 I knew not what it was. And the king said, Turn aside [and] stand here. And he turned aside and stood still.

31 And behold, the Cushite came; and the Cushite said, Let my lord the king receive good tidings, for Jehovah has avenged thee this day of all them that rose up against 32 thee. And the king said to the Cushite, Is it well with the young man Absalom? And the Cushite said, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee for evil, be as that young man.
33 And the king was much moved, and went up to the upper chamber of the gate, and wept; and as he went, he said thus: O my son Absalom, my son, my son Absalom! would God I had died in thy stead, O Absalom, my son, my son!

19 And it was told Joab, Behold, the king weeps and mourns for 2 Absalom. And the victory that day was [turned] into mourning for all the people; for the people heard say that day, The king is 3 grieved for his son. And the people stole away that day into the city, as people steal away when 4 ashamed of fleeing in battle. And the king covered his face, and the king cried with a loud voice, My son Absalom! Absalom, my son, 5 my son! And Joab came into the house to the king, and said, Thou hast put to shame this day the faces of all thy servants who have this day saved thy life, and the lives of thy sons and of thy daughters, and the lives of thy wives and 6 the lives of thy concubines; in that thou lovest them that hate thee, and hatest those that love thee. For thou hast declared this day, that neither princes nor servants are anything to thee: for to-day I perceive, that if Absalom had lived, and all we had died today, then it would have been right 7 in thine eyes. But now arise, go forth, and speak consolingly to thy servants; for I swear by Jehovah, if thou go not forth, there will not tarry one with thee this night; and that would be worse to thee than all the evil that has befallen thee from thy youth until now.

8 Then the king arose, and sat in the gate. And they told all the people, saying, Behold, the king is sitting in the gate. And all the people came before the king.

Now Israel had fled every man 9 to his tent. And all the people were at strife throughout the tribes of Israel, saying, The king delivered us out of the hand of our enemies, and he saved us out of the hand of the Philistines; and now he is fled out of the land be-10 cause of Absalom. And Absalom, whom we anointed over us, is dead in battle; and now why are ye silent as to bringing the king back?

11 And king David sent to Zadok and to Abiathar the priests, saying, Speak to the elders of Judah saying, Why are ye the last to bring the king back to his house? seeing the speech of all Israel is come to the king, to his house.
12 Ye are my brethren, ye are my bone and my flesh; and why will ye be the last to bring back the 13 king? And say to Amasa, Art thou not my bone and my flesh?
God do so to me and more also, if thou be not captain of the host before me continually instead of 14 Joab. And he bowed the heart of all the men of Judah as of one man;
and they sent to the king, Return, 15 thou and all thy servants. And the king returned and came as far as the Jordan. And Judah came to Gilgal, to go to meet the king, to conduct the king over the Jordan.

16 And Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite, who was of Bahurim, hasted and came down with the men of Judah to meet king David.
17 And there were a thousand men of Benjamin with him, and Ziba the servant of the house of Saul, and his fifteen sons and his twenty servants with him; and they forded the Jordan before the king.
18 And a ferry boat passed to and fro to carry over the king's household, and to do what he thought good.
And Shimei the son of Gera fell down before the king as he was [just] crossing over the Jordan.
19 And he said to the king, Let not my lord impute iniquity to me, neither do thou remember that which thy servant did perversely the day that my lord the king went out of Jerusalem, that the king 20 should take it to heart. For thy servant knows that I have sinned; and behold, I am come the first this day of all the house of Joseph to go down to meet my lord the 21 king. And Abishai the son of Zeruiah answered and said, Should not Shimei be put to death for this, because he cursed Jehovah's 22 anointed? And David said, What have I to do with you, ye sons of Zeruiah, that ye should this day be adversaries to me? Should there any man be put to death this day in Israel? for do not I know that I am this day king over 23 Israel? And the king said to Shimei, Thou shalt not die. And the king swore to him.

24 And Mephibosheth the son of Saul came down to meet the king.
Now he had neither washed[d] his feet, nor trimmed[d] his beard, nor washed his clothes, from the day the king departed until the day he 25 came [again] in peace. And as soon as Jerusalem came[e] to meet the king, the king said to him, Why didst thou not go with me, 26 Mephibosheth? And he said, My lord, O king, my servant deceived me; for thy servant said, I will saddle me the ass, and ride thereon, and go with the king; for thy 27 servant is lame. And he has slandered thy servant to my lord the king; but my lord the king is as an angel of God; do therefore 28 what is good in thy sight. For all

[d] Lit. 'made.' [e] Or 'as soon as he came to Jerusalem.'

my father's house were but dead men before my lord the king; and thou didst set thy servant among them that eat at thine own table. What further right therefore have I? and for what should I cry any 29 more to the king? And the king said to him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I have said, Thou and Ziba divide the 30 land. And Mephibosheth said to the king, Let him even take all, since my lord the king is come again in peace to his own house.
31 And Barzillai the Gileadite came down from Rogelim, and went over the Jordan with the king, to con-32 duct him over the Jordan. And Barzillai was very aged, eighty years old; and it was he that had maintained the king while he abode at Mahanaim; for he was 33 a very great[f] man. And the king said to Barzillai, Pass thou over with me, and I will maintain thee 34 with me in Jerusalem. And Barzillai said to the king, How many are the days of the years of my life, that I should go up with the 35 king to Jerusalem? I am this day eighty years old: can I discern between good and bad? can thy servant taste what I eat and what I drink? can I hear any more the voice of singing men and singing women? and why should thy servant be yet a burden to my lord 36 the king? Thy servant will go a little way[g] over the Jordan with the king; and why should the king recompense it to me with this 37 reward? Let thy servant, I pray thee, turn back again, that I may die in mine own city, by the grave of my father and of my mother. But behold thy servant Chimham: let him go over with my lord the king; and do to him what seems 38 good to thee. And the king said, Chimham shall go over with me, and I will do to him that which seems good to thee; and whatsoever thou shalt require of me, that 39 will I do for thee. And all the people went over the Jordan; and the king went over; and the king kissed Barzillai, and blessed him; and he returned to his own place.
40 And the king went on to Gilgal, and Chimham went on with him; and all the people of Judah conducted the king, and also half the people of Israel.
41 And behold, all the men of Israel came to the king, and said to the king, Why have our brethren the men of Judah stolen thee away, and have brought the king, and his household, and all David's men 42 with him, over the Jordan? And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to me; and why then are ye angry for this matter? have we eaten anything which came from the king, or has he given us 43 any present? And the men of Israel answered the men of Judah and said, I have ten parts in the king and I have also more right in David than thou; and why didst thou slight me? and was not my advice the first, to bring back my king? And the words of the men of Judah were harsher than the words of the men of Israel.

20 And there happened to be there a man of Belial, whose name was Sheba, the son of Bichri, a Benjaminite; and he blew a trumpet, and said, We have no portion in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to his tents, Israel.
2 Then all the men of Israel went up from after David, following Sheba the son of Bichri. But the men of Judah clave to their king, from the Jordan even to Jerusalem.
3 And David came to his house at Jerusalem; and the king took the ten women, concubines, whom he had left to keep the house, and put them in a house of confinement and maintained them, but did not go in to them. So they were shut up unto the day of their death, living in widowhood.
4 And the king said to Amasa, Call me the men of Judah together within three days, and do thou 5 attend here. So Amasa went to call together [the men of] Judah; but he delayed longer than the set time which he had appointed him.
6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm than did Absalom. Take thou thy lord's servants, and pursue after him, lest he get him fortified cities and escape our 7 sight. And there went out after him Joab's men, and the Cherethites, and the Pelethites, and all the mighty men; and they went out of Jerusalem, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.
8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa came before them. And Joab was girded with his coat, his dress, and

[f] Or 'rich.' [g] Or 'time.'

upon it was the girdle of the sword which was fastened on his loins in its sheath; and as he went forth 9 it fell out. And Joab said to Amasa, Art thou well, my brother? And Joab took Amasa by the beard with the right hand to kiss 10 him. And Amasa had taken no notice of the sword that was in Joab's hand: so he smote him with it in the belly and shed out his bowels to the ground, and struck him not again; and he died. And Joab and Abishai his brother pursued after Sheba the son of 11 Bichri. And one of Joab's young men stood by [Amasa] and said, He that favours Joab, and he that is for David, let him follow Joab.
12 Now Amasa wallowed in blood in the midst of the highway. And when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the highway into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that 13 came by stood still. When he was removed out of the highway, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of 14 Bichri, who went through all the tribes of Israel to Abel, and to Beth-Maacah, and all the Berim; and they gathered together, and 15 went also after him. And they came and besieged him in Abel-Beth-Maacah, and they cast up a bank against the city, and it was raised in the trench; and all the people that were with Joab sapped 16 the wall, to throw it down. And a wise woman cried out of the city, Hear, hear: say, I pray you, unto Joab, Come near hither, that I 17 may speak with thee. And he came near to her; and the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he said, I [am he]. And she said to him, Listen to the words of thy handmaid. And he said, I am 18 listening. And she spoke saying, They were wont to speak in old time saying, Just inquire in Abel; 19 and so they ended. I am peaceable [and] faithful in Israel: thou seekest to destroy a city and a mother in Israel. Why wilt thou swallow up the inheritance of 20 Jehovah? And Joab answered and said, Far be it, far be it from me, that I should swallow up or 21 destroy. The matter is not so; but a man of mount Ephraim, Sheba the son of Bichri by name, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David: give up him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said to Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.
22 Then the woman went to all the people in her wisdom. And they cut off the head of Sheba the son of Bichri, and cast it to Joab. And he blew a trumpet, and they dispersed from the city, every man to his tent. And Joab returned to Jerusalem to the king.
23 And Joab was over all the host of Israel; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Chereth-24 ites[h] and over the Pelethites;[i] and Adoram was over the levy; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud 25 was recorder; and Sheva was scribe;[k] and Zadok and Abiathar 26 were priests; and Ira also the Jairite was David's chief ruler.

21 And there was a famine in the days of David three years, year after year; and David inquired[l] of Jehovah. And Jehovah said, It is for Saul, and for [his] house of blood, because he slew the 2 Gibeonites. And the king called the Gibeonites, and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but of the remainder of the Amorites; and the children of Israel had sworn to them; and Saul sought to smite them in his zeal for the children 3 of Israel and Judah.) And David said to the Gibeonites, What shall I do for you? and with what shall I make atonement, that ye may bless the inheritance of Jehovah?
4 And the Gibeonites said to him, As to Saul and his house, it is with us no question of receiving silver or gold, neither is it for us to have any man put to death in Israel. And he said, What ye say will I 5 do for you. And they said to the king, The man that consumed us, and that devised against us that we should be destroyed from remaining in all the borders of Israel, 6 let seven men of his sons be given up to us, and we will hang them up to Jehovah in Gibeah of Saul, the chosen of Jehovah. And the king 7 said, I will give [them]. But the king spared Mephibosheth, the son of Jonathan the son of Saul, because of Jehovah's oath that was between them, between David and Jonathan the son of Saul.
8 And the king took the two sons of Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, whom she had borne to Saul, Armoni and Mephibosheth; and [h] The Executioners. [i] The Couriers. [k] Or 'secretary.' [l] Lit. 'sought the face.'

the five sons of [the sister of [m]] Michal the daughter of Saul, whom she had borne to Adriel the son of 9 Barzillai the Meholathite; and he gave them into the hands of the Gibeonites, and they hanged them on the hill before Jehovah. And they fell all seven together, and were put to death in the first days of the harvest, in the beginning of barley harvest.
10 Then Rizpah the daughter of Aiah took sackcloth, and spread it for her upon the rock, from the beginning of harvest until water poured on them out of the heavens, and suffered neither the fowl of the heavens to rest on them by day, nor the beasts of the field by night.
11 And it was told David what Rizpah the daughter of Aiah, the 12 concubine of Saul, had done. And David went and took the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son from the men [n] of Jabesh-Gilead, who had stolen them from the open place [o] of Beth-shan, where the Philistines had hanged them, the day the Philistines had 13 smitten Saul in Gilboa; and he brought up from thence the bones of Saul and the bones of Jonathan his son; and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.
14 And they buried [them] with the bones of Saul and Jonathan his son in the country of Benjamin in Zela, in the sepulchre of Kish his father; and they did all that the king had commanded. And afterwards God was propitious to the land.
15 And the Philistines had yet war again with Israel; and David went down, and his servants with him, and fought with the Philistines. And David was exhausted.
16 And Ishbibenob, who was of the children of Raphah [p]—the weight of his lance was three hundred shekels [q] of bronze, and he was girded with new [armour]— 17 thought to smite David. And Abishai the son of Zeruiah succoured him, and smote the Philistine and killed him. Then the men of David swore to him, saying, Thou shalt go no more out with us to battle, that thou quench not the lamp of Israel.
18 And it came to pass after this, that there was again a battle with the Philistines, at Gob; then Sibbechai the Hushathite smote Saph, who was of the children of Raphah.
19 And there was again a battle at Gob with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jaare-oregim, a Bethlehemite, smote Goliath [r] the Gittite; now the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam.
20 And there was again a battle, at Gath; and there was a man [there] of great stature, that had on each hand six fingers, and on each foot six toes, four and twenty in number; and he also was born 21 to Raphah. And he defied Israel; but Jonathan the son of Shimea 22 David's brother smote him. These four were born to Raphah, in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

22 And David spoke to Jehovah the words of this song in the day that Jehovah had delivered him out of the hand of all his enemies, and out of the hand of 2 Saul. And he said,

Jehovah is my rock, [s] and my fortress, and my deliverer;
3 God is my rock, [t] in him will I trust [v]—
My shield, and the horn of my salvation,
My high tower, and my refuge,
My saviour: thou wilt save me from violence.
4 I will call upon Jehovah, who is to be praised;
So shall I be saved from mine enemies.
5 For the waves of death encompassed me, Torrents of Belial made me afraid.
6 The bands of Sheol surrounded me;
The cords of death encountered me;
7 In my distress I called upon Jehovah,
And I cried to my God;
And he heard my voice out of his temple,
And my cry [came] into his ears.
8 Then the earth shook and quaked;
The foundations of the heavens trembled And shook because he was wroth.
9 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils,
And fire out of his mouth devoured:
Coals burned forth from it.

10 And he bowed the heavens, and came down;
And darkness was under his feet.
11 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly;
And he was seen upon the wings of the wind.
12 And he made darkness round about him a tent, Gatherings of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
13 From the brightness before him Burned forth coals of fire.
14 Jehovah thundered from the heavens,
And the Most High uttered his voice.
15 And he sent arrows, and scattered [mine enemies[w]]; Lightning, and discomfited them.
16 And the beds of the sea were seen,
The foundations of the world were uncovered
At the rebuke of Jehovah,
At the blast of the breath of his nostrils.
17 He reached forth from above, he took me,
He drew me out of great waters; 18 He delivered me from my strong enemy,
From them that hated me;
For they were mightier than I.
19 They encountered me in the day of my calamity;
But Jehovah was my stay.
20 And he brought me forth into a large place;
He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
21 Jehovah hath rewarded me according to my righteousness, According to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
22 For I have kept the ways of Jehovah,
And have not wickedly departed from my God.
23 For all his ordinances were before me,
And his statutes, I did not depart from them, 24 And I was upright[x] before him,
And kept myself from mine iniquity.
25 And Jehovah hath recompensed me according to my righteousness, According to my cleanness in his sight.
26 With the gracious[y] thou dost shew thyself gracious;
With the upright[x] man thou dost shew thyself upright; 27 With the pure thou dost shew thyself pure;
And with the perverse thou dost shew thyself contrary.
28 And the afflicted people thou dost[z] save;
And thine eyes are upon the haughty, [whom] thou bringest down.
29 For thou art my lamp, Jehovah;
And Jehovah enlighteneth my darkness.
30 For by thee I have run through a troop;
By my God have I leaped over a wall.
31 As for God,[a] his way is perfect;
The word[b] of Jehovah is tried:
He is a shield to all that trust in him.
32 For who is God,[a] save Jehovah?
And who is a rock, save our God?
33 God[a] is my strong fortress,
And he maketh my way perfectly smooth.[c] 34 He maketh my feet like hinds' [feet],
And setteth me upon my high places.
35 He teacheth my hands to war,
And mine arms bend a bow of brass;
36 And thou didst give me the shield of thy salvation,
And thy condescending gentleness hath made me great.
37 Thou enlargedst my steps under me;
And mine ankles did not slip.
38 I pursued mine enemies, and destroyed them,
And I turned not again till they were consumed.
39 And I have consumed them and have crushed them, and they rose not again;
Yea, they fell under my feet.
40 And thou girdedst me with strength to battle:
Thou didst subdue under me those that rose up against me.
41 And mine enemies didst thou make to turn their backs unto me,
And those that hated me I destroyed.
42 They looked, and there was none to save—Unto Jehovah, and he answered them not.

43 And I did beat them small as the dust of the earth,
I trod them as the mire of the streets; I stamped upon them.
44 And thou hast delivered me from the strivings of my people, Thou hast kept me to be head of the nations:
A people I knew not doth serve me:
45 Strangers come cringing unto me:
At the hearing of the ear, they obey me.
46 Strangers have faded away,
And they come trembling forth from their close[d] places.
47 Jehovah liveth; and blessed be my rock;
And exalted be the God, the rock of my salvation, 48 The God[e] who hath avenged me,
And hath brought the peoples under me.
49 He brought me forth from mine enemies:
Yea, thou hast lifted me up above them that rose up against me;
From the man of violence hast thou delivered me.
50 Therefore will I give thanks to thee, Jehovah, among the nations,
And will sing psalms to thy name.
51 [It is he] who giveth great deliverances to[f] his king,
And sheweth loving-kindness to his anointed,
To David, and to his seed for evermore.

23 Now these are the last words of David:
David the son of Jesse saith,[g]
And the man who was raised up on high,
The anointed of the God of Jacob,
And the sweet psalmist of Israel saith,[g] 2 The Spirit of Jehovah spoke by me,
And his word was on my tongue.
3 The God of Israel said,
The Rock of Israel spoke to me,
The ruler among[h] men shall be just,[i] Ruling in the fear of God;
4 And [he shall be] as the light of the morning, [like] the rising of the sun,
A morning without clouds, [When] from the sunshine, after rain,
The green grass springeth from the earth.
5 Although my house be not so before God,[e] Yet he hath made with me an everlasting covenant, Ordered in every way and sure;
For [this is] all my salvation, and every desire,[k]
Although he make [it] not to grow.
6 But [the sons] of Belial [are] all of them as thorns thrust away, Because they cannot be taken with hands;
7 And the man that will touch them provideth himself with iron and the staff of a spear;
And they shall be utterly burned with fire in [their] place.
8 These are the names of the mighty men whom David had: Joseb-Basshebeth, Tachkemonite[l] the chief of the captains: he was Adino the Eznite; he [fought] against[m] eight hundred, slain [by him] at one time.
9 And after him, Eleazar the son of Dodo the son of an Ahohite;[n] he was one of the three mighty men with David, when they had defied the Philistines that were there gathered together to battle, and the men of Israel were gone 10 up. He arose and smote the Philistines until his hand was weary, and his hand clave to the sword; and Jehovah wrought a great deliverance that day; and the people returned after him only to spoil.
11 And after him, Shammah the son of Agee the Hararite: the Philistines were gathered into a troop, and there was there a plot of ground full of lentils, and the people had fled before the Philis-12 tines; and he stood in the midst of the plot and delivered it, and smote the Philistines, and Jehovah wrought a great deliverance.
13 And three of the thirty chiefs went down, and came to David in the harvest time to the cave of Adullam, when the troop of the Philistines was encamped in the 14 valley of Rephaim. And David was then in the stronghold; and the Philistines' garrison was then 15 at Bethlehem. And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me to drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, which is in the 16 gate! And the three mighty men broke through the camp of the

Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, which is in the gate, and took it, and brought it to David; however he would not drink of it, but poured it out to 17 Jehovah. And he said, Be it far from me, Jehovah, that I should do this thing! is it not the blood of the men that went at the risk of their lives? Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.
18 And Abishai, the brother of Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was the chief of three; and he brandished his spear against three hundred and slew them; and he had a 19 name among the three. Was he not most honourable of three? and he was their captain; but he did not attain to the [first] three.
20 And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, son of a valiant man, great in exploits, of Kabzeel: he it was that smote two lions[o] of Moab; and he went down and smote a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy 21 day. He also smote the Egyptian, an imposing man: and the Egyptian had a spear in his hand; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him 22 with his own spear. These things did Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and he had a name among the 23 three mighty men. He was honoured above the thirty, but he did not attain to the [first] three. And David set him in his council.
24 Asahel the brother of Joab was one of the thirty; Elhanan the son 25 of Dodo of Bethlehem, Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite, 26 Helez the Paltite, Ira the son of 27 Ikkesh the Tekoite, Abiezer the Anathothite, Mebunnai the Hus-28 hathite, Zalmon the Ahohite, Ma-29 harai the Netophathite, Heleb the son of Baanah, the Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of 30 the children of Benjamin, Benaiah a Pirathonite, Hiddai of the brooks 31 of Gaash, Abi-albon the Arbathite, 32 Azmaveth the Barhumite, Eliahba the Shaalbonite, of the sons of 33 Jashen, Jonathan, Shammah the Ararite, Ahiam the son of Sharar 34 the Ararite, Eliphelet the son of Ahasbai, the son of the Maachathite, Eliam the son of Ahithophel 35 the Gilonite, Hezrai[p] the Carmel-36 ite, Paarai the Arbite, Igal the son of Nathan of Zobah, Bani the 37 Gadite, Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the armour-bearer of Joab the son of 38 Zeruiah, Ira the Ithrite, Gareb 39 the Ithrite, Uriah the Hittite: thirty-seven in all.

24 And again the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel, and he moved David against them saying, Go, number Israel and 2 Judah. And the king said to Joab the captain of the host, who was with him, Go, I pray thee, through all the tribes of Israel, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, and count the people, that I may know the num-3 ber of the people. And Joab said to the king, May Jehovah thy God even add to the people, how many soever they be, a hundredfold, and that the eyes of my lord the king may see [it]; but why does my lord the king delight in this thing?
4 But the king's word prevailed against Joab, and against the captains of the army. And Joab and the captains of the army went out from the presence of the king to count the people of Israel.
5 And they passed over the Jordan, and encamped in Aroer, on the right side of the city that is in the midst of the ravine[q] of Gad, 6 and toward Jaazer. And they came to Gilead, and to the land of Tahtim-hodshi;[r] and came to Dan-jaan, and to the environs of 7 Sidon; and they came to the fortified city of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Hivites and of the Canaanites; and went out to the south of Judah, to Beer-sheba.
8 And they went through all the land, and came to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty 9 days. And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to the king; and there were of Israel eight hundred thousand valiant men that drew sword; and the men of Judah were five hundred thousand men.
10 And David's heart smote him after he had numbered the people. And David said to Jehovah, I have sinned greatly in what I have done; and now, I beseech thee, Jehovah, put away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very fool-11 ishly. And when David arose in the morning, the word of Jehovah came to the prophet Gad, David's 12 seer, saying, Go and say to David, Thus saith Jehovah: I impose on thee three [things]; choose one of them that I may do it unto thee.

13 And Gad came to David, and told him, and said to him, Shall seven years of famine come to thee in thy land? or wilt thou flee three months before thine adversaries while they pursue thee? or shall there be three days' pestilence in thy land? Now be aware and consider what word I shall bring again to him 14 that sent me. And David said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let us fall, I pray thee, into the hand of Jehovah; for his mercies are great; but let me not fall into the hand of man.
15 And Jehovah sent a pestilence upon Israel from the morning even to the set time; and there died of the people from Dan even to Beer-sheba seventy thousand men.
16 And the angel stretched out his hand upon Jerusalem to destroy it; but Jehovah repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed among the people, It is enough: withdraw now thine hand. And the angel of Jehovah was by the threshing-floor of 17 Araunah the Jebusite. And David spoke to Jehovah when he saw the angel that smote among the people, and said, Behold, it is I that have sinned, and it is I that have committed iniquity; but these sheep, what have they done? let thy hand, I pray thee, be on me, and on my father's house!
18 And Gad came that day to David, and said to him, Go up, rear an altar to Jehovah in the threshing-floor of Araunah the 19 Jebusite. And David, according to the saying of Gad, went up as 20 Jehovah had commanded. And Araunah looked, and saw the king and his servants coming on towards him; and Araunah went out, and bowed himself before the king with his face to the ground.
21 And Araunah said, Why is my lord the king come to his servant? And David said, To buy the threshing-floor of thee, to build an altar to Jehovah, that the plague may 22 be stayed from the people. And Araunah said to David, Let my lord the king take and offer up that which is good in his sight: see, [here are] oxen for the burnt-offering, and the threshing-sledges and implements of the oxen for 23 wood. All these things, O king, doth Araunah give to the king. And Araunah said to the king, 24 Jehovah thy God accept thee. And the king said to Araunah, No; but I will in any case buy [them] of thee at a price: neither will I offer up to Jehovah my God burnt-offerings without cost. And David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen for fifty shekels of silver.
25 And David built there an altar to Jehovah, and offered up burnt-offerings and peace-offerings. And Jehovah was propitious to the land, and the plague was stayed from Israel.

FIRST BOOK OF KINGS

1 And king David was old [and] advanced in age;[a] and they covered him with clothes, but he 2 obtained no warmth. And his servants said to him, Let there be found for my lord the king a young virgin; and let her stand before the king, and let her cherish him, and let her lie in thy bosom, that my lord the king may get warm.
3 And they sought for a fair damsel throughout the territory of Israel, and found Abishag a Shunammite, 4 and brought her to the king. And the damsel was very fair, and cherished the king, and ministered to him; but the king knew her not.
5 And Adonijah the son of Haggith exalted himself, saying, I will be king; and he provided himself chariots and horsemen, and fifty 6 men to run before him. And his father had not grieved him at any time in saying, Why doest thou so? and he was also a very comely man; and [his mother] bore him 7 after Absalom. And he conferred with Joab the son of Zeruiah, and with Abiathar the priest; and they helped Adonijah and followed 8 [him]. But Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and Nathan the prophet, and Shimei, and Rei, and the mighty men

whom David had, were not with 9 Adonijah. And Adonijah sacrificed[b] sheep and oxen and fatted cattle by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by En-rogel, and invited all his brethren, the king's sons, and all the men of Judah, the 10 king's servants; but Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah, and the mighty men, and Solomon his brother, he did not invite.
11 And Nathan spoke to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonijah the son of Haggith is king, and David our lord does not 12 know [it]? And now, come, let me, I pray thee, give thee counsel, that thou mayest save thine own life, and the life of thy son Solo-13 mon. Go and get thee in to king David, and say to him, Didst not thou, my lord, O king, swear to thy handmaid saying, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne? why 14 then does Adonijah reign? Behold, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I also will come in 15 after thee and confirm[c] thy words. And Bathsheba went in to the king into the chamber; and the king was very old; and Abishag the Shunammite ministered to the 16 king. And Bathsheba bowed and did obeisance to the king. And the 17 king said, What wouldest thou? And she said to him, My lord, thou hast sworn by Jehovah thy God to thy handmaid, [saying,] Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne.
18 And now behold, Adonijah is king; and now,[d] my lord the king, thou 19 knowest it not. And he has sacrificed oxen and fatted cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the sons of the king and Abiathar the priest and Joab the captain of the host; but Solomon thy servant has he not invited.
20 And thou, my lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are upon thee, that thou shouldest tell them who shall sit on the throne of my lord 21 the king after him. Otherwise it shall come to pass when my lord the king shall sleep[e] with his fathers, that I and my son Solomon will be counted offenders.
22 And behold, while she yet talked 23 with the king, Nathan the prophet also came in. And they told the king saying, Behold, Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in before the king, he bowed himself before the king with his face 24 to the ground. And Nathan said, My lord, O king, hast thou said, Adonijah shall reign after me, and 25 he shall sit on my throne? For he is gone down this day, and has sacrificed oxen and fatted cattle and sheep in abundance, and has invited all the king's sons and the captains of the host and Abiathar the priest; and behold, they eat and drink before him, and say, 26 God save king Adonijah! But me, [even] me thy servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and thy servant 27 Solomon, he has not invited. Is this thing done by my lord the king, and thou hast not shewn to thy servants[f] who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?
28 Then king David answered and said, Call me Bathsheba. And she came into the king's presence, and 29 stood before the king. And the king swore, and said, [As] Jehovah liveth, who has redeemed my soul 30 out of all distress, even as I swore to thee by Jehovah the God of Israel, saying, Solomon thy son shall reign after me, and he shall sit on my throne in my stead; even so will I certainly do this day.
31 And Bathsheba bowed with her face to the earth, and did reverence to the king, and said, Let my lord king David live for ever.
32 And king David said, Call me Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada. And they came before 33 the king. And the king said to them, Take with you the servants of your lord, and cause Solomon my son to ride upon mine own mule, and bring him down to 34 Gihon; and let Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him there king over Israel; and blow ye with the trumpet, and 35 say, Long live king Solomon. And ye shall come up after him, that he may come and sit on my throne; for he shall reign in my stead, and I have appointed him to be ruler 36 over Israel and over Judah. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada answered the king and said, Amen: Jehovah, the God of my lord the 37 king, say so too. As Jehovah has been with my lord the king, even so be he with Solomon, and make his throne greater than the throne of my lord king David.

38 And Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites[g] went down, and caused Solomon to ride upon king David's mule, and 39 brought him to Gihon. And Zadok the priest took the horn of oil out of the tabernacle,[h] and anointed Solomon. And they blew the trumpet; and all the people said, Long live king Solo-40 mon! And all the people came up after him, and the people piped with pipes, and rejoiced with great joy, so that the earth rent with the sound of them.
41 And Adonijah and all the guests that were with him heard [it] as they were finishing their repast; and Joab heard the sound of the trumpet, and he said, Wherefore this noise of the city in an uproar?
42 While he yet spoke, behold, Jonathan the son of Abiathar the priest came; and Adonijah said [to him], Come in; for thou art a valiant[i] man, and bringest good 43 news. And Jonathan answered and said to Adonijah, Indeed, our lord king David has made Solo-44 mon king. And the king has sent with him Zadok the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, and the Cherethites and the Pelethites, and they have caused him to ride 45 upon the king's mule; and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon; and they are come up from thence rejoicing, so that the city is in an uproar. This is the 46 noise which ye have heard. And also Solomon is sitting on the 47 throne of the kingdom. And moreover the king's servants came to bless our lord king David, saying, Thy God make the name of Solomon more excellent than thy name, and make his throne greater than thy throne! And the king 48 bowed himself on the bed. And also thus said the king: Blessed be Jehovah, the God of Israel, who has given one to sit on my throne this day, mine eyes even seeing it.
49 And all Adonijah's guests were afraid, and rose up and went every 50 man his way. And Adonijah feared because of Solomon, and arose and went and caught hold 51 of the horns of the altar. And it was told Solomon saying, Behold, Adonijah fears king Solomon; for behold, he has caught hold of the horns of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon swear to me this day that he will not put his servant to 52 death with the sword. And Solomon said, If he be a worthy man, there shall not one of his hairs fall to the earth; but if wickedness be 53 found in him, he shall die. And king Solomon sent, and they brought him down from the altar. And he came and bowed himself to king Solomon; and Solomon said to him, Go to thy house.

2 And the days of David were at hand that he should die; and he 2 enjoined Solomon his son saying, I go the way of all the earth: be of good courage therefore, and be a 3 man; and keep the charge of Jehovah thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes, and his commandments, and his ordinances, and his testimonies, as it is written in the law of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all that thou doest and whithersoever thou 4 turnest thyself; that Jehovah may confirm his word which he spoke concerning me, saying, If thy sons take heed to their way, to walk before me in truth with all their heart and with all their soul, there shall not fail thee,[k] said he, a man upon the throne of 5 Israel. And thou knowest also what Joab the son of Zeruiah did to me, what he did to the two captains of the hosts of Israel, to Abner the son of Ner, and to Amasa the son of Jether, whom he slew, and shed the blood of war in peace, and put the blood of war upon his girdle that was about his loins, and upon his sandals that 6 were on his feet. And thou shalt do according to thy wisdom, and not let his hoar head go down to 7 Sheol in peace. But shew kindness to the sons of Barzillai the Gileadite, and let them be of those that eat at thy table; for so they came up to me when I fled because 8 of Absalom thy brother. And behold, there is with thee Shimei the son of Gera, the Benjaminite of Bahurim, who cursed me with a grievous curse in the day that I went to Mahanaim; but he came down to meet me at the Jordan, and I swore to him by Jehovah saying, I will not put thee to 9 death with the sword. And now hold him not guiltless; for thou art a wise man, and thou shalt know what thou oughtest to do to him; but bring his hoar head down to Sheol with blood.

10 And David slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of 11 David. And the days that David reigned over Israel were forty years: he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-12 three years in Jerusalem. And Solomon sat on the throne of David his father; and his kingdom was established greatly.
13 And Adonijah the son of Haggith came to Bathsheba the mother of Solomon. And she said, Comest thou peaceably? And he 14 said, Peaceably. And he said, I have something to say to thee.
15 And she said, Speak. And he said, Thou knowest that the kingdom was mine, and all Israel had set their faces on me that I should reign; but the kingdom is turned about and is become my brother's, 16 for it was his from Jehovah. And now I ask one petition of thee; refuse me not.[l] And she said to 17 him, Speak. And he said, Speak, I pray thee, to Solomon the king—for he will not refuse thee—that he give me Abishag the Shunam-18 mite as wife. And Bathsheba said, Well, I will speak for thee to the king.
19 And Bathsheba went to king Solomon, to speak to him for Adonijah. And the king rose up to meet her, and bowed himself to her, and sat down on his throne; and he caused a throne to be set for the king's mother, and she sat 20 on his right hand. Then she said, I desire one small petition of thee; refuse me not. And the king said to her, Ask, my mother, for I will 21 not refuse thee. And she said, Let Abishag the Shunammite be given to Adonijah thy brother as 22 wife. And king Solomon answered and said to his mother, And why dost thou ask Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? ask for him the kingdom also; for he is mine elder brother; even for him, and for Abiathar the priest, and for 23 Joab the son of Zeruiah. And king Solomon swore by Jehovah saying, God do so to me, and more also,—Adonijah has spoken this word against his own life!
24 And now [as] Jehovah liveth, who has established me, and set me on the throne of David my father, and who has made me a house, as he promised, Adonijah shall be 25 put to death this day. And king Solomon sent by the hand of Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; who fell on him, that he died.
26 And the king said to Abiathar the priest, Go to Anathoth, to thine own fields; for thou art worthy of death;[m] but I will not at this time put thee to death, because thou didst bear the ark of Adonai[n] Jehovah before David my father, and because thou hast been afflicted in all wherein my 27 father was afflicted. And Solomon thrust out Abiathar from being priest to Jehovah, to fulfil the word of Jehovah, which he had spoken concerning the house of Eli in Shiloh.
28 And the report came to Joab (for Joab had turned after Adonijah, though he had not turned after Absalom); and Joab fled to the tent of Jehovah, and caught hold of the horns of the altar.
29 And it was told king Solomon that Joab had fled to the tent of Jehovah; and behold, he is by the altar. And Solomon sent Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, saying, 30 Go, fall on him. And Benaiah came to the tent of Jehovah and said to him, Thus saith the king: Come forth. And he said, No; for I will die here. And Benaiah brought the king word again, saying, Thus said Joab, and thus he 31 answered me. And the king said to him, Do as he has said, and fall upon him, and bury him; and take away the innocent blood, which Joab shed, from me and 32 from the house of my father. And Jehovah shall requite the blood which he shed[o] upon his own head, because he fell upon two men more righteous and better than he, and slew them with the sword, without my father David's knowledge: Abner the son of Ner, captain of the host of Israel, and Amasa the son of Jether, captain 33 of the host of Judah. And their blood shall be requited upon the head of Joab, and upon the head of his seed for ever; but upon David, and upon his seed, and upon his house, and upon his throne, shall there be peace for 34 ever from Jehovah. And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada went up and fell upon him, and put him to death; and he was buried in his 35 own house in the wilderness. And the king put Benaiah the son of Jehoiada in his stead over the host; and Zadok the priest the king put in the stead of Abiathar.

36 And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Build thee a house in Jerusalem, and abide there, and go not forth 37 thence anywhere. And it shall be that on the day thou goest forth, and passest over the torrent of Kidron, ... know for certain that thou shalt surely die: thy blood 38 shall be upon thine own head. And Shimei said to the king, The saying is good: as my lord the king has said, so will thy servant do. And Shimei dwelt in Jerusalem 39 many days. And it came to pass at the end of three years, that two servants of Shimei's ran away to Achish son of Maachah, king of Gath. And they told Shimei saying, Behold, thy servants are in 40 Gath. Then Shimei arose, and saddled his ass, and went to Gath, to Achish, to seek his servants; and Shimei went, and brought his 41 servants from Gath. And it was told Solomon that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath, and 42 had come again. And the king sent and called for Shimei, and said to him, Did I not make thee swear by Jehovah, and protest to thee, saying, Know for certain, that on the day thou goest forth, and walkest abroad anywhere, thou shalt surely die? and thou saidst to me, The word that I have 43 heard is good. Why then hast thou not kept the oath of Jehovah, and the commandment that I 44 charged thee with? And the king said to Shimei, Thou knowest all the wickedness of which thy heart is conscious, which thou didst to David my father; and Jehovah returns thy wickedness upon thine 45 own head; and king Solomon shall be blessed, and the throne of David shall be established before 46 Jehovah for ever. And the king commanded Benaiah the son of Jehoiada; who went out and fell upon him, and he died. And the kingdom was established in the hand of Solomon.

3 And Solomon allied himself by marriage with Pharaoh king of Egypt, and took Pharaoh's daughter, and brought her into the city of David, until he had ended building his own house, and the house of Jehovah, and the wall of 2 Jerusalem round about. Only, the people sacrificed on the high places; for there was no house built to the name of Jehovah, until 3 those days. And Solomon loved Jehovah, walking in the statutes of David his father; only, he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places.
4 And the king went to Gibeon to sacrifice there; for that was the great high place: a thousand burnt-offerings did Solomon offer 5 up upon that altar. In Gibeon Jehovah appeared to Solomon in a dream by night; and God said, 6 Ask what I shall give thee. And Solomon said, Thou hast shewn unto thy servant David my father great loving-kindness, according as he walked before thee in truth and in righteousness and in uprightness of heart with thee; and thou hast kept for him this great loving-kindness, that thou hast given him a son who sits upon his 7 throne, as it is this day. And now, Jehovah my God, thou hast made thy servant king instead of David my father; and I am but a little child: I know not to go out and 8 to come in. And thy servant is in the midst of thy people which thou hast chosen, a great people, that cannot be numbered nor 9 counted for multitude. Give therefore to thy servant an understanding heart [p] to judge thy people, to discern between good and bad; for who is able to judge this thy numerous people?
10 And the word pleased Jehovah, that Solomon had asked this thing.
11 And God said to him, Because thou hast asked this thing, and hast not asked for thyself long life, neither hast asked riches for thyself, nor hast asked the life of thine enemies, but hast asked for thyself discernment to understand judgment;
12 behold, I have done according to thy word: behold, I have given thee a wise and an understanding heart, so that there hath been none like unto thee before thee, neither after thee shall any arise like unto 13 thee. And I have also given thee that which thou hast not asked, both riches and glory; so that there shall not be any among the kings like unto thee all thy days.
14 And if thou wilt walk in my ways, to keep my statutes and my commandments, as thy father David

[p] Strictly, 'a heart that hears;' and so in ver. 11, 'to hear judgment.'

did walk, then I will prolong thy 15 days. And Solomon awoke, and behold, it was a dream. And he came to Jerusalem, and stood before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah,[q] and offered up burnt-offerings, and offered[r] peace-offerings, and made a feast to all his servants.
16 Then came two women, harlots, to the king, and stood before him.
17 And the first woman said, Ah, my lord! I and this woman abode in one house; and I was delivered of a child with her in the house.
18 And it came to pass the third day after I was delivered, that this woman was delivered also; and we were together; no stranger was with us in the house, only we 19 two were in the house. And this woman's child died in the night; 20 because she had lain upon it. And she arose at midnight, and took my son from beside me, while thy handmaid slept, and laid it in her bosom, and laid her dead son in 21 my bosom. And when I rose in the morning to give my child suck, behold, it was dead; and I considered it in the morning, and behold, it was not my son, whom 22 I bore. And the other woman said, No, for the living is my son, and the dead is thy son. And this one said, No, but the dead is thy son, and the living is my son.
Thus they spoke before the king.
23 Then said the king, The one says, This that is living is my son, and thy son is the dead; and the other says, No, for thy son is the dead, 24 and my son is the living. And the king said, Bring me a sword. And they brought a sword before the 25 king. And the king said, Divide the living child in two, and give half to the one, and half to the 26 other. Then spoke the woman whose was the living child to the king, for her bowels yearned over her son, and she said, Ah, my lord! give her the living child, and in no wise put it to death. But the other said, Let it be neither 27 mine nor thine; divide it. And the king answered and said, Give this one the living child, and in no wise put it to death: she is its 28 mother. And all Israel heard of the judgment which the king had judged; and they feared the king, for they saw that the wisdom of God was in him, to do justice.[s]

4 And king Solomon was king over all Israel. 2 And these are the princes whom he had: Azariah 3 the son of Zadok was priest; Elihoreph and Ahiah, the sons of Shisha, scribes; Jehoshaphat the 4 son of Ahilud, chronicler; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the host; and Zadok and 5 Abiathar were priests; and Azariah the son of Nathan was over the superintendents;[t] and Zabud the son of Nathan was principal 6 officer, the king's friend; and Ahishar was over the household; and Adoniram the son of Abda was over the levy-service.
7 And Solomon had twelve super intendents[t] over all Israel; and they provided food for the king and his household: each man his month in the year had to make 8 provision. And these are their names: Ben[v]-Hur, in mount 9 Ephraim. Ben-Deker in Makaz, and in Shaalbim, and Bethshemesh, and Elon-Beth-hanan.
10 Ben-Hesed, in Arubboth; he had Sochoh, and all the land of Hepher.
11 Ben-Abinadab had all the upland of Dor; Taphath the daughter of 12 Solomon was his wife. Baana the son of Ahilud had Taanach and Megiddo, and all Beth-shean, which is by Zaretan beneath Jiz-reel, from Beth-shean to Abel-Meholah, as far as beyond Jok-13 neam. Ben-Geber, in Ramoth-Gilead; he had the villages of Jair the son of Manasseh, which are in Gilead; he had the region of Argob, which is in Bashan, sixty great cities with walls and bars of 14 bronze. Ahinadab the son of Iddo, 15 at Mahanaim. Ahimaaz, in Neph-tali; he also took Basmath the daughter of Solomon as wife.
16 Baanah the son of Hushai, in 17 Asher and in Aloth. Jehoshaphat the son of Paruah, in Issachar.
18 Shimei the son of Ela, in Benja-19 min. Geber the son of Uri, in the land of Gilead, the land of Sihon the king of the Amorites, and of Og the king of Bashan; and [he was] the only superintendent that was in the land.
20 Judah and Israel were many, as the sand which is by the sea in multitude, eating and drinking and making merry.
21 And Solomon ruled over all kingdoms from the river to the land of the Philistines, and as far as the border of Egypt: they brought presents, and served Solo-22 mon all the days of his life. And Solomon's provision for one day was thirty measures [w] of fine flour, 23 and sixty measures of meal, ten fatted oxen, and twenty oxen out of the pastures, and a hundred sheep, besides harts, and gazelles, and fallow-deer, and fatted fowl.

24 For he had dominion over all on this side the river, from Tiphsah as far as Gazah, over all the kings on this side the river; and he had peace on all sides [x] round about.
25 And Judah and Israel dwelt safely, every man under his vine and under his fig-tree, from Dan even to Beer-sheba, all the days of Solo-26 mon. And Solomon had forty thousand stalls of horses for his chariots, and twelve thousand 27 horsemen. And those [y] officers provided food for king Solomon, and for all who came to king Solomon's table, every man in his month: they let nothing be want-28 ing. And the barley, and the straw for the horses and coursers, they brought to the place where [the superintendents] were, every man according to his charge.
29 And God gave Solomon wisdom and very great understanding and largeness of heart, even as the 30 sand that is on the sea-shore. And Solomon's wisdom excelled the wisdom of all the sons of the east, and all the wisdom of Egypt.
31 For he was wiser than all men; than Ethan the Ezrahite, and Heman, and Calcol, and Darda, the sons of Mahol; and his fame was in all the nations round about.
32 And he spoke three thousand proverbs; and his songs were a thou-33 sand and five. And he spoke of the trees, from the cedar-tree that is on Lebanon even to the hyssop that springs out of the wall; he spoke also of cattle, and of fowls, and of creeping things, and of 34 fishes. And there came of all peoples to hear the wisdom of Solomon, from all the kings of the earth who had heard of his wisdom.

5 And Hiram king of Tyre sent his servants to Solomon; for he had heard that they had anointed him king in the place of his father; for Hiram always loved David.
2 And Solomon sent to Hiram, say-3 ing, Thou knowest that David my father could not build a house unto the name of Jehovah his God, because of the wars which were about him on every side, until Jehovah put them under the soles
4 of his feet. But now Jehovah my God has given me rest on every side: there is neither adversary 5 nor evil event. And behold, I purpose to build a house unto the name of Jehovah my God, as Jehovah spoke to David my father saying, Thy son, whom I will set upon thy throne in thy stead, he shall build a house unto my name.
6 And now command that they hew me cedar-trees out of Lebanon; and my servants shall be with thy servants; and I will give thee hire for thy servants according to all that thou shalt say; for thou knowest that there is not among us any that are experienced in cutting timber like to the Zidonians.
7 And it came to pass when Hiram heard the words of Solomon, that he rejoiced greatly, and said, Blessed be Jehovah this day, who has given to David a wise son over 8 this great people. And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I have heard the things which thou sentest to me for: I will do all thy desire concerning timber of cedar, and concerning timber of cypress. [z]
9 My servants shall bring [them] down from Lebanon to the sea; and I will convey them by sea [in] rafts to the place that thou shalt appoint me, and will cause them to be broken up there, and thou shalt receive them. And thou shalt accomplish my desire in giving food for my household.
10 So Hiram [a] gave Solomon cedar-11 trees and cypress-trees [according to] all his desire. And Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand measures of wheat as food for his household, and twenty measures of beaten oil: thus gave Solomon to Hiram year by year.
12 And Jehovah gave Solomon wisdom as he promised him. And there was peace between Hiram and Solomon; and they two made a 13 league. And king Solomon raised a levy out of all Israel; and the levy was thirty thousand men.
14 And he sent them to Lebanon, ten thousand a month by courses; a month they were in Lebanon, two months at home; and Adoniram 15 was over the levy. And Solomon had seventy thousand that bore burdens, and eighty thousand stone-masons in the mountains; 16 besides the overseers whom Solomon had set over the work, three thousand three hundred, who ruled over the people that wrought in 17 the work. And the king commanded, and they brought great stones, costly stones, hewn stones, to lay the foundation of the house.

18 And Solomon's builders and Hiram's builders and the Giblites hewed them, and prepared timber and stones to build the house.

6 And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which is the second month, that he began to build the house of Jehovah.
2 And the house that king Solomon built for Jehovah was sixty cubits in length, and twenty in breadth, and thirty cubits in 3 height. And the porch, in front of the temple of the house, was twenty cubits in length, in front of the house broadways, [and] ten cubits was its breadth, in front of 4 the house. And for the house he made closed windows with fixed 5 lattices. And against the wall of the house he built floors[b] round about, [against] the walls of the house, round about the temple and the oracle; and he made side-6 chambers round about. The lowest floor was five cubits broad, and the middle one was six cubits broad, and the third was seven cubits broad; for in the [thickness of the wall of] the house he made resets round about outside, that nothing should be fastened in the 7 walls of the house. And the house, when it was being built, was built of stone entirely made ready before it was brought thither;[c] so that there was neither hammer nor axe nor any tool of iron heard in the house while it was being built.
8 The entrance to the side-chambers of the middle [floor] was in the right side of the house; and they went up by winding stairs into the middle [floor], and out of the 9 middle into the third. And he built the house, and finished it; and covered the house with beams 10 and boards of cedar. And he built the floors against all the house, five cubits high; and they[d] held to the house by the timbers of cedar.
11 And the word of Jehovah came 12 to Solomon saying, As to this house which thou art building, if thou wilt walk in my statutes, and practise mine ordinances, and keep all my commandments to walk in them, then will I perform my word as to thee which I spoke 13 unto David thy father; and I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.
14 And Solomon built the house 15 and finished it. And he built[e] the walls of the house within with boards of cedar, from the floor of the house to the walls[f] of the roof; he overlaid [them] on the inside with wood, and overlaid the floor of the house with boards of cypress.
16 And he built twenty cubits of the innermost part of the house, both floor and walls, with boards of cedar; and he built [them] for it within, to [be] the oracle, the most 17 holy place.[g] And the house, that is, the temple before it, was forty 18 cubits [long]. And the cedar of the house within was carved with colocynths[h] and half-open flowers: all was cedar; there was no stone 19 seen. And he prepared the oracle in the midst of the house within, to set there the ark of the 20 covenant of Jehovah. And the oracle within[i] was twenty cubits in length, and twenty cubits in breadth, and twenty cubits in the height thereof; and he overlaid it with pure gold; and he overlaid 21 the cedar-wood altar[k]—and Solomon overlaid the house within with pure gold, and shut off the oracle in front with chains of gold, 22 and overlaid it with gold. And the whole house he overlaid with gold, the whole house entirely; also the whole altar that was by the oracle he overlaid with gold.
23 And he made in the oracle two cherubim of olive-wood,[l] ten cubits 24 high; and one wing of the cherub was five cubits, and five cubits the other wing of the cherub—ten cubits from the end of one wing to 25 the end of the other wing; and the other cherub was ten cubits:

[b] 'Floors' or 'flats' in three stories. [c] Or 'built of stones whole from the quarry.' [d] Lit. 'it,' that is 'the whole system of side-chambers.' [e] That is, 'covered:' so ver. 16. [f] Not 'beams,' as the LXX and others. [g] Lit. 'holy of holies:' so elsewhere. [h] A kind of gourd. [i] Or 'the oracle before it [i.e. the ark].' [k] Or 'and overlaid the altar with cedar-wood.' [l] Or 'wood of the oleaster (wild olive).'

both the cherubim were of one 26 measure and one form. The height of the one cherub was ten cubits, 27 and so of the other cherub. And he set the cherubim in the midst of the inner house; and the wings of the cherubim were stretched forth, so that the wing of the one touched the wall, and the wing of the other cherub touched the other wall; and their wings touched, wing to wing, in the midst of the 28 house. And he overlaid the cheru-bim with gold.
29 And he carved all the walls of the house round about with carved sculptures of cherubim, and palm-trees,[m] and half-open flowers, 30 within and without. And the floor of the house he overlaid with 31 gold, within and without. And for the entrance of the oracle he made doors of olive-wood: the lintel [and] side posts were the fifth part [of the breadth of the 32 house]. The two doors were of olive-wood; and he carved on them carvings of cherubim, and palm-trees and half-open flowers, and overlaid them with gold, and spread gold on the cherubim and 33 on the palm-trees. And he also made for the doorway of the temple posts of olive-wood, of the fourth part [of the breadth of the 34 house]. And the two folding-doors were of cypress-wood: the two leaves of the one door were folding, and the two leaves of the other 35 door were folding. And he carved on them cherubim, and palm-trees, and half-open flowers; and overlaid them with gold fitted on the carved work.
36 And he built the inner court of three rows of hewn stone, and a row of cedar-beams.
37 In the fourth year was the foundation of the house of Jeho-38 vah laid, in the month Zif; and in the eleventh year, in the month Bul, which is the eighth month, was the house finished in all its parts, and according to all the fashion of it. So he was seven years in building it.

7 And Solomon was thirteen years building his own house; and he 2 finished all his house. And he built the house of the forest of Lebanon; its length was a hundred cubits, and its breadth fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar-pillars, with cedar-beams upon the pillars; 3 and it was covered with cedar above upon the side-chambers, which were on forty-five pillars, 4 fifteen in a row. And there were cross-beams in three rows, and window was against window in 5 three ranks. And all the doors and posts were square, with an architrave;[n] and window was against window in three ranks.
6 And he made the porch of pillars; its length was fifty cubits, and its breadth thirty cubits; and there was a porch in front of them; and there were pillars, and steps[o] 7 in front of them. And he made the porch for the throne where he judged, the porch of judgment;
and it was covered with cedar from floor to floor.
8 And his house where he dwelt had another court within the porch, which was of the like work.
And he made, like to this porch, a house for Pharaoh's daughter, whom Solomon had taken.
9 All these [buildings] were of costly stones, hewn stones, according to the measures, sawed with saws, within and without, even from the foundation to the coping, and on the outside as far 10 as the great court. And the foundations were of costly stones, great stones, stones of ten cubits 11 and stones of eight cubits. And above were costly stones, hewn stones, according to the measures, 12 and cedar. And the great court round about had three rows of hewn stones, and a row of cedar-beams; and so it was for the inner court of the house of Jehovah, and the porch of the house.
13 And king Solomon sent and 14 fetched Hiram out of Tyre. He was a widow's son of the tribe of Naphtali, and his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in brass;[p] and he was full of wisdom[q] and understanding and knowledge, to do all kinds of works in brass. And he came to king Solomon, and made 15 all his work. And he formed the two pillars of brass; the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and a line of twelve cubits encompassed 16 the second pillar. And he made two capitals of molten brass, to set upon the tops of the pillars; the height of the one capital was five cubits, and the height of the 17 other capital was five cubits; [and]

[m] Or 'palms;' and so always. [n] Some say 'made of cross beams.' [o] Or 'a threshold;' or perhaps 'a pediment.' [p] Or 'copper,' or 'bronze;' as elsewhere. [q] Or 'skill.'

nets of checker-work, wreaths of chain-work, for the capitals which were upon the top of the pillars; seven for the one capital and seven 18 for the other capital. And he made pomegranates, namely two rows round about upon the one network, to cover the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars;[r] and so he did for the other capital.
19 And the capitals that were upon the top of the pillars were of lily-work [as] in the porch, four cubits.
20 And the capitals upon the two pillars, above also, close to the enlargement which was behind[s] the network, had two hundred pomegranates in rows round about, 21 [also] on the other capital. And he set up the pillars for[t] the porch of the temple; and he set up the right pillar, and called its name Jachin;[v] and he set up the left pillar, and called its name Boaz.[w]
22 And upon the top of the pillars was lily-work; and the work of the pillars was finished.
23 And he made the sea, molten, ten cubits from brim to brim, round all about; and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encompassed it round
24 about. And under the brim of it round about there were colocynths, encompassing it, ten in a cubit enclosing the sea round about, two rows of colocynths, cast when it 25 was cast. It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was above upon them, and all their 26 hinder parts were inward. And its thickness was a hand-breadth, and its brim was like the work of the brim of a cup, with lily-blossoms; it held two thousand baths.[x] 27 And he made ten bases of brass: four cubits was the length of one base, and the breadth four cubits, 28 and the height three cubits. And the work of the bases was this: they had panels, and the panels 29 were between the fillets. And on the panels that were between the fillets were lions, oxen and cherubim; and over the fillets there was a base above; and beneath the lions and oxen were garlands 30 of festoon-work. And every base had four wheels of brass, and axles of brass; and on its four corners were shoulder-pieces: under the laver were shoulder-pieces molten, 31 behind every garland. And the mouth of it within the crown and above was a cubit; and its mouth was rounded, [as] the work of the base, a cubit and a half; and also upon its mouth was sculpture; but their panels were square, not 32 round. And the four wheels were under the panels; and the supports of the wheels were in the base; and the height of a wheel was a 33 cubit and half a cubit. And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot wheel: their supports, and their rims, and their spokes and their naves were all 34 molten. And there were four shoulder-pieces to the four corners of one base; of the base itself were 35 its shoulder-pieces. And in the top of the base there was a circular elevation of half a cubit round about; and on the top of the base its stays and its panels were of the 36 same. And he engraved on the plates of its stays and on its panels cherubim, lions and palm-trees, according to the space upon each; and garlands were round about.
37 After this [manner] he made the ten bases: all of them had one casting, one measure, one form.
38 And he made ten lavers of brass: one laver contained forty baths; every laver was four cubits; upon every one of the ten bases one 39 laver. And he put the bases, five on the right side of the house, and five on the left side of the house; and he set the sea on the right side of the house eastward, over against the south.
40 And Hiram made the lavers,[y] and the shovels, and the bowls.[z]

So Hiram ended doing all the work that he made for king Solomon [for] the house of Jehovah:
41 two pillars, and the globes of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars, two; and the two networks, to cover the two globes of the capitals which were on the top 42 of the pillars; and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two globes of the capitals which

[r] In the Hebrew text the words 'pomegranates' and 'pillars' are transposed. [s] Lit. 'beyond;' and so ver. 30. [t] Or 'near,' or 'at.' [v] Meaning, 'He will establish.' [w] Meaning, 'in Him is strength.' [x] The 'bath' equalled the 'ephah' in capacity. [y] The LXX, Jerome, &c., read 'cauldrons' or 'pots:' cf. ver. 45. [z] 'Bowls' or 'basons' to receive the blood for sprinkling; as Ex. xxvii. 3, Num. vii. 13; and so in vers. 45, 50.

43 were upon [a] the pillars; and the ten bases, and the ten lavers on 44 the bases; and one sea, and the 45 twelve oxen under the sea; and the pots, and the shovels, and the bowls. And all these things, which Hiram made king Solomon for the house of Jehovah, were of bright 46 brass. In the plain [b] of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay-ground between Succoth and 47 Zaretan. And Solomon left all the vessels [unweighed] from their exceeding number; the weight of the brass was not ascertained.
48 And Solomon made all the vessels that were [in] the house of Jehovah: the golden altar; and the table of gold, whereon was the 49 shewbread; and the candlesticks of pure gold, five on the right, and five on the left, before the oracle; and the flowers, and the lamps,
50 and the tongs of gold, and the basons, and the knives,[c] and the bowls, and the cups, and the censers [d] of pure gold; and the hinges of gold, for the folding-doors of the inner house, the most holy place, [and] for the doors of the house, of the temple.
51 And all the work was finished that king Solomon made for the house of Jehovah. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated; the silver and the gold and the vessels he put among the treasures of the house of Jehovah.

8 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers of the children of Israel, unto king Solomon in Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah out of the city of David,
2 which is Zion. And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to king Solomon at the feast in the month Ethanim, that is, the 3 seventh month. And all the elders of Israel came; and the priests 4 took up the ark. And they brought up the ark of Jehovah, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent: the priests and the Levites 5 brought them up. And king Solomon, and all the assembly of Israel that were assembled to him, [who were] with him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be counted nor num-6 bered for multitude. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, under the 7 wings of the cherubim; for the cherubim stretched forth [their] wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark 8 and its staves above. And the staves were long,[e] so that the ends of the staves were seen from the holy place before the oracle, but they were not seen without. And 9 there they are to this day. There was nothing in the ark save the two tables of stone which Moses placed there at Horeb, when Jehovah made [a covenant] with [f] the children of Israel, when they came out of the land of Egypt.
10 And it came to pass when the priests were come out of the holy place, that the cloud filled the 11 house of Jehovah, and the priests could not stand to do their service because of the cloud; for the glory of Jehovah had filled the house of Jehovah.
12 Then said Solomon: Jehovah said that he would dwell in the 13 thick darkness. I have indeed built a house of habitation for thee, a settled place for thee to 14 abide in for ever. And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel; and the whole congregation of Israel stood.
15 And he said: Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hand ful-16 filled it, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; but I have chosen David 17 to be over my people Israel. And it was in the heart of David my father to build a house unto the name of Jehovah the God of Israel.
18 But Jehovah said to David my father, Whereas it was in thy heart to build a house unto my name, thou didst well that it was 19 in thy heart; nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house 20 unto my name. And Jehovah has performed his word which he spoke;

[a] Lit. 'on the face of;' probably an error of the transcriber. [b] See on Gen. xiii. 10.
[c] Or 'snuffers.' [d] Or 'fire-pans.' [e] Others, 'and they drew out the staves.'
[f] Or '.... at Horeb, [the covenant] which Jehovah made with;' and so 2 Chron. v. 10: cf. ver. 21.

and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah promised, and I have built the house unto the name of Jehovah the 21 God of Israel. And I have set there a place for the ark, wherein is the covenant of Jehovah, which he made with our fathers when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.
22 And Solomon stood before the altar of Jehovah in the presence of the whole congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward 23 the heavens. And he said, Jehovah, God of Israel! there is no God like thee, in the heavens above, or on the earth beneath, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before 24 thee with all their heart, who hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou didst promise him; thou spokest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled [it] with 25 thy hand, as at this day. And now, Jehovah, God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only thy sons take heed to their way, to walk before me as thou hast walked 26 before me. And now, O God of Israel, let thy words, I pray thee, be verified, which thou hast spoken unto thy servant David my father.
27 But will God indeed dwell on the earth? Behold, the heavens, and the heaven of heavens, cannot contain thee; how much less this 28 house which I have built! Yet have respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, Jehovah, my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prayeth before 29 thee this day; that thine eyes may be open upon this house night and day, upon the place of which thou hast said, My name shall be there: to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth toward 30 this place. And hearken unto the supplication of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place, and hear thou in thy dwelling-place, in the heavens, and when thou hearest, forgive.
31 If a man have sinned against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to adjure him, and the oath come before thine altar in 32 this house; then hear thou in the heavens, and do, and judge thy servants, condemning the wicked, to bring his way upon his own head; and justifying the righteous, giving him according to his righteousness.
33 When thy people Israel are put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again to thee, and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication unto thee 34 in this house; then hear thou in the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land that thou gavest unto their fathers.
35 When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee, if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, because thou hast afflicted 36 them; then hear thou in the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou teachest them the good way wherein they should walk; and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for 37 an inheritance. If there be famine in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blight, mildew, locust, caterpillar; if their enemy besiege them in the land of their gates; whatever plague, whatever sick-38 ness there be: what prayer, what supplication soever be made by any man, of all thy people Israel, when they shall know every man the plague of his own heart, and shall spread forth his hands to-39 ward this house; then hear thou in the heavens, the settled place of thy dwelling, and forgive, and do, and render unto every man according to all his ways, whose heart thou knowest (for thou, thou only, knowest the hearts of all the 40 children of men), that they may fear thee all the days that they live upon the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.
41 And as to the stranger also, who is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy 42 name's sake (for they shall hear of thy great name, and of thy mighty hand, and of thy stretched-out arm); when he shall come 43 and pray toward this house, hear thou in the heavens thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; in order that all peoples of the earth may know thy name, [and] that they may fear thee as do thy people Israel; and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.[g] 44 If thy people go out to battle against their enemy, by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray to Jehovah toward the city that thou hast chosen, and the house that I have built unto thy 45 name; then hear thou in the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their right.

46 If they have sinned against thee, (for there is no man that sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and give them up to [h] the enemy, and they have carried them away captives [i] unto the enemy's land,
47 far or near; and if they shall take it to heart in the land whither they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of them that carried them captive, saying, We have sinned, and have done iniquity, 48 we have dealt perversely; and if they return unto thee with all their heart and with all their soul, in the land of their enemies who led them away captive, and pray unto thee toward their land which thou gavest unto their fathers, the city that thou hast chosen, and the house that I have built unto thy 49 name; then hear thou in the heavens, the settled place of thy dwelling, their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their 50 right, and forgive thy people their sin against thee, and all their transgressions whereby they have transgressed against thee, and give them to find compassion with those who carried them captive, that they may have compassion on 51 them (for they are thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughtest forth out of Egypt, from the midst of the furnace of 52 iron)—thine eyes being open unto the supplication of thy servant, and unto the supplication of thy people Israel, to hearken unto them in all that they call for unto 53 thee. For thou hast separated them from among all peoples of the earth, to be thine inheritance, as thou spokest through Moses thy servant, when thou broughtest our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord Jehovah.
54 And it was so, that when Solomon had ended praying all this prayer and supplication to Jehovah, he arose from before the altar of Jehovah, from kneeling on his knees with his hands spread forth 55 to the heavens, and he stood and blessed the whole congregation of Israel with a loud voice, saying, 56 Blessed be Jehovah, who has given rest to his people Israel, according to all that he promised: there has not failed one word of all his good promises which he spoke through 57 Moses his servant! Jehovah our God be with us, as he was with our fathers; let him not forsake 58 us nor cast us off: that he may incline our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways, and to keep his commandments and his statutes and his ordinances, which he com-59 manded our fathers. And let these my words, with which I have made supplication before Jehovah, be nigh to Jehovah our God day and night, that he maintain the right of his servant, and the right of his people Israel, as the matter 60 of each day shall require; [k] that all peoples of the earth may know that Jehovah is God, that there 61 is none else; and that your heart may be perfect with Jehovah our God, to walk in his statutes and to keep his commandments, as at this day.
62 And the king, and all Israel with him, offered sacrifices before Jeho-63 vah. And Solomon sacrificed a sacrifice of peace-offerings, which he sacrificed to Jehovah, twenty-two thousand oxen and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of 64 Jehovah. The same day the king hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of Jehovah; for there he offered the burnt-offerings, and the oblations, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar that was before Jehovah was too small to receive the burnt-offerings, and the oblations, and the fat of the peace-offerings.
65 And at that time Solomon held the feast, and all Israel with him, a great congregation, from the entrance of Hamath unto the torrent of Egypt, before Jehovah our God, seven days and seven 66 days, fourteen days. On the eighth day he sent the people away; and they blessed the king, and went to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for all the goodness that Jehovah had done to David his servant, and to Israel his people.

9 And it came to pass when Solomon had completed the building of the house of Jehovah, and the king's house, and all Solomon's desire which he was pleased to do, 2 that Jehovah appeared to Solomon the second time, as he had 3 appeared to him at Gibeon. And Jehovah said to him, I have heard thy prayer and thy supplication which thou hast made before me: I have hallowed this house, which thou hast built, to put my name there for ever; and mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually. 4 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, in integrity of heart, and in uprightness, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, [and] wilt keep my statutes and 5 mine ordinances, then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom over Israel for ever, as I promised to David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man upon the 6 throne of Israel. [But] if ye shall at all turn from following me, ye or your children, and will not keep my commandments, my statutes which I have set before you, but go and serve other gods, and wor- 7 ship them; then will I cut off Israel out of the land [l] which I have given them; and the house, which I have hallowed to my name, will I cast out of my sight; and Israel shall be a proverb and a byword 8 among all peoples; and this house, [which] is high, every one that passes by it shall be astonished at, and shall hiss, and they shall say, Why has Jehovah done thus to this land and to this house? 9 And they shall say, Because they forsook Jehovah their God, who brought forth their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and have attached themselves to other gods, and have worshipped them and served them; therefore has Jehovah brought upon them all this evil.

10 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the two houses, the house of Jehovah and the king's house, 11 Hiram the king of Tyre having furnished Solomon with cedar-trees and cypress-trees, and with gold, according to all his desire,— that then king Solomon gave Hiram twenty cities in the land of 12 Galilee. And Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities that Solomon had given him; and they 13 did not please him. And he said, What cities are these which thou hast given me, my brother? And he called them the land of Cabul [m] 14 to this day. And Hiram had sent to the king one hundred and twenty talents of gold.

15 And this is the account of the levy which king Solomon raised, to build the house of Jehovah, and his own house, and Millo, and the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, and 16 Megiddo, and Gezer.—Pharaoh king of Egypt had gone up and taken Gezer, and burned it with fire, and slain the Canaanites that dwelt in the city, and given it as a dowry to his daughter, Solomon's 17 wife.—And Solomon built Gezer, 18 and lower Beth-horon, and Baal-ath, and Tadmor [n] in the wilder- 19 ness, in the land, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and cities for chariots, and cities for the horsemen, and that which Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and on Lebanon, and in all the 20 land of his dominion. All the people that were left of the Amorites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of the children of 21 Israel, their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel were not able utterly to destroy, upon them did Solomon impose a tribute [o] of 22 bond-service until this day. But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no bondmen; but they were men of war, and his servants, and his chiefs, and his captains, and captains of his chariots and 23 his horsemen. These were the chief superintendents that were over Solomon's work, five hundred and fifty, that ruled over the people that wrought in the work.

24 But Pharaoh's daughter came up out of the city of David to her house which he had built for her: then he built Millo.

25 And three times in the year did Solomon offer up burnt-offerings and peace-offerings upon the altar that he had built to Jehovah, and he burned incense upon that which was before Jehovah. So he finished the house.

26 And king Solomon made a fleet of ships in Ezion-Geber, which is beside Eloth, on the shore of the Red Sea, in the land of Edom.
27 And Hiram sent in the fleet his servants, shipmen that had knowledge of the sea, with the servants 28 of Solomon; and they went to Ophir, and fetched thence gold, four hundred and twenty talents, and brought it to king Solomon.

10 And the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon in connection with the name of Jehovah, and came to prove him with enig-2 mas. And she came to Jerusalem with a very great train, with camels that bore spices and gold in very great abundance, and precious stones; and she came to Solomon, and spoke to him of all 3 that was in her heart. And Solomon explained to her all she spoke of: there was not a thing hidden from the king that he did not explain to her.
4 And when the queen of Sheba saw all Solomon's wisdom, and the 5 house that he had built, and the food of his table, and the deportment of his servants, and the order of service of his attendants, and their apparel, and his cup-bearers, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Jehovah, there was no more spirit in 6 her. And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine affairs and 7 of thy wisdom; but I gave no credit to the words, until I came and mine eyes had seen; and behold, the half was not told me: in wisdom and prosperity thou exceedest the report that I heard.
8 Happy are thy men! happy are these thy servants, who stand continually before thee, who hear 9 thy wisdom! Blessed be Jehovah thy God, who delighted in thee, to set thee on the throne of Israel! Because Jehovah loves Israel for ever, therefore did he make thee king, to do judgment and justice.
10 And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in very great abundance, and precious stones: there came no more such abundance of spices as those which the queen of Sheba
11 gave to king Solomon. (And the fleet also of Hiram, which carried gold from Ophir, brought from Ophir sandal-wood in very great abundance, and precious stones.
12 And the king made of the sandal-wood a balustrade for the house of Jehovah, and for the king's house, and harps and lutes for the singers. There came no such sandal-wood, nor was there seen 13 to this day.) And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides what he gave her of the bounty of king Solomon. And she turned and went to her own land, she and her servants.
14 And the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents 15 of gold, besides what [came] by the dealers, and by the traffic of the merchants, and by all the kings of Arabia, and by the gover-16 nors of the country. And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold,—he applied six hundred [shekels] of gold to 17 one target; and three hundred shields of beaten gold,—he applied three minas [p] of gold to one shield; and the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.
18 And the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with re-19 fined [q] gold: the throne had six steps, and the top of the throne was rounded behind; and there were arms on each side at the place of the seat, and two lions stood 20 beside the arms; and twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like made in any king-21 dom. And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of precious gold: none were of silver, [which] was not of the least account in the 22 days of Solomon. For the king had on the sea a Tarshish-fleet, with the fleet of Hiram: once in three years came the Tarshish-fleet, bringing gold and silver, ivory,[r] and apes, and peacocks.
23 And king Solomon was greater than all the kings of the earth in 24 riches and in wisdom. And all the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which 25 God had put in his heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver, and vessels of gold, and clothing, and armour, and spices, horses and mules, a 26 rate year by year. And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; and he had a thousand four hundred chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; and he placed them in the chariot-cities, and 27 with the king at Jerusalem. And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he as the sycamores [s] that are in the low-28 land [t] for abundance. And the exportation of horses that Solomon had was from Egypt: a caravan of [v] the king's merchants fetched 29 a drove [of horses] at a price. And a chariot came up and went out of Egypt for six hundred [shekels] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so they brought [them] by their means, for all the kings of the Hittites and for the kings of Syria.

11 But king Solomon loved many foreign women, besides the daughter of Pharaoh: women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edom-
2 ites, Zidonians, Hittites; of the nations of which Jehovah had said to the children of Israel, Ye shall not go in to them, neither shall they come in to you; they would certainly turn away your heart after their gods: to these Solomon 3 was attached in love. And he had seven hundred wives, princesses, and three hundred concubines; and his wives turned away his 4 heart. And it came to pass when Solomon was old, [that] his wives turned away his heart after other gods; and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, as the 5 heart of David his father. And Solomon went after Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, and after Milcom the abomination of the 6 Ammonites. And Solomon did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and followed not fully Jehovah, as 7 David his father. Then did Solomon build a high place for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, on the hill that is before Jerusalem, and for Molech the abomination of the children of 8 Ammon. And so he did for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and sacrificed to their gods.

9 And Jehovah was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned away from Jehovah the God of Israel, who had appeared 10 to him twice, and had commanded him concerning this thing, not to go after other gods; but he kept not what Jehovah had com-11 manded. And Jehovah said to Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done by thee, and thou hast not kept my covenant and my statutes which I commanded thee, I will certainly rend the kingdom from thee, and will give it to thy ser-12 vant: notwithstanding in thy days I will not do it, for David thy father's sake; I will rend it out of 13 the hand of thy son; only, I will not rend away all the kingdom: I will give one tribe to thy son, for David my servant's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake which I have chosen.

14 And Jehovah stirred up an adversary to Solomon, Hadad the Edomite; he was of the king's 15 seed in Edom. Now it came to pass when David was in Edom, when Joab the captain of the host had gone up to bury the slain, after he had smitten every male in 16 Edom (for Joab abode there six months with all Israel, until he had cut off every male in Edom), 17 that Hadad fled, he and certain Edomites of his father's servants with him, to go into Egypt, Hadad 18 being yet a little child. And they arose out of Midian, and came to Paran, and took men with them out of Paran, and they came to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt; who gave him a house, and appointed him victuals, and gave 19 him land. And Hadad found great favour in the sight of Pharaoh, and he gave him as wife the sister of his own wife, the sister of Tah-20 penes the queen. And the sister of Tahpenes bore him Genubath his son; and Tahpenes brought him up in Pharaoh's house; and Genubath was in Pharaoh's household, among the sons of Pharaoh.
21 And Hadad heard in Egypt that David slept with his fathers, and that Joab the captain of the host was dead; and Hadad said to Pharaoh, Let me depart, that I 22 may go to mine own country. And Pharaoh said to him, What then dost thou lack with me, that behold, thou desirest to go to thine own country? And he said, Nothing; but in any case let me depart.

23 God stirred him up yet an adversary, Rezon the son of Eliada, who had fled from Hadadezer king of 24 Zobah, his lord. And he collected men to him, and became captain of a band, when David slew them [of Zobah]; and they went to Damascus, and dwelt there, and 25 reigned in Damascus. And he was an adversary to Israel all the days of Solomon, besides the mischief that Hadad [did]; and he abhorred Israel, and reigned over Syria.

26 And Jeroboam the son of Nebat, an Ephrathite[w] of Zeredah, Solomon's servant (whose mother's name was Zeruah, a widow woman), even he lifted up his hand against 27 the king. And this was the cause that he lifted up his hand against the king: Solomon was building Millo, and closing the breach of 28 the city of David his father; and the man Jeroboam was strong and valiant; and Solomon saw the young man that he was industrious, and he made him ruler over all the charge[x] of the house of Joseph.
29 And it came to pass at that time that Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, and the prophet Ahijah the Shilonite found him in the way; and he had clad himself with a new garment; and they two were 30 alone in the field. Then Ahijah seized the new garment that was on him, and rent it in twelve 31 pieces; and said to Jeroboam, Take thee ten pieces; for thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: Behold, I will rend the kingdom out of the hand of Solomon, and 32 will give ten tribes to thee; but one tribe shall he have for my servant David's sake, and for Jerusalem's sake, the city which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:
33 because they have forsaken me, and have worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Zidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and have not walked in my ways, to do that which is right in my sight, and my statutes and mine ordinances, as David his 34 father. But I will not take the whole kingdom out of his hand; for I will make him prince all the days of his life for David my servant's sake, whom I chose, who kept my commandments and my 35 statutes; but I will take the kingdom out of his son's hand, and will give it unto thee,—the ten tribes.
36 And unto his son will I give one tribe, that David my servant may have a lamp always before me in Jerusalem, the city that I have chosen for myself to put my name 37 there. And I will take thee, that thou mayest reign over all that thy soul desireth, and thou shalt 38 be king over Israel. And it shall be, if thou wilt hearken unto all that I command thee, and wilt walk in my ways, and do that which is right in my sight, in keeping my statutes and my commandments, as David my servant did, that I will be with thee, and build thee a lasting house, as I built for David, and will give Israel 39 unto thee. And I will for this afflict the seed of David, but not 40 for ever. And Solomon sought to kill Jeroboam; and Jeroboam arose and fled into Egypt, to Shishak king of Egypt; and he was in Egypt until the death of Solomon.

41 And the rest of the acts of Solomon, and all that he did, and his wisdom, are they not written in the book of the acts of Solomon?
42 And the time that Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel was 43 forty years. And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David his father; and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

12 And Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.
2 And it came to pass when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (now he was yet in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of king Solomon, and Jeroboam 3 dwelt in Egypt; and they sent and called him), that Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, say-4 ing, Thy father made our yoke grievous; and now lighten thou the grievous servitude of thy father and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve 5 thee. And he said to them, Depart yet for three days, then come again to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, How do ye advise to return answer to this 7 people? And they spoke to him saying, If this day thou wilt be a servant to this people, and wilt serve them and answer them and speak good words to them, they 8 will be thy servants for ever. But he forsook the advice of the old men which they had given him, and consulted with the young men, who had grown up with him, 9 that stood before him. And he said to them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people who have spoken to me saying, Lighten the yoke which 10 thy father put upon us? And the young men that had grown up with him spoke to him saying, Thus shalt thou say to this people that have spoken to thee saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, and lighten thou it for us,—thus shalt thou say to them: My little [finger] is thicker than my father's 11 loins; and whereas my father laid a heavy yoke upon you, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.[y]

[w] Or 'Ephraimite.' [x] Or 'work.'

12 And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed saying, Come again to me on the 13 third day. And the king answered the people roughly, and forsook the advice of the old men which 14 they had given him; and he spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.
15 So the king hearkened not to the people; for it was brought about by Jehovah, that he might give effect to his word, which Jehovah spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
16 And all Israel saw that the king hearkened not to them; and the people answered the king saying, What portion have we in David? and [we have] no inheritance in the son of Jesse: to your tents, O Israel! Now see to thine own house, David! And Israel went 17 to their tents. But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned 18 over them. And king Rehoboam sent Adoram, who was over the levy; but all Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. And king Rehoboam hastened to mount his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.
19 And Israel rebelled against[z] the house of David, unto this day.
20 And it came to pass when all Israel heard that Jeroboam had come back, that they sent and called him to the assembly, and made him king over all Israel: none followed the house of David, but the tribe of Judah only.
21 And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem; and he assembled all the house of Judah, with the tribe of Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men apt for war, to fight against the house of Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam the son of 22 Solomon. But the word of God came to Shemaiah the man of 23 God, saying, Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto all the house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the remainder of the people, say-24 ing, Thus saith Jehovah: Go not up, nor fight with your brethren, the children of Israel; return every man to his house, for this thing is from me. And they hearkened to the word of Jehovah, and returned to depart, according to the word of Jehovah.
25 And Jeroboam built Shechem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein; and went out from thence, and built Penuel.
26 And Jeroboam said in his heart, Now shall the kingdom return to 27 the house of David. If this people go up to do sacrifice in the house of Jehovah at Jerusalem, the heart of this people will turn again to their lord, to Rehoboam king of Judah, and they will kill me, and return to Rehoboam king of Judah.
28 And the king took counsel, and made two calves of gold. And he said to them, It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem: behold thy gods, Israel, which brought thee up out of the land of Egypt!
29 And he set the one in Bethel, and 30 the other he put in Dan. And this thing became a sin; and the people went [to worship] before 31 the one, as far as Dan. And he made a house of high places, and made priests from all classes[a] of the people, who were not of the 32 sons of Levi. And Jeroboam ordained a feast in the eighth month, on the fifteenth day of the month, like the feast that was in Judah, and he offered upon the altar. So did he in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves that he had made; and he placed in Bethel the priests of the 33 high places that he had made. And he offered upon the altar that he had made in Bethel, on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, in the month which he had devised of his own heart; and he made a feast for the children of Israel, and he offered upon the altar, burning incense.

[y] A kind of whip furnished with knotted points. [z] Or 'fell away from;' and so 2 Chron. x. 19; xxi. 8. [a] Cf. Gen. xix. 4. Lit. 'the ends.'

13 And behold, there came a man of God from Judah, by the word of Jehovah, to Bethel; and Jeroboam stood by the altar to 2 burn incense. And he cried against the altar by the word of Jehovah, and said, O altar, altar! thus saith Jehovah: Behold, a child shall be born unto the house of David, Josiah by name; and upon thee shall he sacrifice the priests of the high places that burn incense upon thee, and men's bones
3 shall be burned upon thee. And he gave a sign the same day, saying, This is the sign that Jehovah hath spoken: Behold, the altar shall be rent, and the ashes that are upon it shall be poured out.
4 And it came to pass when the king heard the word of the man of God, which he cried against the altar in Bethel, that Jeroboam stretched forth his hand from the altar, saying, Lay hold on him. And his hand which he stretched out against him dried up, so that he could not bring it back again 5 to him. And the altar was rent, and the ashes poured out from the altar, according to the sign that the man of God had given by the 6 word of Jehovah. And the king answered and said to the man of God, Intreat now Jehovah thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be restored to me again. And the man of God intreated Jehovah, and the king's hand was restored to him again, and became 7 as before. And the king said to the man of God, Come home with me, and refresh thyself, and I will 8 give thee a present. And the man of God said to the king, If thou wilt give me half thy house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eat bread nor drink water in this 9 place; for so was it charged me by the word of Jehovah, saying, Thou shalt eat no bread, nor drink water, nor return by the way that 10 thou shalt go. So he went another way, and returned not by the way that he had come to Bethel.
11 Now there dwelt a certain old prophet in Bethel; and his sons came and told him all the works that the man of God had done that day in Bethel; the words that he had spoken to the king, them they 12 told also to their father. And their father said to them, Which way went he? for his sons had seen which way the man of God 13 went, who came from Judah. And he said to his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass; 14 and he rode thereon, and went after the man of God, and found him sitting under a terebinth; and he said to him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah?
15 And he said, I am. And he said to him, Come home with me, and 16 eat bread. And he said, I cannot return with thee, nor go in with thee; neither will I eat bread nor drink water with thee in this place.
17 For it was said to me by the word of Jehovah, Thou shalt eat no bread nor drink water there, nor turn again to go by the way that 18 thou wentest. And he said to him, I am a prophet also as thou art; and an angel spoke to me by the word of Jehovah saying, Bring him back with thee into thy house, that he may eat bread and drink 19 water. He lied unto him. Then he went back with him, and ate bread in his house, and drank water.
20 And it came to pass as they sat at the table, that the word of Jehovah came to the prophet that 21 brought him back, and he cried to the man of God that came from Judah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah: Forasmuch as thou hast disobeyed the word [b] of Jehovah, and hast not kept the commandment that Jehovah thy God commanded 22 thee, but camest back, and hast eaten bread and drunk water in the place of which he said to thee, Eat no bread and drink no water; thy carcase shall not come to the sepulchre of thy fathers.
23 And it came to pass, after he had eaten bread, and after he had drunk, that he saddled the ass for him, for the prophet that he had brought back; and he departed.
24 And a lion met him by the way and slew him; and his corpse was cast in the way, and the ass stood by it; the lion also stood by the 25 corpse. And behold, men passed by, and saw the corpse cast in the way and the lion standing by the corpse; and they came and told it in the city where the old prophet 26 dwelt. And the prophet that brought him back from the way heard [of it] and said, It is the man of God who was disobedient to the word [b] of Jehovah; therefore Jehovah has delivered him to the lion, which has torn him and slain him, according to the word of Jehovah which he spoke to him.

[b] Lit. 'mouth;' and so ver. 26 (first time).

27 And he spoke to his sons saying, Saddle me the ass; and they 28 saddled it. And he went and found his corpse cast in the way, and the ass and the lion standing by the corpse: the lion had not eaten the corpse, nor torn the ass.
29 And the prophet took up the corpse of the man of God, and laid it upon the ass, and brought it back; and the old prophet came into the city, 30 to mourn and to bury him. And he laid his corpse in his own sepulchre; and they mourned over him 31 [saying], Alas, my brother! And it came to pass after he had buried him, that he spoke to his sons saying, When I am dead, bury me in the sepulchre in which the man of God is buried; lay my bones 32 beside his bones. For the word that he cried by the word of Jehovah against the altar in Bethel, and against all the houses of the high places that are in the cities of Samaria, shall certainly come to pass.
33 After this thing Jeroboam turned not from his evil way, but made again from all classes of the people priests of the high places: whosoever would, he consecrated him, and he became [one] of the priests 34 of the high places. And by this thing there was sin on the house of Jeroboam, even to cut it off and to destroy it from off the face of the earth.

14 At that time Abijah the son of Jeroboam was sick. 2 And Jeroboam said to his wife, Arise, I pray thee, and disguise thyself, that thou be not known to be the wife of Jeroboam; and go to Shiloh: behold, there is Ahijah the prophet, who told me that [I should 3 be] king over this people. And take with thee ten loaves, and cakes, and a cruse of honey, and go to him: he will tell thee what 4 shall become of the lad. And Jeroboam's wife did so, and arose and went to Shiloh, and came to the house of Ahijah. And Ahijah could not see; for his eyes were 5 set by reason of his age. And Jehovah said to Ahijah, Behold, the wife of Jeroboam cometh to ask a thing of thee about her son; for he is sick: thus and thus shalt thou say unto her; for it shall be, when she cometh in, that she shall feign to be another.
6 And it was so, when Ahijah heard the sound of her feet, as she came in at the door, that he said, Come in, thou wife of Jeroboam; why feignest thou to be another? But I am sent to thee with a hard 7 [message]. Go, tell Jeroboam, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: Forasmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince over my people 8 Israel, and rent the kingdom away from the house of David, and gave it thee; and thou hast not been as my servant David, who kept my commandments, and who followed me with all his heart, to do only that which is right in my sight;
9 but thou hast done evil above all that were before thee, and hast gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to provoke me to anger, and hast cast me behind 10 thy back: therefore behold, I will bring evil upon the house of Jeroboam, and will cut off from Jeroboam every male, him that is shut up and left[e] in Israel, and will take away[d] the house of Jeroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till 11 it be all gone. Him that dieth of Jeroboam in the city shall the dogs eat, and him that dieth in the field shall the fowl of the heavens eat; for Jehovah hath spoken.
12 And thou, arise, go to thine own house; when thy feet enter into 13 the city, the child shall die. And all Israel shall mourn for him, and they shall bury him; for he only of Jeroboam shall come to the grave, because in him there is found something good toward Jehovah the God of Israel, in the 14 house of Jeroboam. And Jehovah shall raise up for himself a king over Israel, who shall cut off the house of Jeroboam that day; and 15 what? . . . . even now. And Jehovah will smite Israel, as a reed is shaken in the water, and he will root up Israel out of this good land which he gave to their fathers, and will scatter them beyond the river, because they have made their Asherahs, provoking Jehovah to 16 anger. And he will give Israel up because of the sins of Jeroboam, wherewith he has sinned and made Israel to sin.
17 And Jeroboam's wife arose and departed, and came to Tirzah; when she came to the threshold of 18 the door, the child died. And they buried him; and all Israel mourned for him, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spoke through his servant Ahijah the prophet.

[e] See on Deut. xxxii. 36. Or 'sweepeth out.'
[d] Lit. 'will sweep out after;' and so xvi. 3; xxi. 21.

19 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of 20 the kings of Israel. And the days that Jeroboam reigned were twenty-two years; and he slept with his fathers. And Nadab his son reigned in his stead.

21 And Rehoboam the son of Solomon reigned in Judah. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel to put his name there; and his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammoni-22 tess. And Judah did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and they provoked him to jealousy with their sins which they committed more than all that their fathers had 23 done. And they also built for themselves high places, and columns,[e] and Asherahs on every high hill and under every green 24 tree; and there were also sodomites in the land. They did according to all the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.

25 And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, [that] Shishak king of Egypt came up 26 against Jerusalem. And he took away the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house; he even took away all; and he took away all the shields of gold that Solomon had 27 made. And king Rehoboam made in their stead brazen shields, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the couriers who kept the entrance of the king's house.
28 And it was so, that as often as the king entered into the house of Jehovah, the couriers bore them, and brought them again into the chamber of the couriers.

29 And the rest of the acts of Rehoboam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
30 And there was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all [their] 31 days. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonitess. And Abijam his son reigned in his stead.

15 And in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam the son of Nebat began Abijam to reign over Judah.
2 He reigned three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Maachah, a daughter of Abisha-3 lom.[f] And he walked in all the sins of his father, which he had done before him; and his heart was not perfect with Jehovah his God, as the heart of David his 4 father. But for David's sake Jehovah his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem, setting up his son after him, and establishing Jerusalem; 5 because David did that which was right in the sight of Jehovah, and turned not aside from anything that he commanded him all the days of his life, except in the 6 matter of Urijah the Hittite. And there had been war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all the days of his life.

7 And the rest of the acts of Abijam, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? And there was war between Abi-8 jam and Jeroboam. And Abijam slept with his fathers; and they buried him in the city of David. And Asa his son reigned in his stead.

9 And in the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa began 10 to reign over Judah; and he reigned forty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's[g] name was Maachah, daughter of Abi-11 shalom. And Asa did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, as 12 David his father. And he put away the sodomites out of the land, and removed all the idols 13 that his father had made. And also Maachah his mother he removed from being queen,[h] because she had made an idol for the Asherah; and Asa cut down her idol, and burned it in the valley of 14 Kidron. But the high places were not removed; only, Asa's heart was perfect with Jehovah all his 15 days. And he brought into the house of Jehovah the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which he himself had dedicated, silver and gold and vessels.
16 And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their 17 days. And Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, in order to let none go out or come in to Asa king of Judah.

18 And Asa took all the silver and the gold that were left in the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and in the treasures of the king's house, and gave them into the hand of his servants; and king Asa sent them to Ben-Hadad,[i] the son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, king of Syria, who dwelt 19 at Damascus, saying, There is a league between me and thee, [as] between my father and thy father; behold, I send thee a present of silver and gold: go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, 20 that he may depart from me. And Ben-Hadad hearkened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his forces against the cities of Israel, and smote Ijon, and Dan, and Abel-Beth-Maachah, and all Kinneroth, with all the land of Naph-21 tali. And it came to pass when Baasha heard of it, that he left off 22 building Ramah, and dwelt in Tirzah. And king Asa called together all Judah: none was exempted; and they carried away the stones and the timber from Ramah, with which Baasha had been building; and king Asa built with them Geba of Benjamin, and Mizpah.
23 And the rest of all the acts of Asa, and all his might, and all that he did, and the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah? Only, in the time of his old age he was diseased in his feet.
24 And Asa slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father. And Jehoshaphat[k] his son reigned in his stead.
25 And Nadab the son of Jeroboam began to reign over Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah; and he reigned over Israel two 26 years. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the way of his father, and in his sin with 27 which he made Israel sin. And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which [belonged] to the Philistines, when Nadab and all Israel were besieging Gib-28 bethon. And Baasha slew him in the third year of Asa king of Judah, 29 and reigned in his stead. And it came to pass when he was king, he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left to Jeroboam none that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Jehovah which he spoke by his 30 servant Ahijah the Shilonite, because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and wherewith he made Israel to sin; by his provocation with which he provoked Jehovah the God of Israel to anger.
31 And the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of 32 Israel? And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in 34 Tirzah, for twenty-four years. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin wherewith he made Israel to sin.

16 And the word of Jehovah came to Jehu the son of Hanani 2 against Baasha, saying, Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, provoking me to anger with 3 their sins; behold, I will take away[l] Baasha and his house, and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
4 Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat, and him that dieth of his in the field shall the fowl of the heavens eat.
5 And the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings 6 of Israel? And Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in 7 his stead. And also through the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani the word of Jehovah came against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of Jehovah, provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he had smitten him.
8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah the son of Baasha began to reign over Israel 9 in Tirzah for two years. And his servant Zimri, captain of half [his] chariots, conspired against him;

[i] Meaning, 'son of Hadad,' i.e., of the Sun-god of the Syrians. [k] Meaning, 'Jehovah judges.' Cf. Joel iii. 2, 12, 14. [l] See xiv. 10.

and he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was the steward of his 10 house in Tirzah; and Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned in 11 his stead. And it came to pass when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not a male, neither of his kins-12 men[m] nor of his friends. And Zimri destroyed all the house of Baasha, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spoke against Baasha through Jehu the prophet, 13 for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned and wherewith they made Israel to sin, provoking Jehovah the God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

14 And the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned seven days in Tirzah. Now the people were encamped against Gibbethon, which [belonged] to 16 the Philistines. And the people that were encamped heard say, Zimri has conspired, and has also smitten the king; and all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the 17 camp. And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, 18 and they besieged Tirzah. And it came to pass when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the citadel of the king's house, and burned the king's house over 19 him with fire; and he died for his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of Jehovah, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, making 20 Israel to sin. And the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his conspiracy which he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and 22 half followed Omri. But the people that followed Omri overcame the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath; and Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri began to reign over Israel,—twelve years;
24 he reigned six years in Tirzah. And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer for two talents of silver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city that he built, after the name of Shemer, owner 25 of the hill, Samaria.[n] And Omri wrought evil in the sight of Jehovah, and did worse than all that 26 were before him. And he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins wherewith he made Israel to sin, provoking Jehovah the God of Israel to anger with their vanities.

27 And the rest of the acts of Omri, what he did, and his might which he shewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the 28 kings of Israel? And Omri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria; and Ahab his son reigned in his stead.

29 And Ahab the son of Omri began to reign over Israel in the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah; and Ahab the son of Omri reigned over Israel in Samaria twenty-two 30 years. And Ahab the son of Omri wrought evil in the sight of Jehovah more than all that were before 31 him. And it came to pass, as if it was a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians; and he went and served Baal and worshipped him.
32 And he reared up an altar for Baal in the house of Baal, which he 33 built in Samaria. And Ahab made the Asherah;[o] and Ahab did more to provoke Jehovah the God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his days Hiel the Bethelite built Jericho; he laid its foundation in[p] Abiram his first-born, and set up its gates in Segub his youngest, according to the word of Jehovah which he spoke through Joshua the son of Nun.

17 And Elijah[q] the Tishbite, of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, As Jehovah the God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except by my word.

2 And the word of Jehovah came 3 to him saying, Get thee hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the torrent Cherith, which 4 is before the Jordan. And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the torrent; and I have commanded 5 the ravens to feed thee there. And he went and did according to the word of Jehovah; he went and abode by the torrent Cherith, 6 which is before the Jordan. And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the torrent.

7 And it came to pass after a while that the torrent dried up, for there had been no rain in the land.
8 And the word of Jehovah came 9 to him saying, Arise, go to Zarephath, which is by Zidon, and abide there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to 10 maintain thee. And he arose and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the entrance of the city, behold, a widow woman was there gathering sticks. And he called to her and said, Fetch me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, 11 that I may drink. And she went to fetch [it], and he called to her and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thy hand.
12 And she said, As Jehovah thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but a handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse; and behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and 13 die. And Elijah said to her, Fear not; go, do as thou hast said; but make me thereof a little cake first; and bring it to me; and afterwards make for thee and for thy son.
14 For thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: The meal in the barrel shall not waste, neither shall the oil in the cruse fail, until the day that Jehovah sendeth rain upon 15 the face of the earth? And she went and did according to the word of Elijah; and she, and he, and 16 her house, ate a whole year.[r] The meal in the barrel did not waste, neither did the oil in the cruse fail, according to the word of Jehovah which he had spoken through Elijah.
17 And it came to pass after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so severe that there was no breath left in him.
18 And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come to me to call mine iniquity to remembrance, 19 and to slay my son? And he said to her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the upper chamber where he abode, and laid 20 him upon his own bed. And he cried to Jehovah and said, Jehovah, my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her 21 son? And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried to Jehovah and said, Jehovah, my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again!
22 And Jehovah heard the voice of Elijah, and the soul of the child came into him again, and he lived.
23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down from the upper chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and 24 Elijah said, See, thy son lives. And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of Jehovah in thy mouth is truth.

18 And it came to pass after many days, that the word of Jehovah came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, shew thyself to Ahab; and I will send rain 2 upon the face of the earth. And Elijah went to shew himself to Ahab.
And the famine was severe in 3 Samaria. And Ahab called Obadiah, who was the steward of his house (now Obadiah feared Jeho-4 vah greatly; and it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Jehovah, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and maintained 5 them with bread and water); and Ahab said to Obadiah, Go through the land, to all the fountains of water and to all the torrents, perhaps we may find grass to save the horses and the mules alive, so that we may not have to destroy 6 some of [our] beasts. And they divided the land between them to pass through it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.
7 And as Obadiah was on the way, behold, Elijah met him; and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Is it indeed thou, my lord 8 Elijah? And he said to him, I [am he]: go, say to thy lord, Be-9 hold Elijah! And he said, What have I sinned, that thou givest thy servant into the hand of Ahab, to 10 put me to death? As Jehovah thy God liveth, there is no nation

[r] Lit. 'days.'

or kingdom whither my lord has not sent to seek thee; and when they said, He is not [here], he took an oath of the kingdom or nation 11 that they found thee not. And now thou sayest, Go, say to thy 12 lord, Behold Elijah! And it shall come to pass when I am gone from thee, that the Spirit of Jehovah shall carry thee whither I know not; and when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he will kill me; and I thy servant fear 13 Jehovah from my youth. Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of Jehovah, how I hid a hundred men of Jehovah's prophets by fifty in a cave, and maintained them with 14 bread and water? And now thou sayest, Go, say to thy lord, Behold 15 Elijah! and he will kill me. And Elijah said, As Jehovah of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will certainly shew myself to him to-16 day. Then Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him.

And Ahab went to meet Elijah.
17 And it came to pass when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, Is it thou, the troubler of Israel?
18 And he said, I have not troubled Israel, but thou and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of Jehovah, and thou hast followed the Baals.
19 And now send, gather to me all Israel to mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the Asherah four hundred, who eat at 20 Jezebel's table. So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together unto mount Carmel.

21 Then Elijah drew near to all the people, and said, How long do ye halt between two opinions? if Jehovah be God, follow him; and if Baal, follow him. And the people answered him not a word.
22 And Elijah said to the people, I, only I, remain a prophet of Jehovah; and Baal's prophets are four 23 hundred and fifty men. Let them therefore give us two bullocks: and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and put it on the wood, and put no fire; and I will sacrifice[s] the other bullock, and put it on the 24 wood, and put no fire. And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of Jehovah; and the god that answers by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, The word is good.
25 And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose one bullock for yourselves, and sacrifice it first; for ye are the many; and call on the name of your god, but put no 26 fire. And they took the bullock which had been given them, and sacrificed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning until noon, saying, O Baal, answer us! But there was no voice, and none answered. And they leaped about[t] the altar that had been made.
27 And it came to pass at noon that Elijah mocked them and said, Cry aloud; for he is a god; for he is meditating, or gone aside, or he is on a journey; perhaps he sleeps, 28 and will awake. And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with swords and spears, till the blood gushed out 29 upon them. And it came to pass when midday was past, that they prophesied until the [time] of the offering up of the oblation; but there was neither voice, nor any that answered, nor any attention.
30 Then Elijah said to all the people, Draw near to me. And all the people drew near to him. And he repaired the altar of Jehovah 31 which was broken down. And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Jehovah came saying, 32 Israel shall be thy name; and with the stones he built an altar in the name of Jehovah, and made a trench round about the altar, of the capacity of two measures[v] of 33 seed; and he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid it on the wood. And he said, Fill four pitchers with water, and pour it on the burnt-offering, and 34 on the wood. And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they 35 did it the third time. And the water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with 36 water. And it came to pass at [the time of] the offering up of the oblation, that Elijah the prophet drew near, and said, Jehovah, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done

[s] עשה, 'do;' so vers. 25, 26. [t] Or 'upon.' [v] Heb. Seah, corresponding nearly to a peck.

37 all these things by thy word! Answer me, Jehovah, answer me, that this people may know that thou Jehovah art God, and [that] thou hast turned their heart back again!
38 And the fire of Jehovah fell, and consumed the burnt-offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that 39 was in the trench. And all the people saw [it], and they fell on their faces and said, Jehovah, he is God! Jehovah, he is God!
40 And Elijah said to them, Seize the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape! And they seized them; and Elijah brought them down to the torrent of Kishon, and slaughtered them there.
41 And Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink; for there is a sound 42 of abundance of rain. And Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed down on the earth, and put his face between his 43 knees. And he said to his servant,[w] Go up now, look toward the sea. And he went up and looked, and said, [There is] nothing. And he 44 said, Go again seven times. And it came to pass at the seventh time that he said, Behold there is a cloud, small as a man's hand, arising out of the sea. And he said, Go up, say to Ahab, Harness and go down, that the pour of rain 45 stop thee not. And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heavens became black [with] clouds and wind, and there was a great pour of rain. And Ahab got on the chariot, and went to Jizreel.
46 And the hand of Jehovah was upon Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jizreel.

19 And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and in detail how he had slain all the prophets 2 with the sword. And Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah saying, So do the gods [to me], and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about 3 this time! And when he saw [that], he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his ser-4 vant there. And he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a certain broom-bush, and requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough: now, Jehovah, take my life; for I am 5 not better than my fathers. And he lay down and slept under the broom-bush. And behold, an angel touched him, and said to 6 him, Arise, eat. And he looked, and behold, at his head was a cake, baked on hot stones, and a cruse of water. And he ate and drank, 7 and lay down again. And the angel of Jehovah came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise, eat; for the journey is 8 too great for thee. And he arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the 9 mount of God. And there he went into a cave, and lodged there.

And behold, the word of Jehovah [came] to him, and he said to him, What doest thou here, Eli-10 jah? And he said, I have been very jealous for Jehovah the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I am left, I alone, and they 11 seek my life, to take it away. And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before Jehovah. And behold, Jehovah passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before Jehovah: Jehovah was not in the wind. And after the wind, an earthquake: Jehovah was not in the earthquake.
12 And after the earthquake, a fire: Jehovah was not in the fire. And after the fire, a soft gentle voice.
13 And it came to pass, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. And behold, a voice [came] to him and said, What doest thou here, 14 Elijah? And he said, I have been very jealous for Jehovah the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thine altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I am left, I alone, and they 15 seek my life, to take it away. And Jehovah said to him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus; and when thou comest, anoint Hazael king over Syria;
16 and Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint king over Israel; and Elisha[x] the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shalt thou anoint 17 prophet in thy stead. And it shall come to pass, [that] him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay; and him that escapeth the sword of Jehu shall Elisha 18 slay. Yet I have left [myself] seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed unto Baal, and every mouth that hath not kissed him.

19 And he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was ploughing [with] twelve yokes before him, and he with the twelfth; and Elijah went over to him, and cast his mantle on him.
20 And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and I will follow thee. And he said to him, Go back again;
21 for what have I done to thee? And he returned back from him, and took the yoke of oxen, and killed [v] them, and boiled their flesh with the implements of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. And he arose and went after Elijah, and ministered to him.

20 And Ben-Hadad king of Syria assembled all his host; and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots; and he went up and besieged Samaria, 2 and fought against it. And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said to 3 him, Thus says Ben-Hadad: Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, the 4 goodliest, are mine. And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I 5 have. And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaks Ben-Hadad saying: I sent to thee indeed, saying, Thou shalt deliver me thy silver, and thy gold, and 6 thy wives, and thy children; but to-morrow about this time I will send my servants to thee, and they shall search thy house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatsoever is pleasant in thy sight, they shall put in their hand and take away.
7 And the king of Israel called all the elders of the land and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this [man] seeks mischief; for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I denied 8 him not. And all the elders and all the people said to him, Hearken 9 not, nor consent. And he said to the messengers of Ben-Hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first I will do; but this thing I cannot do. And the messengers departed, and brought him 10 word again. And Ben-Hadad sent to him and said, The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me!
11 And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell [him], Let not him that girdeth on boast himself as 12 he that putteth off! [z] And it came to pass when he heard this word, as he was drinking, he and the kings in the tents,[a] that he said to his servants, Set yourselves. And they set themselves against the city.
13 And behold, a prophet drew near to Ahab king of Israel, and said, Thus saith Jehovah: Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thy hand this day; and thou shalt 14 know that I am Jehovah. And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith Jehovah: By the servants of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall begin the battle? And he 15 said, Thou. And he numbered the servants of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two; and after them he numbered all the people, all the children of Israel, seven thousand.
16 And they went out at noon; and Ben-Hadad drank himself drunk in the tents, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings that helped him.
17 And the servants of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-Hadad sent out, and they told him saying, There are men 18 come out of Samaria. And he said, Whether they be come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they be come out for war, 19 take them alive. And these servants of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and 20 the army that followed them. And they slew every one his man; and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them; and Ben-Hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse 21 with the horsemen. And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.
22 And the prophet drew near to the king of Israel, and said to him, Go, strengthen thyself, and understand, and see what thou shalt do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against 23 thee. And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, Their gods are gods of the mountains; therefore they were stronger than we; but if we fight against them on the plateau, shall we not be 24 stronger than they? And do this: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put governors 25 in their stead; and number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; and we will fight against them on the plateau: shall we not be stronger than they? And he hearkened to their voice, and did so.

26 And it came to pass, at the return of the year, that Ben-Hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against 27 Israel. And the children of Israel were numbered and victualled, and they went against them; and the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of goats; but the Syrians filled 28 the land. And the man of God drew near, and spoke to the king of Israel and said, Thus saith Jehovah: Because the Syrians have said, Jehovah is a god of the mountains, but he is not a god of the valleys, I will give all this great multitude into thy hand, and ye shall know that I am Jehovah.
29 And they encamped one over against the other seven days; and it came to pass that on the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel smote of the Syrians a hundred thousand foot-30 men in one day. And the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men of them that were left. And Ben-Hadad fled, and came into the city, [from] chamber to chamber.[b] 31 And his servants said to him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel; perhaps he 32 will save thy life. And they girded sackcloth on their loins, and ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-Hadad says, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet 33 alive? he is my brother. And the men took it as a good omen,[c] and hastened to catch what came from him, and they said, Thy brother Ben-Hadad .... And he said, Go, bring him. And Ben-Hadad came forth to him; and he caused him 34 to come up into the chariot. And [Ben-Hadad] said to him, The cities that my father took from thy father I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thyself in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. And I [said Ahab] will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.
35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to another[d] by the word of Jehovah, Smite me, I pray thee. But the man refused 36 to smite him. Then said he to him, Because thou hast not hearkened to the voice of Jehovah, behold, when thou departest from me, the lion will slay[e] thee. And when he had departed from him, the lion found him and slew[f] him.
37 Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him violently, and 38 wounded [him]. And the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself 39 with a sash over his eyes. And as the king passed by, he cried to the king and said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me and said, Keep this man; if by any means he be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or thou shalt pay[g] 40 a talent of silver. And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said to him, So [is] thy judgment: thyself hast decided 41 [it]. Then he hastily took the sash away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him, that 42 he was of the prophets. And he said to him, Thus saith Jehovah: Because thou hast let go out of thy hand the man that I had devoted to destruction, thy life shall be for his life, and thy people for his 43 people. And the king of Israel went to his house sullen and vexed, and came to Samaria.

21 And it came to pass after these things, [that] Naboth the Jizreelite had a vineyard, which was

[b] Or 'to an inner chamber.' [c] Cf. Hebrew of Gen. xliv. 5. [d] Or 'his companion.' [e] Heb. 'smite.' [f] Heb. 'smote.' [g] Heb. 'weigh.'

in Jizreel, by the side of the palace 2 of Ahab king of Samaria. And Ahab spoke to Naboth saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, for it is near, by the side of my house; and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; if it seem good to thee, I will give thee its value 3 in money. And Naboth said to Ahab, Jehovah forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of 4 my fathers to thee! And Ahab came into his house sullen and vexed because of the word that Naboth the Jizreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he lay down on his bed, and turned away his face, 5 and ate no bread. And Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, Why is thy spirit sullen, and 6 thou eatest no bread? And he said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jizreelite and said to him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it please thee, I will give thee a vineyard for it;
and he said, I will not give thee 7 my vineyard. And Jezebel his wife said to him, Dost thou now exercise sovereignty over Israel?
arise, eat bread, and let thy heart be glad: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jizreelite.
8 And she wrote a letter in Ahab's name, and sealed it with his seal, and sent the letter to the elders and to the nobles that were in his 9 city, dwelling with Naboth. And she wrote in the letter saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth at 10 the head of the people; and set two men, sons of Belial, before him, and they shall bear witness against him saying, Thou didst curse God and the king; and carry him out, and stone him, that he 11 may die. And the men of his city, the elders and the nobles that dwelt in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, as it was written in the letter that she had sent to 12 them: they proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth at the head of the 13 people. And there came the two men, sons of Belial, and sat before him; and the men of Belial witnessed against him, against Na-both, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth blasphemed God and the king. And they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he 14 died. And they sent to Jezebel saying, Naboth is stoned, and is 15 dead. And it came to pass when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jizreelite, which he refused to give thee for money; for Naboth 16 is not alive, but dead. And it came to pass when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jizreelite, to take possession of it.
17 And the word of Jehovah came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying, 18 Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Na-both, whither he is gone down to 19 take possession of it. And thou shalt speak unto him saying, Thus saith Jehovah: Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak unto him saying, Thus saith Jehovah: In the place where the dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall the dogs lick thy 20 blood, even thine. And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, mine enemy? And he said, I have found [thee]; because thou hast sold thyself to do evil in the sight 21 of Jehovah. Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab every male, and him that is 22 shut up and left in Israel; and I will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation wherewith thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.
23 And of Jezebel also spoke Jehovah saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel 24 by the moat of Jizreel. Him that dieth of Ahab in the city shall the dogs eat, and him that dieth in the field shall the fowl of the hea-25 vens eat. (Surely there was none like to Ahab, who did sell himself to do evil in the sight of Jehovah, Jezebel his wife urging him on.
26 And he did very abominably in following idols,[h] according to all that the Amorites did, whom Jehovah had dispossessed before the children of Israel.)
27 And it came to pass when Ahab heard these words, that he rent his garments, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay 28 in sackcloth, and went softly. And the word of Jehovah came to Eli-29 jah the Tishbite, saying, Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: in his son's days will I bring the evil upon his house.

22 And they continued three years without war between 2 Syria and Israel. And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came 3 down to the king of Israel. And the king of Israel said to his servants, Do ye know that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we keep quiet without taking it out of the hand 4 of the king of Syria? And he said to Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-Gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.
5 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, this day of the word of Jehovah.
6 And the king of Israel assembled the prophets, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up, and the Lord will give it 7 into the king's hand. But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah besides, that 8 we might inquire of him? And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, for he prophesies no good concerning me, but evil: [it is] Micah[i] the son of Imlah. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.
9 Then the king of Israel called a chamberlain,[k] and said, Fetch quickly Micah the son of Imlah.
10 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, having put on their robes, sat each on his throne, in the open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied
11 before them. And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and he said, Thus saith Jehovah: With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have exterminated them.
12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-Gilead, and prosper; for Jehovah will give it into the king's hand.
13 And the messenger that went to call Micah spoke to him saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets [declare] good to the king with one assent: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one 14 of them, and speak good. And Micah said, As Jehovah liveth, even what Jehovah shall say to 15 me, that will I speak. And he came to the king. And the king said to him, Micah, shall we go against Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he said to him, Go up, and prosper; for Jehovah will give it into the hand 16 of the king. And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but truth in the name of Jehovah?
17 And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah said, These have no master: let them return every man to his 18 house in peace. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he prophesies no good concerning me, but evil?
19 And he said, Hear therefore the word of Jehovah: I saw Jehovah sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him, on his right hand and on his left; 20 and Jehovah said, Who shall entice Ahab that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead? And one said after this manner, and an-21 other said after that manner. And there came forth a spirit, and stood before Jehovah, and said, 22 I will entice him. And Jehovah said unto him, Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt entice [him], and also suc-
23 ceed: go forth, and do so. And now, behold, Jehovah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and Jehovah has spoken evil concerning thee.
24 Then Zedekiah[l] the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micah upon the cheek, and said, Where now went the Spirit of Jehovah from me to speak to thee?
25 And Micah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber 26 to hide thyself. And the king of Israel said, Take Micah and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's 27 son; and thou shalt say, Thus says the king: Put this [man] in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace. And Micah said, If thou return at all in peace, Jehovah has not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O peoples, all of you!

29 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went 30 up to Ramoth-Gilead. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and 31 went into the battle. And the king of Syria commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots saying, Fight neither with small nor great, but with the king of 32 Israel only. And it came to pass when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely that is the king of Israel; and they turned against him to fight; and Jehoshaphat cried out.
33 And it came to pass that when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the fastenings and the corslet. And he said to his charioteer, Turn thy hand, and drive me out of the camp; for I 35 am wounded.[m] And the battle increased that day; and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and he died at even; and the blood of the wound ran out into the hollow of the chariot.
36 And there went the cry throughout the host at the going down of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country!
37 And the king died, and was brought to Samaria; and they buried the 38 king in Samaria. And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked his blood, where the harlots bathed: according to the word of Jehovah, which he had spoken.

39 And the rest of the acts of Ahab, and all that he did, and the ivory house that he built, and all the cities that he built, are they not written in the book of the chroni-40 cles of the kings of Israel? And Ahab slept with his fathers; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

41 And Jehoshaphat the son of Asa began to reign over Judah in the fourth year of Ahab king of 42 Israel. Jehoshaphat was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Azubah, the 43 daughter of Shilhi. And he walked in all the way of Asa his father; he turned not aside from it, doing what was right in the sight of 44 Jehovah. Only, the high places were not removed: the people offered and burned incense still on 45 the high places. And Jehoshaphat was at peace with the king of Israel.

46 And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, and his might which he shewed, and how he warred, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
47 And the remainder of the sodomites, which were left in the days of his father Asa, he put away[n] from 48 out of the land. And there was no king in Edom: a deputy reigned.
49 Jehoshaphat made Tarshish-ships to go to Ophir for gold; but they went not, for the ships were 50 broken at Ezion-geber. Then said Ahaziah the son of Ahab to Jehoshaphat, Let my servants go with thy servants in the ships.
51 But Jehoshaphat would not. And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Jehoram[o] his son reigned in his stead.

52 Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; and he reigned 53 two years over Israel. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.
54 And he served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked Jehovah the God of Israel to anger, according to all that his father had done.

SECOND BOOK OF KINGS

1 And Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.
2 And Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper chamber which was in Samaria, and was sick; and he sent messengers and said to them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this disease.
3 And the angel of Jehovah said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, Is it because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub 4 the god of Ekron? Now therefore thus saith Jehovah: Thou shalt not come down from the bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt certainly die. And Elijah departed.
5 And the messengers returned to him; and he said to them, Why 6 have ye returned? And they said unto him, A man came up to meet us, and said to us, Go, return to the king that sent you and say to him, Thus saith Jehovah: Is it because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from the bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt certainly 7 die. And he said to them, What manner of man was he that came up to meet you, and told you these 8 words? And they said to him, He was a man in a hairy [garment] [a] and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.
9 And he sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him, and behold, he sat on the top of the mount. And he spoke to him: Man of God, the 10 king says, Come down! And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, And if I be a man of God, let fire come down from the heavens and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from the heavens, and consumed him and his fifty.
11 And again he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he spoke and said to him, Man of God, thus says the king: 12 Come down quickly! And Elijah answered and said to them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from the heavens and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from the heavens, and consumed him and his fifty.
13 And again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him and said to him, Man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be 14 precious in thy sight. Behold, there came down fire from the heavens, and consumed the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties; but now, let my life 15 be precious in thy sight. And the angel of Jehovah said to Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went 16 down with him to the king. And he said to him, Thus saith Jehovah: Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down from the bed on which thou art gone 17 up, but shalt certainly die. And he died according to the word of Jehovah that Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram began to reign in his stead, in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; for he had no son.
18 And the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, what he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

2 And it came to pass when Jehovah would take up Elijah into the heavens by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gil-2 gal. And Elijah said to Elisha, Abide here, I pray thee; for Jehovah has sent me to Bethel. And Elisha said, As Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee! So they went down 3 to Bethel. And the sons of the prophets that were at Bethel came forth to Elisha, and said to him, Dost thou know that Jehovah will take away thy master from over thy head to-day? And he said, I also know it: be silent!

4 And Elijah said to him, Elisha, abide here, I pray thee; for Jehovah has sent me to Jericho. And he said, As Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee! And they came to Jericho.
5 And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho drew near to Elisha and said to him, Dost thou know that Jehovah will take away thy master from over thy head to-day? And he said, I also know it: be silent!
6 And Elijah said to him, Abide here, I pray thee; for Jehovah has sent me to the Jordan. And he said, As Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave 7 thee! And they two went on. And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went and stood opposite afar off; and they two stood by 8 the Jordan. And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither; and they two went over on dry ground.
9 And it came to pass when they had gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I am taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy 10 spirit be upon me. And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: if thou see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so to thee; but if 11 not, it shall not be [so]. And it came to pass as they went on, and talked, that behold, a chariot of fire and horses of fire; and they parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind 12 into the heavens. And Elisha saw [it], and he cried, My father, my father! the chariot of Israel and the horsemen thereof! And he saw him no more. Then he took hold of his own garments and 13 rent them in two pieces. And he took up the mantle of Elijah which fell from him, and went back and stood by the bank of the Jordan;
14 and he took the mantle of Elijah which had fallen from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is Jehovah, the God of Elijah? He also[b] smote the waters, and they parted hither and thither, and Elisha went over.
15 And the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho on the opposite side saw him, and they said, The spirit of Elijah rests on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground 16 before him, and said to him, Behold now, there are with thy servants fifty valiant men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master, lest perhaps the Spirit of Jehovah have taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some ravine. And he said, 17 Ye shall not send. And they pressed him till he was ashamed, and he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men, and they sought three days, but did not 18 find him. And they came again to him (now he was staying at Jericho); and he said to them, Did I not say to you, Go not?
19 And the men of the city said to Elisha, Behold now, the situation of the city is good, as my lord sees; but the water is bad, and 20 the land is barren. And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt in it. And they brought it to him.
21 And he went forth to the source of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith Jehovah: I have healed these waters: there shall not be from thence any 22 more death or barrenness. And the waters were healed to this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spoke.
23 And he went up from thence to Bethel, and as he went up by the way, there came forth little boys out of the city, and mocked him, and said to him, Go up,[c] bald 24 head; go up, bald head! And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of Jehovah. And there came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and tore forty-two children of 25 them. And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.

3 And Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; and 2 he reigned twelve years. And he wrought evil in the sight of Jehovah, but not like his father and like his mother; and he took away the column[d] of Baal that his 3 father had made. Only, he clave to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat who made Israel to sin: he did not depart therefrom.

[b] Or 'Even he.' [c] Others, 'Come up.' [d] Or perhaps 'image:' see on 1 Kings xiv. 23.

4 And Mesha king of Moab was a sheepmaster, and rendered to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs and a hundred thousand 5 rams, with the wool.[e] And it came to pass when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against 6 the king of Israel. And at that time king Jehoram went out of Samaria and inspected all Israel.
7 And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go up: I am as thou, my people as thy people, my 8 horses as thy horses. And he said, Which way shall we go up? And he said, By way of the wilderness of Edom.
9 And the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah and the king of Edom, and they made a circuit of seven days' journey. And there was no water for the army,[f] and for the cattle that followed them.
10 And the king of Israel said, Alas! that Jehovah has called these three kings together, to give them into 11 the hand of Moab! And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah that we may inquire of Jehovah by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured 12 water on the hands of Elijah. And Jehoshaphat said, The word of Jehovah is with him. And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down 13 to him. And Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? go to the prophets of thy father and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said to him, Not so, for Jehovah has called these three kings to give them into the hand 14 of Moab. And Elisha said, As Jehovah of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward thee nor 15 see thee. And now fetch me a minstrel. And it came to pass when the minstrel played, that the hand of Jehovah was upon him.
16 And he said, Thus saith Jehovah: Make this valley full of 17 ditches.[g] For thus saith Jehovah: Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet this valley shall be filled with water, and ye shall drink, both ye, and your cattle, 18 and your beasts. And this is a light thing in the sight of Jehovah: he will give the Moabites also into 19 your hand. And ye shall smite every fortified city and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece 20 of land with stones. And it came to pass in the morning, when the oblation was offered up, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.
21 And all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, and they were called together, all that were able to put on armour, and upward, and stood 22 by the border. And they rose up early in the morning, and the sun rose upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the 23 other side red as blood. And they said, This is blood: the kings are entirely destroyed, and have smitten one another; and now, Moab, 24 to the spoil! And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and smote the Moabites, and they fled before them; and they entered in and smote Moab.
25 And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone and filled it, and they stopped every well of water, and felled every good tree, until they left [only] the[h] stones at Kirhareseth, and the slingers
26 went about it, and smote it. And the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, and he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom, but 27 they could not. And he took his eldest son, that should have reigned in his stead, and offered him up for a burnt-offering upon the wall. And there was great wrath against Israel; and they departed from him, and returned to [their own] land.

4 And a woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets cried to Elisha saying, Thy servant my husband is dead, and thou knowest that thy servant feared Jehovah; and the creditor is come to take my two children to be bond-2 men. And Elisha said to her, What shall I do for thee? Tell me, what hast thou in the house?

[e] Or 'to the king of Israel the wool of,' &c.

And she said, Thy handmaid has not anything at all in the house 3 but a pot of oil. And he said, Go, borrow for thyself vessels abroad from all thy neighbours, empty 4 vessels; let it not be[i] few; and go in, and shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and pour out into all those vessels, and set aside
5 what is full. And she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons: they brought [the vessels] to her, and she poured 6 out. And it came to pass when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said to her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil 7 stayed. And she came and told the man of God; and he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou [and] thy sons on the rest.
8 And it came to pass on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a wealthy[j] woman, and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, [that] as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither 9 to eat bread. And she said to her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, 10 who passes by us continually. Let us make, I pray thee, a small upper chamber with walls,[k] and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a seat, and a lamp-stand; and it shall be when he 11 cometh to us, he shall turn in thither. And it came to pass on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the upper chamber, 12 and lay there. And he said to Gehazi his servant,[l] Call this Shunammite. And he called her, 13 and she stood before him. And he said to him, Say now to her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; [m] what is to be done for thee? wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she said, I dwell among mine own peo-14 ple. And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi said, Verily, she has no son, and 15 her husband is old. And he said, Call her; and he called her; and 16 she stood in the doorway. And he said, At this appointed time, when thy term is come,[n] thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, No, my lord, man of God, do not lie to thy handmaid.
17 And the woman conceived, and bore a son at that appointed time in the next year as Elisha had 18 said to her. And the child grew, and it came to pass one[o] day, that he went out to his father to the 19 reapers. And he said to his father, My head, my head! And he said to the servant, Carry him to his 20 mother. And he carried him, and brought him to his mother; and he sat on her knees till noon, and 21 died. And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut [the door] upon him, and 22 went out. And she called to her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses,[p] and I will run to the man of God, and come 23 again. And he said, Why wilt thou go to him to-day? It is neither new moon nor sabbath. And she 24 said, [It is] well. Then she saddled the ass, and said to her servant, Drive and go forward; slack not the riding for me, except I bid thee.
25 And she went and came to the man of God, to mount Carmel. And it came to pass when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, 26 there is the Shunammite: run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say unto her, Is it well with thee? is it well with thy husband? is it well with the child? And she 27 said, It is well. And she came to the man of God to the mountain, and caught him by the feet; and Gehazi drew near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, Let her alone, for her soul is troubled within her, and Jehovah has hidden it from me, and has not 28 told me. And she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? did I not 29 say, Do not deceive me? And he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins, and take my staff in thy hand, and go thy way. If thou meet any man, salute him not, and if any salute thee, answer him not again; and lay my staff upon the face of 30 the lad. And the mother of the lad said, As Jehovah liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee! And he rose up and fol-31 lowed her. And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the lad; but there was neither voice nor sign of attention. And he returned to meet him, and told him saying, The lad is not awaked.

32 And when Elisha came into the house, behold, the child was dead 33 [and] laid upon his bed. And he went in and shut the door upon them both, and prayed to Jeho-34 vah. And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands, and bent over him; and the flesh of the child grew warm.
35 And he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and bent over him. And the lad sneezed seven times, and the 36 lad opened his eyes. And he called Gehazi and said, Call this Shunammite. And he called her; and she came to him. And he said, 37 Take up thy son. And she came and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; and she took up her son, and went out.
38 And Elisha came again to Gilgal. And there was a famine in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him. And he said to his servant, Set on the great pot, and boil pottage 39 for the sons of the prophets. Then one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered from it his lap full of wild colocynths, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage; for they did not know 40 them. And they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out and said, Man of God, there is death in the pot! And they could not 41 eat [it]. And he said, Then bring meal. And he cast [it] into the pot, and said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot.
42 And there came a man from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of corn in his sack. And he said, Give to the people 43 that they may eat. And his attendant said, How shall I set this before a hundred men? And he said, Give the people that they may eat; for thus saith Jehovah: They shall eat, and shall have to 44 spare. And he set [it] before them, and they ate and left [thereof], according to the word of Jehovah.

5 And Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man before his master, and honourable, for by him Jehovah had given deliverance to Syria; and he was a mighty man of 2 valour, [but] a leper. And the Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Na-3 aman's wife. And she said to her mistress, Oh, would that my lord were before the prophet that is in Samaria! then he would cure him 4 of his leprosy. And he went and told his lord saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the 5 land of Israel. And the king of Syria said, Well! go, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand [shekels] of gold, and 6 ten changes of raiment. And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, And now, when this letter comes to thee, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest cure him 7 of his leprosy. And it came to pass when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his garments, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man sends to me to cure a man of his leprosy? Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeks an occasion against me.
8 And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his garments, that he sent to the king, saying, Why hast thou rent thy garments? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there 9 is a prophet in Israel. And Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the doorway of the house of Elisha.
10 And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash[q] in the Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.
11 And Naaman was wroth, and went away and said, Behold, I thought, He will certainly come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of Jehovah his God, and wave his hand over the place, and 12 cure the leper. Are not the Abanah[r] and the Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them and be clean? And he turned and went away in a rage.
13 And his servants drew near, and spoke to him and said, My father, [q] Or 'bathe:' so vers. 12, 13.

[r] Or 'the Amanah.'

[if] the prophet had bidden thee [do some] great thing, wouldest thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he says to thee, 14 Wash and be clean? Then he went down, and plunged himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God. And his flesh became again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.
15 And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came and stood before him; and he said, Behold, I know that there is no God in all the earth but in Israel; and now, I pray thee, take 16 a present of thy servant. But he said, As Jehovah liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none! And he urged him to take it; but 17 he refused. And Naaman said, If not, then let there, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules' burden of [this] earth; for thy servant will no more offer[s] burnt-offering and sacrifice to other gods, 18 but to Jehovah. In this thing Jehovah pardon thy servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon[t] to bow down[v] there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon—when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, Jehovah pardon thy servant, 19 I pray thee, in this thing. And he said to him, Go in peace. And he departed from him a little way.
20 And Gehazi, the servant[w] of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master has spared Naaman, this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought; but as Jehovah liveth, I will run after him and take somewhat of 21 him. And Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he sprang down from the chariot to meet 22 him, and said, Is all well? And he said, All is well.[x] My master has sent me saying, Behold, even now there are come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets; give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of raiment.
23 And Naaman said, Consent to take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of raiment, and laid them upon two of his young men; and they bore 24 them before him. And when he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and stowed them in the house; and he let the men 25 go, and they departed. And he entered in and stood before his master.

And Elisha said to him, Whence [comest thou], Gehazi? And he said, Thy servant went no whither.
26 And he said to him, Did not my heart go, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and oliveyards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and bondmen, 27 and bondwomen? But the leprosy of Naaman shall fasten upon thee, and upon thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence leprous, as snow.

6 And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell[y] before thee 2 is too strait for us. Let us go, we pray thee, to the Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he 3 said, Go. And one said, Consent, I pray thee, to go with thy servants. And he said, I will go.
4 And he went with them. And they came to the Jordan and cut down 5 the trees. And it came to pass as one was felling a beam, that the iron fell into the water; and he cried and said, Alas, master, and 6 it was borrowed! And the man of God said, Where did it fall? And he shewed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither, and made the iron 7 to swim. And he said, Take [it] up to thee. And he put out his hand and took it.
8 And the king of Syria warred against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place [shall be] 9 my camp. And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place, for thither the Syrians 10 are come down. And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and he was on his guard there. [That took place] 11 not once, nor twice. And the heart of the king of Syria was troubled because of this thing; and he called his servants, and said to them, Will ye not shew me which of us is for the king of

[s] עשה, 'do:' cf. 1 Kings iii. 15; xviii. 23. [t] A Syrian idol. [v] Or 'worship.'

12 Israel? And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy 13 bedchamber. And he said, Go and see where he is, and I will send and fetch him. And it was told him saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.
14 And he sent thither horses and chariots, and a great host, and they came by night and sur-15 rounded the city. And when the attendant of the man of God rose early and went forth, behold, an army surrounded the city, with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, Alas, my master!
16 how shall we do? And he said, Fear not, for they that are with us are more than they that are with 17 them. And Elisha prayed and said, Jehovah, I pray thee, open his eyes that he may see. And Jehovah opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw; and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.
18 And they came down to him; and Elisha prayed to Jehovah and said, Smite this nation, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness accord-19 ing to the word of Elisha. And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. And 20 he led them to Samaria. And it came to pass when they entered into Samaria, that Elisha said, Jehovah, open the eyes of these [men] that they may see. And Jehovah opened their eyes, and they saw, and behold, they were 21 in the midst of Samaria. And the king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I 22 smite? shall I smite [them]? And he said, Thou shalt not smite [them]: wouldest thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? Set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, 23 and go to their master. And he prepared a great repast for them; and they ate and drank; and he sent them away, and they went to their master. And the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.
24 And it came to pass after this that Ben-Hadad king of Syria gathered all his army,[z] and went 25 up and besieged Samaria. And there was a great famine in Samaria; and behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was worth eighty silver-pieces,[a] and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung 26 five silver-pieces. And it came to pass as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman to him saying, 27 Help,[b] my lord O king! And he said, If Jehovah do not help thee, whence should I help thee? Out of the threshing-floor, or out of the 28 winepress? And the king said to her, What aileth thee? And she said, This woman said to me, Give thy son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son to-29 morrow. And we boiled my son, and ate him: and I said to her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him; and she has 30 hidden her son. And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his garments; and he was passing by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sack-31 cloth within upon his flesh. And he said, God do so, and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall remain on him this day!
32 And Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him. And [the king] sent a man before him. Before the messenger came to him, he himself said to the elders, Do ye see how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? See, when the messenger comes; shut the door, and keep him off with the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?
33 And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down to him. And [the king] said, Behold, this evil is of Jehovah: why should I wait for Jehovah any longer?

7 And Elisha said, Hear the word of Jehovah. Thus saith Jehovah: To-morrow about this time shall the measure[c] of fine flour be at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, in the gate of 2 Samaria. And the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God and said, Behold, if Jehovah should make windows in the heavens, would this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

[z] Or 'camp.' [a] Or '[shekels] of silver.' [b] Lit. 'Save;' and so ver. 27.

3 And there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate, and they said one to another, Why do we abide here until we die?
4 If we say, Let us enter into the city, the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; and if we abide here, we shall die. And now come, let us fall away to the camp of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they put us to 5 death, we shall but die. And they rose up in the dusk to go to the camp of the Syrians; and they came to the extremity of the camp of the Syrians; and behold, there 6 was no man there. For the Lord had made the army [d] of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, a noise of a great host; and they said one to another, Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the 7 Egyptians to come upon us. And they rose up and fled in the dusk, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, the camp as it was, and fled for their life.
8 And those lepers came to the extremity of the camp; and they went into one tent, and ate and drank, and carried thence silver and gold, and garments, and went and hid it; and they came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence, and went and hid 9 [it]. And they said one to another, We are not doing right; this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, the iniquity will find us out; and now come, let us go and tell the king's 10 household. And they came and called to the porters of the city, and told them saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no one there, no sound of man, but the horses tied, and the asses tied, and the tents as 11 they were. And the porters cried [it] and told [it] to the king's house within.
12 And the king rose up in the night and said to his servants, Let me tell you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry, and they have gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the 13 city. And one of his servants answered and said, Let some one take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that have perished), and let us 14 send and see. And they took two chariots with their horses; and the king sent after the army [d] of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.
15 And they went after them to the Jordan; and behold, all the way was full of garments and materials, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned and told the king.
16 And the people went out and plundered the camp of the Syrians; and the measure of fine flour was at a shekel, and two measures of barley at a shekel, according to 17 the word of Jehovah. And the king had appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate; and the people trampled upon him in the gate, and he died, according to what the man of God had said,—what he had said when the king came down 18 to him. And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king saying, Two measures of barley shall be at a shekel, and the measure of fine flour at a shekel, to-morrow about this time in the 19 gate of Samaria. And the captain answered the man of God and said, Behold, if Jehovah should make windows in the heavens, would such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat 20 thereof. And so it happened to him; and the people trampled upon him in the gate, and he died.

8 And Elisha had spoken to the woman whose son he had restored to life, saying, Rise up and go, thou and thy household, and sojourn wheresoever thou canst sojourn; for Jehovah has called for a famine, and it shall also come 2 upon the land for seven years. And the woman rose up, and did according to the saying of the man of God, and went, she and her household, and sojourned in the land of 3 the Philistines seven years. And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines; and she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land.
4 And the king was talking with [d] Or 'camp.'

Gehazi, the servant[e] of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that 5 Elisha has done. And it came to pass as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that behold, the woman whose son he had restored to life cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha 6 restored to life. And the king asked the woman, and she told him. And the king appointed a certain chamberlain,[f] saying, Restore all that was hers and all the revenue of the land since the day that she left the country even until now.

7 And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-Hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him saying, The man of God is come 8 hither. And the king said to Hazael, Take a present in thy hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of Jehovah by him, saying, Shall I recover from 9 this disease? And Hazael went to meet him, and took with him a present, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels' burden; and he came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-Hadad king of Syria has sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover 10 from this disease? And Elisha said to him, Go, say to him, Thou wilt certainly recover.[g] But Jehovah has shewn me that he shall 11 certainly die. And he settled his countenance stedfastly, until he was ashamed; and the man of 12 God wept. And Hazael said, Why does my lord weep? And he said, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do to the children of Israel: their strongholds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou kill with the sword, and wilt dash in pieces their children, and rip 13 up their women with child. And Hazael said, But what is thy servant, a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha said, Jehovah has shewn me that 14 thou wilt be king over Syria. And he departed from Elisha, and came to his master, who said to him, What did Elisha say to thee? And he said, He told me [that] thou 15 wouldest certainly recover. And it came to pass the next day, that he took the coverlet and dipped [it] in water, and spread it over his face, so that he died; and Hazael reigned in his stead.

16 And in the fifth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Jehoshaphat being then king of Judah, Jehoram the son of Jehosh-17 aphat, king of Judah, began to reign. He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; and 18 he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in 19 the sight of Jehovah. But Jehovah would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he had promised him to give him always a lamp for his sons.

20 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they 21 set a king over themselves. And Joram went over to Zair, and all the chariots with him; and he rose up by night, and smote the Edomites who had surrounded him, and the captains of the chariots; and the people fled into their tents.
22 But the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time.

23 And the rest of the acts of Joram and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chroni-24 cles of the kings of Judah? And Joram slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Ahaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25 In the twelfth year of Joram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of 26 Judah, began to reign. Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri king of Israel.
27 And he walked in the way of the house of Ahab, and did evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the house of Ahab; for he was the son-in-28 law of the house of Ahab. And he went with Joram the son of Ahab to the war against Hazael the king of Syria at Ramoth-Gilead; and the Syrians wounded Joram.
29 And king Joram returned to be healed in Jizreel of the wounds that the Syrians had given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram, king of [e] Lit. 'young man,' as elsewhere. [f] Or 'eunuch.' [g] Some read, with the Chetiv, 'say, Thou wilt certainly not live.' The difference is in one letter, לֹא for לוֹ.

Judah, went down to see Joram the son of Ahab at Jizreel, for he was sick.

9 And Elisha the prophet called one of the sons of the prophets, and said to him, Gird up thy loins, and take this vial of oil in thy hand, and go to Ramoth-Gilead.
2 And when thou art come thither, look out there Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, and go in, and make him rise up from among his brethren, and bring him 3 to an inner chamber; then take the vial of oil, and pour it on his head and say, Thus saith Jehovah: I have anointed thee king over Israel; and open the door, and 4 flee, and tarry not. And the young man, the young prophet, 5 went to Ramoth-Gilead. And when he came, behold, the captains of the host were sitting. And he said, I have an errand to thee, captain. And Jehu said, To which of all of us? And he said, To thee, 6 captain. And he rose up and went into the house; and he poured the oil on his head, and said to him, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: I have anointed thee king over the people of Jehovah, over 7 Israel. And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master; and I will avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Jehovah at 8 the hand of Jezebel. And the whole house of Ahab shall perish, and I will cut off from Ahab every male, and him that is shut up 9 and left[h] in Israel. And I will make the house of Ahab as the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and as the house of Baasha 10 the son of Ahijah. And the dogs shall eat Jezebel in the plot[i] of Jizreel, and none shall bury her. And he opened the door and fled.
11 And Jehu came forth to the servants of his lord. And one said to him, Is all well? why came this madman to thee? And he said to them, Ye know the man, and 12 his mind. And they said, It is false! tell us now. And he said, Thus and thus spoke he to me saying, Thus saith Jehovah: I have anointed thee king over 13 Israel. Then they hasted and took every man his garment, and put it under him on the very stairs, and blew with trumpets, and said, 14 Jehu is king! And Jehu the son of Jehoshaphat, son of Nimshi, conspired against Joram. (Now Joram kept Ramoth-Gilead, he and all Israel, because of Hazael 15 king of Syria; and king Joram had returned to be healed in Jizreel of the wounds that the Syrians had given him, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria.) And Jehu said, If it be your will, let not a fugitive escape out of the city to go to tell [it] in Jizreel.
16 And Jehu rode in a chariot and went to Jizreel; for Joram lay there. And Ahaziah king of Judah 17 had come down to see Joram. And the watchman stood on the tower in Jizreel, and saw Jehu's company as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it 18 peace? So there went one on horseback to meet him; and he said, Thus saith the king: Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told saying, The messenger came to them, and he does not return.
19 And he sent out a second on horseback; and he came to them and said, Thus saith the king: Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast 20 thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told saying, He came to them, and does not return. And the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously.
21 Then Joram said, Make ready! And they made ready his chariot. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot; and they went out to meet Jehu, and met him in the plot of Naboth the 22 Jizreelite. And it came to pass when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he said, What peace, so long as the fornications of thy mother Jezebel and her sorceries are so many?
23 Then Joram turned his hand, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, Treach-24 ery, Ahaziah! And Jehu took his bow in his hand,[k] and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out through his heart; and he sank down in his chariot.
25 And he said to Bidkar his captain, Take him up [and] cast him in the plot of the field of Naboth the Jizreelite. For remember how, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, that Jeho-

[h] As 1 Kings xiv. 10: see on Deut. xxxii. 36. [i] Or 'portion,' 'allotment;' and so vers. 21, 36, 37: same word in vers. 25, 26. [k] Lit. 'filled his hand with the bow.'

vah laid this burden upon him:
26 Certainly I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith [l] Jehovah; and I will requite thee in this plot, saith [l] Jehovah. And now, take [and] cast him into the plot, according to the word of Jehovah.
27 When Ahaziah king of Judah saw [that], he fled by the way of the garden-house. And Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in his chariot. It was on the ascent of Gur, which is by Jibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, 28 and died there. And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulchre with his fathers in the 29 city of David. (And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab had Ahaziah begun to reign over Judah.)
30 And Jehu came to Jizreel; and Jezebel heard of it, and she put paint to her eyes, and decked her head, and looked out at the win-31 dow. And when Jehu came in at the gate, she said, Is it peace, Zimri,[m] murderer of his master?
32 And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And two or three chamberlains[n] looked out to him.
33 And he said, Throw her down! And they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses; and 34 he trampled on her. And he came in, and ate and drank; and he said, Go, look, I pray you, after this cursed [woman], and bury her; for she is a king's daughter.
35 And they went to bury her but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the 36 palms of the hands. And they came back and told him. And he said, This is the word of Jehovah, which he spoke through his servant Elijah the Tishbite saying, In the plot of Jizreel shall dogs 37 eat the flesh of Jezebel; and the carcase of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the open field in the plot of Jizreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

10 Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters,[o] and sent to Samaria, to the princes of Jizreel, to the elders, and to Ahab's guardians,[p] saying,
2 And now, when this letter comes to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots, and horses, and a forti-3 fied city, and armour, look out the best and worthiest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's 4 house. And they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, the two kings stood not before him; and 5 how shall we stand? And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, and the elders and the guardians sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any one king; 6 do what is good in thy sight. And he wrote a letter the second time to them saying, If ye are mine, and will hearken to my voice, take the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jizreel to-morrow at this time. Now the king's sons, seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who 7 brought them up. And it came to pass when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slaughtered seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent 8 them to him to Jizreel. And a messenger came and told him saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay them in two heaps at the entrance 9 of the gate until the morning. And it came to pass in the morning that he went out; and he stood, and said to all the people, Ye are righteous! behold, I conspired against my master and killed him;
10 but who smote all these? Know now that nothing shall fall to the earth of the word of Jehovah, which Jehovah spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for Jehovah has done that which he said 11 through his servant Elijah. And Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jizreel, and all his great men, and his acquaintances, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.
12 And he rose up and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shepherds' meeting-13 place[q] on the way, Jehu found the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they said, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and have come down to salute the children of the king, and the children of the queen.[r] 14 And he said, Take them alive!

And they took them alive, and slew them at the well of the meeting-place, forty-two men; and he left not one of them remaining.
15 And he departed thence, and found Jehonadab the son of Rechab [coming] to meet him; and he greeted [s] him, and said to him, Is thy heart right, as my heart is with thy heart? And Jehonadab said, It is.—If it be, give [me] thy hand.—And he gave [him] his hand; and [Jehu] took him up to 16 him into the chariot, and said, Come with me, and see my zeal for Jehovah. So they made him ride 17 in his chariot. And he came to Samaria, and smote all that remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Jehovah which he spoke to Elijah.
18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little: Jehu 19 will serve him much. And now call me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests: let none be wanting; for I have a great sacrifice [to do] to Baal; whoever shall be wanting shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, in order that he might bring destruction upon the servants of 20 Baal. And Jehu said, Hallow a solemn assembly for Baal. And 21 they proclaimed [it]. And Jehu sent into all Israel; and all the servants of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not: and they entered into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to the 22 other. And he said to him that was over the wardrobe, Bring forth vestments for all the servants of Baal. And he brought them 23 forth vestments. And Jehu and Jehonadab the son of Rechab entered into the house of Baal, and said to the servants of Baal, Search, and see that there be here with you none of the servants of Jehovah, but the servants of Baal 24 only. And they entered in to offer sacrifices and burnt-offerings. Now Jehu appointed eighty men without, and said, He that allows any of the men to escape that I have brought into your hands, his life 25 shall be for the life of him. And it came to pass as soon as they had ended offering up the burnt-offering, that Jehu said to the couriers and to the captains, Go in, slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the couriers and the captains cast [them] there. And they went to the city [t] of the 26 house of Baal, and brought forth the columns [u] out of the house of 27 Baal, and burned them; and they broke down the column [u] of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a draught-house to this day.
28 Thus Jehu extirpated Baal out 29 of Israel. Only, the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, from them Jehu departed not: [from] the golden calves that were in Bethel and 30 that were in Dan. And Jehovah said to Jehu, Because thou hast executed well that which is right in my sight, [and] hast done unto the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, thy children of the fourth [generation] shall sit on the throne of Israel.
31 But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Jehovah the God of Israel with all his heart; he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin.
32 In those days Jehovah began to cut Israel short; and Hazael 33 smote them in all the borders of Israel; from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, both Gilead and Bashan.
34 And the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings 35 of Israel? And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Jehoahaz his son 36 reigned in his stead. Now the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.

11 And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose up and destroyed 2 all the royal seed. But Jehoshcba, the daughter of king Joram, the sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, [and hid] him and his nurse in the bed-chamber; and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was 3 not slain. And he was with her hid in the house of Jehovah six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.

4 And in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains of the hundreds of the bodyguard and the couriers, and brought them to him into the house of Jehovah, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of Jehovah, and shewed them the king's 5 son. And he commanded them saying, This is the thing which ye shall do: a third part of you, that come in on the sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the king's 6 house; and a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the couriers; and ye shall keep the watch of the house for a defence.
7 And the two parts of you, all those that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of Jehovah about the king.
8 And ye shall encompass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he that comes within the ranks shall be put to death; and ye shall be with the king when he goes out and when he comes in.
9 And the captains of the hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took every man his men, those that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go forth on the sabbath, and they 10 came to Jehoiada the priest. And the priest gave to the captains of the hundreds king David's spears and shields which were in the 11 house of Jehovah. And the couriers stood by the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, toward the altar and the 12 house. And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and [gave him] the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, Long live the king!
13 And Athaliah heard the noise of the couriers [and] of the people; and she came to the people into 14 the house of Jehovah. And she looked, and behold, the king stood on the dais, according to the custom, and the princes and the trumpeters were by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets. And Athaliah rent her garments and cried, Conspiracy! Conspiracy!
15 And Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds that were set over the host, and said to them, Lead her forth without the ranks; and whosoever follows her, slay with the sword; for the priest said, Let her not be put to death in the house of Jeho-16 vah. And they made way for her, and she went by the way by which the horses entered the king's house, and there was she put to death.
17 And Jehoiada made a covenant between Jehovah and the king and the people, that they should be the people of Jehovah; and between the king and the people.
18 Then all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and broke it down: his altars and his images they broke in pieces completely, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers 19 over the house of Jehovah. And he took the captains of the hundreds, and the bodyguard, and the couriers, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of Jehovah, and came by the way through the gate of the couriers into the king's house. And he sat upon the 20 throne of the kings. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet; and they had slain Athaliah with the sword [beside] the king's house.

12 Jehoash [v] was seven years old [w] when he began to reign. In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Zibiah of 2 Beersheba. And Jehoash did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, all the days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed 3 him. Only, the high places were not removed: the people still sacrificed and burned incense on 4 the high places. And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the hallowed things that is brought into the house of Jehovah, the money of every one that passes [the account], the money at which every man is valued, [and] all the money that comes into any man's heart to bring into the house of 5 Jehovah, let the priests take it, every man of his acquaintance; and let them repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach is found.

[v] Joash, xi. 2. [w] Chap. 12 commences here in the A.V.

6 And it was [so that] in the twenty-third year of king Jehoash, the priests had not repaired the 7 breaches of the house. Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the priests, and said to them, Why have ye not repaired the breaches of the house? And now receive no money of your acquaintances, but give it for the 8 breaches of the house. And the priests consented to receive no money of the people, and that they should only repair the breaches 9 of the house. And Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid, and set it beside the altar on the right side as one comes into the house of Jehovah; and the priests that kept the door put into it all the money brought 10 into the house of Jehovah. And it came to pass when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe[x] and the high priest came up, and they tied up and counted the money that was found in the 11 house of Jehovah. And they gave the money, weighed out into the hands of them that did the work, who were appointed over the house of Jehovah; and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders that wrought upon the house of Jeho-12 vah, and to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the breaches of the house of Jehovah, and for all that had to be laid out on the 13 house for repairs. However there were not made for the house of Jehovah basons of silver, knives, bowls, trumpets, nor any utensil of gold or utensil of silver, of the money that was brought [into] the 14 house of Jehovah; but they gave that to the workmen, and repaired 15 the house of Jehovah with it. And they did not reckon with the men into whose hand they gave the money to be bestowed on workmen; for they dealt faithfully.
16 The money of trespass-offerings and the money of sin-offerings was not brought into the house of Jehovah: it was for the priests.
17 Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it. And Hazael set his face 18 to go up against Jerusalem. And Jehoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold found in the treasures of the house of Jehovah and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria; and he went away from Jerusalem.
19 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of 20 Judah? And his servants rose up and made a conspiracy, and smote Joash in the house of Millo,[y] at the 21 descent of Silla. And Jozachar the son of Shimeath and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, smote him and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

13 In the three-and-twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, for seventeen 2 years. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he de-3 parted not from them. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael, all 4 those days. (And Jehoahaz besought Jehovah, and Jehovah hearkened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, because the 5 king of Syria oppressed them. And Jehovah gave Israel a saviour, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel dwelt in their 6 tents as before. Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin: they walked therein; and there remained also the 7 Asherah in Samaria.) For he had left of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing.
8 And the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of 9 the kings of Israel? And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria; and Joash his son reigned in his stead.
10 In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Je-hoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, for 11 sixteen years. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah; he departed not from any of the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin: he walked therein.

12 And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
13 And Joash slept with his fathers, and Jeroboam sat upon his throne; and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
14 And Elisha fell sick of his sickness in which he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, My father, my father! the chariot of Israel and the horsemen 15 thereof! And Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows. And he 16 took a bow and arrows. And he said to the king of Israel, Put thy hand upon the bow. And he put his hand [upon it]; and Elisha put his hands upon the king's 17 hands, and said, Open the window eastward. And he opened [it]. And Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, An arrow of Jehovah's deliverance, even an arrow of deliverance from the Syrians; and thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou hast 18 consumed [them]. And he said, Take the arrows. And he took [them]. And he said to the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and stayed.
19 And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldest have smitten five or six times; then wouldest thou have smitten the Syrians till thou hadst consumed [them]; whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.
20 And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the com-21 ing in of the year. And it came to pass as they were burying a man, that behold, they saw the band, and they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elisha; and the man went [down], and touched the bones of Elisha, and he revived, and stood upon his feet.
22 And Hazael king of Syria oppressed Israel all the days of Je-23 hoahaz. And Jehovah was gracious to them, and had compassion on them, and had respect to them, because of his covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and he would not destroy them, neither did he cast them from his presence 24 up to that time. And Hazael king of Syria died, and Ben-Hadad his 25 son reigned in his stead. And Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz took again out of the hand of Ben-Hadad the son of Hazael the cities which he had taken out of the hand of Jehoahaz his father in the war. Three times did Joash beat him, and recovered the cities of Israel.

14 In the second year of Joash son of Jehoahaz, king of Israel, began Amaziah the son of Joash, 2 king of Judah, to reign. He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Je-3 hoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, yet not like David his father: he did according to all that Joash his father had done.
4 Only, the high places were not removed: the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the 5 high places. And it came to pass when the kingdom was established in his hand, that he slew his servants who had smitten the king 6 his father. But the children of those that smote [him] he did not put to death, according to that which is written in the book of the law of Moses, wherein Jehovah commanded saying, The fathers shall not be put to death for the children, neither shall the children be put to death for the fathers; but every man shall be put to 7 death for his own sin. He smote of Edom in the valley of salt ten thousand, and took Sela in the war, and called the name of it Joktheel to this day.
8 Then Amaziah sent messengers to Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz, son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in 9 the face. And Jehoash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thorn-bush that is in Lebanon sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son as wife; and there passed by the wild beast that is in Lebanon, and 10 trode down the thorn-bush. Thou hast indeed smitten Edom, and thy heart has lifted thee up: boast thyself, and abide at home; for why shouldest thou contend with misfortune, that thou shouldest fall, thou, and Judah with thee?
11 But Amaziah would not hear.

And Jehoash king of Israel went up; and they looked one another in the face, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which 12 is in Judah. And Judah was routed before Israel; and they 13 fled every man to his tent. And Jehoash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Jehoash son of Ahaziah, at Beth-shemesh, and came to Jerusalem, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner-gate, four hundred 14 cubits. And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of Jehovah, and in the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

15 And the rest of the acts of Jehoash, what he did, and his might, and how he fought with Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
16 And Jehoash slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel; and Jeroboam his son reigned in his stead.

17 And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah lived after the death of Jehoash son of Jehoahaz, king 18 of Israel, fifteen years. And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of 19 Judah? And they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish; and they sent after him to Lachish, and 20 slew him there. And they brought him on horses, and he was buried at Jerusalem with his fathers, in the city of David.

21 And all the people of Judah took Azariah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king in-22 stead of his father Amaziah. It was he that built Elath, and restored it to Judah, after the king slept with his fathers.

23 In the fifteenth year of Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel, began to reign in Samaria, 24 for forty-one years. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah: he departed not from any of the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who 25 made Israel to sin. He restored the border of Israel from the entrance of Hamath as far as the sea of the plain,[z] according to the word of Jehovah the God of Israel, which he had spoken through his servant Jonah the prophet, the son of Amittai, who was of Gath-26 Hepher. For Jehovah saw that the affliction of Israel was very bitter; and that there was not any shut up, nor any left,[a] nor any 27 helper for Israel. And Jehovah had not said that he would blot out the name of Israel from under the heavens; and he saved them by the hand of Jeroboam the son of Joash.

28 And the rest of the acts of Jeroboam, and all that he did, and his might, how he warred, and how he recovered for Israel that [which had belonged] to Judah in Damascus and in Hamath, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of 29 Israel? And Jeroboam slept with his fathers, with the kings of Israel; and Zechariah his son reigned in his stead.

15 In the twenty-seventh year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Azariah son of Amaziah, king of Judah, 2 began to reign. He was sixteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name 3 was Jecholiah of Jerusalem. And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father Amaziah had done.
4 Only, the high places were not removed: the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the 5 high places. And Jehovah smote the king, so that he was a leper to the day of his death, and dwelt in a separate house.[b] And Jotham the king's son was over the house, judging the people of the land.

6 And the rest of the acts of Azariah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of 7 Judah? And Azariah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David; and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

8 In the thirty-eighth year of Azariah king of Judah, Zechariah the son of Jeroboam reigned over Israel in Samaria, six months.
9 And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according as his fathers had done: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.
10 And Shallum the son of Jabesh conspired against him, and smote him before the people, and slew 11 him, and reigned in his stead. And the rest of the acts of Zechariah, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings 12 of Israel. This was the word of Jehovah which he spoke to Jehu saying, Thy sons shall sit upon the throne of Israel unto the fourth [generation]. And so it came to pass.

13 Shallum the son of Jabesh began to reign in the thirty-ninth year of Uzziah king of Judah; and he reigned a full month in Samaria.
14 And Menahem the son of Gadi went up from Tirzah, and came to Samaria, and smote Shallum the son of Jabesh in Samaria, and slew him, and reigned in his stead.
15 And the rest of the acts of Shallum, and his conspiracy which he made, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
16 Then Menahem smote Tiphsah, and all that were therein, and its territory from Tirzah, because they did not open [to him]; and he smote [it]: all the women in it that were with child he ripped up.
17 In the thirty-ninth year of Aza-riah king of Judah, Menahem the son of Gadi began to reign over Israel, for ten years, in Samaria.
18 And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah: he departed not, all his days, from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel 19 to sin. Pul the king of Assyria came against the land; and Menahem gave Pul a thousand talents of silver, that his hand might be with him to establish the 20 kingdom in his hand. And Mena-hem exacted the money of Israel, of all those who were wealthy, of each man fifty shekels of silver, to give to the king of Assyria.
And the king of Assyria turned back, and stayed not there in the 21 land. And the rest of the acts of Menahem, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of 22 Israel? And Menahem slept with his fathers; and Pekahiah his son reigned in his stead.
23 In the fiftieth year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekahiah the son of Menahem began to reign over Israel in Samaria, for two years.
24 And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.
25 And Pekah the son of Remaliah, his captain, conspired against him, and smote him in Samaria, in the fortress of the king's house, with Argob and Arieh, and with him fifty men of the Gileadites; and he slew him, and reigned in his 26 stead. And the rest of the acts of Pekahiah, and all that he did,
behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
27 In the fifty-second year of Azariah king of Judah, Pekah the son of Remaliah began to reign over Israel in Samaria, for twenty 28 years. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah: he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin.
29 In the days of Pekah king of Israel, Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria came and took Ijon, and Abel-Beth-Maachah, and Janoah, and Kedesh, and Hazor, and Gilead, and Galilee, all the land of Naph-tali, and carried them captive to 30 Assyria. And Hoshea the son of Elah made a conspiracy against Pekah the son of Remaliah, and smote him and slew him; and he reigned in his stead, in the twentieth year of Jotham the son 31 of Uzziah. And the rest of the acts of Pekah, and all that he did, behold, they are written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel.
32 In the second year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, Jotham the son of Uzziah, king of 33 Judah, began to reign. He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha, 34 the daughter of Zadok. And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.
35 Only, the high places were not removed: the people still sacrificed and burned incense on the high places. It was he who built the upper gate of the house of 36 Jehovah. And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings 37 of Judah? In those days Jehovah began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria and Pekah the 38 son of Remaliah. And Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father; and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

16 In the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham, king of 2 Judah, began to reign. Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not what was right in the sight of Jehovah his God, like David his 3 father, but walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and even caused his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed from before the chil-

4 dren of Israel. And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.
5 Then Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah son of Remaliah, the king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to battle; and they besieged Ahaz, but were unable to 6 conquer him. At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered Elath to Syria, and drove the Jews from Elath; and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there to this day.
7 And Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who have risen up against 8 me. And Ahaz took the silver and the gold that was found in the house of Jehovah, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it [as] a present to the king 9 of Assyria. And the king of Assyria hearkened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried it captive to Kir, and put Rezin to death.
10 And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-Pileser king of Assyria; and he saw the altar that was at Damascus, and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the form of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all its workman-11 ship. And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus; thus Urijah the priest made [it], against king Ahaz came from Da-12 mascus. And when the king came from Damascus, the king saw the altar; and the king approached to the altar and offered upon it.
13 And he burned [c] his burnt-offering and his oblation, and poured out his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offering 14 upon the altar. And the brazen altar which was before Jehovah, he brought forward from the fore-front of the house, from between [his] altar and the house of Jehovah, and put it by the side of 15 [his] altar on the north. And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest saying, Upon the great altar burn [c] the morning burnt-offering, and the evening oblation, and the king's burnt-offering, and his oblation, and the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their oblation, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offerings, and all the blood of the sacrifices; and the brazen altar shall be for 16 me to inquire [by].[d] And Urijah the priest did according to all that Ahaz had commanded.
17 And king Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the lavers from off them; and took down the sea from off the brazen oxen that were under it, and put 18 it upon a stone pavement. And the covered way of the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside, he turned from the house of Jehovah on account of the king of Assyria.
19 And the rest of the acts of Ahaz, what he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the 20 kings of Judah? And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Hezekiah [e] his son reigned in his stead.

17 In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah, Hoshea the son of Elah began to reign in Samaria 2 over Israel, for nine years. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, but not as the kings of Israel that 3 had been before him. Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria, and Hoshea became his servant, and tendered him pre-4 sents. But the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and sent up no present to the king of Assyria as [he had done] from year to year. And the king of Assyria shut him up and 5 bound him in prison. And the king of Assyria overran the whole land, and went up against Samaria, 6 and besieged it three years. In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and by the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.

7 And so it was, because the children of Israel had sinned against Jehovah their God, who had brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had 8 feared other gods; and they walked in the statutes of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they 9 had made. And the children of Israel did secretly against Jehovah their God things that were not right; and they built them high places in all their cities, from the watchmen's tower to the fortified 10 city. And they set them up columns[f] and Asherahs on every high hill and under every green 11 tree; and there they burned incense on all the high places, as did the nations that Jehovah had carried away from before them, and they wrought wicked things
12 to provoke Jehovah to anger; and they served idols, as to which Jehovah had said to them, Ye 13 shall not do this thing. And Jehovah testified against Israel and against Judah, by all the prophets, all the seers, saying, Turn from your evil ways, and keep my commandments, my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you through my servants 14 the prophets. But they would not hear, and hardened their necks, like to the neck of their fathers, who did not believe in Jehovah 15 their God. And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant which he had made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he had testified unto them; and they followed vanity and became vain,[g] and [went] after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom Jehovah had charged them that they should not do like 16 them. And they forsook all the commandments of Jehovah their God, and made them molten images, two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshipped all the host of the heavens, and served 17 Baal; and they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke him to 18 anger. Therefore Jehovah was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there remained but the tribe of Judah only.

19 Also Judah kept not the commandments of Jehovah their God, but walked in the statutes of 20 Israel which they had made. And Jehovah rejected all the seed of Israel; and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them 21 out of his sight. For Israel had rent [the kingdom] from[h] the house of David; and they had made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king; and Jeroboam violently turned Israel from following Jehovah, and made them sin a great 22 sin. And the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they did not depart 23 from them: until Jehovah had removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said through all his servants the prophets, and Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria, unto this day.
24 And the king of Assyria brought [people] from Babylon,[i] and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and made them dwell in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in its cities.

25 And so it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not Jehovah; and Jehovah sent lions among them, which 26 killed [some] of them. And they spoke to the king of Assyria saying, The nations that thou hast removed and made to dwell in the cities of Samaria know not the manner of the god of the land; therefore he has sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner 27 of the god of the land. And the king of Assyria commanded saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye have brought away from thence; and let them go and abide there, and let him teach them the manner of the god 28 of the land. Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and abode in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear Jehovah.
29 And every nation made gods of [f] Or 'statues:' cf. iii. 2. [g] Or 'vanity.' [h] Or 'he rent Israel from.' [i] Heb. 'Babel:' cf. Gen. x. 10.

their own, and put them in the houses of the high places that the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they 30 dwelt. And the people of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the people of Cuth [i] made Nergal, and the people of Hamath made 31 Ashima, and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burned their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharvaim.
32 So they feared Jehovah, and made to themselves from all classes [k] of them priests of the high places, who offered [sacrifices] for them in the houses of the high 33 places. They feared Jehovah, and served their own gods after the manner of the nations, whence 34 they had been carried away. To this day they do after their former customs: they fear not Jehovah, neither do they after their statutes or after their ordinances, nor after the law and commandment that Jehovah commanded the sons of Jacob, whom he named Israel.
35 And Jehovah had made a covenant with them, and charged them saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow down yourselves to [l] them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice 36 to them; but Jehovah alone, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and a stretched-out arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and 37 to him shall ye do sacrifice. And the statutes and the ordinances and the law, and the commandment which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.
38 And ye shall not forget the covenant that I have made with you, neither shall ye fear other gods; 39 but ye shall fear Jehovah your God, and he shall deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.
40 And they did not hearken, but did after their former customs.
41 And these nations feared Jehovah, and served their graven images, both their children and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they, unto this day.

18 And it came to pass in the third year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, that Hezekiah the son of Ahaz, king of Judah, 2 began to reign. He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abi, daughter 3 of Zechariah. And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that David his 4 father had done. He removed the high places, and broke the columns, [m] and cut down the Asherahs, and broke in pieces the serpent of brass that Moses had made; for to those days the children of Israel burned incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan. [n]
5 He trusted in Jehovah the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor [among any] that were 6 before him. And he clave to Jehovah, and did not turn aside from following him, but kept his commandments, which Jehovah com-7 manded Moses. And Jehovah was with him; he prospered [o] whithersoever he went forth. And he rebelled against the king of Assyria, 8 and served him not. He smote the Philistines unto Gazah and its borders, from the watchmen's tower to the fortified city.
9 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Hezekiah, which was the seventh year of Hoshea the son of Elah, king of Israel, [that] Shalmaneser king of Assyria came up against Samaria and besieged 10 it. And at the end of three years they took it; in the sixth year of Hezekiah, that is, the ninth year of Hoshea king of Israel, Samaria 11 was taken. And the king of Assyria carried away Israel to Assyria, and settled them in Halah and by the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the 12 Medes; because they hearkened not to the voice of Jehovah their God, but transgressed his covenant, all that Moses the servant of Jehovah commanded; and they would not hear nor do it.
13 [p] And in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took 14 them. And Hezekiah king of Judah sent to the king of Assyria to Lachish, saying, I have sinned; retire from me: I will bear what thou layest upon me. And the king of Assyria laid upon Hezekiah king of Judah three hundred talents of silver and thirty talents 15 of gold. And Hezekiah gave all the silver that was found in the house of Jehovah, and in the 16 treasures of the king's house. At that time Hezekiah stripped the doors of the temple of Jehovah, and the posts that Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave 17 them to the king of Assyria. And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris and Rab-shakeh[q] from Lachish, with a strong force, against king Hezekiah, to Jerusalem. And they went up and came to Jerusalem. And when they were come up, they came and stood by the aqueduct of the upper pool, which is on the highway of 18 the fuller's field. And they called to the king. Then came forth to them Eliakim the son of Hilkijah, who was over the household, and Shebnah the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the chronicler.

19 And Rab-shakeh said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria: What confidence is this wherein 20 thou trustest? Thou sayest—but it is a word of the lips—There is counsel and strength for war. Now on whom dost thou rely, that thou 21 hast revolted against me? Now behold, thou reliest upon the staff of that broken reed, upon Egypt, on which if a man lean, it goes into his hand and pierces it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that 22 rely upon him. And if ye say to me, We rely upon Jehovah our God: is it not he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has removed, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before 23 this altar in Jerusalem? And now, engage, I pray thee, with my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou canst set the riders 24 upon them. How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants? And thou reliest upon Egypt for chariots and for horse-25 men! Am I now come up without Jehovah against this place to destroy it? Jehovah said to me, Go up against this land and destroy it.
26 And Eliakim the son of Hilkijah, and Shebnah and Joah said to Rab-shakeh, Speak, we pray thee, to thy servants in Syriac,[r] for we understand it, and talk not with us in the Jewish [language] in the ears of the people that are on 27 the wall. And Rab-shakeh said to them, Is it to thy master and to thee that my master sent me to speak these words? Is it not to the men that sit on the wall, that they may eat their own dung and drink their own urine with you?
28 And Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jewish [language], and spoke and said, Hear the word of the great king, 29 the king of Assyria! Thus says the king: Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of the [king's] 30 hand. Neither let Hezekiah make you rely upon Jehovah, saying, Jehovah will certainly deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of 31 Assyria. Hearken not to Hezekiah; for thus says the king of Assyria: Make peace[s] with me, and come out to me; and eat every one of his vine and every one of his fig-tree, and drink every one the waters of his own cistern;[t] 32 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive-trees and of honey, that ye may live and not die; and hearken not to Hezekiah, when[u] he persuades you, saying, Jehovah will 33 deliver us. Have any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king 34 of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath and of Arpad? Where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivvah? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
35 Which are they among all the gods of the countries, who have delivered their country out of my hand, that Jehovah should deliver 36 Jerusalem out of my hand? But the people were silent and answered him not a word; for the king's command was, saying, Answer him not.
37 And Eliakim the son of Hilkijah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph, the chronicler, came to Hezekiah with their garments rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

19 And it came to pass when king Hezekiah heard [it], that he rent his garments, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went 2 into the house of Jehovah. And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz.

3 And they said to him, Thus says Hezekiah: This day is a day of trouble and of rebuke and of reviling;[v] for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength 4 to bring forth. It may be Jehovah thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to reproach the living God; and will rebuke the words which Jehovah thy God has heard. Therefore lift up a prayer for the remnant that is left.
5 And the servants of king Heze-6 kiah came to Isaiah. And Isaiah said to them, Thus shall ye say to your master: Thus saith Jehovah: Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the servants[w] of the king of 7 Assyria have blasphemed me. Behold, I will put a spirit into him, and he shall hear tidings, and shall return to his own land; and I will make him to fall by the sword in his own land.
8 And Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard 9 that he had departed from Lachish. And he heard say of Tirhakah king of Ethiopia,[x] Behold, he has come forth to make war with thee. And he sent messengers again to Heze-10 kiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah saying: Let not thy God, upon whom thou reliest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.
11 Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all countries, destroying them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered?
12 Have the gods of the nations which my fathers have destroyed delivered them: Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Thelas-13 sar? Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?
14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up into the house of Jehovah, and spread it before 15 Jehovah. And Hezekiah prayed before Jehovah and said, Jehovah, God of Israel, who sittest [between] the cherubim, thou, the Same,[y] thou alone art the God of all the kingdoms of the earth: thou hast made the heavens and the earth.
16 Incline thine ear, Jehovah, and hear; open, Jehovah, thine eyes, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, who hath sent him 17 to reproach the living God. Of a truth, Jehovah, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations 18 and their lands, and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore have they destroyed 19 them. And now, Jehovah our God, I beseech thee, save us out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou, Jehovah, art God, thou only.
20 And Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: That which thou hast prayed to me concerning Sennacherib king of 21 Assyria I have heard. This is the word that Jehovah has spoken against him:

The virgin-daughter[a] of Zion despiseth thee, laugheth thee to scorn;
The daughter of Jerusalem shak-eth her head at thee.
22 Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted the voice?
Against the Holy one of Israel hast thou lifted up thine eyes on high.
23 By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots have I come up To the height of the mountain, to the recesses of Lebanon, And I will cut down its tall cedars, the choice of its cypresses;
And I will enter into its furthest lodging-place, [into] the forest of its fruitful field.[b] 24 I have digged, and have drunk strange waters,
And with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the streams of Matsor.[c]

[v] Or 'rejection.' [w] Heb. 'young men.' [x] Heb. Cush. [y] Compare 2 Sam. vii. 28. [z] Or 'which he hath sent.' [a] i.e., 'unconquered:' said of Sidon, Isa. xxiii. 12; Babylon, Isa. xlvii. 1; Egypt, Jer. xlvi. 11. See Delitzsch on Isaiah. [b] Or 'forest of his Carmel.' [c] i.e., 'Egypt;' the term 'Matsor' was applied originally to the fortified part of the country in the north-east.

25 Hast thou not heard long ago that I have done it?
And that from ancient days I formed [d] it?
Now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest lay waste fortified cities [into] ruinous heaps.
26 And their inhabitants were powerless,
They were dismayed and put to shame;
They were [as] the growing grass, and [as] the green herb, [As] the grass on the house-tops, and grain blighted before it be grown up.
27 But I know thine abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in,
And thy raging against me.
28 Because thy raging against me and thine arrogance is come up into mine ears, I will put my ring in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, And I will make thee go back by the way by which thou earnest.
29 And this [shall be] the sign unto thee: They shall eat this year such as groweth of itself, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; but in the third year sow ye and reap, and plant vineyards and eat the fruit 30 thereof. And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, 31 and bear fruit upward; for out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of mount Zion they that escape: the zeal of Jehovah [of hosts [e]] shall do this.
32 Therefore thus saith Jehovah concerning the king of Assyria:
He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there; nor come before it with shield, nor 33 cast a bank against it. By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and shall not come 34 into this city, saith [f] Jehovah. And I will defend this city, to save it, for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake.
35 And it came to pass that night, that an angel of Jehovah went forth, and smote in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty-five thousand. And when they arose early in the morning, behold, 36 they were all dead bodies. And Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, 37 and abode at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer [his sons [g]] smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

20 In those days Hezekiah was sick unto death. And the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz came to him and said to him, Thus saith Jehovah: Set thy house in order; for thou shalt die, and not live.
2 And he turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Jehovah saying, 3 Ah! Jehovah, remember, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done what is good in thy sight. And Heze-4 kiah wept much. And it came to pass before Isaiah had gone out into the middle city [h] that the word of Jehovah came to him 5 saying, Return, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of David thy father: I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears; behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up to the 6 house of Jehovah; and I will add to thy days fifteen years; and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria, and I will defend this city for mine own sake, and for my servant 7 David's sake. And Isaiah said, Take a cake of figs. And they took and laid it on the boil, and he recovered.
8 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, What [shall be] the sign that Jehovah will heal me, and that I shall go up into the house of Jehovah 9 the third day? And Isaiah said, This [shall be] the sign to thee from Jehovah, that [i] Jehovah will do the thing that he hath spoken:
shall the shadow go forward ten degrees, or go back ten degrees?
10 And Hezekiah said, It is a light thing for the shadow to go down ten degrees: no, but let the shadow 11 return backward ten degrees. And Isaiah the prophet cried to Jehovah, and he brought the shadow back on the degrees by which it had gone down on the dial [k] of Ahaz, ten degrees backward.
12 At that time Berodach-Baladan, the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent a letter and a present to Hezekiah, for he had heard that 13 Hezekiah had been sick. And Hezekiah hearkened to them, and shewed them all his treasure-house, the silver and the gold, and the spices and the fine oil,[l] and all the house of his armour, and all that was found among his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah did not shew them.

14 Then came the prophet Isaiah to king Hezekiah and said to him, What said these men? and from whence came they to thee? And Hezekiah said, They came from 15 a far country, from Babylon. And he said, What have they seen in thy house? And Hezekiah said, All that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewn 16 them. And Isaiah said to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Jehovah:
17 Behold, days come that all that is in thy house, and what thy fathers have laid up until this day, shall be carried to Babylon; nothing shall be left, saith Jehovah.
18 And of thy sons that shall issue from thee, whom thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be chamberlains[m] in the palace of the king of Babylon.
19 And Hezekiah said to Isaiah, Good is the word of Jehovah which thou hast spoken. And he said, Is it not so? if only there shall be peace and truth in my days!
20 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and all his might, and how he made the pool and the aqueduct, and brought the water into the city, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings 21 of Judah? And Hezekiah slept with his fathers; and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

21 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name 2 was Hephzibah.[n] And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed from 3 before the children of Israel. And he built again the high places that Hezekiah his father had destroyed; and he reared up altars to Baal and made an Asherah, as did Ahab king of Israel; and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served 4 them. And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, of which Jehovah had said, In Jerusalem will I 5 put my name. And he built altars to all the host of heaven in both courts of the house of Jehovah.
6 And he caused his son to pass through the fire, and used magic and divination, and appointed necromancers and soothsayers: he wrought evil beyond measure in the sight of Jehovah, to provoke 7 him to anger. And he set the graven image of the Asherah that he had made, in the house of which Jehovah had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for 8 ever; neither will I any more cause the foot of Israel to wander away from the land that I gave their fathers; if they will only take heed to do according to all that I have commanded them, and according to all the law that my servant Moses commanded them.
9 But they would not hearken, and Manasseh led them astray to do more evil than the nations that Jehovah had destroyed from before the children of Israel.
10 And Jehovah spoke by his ser-11 vants the prophets saying, Because Manasseh king of Judah hath done these abominations, and hath done wickedly above all that the Amorites did, who were before him, and hath made Judah also 12 to sin with his idols; therefore thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring evil upon Jerusalem and Judah, that whosoever heareth of it, both his 13 ears shall tingle. And I will stretch over Jerusalem the line of Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Ahab, and I will wipe Jerusalem as one wipeth a pan, wiping it and 14 turning it upside down. And I will forsake the remnant of mine inheritance, and deliver them into the hand of their enemies; and they shall become a prey and a 15 spoil to all their enemies; because they have done evil in my sight, and have provoked me to anger, since the day their fathers came forth out of Egypt even to this day.
16 And Manasseh shed very much innocent blood, till he had filled Jerusalem [with it] from one end to another, beside his sin with which he made Judah to sin, in doing evil in the sight of Jehovah.
17 And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and all that he did, and his sin which he sinned, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

18 And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his own house, in the garden of Uzza; and Amon his son reigned in his stead.
19 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Meshullemeth, daughter of Haruz of 20 Jotbah. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, as Manasseh his 21 father had done; and he walked in all the way that his father had walked in, and served the idols that his father had served, and 22 worshipped them, and he forsook Jehovah the God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of 23 Jehovah. And the servants of Amon conspired against him, and slew the king in his own house.
24 But the people of the land smote all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.
25 And the rest of the acts of Amon, what he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of 26 the kings of Judah? And he was buried in his sepulchre in the garden of Uzza; and Josiah his son reigned in his stead.

22 Josiah[o] was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jedidah, daughter of Adaiah
2 of Bozcath. And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in all the way of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand nor to the left.
3 And it came to pass in the eighteenth year of king Josiah, [that] the king sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, son of Meshullam, the scribe, to the house of Jehovah, 4 saying, Go up to Hilkiah the high priest, that he may sum up the money which is brought into the house of Jehovah, which the door-
5 keepers have gathered of the people, and let them give it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of Jehovah; and let them give it to those that do the work in the house of Jehovah, to repair 6 the breaches of the house, to the carpenters and the builders and the masons, and to buy timber and hewn stone to repair the 7 house. But no reckoning was made with them of the money that was given into their hand, because they dealt faithfully.
8 And Hilkiah the high priest said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Jehovah. And Hilkiah gave the book to Shaphan, and 9 he read it. And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again and said, Thy servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight 10 of the house of Jehovah. And Shaphan the scribe informed the king saying, Hilkiah the priest has given me a book. And Sha-11 phan read it before the king. And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the book of the law, that he rent his garments.
12 And the king commanded Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Achbor the son of Micaiah,[p] and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's,
13 saying, Go, inquire of Jehovah for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book which is found; for great is the wrath of Jehovah that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened to the words of this book, to do according to all that is written [there] for 14 us. And Hilkiah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe: now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second quarter [of the town]; and they spoke with her.
15 And she said to them, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: Tell the man that sent you to me, 16 Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I will bring evil upon this place and upon the inhabitants thereof, all the words of the book that the 17 king of Judah hath read. Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my fury is kindled against this place, and shall not be 18 quenched. But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, thus shall ye say to him: Thus saith Jehovah the God of

Israel touching the words which 19 thou hast heard: Because thy heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before Jehovah, when thou heardest what I spoke against this place and against the inhabitants thereof, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and didst rend thy garments and weep before me, I also have heard [thee], saith[q] Jehovah.
20 Therefore, behold, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.

23 And the king sent, and they gathered to him all the elders 2 of Judah and of Jerusalem. And the king went up into the house of Jehovah, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great, and he read[r] in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which had been found in the house of 3 Jehovah. And the king stood on the dais and made a covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all [his] heart and with all [his] soul, to establish the words of this covenant that are written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.
4 And the king commanded Hilkijah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the doorkeepers, to bring forth out of the temple of Jehovah all the vessels that had been made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the host of the heavens; and he burned them outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried 5 the ashes of them to Bethel. And he abolished the idolatrous priests[s] whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense on the high places in the cities of Judah and the environs of Jerusalem, and them that burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the constellations,[t] and to all 6 the host of heaven. And he brought out the Asherah from the house of Jehovah, outside Jerusalem, to the torrent of Kidron, and burned it at the torrent of Kidron, and stamped it small to powder, and cast the powder upon the graves of the children of the 7 people. And he broke down the houses of the sodomites, which were in the house of Jehovah, where the women wove tents[v] for 8 the Asherah. And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Judah, and defiled the high places where the priests had burned incense, from Geba even to Beer-sheba; and he broke down the high places of the gates, those at the entrance of the gate of Joshua the governor of the city, [and] those on the left hand of any [going in] at the gate of the city.
9 Nevertheless the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of Jehovah in Jerusalem, but they ate of the unleavened bread 10 among their brethren. And he defiled Topheth, which is in the valley of the sons of Hinnom, that no man might cause his son or his daughter to pass through the fire 11 to Molech. And he abolished the horses that the kings of Judah had appointed to the sun at the entrance of the house of Jehovah, by the chamber of Nathan-melech the chamberlain,[w] which was in the suburbs,[x] and burned the 12 chariots of the sun with fire. And the king broke down the altars that were on the roof of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars that Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of Jehovah, and he shattered them, [removing them] from thence, and cast the powder of them into the 13 torrent of Kidron. And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of 14 Ammon, did the king defile. And he broke in pieces the columns,[y] and cut down the Asherahs, and filled their place with the bones of men.
15 Moreover the altar that was at Bethel, the high place that Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who caused

Israel to sin, had made, both that altar and the high place he broke down, and burned the high place, stamped it small to powder, and 16 burned the Asherah. And Josiah turned himself, and saw the sepulchres that were there on the mount; and he sent and took the bones out of the sepulchres, and burned [them] upon the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of Jehovah, that the man of God had proclaimed, who proclaimed 17 these things. Then he said, What tombstone is that which I see? And the men of the city told him, It is the sepulchre of the man of God who came from Judah and proclaimed these things which thou hast done against the altar of 18 Bethel. And he said, Let him alone; let no man move his bones. And they saved his bones, with the bones of the prophet that came out of Samaria.
19 And all the houses also of the high places that were in the cities of Samaria, which the kings of Israel had made to provoke [Jehovah] to anger, Josiah removed, and did to them according to all the acts that he had done in Bethel.
20 And he sacrificed [z] upon the altars all the priests of the high places that were there, and burned men's bones upon them. And he returned to Jerusalem.
21 And the king commanded all the people saying, Hold the passover to Jehovah your God, as it is written in this book of the 22 covenant. For there was not holden such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel nor of the kings 23 of Judah; but in the eighteenth year of king Josiah was this passover holden to Jehovah in Jerusalem.
24 Moreover the necromancers and the soothsayers, and the teraphim and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, Josiah took away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkijah the priest had found in the house of 25 Jehovah. And before him there had been no king like him that turned to Jehovah with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after 26 him arose there his like. But Jehovah turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, wherewith his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations with which Manasseh 27 had provoked him. And Jehovah said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will reject this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.
28 And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
29 In his days Pharaoh-Nechoh king of Egypt went up against the king of Assyria to the river Euphrates; and king Josiah went against him; but [Nechoh] slew him at Megiddo, when he had seen 30 him. And his servants carried him in a chariot dead [a] from Megiddo, and brought him to Jerusalem, and buried him in his own sepulchre. And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and anointed him, and made him king in his father's stead.
31 Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah of 32 Libnah. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all 33 that his fathers had done. And Pharaoh-Nechoh had him bound at Riblah in the land of Hamath, that he might not reign in Jerusalem, and laid a tribute upon the land of a hundred talents of silver 34 and a talent of gold. And Pharaoh-Nechoh made Eliakim the son of Josiah king instead of Josiah his father, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And he took Jehoahaz; and he came to Egypt, 35 and died there. And Jehoiakim gave the silver and the gold to Pharaoh; but he laid a proportional tax on the land to give the money according to the command of Pharaoh: he exacted the silver and the gold of the people of the land, of every one according to his estimation, [b] to give it to Pharaoh-Nechoh.
36 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was

[z] זבח: see 1 Kings xiii. 2. [a] Or perhaps 'dying:' see 2 Chron. xxxv. 24. [b] Or 'assessment.'

Zebuddah, daughter of Pedaiah of 37 Rumah. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his fathers had done.

24 In his days Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up, and Jehoiakim was his servant three years; then he turned and rebelled 2 against him. And Jehovah sent against him the bands of the Chaldeans, and the bands of the Syrians, and the bands of the Moabites, and the bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Jehovah, which he spoke through his ser-3 vants the prophets. Verily, at the commandment of Jehovah it came to pass against Judah, that they should be removed out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he had done; 4 and also [because of] the innocent blood that he had shed; for he had filled Jerusalem with innocent blood, and Jehovah would not pardon.
5 And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of
the chronicles of the kings of 6 Judah? And Jehoiakim slept with his fathers, and Jehoiachin 7 his son reigned in his stead. And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land, for the king of Babylon had taken all that belonged to the king of Egypt, from the torrent of Egypt to the river Euphrates.
8 Jehoiachin was eighteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Nehushta, daughter of Elnathan 9 of Jerusalem. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to 10 all that his father had done. At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up against Jerusalem, and the 11 city was besieged. And Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came against the city, while his servants 12 were besieging it. And Jehoiachin king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his chamberlains;[c] and the king of Babylon took him in the 13 eighth year of his reign. And he brought out thence all the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold that Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of Jeho-14 vah, as Jehovah had said. And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valour,[d] ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and smiths: none remained but the poorest sort of the people of the 15 land. And he carried away Je-hoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his chamberlains,[c] and the mighty of the land, he led into captivity from Jerusalem to Baby-16 lon; and all the men of valour, seven thousand, and the craftsmen and smiths a thousand, all strong men apt for war, and the king of Babylon brought them 17 captive to Babylon. And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his uncle king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.
18 [e] Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah 19 of Libnah. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, according to all 20 that Jehoiakim had done. For, because the anger of Jehovah was against Jerusalem and against Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

25 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, on the tenth of the month, [that] Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built turrets[f] against it round 2 about. And the city was besieged until the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.
3 On the ninth of the [fourth] month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for 4 the people of the land. And the city was broken into; and all the men of war [fled] by night, by the way of the gate between the two walls, which [leads] to the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about); and they went the way toward the 5 plain.[g] And the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was 6 scattered from him. And they took the king, and brought him up to the king of Babylon unto Riblah; and they pronounced 7 judgment upon him, and slaughtered the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with chains of brass,[h] and carried him to Babylon.

8 And in the fifth month, on the seventh of the month, which was in the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzar-adan, captain of the bodyguard, servant of the king of Babylon, came unto Jerusalem; 9 and he burned the house of Jehovah, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem; and every great [man's] house he 10 burned with fire. And all the army of the Chaldeans that were with the captain of the bodyguard broke down the walls of 11 Jerusalem round about. And Nebuzar-adan the captain of the body-guard carried away captive the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the deserters that had deserted to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multi-12 tude. But the captain of the bodyguard left of the poor of the land for vinedressers and husbandmen.
13 And the brazen pillars that were in the house of Jehovah, and the bases, and the brazen sea that was in the house of Jehovah, the Chaldeans broke in pieces, and carried the brass thereof to Baby-14 lon. The cauldrons[i] also and the shovels and the knives and the cups, and all the vessels of copper[k] wherewith they ministered, they 15 took away. And the censers[l] and the bowls,[m] that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver in silver, the captain of 16 the body-guard took away. The two pillars, the one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of Jehovah: for the brass of all these vessels there was 17 no weight. The height of one pillar was eighteen cubits, and the capital upon it was brass, and the height of the capital three cubits; and the network and the pomegranates, upon the capital round about, all of brass: and similarly for the second pillar with the network.
18 And the captain of the bodyguard took Seraiah the high priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, 19 and the three doorkeepers. And out of the city he took a chamberlain[n] that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that were in the king's presence, who were found in the city, and the scribe of the captain[o] of the host, who enrolled the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land that were found in the 20 city. And Nebuzar-adan the captain of the body-guard took them and brought them to the king of 21 Babylon to Riblah; and the king of Babylon smote them and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his land.[p] 22 And [as for] the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left behind, over them he appointed Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Sha-23 phan. [q]And all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had appointed Gedaliah, and they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, namely,[r] Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of a Maachath-24 ite, they and their men. And Gedaliah swore unto them and to their men, and said to them, Fear not to be servants of the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.
25 [s]And it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal seed, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were 26 with him at Mizpah. And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.
27 [t]And it came to pass in the thirty-seventh year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, on the twenty-seventh of the month, [that] Evil-Merodach king of Babylon, in the year that he began to reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah out of 28 prison; and he spoke kindly to him, and set his seat above the seat of the kings that were with 29 him in Babylon. And he changed his prison garments; and he ate bread before him continually all 30 the days of his life; and his allowance was a continual allowance given him by the king, every day a portion, all the days of his life.

THE FIRST BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

1 Adam, Seth, Enosh, 2 Cainan, Mahalaleel, Jared, 3 Enoch, Me-4 thushelah, Lemech, Noah; Shem, Ham, and Japheth.
5 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, and Javan, and Tubal, and Meshech, and 6 Tiras.—And the sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, and Diphath, and To-7 garmah. And the sons of Javan: Elishah and Tarshish, Kittim and Rodanim.
8 The sons of Ham: Cush and 9 Mizraim, Phut and Canaan.—And the sons of Cush: Seba and Havilah, and Sabta, and Raama, and Sabtecha. And the sons of Raa-10 mah: Sheba and Dedan. And 11 Cush begot Nimrod: he began to be mighty on the earth.—And Mizraim begot the Ludim, and the Anamim, and the Lehabim, and 12 the Naphtuhim, and the Pathrusim, and the Casluhim out of whom came the Philistines, and 13 the Caphtorim.—And Canaan begot Zidon his firstborn, and Heth, 14 and the Jebusite, and the Amorite, 15 and the Girgashite, and the Hivite, and the Arkite, and the Sinite, 16 and the Arvadite, and the Zemarite, and the Hamathite.
17 The sons of Shem: Elam, and Asshur, and Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram, and Uz, and Hul, and 18 Gether, and Meshech.—And Arphaxad begot Shelah, and Shelah 19 begot Eber. And to Eber were born two sons: the name of the one was Peleg,[a] for in his days was the earth divided; and his 20 brother's name was Joktan. And Joktan begot Almodad, and Sheleph, and Hazarmaveth, and 21 Jerah, and Hadoram, and Uzal, 22 and Diklah, and Ebal, and Abi-23 mael, and Sheba, and Ophir, and Havilah, and Jobab: all these were sons of Joktan.
24 Shem, Arphaxad, Shelah, 25 Eber, 26 Peleg, Reu, Serug, Nahor, Terah, 27 Abram: the same is Abraham.
28 The sons of Abraham: Isaac 29 and Ishmael. These are their generations: the firstborn of Ishmael, Nebaioth; and Kedar, and 30 Adbeel, and Mibsam; Mishma and Dumah; Massa, Hadad, and 31 Tema; Jetur, Naphish, and Kedmah: those are the sons of Ish-32 mael.—And the sons of Keturah, Abraham's concubine: she bore Zimran, and Jokshan, and Medan, and Midian, and Ishbak, and Shuah. And the sons of Jokshan: 33 Sheba and Dedan. And the sons of Midian: Ephah, and Epher, and Enoch, and Abida, and Eldaah. All these were sons of Keturah.
34 And Abraham begot Isaac. The sons of Isaac: Esau and Israel.
35 The sons of Esau: Eliphaz, Reuel, and Jeush, and Jaalam, and 36 Korah.—The sons of Eliphaz: Teman and Omar, Zephi and Gatam, Kenaz, and Timna, and 37 Amalek. The sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah, and Mizzah.
38 And the sons of Seir: Lotan, and Shobal, and Zibeon, and Anah, and Dishon, and Ezer, and Dishan.
39 —And the sons of Lotan: Hori and Homam. And Lotan's sister, 40 Timna.—The sons of Shobal: Alian, and Manahath, and Ebal, Shephi and Onam.—And the sons 41 of Zibeon: Ajah and Anah.—The sons of Anah: Dishon.—And the sons of Dishon: Hamran, and Eshban, and Jithran, and Cheran.
42 —The sons of Ezer: Bilhan, and Zaavan, [and] Jaakan.—The sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.
43 And these are the kings that reigned in the land of Edom before there reigned a king over the children of Israel:—Bela the son of [a] Meaning 'Division.'

Beor; and the name of his city 44 was Dinhabah. And Bela died; and Jobab the son of Zerah of 45 Bozrah reigned in his stead. And Jobab died; and Husham of the land of the Temanites reigned in 46 his stead. And Husham died; and Hadad the son of Bedad, who smote Midian in the fields of Moab, reigned in his stead: and the name 47 of his city was Avith. And Hadad died; and Samlah of Masrekah 48 reigned in his stead. And Samlah died; and Saul of Rehoboth on 49 the river reigned in his stead. And Saul died; and Baal-hanan the son of Achbor reigned in his stead.
50 And Baal-hanan died, and Hadad reigned in his stead: and the name of his city was Pai; and his wife's name was Mehetabel the daughter of Matred, daughter of 51 Mezahab. And Hadad died.

And the chiefs of Edom were:
chief Timna, chief Aliah, chief 52 Jetheth, chief Oholibamah, chief 53 Elah, chief Pinon, chief Kenaz, 54 chief Teman, chief Mibzar, chief Magdiel, chief Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom.

2 These are the sons of Israel:
Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah,
2 Issachar and Zebulun, Dan, Joseph and Benjamin, Naphtali, Gad and Asher.

3 The sons of Judah: Er, and Onan, and Shelah: [which] three were born to him of the daughter of Shua the Canaanitess. And Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the sight of Jehovah; and he slew 4 him. And Tamar his daughter-in-law bore him Pherez and Zerah.
All the sons of Judah were five.
5 The sons of Pherez: Hezron and 6 Hamul. And the sons of Zerah: Zimri,[b] and Ethan, and Heman, and Calcol, and Dara: five of 7 them in all. And the sons of Carmi: Achar,[c] the troubler of Israel, who transgressed in the 8 accursed thing. And the sons of Ethan: Azariah.
9 And the sons of Hezron, who were born to him: Jerahmeel, and 10 Ram, and Chelubai.[d] And Ram begot Amminadab; and Ammina-dab begot Nahshon, prince of the 11 children of Judah; and Nahshon begot Salma, and Salma begot 12 Boaz, and Boaz begot Obed, and 13 Obed begot Jesse; and Jesse begot his firstborn Eliab, and Abinadab the second, and Shimea the 14 third, Nethaneel the fourth, Rad-15 dai the fifth, Ozem the sixth, 16 David the seventh; and their sisters were Zeruiah and Abigail.
And the sons of Zeruiah: Abishai, 17 and Joab, and Asahel, three. And Abigail bore Amasa; and the father of Amasa was Jether the Ishmaelite.
18 And Caleb the son of Hezron had children by Azubah [his] wife, and by Jerioth: her sons are these:
Jesher, and Shobab, and Ardon.
19 And Azubah died, and Caleb took him Ephrath, and she bore him 20 Hur. And Hur begot Uri, and 21 Uri begot Bezaleel. And afterwards Hezron went to the daughter of Machir, the father of Gilead, and he took her when he was sixty years old; and she bore him 22 Segub. And Segub begot Jair, who had twenty-three cities in the 23 land of Gilead; and Geshur and Aram[e] took the villages of Jair from them, with Kenath and its dependent towns, sixty cities. All these were sons of Machir the 24 father of Gilead. And after the death of Hezron in Caleb-Ephratah, Abijah, Hezron's wife, bore him Ashhur,[f] the father of Tekoa.
25 And the sons of Jerahmeel the firstborn of Hezron were: Ram the firstborn, and Bunah, and 26 Oren, and Ozem, of Ahijah.[g] And Jerahmeel had another wife, whose name was Atarah; she was the 27 mother of Onam. And the sons of Ram, the firstborn of Jerahmeel, were Maaz, and Jamin, and Eker.
28 And the sons of Onam were Sham-mai and Jada. And the sons of Shammai: Nadab and Abishur.
29 And the name of the wife of Abi-shur was Abihail, and she bore 30 him Ahban and Molid. And the sons of Nadab: Seled and Appaim; and Seled died without 31 sons. And the sons of Appaim:
Jishi; and the sons of Jishi:
Sheshan; and the sons of Sheshan: 32 Ahlai. And the sons of Jada, the brother of Shammai: Jether and Jonathan; and Jether died with-33 out sons. And the sons of Jonathan: Peleth and Zaza. These 34 were the sons of Jerahmeel. And Sheshan had no sons, but daughters; and Sheshan had an Egyptian servant, whose name was 35 Jarha; and Sheshan gave his daughter to Jarha his servant as 36 wife, and she bore him Attai. And Attai begot Nathan, and Nathan 37 begot Zabad, and Zabad begot Ephlal, and Ephlal begot Obed, 38 and Obed begot Jehu, and Jehu 39 begot Azariah, and Azariah begot Helez, and Helez begot Elasah, 40 and Elasah begot Sismai, and Sis-41 mai begot Shallum, and Shallum begot Jekamiah, and Jekamiah begot Elishama.

42 And the sons of Caleb the brother of Jerahmeel were Mesha his firstborn, who was the father of Ziph, and the sons of Mareshah 43 the father of Hebron. And the sons of Hebron: Korah, and Tap-puah, and Rekem, and Shema.
44 And Shema begot Raham, the father of Jorkeam. And Rekem 45 begot Shammai; and the son of Shammai was Maon; and Maon 46 was the father of Beth-zur. And Ephah, Caleb's concubine, bore Haran, and Moza, and Gazez; and 47 Haran begot Gazez. And the sons of Jehdai: Regem and Jotham, and Geshan, and Pelet, and Ephah, 48 and Shaaph. Maachah, Caleb's concubine, bore Sheber and Tir-49 hanah; and she bore Shaaph the father of Madmannah, Sheva the father of Machbena and the father of Gibea. And the daughter of Caleb was Achsah.
50 These are the sons of Caleb.
The sons[h] of Hur, the firstborn[i] of Ephratah: Shobal the father 51 of Kirjath-jearim, Salma the father of Bethlehem, Hareph the 52 father of Beth-gader. And Shobal the father of Kirjath-jearim had sons: Haroeh, Hazi-Hammenu-53 hoth.[k] And the families of Kir-jath-jearim were the Jithrites, and the Puthites, and the Shumath-ites, and the Mishraites; of them came the Zoreathites and the Esh-54 taolites. The sons of Salma: Bethlehem, and the Netophathites, Atroth-Beth-Joab, and the Hazi-Hammanahethites,[k] the Zor-55 ites; and the families of the scribes who dwelt at Jabez: the Tireathites, the Shimeathites, the Suchathites. These are the Kenites that came of Hammath, the father of the house of Rechab.

3 And these are the sons of David, who were born to him in Hebron:
the firstborn, Amnon, of Ahinoam the Jezreelitess; the second, Daniel,[l] of Abigail the Carmelitess; 2 the third, Absalom the son of Maachah, daughter of Talmai king of Geshur; the fourth, Adonijah 3 the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah of Abital; the sixth, 4 Ithream, of Eglah his wife: six were born to him in Hebron. And there he reigned seven years and six months. And in Jerusalem he 5 reigned thirty-three years. And these were born to him in Jerusalem: Shimea, and Shobab, and Nathan, and Solomon, four, of Bath-shua[m] the daughter of Am-6 miel; and Ibhar, and Elishama, 7 and Eliphelet, and Nogah, and 8 Nepheg, and Japhia, and Elish-ama, and Eliada, and Eliphelet, 9 nine: all were sons of David, besides the sons of the concubines;
and Tamar was their sister.
10 And Solomon's son was Rehoboam; Abijah his son, Asa his son, 11 Jehoshaphat his son, Joram his son, Ahaziah his son, Joash his son, 12 Amaziah his son, Azariah his son, 13 Jotham his son, Ahaz his son, Hezekiah his son, Manasseh his 14 son, Amon his son, Josiah his son.
15 And the sons of Josiah: the firstborn Johanan, the second Jehoiakim, the third Zedekiah, the 16 fourth Shallum. And the sons of Jehoiakim: Jeconiah his son, 17 Zedekiah his son. And the sons of Jeconiah: Assir;[n] Salathiel his 18 son, Malchiram also, and Pedaiah, and Shenazzar, Jecamiah, Hosh-19 ama, and Nedabiah. And the sons of Pedaiah were Zerubbabel and Shimei. And the sons of Zerub-babel: Meshullam and Hananiah, 20 and Shelomith their sister, and Hashubah, and Ohel, and Berech-iah, and Hasadiah, [and] Jushab-21 hesed, five. And the sons of Hananiah: Pelatiah and Isaiah; the sons of Rephaiah, the sons of Arnan, the sons of Obadiah, the 22 sons of Shechaniah. And the sons of Shechaniah: Shemaiah; and the sons of Shemaiah: Hattush, and Jigeal, and Bariah, and Nea-23 riah, and Shaphat, six. And the sons of Neariah: Elioenai, and Hezekiah, and Azrikam, three.
24 And the sons of Elioenai: Hodaviah, and Eliashib, and Pelaiah, and Akkub, and Johanan, and Delaiah, and Anani, seven.

[n] Others take it as 'Jeconiah-Assir,' i.e. 'Jeconiah the prisoner;' and it is thought, as he appears to have had no sons of his own, that the names of his representatives are given.

4 The sons of Judah: Pherez, Hezron, and Carmi, and Hur, and 2 Shobal. And Reaiah the son of Shobal begot Jahath; and Jahath begot Ahumai and Lahad. These are the families of the Zoreathites.
3 And these [were of] the father of Etam:[o] Jizreel, and Jishma, and Jidbash; and the name of their 4 sister was Hazlelponi; and Penuel the father of Gedor, and Ezer the father of Hushah: these were the sons of Hur, the firstborn of Ephratah, [and] father of Beth-5 lehem.—And Ashhur the father of Tekoa had two wives, Helah and 6 Naarah. And Naarah bore him Ahuzzam, and Hepher, and Temeni, and Ahashtari: these were 7 the sons of Naarah. And the sons of Helah: Zereth, and Zohar, and 8 Ethnan. And Koz begot Anub, and Hazzobebah, and the families 9 of Aharhel the son of Harum. And Jabez was more honoured[p] than his brethren; and his mother called his name Jabez,[q] saying, Because I bore him with pain.
10 And Jabez called on the God of Israel saying, Oh that thou wouldest richly bless me, and enlarge my border, and that thy hand might be with me, and that thou wouldest keep me from evil, that it may not grieve me! And God brought about what he had requested.
11 And Chelub the brother of Shuah 12 begot Mehir, who was the father of Eshton. And Eshton begot Bethrapha, and Paseah, and Tehinnah the father of the city of Nahash: these were the men of 13 Rechah.—And the sons of Kenaz: Othniel and Seraiah; and the sons 14 of Othniel: Hathath. And Meonothai begot Ophrah: and Seraiah begot Joab, the father of the valley of craftsmen; for they were 15 craftsmen.—And the sons of Caleb the son of Jephunneh: Iru, Elah, and Naam; and the sons of Elah, 16 . . . and Kenaz.—And the sons of Jehalleleel: Ziph and Ziphah, 17 Tiria and Asareel.—And the sons of Ezra: Jether, and Mered, and Epher, and Jalon; and she[r] conceived [and bore] Miriam, and Shammai, and Jishbah the father 18 of Eshtemoa. And his wife the Jewess bore Jered the father of Gedor, and Heber the father of Socho, and Jekuthiel the father of Zanoah. And these are the sons 19 of Bithiah the daughter of Pharaoh whom Mered took.—And the sons of the wife of Hodijah, the sister of Naham: the father of Keilah the Garmite, and Eshtemoa 20 the Maachathite.—And the sons of Shimon: Amnon and Rinnah, Ben-hanan and Tilon.—And the sons of Jishi: Zoheth and Ben-Zoheth.
21 The sons of Shelah the son of Judah: Er the father of Lechah, and Laadah the father of Mareshah, and the families of the house of byssus-workers, of the house of 22 Ashbea, and Jokim, and the men of Chozeba, and Joash, and Saraph, who ruled over Moab, and Jashubi-lehem. And these are 23 ancient things. These were the potters, and those that abode among plantations and enclosures: there they dwelt with the king for his work.
24 The sons of Simeon: Nemuel and Jamin, Jarib, Zerah, [and] 25 Saul; Shallum his son, Mibsam his 26 son, Mishma his son. And the sons of Mishma: Hammuel his son, Zaccur his son, Shimei his 27 son; and Shimei had sixteen sons and six daughters. And his brethren had not many sons; neither did all their family multiply like 28 to the sons of Judah. And they abode at Beer-sheba, and Mola-29 dah, and Hazar-Shual, and at Bilhah, and at Ezem, and at 30 Tolad,[s] and at Bethuel, and at Hor-31 mah, and at Ziklag, and at Beth-marcaboth, and Hazar-susim, and at Beth-biri, and at Shaaraim. These were their cities until the 32 reign of David. And their villages were Etam and Ain, Rimmon and Tochen, and Ashan, five cities; 33 and all their villages that were round about these cities, as far as Baal. These were their habitations and their genealogical register.
34 And Meshobab, and Jamlech, and Joshah the son of Amaziah, 35 and Joel, and Jehu the son of Josibiah, the son of Seraiah, the 36 son of Asiel, and Elioenai, and Jaakobah, and Jeshohaiah, and Asaiah, and Adiel, and Jesimiel, 37 and Benaiah, and Ziza the son of Shiphi, the son of Allon, the son of Jedaiah, the son of Shimri, the 38 son of Shemaiah: these mentioned[t] by name were princes in their families; and their fathers' houses 39 increased greatly. And they went

[o] Some MSS. support the LXX and Vulg., which have, 'these are the sons of Etam.' [p] Or 'more honourable:' cf. Gen. xxxiv. 19. [q] Meaning, 'Causing pain.' [r] Doubtless the 'Bithiah' of ver. 18. [s] Eltolad, Josh. xv. 30. [t] Lit. 'came.' to the entrance of Gedor, as far as the east side of the valley, to 40 seek pasture for their flocks. And they found fat and good pasture, and a land widely extended and quiet and fertile, for they who had dwelt there formerly were of Ham.

41 And these written by name came in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and smote their tents and the habitations[u] that were found there, and destroyed them utterly unto this day, and dwelt in their stead; for there was pasture there 42 for their flocks. And five hundred men of them, of the sons of Simeon, went to mount Seir, having at their head Pelatiah, and Neariah, and Rephaiah, and Uzziel, the sons 43 of Jishi, and they smote the rest of the Amalekites that had escaped; and they dwelt there unto this day.

5 And the sons of Reuben the firstborn of Israel (for he was the firstborn; but, inasmuch as he defiled his father's bed, his birthright was given to the sons of Joseph the son of Israel; but the genealogy is not registered accord-2 ing to the birthright, for Judah prevailed among his brethren, and of him was the prince, but the 3 birthright was Joseph's),—the sons of Reuben, the firstborn of Israel: Enoch and Phallu, Hezron and 4 Carmi. The sons of Joel: Shemaiah his son, Gog his son, Shimei 5 his son, Micah his son, Reaiah his 6 son, Baal his son, Beerah his son, whom Tilgath-Pilneser king of Assyria carried away captive: he was prince of the Reubenites.
7 And his brethren by their families, in the genealogical register of their generations, were: the chief, 8 Jeiel, and Zechariah, and Bela the son of Azaz, the son of Shema, the son of Joel, who dwelt in Aroer, as 9 far as Nebo and Baal-meon; and eastward he dwelt as far as the entrance to the wilderness from the river Euphrates; for their cattle were multiplied in the land 10 of Gilead. And in the days of Saul they made war with the Hagarites, who fell by their hand; and they dwelt in their tents throughout the east side of Gilead.
11 And the children of Gad dwelt over against them, in the land of 12 Bashan, as far as Salcah: Joel was the chief and Shapham the next, and Jaanai, and Shaphat in 13 Bashan. And their brethren according to their fathers' houses were Michael, and Meshullam, and Sheba, and Jorai, and Jaachan, 14 and Zia, and Eber, seven.—These were the sons of Abihail, the son of Huri, the son of Jaroah, the son of Gilead, the son of Michael, the son of Jeshishai, the son of Jahdo, 15 the son of Buz: Ahi the son of Abdiel, the son of Guni, was chief 16 of their fathers' house. And they dwelt in Gilead in Bashan, and in its towns,[v] and in all the pasture-grounds of Sharon, as far as their 17 limits. All these were registered by genealogy in the days of Jotham king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam king of Israel.
18 The children of Reuben and the Gadites and half the tribe of Manasseh, of valiant men, men who carried shield and sword, drawing the bow and skilful in war, were forty-four thousand seven hundred and sixty, able to go forth to 19 war. And they made war with the Hagarites, with Jetur, and 20 Naphish, and Nodab; and they were helped against them, and the Hagarites were delivered into their hand, and all that were with them; for they cried to God in the battle, and he was intreated of them, because they put their trust 21 in him. And they took away their cattle: their camels fifty thousand, and two hundred and fifty thousand sheep, and two thousand asses, and a hundred thousand 22 human souls. For there fell down many slain, for the war was of God. And they dwelt in their stead until the captivity.
23 And the children of the half tribe of Manasseh dwelt in the land, from Bashan as far as Baal-Hermon and Senir, and mount 24 Hermon; they were many. And these were the heads of their fathers' houses: Epher, and Jishi, and Eliel, and Azriel, and Jeremiah, and Hodaviah, and Jahdiel, mighty men of valour, famous men, heads of their fathers' houses.
25 And they transgressed against the God of their fathers, and went a whoring after the gods of the peoples of the land, whom God had 26 destroyed before them. And the God of Israel stirred up the spirit of Pul king of Assyria, and the spirit of Tilgath-Pilneser king of Assyria, and he carried them away, the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and the half tribe of Manasseh, and brought them to Halah, and Habor, and Hara, and to the river Gozan,—unto this day.

6 The sons of Levi: Gershom, Kohath,[w] and Merari.
2 And the sons of Kohath: Amram, Jizhar, and Hebron, and 3 Uzziel. And the children of Amram: Aaron, and Moses, and Miriam. And the sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and 4 Ithamar. Eleazar begot Phine-5 has; Phinehas begot Abishua, and Abishua begot Bukki, and Bukki 6 begot Uzzi, and Uzzi begot Zerahiah, and Zerahiah begot Meraioth: 7 Meraioth begot Amariah, and 8 Amariah begot Ahitub, and Ahitub begot Zadok, and Zadok begot 9 Ahimaaz, and Ahimaaz begot Azariah, and Azariah begot Johanan, 10 and Johanan begot Azariah (he is it that exercised the priesthood in the house that Solomon built in 11 Jerusalem); and Azariah begot Amariah, and Amariah begot Ahi-12 tub, and Ahitub begot Zadok, and 13 Zadok begot Shallum, and Shallum begot Hilkijah, and Hilkijah 14 begot Azariah, and Azariah begot Seraiah, and Seraiah begot Jeho-15 zadak, and Jehozadak went away, when Jehovah carried away Judah and Jerusalem by the hand of Nebuchadnezzar.
16 The sons of Levi: Gershom, 17 Kohath, and Merari. And these are the names of the sons of Ger-18 shom: Libni and Shimei. And the sons of Kohath: Amram, and Jizhar, and Hebron, and Uzziel.
19 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. And these are the families of Levi according to their fathers.
20 Of Gershom: Libni his son, Jahath his son, Zimmah his son, 21 Joah his son, Iddo his son, Zerah his son, Jeathrai his son.
22 The sons of Kohath: Amminadab his son, Korah his son, Assir 23 his son, Elkanah his son, and Ebiasaph his son, and Assir his 24 son, Tahath his son, Uriel his son, Uzziah his son, and Saul his son.
25 And the sons of Elkanah: Amasai 26 and Ahimoth. Elkanah,—the sons of Elkanah: Zophai his son, and 27 Nahath his son, Eliab his son, Jeroham his son, Elkanah his son.
28 And the sons of Samuel: the first-born[x] Vashni and Abijah.
29 The sons of Merari: Mahli; Libni his son, Shimei his son, 30 Uzza his son, Shimea his son, Haggijah his son, Asaiah his son.
31 And these are they whom David set over the service of song in the house of Jehovah after that the 32 ark was in rest. And they ministered before the tabernacle of the tent of meeting with singing, until Solomon had built the house of Jehovah in Jerusalem; and they attended to their office according 33 to their order. And these are they that attended, and their sons:

Of the sons of the Kohathites: Heman the singer, the son of Joel, 34 the son of Samuel, the son of Elkanah, the son of Jeroham, the 35 son of Eliel, the son of Toah,[y] the son of Zuph, the son of Elkanah, the son of Mahath, the son of 36 Amasai, the son of Elkanah, the son of Joel, the son of Azariah, 37 the son of Zephaniah, the son of Tahath, the son of Assir, the son 38 of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, the son of Jizhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, the son of Israel.
39 And his brother Asaph, who stood on his right hand: Asaph, the son of Berechiah, the son of 40 Shimea, the son of Michael, the son of Baaseiah, the son of Malchi-41 jah, the son of Ethni, the son of 42 Zerah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Ethan, the son of Zimmah, the 43 son of Shimei, the son of Jahath, the son of Gershom, the son of Levi.
44 And their brethren the sons of Merari were on the left hand: Ethan the son of Kishi,[z] the son 45 of Abdi, the son of Malluch, the son of Hashabiah, the son of 46 Amaziah, the son of Hilkijah, the son of Amzi, the son of Bani, the 47 son of Shemer, the son of Mahli, the son of Mushi, the son of Merari, the son of Levi.
48 And their brethren the Levites were given for all the service of the tabernacle of the house of God.
49 And Aaron and his sons offered[a] upon the altar of the burnt-offering, and on the altar of incense, for all the work of the most holy place, and to make atonement for Israel, according to all that Moses the servant of God had commanded.
50 And these are the sons of Aaron: Eleazar his son, Phinehas his son, 51 Abishua his son, Bukki his son, Uzzi his son, Zerahiah his son, 52 Meraioth his son, Amariah his son, 53 Ahitub his son, Zadok his son, Ahimaaz his son.
54 And these are their dwelling-places according to their encampments, within their borders. For the sons of Aaron, of the family of the Kohathites, for theirs was 55 the lot; and they gave them Hebron in the land of Judah, and 56 its suburbs round about it; but the fields of the city, and the hamlets thereof gave they to Caleb 57 the son of Jephunneh. And to the children of Aaron they gave the city[b] of refuge, Hebron; and Libnah and its suburbs, and Jattir, and Eshtemoa and its suburbs, 58 and Hilen and its suburbs, Debir 59 and its suburbs, and Ashan and its suburbs, and Beth-shemesh and 60 its suburbs; and, out of the tribe of Benjamin, Geba and its suburbs, and Allemeth and its suburbs, and Anathoth and its suburbs: all their cities, thirteen cities, according to their families.

61 And to the children of Kohath that remained [were given] by lot out of the families of the tribe [of Ephraim and of the tribe of Dan and] of the half tribe, half 62 Manasseh, ten cities. And to the children of Gershom according to their families out of the tribe of Issachar, and out of the tribe of Asher, and out of the tribe of Naphtali, and out of the tribe of Manasseh in Bashan, thirteen 63 cities. To the children of Merari [were given] by lot, according to their families, out of the tribe of Reuben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zebu-64 lun, twelve cities. And the children of Israel gave to the Levites 65 the cities and their suburbs. And they gave by lot out of the tribe of the children of Judah, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, and out of the tribe of the children of Benjamin, these cities which were mentioned by name.
66 And to the families of the children of Kohath who had the cities of their territory out of the tribe 67 of Ephraim, they gave the city of refuge, Shechem and its suburbs in mount Ephraim; and Gezer 68 and its suburbs, and Jokmeam and its suburbs, and Beth-horon 69 and its suburbs, and Ajalon and its suburbs, and Gath-Rimmon 70 and its suburbs; and out of the half tribe of Manasseh: Aner and its suburbs, and Bileam and its suburbs,—for the families of the children of Kohath that remained.
71 To the children of Gershom [were given] out of the family of the half tribe of Manasseh: Golan in Bashan and its suburbs, and 72 Ashtaroth and its suburbs; and out of the tribe of Issachar: Ke-desh and its suburbs, Dobrath and 73 its suburbs, and Ramoth and its suburbs, and Anem and its sub-74 urbs; and out of the tribe of Asher: Mashal and its suburbs, 75 and Abdon and its suburbs, and Hukok and its suburbs, and Re-76 hob and its suburbs; and out of the tribe of Naphtali: Kedesh in Galilee and its suburbs, and Hammon and its suburbs, and Kirjath-aim and its suburbs.
77 To the children of Merari that remained [were given] out of the tribe of Zebulun, Rimmono and its suburbs, [and] Tabor and its 78 suburbs; and on the other side of the Jordan by Jericho, on the east side of the Jordan, out of the tribe of Reuben: Bezer in the wilderness and its suburbs, and Jahzah 79 and its suburbs, and Kedemoth and its suburbs, and Mephaath 80 and its suburbs; and out of the tribe of Gad: Ramoth in Gilead
and its suburbs, and Mahanaim 81 and its suburbs, and Heshbon and its suburbs, and Jaazer and its suburbs.

7 And the sons of Issachar were Tola and Puah, Jashub and Shim-2 ron, four. And the sons of Tola: Uzzi, and Rephaiah, and Jeriel, and Jahmai, and Jibsam, and Samuel, heads of their fathers' houses, of Tola, valiant men of might in their generations; their number in the days of David was twenty-two thousand six hundred.
3 And the sons of Uzzi: Jizrahiah; and the sons of Jizrahiah: Michael, and Obadiah, and Joel, [and] Jishijah, five; all of them 4 chief men. And with them by their generations, according to their fathers' houses, were military bands for war, thirty-six thousand; for they had many wives and sons.
5 And their brethren among all the families of Issachar valiant men of might, registered by genealogy, in all eighty-seven thousand.
6 [The sons of] Benjamin: Bela, and Becher, and Jediael, three.
7 And the sons of Bela: Ezbon, and Uzzi, and Uzziel, and Jerimoth, and Iri, five; heads of fathers' houses, mighty men of valour; and they were registered by their genealogy twenty-two thousand 8 and thirty-four. And the sons of Becher: Zemirah, and Joash, and Eliezer, and Elioenai, and Omri,

[b] Lit. 'cities:' and so ver. 67.

and Jeremoth, and Abijah, and Anathoth, and Alemeth; all these 9 were the sons of Becher. And they were registered by their genealogy by their generations, heads of their fathers' houses, mighty men of valour, twenty 10 thousand two hundred. And the sons of Jediael: Bilhan; and the sons of Bilhan: Jeush, and Benjamin, and Ehud, and Chenaanah, and Zethan, and Tarshish, and 11 Ahishahar. All these were the sons of Jediael, by the heads of their fathers, mighty men of valour, seventeen thousand two hundred, fit for service for war.
12 And Shuppim, and Huppim, the children of Ir.—Hushim: the sons of Aher.
13 The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, and Guni, and Jezer, and Shallum, the sons of Bilhah.
14 The sons of Manasseh: Asriel, . . .[c] whom she bore; his Syrian concubine bore Machir the father 15 of Gilead. And Machir took a wife [the sister] of Huppim and Shuppim, and the name of their sister was Maachah; and the name of the second [son] was Zelophehad; and 16 Zelophehad had daughters. And Maachah the wife of Machir bore a son, and she called his name Peresh; and the name of his brother was Sheresh; and his sons 17 were Ulam and Rakem. And the sons of Ulam: Bedan. These were the sons of Gilead, the son of 18 Machir, the son of Manasseh. And his sister Moleketh bore Ishhod, 19 and Abiezer, and Mahlah. And the sons of Shemidah were Ahian, and Shechem, and Likhi, and Aniam.
20 And the sons of Ephraim: Shuthelah, and Bered his son, and Tahath his son, and Eladah his 21 son, and Tahath his son, and Zabad his son, and Shuthelah his son, and Ezer, and Elad. And the men of Gath born in the land slew them, because they came down to 22 take their cattle. And Ephraim their father mourned many days, and his brethren came to comfort 23 him. And he went in to his wife; and she conceived, and bore a son; and he called his name Beriah, for [he was born] when calamity was 24 in his house. And his daughter was Sheerah; and she built Bethhoron the nether, and the upper, 25 and Uzzen-sheerah. And his son was Rephah, and Resheph, and Telah his son, and Tahan his son, 26 Laadan his son, Ammihud his son, 27 Elishama his son, Nun[d] his son, 28 Joshua his son. And their possession and dwelling-places were Bethel and its dependent villages, and eastward Naaran, and westward Gezer and its dependent villages, and Shechem and its dependent villages as far as to Gazah 29 and its dependent villages. And in the hands of the children of Manasseh, Beth-shean and its dependent villages, Taanach and its dependent villages, Megiddo and its dependent villages, Dor and its dependent villages. In these dwelt the children of Joseph the son of Israel.
30 The sons of Asher: Jimnah, and Jishvah, and Jishvi, and Beriah; 31 Serah their sister. And the sons of Beriah: Heber, and Malchiel, 32 who is the father of Birzavith. And Heber begot Japhlet, and Shomer, and Hotham, and Shua their sister.
33 And the sons of Japhlet: Pasach, and Bimhal, and Ashvath; these 34 are the sons of Japhlet. And the sons of Shemer: Ahi, and Rohgah, 35 and Hubbah, and Aram. And the sons of his brother Helem: Zophah, and Jimna, and Shelesh, and 36 Amal. The sons of Zophah: Suah, and Harnepher, and Shual, and 37 Beri, and Jimrah, Bezer, and Hod, and Shamma, and Shilshah, and 38 Jithran, and Beera. And the sons of Jether: Jephunneh, and Pis-39 pah, and Ara. And the sons of Ulla: Arah, and Hanniel, and 40 Rizia. All these were the sons of Asher, heads of fathers' houses, choice men, mighty of valour, chiefs of the princes. And their number according to their genealogy, registered as fit for service for war, was twenty-six thousand men.

8 And Benjamin begot Bela his firstborn, Ashbel the second, and 2 Aharah the third, Nohah the 3 fourth, and Rapha the fifth. And Bela had sons: Addar, and Gera, 4 and Abihud, and Abishua, and 5 Naaman, and Ahoah, and Gera, and Shephuphan, and Huram.— 6 And these are the sons of Ehud (these were the chief fathers of the inhabitants of Geba; and they carried them away to Manahath; 7 even Naaman, and Ahijah, and Gera; he removed them), and he 8 begot Uzza and Ahihud. And Shaharaim begot [children] in the land of Moab after he had sent away Hushim and Baara his

9 wives. And he begot of Hodesh his wife: Jobab, and Zibia, and 10 Mesha, and Malcham, and Jeuz, and Shobia,[e] and Mirmah; these 11 were his sons, chief fathers. And of Hushim he begot Abitub, and 12 Elpaal. And the sons of Elpaal: Eber, and Misham, and Shemer, who built Ono, and Lod[f] and its 13 dependent villages; and Beriah, and Shema, who were chief fathers of the inhabitants of Ajalon; they drove away the inhabitants of 14 Gath. And Ahio, Shashak, and 15 Jeremoth, and Zebadiah, and 16 Arad, and Eder, and Michael, and Jishpah, and Joha were the sons 17 of Beriah. And Zebadiah, and Meshullam, and Hiski, and Heber, 18 and Jishmerai, and Jizliah, and Jobab were the sons of Elpaal.
19 And Jakim, and Zichri, and Zabdi, 20 and Elienai, and Zilthai, and Eliel, 21 and Adaiah, and Beraiah, and Shimrath were the sons of Shimei.
22 And Jishpan, and Eber, and Eliel, 23 and Abdon, and Zichri, and Hanan, 24 and Hananiah, and Elam, and 25 Antothijah, and Jiphdeiah, and Penuel were the sons of Shashak.
26 And Shamsherai, and Shehariah, 27 and Athaliah, and Jaareshiah, and Elijah, and Zichri were the sons of 28 Jeroham. These were the chief fathers, according to their generations, principal men; these dwelt 29 in Jerusalem. And at Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon; and his wife's name was Maachah.
30 And his son, the firstborn, was Abdon; and Zur, and Kish, and 31 Baal, and Nadab, and Gedor, and 32 Ahio, and Zecher. And Mikloth begot Shimeah. And these also dwelt beside their brethren in Jerusalem, with their brethren.
33 And Ner begot Kish; and Kish begot Saul; and Saul begot Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abina-34 dab, and Eshbaal. And the son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal; and 35 Merib-Baal begot Micah. And the sons of Micah: Pithon, and Me-36 lech, and Tarea, and Ahaz. And Ahaz begot Jehoaddah; and Jehoaddah begot Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; and Zimri 37 begot Moza; and Moza begot Binea: Rapha was his son, Elea-38 sah his son, Azel his son. And Azel had six sons, and these are their names: Azrikam, Bochru, and Ishmael, and Shearíah, and Obadiah, and Hanan; all these 39 were sons of Azel. And the sons of Eshek his brother were Ulam his firstborn, Jeush the second, 40 and Eliphelet the third. And the sons of Ulam were mighty men of valour, archers; and they had many sons, and sons' sons, a hundred and fifty. All these were of the sons of Benjamin.

9 And all Israel were registered by genealogy; and behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel. And Judah was carried away to Babylon because of their transgression.[g] 2 And the inhabitants that were first in their possessions in their cities were the Israelites, the priests, the Levites, and the 3 Nethinim.[h] And in Jerusalem dwelt of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin,
and of the children of Ephraim, 4 and Manasseh: Uthai the son of Ammihud, the son of Omri, the son of Imri, the son of Bani, of the children of Pherez the son of Ju-5 dah, and of the Shilonites:[i] Asaiah 6 the firstborn, and his sons. And of the sons of Zerah: Jeuel; and their brethren, six hundred and ninety.
7 And of the sons of Benjamin: Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Hodaviah, the son of Has-8 senuah, and Jibneiah the son of Jeroham, and Elah the son of Uzzi, the son of Michri, and Me-shullam the son of Shephatiah, the son of Reuel, the son of Jibnijah; 9 and their brethren, according to their generations, nine hundred and fifty-six. All these men were chief fathers in their fathers' houses.
10 And of the priests: Jedaiah, 11 and Jehoiarib, and Jachin, and Azariah the son of Hilkijah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, the ruler of the 12 house of God; and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pashhur, the son of Malchijah, and Masai the son of Adiel, the son of Jahzerah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Meshillemith, the son of 13 Immer; and their brethren, heads of their fathers' houses, a thousand and seven hundred and sixty; able men for the work of the service of the house of God.
14 And of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hasshub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, 15 of the sons of Merari; and Bakbakkar, Heresh, and Galal; and Mattaniah the son of Micah, the son of Zichri, the son of Asaph; 16 and Obadiah the son of Shemaiah, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun; and Berechiah the son of Asa, the son of Elkanah, who dwelt in the villages of the Netophathites.

17 And the doorkeepers: Shallum, and Akkub, and Talmon, and Ahiman, and their brethren; Shal-18 lum was the chief. And they have been hitherto in the king's gate eastward: they were the door-keepers in the camps of the chil-19 dren of Levi. And Shallum the son of Kore, the son of Ebiasaph, the son of Korah, and his brethren, of the house of his father, the Korahites, were over the work of the service, keepers of the thresholds of the tent, and their fathers, set over the camp of Jehovah, 20 were keepers of the entrance. And Phinehas the son of Eleazar was the ruler over them formerly; 21 Jehovah was with him. Zechariah the son of Meshelemiah was door-keeper at the entrance to the tent 22 of meeting. All these chosen to be doorkeepers at the thresholds were two hundred and twelve.
These were registered by genealogy according to their villages:
David and Samuel the seer had instituted them in their trust.[j] 23 And they and their sons were at the gates of the house of Jehovah, the house of the tent, to keep watch there.[k] 24 At the four quarters were the doorkeepers, toward the east, west, 25 north, and south. And their brethren, in their villages, were to come after [every] seven days 26 from time to time with them. For in their trust these four were the chief doorkeepers: they were Levites; and they were over the chambers and over the treasuries of 27 the house of God; for they staid round about the house of God during the night, because the charge was upon them, and the opening[l] thereof every morning 28 [pertained] to them. And [part] of them had the charge of the instruments of service, for by number they brought them in and by num-29 ber they brought them out. [Part] of them also were appointed over the vessels, and over all the holy instruments, and over the fine flour, and the wine, and the oil, and the frankincense, and the 30 spices. And it was [some one] of the sons of the priests who compounded the ointment of the 31 spices. And Mattithiah of the Levites, who was the firstborn of Shallum the Korahite, was in trust over the things that were made in 32 the pans. And [some] of the sons of the Kohathites, their brethren, were over the loaves to be set in rows, to prepare them every sab-33 bath. And these were the singers, chief fathers of the Levites, [who were] in the chambers free from service; for they were employed 34 day and night. These are the chief fathers of the Levites, heads according to their families; these dwelt in Jerusalem.
35 And at Gibeon dwelt the father of Gibeon, Jeiel, and his wife's 36 name was Maachah. And his son, the firstborn, was Abdon, and Zur, and Kish, and Baal, and Ner, and 37 Nadab, and Gedor, and Ahio, and 38 Zechariah, and Mikloth; and Mikloth begot Shimeam. And they also dwelt beside their brethren in Jerusalem, with their brethren.
39 And Ner begot Kish; and Kish
begot Saul; and Saul begot Jonathan, and Malchi-shua, and Abina-40 dab, and Eshbaal. And the son of Jonathan was Merib-Baal; and 41 Merib-Baal begot Micah. And the sons of Micah: Pithon, and Me-42 lech, and Tahrea. And Ahaz begot Jarah: and Jarah begot Alemeth, and Azmaveth, and Zimri; 43 and Zimri begot Moza; and Moza begot Binea; and Rephaiah his son, Eleasah his son, Azel his son.
44 And Azel had six sons, and these are their names: Azrikam, Bochru, and Ishmael, and Sheariah, and Obadiah, and Hanan; these were the sons of Azel.

10 And the Philistines fought against Israel; and the men of Israel fled from before the Philistines, and fell down slain on mount 2 Gilboa. And the Philistines followed hard after Saul and after his sons; and the Philistines smote Jonathan, and Abinadab, and 3 Malchi-shua, Saul's sons. And the battle went sore against Saul, and the archers came up with him, and he was terrified[m] by the archers.
4 Then said Saul to his armour-bearer, Draw thy sword, and thrust me through with it; lest these uncircumcised come and abuse me. But his armourbearer would not; for he was much afraid. So Saul took the sword and fell on 5 it. And when his armourbearer saw that Saul was dead, he fell likewise on the sword, and died.

6 So Saul died, and his three sons, and all his house died together.
7 And when all the men of Israel that were in the valley saw that they fled, and that Saul and his sons were dead, they forsook their cities and fled; and the Philistines came and dwelt in them.
8 And it came to pass the next day, that the Philistines came to strip the slain, and they found Saul and his sons fallen on mount 9 Gilboa. And they stripped him, and took his head, and his armour, and sent [them] into the land of the Philistines round about, to announce the glad tidings to their 10 idols, and to the people. And they put his armour in the house of their god, and fastened his head 11 in the house of Dagon. And when all they of Jabesh-Gilead heard of all that the Philistines had done 12 to Saul, all the valiant men arose, and took up the body of Saul and the bodies of his sons, and brought them to Jabesh, and buried their bones under the terebinth of Jabesh, and fasted seven days.
13 And Saul died for his unfaithfulness which he committed against Jehovah, because of the word of Jehovah which he kept not, and also for having inquired of the spirit of Python, asking counsel 14 of it; and he asked not counsel of Jehovah; therefore he slew him, and transferred the kingdom to David the son of Jesse.

11 And all Israel assembled themselves to David to Hebron, saying, Behold, we are thy bone and 2 thy flesh. Even aforetime, even when Saul was king, thou wast he that leddest out and broughtest in Israel; and Jehovah thy God said to thee, Thou shalt feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be 3 prince over my people Israel. And all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron; and David made a covenant with them in Hebron before Jehovah; and they anointed David king over Israel according to the word of Jehovah through Samuel.
4 And David and all Israel went to Jerusalem, which is Jebus; where the Jebusites were, the in-5 habitants of the land. And the inhabitants of Jebus said to David, Thou shalt not come in hither. But David took the stronghold of Zion, which is the city of David.
6 And David said, Whoever smites the Jebusites first shall be chief and captain. And Joab the son of Zeruiah went first up, and was 7 chief. And David dwelt in the stronghold; therefore they called 8 it the city of David. And he built the city round about, even from the Millo[n] round about; and Joab 9 renewed the rest of the city. And David became continually greater; and Jehovah of hosts was with him.
10 And these are the chief of the mighty men whom David had, who shewed themselves valiant[o] with him in his kingdom, with all Israel, to make him king, according to the word of Jehovah con-11 cerning Israel. And this is the number of the mighty men whom David had: Jashobeam, the son of Hachmoni, the chief of the captains; [p] he brandished his spear against three hundred, slain 12 [by him] at one time. And after him, Eleazar the son of Dodo, the Ahohite; he was one of the three 13 mighty men. He was with David at Pas-dammim, where the Philistines were gathered together to battle; and there was [there] a plot of ground full of barley; and the people had fled from before 14 the Philistines. And they stood in the midst of the plot and delivered it, and smote the Philistines; and Jehovah wrought a great deliverance.[q] 15 And three of the thirty chiefs went down to the rock to David, to the cave of Adullam, when the army of the Philistines was encamped in the valley of Rephaim.
16 And David was then in the stronghold; and the Philistines' garrison 17 was then at Bethlehem. And David longed, and said, Oh that one would give me to drink of the water of the well of Bethlehem, 18 which is in the gate! And the three broke through the camp of the Philistines, and drew water out of the well of Bethlehem, which is in the gate, and took it, and brought it to David; David however would not drink of it, 19 but poured it out to Jehovah. And he said, My God forbid it me, that [n] The rampart or citadel. [o] Or 'strengthened themselves.' [p] Or 'of the thirty.'

[q] Heb. 'saved [with] a great salvation.'

I should do this thing! should I drink the blood of these men [who went] at the risk of their lives? for at the risk of their lives they brought it. Therefore he would not drink it. These things did the three mighty men.

20 And Abishai the brother of Joab, he was the chief of three; and he brandished his spear against three hundred and slew them; and he 21 had a name among the three. Of the three he was more honourable than the two, and he was their captain; but he did not attain to the [first] three.

22 Benaiah the son of Jehoiada, the son of a valiant man, great in exploits, of Kabzeel: he it was that smote two lions[r] of Moab; and he went down and smote a lion in the midst of a pit on a 23 snowy day. He also smote the Egyptian, a man of stature, five cubits high: and in the Egyptian's hand was a spear like a weaver's beam; and he went down to him with a staff, and plucked the spear out of the Egyptian's hand, and slew him with his own spear.
24 These things did Benaiah the son 25 of Jehoiada, and he had a name among the three mighty men. Behold, he was honoured above the thirty, but he did not attain to the [first] three. And David set him in his council.

26 And the valiant men of the forces were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan the son of Dodo 27 of Bethlehem, Shammoth the 28 Harorite, Helez the Pelonite, Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite, 29 Abiezer the Anathothite, Sibbechai the Hushathite, Ilai the 30 Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite, Heled the son of Baanah the 31 Netophathite, Ittai the son of Ribai of Gibeah of the children of Benjamin, Benaiah the Pirathon-32 ite, Hurai of the brooks of Gaash, 33 Abiel the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Baharumite, Eliahba the Shaal-34 bonite, Bene-Hashem the Gizonite, Jonathan the son of Shage the 35 Hararite, Ahiam the son of Sacar the Hararite, Eliphal the son of 36 Ur, Hepher the Mecherathite, Ahi-37 jah the Pelonite, Hezro the Carmelite, Naarai the son of Ezbai, 38 Joel the brother of Nathan, Mib-39 har the son of Hagri, Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Berothite, the armourbearer of Joab the son 40 of Zeruiah, Ira the Ithrite, Gareb 41 the Ithrite, Uriah the Hittite, 42 Zabad the son of Ahlai, Adina the son of Shiza the Reubenite, a captain of the Reubenites, and thirty 43 with him; Hanan the son of Maachah, and Joshaphat the Mith-44 nite, Uzzia the Ashtarothite, Shama and Jeiel the sons of Ho-45 tham the Aroerite, Jediael the son of Shimri, and Joha his brother, 46 the Tizite, Eliel of Mahavim, and Jeribai, and Joshaviah, the sons of Elnaam, and Jithmah the 47 Moabite, Eliel, and Obed, and Jaasiel the Mezobaite.

12 Now these are they that came to David to Ziklag, while he kept still close because of Saul the son of Kish; and they were among the mighty men who helped him
2 in the conflict; armed with bows, using both the right hand and the left with stones and with arrows on the bow; [they were] of Saul's
3 brethren of Benjamin: the chief Ahiezer, and Joash, the sons of Shemaah the Gibeathite; and Jeziel, and Pelet, the sons of Azmaveth; and Berachah, and Jehu 4 the Anathothite, and Jishmaiah the Gibeonite, a mighty man among the thirty, and over the thirty; and Jeremiah, and Jahaziel, and Johanan, and Jozabad 5 the Gederathite, Eluzai, and Jerimoth, and Bealiah, and Shemariah, and Shephatiah the Haruphite; 6 Elkanah, and Jishijah, and Azarecl, and Joezer, and Jashobeam, 7 the Korahites; and Joelah, and Zebadiah, the sons of Jeroham of Gedor.

8 And of the Gadites, there separated themselves to David in the stronghold in the wilderness mighty men of valour, men fit for the service of war, armed with shield and spear, whose faces were [like] the faces of lions, and who were swift as the gazelles upon the 9 mountains: Ezer the first, Obadiah the second, Eliab the third, 10 Mishmannah the fourth, Jeremiah 11 the fifth, Attai the sixth, Eliel the 12 seventh, Johanan the eighth, Elza-13 bad the ninth, Jeremiah the tenth, 14 Machbannai the eleventh. These were of the sons of Gad, captains of the host: one of the least was over a hundred, and the greatest 15 over a thousand. These are they that went over Jordan in the first month, when it overflows all its banks, and they put to flight all [them] of the valleys, toward the east and toward the west.

16 And there came of the children

[r] Great heroes: see on 2 Sam. xxiii. 20.

of Benjamin and Judah to the 17 stronghold to David. And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, If ye come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit unto you;
but if to betray me to mine enemies, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our fathers 18 see [it] and rebuke [it]. And the spirit came upon Amasai, the chief of the captains, [and he said,] Thine [are we], David, and with thee, thou son of Jesse: peace, peace be to thee, and peace be to thy helpers; for thy God helps thee. And David received them, and made them chiefs of bands.
19 And there fell some of Manasseh to David, when he came with the Philistines against Saul to battle: but they helped them not; for the lords of the Philistines upon deliberation sent him away, saying, He will fall to his master Saul 20 at the peril of our heads. As he went away to Ziklag, there fell to him of Manasseh: Adnah, and Jozabad, and Jediael, and Michael, and Jozabad, and Elihu, and Zilthai, captains of the thousands 21 that were of Manasseh. And they helped David in his expeditions;[s] for they were all mighty men of valour, and were captains in the 22 host. For day by day there came [men] to David to help him, until it was a great camp, like the camp of God.
23 And this is the number of the men[t] equipped for military service, who came to David to Hebron, to transfer the kingdom of Saul to him, according to the 24 word[v] of Jehovah. The children of Judah that bore shield and spear were six thousand eight hundred, equipped for military 25 service. Of the children of Simeon, mighty men of valour for war, seven thousand one hundred.
26 Of the children of Levi four thou-27 sand six hundred. And Jehoiada the prince of Aaron, and with him were three thousand seven hun-28 dred; and Zadok, a valiant young man, and his father's house two 29 and twenty chief men. And of the children of Benjamin, the brethren of Saul, three thousand; but hitherto the greater part of them had adhered[w] to the house of Saul.
30 And of the children of Ephraim twenty thousand eight hundred, mighty men of valour, men of 31 name in their fathers' houses. And of the half tribe of Manasseh eighteen thousand, who were expressed by name, to come and make David 32 king. And of the children of Issachar, who had understanding of the times, to know what Israel ought to do, the heads of them were two hundred; and all their brethren were at their bidding.
33 Of Zebulun, such as went forth in the host, armed for war with all weapons of war, fifty thousand, keeping rank without double 34 heart. And of Naphtali a thousand captains, and with them thirty-seven thousand with shield 35 and spear. And of the Danites armed for war twenty-eight thou-36 sand six hundred. And of Asher such as went forth in the host, to set themselves in battle array, 37 forty thousand. And from the other side of the Jordan, of the Reubenites, and the Gadites, and of the half tribe of Manasseh, with all manner of weapons of war for battle, a hundred and twenty 38 thousand. All of them men of war, keeping rank in battle array, came with a perfect heart to Hebron, to make David king over all Israel; and all the rest also of Israel were of one heart to make 39 David king. And there they were with David three days, eating and drinking; for their brethren had 40 prepared for them; and those too that were near them, as far as Issachar and Zebulun and Naph-tali, brought food on asses, and on camels, and on mules, and on oxen; provisions of meal, fig-cakes and raisin-cakes, and wine and oil, and oxen and sheep, abundantly; for there was joy in Israel.

13 And David consulted with the captains of thousands and hun-2 dreds, with every prince. And David said to all the congregation of Israel, If it seem good to you, and it be of Jehovah our God, let us send abroad to our brethren everywhere, that are left in all the lands of Israel, and with them to the priests and Levites in their cities and suburbs, that they may 3 gather themselves to us; and let us bring again the ark of our God to us; for we inquired not of it 4 in the days of Saul. And all the congregation said that they should do so; for the thing was right in 5 the eyes of all the people. And [s] Or 'against the troop (i.e. of the Amalekites?).'

David assembled all Israel from the Shihor of Egypt unto the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of 6 God from Kirjath-jearim. And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from thence the ark of God, of Jehovah, who sitteth between[x] the cherubim, whose name is 7 placed[v] [there]. And they carried the ark of God on a new cart out of the house of Abinadab; and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.
8 And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with lutes, and with tambours, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.
9 And when they came to the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen had stumbled.[z] 10 And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he had put forth his hand to the ark; and 11 there he died before God. And David was indignant; for Jehovah had made a breach upon Uzza; and he called that place Perez-12 Uzza[a] to this day. And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God 13 to me? And David brought not the ark home unto himself into the city of David, but he carried it aside into the house of Obed-14 Edom the Gittite. And the ark of God remained with the family[b] of Obed-Edom in his house three months. And Jehovah blessed the house of Obed-Edom, and all that he had.

14 And Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, and timber of cedars, with masons and carpenters, to build him a house.
2 And David perceived that Jehovah had established him king over Israel, for his kingdom was highly exalted, because of his people Israel.
3 And David took more wives at Jerusalem: and David begot more 4 sons and daughters. And these are the names of the children which he had in Jerusalem: Shammua, and Shobab, Nathan, and Solo-5 mon, and Ibhar, and Elishua, and 6 Elpelet, and Nogah, and Nepheg, 7 and Japhia, and Elishama, and Beeliada, and Eliphelet.
8 And the Philistines heard that David was anointed king over all Israel, and all the Philistines went up to seek David; and David heard [of it], and went out against 9 them. And the Philistines came and spread themselves in the 10 valley of Rephaim. And David inquired of God saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines, and wilt thou give them into my hand? And Jehovah said to him, Go up; and I will give them into thy hand.
11 And they came up to Baal-perazim, and David smote them there; and David said, God has broken in upon mine enemies by my hand, as the breaking forth of waters. Therefore they called the name of 12 that place Baal-perazim.[c] And they left their gods there; and David commanded, and they were burned with fire.
13 And the Philistines yet again spread themselves in the valley.
14 And David inquired again of God; and God said to him, Go not up after them; turn round them and come upon them opposite the 15 mulberry-trees. And it shall be, when thou hearest the sound of marching in the tops of the mulberry-trees, that then thou shalt go out to battle; for God will have gone forth before thee to smite the 16 army[d] of the Philistines. And David did as God commanded him; and they smote the army[d] of the Philistines from Gibeon even 17 to Gezer. And the fame of David went out into all lands; and Jehovah brought the fear of him upon all the nations.

15 And he made him houses in the city of David, and prepared a place for the ark of God, and 2 spread a tent for it. Then David said, None ought to carry the ark of God but the Levites, for them has Jehovah chosen to carry the ark of God, and to serve him for 3 ever. And David assembled all Israel to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of Jehovah to its place 4 that he had prepared for it. And David gathered the sons of Aaron 5 and the Levites: of the sons of Kohath, Uriel the chief, and his brethren a hundred and twenty; 6 of the sons of Merari, Asaiah the chief, and his brethren two hun-7 dred and twenty; of the sons of Gershom, Joel the chief, and his 8 brethren a hundred and thirty; of the sons of Elizaphan, Shemaiah the chief, and his brethren two

9 hundred; of the sons of Hebron, Eliel the chief, and his brethren 10 eighty; of the sons of Uzziel, Amminadab the chief, and his brethren 11 a hundred and twelve. And David called for Zadok and Abiathar the priests, and for the Levites, for Uriel, Asaiah, and Joel, Shemaiah, and Eliel, and Amminadab; 12 and he said to them, Ye are the chief fathers of the Levites; hallow yourselves, ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of Jehovah the God of Israel to [the place that] 13 I have prepared for it. For because ye [did it] not at the first, Jehovah our God made a breach upon us, for that we sought him 14 not after the due order. So the priests and the Levites hallowed themselves to bring up the ark of Jehovah the God of Israel.
15 And the children of the Levites bore the ark of God upon their shoulders with the staves upon them, as Moses had commanded according to the word of Jehovah.
16 And David spoke to the chief of the Levites to appoint their brethren, the singers, with instruments of music, lutes, and harps, and cymbals, that they should sound aloud, lifting up the voice with 17 joy. And the Levites appointed Heman the son of Joel; and of his brethren, Asaph the son of Berechiah; and of the sons of Merari their brethren, Ethan the son of 18 Kushaiah; and with them their brethren of the second [rank], Zechariah, Ben, and Jaaziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, Eliab, and Benaiah, and Maaseiah, and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, the door-keep-19 ers; and the singers, Heman, Asaph, and Ethan, to sound aloud 20 with cymbals of brass; and Zechariah, and Aziel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Unni, and Eliab, and Maaseiah, and Benaiah, with 21 lutes on Alamoth;[e] and Mattithiah, and Elipheleh, and Mikneiah, and Obed-Edom and Jeiel, and Azaziah, with harps on the Sheminith[f] to lead [the singing].
22 And Chenaniah, chief of the Levites for the music,[g] gave instruction in music,[g] for he was skilful.
23 And Berechiah and Elkanah were 24 doorkeepers for the ark. And Shebaniah, and Jehoshaphat, and Nethaneel, and Amasai, and Zechariah, and Benaiah, and Eliezer, the priests, blew with the trumpets before the ark of God; and Obed-Edom and Jehiah were doorkeepers for the ark.
25 And David, and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah out of the house of Obed-Edom with joy.
26 And it came to pass, when God helped the Levites that bore the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, that they sacrificed seven bullocks 27 and seven rams. And David was clothed with a robe of byssus, and all the Levites that bore the ark, and the singers, and Chenaniah chief of the music of the singers; and David had upon him a linen 28 ephod. And all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah with shouting, and with sound of the trumpet, and with clarions, and with cymbals, playing aloud 29 with lutes and harps. And it came to pass as the ark of the covenant of Jehovah came to the city of David, that Michal the daughter of Saul looked through a window, and saw king David dancing and playing; and she despised him in her heart.

16 And they brought in the ark of God, and set it in the midst of the tent that David had spread for it; and they presented burnt-offerings and peace-offerings before 2 God. And when David had ended offering up the burnt-offerings and the peace-offerings, he blessed the people in the name of Jehovah.
3 And he dealt to every one of Israel, both man and woman, to every one a loaf of bread and a measure 4 [of wine[h]] and a raisin-cake. And he appointed certain of the Levites to do the service before the ark of Jehovah, and to celebrate, and to thank and praise Jehovah the God 5 of Israel: Asaph the chief, and second to him Zechariah, Jeiel, and Shemiramoth, and Jehiel, and Mattithiah, and Eliab, and Benaiah, and Obed-Edom, and Jeiel, with instruments of lutes and with harps; and Asaph sounding with 6 cymbals; and Benaiah and Jahaziel the priests with trumpets continually before the ark of the covenant of God.
7 Then on that day David delivered first[1] [this psalm] to give thanks to Jehovah through Asaph and his brethren.

[e] Most probably '[voices] of young women.' [f] Lit. 'eighth,' probably the bass or octave below. [g] Or 'transport.' [h] Or 'a ration [of flesh].'

8 Give thanks unto Jehovah, call upon his name; Make known his acts among the peoples.
9 Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him;
Meditate upon [i] all his wondrous works.
10 Glory in his holy name:
Let the heart of them rejoice that seek Jehovah.
11 Seek Jehovah and his strength, Seek his face continually;
12 Remember his wondrous works which he hath done,
His miracles, and the judgments [j] of his mouth:
13 Ye seed of Israel his servant,
Ye sons of Jacob, his chosen ones.
14 He, Jehovah, is our God;
His judgments are in all the earth.
15 Be ye ever mindful of his covenant,
The word which he commanded to a thousand generations,— 16 Which he made with Abraham,
And of his oath unto Isaac;
17 And he confirmed it unto Jacob for a statute, Unto Israel for an everlasting covenant, 18 Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan,
The lot of your inheritance;
19 When ye were a few men in number,
Of small account, and strangers in it.
20 And they went from nation to nation,
And from one kingdom to another people.
21 He suffered no man to oppress them,
And reproved kings for their sakes, 22 [Saying,] Touch not mine anointed ones,
And do my prophets no harm.
23 Sing unto Jehovah, all the earth;
Publish his salvation from day to day.
24 Declare his glory among the nations,
His wondrous works among all peoples.
25 For Jehovah is great, and exceedingly to be praised;
And he is terrible above all gods.
26 For all the gods of the peoples are idols; [k]
But Jehovah made the heavens.
27 Majesty and splendour are before him;
Strength and gladness in his place.
28 Give unto Jehovah, ye families of peoples, Give unto Jehovah glory and strength!
29 Give unto Jehovah the glory of his name;
Bring an oblation, and come before him;
Worship Jehovah in holy splendour.
30 Tremble before him, all the earth:
The world also is established, it shall not be moved.
31 Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
And let them say among the nations, Jehovah reigneth!
32 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
Let the field exult, and all that is therein.
33 Then shall the trees of the forest sing out at the presence of Jehovah, For he cometh to judge the earth.
34 Give thanks unto Jehovah, for he is good;
For his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.
35 And say,
Save us, O God of our salvation,
And gather us, and deliver us from the nations,
To give thanks unto thy holy name,
To triumph in thy praise.
36 Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, from eternity and to eternity!
And all the people said, Amen! and praised Jehovah.
37 And he left there, before the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, Asaph and his brethren, to do the service before the ark continually, 38 as every day's duty required; and Obed-Edom, and their brethren, sixty-eight; Obed-Edom also, the son of Jeduthun, and Hosah as 39 doorkeepers. And Zadok the priest, and his brethren the priests, before the tabernacle of Jehovah in the high place that was at 40 Gibeon, to offer up burnt-offerings to Jehovah on the altar of burnt-offering continually, morning and evening, and according to all that is written in the law of Jehovah, 41 which he commanded Israel; and with them Heman and Jeduthun, and the rest that were chosen, who were expressed by name, to give thanks to Jehovah, because his loving-kindness [endureth] for 42 ever; and with them, [with] Heman and Jeduthun, [l] trumpets and cymbals for those that should sound aloud; and the musical instruments of God. And the sons 43 of Jeduthun were at the gate. And all the people departed every one to his house; and David returned to bless his household.

17 And it came to pass as David dwelt in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Behold, I dwell in a house of cedars, and the ark of the covenant of 2 Jehovah under curtains. And Nathan said to David, Do all that is in thy heart; for God is with thee.
3 And it came to pass that night that the word of God came to 4 Nathan saying, Go and say to David my servant, Thus saith Jehovah: Thou shalt not build 5 me a house to dwell in; for I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day; but I have been from tent to tent, and from [one] tabernacle 6 [to another]. In all my going about with all Israel, did I speak a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why build 7 ye me not a house of cedars? And now, thus shalt thou say unto my servant David, Thus saith Jehovah of hosts: I took thee from the pasture-grounds, from following the sheep, to be prince over 8 my people Israel; and I have been with thee whithersoever thou wentest, and have cut off all thine enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name, like unto the name of the great men that 9 are on the earth. And I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in a place of their own, and be disturbed no more; neither shall the sons of wickedness waste 10 them any more, as formerly, and since the days that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. And I will subdue[m] all thine enemies; and I tell thee that Jehovah will build thee a house.
11 And it shall come to pass, when thy days are fulfilled that thou must go [to be] with thy fathers, that I will set up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.
12 It is he who shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne for 13 ever. I will be his father, and he shall be my son; and I will not take away my mercy from him, as I took it from him that was 14 before thee; and I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom 15 for ever; and his throne shall be established for ever. According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.
16 And king David went in and sat before Jehovah, and said, Who am I, Jehovah Elohim, and what is my house, that thou hast brought 17 me hitherto? And this hath been a small thing in thy sight, O God; and thou hast spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the rank of a man of high degree, Jehovah Elohim.
18 What can David [say] more to thee for the glory of thy servant? thou indeed knowest thy servant.
19 Jehovah, for thy servant's sake, and according to thine own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, to make known all these great 20 things. Jehovah, there is none like thee, neither is there any God beside thee, according to all that 21 we have heard with our ears. And who is like thy people Israel, the one nation in the earth that God went to redeem to be a people to himself, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness,[n] by driving out nations from before thy people, which thou hast re-22 deemed out of Egypt? And thy people Israel hast thou made thine own people for ever; and thou, Jehovah, art become their 23 God. And now, Jehovah, let the word that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.
24 Let it even be established, and let thy name be magnified for ever, saying, Jehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, is God to Israel; and let the house of David thy servant
25 be established before thee. For thou, my God, hast revealed to thy servant that thou wilt build him a house; therefore hath thy servant found [in his heart] to pray 26 before thee. And now, Jehovah, thou art that God,[o] and hast promised this goodness unto thy ser-27 vant; and now, let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever; for thou, Jehovah, hast blessed [it], and it shall be blessed for ever.

18 And after this it came to pass that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the 2 hand of the Philistines. And he [m] Or 'I have subdued.' [n] Or 'by great and terrible acts.' [o] See 2 Sam. vii. 28.

smote the Moabites; and the Moabites became David's servants, [and] brought gifts.
3 And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah, at Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by 4 the river Euphrates. And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David houghed all the chariot [horses], but reserved of them [for] a hundred chariots.
5 And the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, and David smote of the Syrians twenty-two thousand men.
6 And David put [garrisons] in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, [and] brought gifts. And Jehovah preserved David whithersoever he went.
7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and 8 brought them to Jerusalem. And from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, David took very much brass,[p] of which Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.
9 And Tou king of Hamath heard that David had smitten all the forces of Hadarezer king of Zobah;
10 and he sent Hadoram his son to king David to inquire of his welfare, and to congratulate[q] him, because he had fought against Hadarezer and smitten him; for Hadarezer was continually at war with Tou; [he sent] also all manner of vessels of gold and silver 11 and bronze. Them also king David dedicated to Jehovah, with the silver and the gold that he had brought from all the nations: from the Edomites, and from the Moabites, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from the Amalekites.
12 And Abishai the son of Zeruiah smote of the Edomites in the val-13 ley of salt eighteen thousand. And he put garrisons in Edom; and all they of Edom became servants to David. And Jehovah preserved David whithersoever he went.
14 And David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment[r] 15 and justice to all his people. And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the 16 son of Ahilud was chronicler; and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Shavsha 17 was scribe; and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites;[s] and the sons of David were the first at the king's hand.

19 And it came to pass after this that Nahash king of the children of Ammon died, and his son 2 reigned in his stead. And David said, I will shew kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father shewed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. And David's servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort 3 him. And the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Is it, in thine eyes, to honour thy father that David has sent comforters to thee? Is it not to search and overthrow, and to spy out the land that his servants are 4 come to thee? And Hanun took David's servants, and had them shaved, and their raiment cut off in the midst, as far as the hip, and 5 sent them away. And [certain] went and told David concerning the men; and he sent to meet them, for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Abide at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.
6 And the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David; and Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and from the Syrians 7 of Maacah, and from Zobah. And they hired thirty-two thousand chariots,[t] and the king of Maacah and his people; and they came and encamped before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered together from their cities, 8 and came to battle. And David heard [of it], and he sent Joab, and all the host, the mighty men.
9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the entrance of the city; and the kings that had come were by 10 themselves on the field. And Joab saw that the front of the battle was against him before and behind; and he chose out of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in 11 array against the Syrians; and the rest of the people he gave into the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.

12 And he said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me; and if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, 13 then I will help thee. Be strong, and let us shew ourselves valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God; and Jehovah will 14 do what is good in his sight. And Joab and the people that were with him drew near in front of the Syrians to the battle; and they 15 fled before him. And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. And Joab came to Jerusalem.
16 And when the Syrians saw that they were routed before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river;[u] and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer 17 [went] before them. And it was told David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over the Jordan, and came upon them, and set [the battle] in array against them. And David put the battle in array against the Syrians, and they 18 fought with him. And the Syrians fled from before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand [in] chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and slew Shophach the 19 captain of the host. And the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were routed before Israel, and they made peace with David, and became his servants. And the Syrians would no more help the children of Ammon.

20 And it came to pass at the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go forth, that Joab led forth the power of the army, and laid waste the land of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David abode at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and over-2 threw it. And David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was [set] upon David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city
3 in great abundance. And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with the saw, and with harrows of iron, and with saws.[v] And so David did to all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.
4 And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines; then Sibbechai the Hushathite smote Sippai, one of the children of Rapha;[w] and they were subdued.
5 And there was again a battle with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair smote Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite; now the shaft of his spear was like a weaver's beam.
6 And there was again a battle, at Gath; and there was a man [there] of great stature, whose fingers [and toes] were four and twenty, six [on each hand], and six [on each foot]; and he also was born to 7 Rapha. And he defied Israel; but Jonathan the son of Shimea David's 8 brother smote him. These were born to Rapha in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.

21 And Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to 2 number Israel. And David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that 3 I may know it. And Joab said, Jehovah add to his people, how many soever they be, a hundredfold: are they not all, my lord O king, my lord's servants? why does my lord require this thing? why should he become a trespass
4 to Israel? But the king's word prevailed against Joab; and Joab departed, and went through all Israel, and came [again] to Jeru-5 salem. And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. And all they of Israel were eleven hundred thousand men that drew sword; and of Judah, four hundred and seventy thou-6 sand men that drew sword. But Levi and Benjamin he did not count among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab.
7 And God was displeased on account of this thing, and he 8 smote Israel. And David said to God, I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing; and now, I beseech thee, put away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have 9 done very foolishly. And Jehovah spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

[u] That is, the Euphrates. [v] Others read 'axes,' as in 2 Sam. xii. 31. [w] Some read 'the giants.'

10 Go and speak to David saying, Thus saith Jehovah: I offer thee three [things]; choose one of them, that I may do it unto thee.
11 And Gad came to David, and said to him, Thus saith Jehovah:
12 Choose thee, either three years of famine, or three months to be destroyed before thine adversaries while that the sword of thine enemies overtaketh thee, or three days the sword of Jehovah and the pestilence in the land, and the angel of Jehovah destroying through all the borders of Israel. And now consider what word I shall bring again to him that sent 13 me. And David said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall, I pray thee, into the hand of Jehovah, for his mercies are very great;[x] but let me not fall into the hand of man.
14 And Jehovah sent a pestilence upon Israel; and there fell of 15 Israel seventy thousand men. And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it; and as he was destroying, Jehovah beheld, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough; withdraw now thine hand. And the angel of Jehovah stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of Jehovah stand between the earth and the heavens, and his sword drawn in his hand, stretched out over Jerusalem. And David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their 17 faces. And David said to God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? It is I that have sinned and done evil; but these sheep, what have they done? Let thy hand, I pray thee, Jehovah my God, be on me and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be smitten.
18 And the angel of Jehovah commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up and rear an altar to Jehovah in the threshing-19 floor of Ornan the Jebusite. And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he had spoken in the name of Jehovah.
20 And Ornan turned back and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.
21 And David came to Ornan, and Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with 22 [his] face to the ground. And David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of the threshing-floor, that I may build an altar in it to Jehovah: grant it to me for the full money, that the plague may be 23 stayed from the people. And Ornan said to David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his sight: see, I give the oxen for the burnt-offering, and the threshing-sledges for wood, and the wheat for the 24 oblation; I give it all. And king David said to Ornan, No; but I will in any case buy [them] for the full money; for I will not take that which is thine for Jehovah, to offer up a burnt-offering without 25 cost. And David gave to Ornan for the place in shekels of gold the weight of six hundred [shekels].
26 And David built there an altar to Jehovah, and offered up burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon Jehovah; and he answered him from the heavens by fire upon the altar of burnt-27 offering. And Jehovah spoke to the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath.
28 At that time when David saw that Jehovah had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.
29 And the tabernacle of Jehovah, which Moses had made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt-offering, were at that time in the 30 high place at Gibeon. But David could not go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of Jehovah.

22 And David said, This is the house of Jehovah Elohim, and this is the altar of burnt-offering for Israel.
2 And David commanded to collect the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the 3 house of God. And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joists,[y] and brass in 4 abundance without weight; and cedar-trees innumerable; for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought cedar-wood in abundance to Da-5 vid. For David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for Jehovah must be exceeding great in fame and in beauty in all lands:

[x] Or 'very many.' [y] Or 'couplings.'

I will therefore make preparation for it. And David prepared abundantly before his death.
6 And he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a house for Jehovah the God of 7 Israel. And David said to Solomon, As for me, my son, I was minded to build a house unto the 8 name of Jehovah my God. But the word of Jehovah came to me saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build a house unto my name, for thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my 9 sight. Behold, a son shall be borne to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about; for his name shall be Solomon,[z] and in his days I will give peace 10 and quietness unto Israel. He shall build a house unto my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over 11 Israel for ever. Now, my son, Jehovah be with thee, that thou mayest prosper, and build the house of Jehovah thy God, as he 12 has said of thee. Only, Jehovah give thee wisdom and understanding, and place thee over Israel, and to keep the law of Je-13 hovah thy God. Then shalt thou prosper, if thou takest heed to perform the statutes and ordinances which Jehovah commanded Moses for Israel: be strong and courageous; fear not, 14 neither be dismayed. And behold, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of Jehovah a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight, for it is in abundance; and timber and stone have I prepared; 15 and thou shalt add to it. And there are workmen with thee in abundance, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of skilful men for every kind of 16 work. Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and Jehovah be with thee.
17 And David commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon 18 his son, [saying,] Is not Jehovah your God with you? and has he [not] given you rest on every side? for he has given the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before Jehovah 19 and before his people. Now set your heart and your soul to seek Jehovah your God; and arise and build the sanctuary of Jehovah Elohim, to bring the ark of the covenant of Jehovah, and the vessels of the sanctuary of God into the house that is to be built unto the name of Jehovah.

23 And David was old and full of days; and he made Solomon his son king over Israel.
2 And he gathered together all the princes of Israel, with the priests 3 and the Levites. And the Levites were numbered from thirty years old and upward; and their number, by their polls, man by man, 4 was thirty-eight thousand. Of these, twenty-four thousand were to preside over the work of the house of Jehovah; and six thousand were officers[a] and judges;
5 and four thousand were doorkeepers; and four thousand praised Jehovah with the instruments which I made, [said David,] to praise [therewith].
6 And David divided them into courses according to the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath, and Merari.
7 Of the Gershonites: Laadan and 8 Shimei. The sons of Laadan: the head[b] was Jehiel, and Zetham, and 9 Joel, three. The sons of Shimei: Shelomith, and Haziel, and Haran, three. These were the chief 10 fathers of Laadan. And the sons of Shimei: Jahath, Ziza,[c] and Jeush, and Beriah. These were the 11 four sons of Shimei. And Jahath was the head,[b] and Ziza the second; and Jeush and Beriah had not many sons: as father's house, therefore, they were reckoned as one.
12 The sons of Kohath: Amram, Jizhar, Hebron, and Uzziel, four.
13 The sons of Amram: Aaron and Moses. And Aaron was separated, that he should be hallowed as most holy, he and his sons for ever, to offer[d] before Jehovah, to do service to him, and to bless in his 14 name for ever.—And as to Moses the man of God, his sons were 15 named of the tribe of Levi. The sons of Moses: Gershom and Eli-16 ezer. The sons of Gershom: She-17 buel the head. And the sons of Eliezer: Rehabiah the head; and Eliezer had no other sons, but the sons of Rehabiah were very many.

18 —The sons of Jizhar: Shelomith 19 the head. The sons of Hebron: Jeriah the head, Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, and 20 Jekameam the fourth. The sons of Uzziel: Micah the head, and Jishijah the second.
21 The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi. The sons of Mahli: Ele-22 azar and Kish. And Eleazar died, and had no sons, but daughters; and their brethren the sons of 23 Kish took them. The sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jeremoth, three.
24 These were the sons of Levi according to their fathers' houses, the chief fathers, as they were reckoned, by number of names by their polls, who did the work of the service of the house of Jehovah, from twenty years old and 25 upward. For David said, Jehovah the God of Israel has given rest to his people, and he will dwell in 26 Jerusalem for ever; and the Levites also have no more to carry the tabernacle, nor any of its 27 vessels for its service. For by the last words of David was this [done], —the numbering of the sons of Levi from twenty years old and 28 upward. For their place was by the side of [e] the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Jehovah, over the courts, and over the chambers, and over the purifying of all holy things, and [for] the work of the service of the house of 29 God; and for the loaves to be set in rows, and for the fine flour for the oblation, and for the unleavened cakes, and for [what is baked in] the pan, and for that which is saturated [with oil], and for all measure of capacity and 30 size; and to stand every morning to thank and praise Jehovah, and 31 likewise at even; and for all burnt-offerings offered up to Jehovah on the sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the ordinance concerning them, contin-32 ually, before Jehovah; and they kept the charge of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the sanctuary, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of Jehovah.

24 And the divisions [f] of the sons of Aaron: the sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and 2 Ithamar. And Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children; and Eleazar and Ithamar exercised the priesthood.
3 And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their office in their 4 service. And there were more head-men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar, and [thus] were they divided: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen heads of fathers' houses, and eight of the sons of Ithamar according to their fathers' houses.
5 And they were divided by lot, one with another; for the princes of the sanctuary and the princes of God were of the sons of Eleazar 6 and of the sons of Ithamar. And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, [one] of the Levites, inscribed them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the chief fathers of the priests and Levites: one father's house was drawn for Eleazar, and one drawn for Ithamar.
7 And the first lot came forth for Jehoiarib, the second for Jedaiah, 8 the third for Harim, the fourth for 9 Seorim, the fifth for Malchijah, the 10 sixth for Mijamin, the seventh for Hakkoz, [g] the eighth for Abijah, 11 the ninth for Jeshuah, the tenth 12 for Shecaniah, the eleventh for Eliashib, the twelfth for Jakim, 13 the thirteenth for Huppah, the 14 fourteenth for Jeshebeab, the fifteenth for Bilgah, the sixteenth 15 for Immer, the seventeenth for Hezir, the eighteenth for Happi-16 zez, [h] the nineteenth for Pethahiah, 17 the twentieth for Ezekiel, [i] the twenty-first for Jachin, the twenty-18 second for Gamul, the twenty-third for Delaiah, the twenty-19 fourth for Maaziah. This is their ordering in their service to come into the house of Jehovah, according to their ordinance, through Aaron their father, as Jehovah the God of Israel had commanded him.
20 And as for the rest of the sons of Levi: of the sons of Amram, Shubael; of the sons of Shubael, 21 Jehdeiah. Of Rehabiah, of the sons of Rehabiah, the head was 22 Jishijah. Of the Jizharites, Shelomoth; of the sons of Shelomoth, 23 Jahath.—And the sons [of Hebron]: Jerijah [the head], Amariah the second, Jahaziel the third, 24 Jekameam the fourth. The sons of Uzziel, Micah; of the sons of 25 Micah, Shamir; the brother of Micah was Jishijah; of the sons 26 of Jishijah, Zechariah. The sons of Merari: Mahli and Mushi; the 27 sons of Jaaziah, his son.[k] The sons of Merari by Jaaziah his son: Sho-28 ham,[l] and Zaccur, and Ibri. Of Mahli: Eleazar, who had no sons.

29 Of Kish, the sons of Kish: Jerah-30 meel. And the sons of Mushi: Mahli, and Eder, and Jerimoth.
These were the sons of the Levites according to their fathers' houses.
31 These likewise cast lots just as their brethren the sons of Aaron before David the king, and Zadok, and Ahimelech, and the chief fathers of the priests and Levites, —the chief fathers just as the youngest of their brethren.

25 And David and the captains of the host separated for the service those of the sons of Asaph and of Heman and of Jeduthun who were to prophesy with harps and lutes and cymbals; and the number of the men employed ac-
2 cording to their service was: of the sons of Asaph: Zaccur, and Joseph, and Nethaniah, and Asha-relah, the sons of Asaph under the direction[m] of Asaph, who pro-3 phesied at the direction[m] of the king. Of Jeduthun, the sons of Jeduthun: Gedaliah, and Zeri, and Isaiah, Hashabiah, and Matti-thiah, [and Shimei[n]] six, under the direction of their father Jeduthun, who prophesied with the harp, to give thanks and to praise Jehovah.
4 Of Heman, the sons of Heman: Bukkijah, Mattaniah, Uzziel, She-buel, and Jerimoth, Hananiah, Hanani, Eliathah, Giddalti, and Romamti-ezer, Joshbekashah, Mal-
5 lothi, Hothir, Mahazioth: all these were sons of Heman the king's seer in the words of God to exalt his power;[o] and God had given to Heman fourteen sons and three 6 daughters. All these were under the direction of their fathers Asaph, Jeduthun, and Heman, for song in the house of Jehovah, with cym-bals, lutes and harps, for the ser-vice of the house of God, under the 7 direction of the king. And the number of them, with their breth-ren that were instructed in the songs of Jehovah, all of them skil-ful,[p] was two hundred and eighty-eight.
8 And they cast lots with one another over the charges, the small as well as the great, the teacher[q] 9 with the scholar. And the first lot came forth for Asaph to Jo-seph; to Gedaliah the second: he and his brethren and his sons were 10 twelve. The third to Zaccur; his 11 sons and his brethren, twelve. The fourth to Jizri;[r] his sons and his 12 brethren, twelve. The fifth to Nethaniah; his sons and his breth-13 ren, twelve. The sixth to Bukki-jah; his sons and his brethren, 14 twelve. The seventh to Jeshare-lah; his sons and his brethren, 15 twelve. The eighth to Isaiah; his 16 sons and his brethren, twelve. The ninth to Mattaniah; his sons and 17 his brethren, twelve. The tenth to Shimei; his sons and his breth-18 ren, twelve. The eleventh to Aza-recl;[s] his sons and his brethren, 19 twelve. The twelfth to Hasha-biah; his sons and his brethren, 20 twelve. The thirteenth to Shu-bael;[t] his sons and his brethren, 21 twelve. The fourteenth to Matti-thiah; his sons and his brethren, 22 twelve. The fifteenth to Jere-moth; his sons and his brethren, 23 twelve. The sixteenth to Hana-niah; his sons and his brethren, 24 twelve. The seventeenth to Josh-bekashah; his sons and his breth-25 ren, twelve. The eighteenth to Hanani; his sons and his brethren, 26 twelve. The nineteenth to Mal-lothi; his sons and his brethren, 27 twelve. The twentieth to Elija-thah; his sons and his brethren, 28 twelve. The twenty-first to Ho-thir; his sons and his brethren, 29 twelve. The twenty-second to Giddalti; his sons and his breth-30 ren, twelve. The twenty-third to Mahazioth; his sons and his 31 brethren, twelve. The twenty-fourth to Romamti-ezer; his sons and his brethren, twelve.

4 And the sons of Obed-Edom: She-maiah the firstborn, Jehozabad the second, Joah the third, and Sacar the fourth, and Nethaneel the who were rulers in their father's house; for they were mighty men 7 of valour. The sons of Shemaiah: Othni, and Rephael, and Obed, [and] Elzabad, whose brethren were valiant men, Elihu and Sema-8 chiah. All these were of the sons of Obed-Edom: they and their sons and their brethren, able men in strength for the service, were 9 sixty-two of Obed-Edom.—And Meshelemiah had sons and brethren, men of valour, eighteen.— 10 And Hosah, of the sons of Merari, had sons: Shimri the head, for though he was not the firstborn, yet his father made him the head; 11 Hilkijah the second, Tebaliah the third, Zechariah the fourth: all the sons and brethren of Hosah 12 were thirteen. Among these were the divisions of the doorkeepers, among the head-men, as to the charges together with their brethren, for performing the service in the house of Jehovah.

13 And they cast lots, the small as well as the great, according to their fathers' houses, for every 14 gate. And the lot eastward fell to Shelemiah; and they cast lots for Zechariah his son, a wise counsellor, and his lot came out north-15 ward; to Obed-Edom southward; and to his sons the storehouse.
16 To Shuppim and Hosah westward, with the gate Shallecheth, by the causeway of the ascent, watch 17 against watch. Eastward were six Levites, northward four a day, southward four a day, and in the 18 storehouse two [and] two. At the portico[u] westward, four at the causeway, two at the portico.
19 These are the divisions of the door-keepers among the sons of the Korahites and among the sons of Merari.
20 And the Levites: Ahijah was over the treasures of the house of God, and over the treasures of the 21 dedicated things. The sons of Laadan, the sons of the Gershonites of Laadan, chief fathers of Laadan the Gershonite: Jehieli; 22 the sons of Jehieli: Zetham, and Joel his brother, over the treasures of the house of Jehovah.
23 As to the Amramites, the Jiz-harites, the Hebronites, the Uz-24 zielites. . . . And Shebuel the son of Gershom, the son of Moses, was 25 overseer of the treasures. And his brethren, of Eliezer: Rehabiah his son, and Isaiah his son, and Joram his son, and Zichri his son, 26 and Shelomith his son. This She-lomith and his brethren were over all the treasures of the dedicated things, which king David, and the chief fathers, the captains over thousands and hundreds, and the captains of the host, had dedicated 27 (from the wars and out of the spoils had they dedicated [them], to maintain the house of Jehovah), 28 and all that Samuel the seer, and Saul the son of Kish, and Abner the son of Ner, and Joab the son of Zeruiah had dedicated: all that was dedicated was under the hand of Shelomith and of his brethren.
29 Of the Jizharites, Chenaniah and his sons were over Israel, for the outward business for officers[v] and 30 judges. Of the Hebronites, Hashabiah and his brethren, men of valour, a thousand and seven hundred, for the administration of Israel on this side Jordan westward, for all the business of Jehovah and for the service of the king.
31 Of the Hebronites was Jerijah the head; (as to the Hebronites, according to their families[w] according to the fathers: in the fortieth year of the reign of David they were sought for, and there were found among them mighty men 32 of valour at Jaazer in Gilead;) and his brethren, men of valour, two thousand seven hundred chief fathers, whom king David made rulers over the Reubenites and the Gadites and the half tribe of the Manassites, for every matter pertaining to God, and the affairs of the king.

27 And [these] are the children of Israel after their number, the chief fathers and captains of thousands and hundreds, and their officers[x] that served the king in every matter of the divisions, which came in and went out month by month throughout the months of the year; in every division were twenty-four thousand.
2 Over the first division for the first month was Jashobeam the son of Zabdiel; and in his division 3 were twenty-four thousand. He was of the children of Pherez, the head of all the captains of the hosts for the first month.
4 And over the division of the second month was Dodai the Ahohite; and in his division was Mikloth ruler; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.

5 The third captain of the host for the third month was Benaiah (the son of Jehoiada, a principal officer): [he was] head; and in his division 6 were twenty-four thousand. This Benaiah was a mighty man among the thirty, and above the thirty; and in his division was Ammizabad his son.
7 The fourth for the fourth month was Asahel the brother of Joab, and Zebadiah his son after him; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
8 The fifth for the fifth month was the captain Shamhuth the Jizrahite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
9 The sixth for the sixth month was Ira the son of Ikkesh the Tekoite; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
10 The seventh for the seventh month was Helez the Pelonite, of the children of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
11 The eighth for the eighth month was Sibbechai the Hushathite, of the Zarhites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
12 The ninth for the ninth month was Abiezer the Anathothite, of the Benjaminites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
13 The tenth for the tenth month was Maharai the Netophathite, of the Zarhites; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
14 The eleventh for the eleventh month was Benaiah the Pirathonite, of the children of Ephraim; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
15 The twelfth for the twelfth month was Heldai the Netophathite, of Othniel; and in his division were twenty-four thousand.
16 And over the tribes of Israel were: for the Reubenites Eliezer the son of Zichri was the prince; [v] for the Simeonites, Shephatiah the 17 son of Maachah; for the Levites, Hashabiah the son of Kemuel; for 18 Aaron, Zadok; for Judah, Elihu of the brethren of David; for Issachar, Omri the son of Michael;
19 for Zebulun, Jishmaiah the son of Obadiah; for Naphtali, Jerimoth 20 the son of Azriel; for the children of Ephraim, Hosea the son of Azaziah; for the half tribe of Manasseh, Joel the son of Pedaiah; 21 for the half [tribe] of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo the son of Zechariah; for Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of 22 Abner; for Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.
23 And David took not their number from twenty years old and under; for Jehovah had said he would increase Israel as the stars 24 of heaven. Joab the son of Zeruiah began to number, but he did not finish; and there fell wrath for it upon Israel; and the number was not put in the account of the chronicles of king David.
25 And over the king's treasures was Azmaveth the son of Adiel; and over the storehouses in the country, in the cities, and in the villages, and in the towers was 26 Jonathan the son of Uzziah. And over them that worked in the field for tillage of the ground was Ezri 27 the son of Chelub. And over the vineyards was Shimei the Ramathite; and over what was in the vineyards of stores of wine was 28 Zabdi the Shiphmite: and over the olive-trees and the sycamore-trees [z] that were in the lowland [a] was Baal-hanan the Gederite; and over the cellars of oil was Joash.
29 And over the herds that fed in Sharon [b] was Shitrai the Sharonite; and over the herds in the valleys 30 was Shaphat the son of Adlai. And over the camels was Obil the Ishmaelite; and over the asses was 31 Jehdiah the Meronothite. And over the flocks was Jaziz the Hagarite. All these were comptrollers of the substance which was king David's.
32 And Jonathan, David's uncle, was counsellor, a wise man, and a scribe; and Jehiel the son of Hachmoni was with the king's 33 sons; and Ahithophel was the king's counsellor; and Hushai the 34 Archite was the king's friend; and after Ahithophel was Jehoiada the son of Benaiah, and Abiathar; and Joab was captain of the king's army.

28 And David assembled all the princes of Israel, the princes of the tribes, and the princes of the divisions that ministered to the king, and the captains over thousands, and the captains over hundreds, and the comptrollers of all the substance and possessions of the king and of his sons, with the chamberlains,[c] and the mighty men, and all the men of valour, 2 unto Jerusalem. And king David stood up upon his feet, and said, Hear me, my brethren and my people! I had in my heart to build a house of rest for the ark of the covenant of Jehovah and for the footstool of our God, and 3 I have prepared to build. But God said to me, Thou shalt not build a house unto my name, for thou art a man of war, and hast 4 shed blood. And Jehovah the God of Israel chose me out of all the house of my father to be king over Israel for ever; for he has chosen Judah to be the prince; and of the house of Judah, the house of my father; and among the sons of my father he took pleasure in me to make me king 5 over all Israel; and of all my sons, (for Jehovah has given me many sons,) he has chosen Solomon my son to sit upon the throne of the kingdom of Jehovah over Israel.

6 And he said to me, Solomon thy son, he shall build my house and my courts; for I have chosen him to be my son, and I will be his 7 father. And I will establish his kingdom for ever, if he be firm to do my commandments and mine 8 ordinances, as at this day. And now in the sight of all Israel, the congregation of Jehovah, and in the audience of our God,—keep and seek for all the commandments of Jehovah your God; that ye may possess the good land, and leave it as an inheritance to your 9 children after you for ever. And thou, Solomon my son, know[d] the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for Jehovah searches all hearts, and discerns all the imaginations of the thoughts. If thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he 10 will cut thee off for ever. Consider now, that Jehovah has chosen thee to build a house for the sanctuary: be strong, and do [it].
11 And David gave to Solomon his son the pattern of the porch, and of its houses, and of its treasuries, and of its upper chambers, and of its inner chambers, and of the 12 house of the mercy-seat; and the pattern of all that he had by the Spirit, of the courts of the house of Jehovah, and of all the chambers round about, for the treasuries of the house of God, and for the treasuries of the dedicated 13 things; and for the courses of the priests and the Levites, and for all the work of the service of the house of Jehovah, and for all the instruments of service in the house 14 of Jehovah: gold by weight for [things] of gold, for all utensils of each kind of service; for all utensils of silver, by weight, for all utensils of each kind of service;
15 and the weight of the golden candlesticks, and of their golden lamps, by weight for every candlestick, and for its lamps; and for the silver candlesticks, by weight, for the candlestick and for its lamps, according to the use of 16 every candlestick; and gold by weight for the tables of the [loaves] to be set in rows, for every table; and silver for the tables of silver;
17 and pure gold for the forks, and the bowls, and the goblets; and for the golden basons[e] by weight for every bason; and for the silver basons by weight for every bason; 18 and for the altar of incense, refined gold by weight; and the pattern of the chariot of the cherubim of gold, which spread out [their wings] and cover the ark of the 19 covenant of Jehovah. All this [said David,] in writing, by Jehovah's hand upon me, instructing as to all the works of the pattern.
20 And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and courageous, and do it; fear not nor be dismayed: for Jehovah Elohim, my God, will be with thee; he will not leave thee, neither forsake thee, until all the work for the service of the 21 house of Jehovah is finished. And behold, the courses[f] of the priests and the Levites are for all the service of the house of God; and thou hast with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing man, skilful for every sort of service; and the princes and all the people are wholly at thy commandment.

29 And king David said to all the congregation, Solomon my son, the one whom God has chosen, is young and tender, and the work is great; for this palace is not to be for man, but for Jehovah 2 Elohim. And I have prepared according to all my power for the house of my God gold for [things of] gold, and silver for [things of] silver, and brass for [things of] brass, iron for [things of] iron, and wood for [things of] wood; onyx stones, and [stones] to be set, glistering stones, and of divers colours, and all manner of precious stones, and white marble in abun-3 dance. And moreover, in my affection for the house of my God I have given of my own property of gold and silver, for the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the house of 4 the sanctuary: three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the 5 walls of the houses; gold for [things of] gold, and silver for [things of] silver, and for all manner of work by the hands of artificers. And who is willing to offer[g] to Jehovah this day?

6 And the chief fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and the comptrollers of the king's business, offered willingly.
7 And they gave for the service of the house of God five thousand talents and ten thousand darics[h] of gold, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of brass, and one hundred 8 thousand talents of iron. And they with whom stones were found gave [them] to the treasure of the house of Jehovah, into the hand 9 of Jehiel the Gershonite. And the people rejoiced because they offered willingly, for with perfect heart they offered willingly to Jehovah; and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.
10 And David blessed Jehovah in the sight of all the congregation; and David said, Blessed be thou, Jehovah, the God of our father 11 Israel, for ever and ever. Thine, Jehovah, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the splendour, and the majesty; for all that is in the heavens and on the earth is thine: thine, Jehovah, is the kingdom, and thou art 12 exalted as Head above all; and riches and glory are of thee, and thou rulest over everything; and in thy hand is power and might; and in thy hand it is to make all 13 great and strong. And now, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy 14 glorious name. But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer willingly after this manner? for all is of thee, and of that which is from 15 thy hand have we given thee. For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no hope [of life].
16 Jehovah our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house to thy holy name, is of thy hand, and is all thine own.
17 And I know, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. In the uprightness of my heart have I willingly offered all these things; and now have I seen with joy thy people, which are present here, offer 18 willingly to thee. Jehovah, God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and direct 19 their hearts to thee! And give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision.
20 And David said to all the congregation, Bless now Jehovah your God. And all the congregation blessed Jehovah the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and did homage to Jehovah and the king.
21 And they sacrificed sacrifices to Jehovah, and offered up burnt-offerings to Jehovah, on the morrow after that day: a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, a thousand lambs, with their drink-offerings, and sacrifices in abun-22 dance for all Israel. And they ate and drank before Jehovah on that day with great joy. And they made Solomon the son of David king the second time, and anointed him to Jehovah to be prince, and Zadok to be priest.
23 And Solomon sat on the throne of Jehovah as king instead of David his father, and prospered;
24 and all Israel obeyed him. And all the princes, and the mighty men, and all the sons likewise of king David, submitted themselves 25 to Solomon the king. And Jehovah magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him royal majesty such as had not been on any king before him in Israel.
26 Now David the son of Jesse 27 reigned over all Israel. And the time that he reigned over Israel was forty years: he reigned seven years in Hebron, and he reigned thirty-three years in Jerusalem.

28 And he died in a good old age, full of days, riches, and honour; and Solomon his son reigned in his stead.
29 And the acts of David the king, first and last, behold, they are written in the book [i] of Samuel the seer, and in the book [i] of Nathan the prophet, and in the book [i] of Gad might, and the times that passed over him, and over Israel, and over all the kingdoms of the countries.

THE SECOND BOOK OF THE CHRONICLES

1 And Solomon the son of David was strengthened in his kingdom, and Jehovah his God was with him and magnified him exceedingly.
2 And Solomon spoke to all Israel, to the captains of thousands and of hundreds, and to the judges, and to all the princes of all Israel, 3 the chief fathers; and Solomon, and all the congregation with him, went to the high place at Gibeon; for there was God's tent of meeting which Moses the servant of Jehovah had made in the wilderness.
4 But the ark of God had David brought up from Kirjath-jearim to the [place] that David had prepared for it; for he had spread 5 a tent for it at Jerusalem. And the brazen altar that Bezaleel the son of Uri, the son of Hur, had made, was there before the tabernacle of Jehovah; and Solomon and the congregation sought unto 6 it. And Solomon offered there upon the brazen altar before Jehovah which was at the tent of meeting; and he offered up a thousand burnt-offerings upon it.
7 In that night God appeared to Solomon, and said to him, Ask 8 what I shall give thee. And Solomon said to God, Thou hast shewn unto David my father great loving-kindness, and hast made me 9 king in his stead. Now, Jehovah Elohim, let thy word unto David my father be firm; for thou hast made me king over a people numerous as the dust of the earth.
10 Give me now wisdom and knowledge, that I may go out and come in before this people; for who can 11 judge this thy great people? And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thy heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honour,[a] nor the life of them that hate thee, neither yet hast asked long life; but hast asked for thyself wisdom and knowledge, that thou mayest judge my people, over whom I have made thee king:
12 wisdom and knowledge are granted unto thee; and I will give thee riches and wealth and honour,[a] such as none of the kings have had that have been before thee, neither shall any after thee have the like.
13 Then Solomon came back [b] [from] the high place at Gibeon to Jerusalem, from before the tent of meeting, and reigned over Israel.
14 And Solomon gathered chariots and horsemen; and he had a thousand four hundred chariots and twelve thousand horsemen; and he placed them in the chariot-15 cities, and with the king at Jerusalem. And the king made silver and gold in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he as the sycamores that are in the lowland [c] for 16 abundance. And the exportation of horses that Solomon had was from Egypt: a caravan of the king's merchants fetched a drove 17 [of horses] at a price. And they fetched up and brought forth out of Egypt a chariot for six hundred [shekels] of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty; and so they brought [them] by their means, for all the kings of the Hittites and for the kings of Syria.

2 And Solomon purposed to build [d] a house for the name of Jehovah, 2 and a house for his kingdom. And Solomon numbered seventy thousand men to bear burdens, and eighty thousand stone-masons in the mountain, and three thousand six hundred to superintend them.

[i] Lit. 'the acts' or 'the words.' [a] Or 'glory.' [b] See the LXX and Vulgate.
[c] Cf. 1 Chron. xxvii. 28. [d] Lit. 'thought to build.'

3 And Solomon sent to Huram king of Tyre, saying, As thou didst deal with David my father, and didst send him cedars to build him a house to dwell therein [so do for 4 me]. Behold, I build a house unto the name of Jehovah my God to dedicate it to him, to burn before him sweet incense, and for the continual arrangement [of the shewbread], and for the morning and evening burnt-offerings [and] on the sabbaths and on the new moons, and on the set feasts of Jehovah our God. This is [an 5 ordinance] for ever to Israel. And the house that I will build is great; for great is our God above all gods.
6 But who is able to build him a house, seeing the heavens and the heaven of heavens cannot contain him? And who am I that I should build him a house, except to burn sacrifice[e] before him?
7 And now send me a man skilful to work in gold, and in silver, and in bronze, and in iron, and in purple and crimson and blue, and experienced in carving, besides the skilful men that are with me in Judah and in Jerusalem, whom 8 David my father provided. Send me also cedar-trees, cypress-trees, and sandal-wood trees, out of Lebanon; for I know that thy servants are experienced in cutting timber in Lebanon; and behold, my servants shall be with 9 thy servants, even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house that I build shall be great 10 and wonderful. And behold, I will give to thy servants the hewers that fell timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.
11 And Huram king of Tyre answered[f] in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because Jehovah loved his people, he made thee 12 king over them. And Huram said, Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, that made the heavens and the earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, who will build a house for Jehovah 13 and a house for his kingdom. And now, I send a skilful man, endued with understanding, Huram Abi,[g] 14 the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and whose father was a man of Tyre, experienced in working in gold, and in silver, in bronze, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in byssus, and in crimson, and for doing any manner of engraving, and for inventing every device which shall be put to him, besides thy skilful men, and the skilful men of my lord David thy father.
15 And now the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my 16 lord hath spoken of, let him send unto his servants. And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need; and we will bring it to thee [in] floats by sea to Joppa, and thou shalt carry it up to Jerusalem.
17 And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the account that David his father had taken of them, and there were found a 18 hundred and fifty-three thousand six hundred. And he set seventy thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and eighty thousand to be stone-masons in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the people to work.

3 And Solomon began to build the house of Jehovah at Jerusalem on mount Moriah,[h] where he appeared[i] to David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of Ornan the 2 Jebusite. And he began to build on the second of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.
3 And this was Solomon's foundation for the construction of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth 4 twenty cubits. And the porch which was in front was twenty cubits in length, in front of the house broadways, and the height was a hundred and twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure 5 gold. And the greater house he boarded with cypress-wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set on it palm-trees[k] and chains.
6 And he overlaid the house with precious stones for beauty; and the gold was gold of Parvaim.
7 And he covered the house, the beams, the threshold, and its walls, and its doors with gold, and engraved cherubim on the walls.
8 And he made the house of the [e] Or 'incense.' Lit. 'to burn as incense' [i.e. all that is burnt on the altar]. [f] Lit. 'said.' [g] Or 'of Huram my father;' and so in iv. 16. [h] Meaning 'shewn by Jehovah.' [i] Or 'which was shewn.' [k] Or 'palms;' and so elsewhere.

most holy place,[l] the length of which was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits; and he covered it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.
9 And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he covered the upper chambers with gold.
10 And in the house of the most holy place he made two cherubim of image work, and they overlaid 11 them with gold. And the wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: one wing of five cubits touched the wall of the house; and the other wing of five cubits touched the wing of the other 12 cherub. And the wing of the other cherub of five cubits touched the wall of the house, and the other wing was five cubits joining the 13 wing of the other cherub. The wings of these cherubim spread forth were twenty cubits; and they stood on their feet, and their 14 faces were toward the house. And he made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and byssus, and made cherubim upon it.
15 And before the house he made two pillars thirty-five cubits long; and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five 16 cubits. And he made chains [as] in the oracle,[m] and he put them on the top of the pillars; and he made a hundred pomegranates, 17 and put them on the chains. And he set up the pillars in front of the temple, one on the right hand and the other on the left; and he called the name of that on the right Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.

4 And he made a brazen altar: its length was twenty cubits, and its breadth twenty cubits, and its height ten cubits.
2 And he made the sea, molten, ten cubits from brim to brim, round all about; and its height was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits encompassed it
3 round about. And under it was the similitude of oxen, encompassing it round about, ten in a cubit enclosing the sea round about, two rows of oxen, cast when 4 it was cast. It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east; and the sea was above upon them, and all their 5 hinder parts were inward. And its thickness was a hand-breadth, and its brim like the work of the brim of a cup, with lily-blossoms; in capacity it held three thousand baths.[n]
6 And he made ten lavers, and put five on the right and five on the left, to wash in them: they rinsed in them what they prepared for the burnt-offering; and the sea was for the priests to wash in.
7 And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to the ordinance respecting them, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand and five on the left.
8 And he made ten tables, and placed them in the temple, five on the right hand and five on the left. And he made a hundred golden bowls.
9 And he made the court of the priests, and the great court,[o] and doors for the court,[o] and overlaid 10 the doors thereof with bronze. And he set the sea on the right side eastward, over against the south.
11 And Huram made the pots and the shovels and the bowls.

So Huram ended doing the work 12 that he made for king Solomon in the house of God: two pillars, and the globes and the capitals on the top of the pillars, two; and the two networks, to cover the two globes of the capitals which were 13 on the top of the pillars; and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks, two rows of pomegranates for one network, to cover the two globes of the capitals 14 which were upon the pillars. And he made the bases, and he made 15 the lavers on the bases; one sea, 16 and the twelve oxen under it. And the pots, and the shovels, and the forks, and all their instruments did Huram Abiv[p] make king Solomon for the house of Jehovah, of 17 bright brass. In the plain[q] of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay-ground between Succoth and Zeredathah. And Solomon made all these vessels in great number; for the weight of the brass was not ascertained.
19 And Solomon made all the vessels that were [in] the house of God: the golden altar; and the tables whereon was the shew-

20 bread; and the candlesticks with their lamps to burn according to the ordinance before the oracle, of 21 pure gold; and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold 22 (it was perfect gold), and the knives, and the bowls, and the cups, and the censers,[r] of pure gold; and the entrance of the house, the inner folding-doors thereof for the most holy place, and the doors of the house, of the temple, of gold.

5 And all the work was finished that Solomon made for the house of Jehovah. And Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels he put among the treasures of the house of God.

2 Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Jehovah out of the city of David, which is Zion.
3 And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, that of the seventh month.
4 And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.
5 And they brought up the ark, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the tent: the priests, the Levites, brought 6 them up. And king Solomon, and all the assembly of Israel, that were assembled to him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen which could not be counted nor 7 numbered for multitude. And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Jehovah to its place, into the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, under the 8 wings of the cherubim; and the cherubim stretched forth [their] wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark 9 and its staves above. And the staves were long,[s] so that the ends of the staves were seen outside the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there 10 they are to this day. There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put there at Horeb, when Jehovah made [a covenant] with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.
11 And it came to pass when the priests were come out of the holy place (for all the priests that were present were hallowed without 12 observing the courses; and the Levites the singers, all they of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, clad in byssus, with cymbals and lutes and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests 13 sounding with trumpets),—it came to pass when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one voice to be heard in praising and thanking Jehovah; and when they lifted up their voice with trumpets, and cymbals, and instruments of music, and praised Jehovah: For he is good, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever; that then the house, the house of Jehovah, was filled with 14 a cloud, and the priests could not stand to do their service because of the cloud; for the glory of Jehovah had filled the house of God.

6 Then said Solomon: Jehovah said that he would dwell in the 2 thick darkness. But I have built a house of habitation for thee, even a settled place for thee to 3 abide in for ever. And the king turned his face and blessed the whole congregation of Israel; and the whole congregation of Israel stood.
4 And he said: Blessed be Jehovah the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth unto David my father, and hath with his hands fulfilled
5 it, saying, Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be prince over my people Israel:
6 but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and I have chosen David to be over 7 my people Israel. And it was in the heart of David my father to build a house unto the name of 8 Jehovah the God of Israel. But Jehovah said to David my father, Whereas it was in thy heart to build a house unto my name, thou didst well that it was in thy heart; 9 nevertheless thou shalt not build the house; but thy son that shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house unto my 10 name. And Jehovah has performed his word which he spoke; and I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Jehovah promised, and I have built the house unto the name of Jehovah the 11 God of Israel. And in it have I put the ark, wherein is the covenant of Jehovah, which he made with the children of Israel.

12 And he stood before the altar of Jehovah in the presence of the whole congregation of Israel, and 13 spread forth his hands. For Solomon had made a platform of bronze, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; [t] and upon it he stood, and he kneeled down on his knees before the whole congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands 14 toward the heavens, and said, Jehovah, God of Israel! there is no God like thee, in the heavens or on the earth, who keepest covenant and mercy with thy servants that walk before thee with all their 15 heart; who hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou didst promise him; thou spokest with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled [it] with thy hand as 16 at this day. And now, Jehovah, God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only thy sons take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.
17 And now, Jehovah, God of Israel, let thy word be verified which thou hast spoken unto thy servant 18 David. But will God indeed dwell with man on the earth? behold, the heavens and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have 19 built! Yet have respect unto the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, Jehovah, my God, to hearken unto the cry and to the prayer which thy servant prayeth 20 before thee; that thine eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place in which thou hast said thou wouldest put thy name: to hearken unto the prayer which thy servant prayeth 21 toward this place. And hearken unto the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall pray toward this place, and hear thou from thy dwelling-place, from the heavens, and when thou hearest, forgive.
22 If a man have sinned against his neighbour, and an oath be laid upon him to adjure him, and the oath come before thine altar in 23 this house; then hear thou from the heavens, and do, and judge thy servants, requiting the wicked, to bring his way upon his own head; and justifying the righteous, giving him according to his righteousness.
24 And if thy people Israel be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee, and shall turn again and confess thy name, and pray, and make supplication before thee in 25 this house; then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again unto the land that thou gavest to them and to their fathers.
26 When the heavens are shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; if they pray toward this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, because thou hast afflicted 27 them; then hear thou in the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou teachest them the good way wherein they should walk; and give rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy 28 people for an inheritance. If there be famine in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blight or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their gates; whatever plague or whatever sickness there 29 be: what prayer, what supplication soever be made by any man, or by all thy people Israel, when they shall know every man his own plague, and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands to-30 ward this house; then hear thou from the heavens, the settled place of thy dwelling, and forgive, and render unto every man according to all his ways, whose heart thou knowest (for thou, thou only, knowest the hearts of the children 31 of men), that they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, all the days that they live upon the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.
32 And as to the stranger also, who is not of thy people Israel, but cometh out of a far country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand and thy stretched-out arm; when they shall come and pray 33 toward this house, then hear thou from the heavens, the settled place

[t] Or 'enclosure,' עזרה, as iv. 9.

of thy dwelling, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; in order that all peoples of the earth may know thy name, and may fear thee as do thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.[v]

34 If thy people go out to battle against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee toward this city that thou hast chosen, and the house that I have built unto 35 thy name; then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their right.

36 If they have sinned against thee (for there is no man that sinneth not), and thou be angry with them, and give them up to[w] the enemy, and they have[x] carried them away captives unto a land far off or 37 near; and if they shall take it to heart in the land whither they were carried captive, and repent, and make supplication unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done iniquity and have dealt perversely;
38 and if they return unto thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land which thou gavest unto their fathers, and the city that thou hast chosen, and the house that 39 I have built unto thy name; then hear thou from the heavens, from the settled place of thy dwelling, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their right, and forgive thy people their sin against thee.

40 Now, my God, I beseech thee, let thine eyes be open and let thine ears be attentive unto the prayer [that is made] in this place.
41 And now, arise, Jehovah Elohim, into thy resting-place, thou and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, Jehovah Elohim, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints[y] 42 rejoice in [thy] goodness.[z] Jehovah Elohim, turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember mercies[a] to David thy servant.

7 And when Solomon had ended praying, the fire came down from the heavens and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Jehovah filled the 2 house. And the priests could not enter into the house of Jehovah, because the glory of Jehovah filled 3 Jehovah's house. And all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of Jehovah upon the house, and bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshipped and thanked Jehovah: For he is good, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever.

4 And the king and all the people offered sacrifices before Jehovah.
5 And king Solomon sacrificed a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house
6 of God. And the priests stood in their charges, and the Levites with Jehovah's instruments of music, which David the king had made to praise Jehovah, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever, when David praised by their means; and the priests sounded the trumpets opposite to them, and all 7 Israel stood. And Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of Jehovah; for there he offered the burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings and the oblations and the fat.

8 And at that time Solomon held the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entrance of Hamath 9 unto the torrent of Egypt. And on the eighth day they held a solemn assembly; for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.
10 And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that Jehovah had done to David and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.

11 And Solomon completed the house of Jehovah, and the king's house; and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of Jehovah, and in his own house, he did prosperously.

12 Then Jehovah appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him: I have heard thy prayer, and I have chosen for myself this place 13 for a house of sacrifice. If I shut up the heavens that there be no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send 14 pestilence among my people; and my people, who are called by my name, humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from the heavens, and forgive their sin, and heal their land.

15 Now mine eyes shall be open, and mine ears attentive to the prayer 16 [made] in this place; for I have now chosen and hallowed this house, that my name may be there for ever; and mine eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.
17 And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, to do according to all that I have commanded thee, and wilt keep my statutes and mine ordi-18 nances, then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to rule over Israel.
19 But if ye turn away and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and go and serve other gods and 20 worship them; then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have hallowed to my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it a proverb and a byword among all 21 peoples. And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passes by it; so that he shall say, Why has Jehovah done thus to this land and to 22 this house? And they shall say, Because they forsook Jehovah the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and have attached themselves to other gods, and have worshipped them and served them, therefore he has brought upon them all this evil

8 And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, when Solomon had built the house of Jehovah 2 and his own house, that the cities which Huram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them and caused the children of Israel to 3 dwell there. And Solomon went to Hamath-Zobah, and overcame 4 it. And he built Tadmor, in the wilderness, and all the store-cities, 5 which he built in Hamath. And he built upper Beth-Horon and lower Beth-Horon, fortified cities, 6 with walls, gates, and bars; and Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for chariots, and the cities for the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and on Lebanon, and in 7 all the land of his dominion. All the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not 8 of Israel, their children that were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel had not destroyed, upon them did Solomon impose tribute-service[b] until this 9 day. But of the children of Israel, of them did Solomon make no bondmen for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and his horsemen.
10 And these were the chief of king Solomon's superintendents, two hundred and fifty, that ruled over the people.
11 And Solomon brought up the daughter of Pharaoh out of the city of David to the house which he had built for her; for he said, My wife shall not dwell in the house of David king of Israel, because the [places] are holy to which the ark of Jehovah has come.
12 Then Solomon offered up burnt-offerings to Jehovah on the altar of Jehovah, which he had built 13 before the porch; even as the duty of every day required, offering according to the commandment of Moses, on the sabbaths, and on the new moons, and at the set feasts, three times in the year, —at the feast of unleavened bread, and at the feast of weeks, and at 14 the feast of tabernacles. And he appointed, according to the ordinance of David his father, the divisions of the priests for their service, and the Levites for their charges, to praise and serve before the priests, as the duty of every day required; and the doorkeepers by their divisions at every gate: for such was the commandment 15 of David the man of God; and they did not depart from the commandment of the king to the priests and the Levites concerning any matter, nor concerning the 16 treasures. And all the work of [b] Or 'the levy.'

Solomon was prepared, to the day of the foundation of the house of Jehovah and to its completion. [So] the house of Jehovah was finished.

17 Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to Eloth, on the sea-18 shore in the land of Edom. And Huram sent him by his servants ships, and servants that had knowledge of the sea; and they went with the servants of Solomon to Ophir, and fetched thence four hundred and fifty talents of gold, and brought them to king Solomon.

9 And the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, and came to Jerusalem to prove Solomon with enigmas; with a very great train, and camels that bore spices and gold in great abundance, and precious stones; and she came to Solomon, and spoke with him of 2 all that was in her heart. And Solomon explained to her all she spoke of, and there was not a thing hidden from Solomon that he did not explain to her.
3 And when the queen of Sheba saw the wisdom of Solomon, and 4 the house that he had built, and the food of his table, and the deportment of his servants, and the order of service of his attendants and their apparel, and his cupbearers and their apparel, and his ascent by which he went up to the house of Jehovah, there was 5 no more spirit in her. And she said to the king, It was a true report that I heard in mine own land of thine affairs and of thy 6 wisdom; but I gave no credit to their words, until I came and mine eyes had seen; and behold, the half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: thou exceedest the report that I heard.
7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, who stand continually before thee and hear 8 thy wisdom! Blessed be Jehovah thy God, who delighted in thee, to set thee on his throne, to be king to Jehovah thy God! Because thy God loved Israel, to establish them for ever, therefore did he make thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.
9 And she gave the king a hundred and twenty talents of gold, and spices in very great abundance, and precious stones; neither was there any such spice as that which the queen of Sheba gave to king
10 Solomon. (And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, who brought gold from Ophir, brought sandal-wood and 11 precious stones. And the king made of the sandal-wood stairs for the house of Jehovah, and for the king's house, and harps and lutes for the singers. And there were none such seen before in the land 12 of Judah.) And king Solomon gave to the queen of Sheba all her desire, whatever she asked, besides what she had brought to the king. And she turned and went to her own land, she and her servants.
13 And the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and sixty-six talents
14 of gold, besides [what] dealers and merchants brought, and [what] all the kings of Arabia and the governors of the country brought of gold and silver to Solomon.
15 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold,—he 16 applied six hundred [shekels] of beaten gold to one target; and three hundred shields of beaten gold,—he applied three hundred [shekels] of gold to one shield; and the king put them in the house of 17 the forest of Lebanon. And the king made a great throne of ivory, and overlaid it with pure 18 gold; and the throne had six steps, with a footstool of gold fastened to the throne; and there were arms on each side at the place of the seat, and two lions 19 stood beside the arms; and twelve lions stood there on the one side and on the other upon the six steps: there was not the like 20 made in any kingdom. And all king Solomon's drinking vessels were of gold, and all the vessels of the house of the forest of Lebanon were of precious gold: silver was not of the least account in the 21 days of Solomon. For the king's ships went to Tarshish with the servants of Huram: once in three years came the ships of Tarshish, bringing gold and silver, ivory,[c] and apes, and peacocks.
22 And king Solomon was greater than all the kings of the earth in 23 riches and wisdom. And all the kings of the earth sought the presence of Solomon, to hear his wisdom, which God had put in his 24 heart. And they brought every man his present, vessels of silver and vessels of gold, and clothing, armour, and spices, horses and mules, a rate year by year.

[c] Or 'elephants' teeth.'

25 And Solomon had four thousand stalls for horses and chariots, and twelve thousand horsemen; and he placed them in the chariot-cities, and with the king at Jeru-26 salem. And he ruled over all the kings from the river as far as the land of the Philistines, and up to 27 the border of Egypt. And the king made silver in Jerusalem as stones, and cedars made he as the sycamores that are in the lowland [d] 28 for abundance. And they brought to Solomon horses out of Egypt and out of all lands.
29 And the rest of the acts of Solomon first and last, are they not written in the words of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo [e] the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?
30 And Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel forty years.
31 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David his father; and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

10 And Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel had come to Shechem to make him king.
2 And it came to pass when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard it (now he was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of king Solomon) that Jeroboam returned 3 out of Egypt. And they sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Reho-4 boam saying, Thy father made our yoke grievous; and now lighten the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve 5 thee. And he said to them, Come again to me after three days. And the people departed.
6 And king Rehoboam consulted with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, How do ye advise to return answer to this 7 people? And they spoke to him saying, If thou be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be 8 thy servants for ever. But he forsook the advice of the old men which they had given him, and consulted with the young men, who had grown up with him, that 9 stood before him. And he said to them, What advice give ye that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me saying, Lighten the yoke which 10 thy father put upon us? And the young men that had grown up with him spoke to him saying, Thus shalt thou say to the people who have spoken to thee saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, and lighten thou it for us,—thus shalt thou say to them: My little [finger] is thicker than my father's 11 loins; and whereas my father laid a heavy yoke upon you, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I [will chastise you] with scorpions.[f] 12 And Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king had appointed saying, Come again to me on the 13 third day. And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the advice of the old 14 men, and spoke to them according to the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I [will chastise you] with scor-
15 pions. So the king hearkened not to the people; for it was brought about by God, that Jehovah might give effect to his word, which he spoke through Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
16 And all Israel saw that the king hearkened not to them; and the people answered the king saying, What portion have we in David? and [we have] no inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel. Now see to thine own house, David! And all 17 Israel went to their tents. But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam 18 reigned over them. And king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the levy; but the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. And king Rehoboam hastened to mount his 19 chariot, to flee to Jerusalem. And Israel rebelled against the house of David, unto this day.

11 And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem; and he assembled the house of Judah and Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand chosen men apt for war, to fight against Israel, that he might bring the kingdom again to Rehoboam.
2 But the word of Jehovah came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying, 3 Speak unto Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and unto [d] The Shephelah. [e] Heb. Jeddo. [f] See on 1 Kings xii. 11.

all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, 4 saying, Thus saith Jehovah: Go not up, nor fight with your brethren; return every man to his house, for this thing is from me. And they hearkened to the words of Jehovah, and returned from going against Jeroboam.
5 And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defence 6 in Judah. And he built Bethle-7 hem, and Etam, and Tekoa, and 8 Beth-zur, and Soco, and Adullam, 9 and Gath, and Mareshah, and Ziph, 10 and Adoraim, and Lachish, and Azekah, and Zorah, and Ajalon, and Hebron, which are in Judah and in Benjamin, fortified cities.
11 And he fortified the strongholds, and put captains[g] in them, and stores of victuals, and of oil and 12 wine; and in every several city, targets and spears, and made them exceedingly strong. And Judah and Benjamin were his.
13 And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to 14 him out of all their districts; for the Levites left their suburbs and their possessions, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from exercising the priesthood 15 to Jehovah; and he ordained for himself priests for the high places, and for the he-goats[h] and for the 16 calves that he had made.—And after them, those out of all the tribes of Israel that set their heart to seek Jehovah the God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice to Jehovah the God of their fathers.
17 And they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong three years; for during three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.
18 And Rehoboam took Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David as wife, [and of] Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of 19 Jesse. And she bore him children:
20 Jeush, and Shemariah, and Zaham. And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, and Attai, 21 and Ziza, and Shelomith. And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines; for he had taken eighteen wives and sixty concubines, and he begot twenty-eight sons and sixty daugh-22 ters. And Rehoboam established Abijah the son of Maachah at the head, to be ruler among his brethren; for [he thought] to make him 23 king. And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to all the fortified cities; and he gave them food in abundance. And he desired [for them] a multitude of wives.

12 And it came to pass when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established, and when he had become strong, [that] he forsook the 2 law of Jehovah, and all Israel with him. And it came to pass in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, because they had transgressed[i] against Jehovah, that Shishak 3 king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, with twelve hundred chariots and sixty thousand horsemen; and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt: Libyans, Sukkites, and 4 Ethiopians. And he took the fortified cities that belonged to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.
5 And Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and [to] the princes of Judah that had gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, Thus saith Jehovah: Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left 6 you in the hand of Shishak. And the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they 7 said, Jehovah is righteous. And when Jehovah saw that they humbled themselves, the word of Jehovah came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves: I will not destroy them, but I will grant them a little deliverance;[k] and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem 8 by the hand of Shishak. Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.
9 And Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king's house; he took away all; and he took away the shields of 10 gold that Solomon had made. And king Rehoboam made in their stead shields of bronze, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the couriers who kept the 11 entrance of the king's house. And it was so, that as often as the king

[g] Elsewhere, 'prince,' 'ruler.' [h] Or 'demons,' 'satyrs:' cf. Lev. xvii. 7. [i] Strictly, 'acted treacherously.' [k] Or 'deliverance for a short space,' or 'in a short time.'

entered into the house of Jehovah, the couriers came and fetched them, and brought them again into the chamber of the couriers.
12 And when he humbled himself, the anger of Jehovah turned away from him, that he would not destroy him altogether; and also in Judah there were good things.
13 And king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned; for Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city that Jehovah had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was 14 Naamah an Ammonitess. And he did evil, for he applied not his heart to seek Jehovah.
15 And the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the words[l] of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer, in the genealogical registers? And there were wars between Rehoboam and 16 Jeroboam continually. And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David. And Abijah his son reigned in his stead.

13 In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign 2 over Judah. He reigned three years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Michaiah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
3 And Abijah began the war with an army of men of war, four hundred thousand chosen men; and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, mighty men of valour.
4 And Abijah stood up on the top of mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, 5 Jeroboam, and all Israel! Ought ye not to know that Jehovah the God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, to him and to his sons [by] a cove-6 nant of salt? But Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up and 7 rebelled against his lord. And vain men, sons of Belial, gathered to him and strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, and Rehoboam was young and faint-hearted, and did not shew himself strong against 8 them. And now ye think to shew yourselves strong against the kingdom of Jehovah in the hand of the sons of David; and ye are a great multitude, and ye have with you the golden calves that Jeroboam 9 made you for gods. Have ye not cast out the priests of Jehovah, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made you priests as the peoples of the lands? whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, he becomes a priest of what is not God.[m] 10 But as for us, Jehovah is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests that serve Jehovah are the sons of Aaron, and 11 the Levites are at their work: and they burn to Jehovah every morning and every evening burnt-offerings and sweet incense; the loaves also are set in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with its lamps to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of Jehovah our God; but ye have forsaken him. And 12 behold, we have God with us at our head, and his priests, and the loud-sounding trumpets to sound an alarm against you. Children of Israel, do not fight with Jehovah the God of your fathers; for ye shall not prosper.
13 But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them; and they were before Judah, and 14 the ambush behind them. And Judah looked back, and behold, they had the battle in front and behind; and they cried to Jehovah, and the priests sounded with 15 the trumpets. And the men of Judah gave a shout; and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and 16 Judah. And the children of Israel fled before Judah; and God de-17 livered them into their hand. And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter; and there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.
18 And the children of Israel were humbled at that time, and the children of Judah were strengthened, because they relied upon Jehovah the God of their fathers.
19 And Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him: Bethel with its dependent villages, and Jeshanah with its dependent villages, and Ephron with its de-20 pendent villages. And Jeroboam did not recover strength again in the days of Abijah; and Jehovah 21 smote him, and he died. But Abijah

[l] Or 'acts.' [m] Or 'to no-gods:' see Gal. iv. 8.

strengthened himself, and took fourteen wives, and begot twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.
22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his sayings, are written in the treatise of the prophet Iddo.

14 And Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David. And Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.
2 And Asa did what was good and right in the sight of Jehovah his 3 God; and he took away the altars of the strange [gods] and the high places, and broke the columns,[n]
4 and cut down the Asherahs; and commanded Judah to seek Jehovah the God of their fathers, and to practise the law and the com-5 mandment. And he removed out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun-images; and the kingdom was quiet before him.
6 And he built fortified cities in Judah, for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because Jehovah had given him 7 rest. And he said to Judah, Let us build these cities, and surround them with walls and towers, gates and bars, while the land is yet before us; for we have sought Jehovah our God; we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side. And they built and prospered.
8 And Asa had an army that bore targets and spears: out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew the bow, two hundred and eighty thousand: all these, mighty men of valour.
9 And Zerah the Ethiopian[o] came out against him with a host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots, and he came to 10 Mareshah. And Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of 11 Zephathah near Mareshah. And Asa cried unto Jehovah his God, and said, Jehovah, it maketh no difference to thee to help, whether there be much or no power: help us, O Jehovah our God, for we rely on thee, and in thy name have we come against this multitude. Jehovah, thou art our God; let not man[p] prevail against thee.
12 And Jehovah smote the Ethiopians before Asa and before Judah; and 13 the Ethiopians fled. And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them to Gerar; and the Ethiopians were overthrown, that none of them was left alive;[q] for they were crushed before Jehovah and before his army.[r] And they 14 carried away very much spoil. And they smote all the cities round about Gerar, for the terror of Jehovah came upon them; and they spoiled all the cities, for there was very much spoil in 15 them. They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

15 And the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded.
2 And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: Jehovah is with you while ye are with him; and if ye seek him he will be found of you, but if ye forsake him he 3 will forsake you. Now for a long while[s] Israel [was] without the true God, and without a teaching 4 priest, and without law; but in their trouble they turned to Jehovah the God of Israel, and sought him, and he was found of them.
5 And in those times there [was] no peace to him that went out nor to him that came in, but great disturbances were amongst all the 6 inhabitants of the countries. And nation was broken against nation, and city against city; for God disturbed them with all manner of 7 distress. But as for you, be firm and let not your hands be weak; for there is a reward for your 8 deeds. And when Asa heard these words and the prophecy of Oded the prophet, he took courage, and put away the abominations out of all the land of Judah and Benjamin, and out of the cities that he had taken from mount Ephraim, and renewed the altar of Jehovah, that was before the 9 porch of Jehovah. And he assembled all Judah and Benjamin, and the strangers with them out of Ephraim and Manasseh, and out of Simeon; for they fell away to him out of Israel in abundance, when they saw that Jehovah his 10 God was with him. And they assembled themselves at Jerusalem in the third month of the fifteenth year of the reign of Asa.
11 And they sacrificed to Jehovah in that day, of the spoil that they had brought, seven hundred oxen

[n] Or 'statues.' [o] Heb. Cushite. [p] Heb. Enosh: see on Gen. iv. 26. [q] Or [e]that they could not revive.' [r] Elsewhere, 'camp.' [s] Heb. 'many days.'

12 and seven thousand sheep. And they entered into a covenant to seek Jehovah the God of their fathers with all their heart and 13 with all their soul, and that whoever would not seek Jehovah the God of Israel should be put to death, whether small or great, 14 whether man or woman. And they swore to Jehovah with a loud voice, and with shouting, and with 15 trumpets, and with cornets. And all Judah rejoiced at the oath; for they took the oath with all their heart, and sought him with their whole desire, and he was found of them. And Jehovah gave them 16 rest round about. And also Maachah, the mother of Asa the king, he removed from being queen,[t] because she had made an idol for the Asherah; and Asa cut down her idol, and stamped it, and burned it in the valley Kidron.
17 But the high places were not removed from Israel; only, Asa's heart was perfect all his days.
18 And he brought into the house of God the things which his father had dedicated, and the things which he himself had dedicated, 19 silver, and gold, and vessels. And there was no war until the thirty-fifth year of the reign of Asa.

16 In the thirty-sixth year of the reign of Asa, Baasha king of Israel came up against Judah, and built Ramah, in order to let none go out or come in to Asa king of 2 Judah. And Asa brought out silver and gold out of the treasures of the house of Jehovah and of the king's house, and sent to Benhadad king of Syria, who dwelt 3 at Damascus, saying, There is a league between me and thee, and between my father and thy father: behold, I send thee silver and gold; go, break thy league with Baasha king of Israel, that he may 4 depart from me. And Ben-hadad hearkened to king Asa, and sent the captains of his forces against the cities of Israel; and they smote Ijon and Dan and Abel-maim, and all the store-magazines
5 of the cities of Naphtali. And it came to pass when Baasha heard of it, that he left off building Ra-6 mah, and let his work cease. And king Asa took all Judah; and they carried away the stones and the timber from Ramah, with which Baasha had been building, and he built with them Geba and Mizpah.
7 And at that time Hanani the seer came to Asa king of Judah, and said unto him, Because thou hast relied on the king of Syria, and hast not relied on Jehovah thy God, therefore has the army of the king of Syria escaped out 8 of thy hand. Were not the Ethiopians and the Libyans a huge army, with very many chariots and horsemen? but when thou didst rely on Jehovah, he delivered 9 them into thy hand. For the eyes of Jehovah run to and fro through the whole earth, to shew himself strong in the behalf of those whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly; for from henceforth thou shalt have wars.
10 And Asa was wroth with the seer, and put him in the prison;[v] for he was enraged with him because of this. And Asa oppressed some of the people at the same time.
11 And behold the acts of Asa, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
12 And Asa in the thirty-ninth year of his reign was diseased in his feet, until his disease was extremely great; yet in his disease he did not seek Jehovah, but the 13 physicians. And Asa slept with his fathers, and died in the one-and-fortieth year of his reign.
14 And they buried him in his own sepulchre, which he had excavated for himself in the city of David, and laid him in a bed filled with spices, a mixture of divers kinds prepared by the perfumer's art; and they made a very great burning for him.

17 And Jehoshaphat his son reigned in his stead, and strengthened himself against Is-2 rael. And he placed forces in all the fortified cities of Judah, and set garrisons in the land of Judah, and in the cities of Ephraim that 3 Asa his father had taken. And Jehovah was with Jehoshaphat, for he walked in the first ways of his father David, and sought not 4 unto the Baals; but he sought the God of his father, and walked in his commandments, and not after 5 the doings of Israel. And Jehovah established the kingdom in his hand; and all Judah gave gifts to Jehoshaphat; and he had riches 6 and honour in abundance. And he took courage[w] in the ways of Jehovah; moreover, he removed the high places and Asherahs out of Judah.

7 And in the third year of his reign he sent his princes, Ben-hail, and Obadiah, and Zechariah, and Nethaneel, and Micah, to teach 8 in the cities of Judah; and with them the Levites: Shemaiah, and Nethaniah, and Zebadiah, and Asahel, and Shemiramoth, and Jonathan, and Adonijah, and Tobijah, and Tob-Adonijah, Levites; and with them Elishama 9 and Jehoram, the priests. And they taught in Judah, and had the book of the law of Jehovah with them; and they went about through all the cities of Judah, 10 and taught among the people. And the terror of Jehovah was upon all the kingdoms of the lands that were round about Judah, and they made no war against Jehosha-11 phat. And some of the Philistines brought Jehoshaphat gifts and tribute-silver.[x] The Arabians also brought him flocks, seven thousand seven hundred rams, and seven thousand seven hundred he-goats.
12 And Jehoshaphat waxed exceeding great; and he built in Judah 13 castles and store-cities. And he had much business[y] in the cities of Judah; and men of war, strong 14 and valiant, in Jerusalem. And these are the numbers of them according to their fathers' houses. Of Judah the captains of thousands: Adnah the captain, and with him three hundred thousand 15 mighty men of valour; and next to him was Johanan the captain, and with him two hundred and 16 eighty thousand; and next to him, Amasiah the son of Zichri, who willingly offered himself to Jehovah; and with him two hundred thousand mighty men of valour.
17 And of Benjamin: Eliada, a mighty man of valour, and with him two hundred thousand, armed 18 with bow and shield; and next to him was Jehozabad, and with him a hundred and eighty thousand ready prepared for war.
19 These were they that waited on the king, besides those that the king had put in the fortified cities throughout Judah.

18 And Jehoshaphat had riches and honour in abundance; and he allied himself with Ahab by 2 marriage. And after [certain] years he went down to Ahab, to Samaria. And Ahab killed[z] sheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that were with him, and urged him to go up 3 against Ramoth-Gilead. And Ahab king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat king of Judah, Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-Gilead? And he said to him, I am as thou, and my people as thy people; and [I will be] with thee in the war.
4 And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, this day of the word of Jehovah.
5 And the king of Israel assembled the prophets, four hundred men, and said to them, Shall we go against Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up, and God will give it into 6 the king's hand. But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of Jehovah besides, that 7 we might inquire of him? And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Jehovah; but I hate him, for he prophesies no good concerning me, but always evil: [it is] Micah[a] the son of Imlah. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.
8 Then the king of Israel called a chamberlain,[b] and said, Fetch quickly Micah the son of Imlah.
9 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, having put on their robes, sat each on his throne; and they sat in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets 10 prophesied before them. And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made for himself horns of iron, and he said, Thus saith Jehovah: With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou have exter-11 minated them. And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-Gilead, and prosper; for Jehovah will give it into the king's hand.
12 And the messenger that went to call Micah spoke to him saying, Behold, the words of the prophets [declare] good to the king with one assent: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, 13 and declare good. And Micah said, As Jehovah liveth, even what my God shall say, that will I 14 declare. And he came to the king. And the king said to him, Micah, shall we go against Ramoth-Gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And he said, Go ye up, and prosper; and they will be given into 15 your hands. And the king said

[x] Or 'a weight of silver.' [y] Or 'substance.' [z] Or 'sacrificed.' [a] Heb. 'Micaiah,' as often. [b] Or 'a eunuch.'

to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but truth in the name of 16 Jehovah? And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd. And Jehovah said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in 17 peace. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he prophesies no good concerning me, but evil?
18 And he said, Hear ye therefore the word of Jehovah: I saw Jehovah sitting upon his throne, and all the host of heaven standing on his right hand and on his left; 19 and Jehovah said, Who shall entice Ahab king of Israel that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-Gilead? And one spoke saying after this manner, and another saying after 20 that manner. And there came forth a spirit, and stood before Jehovah and said, I will entice him. And Jehovah said unto him, 21 Wherewith? And he said, I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Thou shalt entice [him], and also succeed: go forth, 22 and do so. And now, behold, Jehovah has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and Jehovah has spoken evil con-23 cerning thee. Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micah upon the cheek, and said, Which way now went the Spirit of Jehovah from me to 24 speak to thee? And Micah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go from chamber 25 to chamber to hide thyself. And the king of Israel said, Take ye Micah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, 26 and to Joash the king's son; and ye shall say, Thus says the king: Put this [man] in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until 27 I return in peace. And Micah said, If thou return at all in peace, Jehovah has not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, O peoples, all of you!
28 And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went 29 up to Ramoth-Gilead. And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself; and they 30 went into the battle. And the king of Syria commanded the captains of his chariots saying, Fight neither with small nor great, but with the king of Israel only.
31 And it came to pass when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, That is the king of Israel; and they surrounded him to fight; and Jehoshaphat cried out, and Jehovah helped him; and God diverted 32 them from him. And it came to pass that when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back from pursuing him.
33 And a man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the fastenings and the corslet. And he said to the charioteer, Turn thy hand and drive me out of the camp; for I 34 am wounded.[c] And the battle increased that day; and the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even; and about the time of the going down of the sun he died.

19 And Jehoshaphat king of Judah returned to his house in 2 peace to Jerusalem. And Jehu the son of Hanani, the seer, went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldest thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate Jehovah? Therefore is wrath upon thee from Jehovah.
3 Nevertheless there are good things found in thee; for thou hast put away[d] the Asherahs out of the land, and hast directed thy heart to seek God.
4 And Jehoshaphat dwelt in Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back to Jehovah the God of 5 their fathers. And he set judges in the land throughout the fortified 6 cities of Judah, city by city. And he said to the judges, Take heed what ye do; for ye judge not for man, but for Jehovah, who will be with you in the matter of judg-7 ment. And now, let the terror of Jehovah be upon you; be careful what ye do, for there is no iniquity with Jehovah, nor respect of per-8 sons, nor taking of presents.—And moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set some of the Levites and priests, and of the chief fathers of Israel, for the judgment of Jehovah and for causes.—And 9 they returned to Jerusalem. And [c] Or 'have sickened.' [d] Or 'exterminated.'

he charged them saying, Thus shall ye do in the fear of Jehovah faithfully and with a perfect heart.
10 And what cause soever comes to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, ye shall even warn[e] them that they trespass not against Jehovah, and so wrath come upon you and upon your brethren: this do and ye shall 11 not trespass. And behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of Jehovah, and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, prince of the house of Judah, in all the king's matters; and ye have the Levites before you as officers.[f] Be strong and do it, and Jehovah will be with the good.

20 And it came to pass after this [that] the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them certain of the Maonites,[g] came against Jehoshaphat to 2 battle. And they came and told Jehoshaphat saying, A great multitude is come against thee from beyond the sea, from Syria; and behold, they are in Hazazon-tamar, 3 which is Engedi. And Jehoshaphat feared, and sot himself to seek Jehovah, and proclaimed a fast 4 throughout Judah. And Judah gathered themselves together to ask [help] of Jehovah: even out of all the cities of Judah they 5 came to seek Jehovah. And Jehoshaphat stood in the congregation of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of Jehovah, before the new 6 court; and he said, Jehovah, God of our fathers, art not thou God in the heavens,[h] and rulest thou not over all the kingdoms of the nations? And in thy hand there is power and might, and none can 7 withstand thee. Hast not thou, our God, dispossessed the inhabitants of this land before thy people Israel, and given it for ever to the seed of Abraham, thy friend?[i] 8 And they have dwelt therein, and have built thee a sanctuary there-9 in for thy name, saying, If evil come upon us, sword, judgment, or pestilence, or famine, and we stand before this house and before thee—for thy name is in this house—and cry unto thee in our distress, then thou wilt hear and 10 save. And now, behold, the children of Ammon and Moab, and those of mount Seir, amongst whom thou wouldest not let Israel go when they came out of the land of Egypt, (for they turned from them, and destroyed them not,) 11 behold, they reward us, in coming to cast us out of thy possession, which thou hast given us to pos-12 sess. Our God, wilt thou not judge them? for we have no might in presence of this great company which cometh against us, neither know we what to do; but 13 our eyes are upon thee! And all Judah stood before Jehovah, with their little ones, their wives, and their sons.
14 And upon Jahaziel the son of Zechariah, the son of Benaiah, the son of Jeiel, the son of Mattaniah, a Levite of the sons of Asaph, upon him came the spirit of Jehovah, in 15 the midst of the congregation; and he said, Be attentive, all Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem, and thou king Jehoshaphat. Thus saith Jehovah unto you: Fear not, nor be dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's.
16 To-morrow go down against them: behold, they come up by the ascent of Ziz; and ye shall find them at the end of the valley, before the wilderness of Jeruel.
17 Ye shall not have to fight on this occasion: set yourselves, stand and see the salvation of Jehovah [who is] with you. Judah and Jerusalem, fear not nor be dismayed; to-morrow go out against them, and Jehovah will be with 18 you. And Jehoshaphat bowed his head with his face to the ground; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem fell down before Je-19 hovah, worshipping Jehovah. And the Levites, of the sons of the Kohathites, and of the sons of the Korahites, stood up to praise Jehovah the God of Israel with an exceeding loud voice.
20 And they rose early in the morning, and went forth towards the wilderness of Tekoa; and as they went forth, Jehoshaphat stood and said, Hear me, Judah, and ye inhabitants of Jerusalem! Believe in Jehovah your God, and ye shall be established; believe his pro-21 phets, and ye shall prosper. And he consulted with the people, and appointed singers to Jehovah, and those that should praise in holy splendour, as they went forth before the armed men, and say, Give thanks to Jehovah; for his loving-22 kindness [endureth] for ever. And when they began the song of triumph and praise, Jehovah set liers-in-wait against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, who had come against Judah, and 23 they were smitten. And the children of Ammon and Moab stood up against the inhabitants of mount Seir, to exterminate and destroy [them]; and when they had made an end of the inhabitants of Seir, they helped to destroy one another.

24 And Judah came on to the mountain-watch[j] in the wilderness, and they looked toward the multitude, and behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and 25 none had escaped. And Jehoshaphat and his people came to plunder the spoil of them, and they found among them in abundance, both riches with the dead bodies, and precious things, and they stripped off for themselves more than they could carry away; and they were three days in plundering the spoil, it was so much.
26 And on the fourth day they assembled themselves in the valley of Berachah, for there they blessed Jehovah; therefore the name of that place was called The valley of 27 Berachah,[k] to this day. And they returned, all the men of Judah and Jerusalem, and Jehoshaphat at their head, to go again to Jerusalem with joy; for Jehovah had made them to rejoice over their 28 enemies. And they came to Jerusalem with lutes and harps and trumpets, to the house of Jehovah.
29 And the terror of God was on all the kingdoms of the lands, when they had heard that Jehovah fought against the enemies of 30 Israel. And the realm of Jehoshaphat was quiet; and his God gave him rest round about.
31 And Jehoshaphat reigned over Judah: he was thirty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-five years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Azubah, daughter of 32 Shilhi. And he walked in the way of Asa his father, and turned not aside from it, doing what was right 33 in the sight of Jehovah. Only, the high places were not removed; and as yet the people had not directed their hearts to the God of their fathers.
34 And the rest of the acts of Jehoshaphat, first and last, behold, they are written in the words[l] of Jehu the son of Hanani, which are inserted in the book of the kings of Israel.
35 And after this Jehoshaphat king of Judah joined himself with Ahaziah king of Israel, who did very 36 wickedly. And he joined himself with him to make ships to go to Tarshish; and they made the ships 37 in Ezion-geber. And Eliezer the son of Dodavah, of Mareshah, prophesied against Jehoshaphat, saying, Because thou hast joined thyself with Ahaziah, Jehovah has broken thy works. And the ships were broken, and could not go to Tarshish.

21 And Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David; and Jehoram his son reigned in 2 his stead. And he had brethren, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah: all these were sons of 3 Jehoshaphat king of Israel. And their father had given them great gifts of silver and of gold and of precious things, besides fortified cities in Judah; but the kingdom he gave to Jehoram, for he was the 4 firstborn. And Jehoram established himself over the kingdom of his father, and strengthened himself; and he slew all his brethren with the sword, and [certain] also of the princes of Israel.
5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; and 6 he reigned eight years in Jerusalem. And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did 7 evil in the sight of Jehovah. But Jehovah would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he had promised to give to him always a lamp, and to his sons.
8 In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and they 9 set a king over themselves. And Jehoram went over with his captains,[m] and all the chariots with him; and he rose up by night, and

[j] Or 'a lofty place' (Mizpah). [k] Meaning. 'Valley of promise, or, blessing.' [l] Or 'acts.' [m] Strictly, 'princes.'

smote the Edomites who had surrounded him, and the captains of 10 the chariots. But the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah unto this day. Then Libnah revolted at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken Jehovah the God of his fathers.
11 Moreover he made high places on the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled [n] Judah [thereto].
12 And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet saying, Thus saith Jehovah, the God of David thy father: Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the 13 ways of Asa king of Judah, but hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, like the fornications of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren, thy father's house who 14 were better than thyself: behold, Jehovah will smite with a great stroke [o] thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy 15 substance, and thyself with sore [p] sicknesses, with a disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.
16 And Jehovah stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, who 17 [are] near the Ethiopians; and they came up into Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was no son left him, except Jehoahaz [q]
18 the youngest of his sons. And after all this, Jehovah smote him in his bowels with an incurable 19 sickness. And it came to pass, from day to day, and at the time when the second year was drawing to a close, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died in cruel sufferings. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.
20 He was thirty-two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years, and departed without being regretted. [r] And they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchres of the kings.

22 And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead; for the band of men that came in the camp with the Arabians had slain all the elder ones. And Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah 2 reigned. Ahaziah was twenty-two [s] years old when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was 3 Athaliah, daughter of Omri. He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for his mother was his counsellor to do wickedly.
4 And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah like the house of Ahab; for they were his counsellors after the death of his father, to his de-5 struction. He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab, king of Israel, to the war against Hazael the king of Syria at Ramoth-Gilead; and the Syrians wounded 6 Joram. And he returned to be healed in Jizreel because of the wounds that were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah [t] the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jizreel; for he 7 was sick. But his coming to Joram was from God the complete ruin of Ahaziah. And when he had come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Jehovah had anointed 8 to cut off the house of Ahab. And it came to pass when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that attended upon Ahaziah, and he 9 slew them. And he sought Ahaziah; and they caught him (for he had hid himself in Samaria), and brought him to Jehu, and slew him; and they buried him, for they said, He is a son of Jehoshaphat, who sought Jehovah with all his heart. And in the house of Ahaziah there was no one who was able to [hold] the kingdom.
10 And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she rose up and exterminated all the royal seed of the house 11 of Judah. But Jehoshabeath the daughter of the king took Joash the son of Ahaziah and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bed-chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she did not slay him; 12 and he was with them hid in the house of God six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.

[n] Or 'seduced Judah.' [o] Or 'plague.' [p] Lit. 'many.' [q] Called 'Ahaziah,' chap. xxii. 1. [r] Lit. 'desired.' [s] Some MSS. have 'forty-two,' but see 2 Kings viii. 26. [t] Ahaziah.

23 And in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of the hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into 2 covenant with him. And they went about in Judah and gathered together the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief fathers of Israel; and they came 3 to Jerusalem. And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as Jehovah has 4 said of the sons of David. This is the thing which ye shall do: a third part of you that come in on the sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be keepers of 5 the doors; and a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation; and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of Jehovah.
6 But let none come into the house of Jehovah except the priests and those of the Levites that do the service; they shall go in, for they are holy; but all the people shall 7 keep the watch of Jehovah. And the Levites shall encompass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he that comes into the house shall be put to death; and ye shall be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.
8 And the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took every man his men, those that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go forth on the sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest did not liberate the 9 divisions. And Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of the hundreds king David's spears and shields and targets, which were in 10 the house of God. And he set all the people, every man with his javelin in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, toward the altar and the house, by the king round about.
11 And they brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and [gave him] the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, Long live the king!
12 And Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, and she came to the people into the house of Jehovah.
13 And she looked, and behold, the king stood on his dais at the entrance, and the princes and the trumpets were by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets; and the singers [were there] with the instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. And Athaliah rent her garments, and said, 14 Conspiracy! Conspiracy! And Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of the hundreds that were set over the host, and said to them, Lead her forth without the ranks; and whosoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword; for the priest said, Ye shall not put her to death in the house of Jehovah.
15 And they made way for her, and she went through the entrance of the horse-gate into the king's house, and they put her to death there.
16 And Jehoiada made a covenant between himself and all the people and the king, that they should 17 be the people of Jehovah. And all the people went into the house of Baal, and broke it down; and they broke his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.
18 And Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of Jehovah under the hand of the priests, the Levites, whom David had set by classes over the house of Jehovah to offer up Jehovah's burnt-offerings, as it is written in the law of Moses,—with rejoicing and with singing according to the directions of 19 David. And he set the doorkeepers at the gates of the house of Jehovah, that no one unclean in any-20 thing should enter in. And he took the captains of the hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of Jehovah, and they came through the upper gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the 21 kingdom. And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet; and they had slain Athaliah with the sword.

24 Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name 2 was Zibiah of Beer-sheba. And Joash did what was right in the sight of Jehovah all the days of 3 Jehoiada the priest. And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begot sons and daughters.
4 And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded to renew 5 the house of Jehovah. And he gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah and collect of all Israel money for the repair of the house of your God from year to year, and ye shall hasten the matter. But the Le-6 vites hastened it not. And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the tribute of Moses the servant of Jehovah [laid upon] the congregation of Israel, for the tent 7 of the testimony? For the wicked Athaliah [and] her sons had devastated the house of God; and also all the hallowed things of the house of Jehovah had they employed for the Baals.
8 And the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it at the gate of the house of Jehovah 9 without, and they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring to Jehovah the tribute of Moses the servant of God [laid upon] Israel in the wilder-10 ness. And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in and cast into the chest, until they had finished.
11 And it came to pass at the time the chest was brought for the king's control by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and high priest's officer came, and they emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in 12 abundance. And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of Jehovah, and they hired masons and carpenters to renew the house of Jehovah, and also such as wrought in iron and bronze, to repair the house of Jehovah.
13 So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in its 14 state, and strengthened it. And when they had finished, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada; and they made of it vessels for the house of Jehovah, utensils to minister, and with which to offer up, and cups, and utensils of gold and silver. And they offered up burnt-offerings in the house of Jehovah continually all the days of Jehoiada.
15 And Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; he was a hundred and thirty years old 16 when he died. And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both toward God and toward his house.
17 And after the death of Jehoiada the princes of Judah came and made obeisance to the king; then 18 the king hearkened to them. And they forsook the house of Jehovah the God of their fathers, and served the Asherahs and idols;[v] and wrath came upon Judah and Jeru-19 salem for this their trespass. And he sent prophets among them to bring them again to Jehovah, and they testified against them; but they would not give ear.
20 And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood up above the people and said unto them, Thus saith God: Wherefore do ye transgress the commandments of Jehovah? And ye cannot prosper; for ye have forsaken Jehovah, and he hath forsaken 21 you. And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the command of the king in the court of the house of Jehovah.
22 And king Joash remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, Jehovah see and require [it]!
23 And it came to pass at the end of the year [that] the army of Syria came up against him; and they entered into Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them to the king at Damascus.
24 Truly with a small company of men came the army of the Syrians, but Jehovah delivered a very great army into their hand, because they had forsaken Jehovah the God of their fathers; and they executed judgment upon Joash. And when they had departed from him (for they left him in great diseases), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the city of David, but they did not bury him in the sepulchres of the kings. And these are they that conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess. And as to his sons, and the greatness of the burdens[w] [laid] upon him, and the building[x] of the house of God, behold, they are written in the treatise of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

25 Amaziah was twenty-five years old [when] he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem. And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, yet not with a perfect heart. And it came to pass when the kingdom was established unto him, that he killed his servants who had smitten the king his father. But their children he did not put to death, but [did] according to that which is written in the law in the book of Moses, wherein Jehovah commanded saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, nor shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

And Amaziah gathered Judah together and arranged them according to the fathers' houses, according to the captains of thousands and the captains of hundreds, throughout Judah and Benjamin; and he numbered them from twenty years old and upwards, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able for military service, that could handle spear and target. He hired also a hundred thousand mighty men of valour out of Israel for a hundred talents of silver. But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the host of Israel go with thee; for Jehovah is not with Israel, [with] all the children of Ephraim. But if thou wilt go, do [it]; be strong for the battle: God will make thee fall before the enemy, for there is with God power to help and to cast down. And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what is to be done for the hundred talents which I have given to the troop of Israel? And the man of God said, Jehovah is able to give thee much more than this. Then Amaziah separated them,—the troop that was come to him out of Ephraim,—to go home again. And their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger.

But Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand. And the children of Judah took ten thousand captive, alive, and brought them to the top of the cliff, and cast them down from the top of the cliff, so that they all were broken in pieces. But those[y] of the troop that Amaziah had sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah from Samaria as far as Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

And it came to pass after Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed himself down before them, and burned incense to them. And the anger of Jehovah was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, Why dost thou seek after the gods of a people who have not delivered their own people out of thy hand? And it came to pass as he talked with him, that [Amaziah] said to him, Hast thou been made the king's counsellor? Forbear; why shouldest thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God has determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened to my counsel.

And Amaziah king of Judah took counsel, and sent to Joash the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face. And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thorn-bush that is in Lebanon sent to the cedar that is in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son as wife; and there passed by the wild beast that is in Lebanon, and trode down the thorn-bush. Thou thinkest, Lo, thou hast smitten Edom; and thy heart has lifted thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldest thou contend with misfortune, that thou shouldest fall, 20 thou and Judah with thee? But Amaziah would not hear; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into [the enemy's] hand, because they had sought after the 21 gods of Edom. And Joash king of Israel went up; and they looked one another in the face, he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which is in Judah. 22 And Judah was routed before Israel; and they fled every man to 23 his tent. And Joash king of Israel took Amaziah king of Judah, the son of Joash the son of Jehoahaz, at Beth-shemesh, and brought him to Jerusalem, and he broke down the wall of Jerusalem from the gate of Ephraim to the corner gate, 24 four hundred cubits. And he [took] all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-Edom, and the treasures of the king's house, and hostages, and returned to Samaria.

25 And Amaziah the son of Joash, king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash son of Jehoahaz, 26 king of Israel, fifteen years. And the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of 27 Judah and Israel? And from the time that Amaziah turned aside from following Jehovah, they made a conspiracy against him in Jerusalem; and he fled to Lachish; and they sent after him to 28 Lachish, and slew him there. And they brought him on horses, and buried him with his fathers in the city of Judah.

26 And all the people of Judah took Uzziah, who was sixteen years old, and made him king instead of his father Amaziah. 2 It was he that built Eloth,[z] and restored it to Judah, after the king 3 slept with his fathers. Uzziah was sixteen years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-two years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jecholiah of 4 Jerusalem. And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father 5 Amaziah had done. And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God, and in the days that he sought Jehovah, God 6 made him to prosper. And he went forth and fought against the Philistines, and broke down the wall of Gath, and the wall of Jabneh, and the wall of Ashdod, and built cities about Ashdod, and 7 among the Philistines. And God helped him against the Philistines, and against the Arabians that dwelt in Gur-Baal, and the Maon-8 ites. And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad to the entrance of Egypt; for he became exceeding 9 strong. And Uzziah built towers in Jerusalem at the corner gate, and at the valley gate, and at the 10 angle, and fortified them. And he built towers in the desert and digged many cisterns; for he had much cattle, both in the lowland[a] and on the plateau, husbandmen [also] and vinedressers on the mountains and in Carmel; for he 11 loved husbandry. And Uzziah had an army of fighting men, that went out to war by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler,[b] under the hand of Hananiah, one of the 12 king's captains. The whole number of the chief fathers of the mighty men of valour was two 13 thousand six hundred. And under their hand was an army-host of three hundred and seven thousand five hundred, that made war with mighty power to help the king 14 against the enemy. And Uzziah prepared for them, throughout the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, 15 and even slinging-stones. And he made in Jerusalem machines invented by skilful men, to be upon the towers and upon the bulwarks, wherewith to shoot arrows and great stones. And his name spread far abroad; for he was marvellously helped, till he became strong.

16 But when he became strong his heart was lifted up to [his] downfall;[c] and he transgressed against Jehovah his God, and went into the temple of Jehovah to burn incense upon the altar of incense. 17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him priests of 18 Jehovah, eighty valiant men; and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said to him, It is not for thee, Uzziah, to burn incense to Jehovah, but for the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense. Go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast transgressed; neither shall it be for thine honour from Jehovah Elo-19 him. And Uzziah was wroth; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of Jehovah, 20 beside the incense altar. And Azariah the chief priest and all the priests looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; even he himself hasted to go out, because Jehovah had 21 smitten him. And Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and dwelt in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of Jehovah. And Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

22 And the rest of the acts of Uzziah, first and last, did the prophet 23 Isaiah the son of Amoz write. And Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the burial-ground of the kings, for they said, He is a leper. And Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

27 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerushah, daughter of Zadok.
2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that his father Uzziah had done; only he entered not into the temple of Jehovah. And the people still 3 acted corruptly.[d] It was he who built the upper gate of the house of Jehovah, and on the wall of 4 Ophel[e] he built much. And he built cities in the hill-country of Judah, and in the forests he built 5 castles and towers. And he fought against the king of the children of Ammon, and overcame them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures[f] of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. This the children of Ammon brought again to him also in the second year, and in the 6 third. And Jotham became strong, for he prepared[g] his ways before Jehovah his God.
7 And the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all his wars, and his ways, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and 8 Judah. He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jeru-9 salem. And Jotham slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Ahaz his son reigned in his stead.

28 Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And he did not what was right in the sight of Jehovah, like 2 David his father, but walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and even made molten images for 3 the Baals; and he burned incense[h] in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burned his sons in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed from before the children 4 of Israel. And he sacrificed and burned incense on the high places, and on the hills, and under every 5 green tree. Therefore Jehovah his God gave him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also given into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him 6 with a great slaughter. And Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, all valiant men, because they had forsaken Jehovah the God of their fathers.
7 And Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, slew Maasciah the king's son, and Azrikam the governor of the house, and Elkanah the second 8 to the king. And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took away also much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.
9 But a prophet of Jehovah was there, whose name was Oded; and he went out before the host that came to Samaria, and said unto them, Behold, because Jehovah the God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he gave them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reaches up to hea-10 ven. And now ye think to subjugate the children of Judah and Jerusalem as your bondmen and

[d] Or 'corrupted themselves.' [e] Portion of Jerusalem lying south-west of the temple mount. [f] Heb. 'cors.' [g] Or 'disposed.' [h] Or 'offered burnt-offerings.'

bondwomen. Are there not with you, even with you, trespasses 11 against Jehovah your God? And now hear me, and send back the captives again, whom ye have taken captive of your brethren; for the fierce wrath of Jehovah is 12 upon you. And certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Hezekiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that 13 came from the war, and said to them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither; because, for our guilt before Jehovah, ye think to increase our sins and our trespasses: for our trespass is great, and fierce wrath is upon Israel.
14 Then the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.
15 And the men that have been expressed by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them on asses, and brought them to Jericho the city of palm-trees, to their brethren. And they returned to Samaria.
16 At that time king Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him.
17 And again the Edomites came and smote Judah, and carried away 18 captives. And the Philistines invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the south of Judah, and took Beth-shemesh, and Ajalon, and Gederoth, and Socho and its dependent villages, and Timnah and its dependent villages, and Guimzo and its dependent vil-19 lages; and they dwelt there. For Jehovah humbled Judah because of Ahaz king of Israel, for he had made Judah lawless, and transgressed much against Jehovah.
20 And Tilgath-Pilneser king of Assyria came to him, and troubled him, and did not support him.
21 For Ahaz stripped[i] the house of Jehovah, and the house of the king and of the princes, and gave to the king of Assyria; but he was of no help to him.
22 And in the time of his trouble he transgressed yet more against 23 Jehovah, this king Ahaz. And he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which had smitten him; and he said, Since the gods of the kings of Syria help them, I will sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and 24 of all Israel. And Ahaz gathered the vessels of the house of God, and cut in pieces the vessels of the house of God, and closed the doors of the house of Jehovah, and he made for himself altars in 25 every corner of Jerusalem. And in every several city of Judah he made high places to burn incense to other gods, and provoked to anger Jehovah the God of his 26 fathers. And the rest of his acts, and all his ways, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Judah and 27 Israel. And Ahaz slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city, in Jerusalem; but they brought him not into the sepulchres of the kings of Israel. And Hezekiah his son reigned in his stead.

29 Hezekiah began to reign being twenty-five years old; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Abijah, daughter of Zechariah.
2 And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, according to all that David his father had done.
3 He, in the first year of his reign, in the first month, opened the doors of the house of Jehovah, and 4 repaired them. And he brought in the priests and the Levites, and gathered them into the open place
5 eastward; and he said to them, Hear me, ye Levites: hallow yourselves now, and hallow the house of Jehovah the God of your fathers, and carry forth the filthi-6 ness out of the sanctuary. For our fathers have transgressed, and done evil in the sight of Jehovah our God, and have forsaken him and turned away their faces from the habitation[k] of Jehovah, and 7 have turned their backs. Also they have shut up the doors of the porch, and put out the lamps, and have not burned incense nor offered up burnt-offerings in the sanctuary to the God of Israel.
8 Therefore the wrath of Jehovah has been upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he has delivered them to vexation,[l] to desolation, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.
9 And behold, our fathers have fallen by the sword, and our sons and our daughters and our wives 10 are in captivity for this. Now it is in my heart to make a covenant with Jehovah the God of Israel, that his fierce anger may turn 11 away from us. My sons, be not now negligent; for Jehovah has chosen you to stand before him, to do service unto him, and to be his ministers and incense-burners.[m] of Merari, Kish the son of Abdi and Azariah the son of Jehallelel; and of the Gershonites, Joah the son of Zimmah and Eden the son 13 of Joah; and of the sons of Elizaphan, Shimri and Jeiel; and of the sons of Asaph, Zechariah and 14 Mattaniah; and of the sons of Heman, Jehiel and Shimei; and of the sons of Jeduthun, Shemaiah 15 and Uzziel. And they gathered their brethren, and hallowed themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king by the words of Jehovah, to cleanse 16 the house of Jehovah. And the priests went into the inner part of the house of Jehovah to cleanse it, and carried forth all the un-cleanness that they found in the temple of Jehovah, into the court of the house of Jehovah. And the Levites took it to carry it forth 17 into the brook Kidron. And they began on the first of the first month to hallow, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of Jehovah; and they hallowed the house of Jehovah eight days; and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.

18 And they went in to king Hezekiah, and said, We have cleansed all the house of Jehovah, and the altar of burnt-offering with all its vessels, and the table of the [bread] to be set in rows, and all its ves-19 sels; and all the vessels that king Ahaz in his reign cast away[n] in his transgression[o] have we prepared and hallowed, and behold, they are before the altar of Jehovah.
20 And Hezekiah the king arose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house 21 of Jehovah. And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats for a sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer[p] [them] upon the 22 altar of Jehovah. And they slaughtered the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar; and they slaughtered the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar; and they slaughtered the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the 23 altar. And they brought near the he-goats of the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon 24 them. And the priests slaughtered them, and they made purification for sin with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel; because for all Israel, said the king, is the burnt-offering 25 and the sin-offering. And he set the Levites in the house of Jehovah with cymbals, with lutes, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and of Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was of Jehovah through his pro-26 phets. And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the 27 priests with the trumpets. And Hezekiah commanded to offer up the burnt-offering on the altar.
And at the moment the burnt-offering began, the song of Jehovah began, and the trumpets, accompanied by the[q] instruments of 28 David king of Israel. And all the congregation worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded, all [the time] until the 29 burnt-offering was finished. And when they had ended offering the burnt-offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed 30 themselves and worshipped. And king Hezekiah and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise to Jehovah with the words of David and of Asaph the seer.
And they sang praises with gladness, and bowed their heads and worshipped.
31 And Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves to Jehovah, come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the Lord. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart, burnt-offerings.
32 And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was seventy bullocks, a hundred rams, two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering 33 to Jehovah. And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and 34 three thousand sheep. Only the priests were too few, and they could not flay all the burnt-offerings; therefore their brethren the Levites helped them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had hallowed themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to hallow themselves than 35 the priests. And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and with the drink-offerings for the burnt-offering. And the service of the house of Jehovah was set in 36 order. And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people; for the thing was done suddenly.

30 And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of Jehovah at Jerusalem, to hold the passover to Jehovah 2 the God of Israel. And the king took counsel, and his princes, and the whole congregation in Jerusalem, to hold the passover in the 3 second month. For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not hallowed themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people been gathered to-4 gether to Jerusalem. And the thing pleased [r] the king and the 5 whole congregation. So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to hold the passover to Jehovah the God of Israel, at Jerusalem; because they had not held it for a long time as it was 6 written. And the couriers went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, return to Jehovah the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that are escaped out of the hand of the kings 7 of Assyria. And be not like your fathers and like your brethren, who transgressed against Jehovah the God of their fathers, so that he 8 gave them up to desolation, as ye see. Now, harden not your necks, as your fathers; yield yourselves [s] to Jehovah, and come to his sanctuary, which he has sanctified for ever; and serve Jehovah your God, that the fierceness of his anger may turn away from you.
9 For if ye return to Jehovah, your brethren and your children shall find compassion with those that have carried them captive, so that they shall come again unto this land; for Jehovah your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return to him.
10 And the couriers passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun; but they laughed them to scorn and mocked them.
11 Nevertheless certain of Asher and Manassch and of Zebulun humbled themselves and came to Jerusalem.
12 The hand of God was also upon Judah to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of 13 Jehovah. And there assembled at Jerusalem much people to hold the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great 14 congregation. And they rose up and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem; and they took away all the incense-altars, and cast them into the torrent Kidron.
15 And they slaughtered the passover on the fourteenth of the second month; and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and hallowed themselves; and they brought the burnt-offerings into 16 the house of Jehovah. And they stood in their place after their custom, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood [receiving it] 17 from the hand of the Levites. For there were many in the congregation that were not hallowed; therefore the Levites had the charge of the slaughtering of the passover-lambs for every one not clean, to hallow them unto Jeho-18 vah. For a multitude of the people, many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, and they ate the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them saying, Jehovah, who is good, forgive [t] 19 every one that has directed his heart to seek God, Jehovah the God of his fathers, although not according to the purification of 20 the sanctuary. And Jehovah hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

21 And the children of Israel, that were present at Jerusalem, held the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised Jehovah day by day, with the instruments of praise to Jehovah.
22 And Hezekiah spoke consolingly to all the Levites that had understanding in the good knowledge of Jehovah; and they ate the feast-offerings the seven days, sacrificing peace-offerings, and extolling Jehovah the God of their fathers.
23 And the whole congregation took counsel to observe other seven days; and they observed 24 the seven days with gladness. For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the congregation as heave-offering: a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of 25 priests hallowed themselves. And the whole congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came out of the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, 26 rejoiced. And there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, there had not been 27 the like in Jerusalem. And the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people; and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to His holy habitation, to the heavens.

31 And when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke the columns,[v] and hewed down the Asherahs, and demolished the high places and the altars in all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. And all the children of Israel returned every man to his possession, into their cities.

2 And Hezekiah appointed the divisions of the priests, and the Levites after their divisions, every man according to his service, as well the priests as the Levites, for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to serve and to give thanks and to praise in the gates 3 of the courts[w] of Jehovah. And [he ordered] that the king's portion [should be taken] from his substance for the burnt-offerings: for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, for the burnt-offerings of the sabbaths, and of the new 4 moons, and of the set feasts, as it is written in the law of Jehovah. And he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of Jehovah.
5 And as soon as the commandment was published, the children of Israel gave in abundance the firstfruits of corn, new wine and oil and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and they brought in abundantly the tithe of all [things].
6 And the children of Israel and of Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated to Jehovah their God, 7 and laid them by heaps. In the third month they began to lay the heaps, and finished them in the 8 seventh month. And Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, and they blessed Jehovah, 9 and his people Israel. And Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.
10 And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok spoke to him and said, Since they began to bring the heave-offerings into the house of Jehovah, we have eaten and been satisfied and have left plenty; for Jehovah has blessed his people; and what is left is this great store.
11 And Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of Jehovah; and they prepared 12 [them], and brought in the heave-offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully; and over these Cononiah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother 13 was second. And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Jismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah were overseers under the hand of Cononiah and Shimei his brother, at the command of Hezekiah the king and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.
14 And Kore the son of Jimnah the Levite, the doorkeeper toward the east, was over the voluntary-offerings of God, to distribute the heave-offerings of Jehovah, and 15 the most holy things. And under him were Eden and Miniamin and Jeshua and Shemaiah, Amariah and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in [their] set trust,[x] to make distributions[y] to their brethren by [their] divisions, to the 16 great as to the small, besides those from three years old and upward who as males were entered in the genealogical register,—all that came into the house of Jehovah, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their charges, according to their divi-17 sions,—both to the priests enregistered according to their fathers' houses, and to the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges, by their divisions, 18 and to all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, the whole congregation of those entered in the register; for in their trust[z] they hallowed 19 themselves to be holy.[a] And for the sons of Aaron the priests who were in the country, in the suburbs of their cities, there were, in every several city, men expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all the Levites that were entered in the register.

20 And thus did Hezekiah throughout Judah, and wrought what was good and right and true before 21 Jehovah his God. And in every work that he undertook in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart and prospered.

32 After these things and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought to 2 break into them. And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was minded 3 to fight against Jerusalem, he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the fountains of waters that were outside the 4 city; and they helped him. And there was gathered together much people, and they stopped all the fountains, and the torrent that flows through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come and find 5 much water? And he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised it up to the towers, and [built] another wall outside, and fortified the Millo[b] of the city of David, and made darts and shields
6 in abundance. And he set captains of war over the people, and assembled them to him on the open place at the gate of the city, and spoke consolingly to them
7 saying, Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him; for there are more with us than with 8 him: with him is an arm of flesh, but with us is Jehovah our God to help us and to fight our battles. And the people depended upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this, Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem (but he himself was before Lachish, and all his power with him), unto Hezekiah king of Judah, and unto all Judah that were at 10 Jerusalem, saying, Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria: On what do ye rely that ye abide in 11 the siege in Jerusalem? Does not Hezekiah persuade you, to give yourselves over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Jehovah our God will deliver us out of the hand 12 of the king of Assyria? Has not the same Hezekiah removed his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon 13 it? Do ye not know what I and my fathers[c] have done to all the peoples of the countries? Were the gods of the nations of the countries in any wise able to deliver their country out of my 14 hand? Who is there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers have utterly destroyed, that was able to deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out 15 of my hand? And now, let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this manner, neither yet believe him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, nor out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand?

16 And his servants spoke yet more against Jehovah, the [true] God, and against his servant

17 Hezekiah. And he wrote a letter[d] to rail at Jehovah the God of Israel, and to speak against him saying, As the gods of the nations of the countries have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of my hand.
18 And they cried with a loud voice in the Jewish [language] to the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to frighten them and to trouble them; that they might 19 take the city. And they spoke of the God of Jerusalem as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, 20 the work of man's hand. And because of this, king Hezekiah and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz prayed and cried to heaven.
21 And Jehovah sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valour, and the princes and the captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. And he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he was come into the house of his god, they that came forth of his own bowels made him 22 fall there with the sword. And Jehovah saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all, and protected them on every side.
23 And many brought gifts unto Jehovah to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; and he was thenceforth magnified in the sight of all the nations.
24 In those days Hezekiah was sick unto death, and he prayed to Jehovah; and he spoke to him 25 and gave him a sign. But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit [done] to him, for his heart was lifted up; and there was wrath upon him, and upon 26 Judah and Jerusalem. And Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Jehovah came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.
27 And Hezekiah had very much riches and honour; and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant vessels; 28 storehouses also for the increase of corn and new wine and oil, and stalls for all manner of beasts, and [he procured] flocks for the stalls.
29 And he provided[e] for himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God gave 30 him very much substance. And he, Hezekiah, stopped the upper outlet of the waters of Gihon, and brought it straight down[f] to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his 31 works. However in [the matter of] the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all [that was] in his heart.
32 And the rest of the acts of Hezekiah and his good deeds,[g] behold, they are written in the vision of the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz in the book of the kings of 33 Judah and Israel. And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the highest place of the sepulchres of the sons of David; and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

33 Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in 2 Jerusalem. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, like the abominations of the nations that Jehovah had dispossessed from before the 3 children of Israel. And he built again the high places that Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he reared up altars to the Baals, and made Asherahs, and worshipped all the host of heaven 4 and served them. And he built altars in the house of Jehovah, of which Jehovah had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.
5 And he built altars to all the host of heaven in both courts of the 6 house of Jehovah. He also caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; and he used magic and divination and sorcery, and appointed necromancers and soothsayers: he wrought evil beyond measure in the sight of Jehovah, 7 to provoke him to anger. And he set the graven image of the idol that he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name 8 for ever; neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from out of the land that I have appointed to your fathers; if they will only take heed to do all that I commanded them through Moses, according to all the law and the 9 statutes and the ordinances. And Manasseh led Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem astray, to do more evil than the nations that Jehovah had destroyed from before the children of Israel.

10 And Jehovah spoke to Manasseh and to his people; but they did 11 not hearken. And Jehovah brought upon them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh with fetters, and bound him with chains of [h] brass, and carried him to Babylon.
12 And when he was in affliction, he besought Jehovah his God, and humbled himself greatly before 13 the God of his fathers, and prayed to him. And he was intreated of him and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Jehovah, he was God.
14 And after this he built the outer wall of the city of David, on the west, toward Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance of the fish-gate, and carried it round Ophel, and raised it up a very great height; and he put captains of war in all the fortified cities of 15 Judah. And he removed the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of Jehovah, and all the altars that he had built on the mount of the house of Jehovah and in Jerusalem, and cast [them] 16 out of the city. And he reinstated the altar of Jehovah, and sacrificed on it peace-offerings and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to serve Jehovah the God of Israel.
17 Nevertheless, the people sacrificed still on the high places, although to Jehovah their God only.
18 And the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers that spoke to him in the name of Jehovah the God of Israel, behold, they [are written] in the acts of 19 the kings of Israel. And his prayer, and [how God] was intreated of him, and all his sin and his unfaithfulness, and the places in which he built high places, and set up Asherahs and graven images, before he was humbled, behold, they are written among the words 20 of Hozai.[i] And Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house; and Amon his son reigned in his stead.
21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.
22 And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah, as Manasseh his father had done; and Amon sacrificed to all the graven images that Manasseh his father had made, and served 23 them. And he did not humble himself before Jehovah, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; for he, Amon, multiplied 24 trespass. And his servants conspired against him, and slew him 25 in his own house. But the people of the land smote all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

34 Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in 2 Jerusalem. And he did what was right in the sight of Jehovah, and walked in the ways of David his father, and turned not aside to the right hand nor to the left.
3 And in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherahs, and the graven images, and the molten 4 images. And they broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence; and the sun-pillars that were on high above them he cut down; and the Asherahs and the graven images and the molten images he broke in pieces, and made dust [of them] and strewed it upon the graves of those that had sacrificed 5 to them; and he burned the bones of the priests upon their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem.
6 And [so did he] in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, in their 7 ruins round about; and he broke down the altars, and beat the Asherahs and the graven images into powder, and cut down all the sun-pillars throughout the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.
8 And in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the chronicler, to repair the house of Jehovah his

9 God. And they came to Hilkijah the high priest, and they delivered [to them] the money that had been brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the 10 inhabitants of Jerusalem.[k] And they gave [it] into the hand of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of Jehovah; and they gave it to the workmen who wrought in the house of Jehovah to reinstate and 11 repair the house: they gave [it] to the carpenters and the builders, to buy hewn stone, and timber for the joists,[l] and to floor the houses that the kings of Judah 12 had destroyed. And the men did the work faithfully. And over them were appointed Jahath and Obadiah, Levites, of the children of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the children of the Kohathites, for the oversight; and all these Levites were skilled in 13 instruments of music. They were also over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that worked in any manner of service. And of the Levites were the scribes, 14 and officers, and doorkeepers. And when they brought out the money that had been brought into the house of Jehovah, Hilkijah the priest found the book of the law 15 of Jehovah by Moses. Then Hilkijah spoke and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Jehovah. And Hilkijah gave the book to 16 Shaphan. And Shaphan carried the book to the king. And moreover he brought the king word again saying, All that was committed to the hand of thy servants, 17 they do; and they have emptied out the money that was found in the house of Jehovah, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the 18 workmen. And Shaphan the scribe informed the king saying, Hilkijah the priest has given me a book. And Shaphan read out of it before 19 the king. And it came to pass when the king heard the words of the law, that he rent his garments.
20 And the king commanded Hilkijah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's,
21 saying, Go, inquire of Jehovah for me, and for them that are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book which is found; for great is the wrath of Jehovah that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Jehovah, to do according to all that is written in 22 this book. And Hilkijah and they that the king [had appointed] went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokehath, son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe: now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the second quarter [of the town]; and they spoke with her to that effect.
23 And she said to them, Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel: Tell the man that sent you to me,
24 Thus saith Jehovah: Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof, all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before 25 the king of Judah. Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands, therefore my fury shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be 26 quenched. But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Jehovah, thus shall ye say to him: Thus saith Jehovah the God of Israel touching the words which 27 thou hast heard: Because thy heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou heardest his words against this place and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thyself before me, and didst rend thy garments and weep before me, I also have heard [thee], saith[m] 28 Jehovah. Behold, I will gather thee unto thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace; and thine eyes shall not see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants thereof. And they brought the king word again.
29 And the king sent and gathered all the elders of Judah and of 30 Jerusalem. And the king went up into the house of Jehovah, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests and the Levites, and all the people, great and small; and he read[n] in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which had been found in the house of 31 Jehovah. And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before Jehovah, to walk after Jehovah, and to keep his commandments and his testimonies and his statutes with all his heart and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that are 32 written in this book. And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand [to it]. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their 33 fathers. And Josiah removed all the abominations out of all the countries that belonged to the children of Israel, and made to serve all that were found in Israel, —to serve Jehovah their God: all his days they did not depart from following Jehovah, the God of their fathers.

35 And Josiah held a passover to Jehovah in Jerusalem; and they slaughtered the passover on the fourteenth of the first month.
2 And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of Jeho-3 vah. And he said to the Levites, that taught all Israel, [and] who were holy to Jehovah, Put the holy ark in the house that Solomon the son of David, king of Israel, built; ye have not to carry it upon your shoulders. Serve now Jehovah your God, and his people 4 Israel; and prepare yourselves by your fathers' houses, in your divisions, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his 5 son; and stand in the sanctuary for the classes of the fathers' houses, for your brethren, the children of the people, and [according] to[o] the divisions of the fathers'
6 houses of the Levites; and slaughter the passover, and hallow yourselves, and prepare it for your brethren, that they may do according to the word of Jehovah through 7 Moses. And Josiah gave for the children of the people a heave-offering of the flocks, lambs and goats, all for the passover-offerings, for all that were present,—to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these 8 were of the king's substance. And his princes gave a voluntary heave-offering for the people, for the priests, and for the Levites: Hilkijah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand six hundred [small cattle] and three hun-9 dred oxen; and Conaniah, and Shemaiah and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave as heave-offering to the Levites for the passover-offerings five thousand [small cattle] and five hundred oxen.
10 And the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their divisions, according to the king's command-11 ment. And they slaughtered the passover, and the priests sprinkled [the blood] from their hand, and 12 the Levites flayed them. And they set apart the burnt-offerings to give them to the classes of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to present them to Jehovah, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so [did they] 13 with the oxen. And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance; and the consecrated things they boiled in pots and in cauldrons and in pans, and divided them speedily among all 14 the children of the people. And afterwards they made ready for themselves and for the priests; because the priests, the sons of Aaron, [were engaged] in offering up the burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.
15 And the singers, the sons of Asaph, were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the door-keepers were at every gate; they had not to depart from their service, for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.
16 And all the service of Jehovah was prepared the same day, to hold the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings on the altar of Jehovah according to the com-17 mandment of king Josiah. And the children of Israel that were present held the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened 18 bread seven days. And there was no passover like to that holden in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel hold such a passover as Josiah held, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the 19 inhabitants of Jerusalem. In the eighteenth year of the reign of Josiah was this passover holden.

20 After all this, when Josiah had arranged the house, Necho king of Egypt came up to fight against Karkemish at the Euphrates; and 21 Josiah went out against him. And he sent messengers to him, saying, What have I to do with thee, thou king of Judah? I come not against thee this day, but against the house with which I have war;[p] and God has told me to make haste: keep aloof from God who is with 22 me, that he destroy thee not. But Josiah would not turn his face from him, but disguised himself, that he might fight against him; and he hearkened not to the words of Necho from the mouth of God; and he came to fight in the valley 23 of Megiddo. And the archers shot at king Josiah; and the king said to his servants, Have me away, 24 for I am sore wounded. And his servants took him out from the chariot, and put him in the second chariot that he had, and brought him to Jerusalem. And he died, and was buried in the sepulchres of his fathers. And all Judah and Jerusalem mourned for Josiah.
25 And Jeremiah lamented for Josiah; and all the singing men and singing women spoke of Josiah in their lamentations to this day; and they made them an ordinance for Israel. And behold, they are written in the lamentations.
26 And the rest of the acts of Josiah, and his good deeds,[q] according to that which is written 27 in the law of Jehovah, and his acts, first and last, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah.

36 And the people of the land took Jehoahaz the son of Josiah, and made him king in his father's 2 stead, in Jerusalem. Jehoahaz was twenty-three years old when he began to reign; and he reigned 3 three months in Jerusalem. And the king of Egypt put him down at Jerusalem, and imposed a fine upon the land of a hundred talents 4 of silver and a talent of gold. And the king of Egypt made Eliakim his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem, and changed his name to Jehoiakim. And Necho took Jehoahaz his brother, and carried him to Egypt.
5 Jehoiakim was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem; and he did evil in the sight 6 of Jehovah his God. Against him came up Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and bound him with chains of brass[r] to carry him to 7 Babylon. And Nebuchadnezzar carried [part] of the vessels of the house of Jehovah to Babylon, and put them in his temple at Babylon.
8 And the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and his abominations which he did, and that which was found in him, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel and Judah. And Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.
9 Jehoiachin was eighteen[s] years old when he began to reign; and he reigned three months and ten days in Jerusalem; and he did 10 evil in the sight of Jehovah. And at the turn of the year king Nebuchadnezzar sent and had him brought to Babylon, with the precious vessels of the house of Jehovah; and he made Zedekiah his brother king over Judah and Jerusalem.
11 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jeru-12 salem. And he did evil in the sight of Jehovah his God; he humbled not himself before the prophet Jeremiah speaking from 13 the mouth of Jehovah. And he also rebelled against king Nebuchadnezzar, who had made him take oath by God; and he stiffened his neck and hardened his heart from returning to Jehovah 14 the God of Israel. All the chiefs of the priests also, and the people, increased their transgressions,[t] according to all the abominations of the nations; and they defiled the house of Jehovah which he 15 had hallowed in Jerusalem. And Jehovah the God of their fathers sent to them by his messengers, rising up early and sending; because he had compassion on[v] his people and on his dwelling-place.
16 But they mocked at the messengers of God, and despised his words, and scoffed at his prophets, until the fury of Jehovah rose against his people, and there was no remedy.

17 And he brought up [against] them the king of the Chaldees, and slew their young men with the sword in the house of their sanctuary, and spared not young man nor maiden, old man nor him of hoary head: he gave [them] all 18 into his hand. And all the vessels of the house of God, great and small, and the treasures of the house of Jehovah, and the treasures of the king and of his princes, 19 he brought all to Babylon. And they burned the house of God, and broke down the wall of Jerusalem, and burned all the palaces thereof with fire, and all the precious vessels thereof were given up to 20 destruction. And them that had escaped from the sword he carried away to Babylon; and they became servants to him and his sons, until the reign of the kingdom of 21 Persia; to fulfil the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah, until the land had enjoyed its sabbaths. All the days of its desolation it kept sabbath, to fulfil seventy years.
22 And in the first year of Cyrus[w] king of Persia, that the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, and he made a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also in writing, say-
23 ing, Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth has Jehovah the God of the heavens given to me, and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah. Whosoever there is among you of all his people, Jehovah his God be with him, and let him go up.

1 And in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, that the word of Jehovah by the mouth of Jeremiah might be accomplished, Jehovah stirred up the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia, and he made a proclamation throughout his kingdom, and also in writing, say-
2 ing, Thus says Cyrus king of Persia: All the kingdoms of the earth has Jehovah the God of the heavens given to me, and he has charged me to build him a house at Jerusalem, which is in Judah.
3 Whosoever there is among you of all his people, his God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of Jehovah the God of Israel—he is God—which is at 4 Jerusalem. And whosoever remains in any place where he sojourns, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, besides the voluntary offering for the house of God which is at Jerusalem.
5 And the chief fathers of Judah and Benjamin rose up, and the priests, and the Levites, even all those whose spirit God had stirred, to go up to build the house of Jehovah which is at Jerusalem.
6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with articles of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with precious things, besides all that 7 was willingly offered. And king Cyrus brought forth the vessels of the house of Jehovah, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem and had put in the 8 house of his god. And Cyrus king of Persia brought them forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, who counted them out to Sheshbazzar[a] the prince of Judah.
9 And this is the number of them: thirty chargers[b] of gold, a thousand chargers[b] of silver, nine-and-10 twenty knives, thirty basons[c] of gold, silver basons[c] of a second [sort] four hundred and ten, [and] 11 other vessels a thousand. All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand four hundred. The whole did Sheshbazzar bring up, when they of the captivity were brought up from Babylon to Jerusalem.

2 And these are the children of the province,[d] that went up out of the captivity of those that had

59 And these are they that went up from Tel-melah, Tel-harsha, Cherub-Addan, Immer; but they could not shew their fathers' house, nor their seed, whether they 60 were of Israel. The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobijah, the children of Nekoda, six hun-61 dred and fifty-two. And of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai; who took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was 62 called after their name. These sought their genealogical register, but they were not found; therefore were they, as polluted, re-63 moved from the priesthood. And the Tirshatha [k] said to them that they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim.

64 The whole congregation together was forty-two thousand 65 three hundred and sixty, besides their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred and thirty-seven; and they had two hundred singing 66 men and singing women. Their horses were seven hundred and thirty-six; their mules two hun-67 dred and forty-five; their camels four hundred and thirty-five; the asses six thousand seven hundred and twenty.

68 And some of the chief fathers, when they came to the house of Jehovah which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God 69 to set it up in its place. They gave after their ability to the treasure of the work sixty-one thousand darics of gold, and five thousand pounds [l] of silver, and one hundred priests' coats.

70 And the priests, and the Levites, and [some] of the people, and the singers, and the doorkeepers, and the Nethinim dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

3 And when the seventh month came, and the children of Israel were in the cities, the people gathered together as one man to 2 Jerusalem. Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and built the altar of the God of Israel, to offer up burnt-offerings on it, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God.

3 And they set the altar on its base; for fear was upon them because of the people of the countries; and they offered up burnt-offerings on it to Jehovah, the morning and evening burnt-offer-
4 ings. And they held the feast of tabernacles as it is written, and [offered] daily burnt-offerings by number, according to the ordinance, as the duty of every day
5 required; and afterwards the continual burnt-offering, and those of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of Jehovah that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a voluntary offer-6 ing to Jehovah. From the first day of the seventh month they began to offer up burnt-offerings to Jehovah. But the foundation of the temple of Jehovah was not 7 [yet] laid. And they gave money to the masons and to the carpenters; and meat and drink and oil to the Zidonians and to the Tyrians, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea at Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

8 And in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem; and they appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to superintend [m] the 9 work of the house of Jehovah. And Jeshua stood up, his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, [n] as one [man], to superintend the workmen in the house of God; [also] the sons of Henadad, their sons and their brethren, the Levites.

10 And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Jehovah, they set the priests in their apparel, with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph, with cymbals, to praise Jehovah according to the directions of David 11 king of Israel. And they sang alternately together in praising and giving thanks to Jehovah: For he is good, for his loving-kindness [endureth] for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout to the praise of Jehovah, because the foundation of the house of Jehovah was laid. 12 But many of the priests and Levites and chief fathers, the ancient men that had seen the first house, wept with a loud voice, [when] the foundation of this house was laid in their sight; and many shouted aloud 13 for joy. And the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a great shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

4 And the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building the temple to Jehovah 2 the God of Israel; and they came to Zerubbabel and to the chief fathers, and said to them, We would build with you; for we seek your God, as ye; and we have sacrificed to him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assyria, who 3 brought us up hither. But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the chief fathers of Israel said to them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house to our God, but we alone will build to Jehovah the God of Israel, as king Cyrus, the king of Persia, has commanded us. 4 And the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in 5 building; and they hired counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius [o] king of Persia. 6 And in the reign of Ahasuerus,[p] in the beginning of his reign, they wrote an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jeru- 7 salem. And in the days of Artaxerxes,[q] Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of his companions, wrote to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in Aramaic, and 8 interpreted in Aramaic. [r] Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king after 9 this sort: Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the 10 Dehaites, the Elamites, and the rest of the peoples whom the great and noble Osnappar brought over and settled in the cities [s] of Samaria, and the rest [of the country] on this side the river,[t] and so 11 forth. This is the copy of the letter that they sent to him: To Artaxerxes the king: Thy servants the men on this side the 12 river, and so forth. Be it known to the king that the Jews who came up from thee unto us have come to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and they complete the walls and join up the foundations. 13 Be it known therefore unto the king, that, if this city be built and the walls be completed, they will not pay tribute, tax, and toll, and in the end it will bring damage to 14 the kings.[v] Now, since we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not right for us to see the king's injury, therefore have we sent and in- 15 formed the king; that search may be made in the book of the annals of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the annals and know that this city is a rebellious city, which has done damage to kings and provinces, and that they have raised sedition within the same of old time, for which cause this city 16 was destroyed. We inform the king that if this city be built and its walls be completed, by this means thou shalt have no portion on this side the river.
